John 17:5 And now, Father, let me have glory with you, even that glory which I had with you before the world was.

John 17:6 I have given knowledge of your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world: yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your words.

John 17:7 Now it is clear to them that whatever you have given to me comes from you:

John 17:8 Because I have given them the words which you gave to me; and they have taken them to heart, and have certain knowledge that I came from you, and they have faith that you sent me.

John 17:9 My prayer is for them: my prayer is not for the world, but for those whom you have given to me, because they are yours

John 17:10 (All mine are yours, and yours are mine) and I have glory in them.

John 17:11 And now I will be no longer in the world, but they are in the world and I come to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name which you have given to me, so that they may be one even as we are one.

John 17:12 While I was with them I kept them safe in your name which you have given to me: I took care of them and not one of them has come to destruction, but only the son of destruction, so that the Writings might come true.

John 17:13 And now I come to you; and these things I say in the world so that they may have my joy complete in them.

John 17:14 I have given your word to them; and they are hated by the world, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.

John 17:15 My prayer is not that you will take them out of the world, but that you will keep them from the Evil One.

John 17:16 They are not of the world any more than I am of the world.

John 17:17 Make them holy by the true word: your word is the true word.

John 17:18 Even as you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.

John 17:19 And for them I make myself holy, so that they may be made truly holy.

John 17:20 My prayer is not for them only, but for all who will have faith in me through their word;

John 17:21 May they all be one! Even as you, Father, are in me and I am in you, so let them be in us, so that all men may come to have faith that you sent me.

John 17:22 And the glory which you have given to me I have given to them, so that they may be one even as we are one;

John 17:23 I in them, and you in me, so that they may be made completely one, and so that it may become clear to all men that you have sent me and that they are loved by you as I am loved by you.

John 17:24 Father, it is my desire that these whom you have given to me may be by my side where I am, so that they may see my glory which you have given to me, because you had love for me before the world came into being.

John 17:25 Father of righteousness, I have knowledge of you, though the world has not; and to these it is clear that you sent me;

John 17:26 And I have given to them knowledge of your name, and will give it, so that the love which you have for me may be in them and I in them.

John 18:1 When Jesus had said these words he went out with his disciples over the stream Kedron to a garden, into which he went with his disciples.

John 18:2 And Judas, who was false to him, had knowledge of the place because Jesus went there frequently with his disciples.

John 18:3 So Judas, getting a band of armed men and police from the chief priests and Pharisees, went there with lights and with arms.

John 18:4 Then Jesus, having knowledge of everything which was coming on him, went forward and said to them, Who are you looking for?

John 18:5 Their answer was, Jesus the Nazarene. Jesus said, I am he. And Judas, who was false to him, was there at their side.

John 18:6 And when he said to them, I am he, they went back, falling to the earth.

John 18:7 So again he put the question to them, Who are you looking for? And they said, Jesus the Nazarene.

John 18:8 Jesus made answer, I have said that I am he; if you are looking for me, let these men go away.

John 18:9 (He said this so that his words might come true, I have kept safe all those whom you gave to me.)

John 18:10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, took it out and gave the high priest's servant a blow, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.

John 18:11 Then Jesus said to Peter, Put back your sword: am I not to take the cup which my Father has given to me?

John 18:12 Then the band and the chief captain and the police took Jesus and put cords round him.

John 18:13 They took him first to Annas, because Annas was the father-in-law of Caiaphas who was the high priest that year.

John 18:14 It was Caiaphas who had said to the Jews that it was in their interest for one man to be put to death for the people.

John 18:15 And Simon Peter went after Jesus with another disciple. Now that disciple was a friend of the high priest and he went in with Jesus into the house of the high priest;

John 18:16 But Peter was kept outside at the door. Then this other disciple, who was a friend of the high priest, came out and had a word with the girl who kept the door, and took Peter in.

John 18:17 Then the girl who was the door-keeper said to Peter, Are you not one of this man's disciples? In answer he said, I am not.

John 18:18 Now the servants and the police had made a fire of coals because it was cold; they were warming themselves in front of it and Peter was there with them, warming himself.

John 18:19 Then the high priest put questions to Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.

John 18:20 Jesus made answer, I said things openly to the world at all times; I have given my teaching in the Synagogues and in the Temple to which all the Jews come; and I have said nothing secretly.

John 18:21 Why are you questioning me? put questions to my hearers about what I have said to them: they have knowledge of what I said.

John 18:22 When he said this, one of the police by his side gave him a blow with his open hand, saying, Do you give such an answer to the high priest?

John 18:23 Jesus said in answer, If I have said anything evil, give witness to the evil: but if I said what is true, why do you give me blows?

John 18:24 Then Annas sent him chained to Caiaphas, the high priest.

John 18:25 But Simon Peter was still there warming himself by the fire. They said to him, Are you not one of his disciples? He said, No, I am not.

John 18:26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relation of him whose ear had been cut off by Peter, said, Did I not see you with him in the garden?

John 18:27 Then again Peter said, No. And straight away a cock gave its cry.

John 18:28 So they took Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was early. They themselves did not go into the Praetorium, so that they might not become unclean, but might take the Passover.

John 18:29 So Pilate came out to them and put the question: What have you to say against this man?

John 18:30 They said to him in answer, If the man was not a wrongdoer we would not have given him up to you.

John 18:31 Then Pilate said to them, Take him yourselves and let him be judged by your law. But the Jews said to him, We have no right to put any man to death.

John 18:32 (That the word of Jesus might come true, pointing to the sort of death he would have.)

John 18:33 Then Pilate went back into the Praetorium and sent for Jesus and said to him, Are you the King of the Jews?

John 18:34 Jesus made answer, Do you say this of yourself, or did others say it about me?

John 18:35 Pilate said, Am I a Jew? Your nation and the chief priests have given you into my hands: what have you done?

John 18:36 Jesus said in answer, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom was of this world, my disciples would have made a good fight to keep me out of the hands of the Jews: but my kingdom is not here.

John 18:37 Then Pilate said to him, Are you then a king? Jesus made answer, You say that I am a king. For this purpose was I given birth, and for this purpose I came into the world, that I might give witness to what is true. Every lover of what is true gives ear to my voice.

John 18:38 Pilate said to him, True? what is true? Having said this he went out again to the Jews and said to them, I see no wrong in him.

John 18:39 But every year you make a request to me to let a prisoner go free at the Passover. Is it your desire that I let the King of the Jews go free?

John 18:40 Then again they gave a loud cry, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was an outlaw.

John 19:1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped with cords.

John 19:2 And the men of the army made a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him.

John 19:3 And they kept coming and saying, Long life to the King of the Jews! And they gave him blows with their hands.

John 19:4 And Pilate went out again and said to them, See, I let him come out to you to make it clear to you that I see no wrong in him.

John 19:5 Then Jesus came out with the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Here is the man!

John 19:6 So when the chief priests and the police saw him they gave a loud cry, To the cross! to the cross! Pilate said to them, Take him yourselves and put him on the cross: I see no crime in him.

John 19:7 And the Jews made answer, We have a law, and by that law it is right for him to be put to death because he said he was the Son of God.

John 19:8 When this saying came to Pilate’s ears his fear became greater;

John 19:9 And he went again into the Praetorium and said to Jesus, Where do you come from? But Jesus gave him no answer.

John 19:10 Then Pilate said to him, You say nothing to me? is it not clear to you that I have power to let you go free and power to put you to death on the cross?

John 19:11 Jesus gave this answer: You would have no power at all over me if it was not given to you by God; so that he who gave me up to you has the greater sin.

John 19:12 Hearing this, Pilate had a desire to let him go free, but the Jews said in a loud voice, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar’s friend: everyone who makes himself a king goes against Caesar.

John 19:13 So when these words came to Pilate’s ear, he took Jesus out, seating himself in the judge’s seat in a place named in Hebrew, Gabbatha, or the Stone Floor.

John 19:14 (It was the day when they made ready for the Passover; and it was about the sixth hour.) And he said to the Jews, There is your King!

John 19:15 Then they gave a loud cry, Away with him! away with him! to the cross! Pilate said to them, Am I to put your King to death on the cross? The chief priests said in answer, We have no king but Caesar.

John 19:16 So then he gave him up to them to be put to death on the cross. And they took Jesus away;

John 19:17 And he went out with his cross on him to the place which is named Dead Man's Head (in Hebrew, Golgotha):

John 19:18 Where they put him on the cross with two others, one on this side and one on that, and Jesus in the middle.

John 19:19 And Pilate put on the cross a statement in writing. The writing was: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.

John 19:20 The writing was seen by a number of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was put to death on the cross was near the town; and the writing was in Hebrew and Latin and Greek.

John 19:21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not put, The King of the Jews, but, He said, I am the King of the Jews.

John 19:22 But Pilate made answer, What I have put in writing will not be changed.

John 19:23 And when Jesus was nailed to the cross, the men of the army took his clothing, and made a division of it into four parts, to every man a part, and they took his coat: now the coat was without a join, made out of one bit of cloth.

John 19:24 So they said among themselves, Let this not be cut up, but let us put it to the decision of chance and see who gets it. (They did this so that the Writings might come true, which say, They made a distribution of my clothing among them, and my coat they put to the decision of chance.) This was what the men of the army did.

John 19:25 Now by the side of the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother's sister Mary, the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene.

John 19:26 So when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple who was dear to him, he said to his mother, Mother, there is your son!

John 19:27 Then he said to the disciple, There is your mother! And from that hour the disciple took her to his house.

John 19:28 After this, being conscious that all things had now been done so that the Writings might come true, Jesus said, Give me water.

John 19:29 Now there was a vessel ready, full of bitter wine, and they put a sponge full of it on a stick and put it to his mouth.

John 19:30 So when Jesus had taken the wine he said, All is done. And with his head bent he gave up his spirit.

John 19:31 Now it was the day of getting ready for the Passover, and so that the bodies might not be on the cross on the Sabbath (because the day of that Sabbath was a great day), the Jews made a request to Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

John 19:32 So the men of the army came, and the legs of the first were broken and then of the other who was put to death on the cross with Jesus:

John 19:33 But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was dead by this time, and so his legs were not broken;

John 19:34 But one of the men made a wound in his side with a spear, and straight away there came out blood and water.

John 19:35 And he who saw it has given witness (and his witness is true; he is certain that what he says is true) so that you may have belief.

John 19:36 These things came about so that the Writings might be true, No bone of his body will be broken.

John 19:37 And again another verse says, They will see him who was wounded by their spears.

John 19:38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, made a request to Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate said he might do so. So he went and took away his body.

John 19:39 And Nicodemus came (he who had first come to Jesus by night) with a roll of myrrh and aloes mixed, about a hundred pounds.

John 19:40 Then they took the body of Jesus, folding linen about it with the spices, as is the way of the Jews when they put the dead to rest.

John 19:41 Now there was a garden near the cross, and in the garden a new place for the dead in which no man had ever been put.

John 19:42 So they put Jesus there, because it was the Jews' day of getting ready for the Passover, and the place was near.

John 20:1 Now on the first day of the week, very early, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the place and saw that the stone had been taken away from it.

John 20:2 Then she went running to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple who was loved by Jesus, and said to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the place of the dead and we have no knowledge where they have put him.

John 20:3 So Peter and the other disciple went out to the place of the dead.

John 20:4 They went running together, and the other disciple got in front of Peter and came first to the hole in the rock;

John 20:5 And looking in, he saw the linen bands on the earth; but he did not go in, John 20:6 Then Simon Peter came after him and went into the hole in the rock; and he saw the linen bands on the earth,

John 20:7 And the cloth, which had been round his head, not with the linen bands but rolled up in a place by itself.

John 20:8 Then the other disciple who came there first went in; and he saw and belief came to him.

John 20:9 For at that time they had no knowledge that the Writings said that he would have to come again from the dead.

John 20:10 So then the disciples went away again to their houses.

John 20:11 But Mary was still there outside the hole in the rock, weeping; and while she was weeping and looking into the hole,

John 20:12 She saw two angels in white seated where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head and the other at the feet.

John 20:13 They said to her, Woman, why are you weeping? She said to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I have no knowledge where they have put him.

John 20:14 And then looking round, she saw Jesus there, but had no idea that it was Jesus.

John 20:15 Jesus said to her, Woman, why are you weeping? who are you looking for? She, taking him for the gardener, said to him, Sir, if you have taken him away from here, say where you have put him and I will take him away.

John 20:16 Jesus said to her, Mary! Turning, she said to him in Hebrew, Rabboni! (which is to say, Master).

John 20:17 Jesus said to her, Do not put your hand on me, for I have not gone up to the Father: but go to my brothers and say to them, I go up to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.

John 20:18 Mary Magdalene went with the news to the disciples, and said she had seen the Lord and that he had said these things to her.

John 20:19 At evening on that day, the first day of the week, when, for fear of the Jews, the doors were shut where the disciples were, Jesus came among them and said to them, May peace be with you!

John 20:20 And when he had said this, he let them see his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.

John 20:21 And Jesus said to them again, May peace be with you! As the Father sent me, even so I now send you.

John 20:22 And when he had said this, breathing on them, he said to them, Let the Holy Spirit come on you:

John 20:23 Any to whom you give forgiveness, will be made free from their sins; and any from whom you keep back forgiveness, will still be in their sins.

John 20:24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, named Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.

John 20:25 So the other disciples said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, If I do not see in his hands the print of the nails and put my finger into the print of the nails, and if I do not put my hand into his side, I will never have belief.

John 20:26 And after eight days, his disciples were again in the house and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were shut, Jesus came, and taking his place in the middle of them, he said, May peace be with you!

John 20:27 Then he said to Thomas, Put out your finger, and see my hands; and put your hand here into my side: and be no longer in doubt but have belief.

John 20:28 And Thomas said in answer, My Lord and my God!

John 20:29 Jesus said to him, Because you have seen me you have belief: a blessing will be on those who have belief though they have not seen me!

John 20:30 A number of other signs Jesus did before his disciples which are not recorded in this book:

John 20:31 But these are recorded, so that you may have faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and so that, having this faith you may have life in his name.

John 21:1 After these things Jesus let himself be seen again by the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and it came about in this way.

John 21:2 Simon Peter, Thomas named Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were all together.

John 21:3 Simon Peter said to them, I am going fishing. They said to him, And we will come with you. They went out and got into the boat; but that night they took no fish.

John 21:4 Now very early in the morning Jesus was there by the edge of the sea (though the disciples were not conscious that it was Jesus).

John 21:5 So Jesus said to them, Children, have you taken any fish? They made answer, No.

John 21:6 And he said to them, Let down the net on the right side of the boat and you will get some. So they put it in the water and now they were not able to get it up again because of the great number of fish.

John 21:7 So the disciple who was dear to Jesus said to Peter, It is the Lord! Hearing that it was the Lord, Peter put his coat round him (because he was not clothed) and went into the sea.

John 21:8 And the other disciples came in the little boat (they were not far from land, only about two hundred cubits off) pulling the net full of fish.

John 21:9 When they got to land, they saw a fire of coals there, with fish cooking on it, and bread.

John 21:10 Jesus said to them, Get some of the fish which you have now taken.

John 21:11 So Peter went to the boat and came back pulling the net to land, full of great fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and though there was such a number the net was not broken.

John 21:12 Jesus said to them, Come and take some food. And all the disciples were in fear of putting the question, Who are you? being conscious that it was the Lord.

John 21:13 Then Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and the fish in the same way.

John 21:14 Now this was the third time that Jesus let himself be seen by the disciples after he had come back from the dead.

John 21:15 Then when they had taken food, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, is your love for me greater than the love of these others? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you are certain of my love for you. He said to him, Then give my lambs food.

John 21:16 Again, a second time, he said to him, Simon, son of John, have you any love for me? Yes, Lord, he said, you are certain of my love for you. Then take care of my sheep, said Jesus.

John 21:17 He said to him a third time, Simon, son of John, am I dear to you? Now Peter was troubled in his heart because he put the question a third time, Am I dear to you? And he said to him, Lord, you have knowledge of all things; you see that you are dear to me. Jesus said to him, Then give my sheep food.

John 21:18 Truly I say to you, When you were young, you made yourself ready and went wherever you had a desire to go: but when you are old, you will put out your hands and another will make you ready, and you will be taken where you have no desire to go.

John 21:19 Now this he said, pointing out the sort of death by which he would give God glory. And after saying this, he said to him, Come after me.

John 21:20 Then Peter, turning round, saw the disciple who was dear to Jesus coming after them—the disciple who was resting on his breast at the last meal, and said, Lord, who is it who will be false to you?

John 21:21 Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, What about this man?

John 21:22 Jesus said to him, If it is my desire for him to be here till I come back, what is that to you? come yourself after me.

John 21:23 So this saying went about among the brothers that this disciple would not undergo death: Jesus, however, did not say that he would not undergo death, but, If it is my desire for him to be here till I come back, what is that to you?

John 21:24 This is the disciple who gives witness about these things and who put them in writing: and we have knowledge that his witness is true.

John 21:25 And Jesus did such a number of other things that, if every one was recorded, it is my opinion that even the world itself is not great enough for the books there would be.

Acts

1:1 I have given an earlier account, O Theophilus, of all the things which Jesus did, and of his teaching from the first,

Acts 1:2 Till the day when he was taken up to heaven after he had given his orders, through the Holy Spirit, to the Apostles of whom he had made selection:

Acts 1:3 And to whom he gave clear and certain signs that he was living, after his death; for he was seen by them for forty days, and gave them teaching about the kingdom of God:

Acts 1:4 And when they were all together, with him, he gave them orders not to go away from Jerusalem, but to keep there, waiting till the word of the Father was put into effect, of which, he said, I have given you knowledge:

Acts 1:5 For the baptism of John was with water, but you will have baptism with the Holy Spirit, after a little time.

Acts 1:6 So, when they were together, they said to him, Lord, will you at this time give back the kingdom to Israel?

Acts 1:7 And he said to them, It is not for you to have knowledge of the time and the order of events which the Father has kept in his control.

Acts 1:8 But you will have power, when the Holy Spirit has come on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.

Acts 1:9 And when he had said these things, while they were looking, he was taken up, and went from their view into a cloud.

Acts 1:10 And while they were looking up to heaven with great attention, two men came to them, in white clothing,

Acts 1:11 And said, O men of Galilee, why are you looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken from you into heaven, will come again, in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.

Acts 1:12 Then they went back to Jerusalem from the mountain named Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day’s journey away.

Acts 1:13 And when they came in, they went up into the room where they were living; Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James, the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas, the son of James.

Acts 1:14 And they all with one mind gave themselves up to prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.

Acts 1:15 And in those days Peter got up among the brothers (there were about one hundred and twenty of them), and said,

Acts 1:16 My brothers, the word of God had to be put into effect, which the Holy Spirit had said before, by the mouth of David, about Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus,

Acts 1:17 For he was numbered among us, and had his part in our work.

Acts 1:18 (Now this man, with the reward of his evil-doing, got for himself a field, and falling head first, came to a sudden and violent end there.

Acts 1:19 And this came to the knowledge of all those who were living in Jerusalem, so that the field was named in their language, Akel-dama, or, The field of blood.)

Acts 1:20 For in the book of Psalms it says, Let his house be waste, and let no man be living in it: and, Let his position be taken by another.

Acts 1:21 For this reason, of the men who have been with us all the time, while the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,

Acts 1:22 Starting from the baptism of John till he went up from us, one will have to be a witness with us of his coming back from death.

Acts 1:23 And they made selection of two, Joseph, named Barsabbas, whose other name was Justus, and Matthias.

Acts 1:24 And they made prayers and said, Lord, having knowledge of the hearts of all men, make clear which of these two has been marked out by you,

Acts 1:25 To take that position as a servant and Apostle, from which Judas by his sin was shut out, so that he might go to his place.

Acts 1:26 And they put it to the decision of chance, and the decision was given for Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.

Acts 2:1 And when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all together in one place.

Acts 2:2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like the rushing of a violent wind, and all the house where they were was full of it.

Acts 2:3 And they saw tongues, like flames of fire, coming to rest on every one of them.

Acts 2:4 And they were all full of the Holy Spirit, and were talking in different languages, as the Spirit gave them power.

Acts 2:5 Now there were living at Jerusalem, Jews, God-fearing men, from every nation under heaven.

Acts 2:6 And when this sound came to their ears, they all came together, and were greatly surprised because every man was hearing the words of the disciples in his special language.

Acts 2:7 And they were full of wonder and said, Are not all these men Galilaeans?

Acts 2:8 And how is it that every one of us is hearing their words in the language which was ours from our birth?

Acts 2:9 Men of Parthia, Media, and Elam, and those living in Mesopotamia, in Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia,

Acts 2:10 In Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and those who have come from Rome, Jews by birth and others who have become Jews,

Acts 2:11 Men of Crete and Arabia, to all of us they are talking in our different languages, of the great works of God.

Acts 2:12 And they were all surprised and in doubt saying to one another, What is the reason of this?

Acts 2:13 But others, making sport of them, said, They are full of new wine.

Acts 2:14 But Peter, getting up, with the eleven, said in a loud voice, O men of Judaea, and all you who are living in Jerusalem, take note of this and give ear to my words.

Acts 2:15 For these men are not overcome with wine, as it seems to you, for it is only the third hour of the day;

Acts 2:16 But this is the thing which was said by the prophet Joel;

Acts 2:17 And it will come about, in the last days, says God, that I will send out my Spirit on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will be prophets, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will have dreams:

Acts 2:18 And on my men-servants and my women-servants I will send my Spirit, and they will be prophets.

Acts 2:19 And wonders will be seen in heaven, and signs on the earth, blood and fire and smoke:

Acts 2:20 The sun will become dark and the moon will be turned to blood, before that great day of the Lord comes in glory:

Acts 2:21 And whoever makes his prayer to the Lord will have salvation.

Acts 2:22 Men of Israel, give ear to these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man who had the approval of God, as was made clear to you by the great works and signs and wonders which God did by him among you, as you yourselves have knowledge,

Acts 2:23 Him, when he was given up, by the decision and knowledge of God, you put to death on the cross, by the hands of evil men:

Acts 2:24 But God gave him back to life, having made him free from the pains of death because it was not possible for him to be overcome by it.

Acts 2:25 For David said of him, I saw the Lord before my face at all times, for he is at my right hand, so that I may not be moved:

Acts 2:26 And for this cause my heart was glad and my tongue full of joy, and my flesh will be resting in hope:

Acts 2:27 For you will not let my soul be in hell and you will not give up your Holy One to destruction.

Acts 2:28 You have made me see the ways of life; I will be full of joy when I see your face.

Acts 2:29 My brothers, I may say to you openly that David came to his death, and was put in the earth, and his resting-place is with us today.

Acts 2:30 But being a prophet, and having in mind the oath which God had given to him, that of the fruit of his body one would take his place as a king,

Acts 2:31 He, having knowledge of the future, was talking of the coming again of Christ from the dead, that he was not kept in hell and his body did not see destruction.

Acts 2:32 This Jesus God has given back to life, of which we all are witnesses.

Acts 2:33 And so, being lifted up to the right hand of God, and having the Father’s word that the Holy Spirit would come, he has sent this thing, which now you see and have knowledge of.

Acts 2:34 For David has not gone up into heaven, but says, himself, The Lord said to my Lord, Be seated at my right hand,

Acts 2:35 Till I put all those who are against you under your feet.

Acts 2:36 For this reason, let all Israel be certain that this Jesus, whom you put to death on the cross, God has made Lord and Christ.

Acts 2:37 Now when these words came to their ears their hearts were troubled, and they said to Peter and the other Apostles, Brothers, what are we to do?

Acts 2:38 And Peter said, Let your hearts be changed, every one of you, and have baptism in the name of Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will have the Holy Spirit given to you.

Acts 2:39 For the word of God is for you and for your children and for all those who are far off, even all those who may be marked out by the Lord our God.

Acts 2:40 And with more such words he gave his witness, offering them salvation and saying, Come out from this evil generation.

Acts 2:41 Then those who gave hearing to his words had baptism: and about three thousand souls were joined to them that day.

Acts 2:42 And they kept their attention fixed on the Apostles' teaching and were united together in the taking of broken bread and in prayer.

Acts 2:43 But fear came on every soul: and all sorts of wonders and signs were done by the Apostles.

Acts 2:44 And all those who were of the faith kept together, and had all things in common;

Acts 2:45 And exchanging their goods and property for money, they made division of it among them all, as they had need.

Acts 2:46 And day by day, going in agreement together regularly to the Temple and, taking broken bread together in their houses, they took their food with joy and with true hearts,

Acts 2:47 Giving praise to God, and having the approval of all the people; and every day the number of those who had salvation was increased by the Lord.

Acts 3:1 Now Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer;

Acts 3:2 And a certain man who from birth had had no power in his legs, was taken there every day, and put down at the door of the Temple which is named Beautiful, requesting money from those who went into the Temple;

Acts 3:3 He then, seeing Peter and John going into the Temple, made a request to them.

Acts 3:4 And Peter, looking at him, with John, said, Keep your eyes on us.

Acts 3:5 And he gave attention to them, hoping to get something from them.

Acts 3:6 But Peter said, I have no silver or gold, but what I have, that I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up on your feet.

Acts 3:7 And he took him by his right hand, lifting him up; and straight away his feet and the bones of his legs became strong,

Acts 3:8 And, jumping up, he got on to his feet and went into the Temple with them, walking and jumping and giving praise to God.

Acts 3:9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:

Acts 3:10 And they saw that it was the man who made requests for money at the door of the Temple, and they were full of wonder and surprise at what had taken place.

Acts 3:11 And while he kept his hands on Peter and John, all the people came running together to the covered way which is named Solomon’s, full of wonder.

Acts 3:12 And when Peter saw it he said to the people, You men of Israel, why are you so greatly surprised at this man? or why are you looking at us as if by our power or virtue we had given him the use of his legs?

Acts 3:13 The God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has given glory to his servant Jesus; whom you gave up, turning your backs on him, when Pilate had made the decision to let him go free.

Acts 3:14 But you would have nothing to do with the Holy and Upright One, and made request for a man of blood to be given to you,

Acts 3:15 And put to death the Lord of life; whom God gave back from the dead; of which fact we are witnesses.

Acts 3:16 And his name, through faith in his name, has made this man strong, whom you see and have knowledge of: yes, the faith which is through him has made him well, before you all.

Acts 3:17 And now, my brothers, I am conscious that you did this, as did your rulers, without knowledge.

Acts 3:18 But the things which God had made clear before, by the mouth of all the prophets, that the Christ would have to undergo, he has put into effect in this way.

Acts 3:19 So then, let your hearts be changed and be turned to God, so that your sins may be completely taken away, and times of blessing may come from the Lord;

Acts 3:20 And that he may send the Christ who was marked out for you from the first, even Jesus:

Acts 3:21 Who is to be kept in heaven till the time when all things are put right, of which God has given word by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been from the earliest times.

Acts 3:22 For Moses said, The Lord will give you a prophet from among your people, like me; you will give ear to everything which he will say to you.

Acts 3:23 And every soul who does not give attention to that prophet, will be cut off from among the people.

Acts 3:24 And all the prophets from Samuel and those who came after, every one of them, gave word of these days.

Acts 3:25 You are the sons of the prophets, and of the agreement which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, Through your seed a blessing will come on all the families of the earth.

Acts 3:26 To you, first, God sent his servant, blessing you by turning every one of you from his sins.

Acts 4:1 And while they were talking to the people, the priests and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came up to them,

Acts 4:2 Being greatly troubled because they were teaching the people and preaching Jesus as an example of the coming back from the dead.

Acts 4:3 And they took them and put them in prison till the morning, for it was now evening.

Acts 4:4 But a number of those who gave hearing to the word had faith; and they were now about five thousand.

Acts 4:5 And on the day after, the rulers and those in authority and the scribes came together in Jerusalem;

Acts 4:6 And Annas, the high priest, was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all the relations of the high priest.

Acts 4:7 Then sending for Peter and John, they said, By what power and in whose name have you done this?

Acts 4:8 Then Peter, being full of the Holy Spirit, said to them, O you rulers of the people and men of authority,

Acts 4:9 If we are questioned today about a good work done to a man who was ill, as to how he has been made well,

Acts 4:10 Take note, all of you, and all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you put to death on the cross, whom God gave back from the dead, even through him is this man now before you completely well.

Acts 4:11 He is the stone which you builders had no use for, but which has been made the chief stone of the building.

Acts 4:12 And in no other is there salvation: for there is no other name under heaven, given among men, through which we may have salvation.

Acts 4:13 Now when they saw that Peter and John were without fear, though they were men of no education or learning, they were greatly surprised; and they took note of them that they had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:14 And, seeing that the man who had been made well was there with them, they were not able to say anything against it.

Acts 4:15 But when they had given them orders to go out of the Sanhedrin, they had a discussion among themselves, Acts 4:16 Saying, What are we to do with these men? for certainly it is clear to all who are living in Jerusalem that a most important sign has been done by them, and it is not possible to say that it is not so.

Acts 4:17 But so that it may not go farther among the people, let us put them in fear of punishment if they say anything in future in this name.

Acts 4:18 And they sent for them, and gave them orders not to make statements or give teaching in the name of Jesus.

Acts 4:19 But Peter and John in answer said to them, It is for you to say if it is right in the eyes of God to give attention to you more than to God:

Acts 4:20 For it is not possible for us to keep from saying what we have seen and have knowledge of.

Acts 4:21 And when they had said more sharp words to them, they let them go, not seeing what punishment they might give them, because of the people; for all men were giving praise to God for what had taken place.

Acts 4:22 For the man on whom this act of power was done was more than forty years old.

Acts 4:23 And when they had been made free, they came back to their friends, and gave an account of all the things which the chief priests and the authorities had said to them.

Acts 4:24 And hearing it, they all, with one mind, made prayer to God and said, O Lord, maker of heaven and earth and the sea and all things in them:

Acts 4:25 Who has said, by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father David your servant, Why are the nations so violently moved, and why are the thoughts of the people so foolish?

Acts 4:26 The kings of the earth were lifted up, the rulers came together, against the Lord, and against his Christ:

Acts 4:27 For, truly, in this town, against your holy servant, Jesus, who was marked out by you as Christ, Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, came together,

Acts 4:28 To do that which had been fixed before by your hand and your purpose.

Acts 4:29 And now, Lord, take note of their cruel words, and give your servants power to be preachers of your word without fear,

Acts 4:30 While your hand is stretched out to do works of mercy; so that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus.

Acts 4:31 And when their prayer was ended, the place where they were was violently moved, and they all became full of the Holy Spirit, preaching the word of God without fear.

Acts 4:32 And all those who were of the faith were one in heart and soul: and not one of them said that any of the things which he had was his property only; but they had all things in common.

Acts 4:33 And with great power the Apostles gave witness of the coming back of the Lord Jesus from the dead; and grace was on them all.

Acts 4:34 And no one among them was in need; for everyone who had land or houses, exchanging them for money, took the price of them,

Acts 4:35 And put it at the feet of the Apostles for distribution to everyone as he had need.

Acts 4:36 And Joseph, who was given by the Apostles the name of Barnabas (the sense of which is, Son of comfort), a Levite and a man of Cyprus by birth,

Acts 4:37 Having a field, got money for it and put the money at the feet of the Apostles.

Acts 5:1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, got money for his property,

Acts 5:2 And kept back part of the price, his wife having knowledge of it, and took the rest and put it at the feet of the Apostles.

Acts 5:3 But Peter said, Ananias, why has the Evil One put it into your heart to be false to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?

Acts 5:4 While you had it, was it not your property? and after you had given it in exchange, was it not still in your power? how has this purpose come into your mind? you have been false, not to men, but to God.

Acts 5:5 And at these words, Ananias went down on the earth, and his life went from him: and great fear came on all who were present.

Acts 5:6 And the young men went and made ready his body, and took it out, and put it in the earth.

Acts 5:7 And about three hours after, his wife, having no knowledge of what had taken place, came in.

Acts 5:8 And Peter said to her, Give me an answer: was this amount of money the price of the land? And she said, Yes, it was.

Acts 5:9 But Peter said to her, Why have you made an agreement together to be false to the Spirit of the Lord? See, the feet of the young men who have put the body of your husband in the earth, are at the door, and they will take you out.

Acts 5:10 And straight away she went down at his feet, and her life went from her: and the young men came in and saw her dead, and they took her out and put her in the earth with her husband.

Acts 5:11 Then great fear came on all the church and on all who had knowledge of these things.

Acts 5:12 Now a number of signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the Apostles; and they were all together in Solomon's covered way.

Acts 5:13 The others, in fear, kept back from joining them: but the people made much of them;

Acts 5:14 And a great number of men and women had faith, and were joined to the Lord;

Acts 5:15 And they even took into the streets people who were ill, and put them on beds, so that when Peter went by, some of them might be in his shade.

Acts 5:16 And numbers of people came together from the towns round about Jerusalem, with those who were ill and those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were all made well.

Acts 5:17 But the high priest and those who were with him (the Sadducees) were full of envy,

Acts 5:18 And they took the Apostles and put them in the common prison.

Acts 5:19 But in the night an angel of the Lord, opening the doors of the prison, took them out and said,

Acts 5:20 Go, take your place in the Temple and give the people all the teaching about this Life.

Acts 5:21 And hearing this, they went into the Temple at dawn, and were teaching. But the high priest and those who were with him got together the Sanhedrin and the representatives of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to get them.

Acts 5:22 But the men who were sent saw that they were not in the prison, and came back with the news,

Acts 5:23 Saying, The doors of the prison were safely shut, and the keepers were at the doors, but when they were open, there was nobody inside.

Acts 5:24 Now, at these words, the captain of the Temple and the chief priests were greatly troubled about what might be the end of this business.

Acts 5:25 And someone came and said to them, The men, whom you put in prison, are in the Temple teaching the people.

Acts 5:26 Then the captain and some of the police went and took them, but not violently, for fear that they might be stoned by the people.

Acts 5:27 And they took them into the Sanhedrin, and the high priest said to them,

Acts 5:28 We gave you very clear orders not to give teaching in this name: and now Jerusalem is full of your teaching, and you are attempting to make us responsible for this man's death.

Acts 5:29 But Peter and the Apostles, answering, said, We have to do the orders of God, not of man.

Acts 5:30 The God of our fathers gave Jesus back to life, whom you had put to death, hanging him on a tree.

Acts 5:31 Him God has put on high at his right hand, as a Ruler and a Saviour, to give to Israel a change of heart and forgiveness of sins.

Acts 5:32 And we are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who keep his laws.

Acts 5:33 But when these words came to their ears, they were cut to the heart, and had a mind to put them to death.

Acts 5:34 But one of the Sanhedrin, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a man of learning in the law, of whom all the people had a high opinion, got up and made a suggestion for the men to be put outside for a little time.

Acts 5:35 And he said to them, Men of Israel, take care what you do about these men.

Acts 5:36 For before this there was Theudas, who said he was someone important, to whom about four hundred men gave their support: he was put to death, and his band was broken up and came to nothing.

Acts 5:37 After this man, there was Judas of Galilee, at the time of the numbering, and some of the people went after him: he was put to death, and all his supporters were put to flight.

Acts 5:38 And now I say to you, Do nothing to these men, but let them be: for if this teaching or this work is of men, it will come to nothing:

Acts 5:39 But if it is of God, you will not be able to overcome them, and you are in danger of fighting against God.

Acts 5:40 And he seemed to them to be right: and they sent for the Apostles, and, after having them whipped and giving them orders to give no teaching in the name of Jesus, they let them go.

Acts 5:41 So they went away from the Sanhedrin, happy to undergo shame for the Name.

Acts 5:42 And every day, in the Temple and privately, they went on teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.

Acts 6:1 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was increasing, protests were made by the Greek Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were not taken care of in the distribution of food every day.

Acts 6:2 And the Apostles sent for all the disciples and said, It is not right for us to give up preaching the word of God in order to make distribution of food.

Acts 6:3 Take then from among you seven men of good name, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, to whom we may give control of this business.

Acts 6:4 Then we will give all our time to prayer and the teaching of the word.

Acts 6:5 And this saying was pleasing to all of them: and they made selection of Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip and Prochorus and Nicanor and Timon and Parmenas and Nicolas of Antioch, who had become a Jew:

Acts 6:6 These they took to the Apostles, who, after prayer, put their hands on them.

Acts 6:7 And the word of God was increasing in power; and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem became very great, and a great number of priests were in agreement with the faith.

Acts 6:8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.

Acts 6:9 But some of those who were of the Synagogue named that of the Libertines, and some of the men of Cyrene and of Alexandria and those from Cilicia and Asia, had arguments with Stephen.

Acts 6:10 But they were not able to get the better of him, for his words were full of wisdom and of the Spirit.

Acts 6:11 Then they got men to say, He has said evil against Moses and against God, in our hearing.

Acts 6:12 And the people, with the rulers and the scribes, were moved against him, and they came and took him before the Sanhedrin,

Acts 6:13 And they got false witnesses who said, This man is for ever saying things against this holy place and against the law:

Acts 6:14 For he has said in our hearing that this Jesus of Nazareth will put this place to destruction and make changes in the rules which were handed down to us by Moses.

Acts 6:15 And all those who were in the Sanhedrin, looking at him, saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Acts 7:1 Then the high priest said, Are these things true?

Acts 7:2 And he said, My brothers and fathers, give hearing. The God of glory came to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he was living in Haran,

Acts 7:3 And said to him, Go out of your land, and away from your family, and come into the land to which I will be your guide.

Acts 7:4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and went into Haran; and from there, when his father was dead, he was guided by God into this land, where you are living now:

Acts 7:5 And God gave him no heritage in it, not even enough to put his foot on: but he gave him an undertaking that he would give it to him and to his children after him, though he had no child at that time.

Acts 7:6 And God said that his seed would be living in a strange land, and that they would make them servants, and be cruel to them for four hundred years.

Acts 7:7 And I will be the judge, said God, of that nation which made them servants: and after that, they will come out and give me worship in this place.

Acts 7:8 And he made with him the agreement of which circumcision was the sign. And so Abraham had a son, Isaac, and gave him circumcision on the eighth day; and Isaac had a son, Jacob, and Jacob was the father of the twelve heads of the families of Israel.

Acts 7:9 And the brothers, moved with envy against Joseph, gave him to the Egyptians for money: but God was with him,

Acts 7:10 And made him free from all his troubles, and gave him wisdom and the approval of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him ruler over Egypt and all his house.

Acts 7:11 Now there was no food to be had in all Egypt and Canaan, and there was great trouble: and our fathers were not able to get food.

Acts 7:12 But Jacob, hearing that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers the first time.

Acts 7:13 And the second time his brothers had a meeting with Joseph, and Pharaoh had knowledge of Joseph’s family.

Acts 7:14 Then Joseph sent for Jacob his father and all his family, seventy-five persons.

Acts 7:15 And Jacob went down to Egypt, and came to his end there, and so did our fathers;

Acts 7:16 And they were taken over to Shechem, and put to rest in the place which Abraham got for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.

Acts 7:17 But when the time was near for putting into effect the undertaking which God had given to Abraham, the people were increasing in Egypt,

Acts 7:18 Till another king came to power, who had no knowledge of Joseph.

Acts 7:19 He, having evil designs against our nation, was cruel to our fathers, and they were forced to put out their young children, so that they might not go on living.

Acts 7:20 At which time Moses came to birth, and he was very beautiful; and he was kept for three months in his father's house:

Acts 7:21 And when he was put out, Pharaoh's daughter took him and kept him as her son.

Acts 7:22 And Moses was trained in all the wisdom of Egypt, and was great in his words and works.

Acts 7:23 But when he was almost forty years old, it came into his heart to go and see his brothers, the children of Israel.

Acts 7:24 And seeing one of them being attacked, he went to his help and gave the Egyptian a death-blow:

Acts 7:25 And he was hoping that his brothers would see that God had sent him to be their saviour; but they did not see.

Acts 7:26 And the day after, he came to them, while they were having a fight, and would have made peace between them, saying, Sirs, you are brothers; why do you do wrong to one another?

Acts 7:27 But the man who was doing wrong to his neighbour, pushing him away, said, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?

Acts 7:28 Will you put me to death as you did the Egyptian yesterday?

Acts 7:29 And at these words, Moses went in flight to the land of Midian, and was living there for a time, and had two sons.

Acts 7:30 At the end of forty years, an angel came to him in the waste land of Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn-tree.

Acts 7:31 And Moses, seeing it, was full of wonder, and when he came up to have a nearer view of it, the voice of the Lord came to him, saying,

Acts 7:32 I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob. And Moses, shaking with fear, kept his eyes from looking at it.

Acts 7:33 And the Lord said, Take off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you are is holy.

Acts 7:34 Truly, I have seen the sorrows of my people in Egypt, and their cries have come to my ears, and I have come down to make them free: and now, come, I will send you to Egypt.

Acts 7:35 This Moses, whom they would not have, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge? him God sent to be a ruler and a saviour, by the hand of the angel whom he saw in the thorn-tree.

Acts 7:36 This man took them out, having done wonders and signs in Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the waste land, for forty years.

Acts 7:37 This is the same Moses, who said to the children of Israel, God will give you a prophet from among your brothers, like me.

Acts 7:38 This is the man who was in the church in the waste land with the angel who was talking to him in Sinai, and with our fathers; and to him were given the living words of God, so that he might give them to you.

Acts 7:39 By whom our fathers would not be controlled; but they put him on one side, turning back in their hearts to Egypt,

Acts 7:40 And saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: as for this Moses, who took us out of the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has become of him.

Acts 7:41 And they made the image of a young ox in those days, and made an offering to it, and had joy in the work of their hands.

Acts 7:42 But God was turned from them and let them give worship to the stars of heaven, as it says in the book of the prophets, Did you make offerings to me of sheep and oxen for forty years in the waste land, O house of Israel?

Acts 7:43 And you took up the tent of Moloch and the star of the god Rephan, images which you made to give worship to them: and I will take you away, farther than Babylon.

Acts 7:44 Our fathers had the Tent of witness in the waste land, as God gave orders to Moses to make it after the design which he had seen.

Acts 7:45 Which our fathers, in their turn, took with them when, with Joshua, they came into the heritage of the nations whom God was driving out before the face of our fathers, till the time of David,

Acts 7:46 Who was pleasing to God; and he had a desire to make a holy tent for the God of Jacob.

Acts 7:47 But Solomon was the builder of his house.

Acts 7:48 But still, the Most High has not his resting-place in houses made with hands, as the prophet says,

Acts 7:49 Heaven is the seat of my power, and earth is a resting-place for my feet: what sort of house will you make for me, says the Lord, or what is my place of rest?

Acts 7:50 Did not my hand make all these things?

Acts 7:51 You whose hearts are hard and whose ears are shut to me; you are ever working against the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.

Acts 7:52 Which of the prophets was not cruelly attacked by your fathers? and they put to death those who gave them the news of the coming of the Upright One; whom you have now given up and put to death;

Acts 7:53 You, to whom the law was given as it was ordered by angels, and who have not kept it.

Acts 7:54 Hearing these things, they were cut to the heart and moved with wrath against him.

Acts 7:55 But he was full of the Holy Spirit, and looking up to heaven, he saw the glory of God and Jesus at the right hand of God.

Acts 7:56 And he said, Now I see heaven open, and the Son of man at the right hand of God.

Acts 7:57 But with loud cries, and stopping their ears, they made an attack on him all together,

Acts 7:58 Driving him out of the town and stoning him: and the witnesses put their clothing at the feet of a young man named Saul.

Acts 7:59 And Stephen, while he was being stoned, made prayer to God, saying, Lord Jesus, take my spirit.

Acts 7:60 And going down on his knees, he said in a loud voice, Lord, do not make them responsible for this sin. And when he had said this, he went to his rest.

Acts 8:1 And Saul gave approval to his death. Now at that time a violent attack was started against the church in Jerusalem; and all but the Apostles went away into all parts of Judaea and Samaria.

Acts 8:2 And God-fearing men put Stephen’s body in its last resting-place, making great weeping over him.

Acts 8:3 But Saul was burning with hate against the church, going into every house and taking men and women and putting them in prison.

Acts 8:4 But those who had gone in flight went everywhere preaching the word.

Acts 8:5 And Philip went down to Samaria and was teaching them about Christ.

Acts 8:6 And all the people gave attention to the words which Philip said, when they saw the signs which he did.

Acts 8:7 For unclean spirits came out from those who had them, crying with a loud voice; and a number of those who were ill and broken in body were made well.

Acts 8:8 And there was much joy in that town.

Acts 8:9 But there was a certain man named Simon, who in the past had been a wonder-worker and a cause of surprise to the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was a great man:

Acts 8:10 To whom they all gave attention, from the smallest to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is named Great.

Acts 8:11 And they gave attention to him, because for a long time his wonder-working powers had kept them under his control.

Acts 8:12 But when they had faith in the good news given by Philip about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, a number of men and women had baptism.

Acts 8:13 And Simon himself had faith and, having had baptism, he went with Philip and, seeing the signs and the great wonders which he did, he was full of surprise.

Acts 8:14 Now when the Apostles at Jerusalem had news that the people of Samaria had taken the word of God into their hearts, they sent to them Peter and John;

Acts 8:15 Who, when they came there, made prayer for them, that the Holy Spirit might be given to them:

Acts 8:16 For up to that time he had not come on any of them; only baptism had been given to them in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 8:17 Then they put their hands on them, and the Holy Spirit came on them.

Acts 8:18 Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the touch of the Apostles' hands, he made them an offering of money, saying,

Acts 8:19 Give me this power, so that when I put my hands on anyone he may get the Holy Spirit.

Acts 8:20 But Peter said, May your money come to destruction with you, because you had the idea that what is freely given by God may be got for a price.

Acts 8:21 You have no part in this business, because your heart is not right before God.

Acts 8:22 Let your heart be changed, and make prayer to God that you may have forgiveness for your evil thoughts.

Acts 8:23 For I see that you are prisoned in bitter envy and the chains of sin.

Acts 8:24 And Simon, answering, said, Make prayer for me to the Lord, so that these things which you have said may not come on me.

Acts 8:25 So they, having given their witness and made clear the word of the Lord, went back to Jerusalem, giving the good news on their way in a number of the small towns of Samaria.

Acts 8:26 But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, Get up, and go to the south, to the road which goes from Jerusalem to Gaza, through the waste land.

Acts 8:27 And he went and there was a man of Ethiopia, a servant of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, and controller of all her property, who had come up to Jerusalem for worship;

Acts 8:28 He was going back, seated in his carriage, and was reading the book of the prophet Isaiah.

Acts 8:29 And the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and get on his carriage.

Acts 8:30 And Philip, running up to him, saw that he was reading Isaiah the prophet, and said to him, Is the sense of what you are reading clear to you?

Acts 8:31 And he said, How is that possible when I have no guide? And he made Philip get up by his side.

Acts 8:32 Now the place in the book where he was reading was this: He was taken, like a sheep, to be put to death; and as a lamb is quiet when its wool is being cut, so he made no sound:

Acts 8:33 Being of low degree, his cause was not given a hearing: who has knowledge of his family? for his life is cut off from the earth.

Acts 8:34 And the Ethiopian said to Philip, About whom are these words said by the prophet? about himself, or some other?

Acts 8:35 So Philip, starting from this writing, gave him the good news about Jesus.

Acts 8:36 And while they were going on their way, they came to some water, and the Ethiopian said, See, here is water; why may I not have baptism?

Acts 8:37 []

Acts 8:38 And he gave orders for the carriage to be stopped, and the two of them went down into the water, and Philip gave him baptism.

Acts 8:39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away; and the Ethiopian saw him no more, for he went on his way full of joy.

Acts 8:40 But Philip came to Azotus, and went through all the towns, preaching the good news, till he came to Caesarea.

Acts 9:1 But Saul, still burning with desire to put to death the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

Acts 9:2 And made a request for letters from him to the Synagogues of Damascus, so that if there were any of the Way there, men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

Acts 9:3 And while he was journeying, he came near Damascus; and suddenly he saw a light from heaven shining round him;

Acts 9:4 And he went down on the earth, and a voice said to him, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly?

Acts 9:5 And he said, Who are you, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus, whom you are attacking:

Acts 9:6 But get up, and go into the town, and it will be made clear to you what you have to do.

Acts 9:7 And the men who were with him were not able to say anything; hearing the voice, but seeing no one.

Acts 9:8 And Saul got up from the earth, and when his eyes were open, he saw nothing; and he was guided by the hand into Damascus.

Acts 9:9 And for three days he was not able to see, and he took no food or drink.

Acts 9:10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, Ananias! and he said, Here I am, Lord.

Acts 9:11 And the Lord said to him, Get up, and go to the street which is named Straight, and make search at the house of Judas for one named Saul of Tarsus: for he is at prayer;

Acts 9:12 And he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hands on him, so that he may be able to see.

Acts 9:13 But Ananias said, Lord, I have had accounts of this man from a number of people, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem:

Acts 9:14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to make prisoners all who give worship to your name.

Acts 9:15 But the Lord said, Go without fear: for he is a special vessel for me, to give to the Gentiles and kings and to the children of Israel the knowledge of my name:

Acts 9:16 For I will make clear to him what troubles he will have to undergo for me.

Acts 9:17 And Ananias went out and came to the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, whom you saw when you were on your journey, has sent me, so that you may be able to see, and be full of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 9:18 And straight away it seemed as if a veil was taken from his eyes, and he was able to see; and he got up, and had baptism;

Acts 9:19 And when he had taken food his strength came back. And for some days he kept with the disciples who were in Damascus.

Acts 9:20 And straight away, in the Synagogues, he was preaching Jesus as the Son of God.

Acts 9:21 And all those hearing him were full of wonder and said, Is not this the man who in Jerusalem was attacking all the worshippers of this name? and he had come here so that he might take them as prisoners before the chief priests.

Acts 9:22 But Saul went on increasing in power, and the Jews in Damascus were not able to give answers to the arguments by which he made it clear that Jesus was the Christ.

Acts 9:23 Then, after some days, the Jews made an agreement together to put him to death:

Acts 9:24 But Saul got knowledge of their design. And they kept watch day and night on the roads out of the town, so that they might put him to death:

Acts 9:25 But his disciples took him by night and let him down from the wall in a basket.

Acts 9:26 And when he came to Jerusalem, he made an attempt to be joined to the disciples, but they were all in fear of him, not taking him for a disciple.

Acts 9:27 But Barnabas took him to the Apostles and gave them an account of how he had seen the Lord on the road, and had given hearing to his words, and how at Damascus he had been preaching in the name of Jesus without fear.

Acts 9:28 And he was with them, going in and out at Jerusalem,

Acts 9:29 Preaching in the name of the Lord without fear; and he had discussions with the Greek Jews; but they were working for his death.

Acts 9:30 And when the brothers had knowledge of it, they took him to Caesarea and sent him to Tarsus.

Acts 9:31 And so the church through all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was made strong; and, living in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was increased greatly.

Acts 9:32 And it came about that while Peter was going through all parts of the country he came to the saints who were living at Lydda.

Acts 9:33 And there was a certain man there, named Aeneas, who for eight years had been in bed, without power of moving.

Acts 9:34 And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you well: get up and make your bed. And straight away he got up.

Acts 9:35 And all those living in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and were turned to the Lord.

Acts 9:36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, that is, Dorcas: this woman was given to good works and acts of mercy at all times.

Acts 9:37 And it came about, in those days, that she got ill and came to her death: and when she had been washed, they put her in a room which was high up.

Acts 9:38 And because Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having knowledge that Peter was there, sent two men to him, requesting him to come to them straight away.

Acts 9:39 And Peter went with them. And when he had come, they took him into the room: and all the widows were there, weeping and putting before him the coats and clothing which Dorcas had made while she was with them.

Acts 9:40 But Peter made them all go outside, and went down on his knees in prayer; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, get up. And, opening her eyes, she saw Peter and got up.

Acts 9:41 And he took her hand, lifting her up; and, sending for the saints and widows, he gave her to them, living.

Acts 9:42 And news of it went all through Joppa, and a number of people had faith in the Lord.

Acts 9:43 And he was living in Joppa for some time with Simon, a leather-worker.

Acts 10:1 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, named Cornelius, the captain of the Italian band of the army;

Acts 10:2 A serious-minded man, fearing God with all his family; he gave much money to the poor, and made prayer to God at all times.

Acts 10:3 He saw in a vision, clearly, at about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of the Lord coming to him and saying to him, Cornelius!

Acts 10:4 And he, looking on him in fear, said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your offerings have come up to God, and he has kept them in mind.

Acts 10:5 Now send men to Joppa, and get one Simon, named Peter,

Acts 10:6 Who is living with Simon, a leather-worker, whose house is by the sea.

Acts 10:7 And when the angel who said these words to him had gone away, he sent for two of his house-servants, and a God-fearing man of the army, one of those who were waiting on him at all times;

Acts 10:8 And having given them an account of everything, he sent them to Joppa.

Acts 10:9 Now the day after, when they were on their journey and were near the town, Peter went up to the top of the house for prayer, about the sixth hour:

Acts 10:10 And he was in need of food: but while they were getting it ready, a deep sleep came on him;

Acts 10:11 And he saw the heavens opening, and a vessel coming down, like a great cloth let down on the earth,

Acts 10:12 In which were all sorts of beasts and birds.

Acts 10:13 And a voice came to him, saying, Come, Peter; take them for food.

Acts 10:14 But Peter said, No, Lord; for I have never taken food which is common or unclean.

Acts 10:15 And the voice came to him a second time, What God has made clean, do not you make common.

Acts 10:16 And this was done three times: and then the vessel was taken back into heaven.

Acts 10:17 Now while Peter was in doubt as to the purpose of this vision, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made search for Simon’s house, came to the door,

Acts 10:18 To see if Simon, named Peter, was living there.

Acts 10:19 And, while Peter was turning the vision over in his mind, the Spirit said to him, See, three men are looking for you.

Acts 10:20 Go down, then, and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them.

Acts 10:21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, I am the man you are looking for: why have you come?

Acts 10:22 And they said, Cornelius, a captain, an upright and God-fearing man, respected by all the nation of the Jews, had word from God by an angel to send for you to his house, and to give hearing to your words.

Acts 10:23 So he took them in for the night. And the day after, he went with them, taking some of the brothers from Joppa with him.

Acts 10:24 And the day after that, they came to Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having got together his relations and his near friends.

Acts 10:25 And when Peter came in, Cornelius came to him and, falling down at his feet, gave him worship.

Acts 10:26 But Peter, lifting him up, said, Get up, for I am a man as you are.

Acts 10:27 And saying these words, he went in, and saw that a great number of people had come together;

Acts 10:28 And he said to them, You yourselves have knowledge that it is against the law for a man who is a Jew to be in the company of one who is of another nation; but God has made it clear to me that no man may be named common or unclean:

Acts 10:29 And so I came without question, when I was sent for. What then is your purpose in sending for me?

Acts 10:30 And Cornelius said, Four days from now I was in my house in prayer at the ninth hour; and I saw before me a man in shining clothing,

Acts 10:31 Who said, Cornelius, your prayer has come to the ears of God, and your offerings are kept in his memory.

Acts 10:32 Send, then, to Joppa, and get Simon, named Peter, to come to you; he is living in the house of Simon, a leather-worker, by the sea.

Acts 10:33 So, straight away, I sent for you; and you have done well to come. And now, we are all present before God, ready to give attention to all the things which the Lord has given you to say.

Acts 10:34 Then Peter said, Truly, I see clearly that God is no respecter of persons:

Acts 10:35 But in every nation, the man who has fear of him and does righteousness is pleasing to him.

Acts 10:36 The word which he sent to the children of Israel, giving the good news of peace through Jesus Christ (who is Lord of all)—

Acts 10:37 That word you yourselves have knowledge of, which was made public through all Judaea, starting from Galilee, after the baptism of which John was the preacher,

Acts 10:38 About Jesus of Nazareth, how God gave the Holy Spirit to him, with power: and how he went about doing good and making well all who were troubled by evil spirits, for God was with him.

Acts 10:39 And we are witnesses of all the things which he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they put to death, hanging him on a tree.

Acts 10:40 On the third day God gave him back to life, and let him be seen,

Acts 10:41 Not by all the people, but by witnesses marked out before by God, even by us, who took food and drink with him after he came back from the dead.

Acts 10:42 And he gave us orders to give news of this to the people, and to give public witness that this is he whom God has made judge of the living and the dead.

Acts 10:43 To him all the prophets give witness, that through his name everyone who has faith in him will have forgiveness of sins.

Acts 10:44 While Peter was saying these words, the Holy Spirit came on all those who were hearing the word.

Acts 10:45 And the Jews of the faith, who had come with Peter, were full of wonder, because the Holy Spirit was given to the Gentiles,

Acts 10:46 And they were talking in tongues, and giving glory to God. Then Peter said,

Acts 10:47 Will any man say that these may not have baptism who have been given the Holy Spirit as we have?

Acts 10:48 And he gave orders for them to have baptism in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they kept him with them for some days.

Acts 11:1 Now the Apostles and the brothers who were in Judaea had news that the word of God had been given to the Gentiles.

Acts 11:2 And when Peter came to Jerusalem, those who kept the rule of circumcision had an argument with him,

Acts 11:3 Saying, You went to men without circumcision, and took food with them.

Acts 11:4 But Peter gave them an account of it all in order, saying to them,

Acts 11:5 I was in the town of Joppa, at prayer: and falling into a deep sleep, I saw in a vision a vessel like a great cloth let down from heaven, and it came down to me:

Acts 11:6 And looking on it with attention I saw in it all sorts of beasts and birds.

Acts 11:7 And a voice came to my ears saying, Come, Peter; take them for food.

Acts 11:8 But I said, No, Lord; for nothing common or unclean has ever come into my mouth.

Acts 11:9 But the voice, coming a second time from heaven, said, What God has made clean, do not you make common.

Acts 11:10 And this was done three times, and they were all taken up again into heaven.

Acts 11:11 And at that minute, three men, sent from Caesarea, came to the house where we were.

Acts 11:12 And the Spirit gave me orders to go with them, doubting nothing. And these six brothers came with me; and we went into that man’s house:

Acts 11:13 And he gave us an account of how he had seen the angel in his house, saying, Send to Joppa, and get Simon, named Peter, to come to you;

Acts 11:14 Who will say words to you through which you and all your family may get salvation.

Acts 11:15 And, while I was talking to them, the Holy Spirit came on them, as on us at first.

Acts 11:16 And the words of the Lord came into my mind, how he said, The baptism of John was with water, but you will have baptism with the Holy Spirit.

Acts 11:17 If then God gave them, when they had faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, the same as he gave to us, who was I to go against God?

Acts 11:18 And hearing these things they said nothing more, but gave glory to God, saying, Then to the Gentiles as to us has God given a change of heart, so that they may have life.

Acts 11:19 Then those who had gone away at the time of the trouble about Stephen, went as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus, preaching to the Jews only.

Acts 11:20 But some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, when they came to Antioch, gave the good news about the Lord Jesus to the Greeks.

Acts 11:21 And the power of the Lord was with them, and a great number had faith and were turned to the Lord.

Acts 11:22 And news of them came to the ears of the church at Jerusalem: and they sent Barnabas as far as Antioch:

Acts 11:23 Who, when he came and saw the grace of God, was glad; and he made clear to them the need of keeping near the Lord with all the strength of their hearts:

Acts 11:24 For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and a great number were joined to the Lord.

Acts 11:25 Then he went on to Tarsus, looking for Saul;

Acts 11:26 And when he had come across him, he took him to Antioch. And they were with the church there for a year, teaching the people; and the disciples were first given the name of Christians in Antioch.

Acts 11:27 Now in those days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.

Acts 11:28 And one of them, named Agabus, said publicly through the Spirit that there would be serious need of food all over the earth: which came about in the time of Claudius.

Acts 11:29 And the disciples, everyone as he was able, made a decision to send help to the brothers living in Judaea:

Acts 11:30 Which they did, sending it to the rulers of the church by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.

Acts 12:1 Now, about that time, Herod the king made cruel attacks on the Christians.

Acts 12:2 And he put James, the brother of John, to death with the sword.

Acts 12:3 And when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he went on to take Peter in addition. This was at the time of the feast of unleavened bread.

Acts 12:4 And having taken him, he put him in prison, with four bands of armed men to keep watch over him; his purpose being to take him out to the people after the Passover.

Acts 12:5 So Peter was kept in prison: but the church made strong prayer to God for him.

Acts 12:6 And when Herod was about to take him out, the same night Peter was sleeping in chains between two armed men, and the watchmen were keeping watch before the door of the prison.

Acts 12:7 And a great light was seen shining in the room, and an angel of the Lord came to Peter and, touching him on his side so that he came out of his sleep, said, Get up quickly. And his chains came off his hands.

Acts 12:8 Then the angel said, Put on your shoes and get ready to go. And he did so. And he said, Put your coat round you and come with me.

Acts 12:9 And he went out after him; and he was not certain if what was done by the angel was a fact, for it seemed to him that he was seeing a vision.

Acts 12:10 And when they had gone past the first and second watchmen they came to the iron door into the town, which came open by itself: and they went out and down one street; and then the angel went away.

Acts 12:11 And when Peter came to his senses he said, Now, truly, I am certain that the Lord has sent his angel and taken me out of the hands of Herod, against all the hopes of the Jews.

Acts 12:12 And when he became clear about this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John named Mark, where a number of them had come together for prayer.

Acts 12:13 And he gave a blow on the door, and a young girl came to it, named Rhoda.

Acts 12:14 And hearing the voice of Peter, in her joy she went running, without opening the door, to say that Peter was outside.

Acts 12:15 And they said to her, You are off your head. But still she said, with decision, that it was so. And they said, It is his angel.

Acts 12:16 But Peter went on giving blows on the door: and when it was open and they saw him, they were full of wonder.

Acts 12:17 But he made a sign to them with his hand to be quiet, and gave them an account of how the Lord had taken him out of prison. And he said, Give the news to James and the brothers. And then he went away.

Acts 12:18 Now when it was day, the armed men were greatly troubled about what had become of Peter.

Acts 12:19 And Herod, when he sent for him, and he was not there, after questioning the watchmen, gave orders that they were to be put to death. Then he went down from Judaea to Caesarea for a time.

Acts 12:20 Now he was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon: and they came to him, all together, and having made friends with Blastus, the controller of the king’s house, they made a request for peace, because their country was dependent on the king’s country for its food.

Acts 12:21 And on the day which had been fixed, Herod, dressed in his robes and seated in his place, made a public statement to them.

Acts 12:22 And the people, with loud cries, said, It is the voice of a god, not of a man.

Acts 12:23 And straight away the angel of the Lord sent a disease on him, because he did not give the glory to God: and his flesh was wasted away by worms, and so he came to his end.

Acts 12:24 But the word of the Lord went on increasing.

Acts 12:25 And Barnabas and Saul came back from Jerusalem, when their work was ended, taking with them John named Mark.

Acts 13:1 Now there were at Antioch, in the church there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon who was named Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, a relation of Herod the king, and Saul.

Acts 13:2 And while they were doing the Lord’s work, and going without food, the Holy Spirit said, Let Barnabas and Saul be given to me for the special work for which they have been marked out by me.

Acts 13:3 Then, after prayer and going without food they put their hands on them, and sent them away.

Acts 13:4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia; and from there they went by ship to Cyprus.

Acts 13:5 And at Salamis they were preaching the word of God in the Synagogues of the Jews: and John was with them, helping them.

Acts 13:6 And when they had gone through all the island to Paphos, they came across a certain wonder-worker and false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus;

Acts 13:7 Who was with the ruler, Sergius Paulus, an able man. This man sent for Barnabas and Saul, desiring to have knowledge of the word of God.

Acts 13:8 But Elymas, the wonder-worker (for that is the sense of his name), put himself against them, with the purpose of turning the ruler from the faith.

Acts 13:9 But Saul, whose other name is Paul, being full of the Holy Spirit, looking hard at him, said,

Acts 13:10 O you, who are full of false tricks and evil ways, a son of the Evil One, hating all righteousness, will you for ever be turning people from the right ways of the Lord?

Acts 13:11 And now, see, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind and not able to see the sun for a time. And straight away a dark mist came down on him; and he went about looking for a guide.

Acts 13:12 Then the ruler, when he saw what was done, had faith, being full of wonder at the teaching of the Lord.

Acts 13:13 Then Paul and those who were with him went by ship from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and there John went away from them and came back to Jerusalem.

Acts 13:14 But they, going through from Perga, came to Antioch in Pisidia; and they went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath and were seated.

Acts 13:15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent to them, saying, Brothers, if you have a word of comfort for the people, say on.

Acts 13:16 And Paul, getting up and making a sign with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and you who have the fear of God, give ear.

Acts 13:17 The God of this people Israel made selection of our fathers, lifting the people up from their low condition when they were living in the land of Egypt, and with a strong arm took them out of it.

Acts 13:18 And for about forty years he put up with their ways in the waste land.

Acts 13:19 And having put to destruction seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them the land for their heritage for about four hundred and fifty years.

Acts 13:20 And after these things he gave them judges, till the time of Samuel the prophet.

Acts 13:21 Then at their request for a king, God gave them Saul, the son of Kish, a man of the family of Benjamin, who was their king for forty years.

Acts 13:22 And having put him on one side, he made David their king, to whom he gave witness, saying, I have taken David, the son of Jesse, a man dear to my heart, who will do all my pleasure.

Acts 13:23 From this man’s seed has God given to Israel a Saviour, even Jesus, as he gave his word;

Acts 13:24 For whose coming John made ready the way by preaching to all the people of Israel the baptism which goes with a change of heart.

Acts 13:25 And when John was completing his work, he said, What do I seem to you to be? I am not he; but one is coming after me, whose shoes I am not good enough to undo.

Acts 13:26 My brothers, children of the family of Abraham, and those among you who have the fear of God, to us the word of this salvation is sent.

Acts 13:27 For the men of Jerusalem and their rulers, having no knowledge of him, or of the sayings of the prophets which come to their ears every Sabbath day, gave effect to them by judging him.

Acts 13:28 And though no cause of death was seen in him, they made a request to Pilate that he might be put to death.

Acts 13:29 And when they had done all the things said in the Writings about him, they took him down from the tree, and put him in the place of the dead.

Acts 13:30 But God gave him back from the dead:

Acts 13:31 And for a number of days he was seen by those who came with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses before the people.

Acts 13:32 And we are giving you the good news of the undertaking made to the fathers,

Acts 13:33 Which God has now put into effect for our children, by sending Jesus; as it says in the second Psalm, You are my Son; this day I have given you being.

Acts 13:34 And about his coming back from the dead, never again to go to destruction, he has said these words, I will give you the holy and certain mercies of David.

Acts 13:35 Because he says in another Psalm, You will not let your Holy One see destruction.

Acts 13:36 Now David, having done God's work for his generation, went to sleep, and was put with his fathers, and his body came to destruction:

Acts 13:37 But he, who was lifted up by God, did not see destruction.

Acts 13:38 And so, let it be clear to you, my brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is offered to you:

Acts 13:39 And through him everyone who has faith is made free from all those things, from which the law of Moses was not able to make you free.

Acts 13:40 So take care that these words of the prophets do not come true for you;

Acts 13:41 See, you doubters, have wonder and come to your end; for I will do a thing in your days to which you will not give belief, even if it is made clear to you.

Acts 13:42 And when they went out, they made a request that these words might be said to them again on the Sabbath after.

Acts 13:43 Now when the meeting was ended, a number of the Jews and of the God-fearing Gentiles who had become Jews, went after Paul and Barnabas: who put before them how important it was to keep on in the grace of God.

Acts 13:44 And on the Sabbath after, almost all the town came together to give hearing to the word of God.

Acts 13:45 But when the Jews saw such a great number of people, they were full of envy and said evil words against Paul's preaching.

Acts 13:46 Then Paul and Barnabas without fear said, It was necessary for the word of God to be given to you first; but because you will have nothing to do with it, and have no desire for eternal life, it will now be offered to the Gentiles.

Acts 13:47 For so the Lord has given us orders, saying, I have given you for a light to the Gentiles so that you may be for salvation to the ends of the earth.

Acts 13:48 And the Gentiles, hearing this, were glad and gave glory to the word of God: and those marked out by God for eternal life had faith.

Acts 13:49 And the word of the Lord went through all the country.

Acts 13:50 But the Jews, working up the feelings of the God-fearing women of high position and of the chief men of the town, got an attack started against Paul and Barnabas, driving them out of those parts.

Acts 13:51 But they, shaking off the dust of that place from their feet, came to Iconium.

Acts 13:52 And the disciples were full of joy and of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 14:1 Now in Iconium they went together to the Synagogue of the Jews and gave such teaching that a great number of Jews and Greeks had faith.

Acts 14:2 But those Jews who had not the faith, made the minds of the Gentiles bitter against the brothers.

Acts 14:3 So they kept there for a long time, taking heart in the Lord, who gave witness to the word of his grace by causing signs and wonders to be done by their hands.

Acts 14:4 But there was a division among the people of the town; some were on the side of the Jews and some on the side of the Apostles.

Acts 14:5 And when a violent attempt was made by the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, to make an attack on them and have them stoned,

Acts 14:6 Having got news of it, they went in flight to the towns of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the country round about:

Acts 14:7 And went on preaching the good news there.

Acts 14:8 And at Lystra there was a certain man, who from birth had been without the use of his feet, never having had the power of walking.

Acts 14:9 This man was giving ear to the preaching of Paul, who, looking at him, and seeing that he had faith to be made well, Acts 14:10 Said in a loud voice, Get up on your feet. And, jumping up, he went walking about.

Acts 14:11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they said in a loud voice, in the language of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the form of men.

Acts 14:12 And they gave the name of Jupiter to Barnabas, and to Paul that of Mercury, because he was the chief talker.

Acts 14:13 And the priest of the image of Jupiter, which was before the town, took oxen and flowers to the doors of the town, and was about to make an offering with the people.

Acts 14:14 But when this came to the ears of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas, they went running out among the people, parting their clothing, and crying out,

Acts 14:15 Good people, why are you doing these things? We are men with the same feelings as you, and we give you the good news so that you may be turned away from these foolish things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all things in them:

Acts 14:16 Who in the past let all nations go in the ways which seemed good to them.

Acts 14:17 But he was not without witness, because he did good, and gave you rain from heaven and times of fruit, making your hearts full of food and joy.

Acts 14:18 And even with these words, it was hard for them to keep the people from making an offering to them.

Acts 14:19 But some Jews came to that place from Antioch and Iconium, and got control over the people; and after stoning Paul, they had him pulled out of the town, taking him for dead.

Acts 14:20 But when the disciples came round him, he got up and went into the town: and the day after he went away with Barnabas to Derbe.

Acts 14:21 And having made a number of disciples through the preaching of the good news in that town, they went back to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch,

Acts 14:22 Making strong the souls of the disciples, saying to them that they were to keep the faith, and that we have to go through troubles of all sorts to come into the kingdom of God.

Acts 14:23 And when they had made selection of some to be rulers in every church, and had given themselves to prayer and kept themselves from food, they put them into the care of the Lord in whom they had faith.

Acts 14:24 And they went through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.

Acts 14:25 And, after preaching the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia;

Acts 14:26 And from there they went by ship to Antioch, where they had been handed over to the grace of God for the work which they had not done.

Acts 14:27 And when they came there, and had got the church together, they gave them an account of all the things which God had done through them, and how he had made open a door of faith to the Gentiles.

Acts 14:28 And they were with the disciples there for a long time.

Acts 15:1 Now certain men came down from Judaea, teaching the brothers and saying that without circumcision, after the rule of Moses, there is no salvation.

Acts 15:2 And after Paul and Barnabas had had no little argument and discussion with them, the brothers made a decision to send Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them to the Apostles and the rulers of the church at Jerusalem about this question.

Acts 15:3 So they, being sent on their way by the church, went through Phoenicia and Samaria, giving news of the salvation of the Gentiles, to the great joy of all the brothers.

Acts 15:4 And when they came to Jerusalem, they had a meeting with the church and the Apostles and the rulers, and they gave an account of all the things which God had done through them.

Acts 15:5 But some of the Pharisees, who were of the faith, got up and said, It is necessary for these to have circumcision and to keep the law of Moses.

Acts 15:6 And the Apostles and the rulers of the church came together and gave thought to the question.

Acts 15:7 And when there had been much discussion, Peter got up and said to them, My brothers, you have knowledge that some time back it was God’s pleasure that by my mouth the good news might be given to the Gentiles so that they might have faith.

Acts 15:8 And God, the searcher of hearts, was a witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit even as he did to us;

Acts 15:9 Making no division between them and us, but making clean their hearts by faith.

Acts 15:10 Why then are you testing God, by putting on the neck of the disciples a yoke so hard that not even our fathers or we were strong enough for it?

Acts 15:11 But we have faith that we will get salvation through the grace of the Lord Jesus in the same way as they.

Acts 15:12 And all the people were quiet while Barnabas and Paul gave an account of the signs and wonders which God had done among the Gentiles by them.

Acts 15:13 And when they had come to an end, James, answering, said, My brothers, give ear to me:

Acts 15:14 Symeon has given an account of how God was first pleased to take from among the Gentiles a people for himself.

Acts 15:15 And this is in agreement with the words of the prophets, as it is said,

Acts 15:16 After these things I will come back, and will put up the tent of David which has been broken down, building up again its broken parts and making it complete:

Acts 15:17 So that the rest of men may make search for the Lord, and all the Gentiles on whom my name is named,

Acts 15:18 Says the Lord, who has made these things clear from the earliest times.

Acts 15:19 For this reason my decision is, that we do not put trouble in the way of those who from among the Gentiles are turned to God;

Acts 15:20 But that we give them orders to keep themselves from things offered to false gods, and from the evil desires of the body, and from the flesh of animals put to death in ways against the law, and from blood.

Acts 15:21 For Moses, from times long past, has his preachers in every town, reading his law in the Synagogues every Sabbath.

Acts 15:22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and the rulers and all the church, to send men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas, named Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers:

Acts 15:23 And they sent a letter by them, saying, The Apostles and the older brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, may joy be with you:

Acts 15:24 Because we have knowledge that some who went from us have been troubling you with their words, putting your souls in doubt; to whom we gave no such order;

Acts 15:25 It seemed good to us, having come to an agreement together, to send these men to you, with our well loved Barnabas and Paul,

Acts 15:26 Men who have given up their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 15:27 And so we have sent Judas and Silas, who will say the same things to you themselves, by word of mouth.

Acts 15:28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us, to put on you nothing more than these necessary things;

Acts 15:29 To keep from things offered to false gods, and from blood, and from things put to death in ways which are against the law, and from the evil desires of the body; if you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. May you be happy.

Acts 15:30 So they, being sent away, came down to Antioch, and having got the people together, they gave them the letter.

Acts 15:31 And after reading it, they were glad of its comfort.

Acts 15:32 And Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, gave teaching to the brothers and made them strong in the faith.

Acts 15:33 And when they had been there for some time, they were sent back in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them.

Acts 15:34 []

Acts 15:35 But Paul and Barnabas kept on in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of God, with a number of others.

Acts 15:36 And after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go back and see the brothers in every town where we have given the word of God, and see how they are.

Acts 15:37 And Barnabas had a desire to take with them John, named Mark.

Acts 15:38 But Paul was of the opinion that it was not right to take with them one who had gone away from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone on with the work.

Acts 15:39 And there was a sharp argument between them, so that they were parted from one another, and Barnabas tookMark with him and went by ship to Cyprus;

Acts 15:40 But Paul took Silas and went away with the blessing of the brothers.

Acts 15:41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, making the churches stronger in the faith.

Acts 16:1 And he came to Derbe and Lystra: and there was a certain disciple there named Timothy, whose mother was one of the Jews of the faith, but his father was a Greek;

Acts 16:2 Of whom the brothers at Lystra and Iconium had a high opinion.

Acts 16:3 Paul had a desire for him to go with him, and he gave him circumcision because of the Jews who were in those parts: for they all had knowledge that his father was a Greek.

Acts 16:4 And on their way through the towns, they gave them the rules which had been made by the Apostles and the rulers of the church at Jerusalem, so that they might keep them.

Acts 16:5 So the churches were made strong in the faith and were increased in number every day.

Acts 16:6 And after they had gone through the land of Phrygia and Galatia, the Holy Spirit did not let them take the word into Asia;

Acts 16:7 And having come to Mysia, they made an attempt to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not let them;

Acts 16:8 And going past Mysia, they came down to Troas.

Acts 16:9 And Paul had a vision in the night; a man of Macedonia came, requesting him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia and give us help.

Acts 16:10 And when he had seen the vision, straight away we made the decision to go into Macedonia, for it seemed certain to us that God had sent us to give the good news to them.

Acts 16:11 So, from Troas we went straight by ship to Samothrace and the day after to Neapolis;

Acts 16:12 And from there to Philippi, which is the most important town of Macedonia and a Roman colony: and we were there for some days.

Acts 16:13 And on the Sabbath we went outside the town, by the river, where we had an idea that there would be a place of prayer; and, being seated, we had talk with the women who had come together.

Acts 16:14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a trader in purple cloth of the town of Thyatira, and a God-fearing woman, gave ear to us: whose heart the Lord made open to give attention to the things which Paul was saying.

Acts 16:15 And when she and her family had had baptism, she made a request to us, saying, If it seems to you that I am true to the Lord, come into my house and be my guests. And she made us come.

Acts 16:16 And when we were going to the place of prayer, we came across a girl with a spirit which gave knowledge of the future, whose masters made great profit from her power.

Acts 16:17 She came after Paul and us, crying out and saying, These men are the servants of the Most High God, who are giving you news of the way of salvation.

Acts 16:18 And this she did on a number of days. But Paul was greatly troubled and, turning, said to the spirit, I give you orders in the name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

Acts 16:19 But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they took Paul and Silas, pulling them into the market-place before the rulers;

Acts 16:20 And when they had taken them before the authorities, they said, These men, who are Jews, are greatly troubling our town;

Acts 16:21 Teaching rules of living which it is not right for us to have or to keep, being Romans.

Acts 16:22 And the people made an attack on them all together: and the authorities took their clothing off them, and gave orders for them to be whipped.

Acts 16:23 And when they had given them a great number of blows, they put them in prison, giving orders to the keeper of the prison to keep them safely:

Acts 16:24 And he, having such orders, put them into the inner prison with chains on their feet.

Acts 16:25 But about the middle of the night, Paul and Silas were making prayers and songs to God in the hearing of the prisoners;

Acts 16:26 And suddenly there was an earth-shock, so that the base of the prison was moved: and all the doors came open, and everyone’s chains came off.

Acts 16:27 And the keeper, coming out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, took his sword and was about to put himself to death, fearing that the prisoners had got away.

Acts 16:28 But Paul said in a loud voice, Do yourself no damage, for we are all here.

Acts 16:29 And he sent for lights and came rushing in and, shaking with fear, went down on his face before Paul and Silas,

Acts 16:30 And took them out and said, Sirs, what have I to do to get salvation?

Acts 16:31 And they said, Have faith in the Lord Jesus, and you and your family will have salvation.

Acts 16:32 And they gave the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.

Acts 16:33 And that same hour of the night, he took them, and when he had given attention to their wounds, he and all his family had baptism straight away.

Acts 16:34 And he took them into his house and gave them food, and he was full of joy, having faith in God with all his family.

Acts 16:35 But when it was day, the authorities sent the police, saying, Let these men go.

Acts 16:36 And the keeper said to Paul, The authorities have given orders to let you go: come out now, and go in peace.

Acts 16:37 But Paul said to them, They have given us who areRomans a public whipping without judging us, and have put us in prison. Will they now send us out secretly? no, truly, let them come themselves and take us out.

Acts 16:38 And the police gave an account of these words to the authorities, and they were full of fear on hearing that they were Romans;

Acts 16:39 Then they came and made prayers to them, requesting them, when they had taken them out, to go away from the town.

Acts 16:40 And they came out of the prison and went to the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brothers they gave them comfort and went away.

Acts 17:1 Now when they had gone through Amphipolis and Apollonia they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Synagogue of the Jews:

Acts 17:2 And Paul, as he generally did, went in to them, and on three Sabbath days had discussions with them from the holy Writings,

Acts 17:3 Saying to them clearly and openly that Christ had to be put to death and come back to life again; and that this Jesus, whom, he said, I am preaching to you, is the Christ.

Acts 17:4 And some of them had faith, and were joined to Paul and Silas; and a number of the God-fearing Greeks, and some of the chief women.

Acts 17:5 But the Jews, being moved with envy, took with them certain low persons from among the common people, and getting together a great number of people, made an outcry in the town, attacking the house of Jason with the purpose of taking them out to the people.

Acts 17:6 And when they were not able to get them, they took Jason and some of the brothers by force before the rulers of the town, crying, These men, who have made trouble all over the world have now come here;

Acts 17:7 Whom Jason has taken into his house: and they are acting against the orders of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus.

Acts 17:8 And hearing these things the people and the rulers of the town were troubled.

Acts 17:9 And having made Jason and the others give an undertaking to keep the peace, they let them go.

Acts 17:10 And the brothers straight away sent Paul and Silas away by night to Beroea: and they, when they came there, went to the Synagogue of the Jews.

Acts 17:11 Now these were more noble than the Jews of Thessalonica, for they gave serious attention to the word, searching in the holy Writings every day, to see if these things were so.

Acts 17:12 And a number of them had faith, and no small number of the Greek women of high position and of the men.

Acts 17:13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had news that Paul was preaching the word at Beroea, they came there, troubling the people and working them up.

Acts 17:14 So the brothers sent Paul straight away to the sea: but Silas and Timothy kept there still.

Acts 17:15 But those who went with Paul took him as far as Athens, and then went away, with orders from him to Silas and Timothy to come to him quickly.

Acts 17:16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was troubled, for he saw all the town full of images of the gods.

Acts 17:17 So he had discussions in the Synagogue with the Jews and God-fearing Gentiles, and every day in the market-place with those who were there.

Acts 17:18 And some of those who were supporters of the theories of the Epicureans and the Stoics, had a meeting with him. And some said, What is this talker of foolish words saying? And others, He seems to be a preacher of strange gods: because he was preaching of Jesus and his coming back from the dead.

Acts 17:19 And they took him to Mars' Hill, saying, Will you make clear to us what is this new teaching of yours?

Acts 17:20 For you seem to us to say strange things, and we have a desire to get the sense of them.

Acts 17:21 (Now all the Athenians and the men from other lands who come there were giving all their time to talking or hearing of anything new.)

Acts 17:22 And Paul got to his feet on Mars' Hill and said, O men of Athens, I see that you are overmuch given to fear of the gods.

Acts 17:23 For when I came by, I was looking at the things to which you give worship, and I saw an altar with this writing on it, TO THE GOD OF WHOM THERE IS NO KNOWLEDGE. Now, what you, without knowledge, give worship to, I make clear to you.

Acts 17:24 The God who made the earth and everything in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, is not housed in buildings made with hands;

Acts 17:25 And he is not dependent on the work of men's hands, as if he had need of anything, for he himself gives to all life and breath and all things;

Acts 17:26 And he has made of one blood all the nations of men living on all the face of the earth, ordering their times and the limits of their lands,

Acts 17:27 So that they might make search for God, in order, if possible, to get knowledge of him and make discovery of him, though he is not far from every one of us:

Acts 17:28 For in him we have life and motion and existence; as certain of your verse writers have said, For we are his offspring.

Acts 17:29 If then we are the offspring of God, it is not right for us to have the idea that God is like gold or silver or stone, formed by the art or design of man.

Acts 17:30 Those times when men had no knowledge were overlooked by God; but now he gives orders to all men in every place to undergo a change of heart:

Acts 17:31 Because a day has been fixed in which all the world will be judged in righteousness by the man who has been marked out by him for this work; of which he has given a sign to all men by giving him back from the dead.

Acts 17:32 Now on hearing about the coming back from death, some of them made sport of it, but others said, Let us go more fully into this another time.

Acts 17:33 And so Paul went away from among them.

Acts 17:34 But some men gave him their support: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

Acts 18:1 After these things, he went away from Athens, and came to Corinth.

Acts 18:2 And there he came across a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by birth, who not long before had come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had given orders that all Jews were to go away from Rome: and he came to them;

Acts 18:3 And because he was of the same trade, he was living with them, and they did their work together; for by trade they were tent-makers.

Acts 18:4 And every Sabbath he had discussions in the Synagogue, turning Jews and Greeks to the faith.

Acts 18:5 And when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was completely given up to the word, preaching to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus.

Acts 18:6 And when they put themselves against him, and said evil words, he said, shaking his clothing, Your blood be on your heads, I am clean: from now I will go to the Gentiles.

Acts 18:7 And moving from there, he went into the house of a man named Titus Justus, a God-fearing man, whose house was very near the Synagogue.

Acts 18:8 And Crispus, the ruler of the Synagogue, with all his family, had faith in the Lord; and a great number of the people of Corinth, hearing the word, had faith and were given baptism.

Acts 18:9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night, in a vision, Have no fear and go on preaching:

Acts 18:10 For I am with you, and no one will make an attack on you to do you damage: for I have a number of people in this town.

Acts 18:11 And he was there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

Acts 18:12 But when Gallio was ruler of Achaia, all the Jews together made an attack on Paul, and took him to the judge’s seat,

Acts 18:13 Saying, This man is teaching the people to give worship to God in a way which is against the law.

Acts 18:14 But when Paul was about to say something, Gallio said to the Jews, If this was anything to do with wrongdoing or crime, there would be a reason for me to give you a hearing:

Acts 18:15 But if it is a question of words or names or of your law, see to it yourselves; I will not be a judge of such things.

Acts 18:16 And he sent them away from the judge’s seat.

Acts 18:17 And they all made an attack on Sosthenes, the ruler of the Synagogue, and gave him blows before the judge’s seat; but Gallio gave no attention to these things.

Acts 18:18 And Paul, after waiting some days, went away from the brothers and went by ship to Syria, Priscilla and Aquila being with him; and he had had his hair cut off in Cenchrea, for he had taken an oath.

Acts 18:19 And they came down to Ephesus and he left them there: and he himself went into the Synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.

Acts 18:20 And being requested by them to be there for a longer time, he said, No;

Acts 18:21 And went from them, saying, I will come back to you if God lets me; and he took ship from Ephesus.

Acts 18:22 And when he had come to land at Caesarea, he went to see the church, and then went down to Antioch.

Acts 18:23 And having been there for some time, he went through the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, making the disciples strong in the faith.

Acts 18:24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, and a man of learning, came to Ephesus; and he had great knowledge of the holy Writings.

Acts 18:25 This man had been trained in the way of the Lord; and burning in spirit, he gave himself up to teaching the facts about Jesus, though he had knowledge only of John’s baptism:

Acts 18:26 And he was preaching in the Synagogue without fear. But Priscilla and Aquila, hearing his words, took him in, and gave him fuller teaching about the way of God.

Acts 18:27 And when he had a desire to go over into Achaia, the brothers gave him help, and sent letters to the disciples requesting them to take him in among them: and when he had come, he gave much help to those who had faith through grace:

Acts 18:28 For he overcame the Jews in public discussion, making clear from the holy Writings that the Christ was Jesus.

Acts 19:1 And it came about that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having gone through the higher country, came to Ephesus, where there were certain disciples:

Acts 19:2 And he said to them, Did you get the Holy Spirit when you had faith? And they said to him, No, we have had no knowledge of the Holy Spirit.

Acts 19:3 And he said, What sort of baptism did you have? And they said, The baptism of John.

Acts 19:4 And Paul said, John gave a baptism which goes with a change of heart, saying to the people that they were to have faith in him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus.

Acts 19:5 And hearing this, they had baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 19:6 And when Paul had put his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they had the power of talking in tongues, and acting like prophets.

Acts 19:7 And there were about twelve of these men.

Acts 19:8 And he went into the Synagogue, and for three months he was preaching there without fear, reasoning and teaching about the kingdom of God.

Acts 19:9 But because some of the people were hard-hearted and would not give hearing, saying evil words about the Way before the people, he went away from them, and kept the disciples separate, reasoning every day in the school of Tyrannus.

Acts 19:10 And this went on for two years, so that all those who were living in Asia had knowledge of the word of the Lord, Greeks as well as Jews.

Acts 19:11 And God did special works of power by the hands of Paul:

Acts 19:12 So that bits of linen and clothing from his body were taken to people who were ill, and their diseases went away from them and the evil spirits went out.

Acts 19:13 But some of the Jews who went from place to place driving out evil spirits, took it on themselves to make use of the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, I give you orders, by Jesus, whom Paul is preaching.

Acts 19:14 And there were seven sons of a man named Sceva, a Jew and a chief priest, who did this.

Acts 19:15 And the evil spirit, answering, said to them, I have knowledge of Jesus, and of Paul, but who are you?

Acts 19:16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, jumping on them, was stronger than the two of them, and overcame them, so that they went running from that house, wounded and without their clothing.

Acts 19:17 And this came to the ears of all those, Jews and Greeks, who were living at Ephesus; and fear came on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was made great.

Acts 19:18 And a number of those who had faith came and made a public statement of their sins and all their acts.

Acts 19:19 And a great number of those who were experts in strange arts took their books and put them on the fire in front of everyone: and when the books were valued they came to fifty thousand bits of silver.

Acts 19:20 So the word of the Lord was increased very greatly and was full of power.

Acts 19:21 Now after these things were ended, Paul came to a decision that when he had gone through Macedonia and Achaia he would go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I have a desire to see Rome.

Acts 19:22 And having sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, into Macedonia, he himself went on living in Asia for a time.

Acts 19:23 And about that time a great outcry took place about the Way.

Acts 19:24 For there was a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-worker, who made silver boxes for the images of Diana, and gave no small profit to the workmen;

Acts 19:25 Whom he got together, with other workmen of the same trade, and said to them, Men, it is clear that from this business we get our wealth.

Acts 19:26 And you see, for it has come to your ears, that not only at Ephesus, but almost all through Asia, this Paul has been teaching numbers of people and turning them away, saying that those are not gods who are made by men’s hands:

Acts 19:27 And there is danger, not only that our trade may be damaged in the opinion of men, but that the holy place of the great goddess Diana may be no longer honoured, and that she to whom all Asia and the world give worship, will be put down from her high position.

Acts 19:28 And hearing this, they were very angry, crying out and saying, Great is Diana of Ephesus.

Acts 19:29 And the town was full of noise and trouble, and they all came running into the theatre, having taken by force Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia who were journeying in company with Paul.

Acts 19:30 And when Paul was about to go in to the people, the disciples did not let him.

Acts 19:31 And some of the rulers of Asia, being his friends, sent to him, requesting him seriously not to put himself in danger by going into the theatre.

Acts 19:32 And some said one thing, and some another: for there was no order in the meeting; and most of them had no idea why they had come together.

Acts 19:33 Then they took Alexander out from among the people, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander, making a sign with his hand, was about to make a statement to the people in answer:

Acts 19:34 But when they saw that he was a Jew, all of them with one voice went on crying out for about two hours, Great is Diana of Ephesus.

Acts 19:35 And when the chief secretary had got the people quiet, he said, Men of Ephesus, is any man without knowledge that the town of Ephesus is the keeper of the holy place of the great Diana, who was sent down from Jupiter?

Acts 19:36 So then, because these things may not be doubted, it would be better for you to be quiet, and do nothing unwise.

Acts 19:37 For you have taken these men, who are not doing damage to the holy place or talking against our goddess.

Acts 19:38 If, then, Demetrius and the workmen who are with him have a protest to make against any man, the law is open to them, and there are judges; let them put up a cause at law against one another.

Acts 19:39 But if any other business is in question, let it be taken up in the regular meeting.

Acts 19:40 For, truly, we are in danger of being made responsible for this day’s trouble, there being no cause for it: and we are not able to give any reason for this coming together.

Acts 19:41 And when he had said this, he sent the meeting away.

Acts 20:1 And after the noise had come to an end, Paul, having sent for the disciples and given them comfort, went away from them to Macedonia.

Acts 20:2 And when he had gone through those parts and given them much teaching, he came into Greece.

Acts 20:3 And when he had been there three months, because the Jews had made a secret design against him when he was about to take ship for Syria, he made a decision to go back through Macedonia.

Acts 20:4 And Sopater of Beroea, the son of Pyrrhus, and Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia, went with him as far as Asia.

Acts 20:5 But these had gone before, and were waiting for us at Troas.

Acts 20:6 And we went away from Philippi by ship after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days; and we were there for seven days.

Acts 20:7 And on the first day of the week, when we had come together for the holy meal, Paul gave them a talk, for it was his purpose to go away on the day after; and he went on talking till after the middle of the night.

Acts 20:8 And there were a number of lights in the room where we had come together.

Acts 20:9 And a certain young man named Eutychus, who was seated in the window, went into a deep sleep; and while Paul went on talking, being overcome by sleep, he had a fall from the third floor, and was taken up dead.

Acts 20:10 And Paul went down and, falling on him, took him in his arms and said, Do not be troubled, for his life is in him.

Acts 20:11 And when he had gone up, and had taken the broken bread, he went on talking to them for a long time, even till dawn, and then he went away.

Acts 20:12 And they took the boy in, living, and were greatly comforted.

Acts 20:13 But we, going before him by ship, went to Assos with the purpose of taking Paul in there: for so he had given orders, because he himself was coming by land.

Acts 20:14 And when he came up with us at Assos, we took him in the ship and went on to Mitylene.

Acts 20:15 And going from there by sea, we came on the day after opposite Chios, and touching at Samos on the day after that, we came on the third day to Miletus.

Acts 20:16 For Paul’s purpose was to go past Ephesus, so that he might not be kept in Asia; for he was going quickly, in order, if possible, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.

Acts 20:17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus for the rulers of the church.

Acts 20:18 And when they had come, he said to them, You yourselves have seen what my life has been like all the time from the day when I first came into Asia, Acts 20:19 Doing the Lord’s work without pride, through all the sorrow and troubles which came on me because of the evil designs of the Jews:

Acts 20:20 And how I kept back nothing which might be of profit to you, teaching you publicly and privately,

Acts 20:21 Preaching to Jews and to Greeks the need for a turning of the heart to God, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.

Acts 20:22 And now, as you see, I am going to Jerusalem, a prisoner in spirit, having no knowledge of what will come to me there:

Acts 20:23 Only that the Holy Spirit makes clear to me in every town that prison and pains are waiting for me.

Acts 20:24 But I put no value on my life, if only at the end of it I may see the work complete which was given to me by the Lord Jesus, to be a witness of the good news of the grace of God.

Acts 20:25 And now I am conscious that you, among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom, will not see my face again.

Acts 20:26 And so I say to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men.

Acts 20:27 For I have not kept back from you anything of the purpose of God.

Acts 20:28 Give attention to yourselves, and to all the flock which the Holy Spirit has given into your care, to give food to the church of God, for which he gave his blood.

Acts 20:29 I am conscious that after I am gone, evil wolves will come in among you, doing damage to the flock;

Acts 20:30 And from among yourselves will come men who will give wrong teaching, turning away the disciples after them.

Acts 20:31 So keep watch, having in mind that for three years without resting I was teaching every one of you, day and night, with weeping.

Acts 20:32 And now, I give you into the care of God and the word of his grace, which is able to make you strong and to give you your heritage among all the saints.

Acts 20:33 I have had no desire for any man’s silver or gold or clothing.

Acts 20:34 You yourselves have seen that with these hands I got what was necessary for me and those who were with me.

Acts 20:35 In all things I was an example to you of how, in your lives, you are to give help to the feeble, and keep in memory the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, There is a greater blessing in giving than in getting.

Acts 20:36 And having said these words, he went down on his knees in prayer with them all.

Acts 20:37 And they were all weeping, falling on Paul's neck and kissing him,

Acts 20:38 Being sad most of all because he had said that they would not see his face again. And so they went with him to the ship.

Acts 21:1 And after parting from them, we put out to sea and came straight to Cos, and the day after to Rhodes, and from there to Patara:

Acts 21:2 And as there was a ship going to Phoenicia, we went in it.

Acts 21:3 And when we had come in view of Cyprus, going past it on our left, we went on to Syria, and came to land at Tyre: for there the goods which were in the ship had to be taken out.

Acts 21:4 And meeting the disciples we were there for seven days: and they gave Paul orders through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:5 And when these days came to an end, we went on our journey; and they all, with their wives and children, came with us on our way till we were out of the town: and after going on our knees in prayer by the sea,

Acts 21:6 We said our last words to one another, and got into the ship, and they went back to their houses.

Acts 21:7 And journeying by ship from Tyre we came to Ptolemais; and there we had talk with the brothers and were with them for one day.

Acts 21:8 And on the day after, we went away and came to Caesarea, where we were guests in the house of Philip, the preacher, who was one of the seven.

Acts 21:9 And he had four daughters, virgins, who were prophets.

Acts 21:10 And while we were waiting there for some days, a certain prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judaea.

Acts 21:11 And he came to us, and took the band of Paul's clothing, and putting it round his feet and hands, said, The Holy Spirit says these words, So will the Jews do to the man who is the owner of this band, and they will give him up into the hands of the Gentiles.

Acts 21:12 And hearing these things, we and those who were living in that place made request to him not to go to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:13 Then Paul said, What are you doing, weeping and wounding my heart? for I am ready, not only to be a prisoner, but to be put to death at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.

Acts 21:14 And as he might not be moved we did no more, saying, Let the purpose of God be done.

Acts 21:15 And after these days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem.

Acts 21:16 And some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, taking a certain Mnason of Cyprus, one of the early disciples, in whose house we were to be living.

Acts 21:17 And when we came to Jerusalem, the brothers were pleased to see us.

Acts 21:18 And on the day after, Paul went with us to James, and all the rulers of the church were present.

Acts 21:19 And when he had said how glad he was to see them, he gave them a detailed account of the things which God had done through his work among the Gentiles.

Acts 21:20 And hearing it, they gave praise to God; and they said to him, You see, brother, what thousands there are among the Jews, who have the faith; and they all have a great respect for the law:

Acts 21:21 And they have had news of you, how you have been teaching all the Jews among the Gentiles to give up the law of Moses, and not to give circumcision to their children, and not to keep the old rules.

Acts 21:22 What then is the position? They will certainly get news that you have come.

Acts 21:23 Do this, then, which we say to you: We have four men who have taken an oath;

Acts 21:24 Go with these, and make yourself clean with them, and make the necessary payments for them, so that they may be free from their oath: and everyone will see that the statements made about you are not true, but that you put yourself under rule, and keep the law.

Acts 21:25 But as to the Gentiles who have the faith, we sent a letter, giving our decision that they were to keep themselves from offerings made to false gods, and from blood, and from the flesh of animals put to death in ways against the law, and from the evil desires of the body.

Acts 21:26 Then Paul took the men, and on the day after, making himself clean with them, he went into the Temple, giving out the statement that the days necessary for making them clean were complete, till the offering was made for every one of them.

Acts 21:27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the Temple, got the people together and put their hands on him,

Acts 21:28 Crying out, Men of Israel, come to our help: this is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against the people and the law and this place: and in addition, he has taken Greeks into the Temple, and made this holy place unclean.

Acts 21:29 For they had seen him before in the town with Trophimus of Ephesus, and had the idea that Paul had taken him with him into the Temple.

Acts 21:30 And all the town was moved, and the people came running together and put their hands on Paul, pulling him out of the Temple: and then the doors were shut.

Acts 21:31 And while they were attempting to put him to death, news came to the chief captain of the band that all Jerusalem was out of control.

Acts 21:32 And straight away he took some armed men and went quickly down to them: and the Jews, seeing them, gave no more blows to Paul.

Acts 21:33 Then the chief captain came near and took him, and gave orders for him to be put in chains, questioning them as to who he was and what he had done.

Acts 21:34 And some said one thing and some another, among the people: and as he was not able to get a knowledge of the facts because of the noise, he gave orders for Paul to be taken into the army building.

Acts 21:35 And when he came on to the steps, he was lifted up by the armed men, because of the force of the people;

Acts 21:36 For a great mass of people came after them, crying out, Away with him!

Acts 21:37 And when Paul was about to be taken into the building, he said to the chief captain, May I say something to you? And he said, Have you a knowledge of Greek?

Acts 21:38 Are you by chance the Egyptian who, before this, got the people worked up against the government and took four thousand men of the Assassins out into the waste land?

Acts 21:39 But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, which is not an unimportant town: I make a request to you to let me say a word to the people.

Acts 21:40 And when he let him do so, Paul, from the steps, made a sign with his hand to the people, and when they were all quiet, he said to them in the Hebrew language,

Acts 22:1 My brothers and fathers, give ear to the story of my life which I now put before you.

Acts 22:2 And, hearing him talking in the Hebrew language, they became the more quiet, and he said,

Acts 22:3 I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia by birth, but I had my education in this town at the feet of Gamaliel, being trained in the keeping of every detail of the law of our fathers; given up to the cause of God with all my heart, as you are today.

Acts 22:4 And I made attacks on this Way, even to death, taking men and women and putting them in prison.

Acts 22:5 Of which the high priest will be a witness, and all the rulers, from whom I had letters to the brothers; and I went into Damascus, to take those who were there as prisoners to Jerusalem for punishment.

Acts 22:6 And it came about that while I was on my journey, coming near to Damascus, about the middle of the day, suddenly I saw a great light from heaven shining round me.

Acts 22:7 And when I went down on the earth, a voice came to my ears saying to me, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly?

Acts 22:8 And I, answering, said, Who are you; Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are attacking.

Acts 22:9 And those who were with me saw the light, but the voice of him who was talking to me came not to their ears.

Acts 22:10 And I said, What have I to do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Get up, and go into Damascus; and it will be made clear to you what you have to do.

Acts 22:11 And because I was unable to see because of the glory of that light, those who were with me took me by the hand, and so I came to Damascus.

Acts 22:12 And one Ananias, a God-fearing man, who kept the law, and of whom all the Jews in that place had a high opinion,

Acts 22:13 Came to my side and said, Brother Saul, let your eyes be open. And in that very hour I was able to see him.

Acts 22:14 And he said, You have been marked out by the God of our fathers to have knowledge of his purpose, and to see the Upright One and to give ear to the words of his mouth.

Acts 22:15 For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and of what has come to your ears.

Acts 22:16 And now, why are you waiting? get up, and have baptism, for the washing away of your sins, giving worship to his name.

Acts 22:17 And it came about that when I had come back to Jerusalem, while I was at prayer in the Temple, my senses became more than naturally clear,

Acts 22:18 And I saw him saying to me, Go out of Jerusalem straight away because they will not give hearing to your witness about me.

Acts 22:19 And I said, Lord, they themselves have knowledge that I went through the Synagogues putting in prison and whipping all those who had faith in you:

Acts 22:20 And when Stephen your witness was put to death, I was there, giving approval, and looking after the clothing of those who put him to death.

Acts 22:21 And he said to me, Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.

Acts 22:22 And they gave him a hearing as far as this word; then with loud voices they said, Away with this man from the earth; it is not right for him to be living.

Acts 22:23 And while they were crying out, and pulling off their clothing, and sending dust into the air,

Acts 22:24 The chief captain gave orders for him to be taken into the army building, saying that he would put him to the test by whipping, so that he might have knowledge of the reason why they were crying out so violently against him.

Acts 22:25 And when they had put leather bands round him, Paul said to the captain who was present, Is it the law for you to give blows to a man who is a Roman and has not been judged?

Acts 22:26 And hearing this, the man went to the chief captain and gave him an account of it, saying, What are you about to do? for this man is a Roman.

Acts 22:27 And the chief captain came to him and said, Give me an answer, are you a Roman? And he said, Yes.

Acts 22:28 And the chief captain said, I got Roman rights for myself at a great price. And Paul said, But I had them by birth.

Acts 22:29 Then those who were about to put him to the test went away: and the chief captain was in fear, seeing that he was a Roman, and that he had put chains on him.

Acts 22:30 But on the day after, desiring to have certain knowledge of what the Jews had to say against him, he made him free, and gave orders for the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to come together, and he took Paul and put him before them.

Acts 23:1 And Paul, looking fixedly at the Sanhedrin, said, My brothers, my life has been upright before God till this day.

Acts 23:2 And the high priest, Ananias, gave orders to those who were near him to give him a blow on the mouth.

Acts 23:3 Then Paul said to him, God will give blows to you, you whitewashed wall: are you here to be my judge by law, and by your orders am I given blows against the law?

Acts 23:4 And those who were near said, Do you say such words against God's high priest?

Acts 23:5 And Paul said, Brother, I had no idea that he was the high priest: for it has been said, You may not say evil about the ruler of your people.

Acts 23:6 But when Paul saw that half of them were Sadducees and the rest Pharisees, he said in the Sanhedrin, Brothers, I am a Pharisee, and the son of Pharisees: I am here to be judged on the question of the hope of the coming back from the dead.

Acts 23:7 And when he had said this, there was an argument between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and a division in the meeting.

Acts 23:8 For the Sadducees say that there is no coming back from the dead, and no angels or spirits: but the Pharisees have belief in all these.

Acts 23:9 And there was a great outcry: and some of the scribes on the side of the Pharisees got up and took part in the discussion, saying, We see no evil in this man: what if he has had a revelation from an angel or a spirit?

Acts 23:10 And when the argument became very violent, the chief captain, fearing that Paul would be pulled in two by them, gave orders to the armed men to take him by force from among them, and take him into the army building.

Acts 23:11 And the night after, the Lord came to his side and said, Be of good heart, for as you have been witnessing for me in Jerusalem, so will you be my witness in Rome.

Acts 23:12 And when it was day, the Jews came together and put themselves under an oath that they would take no food or drink till they had put Paul to death.

Acts 23:13 And more than forty of them took this oath.

Acts 23:14 And they came to the chief priests and the rulers and said, We have taken a great oath to take no food till we have put Paul to death

Acts 23:15 So now, will you and the Sanhedrin make a request to the military authorities to have him sent down to you, as if you were desiring to go into the business in greater detail; and we, before ever he gets to you, will be waiting to put him to death.

Acts 23:16 But Paul's sister's son had word of their design, and he came into the army building and gave news of it to Paul.

Acts 23:17 And Paul sent for a captain and said, Take this young man to your chief, for he has news for him.

Acts 23:18 So he took him to the chief captain and said, Paul, the prisoner, made a request to me to take this young man to you, for he has something to say to you.

Acts 23:19 And the chief took him by the hand and, going on one side, said to him privately, What is it you have to say to me?

Acts 23:20 And he said, The Jews are in agreement together to make a request to you for Paul to be taken, on the day after this, into the Sanhedrin, to be questioned in greater detail.

Acts 23:21 But do not give way to them, for more than forty of them are waiting for him, having taken an oath not to take food or drink till they have put him to death: and now they are ready, waiting for your order.

Acts 23:22 So the chief captain let the young man go, saying to him, Do not say to anyone that you have given me word of these things.

Acts 23:23 And he sent for two captains and said, Make ready two hundred men, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, to go to Caesarea, at the third hour of the night:

Acts 23:24 And get beasts so that they may put Paul on them, and take him safely to Felix, the ruler.

Acts 23:25 And he sent a letter in these words:

Acts 23:26 Claudius Lysias, to the most noble ruler, Felix, peace be with you.

Acts 23:27 This man was taken by the Jews, and was about to be put to death by them, when I came on them with the army and took him out of danger, having knowledge that he was a Roman.

Acts 23:28 And, desiring to get at the reason for their attack on him, I took him down to their Sanhedrin:

Acts 23:29 Then it became clear to me that it was a question of their law, and that nothing was said against him which might be a reason for prison or death.

Acts 23:30 And when news was given to me that a secret design was being made against the man, I sent him straight away to you, giving orders to those who are against him to make their statements before you.

Acts 23:31 So the armed men, as they were ordered, took Paul and came by night to Antipatris.

Acts 23:32 But on the day after, they sent the horsemen on with him, and went back to their place:

Acts 23:33 And they, when they came to Caesarea, gave the letter to the ruler, and took Paul before him.

Acts 23:34 And after reading it, he said, What part of the country do you come from? And, hearing that he was from Cilicia,

Acts 23:35 I will give hearing to your cause, he said, when those who are against you have come. And he gave orders for him to be kept in Herod’s Praetorium.

Acts 24:1 And after five days, the high priest, Ananias, came with certain of the rulers, and an expert talker, one Tertullus; and they made a statement to Felix against Paul.

Acts 24:2 And when he had been sent for, Tertullus, starting his statement, said, Because by you we are living in peace, and through your wisdom wrongs are put right for this nation,

Acts 24:3 In all things and in all places we are conscious of our great debt to you, most noble Felix.

Acts 24:4 But, so that I may not make you tired, I make a request to you of your mercy, to give hearing to a short statement.

Acts 24:5 For this man, in our opinion, is a cause of trouble, a maker of attacks on the government among Jews through all the empire, and a chief mover in the society of the Nazarenes:

Acts 24:6 Who, in addition, was attempting to make the Temple unclean: whom we took,

Acts 24:7 []

Acts 24:8 And from whom you will be able, by questioning him yourself, to get knowledge of all the things which we say against him.

Acts 24:9 And the Jews were in agreement with his statement, saying that these things were so.

Acts 24:10 Then when the ruler had given him a sign to make his answer, Paul said, Because I have knowledge that you have been a judge over this nation for a number of years, I am glad to make my answer:

Acts 24:11 Seeing that you are able to make certain of the fact that it is not more than twelve days from the time when I came up to Jerusalem for worship;

Acts 24:12 And they have not seen me in argument with any man in the Temple, or working up the feelings of the people, in the Synagogues or in the town:

Acts 24:13 And they are not able to give facts in support of the things which they say against me now.

Acts 24:14 But this I will say openly to you, that I do give worship to the God of our fathers after that Way, which to them is not the true religion: but I have belief in all the things which are in the law and in the books of the prophets:

Acts 24:15 Hoping in God for that which they themselves are looking for, that there will be a coming back from the dead for upright men and wrongdoers.

Acts 24:16 And in this, I do my best at all times to have no reason for shame before God or men.

Acts 24:17 Now after a number of years I came to give help and offerings to my nation:

Acts 24:18 And having been made clean, I was in the Temple, but not with a great number of people, and not with noise: but there were certain Jews from Asia, Acts 24:19 And it would have been better if they had come here to make a statement, if they have anything against me.

Acts 24:20 Or let these men here present say what wrongdoing was seen in me when I was before the Sanhedrin,

Acts 24:21 But only this one thing which I said among them in a loud voice, I am this day being judged on the question of the coming back from the dead.

Acts 24:22 But Felix, who had a more detailed knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, When Lysias, the chief captain, comes down, I will give attention to your business.

Acts 24:23 And he gave orders to the captain to keep Paul under his control, and to let him have everything he had need of; and not to keep his friends from coming to see him.

Acts 24:24 But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla his wife, who was of the Jews by birth, and sent for Paul, and gave hearing to him about faith in Christ Jesus.

Acts 24:25 And while he was talking about righteousness and self-control and the judging which was to come, Felix had great fear and said, Go away for the present, and when the right time comes I will send for you.

Acts 24:26 For he was hoping that Paul would give him money: so he sent for him more frequently and had talk with him.

Acts 24:27 But after two years Porcius Festus took the place of Felix, who, desiring to have the approval of the Jews, kept Paul in chains.

Acts 25:1 So Festus, having come into that part of the country which was under his rule, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.

Acts 25:2 And the chief priests and the chief men of the Jews made statements against Paul,

Acts 25:3 Requesting Festus to give effect to their design against him, and send him to Jerusalem, when they would be waiting to put him to death on the way.

Acts 25:4 But Festus, in answer, said that Paul was being kept in prison at Caesarea, and that in a short time he himself was going there.

Acts 25:5 So, he said, let those who have authority among you go with me, and if there is any wrong in the man, let them make a statement against him.

Acts 25:6 And when he had been with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and on the day after, he took his place on the judge’s seat, and sent for Paul.

Acts 25:7 And when he came, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem came round him, and made all sorts of serious statements against him, which were not supported by the facts.

Acts 25:8 Then Paul, in his answer to them, said, I have done no wrong against the law of the Jews, or against the Temple, or against Caesar.

Acts 25:9 But Festus, desiring to get the approval of the Jews, said to Paul, Will you go up to Jerusalem, and be judged before me there in connection with these things?

Acts 25:10 And Paul said, I am before the seat of Caesar's authority where it is right for me to be judged: I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you are well able to see.

Acts 25:11 If, then, I am a wrongdoer and there is a cause of death in me, I am ready for death: if it is not as they say against me, no man may give me up to them. Let my cause come before Caesar.

Acts 25:12 Then Festus, having had a discussion with the Jews, made answer, You have said, Let my cause come before Caesar; to Caesar you will go.

Acts 25:13 Now when some days had gone by, King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea and went to see Festus.

Acts 25:14 And as they were there for some days, Festus gave them Paul's story, saying, There is a certain man here who was put in prison by Felix:

Acts 25:15 Against whom the chief priests and the rulers of the Jews made a statement when I was at Jerusalem, requesting me to give a decision against him.

Acts 25:16 To whom I gave answer that it is not the Roman way to give a man up, till he has been face to face with those who are attacking him, and has had a chance to give an answer to the statements made against him.

Acts 25:17 So, when they had come together here, straight away, on the day after, I took my place on the judge's seat and sent for the man.

Acts 25:18 But when they got up they said nothing about such crimes as I had in mind:

Acts 25:19 But had certain questions against him in connection with their religion, and about one Jesus, now dead, who, Paul said, was living.

Acts 25:20 And as I had not enough knowledge for the discussion of these things, I made the suggestion to him to go to Jerusalem and be judged there.

Acts 25:21 But when Paul made a request that he might be judged by Caesar, I gave orders for him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.

Acts 25:22 And Agrippa said to Festus, I have a desire to give the man a hearing myself. Tomorrow, he said, you may give him a hearing.

Acts 25:23 So on the day after, when Agrippa and Bernice in great glory had come into the public place of hearing, with the chief of the army and the chief men of the town, at the order of Festus, Paul was sent for.

Acts 25:24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all those who are present here with us, you see this man, about whom all the Jews have made protests to me, at Jerusalem and in this place, saying that it is not right for him to be living any longer.

Acts 25:25 But, in my opinion, there is no cause of death in him, and as he himself has made a request to be judged by Caesar, I have said that I would send him.

Acts 25:26 But I have no certain account of him to send to Caesar. So I have sent for him to come before you, and specially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the business has been gone into, I may have something to put in writing.

Acts 25:27 For it seems to me against reason to send a prisoner without making clear what there is against him.

Acts 26:1 And Agrippa said to Paul, You may put your cause before us. Then Paul, stretching out his hand, made his answer, saying:

Acts 26:2 In my opinion I am happy, King Agrippa, to be able to give my answer before you today to all these things which the Jews say against me:

Acts 26:3 The more so, because you are expert in all questions to do with the Jews and their ways: so I make my request to you to give me a hearing to the end.

Acts 26:4 All the Jews have knowledge of my way of life from my early years, as it was from the start among my nation, and at Jerusalem;

Acts 26:5 And they are able to say, if they would give witness, that I was living as a Pharisee, in that division of our religion which is most regular in the keeping of the law.

Acts 26:6 And now I am here to be judged because of the hope given by God’s word to our fathers;

Acts 26:7 For the effecting of which our twelve tribes have been working and waiting night and day with all their hearts. And in connection with this hope I am attacked by the Jews, O king!

Acts 26:8 Why, in your opinion, is it outside belief for God to make the dead come to life again?

Acts 26:9 For I, truly, was of the opinion that it was right for me to do a number of things against the name of Jesus of Nazareth.

Acts 26:10 And this I did in Jerusalem: and numbers of the saints I put in prison, having had authority given to me from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my decision against them.

Acts 26:11 And I gave them punishment frequently, in all the Synagogues, forcing them to say things against God; and burning with passion against them, I went after them even into far-away towns.

Acts 26:12 Then, when I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and orders of the chief priests,

Acts 26:13 In the middle of the day, on the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who were journeying with me.

Acts 26:14 And when we had all gone down on the earth, a voice came to me, saying in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly? It is hard for you to go against the impulse which is driving you.

Acts 26:15 And I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom you are attacking.

Acts 26:16 But get up on your feet: for I have come to you for this purpose, to make you a servant and a witness of the things in which you have seen me, and of those in which you will see me;

Acts 26:17 And I will keep you safe from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you,

Acts 26:18 To make their eyes open, turning them from the dark to the light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may have forgiveness of sins and a heritage among those who are made holy by faith in me.

Acts 26:19 So, then, King Agrippa, I did not go against the vision from heaven;

Acts 26:20 But I went about, first to those in Damascus and Jerusalem, and through all the country of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, preaching a change of heart, so that they, being turned to God, might give, in their works, the fruits of a changed heart.

Acts 26:21 For this reason, the Jews took me in the Temple, and made an attempt to put me to death.

Acts 26:22 And so, by God’s help, I am here today, witnessing to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come about;

Acts 26:23 That the Christ would go through pain, and being the first to come back from the dead, would give light to the people and to the Gentiles.

Acts 26:24 And when he made his answer in these words, Festus said in a loud voice, Paul, you are off your head; your great learning has made you unbalanced.

Acts 26:25 Then Paul said, I am not off my head, most noble Festus, but my words are true and wise.

Acts 26:26 For the king has knowledge of these things, to whom I am talking freely; being certain that all this is common knowledge to him; for it has not been done in secret.

Acts 26:27 King Agrippa, have you faith in the prophets? I am certain that you have.

Acts 26:28 And Agrippa said to Paul, A little more and you will be making me a Christian.

Acts 26:29 And Paul said, It is my prayer to God that, in little or great measure, not only you, but all those hearing me today might be even as I am, but for these chains.

Acts 26:30 And the king and the ruler and Bernice and those who were seated with them got up;

Acts 26:31 And when they had gone away they said to one another, This man has done nothing which might give cause for death or prison.

Acts 26:32 And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been made free, if he had not put his cause before Caesar.

Acts 27:1 And when the decision had been made that we were to go by sea to Italy, they gave Paul and certain other prisoners into the care of a captain named Julius, of the Augustan band.

Acts 27:2 And we went to sea in a ship of Adramyttium which was sailing to the sea towns of Asia, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

Acts 27:3 And on the day after, we came to Sidon; and Julius was kind to Paul, and let him go to see his friends and take a rest.

Acts 27:4 And sailing again from there, we went on under cover of Cyprus, because the wind was against us.

Acts 27:5 And having gone across the sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia we came to Myra, in Lycia.

Acts 27:6 And there the captain came across a ship of Alexandria, sailing for Italy, and put us in it.

Acts 27:7 And when we had gone on slowly for a long time, and had had hard work getting across to Cnidus, for the wind was against us, we went under cover of Crete, in the direction of Salmone;

Acts 27:8 And sailing down the side of it, as well as we were able, we came to a certain place named Fair Havens, near which was the town of Lasea.

Acts 27:9 And as a long time had gone by, and the journey was now full of danger, because it was late in the year, Paul put the position before them, Acts 27:10 Saying, Friends, I see that this journey will be one of great damage and loss, not only to the goods and the ship, but to ourselves.

Acts 27:11 But the captain gave more attention to the master and the owner of the ship than to what Paul said.

Acts 27:12 And as the harbour was not a good one in which to be for the winter, the greater number of them were for going out to sea, in order, if possible, to put in for the winter at Phoenix, a harbour of Crete, looking to the north-east and south-east.

Acts 27:13 And when the south wind came softly, being of the opinion that their purpose might be effected, they let the ship go and went sailing down the side of Crete, very near to the land.

Acts 27:14 But after a little time, a very violent wind, named Euraquilo, came down from it with great force.

Acts 27:15 And when the ship got into the grip of it, and was not able to make headway into the wind, we gave way, and went before it.

Acts 27:16 And, sailing near the side of a small island named Cauda, we were able, though it was hard work, to make the ship's boat safe:

Acts 27:17 And having got it up, they put cords under and round the ship; but fearing that they might be pushed on to the Syrtis, they let down the sails and so went running before the wind.

Acts 27:18 And, still fighting the storm with all our strength, the day after they made a start at getting the goods out of the ship;

Acts 27:19 And on the third day, they let all the sailing apparatus go over the side.

Acts 27:20 And as we had not seen the sun or stars for a long time, and a great storm was on us, all hope of salvation was gone.

Acts 27:21 And when they had been without food for a long time, Paul got up among them and said, Friends, it would have been better if you had given attention to me and not gone sailing out from Crete, to undergo this damage and loss.

Acts 27:22 But now, I say to you, be of good heart, for there will be no loss of life, but only of the ship.

Acts 27:23 For this night there came to my side an angel of the God who is my Master and whose servant I am,

Acts 27:24 Saying, Have no fear, Paul, for you will come before Caesar, and God has given to you all those who are sailing with you.

Acts 27:25 And so, O men, be of good heart, for I have faith in God that it will be as he said to me.

Acts 27:26 But we will be sent on to a certain island.

Acts 27:27 But when the fourteenth day came, while we were going here and there in the Adriatic sea, about the middle of the night the sailors had an idea that they were getting near land;

Acts 27:28 And they let down the lead, and saw that the sea was a hundred and twenty feet deep; and after a little time they did it again and it was ninety feet.

Acts 27:29 Then, fearing that by chance we might come on to the rocks, they let down four hooks from the back of the ship, and made prayers for the coming of day.

Acts 27:30 Then the sailors made attempts secretly to get away from the ship, letting down a boat as if they were about to put down hooks from the front of the ship;

Acts 27:31 But Paul said to the captain and his men, If you do not keep these men in the ship, you will not be safe.

Acts 27:32 Then the armed men, cutting the cords of the boat, let her go.

Acts 27:33 And when dawn was near, Paul gave them all orders to take food, saying, This is the fourteenth day you have been waiting and taking no food.

Acts 27:34 So I make request to you to take food; for this is for your salvation: not a hair from the head of any of you will come to destruction.

Acts 27:35 And when he had said this and had taken bread, he gave praise to God before them all, and took a meal of the broken bread.

Acts 27:36 Then they all took heart and did the same.

Acts 27:37 And we were, in the ship, two hundred and seventy-six persons.

Acts 27:38 And when they had had enough food, they made the weight of the ship less, turning the grain out into the sea.

Acts 27:39 And when it was day, they had no knowledge of the land, but they saw an inlet of the sea with a floor of sand, and they had the idea of driving the ship up on to it if possible.

Acts 27:40 So cutting away the hooks, and letting them go into the sea, and freeing the cords of the guiding-blades, and lifting up the sail to the wind, they went in the direction of the inlet.

Acts 27:41 And coming to a point between two seas, they got the ship to land; and the front part was fixed in the sand and not able to be moved, but the back part was broken by the force of the waves.

Acts 27:42 Then the armed men were for putting the prisoners to death, so that no one would get away by swimming.

Acts 27:43 But the captain, desiring to keep Paul safe, kept them from their purpose, and gave orders that those who had knowledge of swimming were to go off the ship and get first to land:

Acts 27:44 And the rest, some on boards and some on things from the ship. And so it came about that they all got safe to land.

Acts 28:1 And when we were safe, we made the discovery that the island was named Melita.

Acts 28:2 And the simple people living there were uncommonly kind to us, for they made a fire for us, and took us in, because it was raining and cold.

Acts 28:3 But when Paul had got some sticks together and put them on the fire, a snake came out, because of the heat, and gave him a bite on the hand.

Acts 28:4 And when the people saw it hanging on his hand, they said to one another, Without doubt this man has put someone to death, and though he has got safely away from the sea, God will not let him go on living.

Acts 28:5 But shaking off the beast into the fire, he got no damage.

Acts 28:6 But they had the idea that they would see him becoming ill, or suddenly falling down dead; but after waiting a long time, and seeing that no damage came to him, changing their opinion, they said he was a god.

Acts 28:7 Now near that place there was some land, the property of the chief man of the island, who was named Publius; who very kindly took us into his house as his guests for three days.

Acts 28:8 And the father of Publius was ill, with a disease of the stomach; to whom Paul went, and put his hands on him, with prayer, and made him well.

Acts 28:9 And when this took place, all the others in the island who had diseases came and were made well.

Acts 28:10 Then they gave us great honour, and, when we went away, they put into the ship whatever things we were in need of.

Acts 28:11 And after three months we went to sea in a ship of Alexandria sailing under the sign of the Dioscuri, which had been at the island for the winter.

Acts 28:12 And going into the harbour at Syracuse, we were waiting there for three days.

Acts 28:13 And from there, going about in a curve, we came to Rhegium: and after one day a south wind came up and on the day after we came to Puteoli:

Acts 28:14 Where we came across some of the brothers, who kept us with them for seven days; and so we came to Rome.

Acts 28:15 And the brothers, when they had news of us, came out from town as far as Appii Forum and the Three Taverns to have a meeting with us: and Paul, seeing them, gave praise to God and took heart.

Acts 28:16 And when we came into Rome, they let Paul have a house for himself and the armed man who kept watch over him.

Acts 28:17 Then after three days he sent for the chief men of the Jews: and when they had come together, he said to them, My brothers, though I had done nothing against the people or the ways of our fathers, I was given, a prisoner from Jerusalem, into the hands of the Romans.

Acts 28:18 Who, when they had put questions to me, were ready to let me go free, because there was no cause of death in me.

Acts 28:19 But when the Jews made protest against it, I had to put my cause into Caesar's hands; not because I have anything to say against my nation.

Acts 28:20 But for this reason I sent for you, to see and have talk with you: for because of the hope of Israel I am in these chains.

Acts 28:21 And they said to him, We have not had letters from Judaea about you, and no one of the brothers has come to us here to give an account or say any evil about you.

Acts 28:22 But we have a desire to give hearing to your opinion: for as to this form of religion, we have knowledge that in all places it is attacked.

Acts 28:23 And when a day had been fixed, they came to his house in great numbers; and he gave them teaching, giving witness to the kingdom of God, and having discussions with them about Jesus, from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening.

Acts 28:24 And some were in agreement with what he said, but some had doubts.

Acts 28:25 And they went away, for there was a division among them after Paul had said this one thing: Well did the Holy Spirit say by the prophet Isaiah to your fathers,

Acts 28:26 Go to this people and say, Though you give ear, you will not get knowledge; and seeing, you will see, but the sense will not be clear to you:

Acts 28:27 For the heart of this people has become fat and their ears are slow in hearing and their eyes are shut; for fear that they might see with their eyes and give hearing with their ears and become wise in their hearts and be turned again to me, so that I might make them well.

Acts 28:28 Be certain, then, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will give hearing.

Acts 28:29 []

Acts 28:30 And for the space of two years, Paul was living in the house of which he had the use, and had talk with all those who went in to see him,

Acts 28:31 Preaching the kingdom of God and teaching about the Lord Jesus Christ without fear, and no orders were given that he was not to do so.

Romans

1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, an Apostle by the selection of God, given authority as a preacher of the good news,

Romans 1:2 Of which God had given word before by his prophets in the holy Writings,

Romans 1:3 About his Son who, in the flesh, came from the family of David,

Romans 1:4 But was marked out as Son of God in power by the Holy Spirit through the coming to life again of the dead; Jesus Christ our Lord,

Romans 1:5 Through whom grace has been given to us, sending us out to make disciples to the faith among all nations, for his name:

Romans 1:6 Among whom you in the same way have been marked out to be disciples of Jesus Christ:

Romans 1:7 To all those who are in Rome, loved by God, marked out as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 1:8 First of all, I give praise to my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because news of your faith has gone into all the world.

Romans 1:9 For God is my witness, whose servant I am in spirit in the good news of his Son, that you are at all times in my memory and in my prayers,

Romans 1:10 And that I am ever making prayers that God will give me a good journey to you.

Romans 1:11 For I have a strong desire to see you, and to give you some grace of the spirit, so that you may be made strong;

Romans 1:12 That is to say, that all of us may be comforted together by the faith which is in you and in me.

Romans 1:13 You may be certain, my brothers, that it has frequently been in my mind to come to you (but till now I was kept from it), so that I might have some fruit from you in the same way as I have had it from the other nations.

Romans 1:14 I have a debt to Greeks and to the nations outside; to the wise and to those who have no learning.

Romans 1:15 For which reason I have the desire, as far as I am able, to give the knowledge of the good news to you who are in Rome.

Romans 1:16 For I have no feeling of shame about the good news, because it is the power of God giving salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first, and then to the Greek.

Romans 1:17 For in it there is the revelation of the righteousness of God from faith to faith: as it is said in the holy Writings, The man who does righteousness will be living by his faith.

Romans 1:18 For there is a revelation of the wrath of God from heaven against all the wrongdoing and evil thoughts of men who keep down what is true by wrongdoing;

Romans 1:19 Because the knowledge of God may be seen in them, God having made it clear to them.

Romans 1:20 For from the first making of the world, those things of God which the eye is unable to see, that is, his eternal power and existence, are fully made clear, he having given the knowledge of them through the things which he has made, so that men have no reason for wrongdoing:

Romans 1:21 Because, having the knowledge of God, they did not give glory to God as God, and did not give praise, but their minds were full of foolish things, and their hearts, being without sense, were made dark.

Romans 1:22 Seeming to be wise, they were in fact foolish,

Romans 1:23 And by them the glory of the eternal God was changed and made into the image of man who is not eternal, and of birds and beasts and things which go on the earth.

Romans 1:24 For this reason God gave them up to the evil desires of their hearts, working shame in their bodies with one another:

Romans 1:25 Because by them the true word of God was changed into that which is false, and they gave worship and honour to the thing which is made, and not to him who made it, to whom be blessing for ever. So be it.

Romans 1:26 For this reason God gave them up to evil passions, and their women were changing the natural use into one which is unnatural:

Romans 1:27 And in the same way the men gave up the natural use of the woman and were burning in their desire for one another, men doing shame with men, and getting in their bodies the right reward of their evil-doing.

Romans 1:28 And because they had not the mind to keep God in their knowledge, God gave them up to an evil mind, to do those things which are not right;

Romans 1:29 Being full of all wrongdoing, evil, desire for the goods of others, hate, envy, putting to death, fighting, deceit, cruel ways, evil talk, and false statements about others;

Romans 1:30 Hated by God, full of pride, without respect, full of loud talk, given to evil inventions, not honouring father or mother,

Romans 1:31 Without knowledge, not true to their undertakings, unkind, having no mercy:

Romans 1:32 Who, though they have knowledge of the law of God, that the fate of those who do these things is death, not only go on doing these things themselves, but give approval to those who do them.

Romans 2:1 So you have no reason, whoever you are, for judging: for in judging another you are judging yourself, for you do the same things.

Romans 2:2 And we are conscious that God is a true judge against those who do such things.

Romans 2:3 But you who are judging another for doing what you do yourself, are you hoping that God's decision will not take effect against you?

Romans 2:4 Or is it nothing to you that God had pity on you, waiting and putting up with you for so long, not seeing that in his pity God's desire is to give you a change of heart?

Romans 2:5 But by your hard and unchanged heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of the revelation of God's judging in righteousness;

Romans 2:6 Who will give to every man his right reward:

Romans 2:7 To those who go on with good works in the hope of glory and honour and salvation from death, he will give eternal life:

Romans 2:8 But to those who, from a love of competition, are not guided by what is true, will come the heat of his wrath,

Romans 2:9 Trouble and sorrow on all whose works are evil, to the Jew first and then to the Greek;

Romans 2:10 But glory and honour and peace to all whose works are good, to the Jew first and then to the Greek:

Romans 2:11 For one man is not different from another before God.

Romans 2:12 All those who have done wrong without the law will get destruction without the law: and those who have done wrong under the law will have their punishment by the law;

Romans 2:13 For it is not the hearers of the law who will be judged as having righteousness before God, but only the doers:

Romans 2:14 For when the Gentiles without the law have a natural desire to do the things in the law, they are a law to themselves;

Romans 2:15 Because the work of the law is seen in their hearts, their sense of right and wrong giving witness to it, while their minds are at one time judging them and at another giving them approval;

Romans 2:16 In the day when God will be a judge of the secrets of men, as it says in the good news of which I am a preacher, through Jesus Christ.

Romans 2:17 But as for you who have the name of Jew, and are resting on the law, and take pride in God,

Romans 2:18 And have knowledge of his desires, and are a judge of the things which are different, having the learning of the law,

Romans 2:19 In the belief that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those in the dark,

Romans 2:20 A teacher of the foolish, having in the law the form of knowledge and of what is true;

Romans 2:21 You who give teaching to others, do you give it to yourself? you who say that a man may not take what is not his, do you take what is not yours?

Romans 2:22 You who say that a man may not be untrue to his wife, are you true to yours? you who are a hater of images, do you do wrong to the house of God?

Romans 2:23 You who take pride in the law, are you doing wrong to the honour of God by behaviour which is against the law?

Romans 2:24 For the name of God is shamed among the Gentiles because of you, as it is said in the holy Writings.

Romans 2:25 It is true that circumcision is of use if you keep the law, but if you go against the law it is as if you had it not.

Romans 2:26 If those who have not circumcision keep the rules of the law, will it not be credited to them as circumcision?

Romans 2:27 And they, by their keeping of the law without circumcision, will be judges of you, by whom the law is broken though you have the letter of the law and circumcision.

Romans 2:28 The true Jew is not one who is only so publicly, and circumcision is not that which may be seen in the flesh:

Romans 2:29 But he is a Jew who is a secret one, whose circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

Romans 3:1 How then is the Jew better off? or what profit is there in circumcision?

Romans 3:2 Much in every way: first of all because the words of God were given to them.

Romans 3:3 And if some have no faith, will that make the faith of God without effect?

Romans 3:4 In no way: but let God be true, though every man is seen to be untrue; as it is said in the Writings, That your words may be seen to be true, and you may be seen to be right when you are judged.

Romans 3:5 But if the righteousness of God is supported by our wrongdoing what is to be said? is it wrong for God to be angry (as men may say)?

Romans 3:6 In no way: because if it is so, how is God able to be the judge of all the world?

Romans 3:7 But if, because I am untrue, God being seen to be true gets more glory, why am I to be judged as a sinner?

Romans 3:8 Let us not do evil so that good may come (a statement which we are falsely said by some to have made), because such behaviour will have its right punishment.

Romans 3:9 What then? are we worse off than they? In no way: because we have before made it clear that Jews as well as Greeks are all under the power of sin;

Romans 3:10 As it is said in the holy Writings, There is not one who does righteousness;

Romans 3:11 Not one who has the knowledge of what is right, not one who is a searcher after God;

Romans 3:12 They have all gone out of the way, there is no profit in any of them; there is not one who does good, not so much as one:

Romans 3:13 Their throat is like an open place of death; with their tongues they have said what is not true: the poison of snakes is under their lips:

Romans 3:14 Whose mouth is full of curses and bitter words:

Romans 3:15 Their feet are quick in running after blood;

Romans 3:16 Destruction and trouble are in their ways;

Romans 3:17 And of the way of peace they have no knowledge:

Romans 3:18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.

Romans 3:19 Now, we have knowledge that what the law says is for those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and all men may be judged by God:

Romans 3:20 Because by the works of the law no man is able to have righteousness in his eyes, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.

Romans 3:21 But now without the law there is a revelation of the righteousness of God, to which witness is given by the law and the prophets;

Romans 3:22 That is, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, to all those who have faith; and one man is not different from another, Romans 3:23 For all have done wrong and are far from the glory of God;

Romans 3:24 And they may have righteousness put to their credit, freely, by his grace, through the salvation which is in Christ Jesus:

Romans 3:25 Whom God has put forward as the sign of his mercy, through faith, by his blood, to make clear his righteousness when, in his pity, God let the sins of earlier times go without punishment;

Romans 3:26 And to make clear his righteousness now, so that he might himself be upright, and give righteousness to him who has faith in Jesus.

Romans 3:27 What reason, then, is there for pride? It is shut out. By what sort of law? of works? No, but by a law of faith.

Romans 3:28 For this reason, then, a man may get righteousness by faith without the works of the law.

Romans 3:29 Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not in the same way the God of Gentiles? Yes, of Gentiles:

Romans 3:30 If God is one; and he will give righteousness because of faith to those who have circumcision, and through faith to those who have not circumcision.

Romans 3:31 Do we, then, through faith make the law of no effect? in no way: but we make it clear that the law is important.

Romans 4:1 What, then, may we say that Abraham, our father after the flesh, has got?

Romans 4:2 For if Abraham got righteousness by works, he has reason for pride; but not before God.

Romans 4:3 But what does it say in the holy Writings? And Abraham had faith in God, and it was put to his account as righteousness.

Romans 4:4 Now, the reward is credited to him who does works, not as of grace but as a debt.

Romans 4:5 But to him who without working has faith in him who gives righteousness to the evil-doer, his faith is put to his account as righteousness.

Romans 4:6 As David says that there is a blessing on the man to whose account God puts righteousness without works, saying,

Romans 4:7 Happy are those who have forgiveness for their wrongdoing, and whose sins are covered.

Romans 4:8 Happy is the man against whom no sin is recorded by the Lord.

Romans 4:9 Is this blessing, then, for the circumcision only, or in the same way for those who have not circumcision? for we say that the faith of Abraham was put to his account as righteousness.

Romans 4:10 How, then, was it judged? when he had circumcision, or when he had it not? Not when he had it, but when he did not have it:

Romans 4:11 And he was given the sign of circumcision as a witness of the faith which he had before he underwent circumcision: so that he might be the father of all those who have faith, though they have not circumcision, and so that righteousness might be put to their account;

Romans 4:12 And the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who keep to the way of that faith which our father Abraham had before he underwent circumcision.

Romans 4:13 For God's word, that the earth would be his heritage, was given to Abraham, not through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

Romans 4:14 For if they who are of the law are the people who get the heritage, then faith is made of no use, and the word of God has no power;

Romans 4:15 For the outcome of the law is wrath; but where there is no law it will not be broken.

Romans 4:16 For this reason it is of faith, so that it may be through grace; and so that the word of God may be certain to all the seed; not only to that which is of the law, but to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,

Romans 4:17 (As it is said in the holy Writings, I have made you a father of a number of nations) before him in whom he had faith, that is, God, who gives life to the dead, and to whom the things which are not are as if they were.

Romans 4:18 Who without reason for hope, in faith went on hoping, so that he became the father of a number of nations, as it had been said, So will your seed be.

Romans 4:19 And not being feeble in faith though his body seemed to him little better than dead (he being about a hundred years old) and Sarah was no longer able to have children:

Romans 4:20 Still, he did not give up faith in the undertaking of God, but was made strong by faith, giving glory to God,

Romans 4:21 And being certain that God was able to keep his word.

Romans 4:22 For which reason it was put to his account as righteousness.

Romans 4:23 Now, it was not because of him only that this was said,

Romans 4:24 But for us in addition, to whose account it will be put, if we have faith in him who made Jesus our Lord come back again from the dead,

Romans 4:25 Who was put to death for our evil-doing, and came to life again so that we might have righteousness.

Romans 5:1 For which reason, because we have righteousness through faith, let us be at peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;

Romans 5:2 Through whom, in the same way, we have been able by faith to come to this grace in which we now are; and let us have joy in hope of the glory of God.

Romans 5:3 And not only so, but let us have joy in our troubles: in the knowledge that trouble gives us the power of waiting;

Romans 5:4 And waiting gives experience; and experience, hope:

Romans 5:5 And hope does not put to shame; because our hearts are full of the love of God through the Holy Spirit which is given to us.

Romans 5:6 For when we were still without strength, at the right time Christ gave his life for evil-doers.

Romans 5:7 Now it is hard for anyone to give his life even for an upright man, though it might be that for a good man someone would give his life.

Romans 5:8 But God has made clear his love to us, in that, when we were still sinners, Christ gave his life for us.

Romans 5:9 Much more, if we now have righteousness by his blood, will salvation from the wrath of God come to us through him.

Romans 5:10 For if, when we were haters of God, the death of his Son made us at peace with him, much more, now that we are his friends, will we have salvation through his life;

Romans 5:11 And not only so, but we have joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we are now at peace with God.

Romans 5:12 For this reason, as through one man sin came into the world, and death because of sin, and so death came to all men, because all have done evil:

Romans 5:13 Because, till the law came, sin was in existence, but sin is not put to the account of anyone when there is no law to be broken.

Romans 5:14 But still death had power from Adam till Moses, even over those who had not done wrong like Adam, who is a picture of him who was to come.

Romans 5:15 But the free giving of God is not like the wrongdoing of man. For if, by the wrongdoing of one man death came to numbers of men, much more did the grace of God, and the free giving by the grace of one man, Jesus Christ, come to men.

Romans 5:16 And the free giving has not the same effect as the sin of one: for the effect of one man’s sin was punishment by the decision of God, but the free giving had power to give righteousness to wrongdoers in great number.

Romans 5:17 For, if by the wrongdoing of one, death was ruling through the one, much more will those to whom has come the wealth of grace and the giving of righteousness, be ruling in life through the one, even Jesus Christ.

Romans 5:18 So then, as the effect of one act of wrongdoing was that punishment came on all men, even so the effect of one act of righteousness was righteousness of life for all men.

Romans 5:19 Because, as numbers of men became sinners through the wrongdoing of one man, even so will great numbers get righteousness through the keeping of the word of God by one man.

Romans 5:20 And the law came in addition, to make wrongdoing worse; but where there was much sin, there was much more grace:

Romans 5:21 That, as sin had power in death, so grace might have power through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 6:1 What may we say, then? are we to go on in sin so that there may be more grace?

Romans 6:2 In no way. How may we, who are dead to sin, be living in it any longer?

Romans 6:3 Or are you without the knowledge that all we who had baptism into Christ Jesus, had baptism into his death?

Romans 6:4 We have been placed with him among the dead through baptism into death: so that as Christ came again from the dead by the glory of the Father, we, in the same way, might be living in new life.

Romans 6:5 For, if we have been made like him in his death, we will, in the same way, be like him in his coming to life again;

Romans 6:6 Being conscious that our old man was put to death on the cross with him, so that the body of sin might be put away, and we might no longer be servants to sin.

Romans 6:7 Because he who is dead is free from sin.

Romans 6:8 But if we are dead with Christ, we have faith that we will be living with him;

Romans 6:9 Having knowledge that because Christ has come back from the dead, he will never again go down to the dead; death has no more power over him.

Romans 6:10 For his death was a death to sin, but his life now is a life which he is living to God.

Romans 6:11 Even so see yourselves as dead to sin, but living to God in Christ Jesus.

Romans 6:12 For this cause do not let sin be ruling in your body which is under the power of death, so that you give way to its desires;

Romans 6:13 And do not give your bodies to sin as the instruments of wrongdoing, but give yourselves to God, as those who are living from the dead, and your bodies as instruments of righteousness to God.

Romans 6:14 For sin may not have rule over you: because you are not under law, but under grace.

Romans 6:15 What then? are we to go on in sin because we are not under law but under grace? Let it not be so.

Romans 6:16 Are you not conscious that you are the servants of him to whom you give yourselves to do his desire? if to sin, the end being death, or if to do the desire of God, the end being righteousness.

Romans 6:17 But praise be to God that though you were the servants of sin, you have now given yourselves freely to that form of teaching under which you were placed;

Romans 6:18 And being made free from sin you have been made the servants of righteousness.

Romans 6:19 I am using words in the way of men, because your flesh is feeble: as you gave your bodies as servants to what is unclean, and to evil to do evil, so now give them as servants to righteousness to do what is holy.

Romans 6:20 When you were servants of sin you were free from righteousness.

Romans 6:21 What fruit had you at that time in the things which are now a shame to you? for the end of such things is death.

Romans 6:22 But now, being free from sin, and having been made servants to God, you have your fruit in that which is holy, and the end is eternal life.

Romans 6:23 For the reward of sin is death; but what God freely gives is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.

Romans 7:1 Is it not clear, my brothers (I am using an argument to those who have knowledge of the law), that the law has power over a man as long as he is living?

Romans 7:2 For the woman who has a husband is placed by the law under the power of her husband as long as he is living; but if her husband is dead, she is free from the law of the husband.

Romans 7:3 So if, while the husband is living, she is joined to another man, she will get the name of one who is untrue to her husband: but if the husband is dead, she is free from the law, so that she is not untrue, even if she takes another man.

Romans 7:4 In the same way, my brothers, you were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, even to him who came again from the dead, so that we might give fruit to God.

Romans 7:5 For when we were in the flesh, the evil passions which came into being through the law were working in our bodies to give the fruit of death.

Romans 7:6 But now we are free from the law, having been made dead to that which had power over us; so that we are servants in the new way of the spirit, not in the old way of the letter.

Romans 7:7 What then is to be said? is the law sin? in no way. But I would not have had knowledge of sin but for the law: for I would not have been conscious of desire if the law had not said, You may not have a desire for what is another's.

Romans 7:8 But sin, taking its chance through that which was ordered by the law, was working in me every form of desire: because without the law sin is dead.

Romans 7:9 And there was a time when I was living without the law: but when the law gave its orders, sin came to life and put me to death;

Romans 7:10 And I made the discovery that the law whose purpose was to give life had become a cause of death:

Romans 7:11 For I was tricked and put to death by sin, which took its chance through the law.

Romans 7:12 But the law is holy, and its orders are holy, upright, and good.

Romans 7:13 Was then that which is good, death to me? In no way. But the purpose was that sin might be seen to be sin by working death to me through that which is good; so that through the orders of the law sin might seem much more evil.

Romans 7:14 For we are conscious that the law is of the spirit; but I am of the flesh, given into the power of sin.

Romans 7:15 And I have no clear knowledge of what I am doing, for that which I have a mind to do, I do not, but what I have hate for, that I do.

Romans 7:16 But, if I do that which I have no mind to do, I am in agreement with the law that the law is good.

Romans 7:17 So it is no longer I who do it, but the sin living in me.

Romans 7:18 For I am conscious that in me, that is, in my flesh, there is nothing good: I have the mind but not the power to do what is right.

Romans 7:19 For the good which I have a mind to do, I do not: but the evil which I have no mind to do, that I do.

Romans 7:20 But if I do what I have no mind to do, it is no longer I who do it, but the sin living in me.

Romans 7:21 So I see a law that, though I have a mind to do good, evil is present in me.

Romans 7:22 In my heart I take pleasure in the law of God,

Romans 7:23 But I see another law in my body, working against the law of my mind, and making me the servant of the law of sin which is in my flesh.

Romans 7:24 How unhappy am I! who will make me free from the body of this death?

Romans 7:25 I give praise to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So with my mind I am a servant to the law of God, but with my flesh to the law of sin.

Romans 8:1 For this cause those who are in Christ Jesus will not be judged as sinners.

Romans 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.

Romans 8:3 For what the law was not able to do because it was feeble through the flesh, God, sending his Son in the image of the evil flesh, and as an offering for sin, gave his decision against sin in the flesh:

Romans 8:4 So that what was ordered by the law might be done in us, who are living, not in the way of the flesh, but in the way of the Spirit.

Romans 8:5 For those who are living in the way of the flesh give their minds to the things of the flesh, but those who go in the way of the Spirit, to the things of the Spirit.

Romans 8:6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace:

Romans 8:7 Because the mind of the flesh is opposite to God; it is not under the law of God, and is not able to be:

Romans 8:8 So that those who are in the flesh are not able to give pleasure to God.

Romans 8:9 You are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God is in you. But if any man has not the Spirit of Christ he is not one of his.

Romans 8:10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.

Romans 8:11 But if the Spirit of him who made Jesus come again from the dead is in you, he who made Christ Jesus come again from the dead will in the same way, through his Spirit which is in you, give life to your bodies which now are under the power of death.

Romans 8:12 So then, my brothers, we are in debt, not to the flesh to be living in the way of the flesh:

Romans 8:13 For if you go in the way of the flesh, death will come on you; but if by the Spirit you put to death the works of the body, you will have life.

Romans 8:14 And all those who are guided by the Spirit of God are sons of God.

Romans 8:15 For you did not get the spirit of servants again to put you in fear, but the spirit of sons was given to you, by which we say, Abba, Father.

Romans 8:16 The Spirit is witness with our spirit that we are children of God:

Romans 8:17 And if we are children, we have a right to a part in the heritage; a part in the things of God, together with Christ; so that if we have a part in his pain, we will in the same way have a part in his glory.

Romans 8:18 I am of the opinion that there is no comparison between the pain of this present time and the glory which we will see in the future.

Romans 8:19 For the strong desire of every living thing is waiting for the revelation of the sons of God.

Romans 8:20 For every living thing was put under the power of change, not by its desire, but by him who made it so, in hope

Romans 8:21 That all living things will be made free from the power of death and will have a part with the free children of God in glory.

Romans 8:22 For we are conscious that all living things are weeping and sorrowing in pain together till now.

Romans 8:23 And not only so, but we who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we have sorrow in our minds, waiting for the time when we will take our place as sons, that is, the salvation of our bodies.

Romans 8:24 For our salvation is by hope: but hope which is seen is not hope: for who is hoping for what he sees?

Romans 8:25 But if we have hope for that which we see not, then we will be able to go on waiting for it.

Romans 8:26 And in the same way the Spirit is a help to our feeble hearts: for we are not able to make prayer to God in the right way; but the Spirit puts our desires into words which are not in our power to say;

Romans 8:27 And he who is the searcher of hearts has knowledge of the mind of the Spirit, because he is making prayers for the saints in agreement with the mind of God.

Romans 8:28 And we are conscious that all things are working together for good to those who have love for God, and have been marked out by his purpose.

Romans 8:29 Because those of whom he had knowledge before they came into existence, were marked out by him to be made like his Son, so that he might be the first among a band of brothers:

Romans 8:30 And those who were marked out by him were named; and those who were named were given righteousness; and to those to whom he gave righteousness, in the same way he gave glory.

Romans 8:31 What may we say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?

Romans 8:32 He who did not keep back his only Son, but gave him up for us all, will he not with him freely give us all things?

Romans 8:33 Who will say anything against the saints of God? It is God who makes us clear from evil;

Romans 8:34 Who will give a decision against us? It is Christ Jesus who not only was put to death, but came again from the dead, who is now at the right hand of God, taking our part.

Romans 8:35 Who will come between us and the love of Christ? Will trouble, or pain, or cruel acts, or the need of food or of clothing, or danger, or the sword?

Romans 8:36 As it is said in the holy Writings, Because of you we are put to death every day; we are like sheep ready for destruction.

Romans 8:37 But we are able to overcome all these things and more through his love.

Romans 8:38 For I am certain that not death, or life, or angels, or rulers, or things present, or things to come, or powers,

Romans 8:39 Or things on high, or things under the earth, or anything which is made, will be able to come between us and the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Romans 9:1 I say what is true in Christ, and not what is false, my mind giving witness with me in the Holy Spirit,

Romans 9:2 That I am full of sorrow and pain without end.

Romans 9:3 For I have a desire to take on myself the curse for my brothers, my family in the flesh:

Romans 9:4 Who are Israelites: who have the place of sons, and the glory, and the agreements with God, and the giving of the law, and the worship, and the hope offered by God:

Romans 9:5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom came Christ in the flesh, who is over all, God, to whom be blessing for ever. So be it.

Romans 9:6 But it is not as if the word of God was without effect. For they are not all Israel, who are of Israel:

Romans 9:7 And they are not all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, In Isaac will your seed be named.

Romans 9:8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh, but the children of God’s undertaking, who are named as the seed.

Romans 9:9 For this is the word of God’s undertaking, At this time will I come, and Sarah will have a son.

Romans 9:10 And not only so, but Rebecca being about to have a child by our father Isaac—

Romans 9:11 Before the children had come into existence, or had done anything good or bad, in order that God's purpose and his selection might be effected, not by works, but by him whose purpose it is,

Romans 9:12 It was said to her, The older will be the servant of the younger.

Romans 9:13 Even as it is said, I had love for Jacob, but for Esau I had hate.

Romans 9:14 What may we say then? is God not upright? let it not be said.

Romans 9:15 For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and pity on whom I will have pity.

Romans 9:16 So then, it is not by the desire or by the attempt of man, but by the mercy of God.

Romans 9:17 For the holy Writings say to Pharaoh, For this same purpose did I put you on high, so that I might make my power seen in you, and that there might be knowledge of my name through all the earth.

Romans 9:18 So then, at his pleasure he has mercy on a man, and at his pleasure he makes the heart hard.

Romans 9:19 But you will say to me, Why does he still make us responsible? who is able to go against his purpose?

Romans 9:20 But, O man, who are you, to make answer against God? May the thing which is made say to him who made it, Why did you make me so?

Romans 9:21 Or has not the potter the right to make out of one part of his earth a vessel for honour, and out of another a vessel for shame?

Romans 9:22 What if God, desiring to let his wrath and his power be seen, for a long time put up with the vessels of wrath which were ready for destruction:

Romans 9:23 And to make clear the wealth of his glory to vessels of mercy, which he had before made ready for glory,

Romans 9:24 Even us, who were marked out by him, not only from the Jews, but from the Gentiles?

Romans 9:25 As he says in Hosea, They will be named my people who were not my people, and she will be loved who was not loved.

Romans 9:26 And in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people, there they will be named the sons of the living God.

Romans 9:27 And Isaiah says about Israel, Even if the number of the children of Israel is as the sand of the sea, only a small part will get salvation:

Romans 9:28 For the Lord will give effect to his word on the earth, putting an end to it and cutting it short.

Romans 9:29 And, as Isaiah had said before, If the Lord of armies had not given us a seed, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah.

Romans 9:30 What then may we say? That the nations who did not go after righteousness have got righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith:

Romans 9:31 But Israel, going after a law of righteousness, did not get it.

Romans 9:32 Why? Because they were not searching for it by faith, but by works. They came up against the stone which was in the way;

Romans 9:33 As it is said, See, I am putting in Zion a stone causing a fall, and a rock in the way: but he who has faith in him will not be put to shame.

Romans 10:1 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is, that they may get salvation.

Romans 10:2 For I give witness of them that they have a strong desire for God, but not with knowledge.

Romans 10:3 Because, not having knowledge of God's righteousness, and desiring to give effect to their righteousness, they have not put themselves under the righteousness of God.

Romans 10:4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who has faith.

Romans 10:5 For Moses says that the man who does the righteousness which is of the law will get life by it.

Romans 10:6 But the righteousness which is of faith says these words, Say not in your heart, Who will go up to heaven? (that is, to make Christ come down:)

Romans 10:7 Or, Who will go down into the deep? (that is, to make Christ come again from the dead:)

Romans 10:8 But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart: that is, the word of faith of which we are the preachers:

Romans 10:9 Because, if you say with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and have faith in your heart that God has made him come back from the dead, you will have salvation:

Romans 10:10 For with the heart man has faith to get righteousness, and with the mouth he says that Jesus is Lord to get salvation.

Romans 10:11 Because it is said in the holy Writings, Whoever has faith in him will not be shamed.

Romans 10:12 And the Jew is not different from the Greek: for there is the same Lord of all, who is good to all who have hope in his name:

Romans 10:13 Because, Whoever will give worship to the name of the Lord will get salvation.

Romans 10:14 But how will they give worship to him in whom they have no faith? and how will they have faith in him of whom they have not had news? and how will they have news without a preacher?

Romans 10:15 And how will there be preachers if they are not sent? As it is said, How beautiful are the feet of those who give the glad news of good things.

Romans 10:16 But they have not all given ear to the good news. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has had faith in our word?

Romans 10:17 So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.

Romans 10:18 But I say, Did not the word come to their ears? Yes, certainly: Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.

Romans 10:19 But I say, Had Israel no knowledge? First Moses says, You will be moved to envy by that which is not a nation, and by a foolish people I will make you angry.

Romans 10:20 And Isaiah says without fear, Those who were not searching for me made discovery of me; and I was seen by those whose hearts were turned away from me.

Romans 10:21 But about Israel he says; All the day my hands have been stretched out to a people whose hearts were turned away, and who put themselves against my word.

Romans 11:1 So I say, Has God put his people on one side? Let there be no such thought. For I am of Israel, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.

Romans 11:2 God has not put away the people of his selection. Or have you no knowledge of what is said about Elijah in the holy Writings? how he says words to God against Israel,

Romans 11:3 Lord, they have put your prophets to death, and made waste your altars, and now I am the last, and they are searching for me to take away my life.

Romans 11:4 But what answer does God make to him? I have still seven thousand men whose knees have not been bent to Baal.

Romans 11:5 In the same way, there are at this present time some who are marked out by the selection of grace.

Romans 11:6 But if it is of grace, then it is no longer of works: or grace would not be grace.

Romans 11:7 What then? That which Israel was searching for he did not get, but those of the selection got it and the rest were made hard.

Romans 11:8 As it was said in the holy Writings, God gave them a spirit of sleep, eyes which might not see, and ears which have no hearing, to this day.

Romans 11:9 And David says, Let their table be made a net for taking them, and a stone in their way, and a punishment:

Romans 11:10 Let their eyes be made dark so that they may not see, and let their back be bent down at all times.

Romans 11:11 So I say, Were their steps made hard in order that they might have a fall? In no way: but by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, so that they might be moved to envy.

Romans 11:12 Now, if their fall is the wealth of the world, and their loss the wealth of the Gentiles, how much greater will be the glory when they are made full?

Romans 11:13 But I say to you, Gentiles, in so far as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I make much of my position:

Romans 11:14 If in any way those who are of my flesh may be moved to envy, so that some of them may get salvation by me.

Romans 11:15 For, if by their putting away, the rest of men have been made friends with God, what will their coming back again be, but life from the dead?

Romans 11:16 And if the first-fruit is holy, so is the mass: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

Romans 11:17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, an olive-tree of the fields, were put in among them, and were given a part with them in the root by which the olive-tree is made fertile,

Romans 11:18 Do not be uplifted in pride over the branches: because it is not you who are the support of the root, but it is by the root that you are supported.

Romans 11:19 You will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be put in.

Romans 11:20 Truly, because they had no faith they were broken off, and you have your place by reason of your faith. Do not be lifted up in pride, but have fear;

Romans 11:21 For, if God did not have mercy on the natural branches, he will not have mercy on you.

Romans 11:22 See then that God is good but his rules are fixed: to those who were put away he was hard, but to you he has been good, on the condition that you keep in his mercy; if not, you will be cut off as they were.

Romans 11:23 And they, if they do not go on without faith, will be united to the tree again, because God is able to put them in again.

Romans 11:24 For if you were cut out of a field olive-tree, and against the natural use were united to a good olive-tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be united again with the olive-tree which was theirs?

Romans 11:25 For it is my desire, brothers, that this secret may be clear to you, so that you may not have pride in your knowledge, that Israel has been made hard in part, till all the Gentiles have come in;

Romans 11:26 And so all Israel will get salvation: as it is said in the holy Writings, There will come out of Zion the One who makes free; by him wrongdoing will be taken away from Jacob:

Romans 11:27 And this is my agreement with them, when I will take away their sins.

Romans 11:28 As far as the good news is in question, they are cut off from God on account of you, but as far as the selection is in question, they are loved on account of the fathers.

Romans 11:29 Because God’s selection and his mercies may not be changed.

Romans 11:30 For as you, in time past, were not under the rule of God, but now have got mercy through their turning away,

Romans 11:31 So in the same way these have gone against the orders of God, so that by the mercy given to you they may now get mercy.

Romans 11:32 For God has let them all go against his orders, so that he might have mercy on them all.

Romans 11:33 O how deep is the wealth of the wisdom and knowledge of God! no one is able to make discovery of his decisions, and his ways may not be searched out.

Romans 11:34 Who has knowledge of the mind of the Lord? or who has taken part in his purposes?

Romans 11:35 Or who has first given to him, and it will be given back to him again?

Romans 11:36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever. So be it.

Romans 12:1 For this reason I make request to you, brothers, by the mercies of God, that you will give your bodies as a living offering, holy, pleasing to God, which is the worship it is right for you to give him.

Romans 12:2 And let not your behaviour be like that of this world, but be changed and made new in mind, so that by experience you may have knowledge of the good and pleasing and complete purpose of God.

Romans 12:3 But I say to every one of you, through the grace given to me, not to have an over-high opinion of himself, but to have wise thoughts, as God has given to every one a measure of faith.

Romans 12:4 For, as we have a number of parts in one body, but all the parts have not the same use,

Romans 12:5 So we, though we are a number of persons, are one body in Christ, and are dependent on one another;

Romans 12:6 And having different qualities by reason of the grace given to us, such as the quality of a prophet, let it be made use of in relation to the measure of our faith;

Romans 12:7 Or the position of a Deacon of the church, let a man give himself to it; or he who has the power of teaching, let him make use of it;

Romans 12:8 He who has the power of comforting, let him do so; he who gives, let him give freely; he who has the power of ruling, let him do it with a serious mind; he who has mercy on others, let it be with joy.

Romans 12:9 Let love be without deceit. Be haters of what is evil; keep your minds fixed on what is good.

Romans 12:10 Be kind to one another with a brother’s love, putting others before yourselves in honour;

Romans 12:11 Be not slow in your work, but be quick in spirit, as the Lord’s servants;

Romans 12:12 Being glad in hope, quiet in trouble, at all times given to prayer,

Romans 12:13 Giving to the needs of the saints, ready to take people into your houses.

Romans 12:14 Give blessing and not curses to those who are cruel to you.

Romans 12:15 Take part in the joy of those who are glad, and in the grief of those who are sorrowing.

Romans 12:16 Be in harmony with one another. Do not have a high opinion of yourselves, but be in agreement with common people. Do not give yourselves an air of wisdom.

Romans 12:17 Do not give evil for evil to any man. Let all your business be well ordered in the eyes of all men.

Romans 12:18 As far as it is possible for you be at peace with all men.

Romans 12:19 Do not give punishment for wrongs done to you, dear brothers, but give way to the wrath of God; for it is said in the holy Writings, Punishment is mine, I will give reward, says the Lord.

Romans 12:20 But if one who has hate for you is in need of food or of drink, give it to him, for in so doing you will put coals of fire on his head.

Romans 12:21 Do not let evil overcome you, but overcome evil by good.

Romans 13:1 Let everyone put himself under the authority of the higher powers, because there is no power which is not of God, and all powers are ordered by God.

Romans 13:2 For which reason everyone who puts himself against the authority puts himself against the order of God: and those who are against it will get punishment for themselves.

Romans 13:3 For rulers are not a cause of fear to the good work but to the evil. If you would have no fear of the authority, do good and you will have praise;

Romans 13:4 For he is the servant of God to you for good. But if you do evil, have fear; for the sword is not in his hand for nothing: he is God's servant, making God's punishment come on the evil-doer.

Romans 13:5 So put yourselves under the authority, not for fear of wrath, but because you have the knowledge of what is right.

Romans 13:6 For the same reason, make payment of taxes; because the authority is God's servant, to take care of such things at all times.

Romans 13:7 Give to all what is their right: taxes to him whose they are, payment to him whose right it is, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour is to be given.

Romans 13:8 Be in debt for nothing, but to have love for one another: for he who has love for his neighbour has kept all the law.

Romans 13:9 And this, Do not be untrue in married life, Do not put to death, Do not take what is another's, Do not have desire for what is another's, and if there is any other order, it is covered by this word, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself.

Romans 13:10 Love does no wrong to his neighbour, so love makes the law complete.

Romans 13:11 See then that the time has come for you to be awake from sleep: for now is your salvation nearer than when you first had faith.

Romans 13:12 The night is far gone, and the day is near: so let us put off the works of the dark, arming ourselves with light,

Romans 13:13 With right behaviour as in the day; not in pleasure-making and drinking, not in bad company and unclean behaviour, not in fighting and envy.

Romans 13:14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not give thought to the flesh to do its desires.

Romans 14:1 Do not put on one side him who is feeble in faith, and do not put him in doubt by your reasonings.

Romans 14:2 One man has faith to take all things as food: another who is feeble in faith takes only green food.

Romans 14:3 Let not him who takes food have a low opinion of him who does not: and let not him who does not take food be a judge of him who does; for he has God's approval.

Romans 14:4 Who are you to make yourself a judge of another man's servant? it is to his master that he is responsible for good or bad. Yes, his place will be safe, because the Lord is able to keep him from falling.

Romans 14:5 This man puts one day before another: to that man they are the same. Let every man be certain in his mind.

Romans 14:6 He who keeps the day, keeps it to the Lord; and he who takes food, takes it as to the Lord, for he gives praise to God; and he who does not take food, to the Lord he takes it not, and gives praise to God.

Romans 14:7 For every man's life and every man's death has a relation to others as well as to himself.

Romans 14:8 As long as we have life we are living to the Lord; or if we give up our life it is to the Lord; so if we are living, or if our life comes to an end, we are the Lord's.

Romans 14:9 And for this purpose Christ went into death and came back again, that he might be the Lord of the dead and of the living.

Romans 14:10 But you, why do you make yourself your brother's judge? or again, why have you no respect for your brother? because we will all have to take our place before God as our judge.

Romans 14:11 For it is said in the holy Writings, By my life, says the Lord, to me every knee will be bent, and every tongue will give worship to God.

Romans 14:12 So every one of us will have to give an account of himself to God.

Romans 14:13 Then let us not be judges of one another any longer: but keep this in mind, that no man is to make it hard for his brother, or give him cause for doubting.

Romans 14:14 I am conscious of this, and am certain in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself; but for the man in whose opinion it is unclean, for him it is unclean.

Romans 14:15 And if because of food your brother is troubled, then you are no longer going on in the way of love. Do not let your food be destruction to him for whom Christ went into death.

Romans 14:16 Let it not be possible for men to say evil about your good:

Romans 14:17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.

Romans 14:18 And he who in these things is Christ’s servant, is pleasing to God and has the approval of men.

Romans 14:19 So then, let us go after the things which make peace, and the things by which we may be a help to one another.

Romans 14:20 Do not let the work of God come to nothing on account of food. All things are certainly clean; but it is evil for that man who by taking food makes it hard for another.

Romans 14:21 It is better not to take meat or wine or to do anything which might be a cause of trouble to your brother.

Romans 14:22 The faith which you have, have it to yourself before God. Happy is the man who is not judged by that to which he gives approval.

Romans 14:23 But he who is in doubt is judged if he takes food, because he does it not in faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

Romans 15:1 We who are strong have to be a support to the feeble, and not give pleasure to ourselves.

Romans 15:2 Let every one of us give pleasure to his neighbour for his good, to make him strong.

Romans 15:3 For Christ did not give pleasure to himself, but, as it is said, The bitter words of those who were angry with you came on me.

Romans 15:4 Now those things which were put down in writing before our time were for our learning, so that through quiet waiting and through the comfort of the holy Writings we might have hope.

Romans 15:5 Now may the God who gives comfort and strength in waiting make you of the same mind with one another in harmony with Christ Jesus:

Romans 15:6 So that with one mouth you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Romans 15:7 So then, take one another to your hearts, as Christ took us, to the glory of God.

Romans 15:8 Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision to give effect to the undertakings given by God to the fathers,

Romans 15:9 And so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercy; as it is said, For this reason I will give praise to you among the Gentiles, and I will make a song to your name.

Romans 15:10 And again he says, Take part, you Gentiles, in the joy of his people.

Romans 15:11 And again, Give praise to the Lord, all you Gentiles; and let all the nations give praise to him.

Romans 15:12 And again Isaiah says, There will be the root of Jesse, and he who comes to be the ruler over the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles put their hope.

Romans 15:13 Now may the God of hope make you full of joy and peace through faith, so that all hope may be yours in the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:14 And I myself am certain of you, brothers, that you are full of what is good, complete in all knowledge, able to give direction to one another.

Romans 15:15 But I have, in some measure, less fear in writing to you to put these things before you again, because of the grace which was given to me by God,

Romans 15:16 To be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, doing the work of a priest in the good news of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be pleasing to God, being made holy by the Holy Spirit.

Romans 15:17 So I have pride in Christ Jesus in the things which are God’s.

Romans 15:18 And I will keep myself from talking of anything but those things which Christ has done by me to put the Gentiles under his rule in word and in act,

Romans 15:19 By signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Spirit; so that from Jerusalem and round about as far as Illyricum I have given all the good news of Christ;

Romans 15:20 Making it my purpose not to take the good news where Christ was named, so that my work might not be resting on that of others;

Romans 15:21 But as it is said in the holy Writings, They will see, to whom the news of him had not been given, and those to whose ears it had not come will have knowledge.

Romans 15:22 For which reason I was frequently kept from coming to you:

Romans 15:23 But now, having no longer any place in these parts and having had for a number of years a great desire to come to you,

Romans 15:24 Whenever I go to Spain (for it is my hope to see you on my way, and to be sent on there by you, if first I may in some measure have been comforted by your company)—

Romans 15:25 But now I go to Jerusalem, taking help for the saints.

Romans 15:26 For it has been the good pleasure of those of Macedonia and Achaia to send a certain amount of money for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.

Romans 15:27 Yes, it has been their good pleasure; and they are in their debt. For if the Gentiles have had a part in the things of the Spirit which were theirs, it is right for them, in the same way, to give them help in the things of the flesh.

Romans 15:28 So when I have done this, and have given them this fruit of love, I will go on by you into Spain.

Romans 15:29 And I am certain that when I come, I will be full of the blessing of Christ.

Romans 15:30 Now I make request to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you will be working together with me in your prayers to God for me;

Romans 15:31 So that I may be kept safe from those in Judaea who have not put themselves under the rule of God, and that the help which I am taking for Jerusalem may be pleasing to the saints;

Romans 15:32 So that I may come to you in joy by the good pleasure of God, and have rest with you.

Romans 15:33 Now may the God of peace be with you all. So be it.

Romans 16:1 It is my desire to say a good word for Phoebe, who is a servant of the church in Cenchreae:

Romans 16:2 That you will take her in kindly, after the way of the saints, as one who is the Lord's, and give her help in anything in which she may have need of you: because she has been a help to a great number and to myself.

Romans 16:3 Give my love to Prisca and Aquila, workers with me in Christ Jesus,

Romans 16:4 Who for my life put their necks in danger; to whom not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are in debt:

Romans 16:5 And say a kind word to the church which is in their house. Give my love to my dear Epaenetus, who is the first fruit of Asia to Christ.

Romans 16:6 Give my love to Mary, who gave much care to you.

Romans 16:7 Give my love to Andronicus and Junia, my relations, who were in prison with me, who are noted among the Apostles, and who were in Christ before me.

Romans 16:8 Give my love to Ampliatus, who is dear to me in the Lord,

Romans 16:9 Give my love to Urbanus, a worker in Christ with us, and to my dear Stachys.

Romans 16:10 Give my love to Apelles, who has the approval of Christ. Say a kind word to those who are of the house of Aristobulus.

Romans 16:11 Give my love to Herodion, my relation. Say a kind word to those of the house of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

Romans 16:12 Give my love to Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Give my love to my dear Persis, who did much work in the Lord.

Romans 16:13 Give my love to Rufus, one of the Lord's selection, and to his mother and mine.

Romans 16:14 Give my love to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.

Romans 16:15 Give my love to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.

Romans 16:16 Give one another a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send their love to you.

Romans 16:17 Now, it is my desire, brothers, that you will take note of those who are causing division and trouble among you, quite against the teaching which was given to you: and keep away from them.

Romans 16:18 For such people are not servants of the Lord Christ, but of their stomachs; and by their smooth and well-said words the hearts of those who have no knowledge of evil are tricked.

Romans 16:19 For all have knowledge of how you do what you are ordered. For this reason I have joy in you, but it is my desire that you may be wise in what is good, and without knowledge of evil.

Romans 16:20 And the God of peace will be crushing Satan under your feet before long. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

Romans 16:21 Timothy, who is working with me, sends his love to you, so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relations.

Romans 16:22 I, Tertius, who have done the writing of this letter, send love in the Lord.

Romans 16:23 Gaius, with whom I am living, whose house is open to all the church, sends his love, so does Erastus, the manager of the accounts of the town, and Quartus, the brother.

Romans 16:24 []

Romans 16:25 Now to him who is able to make you strong in agreement with the good news which I gave you and the preaching of Jesus Christ, in the light of the revelation of that secret which has been kept through times eternal,

Romans 16:26 But is now made clear; and by the writings of the prophets, by the order of the eternal God, the knowledge of it has been given to all the nations, so that they may come under the rule of the faith;

Romans 16:27 To the only wise God, through Jesus Christ, be the glory for ever. So be it.

1 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, and Sosthenes the brother,

1 Corinthians 1:2 To the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who have been made holy in Christ Jesus, saints by the selection of God, with all those who in every place give honour to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:

1 Corinthians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:4 I give praise to my God for you at all times, because of the grace of God which has been given to you in Christ Jesus;

1 Corinthians 1:5 So that in him you have wealth in all things, in word and in knowledge of every sort;

1 Corinthians 1:6 Even as the witness of the Christ has been made certain among you:

1 Corinthians 1:7 So that having every grace you are living in the hope of the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ;

1 Corinthians 1:8 Who will give you strength to the end, to be free from all sin in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 1:9 God is true, through whom you have been given a part with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Corinthians 1:10 Now I make request to you, my brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you will all say the same thing, and that there may be no divisions among you, so that you may be in complete agreement, in the same mind and in the same opinion.

1 Corinthians 1:11 Because it has come to my knowledge, through those of the house of Chloe, that there are divisions among you, my brothers.

1 Corinthians 1:12 That is, that some of you say, I am of Paul; some say, I am of Apollos; some say, I am of Cephas; and some say, I am Christ’s.

1 Corinthians 1:13 Is there a division in Christ? was Paul nailed to the cross for you? or were you given baptism in the name of Paul?

1 Corinthians 1:14 I give praise to God that not one of you had baptism from me, but Crispus and Gaius;

1 Corinthians 1:15 So that no one may be able to say that you had baptism in my name.

1 Corinthians 1:16 And I gave baptism to the house of Stephanas; but I am not certain that any others had baptism from me.

1 Corinthians 1:17 For Christ sent me, not to give baptism, but to be a preacher of the good news: not with wise words, for fear that the cross of Christ might be made of no value.

1 Corinthians 1:18 For the word of the cross seems foolish to those who are on the way to destruction; but to us who are on the way to salvation it is the power of God.

1 Corinthians 1:19 As it says in the holy Writings, I will put an end to the wisdom of the wise, and will put on one side the designs of those who have knowledge.

1 Corinthians 1:20 Where is the wise? where is he who has knowledge of the law? where is the man of this world who has a love of discussion? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

1 Corinthians 1:21 For because, by the purpose of God, the world, with all its wisdom, had not the knowledge of God, it was God's pleasure, by so foolish a thing as preaching, to give salvation to those who had faith in him.

1 Corinthians 1:22 Seeing that the Jews make request for signs, and the Greeks are looking for knowledge:

1 Corinthians 1:23 But we give the good news of Christ on the cross, a hard thing to the Jews, and a foolish thing to the Gentiles;

1 Corinthians 1:24 But to those of God's selection, Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power and the wisdom of God.

1 Corinthians 1:25 Because what seems foolish in God is wiser than men; and what seems feeble in God is stronger than men.

1 Corinthians 1:26 For you see God's design for you, my brothers, that he has not taken a great number of the wise after the flesh, not the strong, not the noble:

1 Corinthians 1:27 But God made selection of the foolish things of this world so that he might put the wise to shame; and the feeble things that he might put to shame the strong;

1 Corinthians 1:28 And the low things of the world, and the things without honour, did God make selection of, yes, even the things which are not, so that he might make as nothing the things which are:

1 Corinthians 1:29 So that no flesh might have glory before God.

1 Corinthians 1:30 But God has given you a place in Christ Jesus, through whom God has given us wisdom and righteousness and salvation, and made us holy:

1 Corinthians 1:31 So that, as it is said in the holy Writings, Whoever has a desire for glory, let his glory be in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 2:1 And when I came to you, my brothers, I did not come with wise words of knowledge, putting before you the secret of God.

1 Corinthians 2:2 For I had made the decision to have knowledge of nothing among you but only of Jesus Christ on the cross.

1 Corinthians 2:3 And I was with you without strength, in fear and in doubt.

1 Corinthians 2:4 And in my preaching there were no honeyed words of wisdom, but I was dependent on the power of the Spirit to make it clear to you:

1 Corinthians 2:5 So that your faith might be based not on man's wisdom but on the power of God.

1 Corinthians 2:6 But still we have wisdom for those who are complete in knowledge, though not the wisdom of this world, and not of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing:

1 Corinthians 2:7 But we give the news of the secret wisdom of God, which he had kept in store before the world came into existence, for our glory;

1 Corinthians 2:8 Of which not one of the rulers of this world had knowledge: for if they had, they would not have put the Lord of glory on the cross:

1 Corinthians 2:9 But as it says in the holy Writings, Things which the eye saw not, and which had not come to the ears or into the heart of man, such things as God has made ready for those who have love for him.

1 Corinthians 2:10 But God has given us the revelation of these things through his Spirit, for the Spirit makes search into all things, even the deep things of God.

1 Corinthians 2:11 For who has knowledge of the things of a man but the spirit of the man which is in him? in the same way, no one has knowledge of the things of God but the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 2:12 But we have not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which comes from God, so that we may have knowledge of the things which are freely given to us by God.

1 Corinthians 2:13 And these are the things which we say, not in the language of man's wisdom, but in words given to us by the Spirit, judging the things of the spirit by the help of the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:14 For the natural man is not able to take in the things of the Spirit of God: for they seem foolish to him, and he is not able to have knowledge of them, because such knowledge comes only through the Spirit.

1 Corinthians 2:15 But he who has the Spirit, though judging all things, is himself judged by no one.

1 Corinthians 2:16 For who has knowledge of the mind of the Lord, so as to be his teacher? But we have the mind of Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:1 And the teaching I gave you, my brothers, was such as I was able to give, not to those who have the Spirit, but to those who are still in the flesh, even to children in Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:2 I gave you milk and not meat, because you were, then, unable to take it, and even now you are not able;

1 Corinthians 3:3 Because you are still in the flesh: for when there is envy and division among you, are you not still walking after the way of the flesh, even as natural men?

1 Corinthians 3:4 For when one says, I am of Paul; and another says, I am of Apollos; are you not talking like natural men?

1 Corinthians 3:5 What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? They are but servants who gave you the good news as God gave it to them.

1 Corinthians 3:6 I did the planting, Apollos did the watering, but God gave the increase.

1 Corinthians 3:7 So then the planter is nothing, and the waterer is nothing; but God who gives the increase.

1 Corinthians 3:8 Now the planter and the waterer are working for the same end: but they will have their separate rewards in the measure of their work.

1 Corinthians 3:9 For we are workers with God: you are God's planting, God's building.

1 Corinthians 3:10 In the measure of the grace given to me, I, as a wise master-builder, have put the base in position, and another goes on building on it. But let every man take care what he puts on it.

1 Corinthians 3:11 For there is no other base for the building but that which has been put down, which is Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 3:12 But on the base a man may put gold, silver, stones of great price, wood, dry grass, cut stems;

1 Corinthians 3:13 Every man's work will be made clear in that day, because it will be tested by fire; and the fire itself will make clear the quality of every man's work.

1 Corinthians 3:14 If any man's work comes through the test, he will have a reward.

1 Corinthians 3:15 If the fire puts an end to any man's work, it will be his loss: but he will get salvation himself, though as by fire.

1 Corinthians 3:16 Do you not see that you are God's holy house, and that the Spirit of God has his place in you?

1 Corinthians 3:17 If anyone makes the house of God unclean, God will put an end to him; for the house of God is holy, and you are his house.

1 Corinthians 3:18 Let no man have a false idea. If any man seems to himself to be wise among you, let him become foolish, so that he may be wise.

1 Corinthians 3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolish before God. As it is said in the holy Writings, He who takes the wise in their secret designs:

1 Corinthians 3:20 And again, The Lord has knowledge of the reasonings of the wise, that they are nothing.

1 Corinthians 3:21 So let no one take pride in men. For all things are yours;

1 Corinthians 3:22 Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;

1 Corinthians 3:23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

1 Corinthians 4:1 Let us be judged as servants of Christ, and as those who are responsible for the secret things of God.

1 Corinthians 4:2 And it is right for such servants to be safe persons.

1 Corinthians 4:3 But it is a small thing to me that I am judged by you or by man's judging; I am not even a judge of myself.

1 Corinthians 4:4 For I am not conscious of any wrong in myself; but this does not make me clear, for it is the Lord who is my judge.

1 Corinthians 4:5 For this reason let there be no judging before the time, till the Lord comes, who will make clear the secret things of the dark, and the designs of the heart; and then will every man have his praise from God.

1 Corinthians 4:6 My brothers, it is because of you that I have taken Apollos and myself as examples of these things, so that in us you might see that it is not wise to go farther than what is in the holy Writings, so that no one of you may be lifted up against his brother.

1 Corinthians 4:7 For who made you better than your brother? or what have you that has not been given to you? but if it has been given to you, what cause have you for pride, as if it had not been given to you?

1 Corinthians 4:8 For even now you are full, even now you have wealth, you have been made kings without us: truly, I would be glad if you were kings, so that we might be kings with you.

1 Corinthians 4:9 For it seems to me that God has put us the Apostles last of all, as men whose fate is death: for we are put on view to the world, and to angels, and to men.

1 Corinthians 4:10 We are made to seem foolish for Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are feeble, but you are strong; you have glory, but we have shame.

1 Corinthians 4:11 Even to this hour we are without food, drink, and clothing, we are given blows and have no certain resting-place;

1 Corinthians 4:12 And with our hands we do the hardest work: when they give us curses we give blessings, when we undergo punishment we take it quietly;

1 Corinthians 4:13 When evil things are said about us we give gentle answers: we are made as the unclean things of the world, as that for which no one has any use, even till now.

1 Corinthians 4:14 I am not saying these things to put you to shame, but so that, as my dear children, you may see what is right.

1 Corinthians 4:15 For even if you had ten thousand teachers in Christ, you have not more than one father: for in Christ Jesus I have given birth to you through the good news.

1 Corinthians 4:16 So my desire is that you take me as your example.

1 Corinthians 4:17 For this cause I have sent Timothy to you, who is my dear and true child in the Lord; he will make clear to you my ways in Christ, even as I am teaching everywhere in every church.

1 Corinthians 4:18 Now some are full of pride, as if I was not coming to you.

1 Corinthians 4:19 But I will come to you in a short time, if it is pleasing to the Lord, and I will take note, not of the word of those who are full of pride, but of the power.

1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power.

1 Corinthians 4:21 What is your desire? is my coming to be with punishment, or is it to be in love and a gentle spirit?

1 Corinthians 5:1 It is said, in fact, that there is among you a sin of the flesh, such as is not seen even among the Gentiles, that one of you has his father's wife.

1 Corinthians 5:2 And in place of feeling sorrow, you are pleased with yourselves, so that he who has done this thing has not been sent away from among you.

1 Corinthians 5:3 For I myself, being present in spirit though not in body, have come to a decision about him who has done this thing;

1 Corinthians 5:4 In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you have come together with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus,

1 Corinthians 5:5 That this man is to be handed over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may have forgiveness in the day of the Lord Jesus.

1 Corinthians 5:6 This pride of yours is not good. Do you not see that a little leaven makes a change in all the mass?

1 Corinthians 5:7 Take away, then, the old leaven, so that you may be a new mass, even as you are without leaven. For Christ has been put to death as our Passover.

1 Corinthians 5:8 Let us then keep the feast, not with old leaven, and not with the leaven of evil thoughts and acts, but with the unleavened bread of true thoughts and right feelings.

1 Corinthians 5:9 In my letter I said to you that you were not to keep company with those who go after the desires of the flesh;

1 Corinthians 5:10 But I had not in mind the sinners who are outside the church, or those who have a desire for and take the property of others, or those who give worship to images; for it is not possible to keep away from such people without going out of the world completely:

1 Corinthians 5:11 But the sense of my letter was that if a brother had the name of being one who went after the desires of the flesh, or had the desire for other people's property, or was in the way of using violent language, or being the worse for drink, or took by force what was not his, you might not keep company with such a one, or take food with him.

1 Corinthians 5:12 For it is no business of mine to be judging those who are outside; but it is yours to be judging those who are among you;

1 Corinthians 5:13 As for those who are outside, God is their judge. So put away the evil man from among you.

1 Corinthians 6:1 How is it, that if any one of you has a cause at law against another, he takes it before a Gentile judge and not before the saints?

1 Corinthians 6:2 Is it not certain that the saints will be the judges of the world? if then the world will be judged by you, are you unable to give a decision about the smallest things?

1 Corinthians 6:3 Is it not certain that we are to be the judges of angels? how much more then of the things of this life?

1 Corinthians 6:4 If then there are questions to be judged in connection with the things of this life, why do you put them in the hands of those who have no position in the church?

1 Corinthians 6:5 I say this to put you to shame. Is there not among you one wise man who may be able to give a decision between his brothers?

1 Corinthians 6:6 But a brother who has a cause at law against another takes it before Gentile judges.

1 Corinthians 6:7 More than this, it is not to your credit to have causes at law with one another at all. Why not put up with wrong? why not undergo loss?

1 Corinthians 6:8 So far from doing this, you yourselves do wrong and take your brothers' property.

1 Corinthians 6:9 Have you not knowledge that evil-doers will have no part in the kingdom of God? Have no false ideas about this: no one who goes after the desires of the flesh, or gives worship to images, or is untrue when married, or is less than a man, or makes a wrong use of men,

1 Corinthians 6:10 Or is a thief, or the worse for drink, or makes use of strong language, or takes by force what is not his, will have any part in the kingdom of God.

1 Corinthians 6:11 And such were some of you; but you have been washed, you have been made holy, you have been given righteousness in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.

1 Corinthians 6:12 I am free to do all things; but not all things are wise. I am free to do all things; but I will not let myself come under the power of any.

1 Corinthians 6:13 Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food, and God will put an end to them together. But the body is not for the desires of the flesh, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body:

1 Corinthians 6:14 And God who made the Lord Jesus come back from the dead will do the same for us by his power.

1 Corinthians 6:15 Do you not see that your bodies are part of the body of Christ? how then may I take what is a part of the body of Christ and make it a part of the body of a loose woman? such a thing may not be.

1 Corinthians 6:16 Or do you not see that he who is joined to a loose woman is one body with her? for God has said, The two of them will become one flesh.

1 Corinthians 6:17 But he who is united to the Lord is one spirit.

1 Corinthians 6:18 Keep away from the desires of the flesh. Every sin which a man does is outside of the body; but he who goes after the desires of the flesh does evil to his body.

1 Corinthians 6:19 Or are you not conscious that your body is a house for the Holy Spirit which is in you, and which has been given to you by God? and you are not the owners of yourselves;

1 Corinthians 6:20 For a payment has been made for you: let God be honoured in your body.

1 Corinthians 7:1 Now, as to the things in your letter to me: It is good for a man to have nothing to do with a woman.

1 Corinthians 7:2 But because of the desires of the flesh, let every man have his wife, and every woman her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:3 Let the husband give to the wife what is right; and let the wife do the same to the husband.

1 Corinthians 7:4 The wife has not power over her body, but the husband; and in the same way the husband has not power over his body, but the wife.

1 Corinthians 7:5 Do not keep back from one another what is right, but only for a short time, and by agreement, so that you may give yourselves to prayer, and come together again; so that Satan may not get the better of you through your loss of self-control.

1 Corinthians 7:6 But this I say as my opinion, and not as an order of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:7 It is my desire that all men might be even as I am. But every man has the power of his special way of life given him by God, one in this way and one in that.

1 Corinthians 7:8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, It is good for them to be even as I am.

1 Corinthians 7:9 But if they have not self-control let them get married; for married life is better than the burning of desire.

1 Corinthians 7:10 But to the married I give orders, though not I but the Lord, that the wife may not go away from her husband

1 Corinthians 7:11 (Or if she goes away from him, let her keep unmarried, or be united to her husband again); and that the husband may not go away from his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:12 But to the rest I say, and not the Lord; If a brother has a wife who is not a Christian, and it is her desire to go on living with him, let him not go away from her.

1 Corinthians 7:13 And if a woman has a husband who is not a Christian, and it is his desire to go on living with her, let her not go away from her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:14 For the husband who has not faith is made holy through his Christian wife, and the wife who is not a Christian is made holy through the brother: if not, your children would be unholy, but now are they holy.

1 Corinthians 7:15 But if the one who is not a Christian has a desire to go away, let it be so: the brother or the sister in such a position is not forced to do one thing or the other: but it is God’s pleasure that we may be at peace with one another.

1 Corinthians 7:16 For how may you be certain, O wife, that you will not be the cause of salvation to your husband? or you, O husband, that you may not do the same for your wife?

1 Corinthians 7:17 Only, as the Lord has given to a man, and as is the purpose of God for him, so let him go on living. And these are my orders for all the churches.

1 Corinthians 7:18 If any man who is a Christian has had circumcision, let him keep so; and if any man who is a Christian has not had circumcision, let him make no change.

1 Corinthians 7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and its opposite is nothing, but only doing the orders of God is of value.

1 Corinthians 7:20 Let every man keep the position in which he has been placed by God.

1 Corinthians 7:21 If you were a servant when you became a Christian, let it not be a grief to you; but if you have a chance to become free, make use of it.

1 Corinthians 7:22 For he who was a servant when he became a Christian is the Lord's free man; and he who was free when he became a Christian is the Lord's servant.

1 Corinthians 7:23 It is the Lord who has made payment for you: be not servants of men.

1 Corinthians 7:24 My brothers, let every man keep in that condition which is the purpose of God for him.

1 Corinthians 7:25 Now about virgins I have no orders from the Lord: but I give my opinion as one to whom the Lord has given mercy to be true to him.

1 Corinthians 7:26 In my opinion then, because of the present trouble, it is good for a man to keep as he is.

1 Corinthians 7:27 If you are married to a wife, make no attempt to get free from her: if you are free from a wife, do not take a wife.

1 Corinthians 7:28 If you get married it is not a sin; and if an unmarried woman gets married it is not a sin. But those who do so will have trouble in the flesh. But I will not be hard on you.

1 Corinthians 7:29 But I say this, my brothers, the time is short; and from now it will be wise for those who have wives to be as if they had them not;

1 Corinthians 7:30 And for those who are in sorrow, to give no signs of it; and for those who are glad, to give no signs of joy; and for those who are getting property, to be as if they had nothing;

1 Corinthians 7:31 And for those who make use of the world, not to be using it fully; for this world's way of life will quickly come to an end.

1 Corinthians 7:32 But it is my desire for you to be free from cares. The unmarried man gives his mind to the things of the Lord, how he may give pleasure to the Lord:

1 Corinthians 7:33 But the married man gives his attention to the things of this world, how he may give pleasure to his wife.

1 Corinthians 7:34 And the wife is not the same as the virgin. The virgin gives her mind to the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in body and in spirit: but the married woman takes thought for the things of the world, how she may give pleasure to her husband.

1 Corinthians 7:35 Now I say this for your profit; not to make things hard for you, but because of what is right, and so that you may be able to give all your attention to the things of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 7:36 But if, in any man’s opinion, he is not doing what is right for his virgin, if she is past her best years, and there is need for it, let him do what seems right to him; it is no sin; let them be married.

1 Corinthians 7:37 But the man who is strong in mind and purpose, who is not forced but has control over his desires, does well if he comes to the decision to keep her a virgin.

1 Corinthians 7:38 So then, he who gets married to his virgin does well, and he who keeps her unmarried does better.

1 Corinthians 7:39 It is right for a wife to be with her husband as long as he is living; but when her husband is dead, she is free to be married to another; but only to a Christian.

1 Corinthians 7:40 But it will be better for her to keep as she is, in my opinion: and it seems to me that I have the Spirit of God.

1 Corinthians 8:1 Now about things offered to images: we all seem to ourselves to have knowledge. Knowledge gives pride, but love gives true strength.

1 Corinthians 8:2 If anyone seems to himself to have knowledge, so far he has not the right sort of knowledge about anything;

1 Corinthians 8:3 But if anyone has love for God, God has knowledge of him.

1 Corinthians 8:4 So, then, as to the question of taking food offered to images, we are certain that an image is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.

1 Corinthians 8:5 For though there are those who have the name of gods, in heaven or on earth, as there are a number of gods and a number of lords,

1 Corinthians 8:6 There is for us only one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we are for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we have our being through him.

1 Corinthians 8:7 Still, all men have not that knowledge: but some, being used till now to the image, are conscious that they are taking food which has been offered to the image; and because they are not strong in the faith, their minds are troubled.

1 Corinthians 8:8 But God’s approval of us is not based on the food we take: if we do not take it we are no worse for it; and if we take it we are no better.

1 Corinthians 8:9 But take care that this power of yours does not give cause for trouble to the feeble.

1 Corinthians 8:10 For if a man sees you, who have knowledge, taking food as a guest in the house of an image, will it not give him, if he is feeble, the idea that he may take food offered to images?

1 Corinthians 8:11 And so, through your knowledge, you are the cause of destruction to your brother, for whom Christ underwent death.

1 Corinthians 8:12 And in this way, doing evil to the brothers, and causing trouble to those whose faith is feeble, you are sinning against Christ.

1 Corinthians 8:13 For this reason, if food is a cause of trouble to my brother, I will give up taking meat for ever, so that I may not be a cause of trouble to my brother.

1 Corinthians 9:1 Am I not free? am I not an Apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are you not my work in the Lord?

1 Corinthians 9:2 If to others I am not an Apostle, at least I am one to you: for the fact that you are Christians is the sign that I am an Apostle.

1 Corinthians 9:3 My answer to those who are judging me is this.

1 Corinthians 9:4 Have we no right to take food and drink?

1 Corinthians 9:5 Have we no right to take about with us a Christian wife, like the rest of the Apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?

1 Corinthians 9:6 Or I only and Barnabas, have we no right to take a rest from work?

1 Corinthians 9:7 Who ever goes to war without looking to someone to be responsible for his payment? who puts in vines and does not take the fruit of them? or who takes care of sheep without drinking of their milk?

1 Corinthians 9:8 Am I talking as a man? does not the law say the same?

1 Corinthians 9:9 For it says in the law of Moses, It is not right to keep the ox from taking the grain when he is crushing it. Is it for the oxen that God is giving orders?

1 Corinthians 9:10 Or has he us in mind? Yes, it was said for us; because it is right for the ploughman to do his ploughing in hope, and for him who is crushing the grain to do his work hoping for a part in the fruits of it.

1 Corinthians 9:11 If we have been planting the things of the Spirit for you, does it seem a great thing for you to give us a part in your things of this world?

1 Corinthians 9:12 If others have a part in this right over you, have we not even more? But we did not make use of our right, so that we might put nothing in the way of the good news of Christ.

1 Corinthians 9:13 Do you not see that the servants of the holy things get their living from the Temple, and the servants of the altar have their part in the food which is offered on the altar?

1 Corinthians 9:14 Even so did the Lord give orders that the preachers of the good news might get their living from the good news.

1 Corinthians 9:15 But I have not made use of any of these things: and I am not writing this in the hope that it may be so for me: for it would be better for me to undergo death, than for any man to make this pride of mine of no effect.

1 Corinthians 9:16 For if I am a preacher of the good news, I have no cause for pride in this; because I am forced to do so, for a curse is on me if I do not.

1 Corinthians 9:17 But if I do it gladly, I have a reward; and if not, I am under orders to do it.

1 Corinthians 9:18 What then is my reward? This, that when I am giving the good news, I may give it without payment, not making use of my rights as a preacher of the good news.

1 Corinthians 9:19 For though I was free from all men, I made myself a servant to all, so that more might have salvation.

1 Corinthians 9:20 And to the Jews I was as a Jew, so that I might give the good news to them; to those under the law I was the same, not as being myself under the law, but so that I might give the good news to those under the law.

1 Corinthians 9:21 To those without the law I was as one without the law, not as being without law to God, but as under law to Christ, so that I might give the good news to those without the law.

1 Corinthians 9:22 To the feeble, I was as one who is feeble, so that they might have salvation: I have been all things to all men, so that some at least might have salvation.

1 Corinthians 9:23 And I do all things for the cause of the good news, so that I may have a part in it.

1 Corinthians 9:24 Do you not see that in a running competition all take part, but only one gets the reward? So let your minds be fixed on the reward.

1 Corinthians 9:25 And every man who takes part in the sports has self-control in all things. Now they do it to get a crown which is of this world, but we for an eternal crown.

1 Corinthians 9:26 So then I am running, not uncertainly; so I am fighting, not as one who gives blows in the air:

1 Corinthians 9:27 But I give blows to my body, and keep it under control, for fear that, after having given the good news to others, I myself might not have God’s approval.

1 Corinthians 10:1 For it is my desire, my brothers, that you may keep in mind how all our fathers were under the cloud, and they all went through the sea;

1 Corinthians 10:2 And they all had baptism from Moses in the cloud and in the sea;

1 Corinthians 10:3 And they all took the same holy food;

1 Corinthians 10:4 And the same holy drink: for they all took of the water from the holy rock which came after them: and the rock was Christ.

1 Corinthians 10:5 But with most of them God was not pleased: for they came to their end in the waste land.

1 Corinthians 10:6 Now these things were for an example to us, so that our hearts might not go after evil things, as they did.

1 Corinthians 10:7 Then do not go after false gods, as some of them did; as it is said in the holy Writings, After resting and feasting, the people got up to take their pleasure.

1 Corinthians 10:8 Again, let us not give way to the desires of the flesh, as some of them did, of whom twenty-three thousand came to their end in one day.

1 Corinthians 10:9 And let us not put the Lord to the test, as some of them did, and came to their death by snakes.

1 Corinthians 10:10 And do not say evil things against the Lord, as some of them did, and destruction overtook them.

1 Corinthians 10:11 Now these things were done as an example; and were put down in writing for our teaching, on whom the last days have come.

1 Corinthians 10:12 So let him who seems to himself to be safe go in fear of a fall.

1 Corinthians 10:13 You have been put to no test but such as is common to man: and God is true, who will not let any test come on you which you are not able to undergo; but he will make with the test a way out of it, so that you may be able to go through it.

1 Corinthians 10:14 For this cause, my dear brothers, give no worship to false gods.

1 Corinthians 10:15 What I am saying is for wise men, do you be the judges of it.

1 Corinthians 10:16 The cup of blessing which we take, does it not give us a part in the blood of Christ? and is not the broken bread a taking part in the body of Christ?

1 Corinthians 10:17 Because we, being a number of persons, are one bread, we are one body: for we all take part in the one bread.

1 Corinthians 10:18 See Israel after the flesh: do not those who take as food the offerings of the altar take a part in the altar?

1 Corinthians 10:19 Do I say, then, that what is offered to images is anything, or that the image is anything?

1 Corinthians 10:20 What I say is that the things offered by the Gentiles are offered to evil spirits and not to God; and it is not my desire for you to have any part with evil spirits.

1 Corinthians 10:21 It is not possible for you, at the same time, to take the cup of the Lord and the cup of evil spirits; you may not take part in the table of the Lord and the table of evil spirits.

1 Corinthians 10:22 Or may we be the cause of envy to the Lord? are we stronger than he?

1 Corinthians 10:23 We are free to do all things, but there are things which it is not wise to do. We are free to do all things, but not all things are for the common good.

1 Corinthians 10:24 Let a man give attention not only to what is good for himself, but equally to his neighbour's good.

1 Corinthians 10:25 Whatever meat may be had at the public market, take as food without question of right or wrong;

1 Corinthians 10:26 For the earth is the Lord's and all things in it.

1 Corinthians 10:27 If a Gentile makes a feast for you, and you are pleased to go as a guest, take whatever is put before you, without question of right or wrong.

1 Corinthians 10:28 But if anyone says to you, This food has been used as an offering, do not take it, on account of him who said it, and on account of his sense of right and wrong:

1 Corinthians 10:29 Right and wrong, I say, not for you, but for the other man; for the fact that I am free is not dependent on another man's sense of right or wrong.

1 Corinthians 10:30 But if I give praise to God for the food which I take, let no man say evil of me for that reason.

1 Corinthians 10:31 So then, if it is a question of food or drink, or any other thing, whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.

1 Corinthians 10:32 Give no cause of trouble to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God.

1 Corinthians 10:33 Even as I give way to all men in all things, not looking for profit for myself, but for the good of others, that they may get salvation.

1 Corinthians 11:1 So take me for your example, even as I take Christ for mine.

1 Corinthians 11:2 Now I am pleased to see that you keep me in memory in all things, and that you give attention to the teaching which was handed down from me to you.

1 Corinthians 11:3 But it is important for you to keep this fact in mind, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.

1 Corinthians 11:4 Every man who takes part in prayer, or gives teaching as a prophet, with his head covered, puts shame on his head.

1 Corinthians 11:5 But every woman who does so with her head unveiled, puts shame on her head: for it is the same as if her hair was cut off.

1 Corinthians 11:6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her hair be cut off; but if it is a shame to a woman to have her hair cut off, let her be veiled.

1 Corinthians 11:7 For it is not right for a man to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.

1 Corinthians 11:8 For the man did not come from the woman, but the woman from the man.

1 Corinthians 11:9 And the man was not made for the woman, but the woman for the man.

1 Corinthians 11:10 For this reason it is right for the woman to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.

1 Corinthians 11:11 But the woman is not separate from the man, and the man is not separate from the woman in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:12 For as the woman is from the man, so the man is through the woman; but all things are from God.

1 Corinthians 11:13 Be judges yourselves of the question: does it seem right for a woman to take part in prayer unveiled?

1 Corinthians 11:14 Does it not seem natural to you that if a man has long hair, it is a cause of shame to him?

1 Corinthians 11:15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given to her for a covering.

1 Corinthians 11:16 But if any man will not be ruled in this question, this is not our way of doing things, and it is not done in the churches of God.

1 Corinthians 11:17 But in giving you this order, there is one thing about which I am not pleased: it is that when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.

1 Corinthians 11:18 For first of all, it has come to my ears that when you come together in the church, there are divisions among you, and I take the statement to be true in part.

1 Corinthians 11:19 For divisions are necessary among you, in order that those who have God’s approval may be clearly seen among you.

1 Corinthians 11:20 But now, when you come together, it is not possible to take the holy meal of the Lord:

1 Corinthians 11:21 For when you take your food, everyone takes his meal before the other; and one has not enough food, and another is the worse for drink.

1 Corinthians 11:22 What? have you not houses to take your meals in? or have you no respect for the church of God, putting the poor to shame? What am I to say to you? am I to give you praise? certainly not.

1 Corinthians 11:23 For it was handed down to me from the Lord, as I gave it to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when Judas was false to him, took bread,

1 Corinthians 11:24 And when it had been broken with an act of praise, he said, This is my body which is for you: do this in memory of me.

1 Corinthians 11:25 In the same way, with the cup, after the meal, he said, This cup is the new testament in my blood: do this, whenever you take it, in memory of me.

1 Corinthians 11:26 For whenever you take the bread and the cup you give witness to the Lord’s death till he comes.

1 Corinthians 11:27 If, then, anyone takes the bread or the cup of the Lord in the wrong spirit, he will be responsible for the body and blood of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 11:28 But let no man take of the bread and the cup without testing himself.

1 Corinthians 11:29 For a man puts himself in danger, if he takes part in the holy meal without being conscious that it is the Lord’s body.

1 Corinthians 11:30 For this cause a number of you are feeble and ill, and a number are dead.

1 Corinthians 11:31 But if we were true judges of ourselves, punishment would not come on us.

1 Corinthians 11:32 But if punishment does come, it is sent by the Lord, so that we may be safe when the world is judged.

1 Corinthians 11:33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to the holy meal of the Lord, let there be waiting for one another.

1 Corinthians 11:34 If any man is in need of food, let him take his meal in his house; so that you may not come together to your damage. And the rest I will put in order when I come.

1 Corinthians 12:1 But about the things of the spirit, my brothers, it is not right for you to be without teaching.

1 Corinthians 12:2 You are conscious that when you were Gentiles, in whatever way you were guided, you went after images without voice or power.

1 Corinthians 12:3 So it is my desire for you to be clear about this; that no one is able to say by the Spirit of God that Jesus is cursed; and no one is able to say that Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:4 Now there are different qualities given to men, but the same Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:5 And there are different sorts of servants, but the same Lord.

1 Corinthians 12:6 And there are different operations, but the same God, who is working all things in all.

1 Corinthians 12:7 But to every man some form of the Spirit's working is given for the common good.

1 Corinthians 12:8 For to one are given words of wisdom through the Spirit; and to another words of knowledge through the same Spirit:

1 Corinthians 12:9 To another faith in the same Spirit; and to another the power of taking away disease, by the one Spirit;

1 Corinthians 12:10 And to another the power of working wonders; and to another the prophet's word; and to another the power of testing spirits; to another different sorts of tongues; and to another the power of making clear the sense of the tongues:

1 Corinthians 12:11 But all these are the operations of the one and the same Spirit, giving to every man separately as his pleasure is.

1 Corinthians 12:12 For as the body is one, and has a number of parts, and all the parts make one body, so is Christ.

1 Corinthians 12:13 For through the baptism of the one Spirit we were all formed into one body, Jews or Greeks, servants or free men, and were all made full of the same Spirit.

1 Corinthians 12:14 For the body is not one part, but a number of parts.

1 Corinthians 12:15 If the foot says, Because I am not the hand, I am not a part of the body; it is no less a part of the body.

1 Corinthians 12:16 And if the ear says, Because I am not the eye, I am not a part of the body; it is a part of the body all the same.

1 Corinthians 12:17 If all the body was an eye, where would be the hearing? if all was hearing, where would be the smelling?

1 Corinthians 12:18 But now God has put every one of the parts in the body as it was pleasing to him.

1 Corinthians 12:19 And if they were all one part, where would the body be?

1 Corinthians 12:20 But now they are all different parts, but one body.

1 Corinthians 12:21 And the eye may not say to the hand, I have no need of you: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

1 Corinthians 12:22 No, those parts which seem to be feeble are the more necessary;

1 Corinthians 12:23 And to those parts of the body which seem to have less honour we give all the more honour; and to those parts of the body which are a cause of shame to us we give the greater respect;

1 Corinthians 12:24 But those parts of the body which are beautiful have no need of such care: and so the body has been joined together by God in such a way as to give more honour to those parts which had need of it;

1 Corinthians 12:25 So that there might be no division in the body; but all the parts might have the same care for one another.

1 Corinthians 12:26 And if there is pain in one part of the body, all the parts will be feeling it; or if one part is honoured, all the parts will be glad.

1 Corinthians 12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and every one of you the separate parts of it.

1 Corinthians 12:28 And God has put some in the church, first, Apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then those with wonder-working powers, then those with the power of taking away disease, helpers, wise guides, users of strange tongues.

1 Corinthians 12:29 Are all Apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? have all the power of working wonders?

1 Corinthians 12:30 Are all able to take away disease? have all the power of tongues? are all able to give their sense?

1 Corinthians 12:31 But let your desires be turned to the more important things given by the Spirit. And now I am pointing out to you an even better way.

1 Corinthians 13:1 If I make use of the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am like sounding brass, or a loud-tongued bell.

1 Corinthians 13:2 And if I have a prophet’s power, and have knowledge of all secret things; and if I have all faith, by which mountains may be moved from their place, but have not love, I am nothing.

1 Corinthians 13:3 And if I give all my goods to the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it is of no profit to me.

1 Corinthians 13:4 Love is never tired of waiting; love is kind; love has no envy; love has no high opinion of itself, love has no pride;

1 Corinthians 13:5 Love’s ways are ever fair, it takes no thought for itself; it is not quickly made angry, it takes no account of evil;

1 Corinthians 13:6 It takes no pleasure in wrongdoing, but has joy in what is true;

1 Corinthians 13:7 Love has the power of undergoing all things, having faith in all things, hoping all things.

1 Corinthians 13:8 Though the prophet’s word may come to an end, tongues come to nothing, and knowledge have no more value, love has no end.

1 Corinthians 13:9 For our knowledge is only in part, and the prophet’s word gives only a part of what is true:

1 Corinthians 13:10 But when that which is complete is come, then that which is in part will be no longer necessary.

1 Corinthians 13:11 When I was a child, I made use of a child’s language, I had a child’s feelings and a child’s thoughts: now that I am a man, I have put away the things of a child.

1 Corinthians 13:12 For now we see things in a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now my knowledge is in part; then it will be complete, even as God’s knowledge of me.

1 Corinthians 13:13 But now we still have faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

1 Corinthians 14:1 Go after love; still desiring to have the things which the Spirit gives, but most of all that you may have the prophet’s power.

1 Corinthians 14:2 For he who makes use of tongues is not talking to men but to God; because no one has the sense of what he is saying; but in the Spirit he is talking of secret things.

1 Corinthians 14:3 But the word of the prophet gives men knowledge and comfort and strength.

1 Corinthians 14:4 He who makes use of tongues may do good to himself; but he who gives the prophet’s word does good to the church.

1 Corinthians 14:5 Now though it is my desire for you all to have the power of tongues, it would give me more pleasure to be hearing the prophet’s word from you; for this is a greater thing than using tongues, if the sense is not given at the same time, for the good of the church.

1 Corinthians 14:6 But, now, my brothers, if I come to you using tongues, what profit will it be to you, if I do not give you a revelation, or knowledge, or the word of the prophet, or teaching?

1 Corinthians 14:7 Even things without life, having a voice, such as a music-pipe or other instrument, if they do not give out different sounds, who may be certain what is being played?

1 Corinthians 14:8 For if the war-horn gives out an uncertain note, who will get ready for the fight?

1 Corinthians 14:9 So if you, in using a strange tongue, say words which have no sense, how will anyone take in what you are saying? for you will be talking to the air.

1 Corinthians 14:10 There are, it may be, a number of different voices in the world, and no voice is without sense.

1 Corinthians 14:11 But if the sense of the voice is not clear to me, I am like a man from a strange country to him who is talking, and he will be the same to me.

1 Corinthians 14:12 So if you are desiring the things which the Spirit gives, let your minds be turned first to the things which are for the good of the church.

1 Corinthians 14:13 For this reason, let the man who has the power of using tongues make request that he may, at the same time, be able to give the sense.

1 Corinthians 14:14 For if I make use of tongues in my prayers, my spirit makes the prayer, but not my mind.

1 Corinthians 14:15 What then? let my prayer be from the spirit, and equally from the mind; let my song be from the spirit, and equally from mind.

1 Corinthians 14:16 For if you give a blessing with the spirit, how will the man who has no knowledge say, So be it, after your prayer, seeing that he has not taken in what you are saying?

1 Corinthians 14:17 For your giving of the blessing is certainly well done, but of no profit to the man without knowledge.

1 Corinthians 14:18 I give praise to God that I am able to make use of tongues more than you all:

1 Corinthians 14:19 But in the church it would be better for me to make use of five words of which the sense was clear, so that others might have profit, than ten thousand words in a strange tongue.

1 Corinthians 14:20 My brothers, do not be children in mind: in evil be as little children, but in mind be of full growth.

1 Corinthians 14:21 In the law it is said, By men of other tongues and by strange lips will my words come to this people; and not even so will they give ear to me, says the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:22 For this reason tongues are for a sign, not to those who have faith, but to those who have not: but the prophet's word is for those who have faith, and not for the rest who have not.

1 Corinthians 14:23 If, then, the church has come together, and all are using tongues, and there come in men without knowledge or faith, will they not say that you are unbalanced?

1 Corinthians 14:24 But if all are teaching as prophets, and a man without faith or knowledge comes in, he is tested by all, he is judged by all;

1 Corinthians 14:25 The secrets of his heart are made clear; and he will go down on his face and give worship to God, saying that God is truly among you.

1 Corinthians 14:26 What is it then, my brothers? when you come together everyone has a holy song, or a revelation, or a tongue, or is giving the sense of it. Let everything be done for the common good.

1 Corinthians 14:27 If any man makes use of a tongue, let it not be more than two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let someone give the sense:

1 Corinthians 14:28 But if there is no one to give the sense, let him keep quiet in the church; and let his words be to himself and to God.

1 Corinthians 14:29 And let the prophets give their words, but not more than two or three, and let the others be judges of what they say.

1 Corinthians 14:30 But if a revelation is given to another who is seated near, let the first be quiet.

1 Corinthians 14:31 For you may all be prophets in turn so that all may get knowledge and comfort;

1 Corinthians 14:32 And the spirits of the prophets are controlled by the prophets;

1 Corinthians 14:33 For God is not a God whose ways are without order, but a God of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.

1 Corinthians 14:34 Let women keep quiet in the churches: for it is not right for them to be talking; but let them be under control, as it says in the law.

1 Corinthians 14:35 And if they have a desire for knowledge about anything, let them put questions to their husbands privately: for talking in the church puts shame on a woman.

1 Corinthians 14:36 What? was it from you that the word of God went out? or did it only come in to you?

1 Corinthians 14:37 If any man seems to himself to be a prophet or to have the Spirit, let him take note of the things which I am writing to you, as being the word of the Lord.

1 Corinthians 14:38 But if any man is without knowledge, let him be so.

1 Corinthians 14:39 So then, my brothers, let it be your chief desire to be prophets; but let no one be stopped from using tongues.

1 Corinthians 14:40 Let all things be done in the right and ordered way.

1 Corinthians 15:1 Now I am going to make clear to you, my brothers, what the good news was which I gave to you, and which you took, and on which your faith is based,

1 Corinthians 15:2 By which you have salvation; that is to say, the form in which it was given to you, if it is fixed in your minds, and if your faith in it is not without effect.

1 Corinthians 15:3 For I gave to you first of all what was handed down to me, how Christ underwent death for our sins, as it says in the Writings;

1 Corinthians 15:4 And he was put in the place of the dead; and on the third day he came back from the dead, as it says in the Writings;

1 Corinthians 15:5 And he was seen by Cephas; then by the twelve;

1 Corinthians 15:6 Then by more than five hundred brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, but some are sleeping;

1 Corinthians 15:7 Then he was seen by James; then by all the Apostles.

1 Corinthians 15:8 And last of all, as by one whose birth was out of the right time, he was seen by me.

1 Corinthians 15:9 For I am the least of the Apostles, having no right to be named an Apostle, because of my cruel attacks on the church of God.

1 Corinthians 15:10 But by the grace of God, I am what I am: and his grace which was given to me has not been for nothing; for I did more work than all of them; though not I, but the grace of God which was with me.

1 Corinthians 15:11 If then it is I who am the preacher, or they, this is our word, and to this you have given your faith.

1 Corinthians 15:12 Now if the good news says that Christ came back from the dead, how do some of you say that there is no coming back from the dead?

1 Corinthians 15:13 But if there is no coming back from the dead, then Christ has not come back from the dead:

1 Corinthians 15:14 And if Christ did not come again from the dead, then our good news and your faith in it are of no effect.

1 Corinthians 15:15 Yes, and we are seen to be false witnesses of God; because we gave witness of God that by his power Christ came again from the dead: which is not true if there is no coming back from the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:16 For if it is not possible for the dead to come to life again, then Christ has not come to life again:

1 Corinthians 15:17 And if that is so, your faith is of no effect; you are still in your sins.

1 Corinthians 15:18 And, in addition, the dead in Christ have gone to destruction.

1 Corinthians 15:19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most unhappy.

1 Corinthians 15:20 But now Christ has truly come back from the dead, the first-fruits of those who are sleeping.

1 Corinthians 15:21 For as by man came death, so by man there is a coming back from the dead.

1 Corinthians 15:22 For as in Adam death comes to all, so in Christ will all come back to life.

1 Corinthians 15:23 But every man in his right order: Christ the first-fruits; then those who are Christ's at his coming.

1 Corinthians 15:24 Then comes the end, when he will give up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have put an end to all rule and to all authority and power.

1 Corinthians 15:25 For his rule will go on till he has put all those who are against him under his feet.

1 Corinthians 15:26 The last power to come to an end is death.

1 Corinthians 15:27 For, as it says, He has put all things under his feet. But when he says, All things are put under him, it is clear that it is not said about him who put all things under him.

1 Corinthians 15:28 And when all things have been put under him, then will the Son himself be under him who put all things under him, so that God may be all in all.

1 Corinthians 15:29 Again, what will they do who are given baptism for the dead? if the dead do not come back at all, why are people given baptism for them?

1 Corinthians 15:30 And why are we in danger every hour?

1 Corinthians 15:31 Yes, truly, by your pride in me, my brothers in Christ Jesus our Lord, my life is one long death.

1 Corinthians 15:32 If, after the way of men, I was fighting with beasts at Ephesus, what profit is it to me? If the dead do not come to life again, let us take our pleasure in feasting, for tomorrow we come to an end.

1 Corinthians 15:33 Do not be tricked by false words: evil company does damage to good behaviour.

1 Corinthians 15:34 Be awake to righteousness and keep yourselves from sin; for some have no knowledge of God: I say this to put you to shame.

1 Corinthians 15:35 But someone will say, How do the dead come back? and with what sort of body do they come?

1 Corinthians 15:36 Foolish man, it is necessary for the seed which you put into the earth to undergo death in order that it may come to life again:

1 Corinthians 15:37 And when you put it into the earth, you do not put in the body which it will be, but only the seed, of grain or some other sort of plant;

1 Corinthians 15:38 But God gives it a body, as it is pleasing to him, and to every seed its special body.

1 Corinthians 15:39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, another of beasts, another of birds, and another of fishes.

1 Corinthians 15:40 And there are bodies of heaven and bodies of earth, but the glory of the one is different from that of the other.

1 Corinthians 15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for the glory of one star is different from that of another.

1 Corinthians 15:42 So is it with the coming back from the dead. It is planted in death; it comes again in life:

1 Corinthians 15:43 It is planted in shame; it comes again in glory: feeble when it is planted, it comes again in power:

1 Corinthians 15:44 It is planted a natural body; it comes again as a body of the spirit. If there is a natural body, there is equally a body of the spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:45 And so it is said, The first man Adam was a living soul. The last Adam is a life-giving spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:46 But that which is natural comes before that which is of the spirit.

1 Corinthians 15:47 The first man is from the earth, and of the earth: the second man is from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:48 Those who are of the earth are like the man who was from the earth: and those who are of heaven are like the one from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:49 And in the same way as we have taken on us the image of the man from the earth, so we will take on us the image of the one from heaven.

1 Corinthians 15:50 Now I say this, my brothers, that it is not possible for flesh and blood to have a part in the kingdom of God; and death may not have a part in life.

1 Corinthians 15:51 See, I am giving you the revelation of a secret: we will not all come to the sleep of death, but we will all be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:52 In a second, in the shutting of an eye, at the sound of the last horn: for at that sound the dead will come again, free for ever from the power of death, and we will be changed.

1 Corinthians 15:53 For this body which comes to destruction will be made free from the power of death, and the man who is under the power of death will put on eternal life.

1 Corinthians 15:54 But when this has taken place, then that which was said in the Writings will come true, Death is overcome by life.

1 Corinthians 15:55 O death, where is your power? O death, where are your pains?

1 Corinthians 15:56 The pain of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law:

1 Corinthians 15:57 But praise be to God who gives us strength to overcome through our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Corinthians 15:58 For this cause, my dear brothers, be strong in purpose and unmoved, ever giving yourselves to the work of the Lord, because you are certain that your work is not without effect in the Lord.

1 Corinthians 16:1 Now about the giving of money for the saints, as I gave orders to the churches of Galatia, so do you.

1 Corinthians 16:2 On the first day of the week, let every one of you put by him in store, in measure as he has done well in business, so that it may not be necessary to get money together when I come.

1 Corinthians 16:3 And when I come, I will send the men of your selection with letters to take the money you have got together to Jerusalem.

1 Corinthians 16:4 And if it is possible for me to go there, they will go with me.

1 Corinthians 16:5 But I will come to you after I have gone through Macedonia, for that is my purpose;

1 Corinthians 16:6 But I may be with you for a time, or even for the winter, so that you may see me on my way, wherever I go.

1 Corinthians 16:7 For it is not my desire to see you now, on my way; because it is my hope to be with you for some time, if that is the Lord’s pleasure.

1 Corinthians 16:8 But I will be at Ephesus till Pentecost;

1 Corinthians 16:9 For a great and important door there is open to me, and there are a number of people against me.

1 Corinthians 16:10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear; because he is doing the Lord’s work, even as I am:

1 Corinthians 16:11 See then that he has the honour which is right. But send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me: for I am looking for him with the brothers.

1 Corinthians 16:12 But as for Apollos, the brother, I had a great desire for him to come to you with the brothers, but it was not his pleasure to come now; but he will come when he has a chance.

1 Corinthians 16:13 Be on the watch, unmoved in the faith, and be strong like men.

1 Corinthians 16:14 Let all you do be done in love.

1 Corinthians 16:15 Now I make my request to you, my brothers, for you have knowledge that the house of Stephanas is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have made themselves the servants of the saints,

1 Corinthians 16:16 That you put yourselves under such, and under everyone who is helping the Lord’s work.

1 Corinthians 16:17 And I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for they have done what was needed to make your work complete.

1 Corinthians 16:18 For they gave comfort to my spirit and to yours: for which cause give respect to such people.

1 Corinthians 16:19 The churches of Asia send their love to you. So do Aquila and Prisca, with the church which is in their house.

1 Corinthians 16:20 All the brothers send their love to you. Give one another a holy kiss.

1 Corinthians 16:21 I, Paul, send you these words of love in my writing.

1 Corinthians 16:22 If any man has not love for the Lord, let him be cursed. Maran atha (our Lord comes).

1 Corinthians 16:23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

1 Corinthians 16:24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. So be it.

2 Corinthians

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, and Timothy the brother, to the church of God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 Corinthians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort;

2 Corinthians 1:4 Who gives us comfort in all our troubles, so that we may be able to give comfort to others who are in trouble, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

2 Corinthians 1:5 For as we undergo more of the pain which Christ underwent, so through Christ does our comfort become greater.

2 Corinthians 1:6 But if we are troubled, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which takes effect through your quiet undergoing of the same troubles which we undergo:

2 Corinthians 1:7 And our hope for you is certain; in the knowledge that as you take part in the troubles, so you will take part in the comfort.

2 Corinthians 1:8 For it is our desire that you may not be without knowledge of our trouble which came on us in Asia, that the weight of it was very great, more than our power, so that it seemed that we had no hope even of life:

2 Corinthians 1:9 Yes, we ourselves have had the answer of death in ourselves, so that our hope might not be in ourselves, but in God who is able to give life to the dead:

2 Corinthians 1:10 Who gave us salvation from so great a death: on whom we have put our hope that he will still go on to give us salvation;

2 Corinthians 1:11 You at the same time helping together by your prayer for us; so that for what has been given to us through a number of persons, praise may go up to God for us from all of them.

2 Corinthians 1:12 For our glory is in this, in the knowledge which we have that our way of life in the world, and most of all in relation to you, has been holy and true in the eyes of God; not in the wisdom of the flesh, but in the grace of God.

2 Corinthians 1:13 For in our letters we say no other things to you, but those which you are reading, and to which you give agreement, and, it is my hope, will go on doing so to the end:

2 Corinthians 1:14 Even as you have been ready, in part, to say that we are your glory, in the same way that you are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.

2 Corinthians 1:15 And being certain of this, it was my purpose to come to you before, so that you might have a second grace;

2 Corinthians 1:16 And by way of Corinth to go into Macedonia, and from there to come back again to you, so that you might send me on my way to Judaea.

2 Corinthians 1:17 If then I had such a purpose, did I seem to be changing suddenly? or am I guided in my purposes by the flesh, saying, Yes, today, and, No, tomorrow?

2 Corinthians 1:18 As God is true, our word to you is not Yes and No.

2 Corinthians 1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we were preaching among you, even I and Silvanus and Timothy, was not Yes and No, but in him is Yes.

2 Corinthians 1:20 For he is the Yes to all the undertakings of God: and by him all the words of God are made certain and put into effect, to the glory of God through us.

2 Corinthians 1:21 Now he who makes our faith strong together with you, in Christ, and has given us of his grace, is God;

2 Corinthians 1:22 And it is he who has put his stamp on us, even the Spirit, as the sign in our hearts of the coming glory.

2 Corinthians 1:23 But God is my witness that it was in pity for you that I did not come to Corinth at that time.

2 Corinthians 1:24 Not that we have authority over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy: for it is faith which is your support.

2 Corinthians 2:1 But it was my decision for myself, not to come again to you with sorrow.

2 Corinthians 2:2 For if I give you sorrow, who then will make me glad, but he who is made sad by me?

2 Corinthians 2:3 And I said this very thing in my letter, for fear that when I came I might have sorrow from those from whom it was right for me to have joy; being certain of this, that my joy is the joy of you all.

2 Corinthians 2:4 For out of much trouble and pain of heart and much weeping I sent my letter to you; not to give you sorrow, but so that you might see how great is the love which I have to you.

2 Corinthians 2:5 But if anyone has been a cause of sorrow, he has been so, not to me only, but in some measure to all of you (I say this that I may not be over-hard on you).

2 Corinthians 2:6 Let it be enough for such a man to have undergone the punishment which the church put on him;

2 Corinthians 2:7 So that now, on the other hand, it is right for him to have forgiveness and comfort from you, for fear that his sorrow may be over-great.

2 Corinthians 2:8 For which cause my desire is that you will make your love to him clear by your acts.

2 Corinthians 2:9 And for the same reason I sent you a letter so that I might be certain of your desire to do my orders in all things.

2 Corinthians 2:10 But if you give forgiveness to anyone, I do the same: for if I have given forgiveness for anything, I have done it because of you, in the person of Christ;

2 Corinthians 2:11 So that Satan may not get the better of us: for we are not without knowledge of his designs.

2 Corinthians 2:12 Now when I came to Troas for the good news of Christ, and there was an open door for me in the Lord,

2 Corinthians 2:13 I had no rest in my spirit because Titus my brother was not there: so I went away from them, and came into Macedonia.

2 Corinthians 2:14 But praise be to God who makes us strong to overcome in Christ, and makes clear through us in every place the value of the knowledge of him.

2 Corinthians 2:15 For we are a sweet perfume of Christ to God in those who are getting salvation and in those who are going to destruction;

2 Corinthians 2:16 To the one it is a perfume of death to death; to the other a perfume of life to life. And who is enough for such things?

2 Corinthians 2:17 For we are not like the great number who make use of the word of God for profit: but our words are true, as from God, being said as before God in Christ.

2 Corinthians 3:1 Do we seem to be again attempting to put ourselves in the right? or have we need, as some have, of letters of approval to you or from you?

2 Corinthians 3:2 You yourselves are our letter, whose writing is in our heart, open for every man’s reading and knowledge;

2 Corinthians 3:3 For you are clearly a letter of Christ, the fruit of our work, recorded not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in stone, but in hearts of flesh.

2 Corinthians 3:4 And this is the certain faith which we have in God through Christ:

2 Corinthians 3:5 Not as if we were able by ourselves to do anything for which we might take the credit; but our power comes from God;

2 Corinthians 3:6 Who has made us able to be servants of a new agreement; not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter gives death, but the Spirit gives life.

2 Corinthians 3:7 For if the operation of the law, giving death, recorded in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the eyes of the children of Israel had to be turned away from the face of Moses because of its glory, a glory which was only for a time:

2 Corinthians 3:8 Will not the operation of the Spirit have a much greater glory?

2 Corinthians 3:9 For if the operation of the law, producing punishment, had its glory, how much greater will be the operation of the Spirit causing righteousness?

2 Corinthians 3:10 For the glory of the first no longer seems to be glory, because of the greater glory of that which comes after.

2 Corinthians 3:11 For if the order which was for a time had its glory, much more will the eternal order have its glory.

2 Corinthians 3:12 Having then such a hope, we keep nothing back,

2 Corinthians 3:13 And are not like Moses, who put a veil on his face, so that the children of Israel might not see clearly to the end of the present order of things:

2 Corinthians 3:14 But their minds were made hard: for to this very day at the reading of the old agreement the same veil is still unlifted; though it is taken away in Christ.

2 Corinthians 3:15 But to this day, at the reading of the law of Moses, a veil is over their heart.

2 Corinthians 3:16 But when it is turned to the Lord, the veil will be taken away.

2 Corinthians 3:17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there the heart is free.

2 Corinthians 3:18 But we all, with unveiled face giving back as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord who is the Spirit.

2 Corinthians 4:1 For this reason, because we have been made servants of this new order, through the mercy given to us, we are strong:

2 Corinthians 4:2 And we have given up the secret things of shame, not walking in false ways, and not making use of the word of God with deceit; but by the revelation of what is true, as before God, we have the approval of every man’s sense of right and wrong.

2 Corinthians 4:3 But if our good news is veiled, it is veiled from those who are on the way to destruction:

2 Corinthians 4:4 Because the god of this world has made blind the minds of those who have not faith, so that the light of the good news of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, might not be shining on them.

2 Corinthians 4:5 For our preaching is not about ourselves, but about Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants through Jesus.

2 Corinthians 4:6 Seeing that it is God who said, Let light be shining out of the dark, who has put in our hearts the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.

2 Corinthians 4:7 But we have this wealth in vessels of earth, so that it may be seen that the power comes not from us but from God;

2 Corinthians 4:8 Troubles are round us on every side, but we are not shut in; things are hard for us, but we see a way out of them;

2 Corinthians 4:9 We are cruelly attacked, but not without hope; we are made low, but we are not without help;

2 Corinthians 4:10 In our bodies there is ever the mark of the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be seen in our bodies.

2 Corinthians 4:11 For, while living, we are still being given up to death because of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be seen in our flesh, though it is under the power of death.

2 Corinthians 4:12 So then, death is working in us, but life in you.

2 Corinthians 4:13 But having the same spirit of faith, as it is said in the Writings, The words of my mouth came from the faith in my heart; in the same way, our words are the outcome of our faith;

2 Corinthians 4:14 Because we are certain that he who made the Lord Jesus come back from the dead, will do the same for us, and will give us a place in his glory with you.

2 Corinthians 4:15 For we go through all things on account of you, because the greater the number to whom the grace is given, the greater is the praise to the glory of God.

2 Corinthians 4:16 For which cause we do not give way to weariness; but though our outer man is getting feebler, our inner man is made new day by day.

2 Corinthians 4:17 For our present trouble, which is only for a short time, is working out for us a much greater weight of glory;

2 Corinthians 4:18 While our minds are not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are for a time; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

2 Corinthians 5:1 For we are conscious that if this our tent of flesh is taken down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in heaven.

2 Corinthians 5:2 For in this we are crying in weariness, greatly desiring to be clothed with our house from heaven:

2 Corinthians 5:3 So that our spirits may not be unclothed.

2 Corinthians 5:4 For truly, we who are in this tent do give out cries of weariness, for the weight of care which is on us; not because we are desiring to be free from the body, but so that we may have our new body, and death may be overcome by life.

2 Corinthians 5:5 Now he who has made us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a witness of what is to come.

2 Corinthians 5:6 So, then, we are ever without fear, and though conscious that while we are in the body we are away from the Lord,

2 Corinthians 5:7 (For we are walking by faith, not by seeing,)

2 Corinthians 5:8 We are without fear, desiring to be free from the body, and to be with the Lord.

2 Corinthians 5:9 For this reason we make it our purpose, in the body or away from it, to be well-pleasing to him.

2 Corinthians 5:10 For we all have to come before Christ to be judged; so that every one of us may get his reward for the things done in the body, good or bad.

2 Corinthians 5:11 Having in mind, then, the fear of the Lord, we put these things before men, but God sees our hearts; and it is my hope that we may seem right in your eyes.

2 Corinthians 5:12 We are not again requesting your approval, but we are giving you the chance of taking pride in us, so that you may be able to give an answer to those whose glory is in seeming, and not in the heart.

2 Corinthians 5:13 For if we are foolish, it is to God; or if we are serious, it is for you.

2 Corinthians 5:14 For it is the love of Christ which is moving us; because we are of the opinion that if one was put to death for all, then all have undergone death;

2 Corinthians 5:15 And that he underwent death for all, so that the living might no longer be living to themselves, but to him who underwent death for them and came back from the dead.

2 Corinthians 5:16 For this reason, from this time forward we have knowledge of no man after the flesh: even if we have had knowledge of Christ after the flesh, we have no longer any such knowledge.

2 Corinthians 5:17 So if any man is in Christ, he is in a new world: the old things have come to an end; they have truly become new.

2 Corinthians 5:18 But all things are of God, who has made us at peace with himself through Christ, and has given to us the work of making peace;

2 Corinthians 5:19 That is, that God was in Christ making peace between the world and himself, not putting their sins to their account, and having given to us the preaching of this news of peace.

2 Corinthians 5:20 So we are the representatives of Christ, as if God was making a request to you through us: we make our request to you, in the name of Christ, be at peace with God.

2 Corinthians 5:21 For him who had no knowledge of sin God made to be sin for us; so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

2 Corinthians 6:1 We then, working together with God, make our request to you not to take the grace of God to no purpose.

2 Corinthians 6:2 (For he says, I have given ear to you at a good time, and I have been your helper in a day of salvation: see, now is the good time; now is the day of salvation):

2 Corinthians 6:3 Giving no cause for trouble in anything, so that no one may be able to say anything against our work;

2 Corinthians 6:4 But in everything making it clear that we are the servants of God, in quiet strength, in troubles, in need, in sorrow,

2 Corinthians 6:5 In blows, in prisons, in attacks, in hard work, in watchings, in going without food;

2 Corinthians 6:6 In a clean heart, in knowledge, in long waiting, in being kind, in the Holy Spirit, in true love,

2 Corinthians 6:7 In the true word, in the power of God; with the arms of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

2 Corinthians 6:8 By glory and by shame, by an evil name and a good name; as untrue, and still true;

2 Corinthians 6:9 Unnoted, but still kept fully in mind; as near to death, but still living; as undergoing punishment, but not put to death;

2 Corinthians 6:10 As full of sorrow, but ever glad; as poor, but giving wealth to others; as having nothing, but still having all things.

2 Corinthians 6:11 Our mouth is open to you, O Corinthians, our heart is wide.

2 Corinthians 6:12 It is not our feelings to you which are narrow, but yours to us.

2 Corinthians 6:13 Now to give me back payment of the same sort (I am talking as to my children), let your hearts be wide open to me.

2 Corinthians 6:14 Do not keep company with those who have not faith: for what is there in common between righteousness and evil, or between light and dark?

2 Corinthians 6:15 And what agreement is there between Christ and the Evil One? or what part has one who has faith with one who has not?

2 Corinthians 6:16 And what agreement has the house of God with images? for we are a house of the living God; even as God has said, I will be living among them, and walking with them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.

2 Corinthians 6:17 For which cause, Come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and let no unclean thing come near you; and I will take you for myself,

2 Corinthians 6:18 And will be a Father to you; and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord, the Ruler of all.

2 Corinthians 7:1 Because God, then, will give us such rewards, dear brothers, let us make ourselves clean from all evil of flesh and spirit, and become completely holy in the fear of God.

2 Corinthians 7:2 Let your hearts be open to us: we have done no man wrong, no man has been damaged by us, we have made no profit out of any man,

2 Corinthians 7:3 It is not with the purpose of judging you that I say this: for I have said before that you are in our hearts for life and death together.

2 Corinthians 7:4 My words to you are without fear, I am full of pride on account of you: I have great comfort and joy in all our troubles.

2 Corinthians 7:5 For even when we had come into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; there were fightings outside and fears inside.

2 Corinthians 7:6 But God who gives comfort to the poor in spirit gave us comfort by the coming of Titus;

2 Corinthians 7:7 And not by his coming only, but by the comfort which he had in you, while he gave us word of your desire, your sorrow, your care for me; so that I was still more glad.

2 Corinthians 7:8 For though my letter gave you pain, I have no regret for it now, though I had before; for I see that the letter gave you pain, but only for a time.

2 Corinthians 7:9 Now I am glad, not that you had sorrow, but that your sorrow was the cause of a change of heart; for yours was a holy sorrow so that you might undergo no loss by us in anything.

2 Corinthians 7:10 For the sorrow which God gives is the cause of salvation through a change of heart, in which there is no reason for grief: but the sorrow of the world is a cause of death.

2 Corinthians 7:11 For you see what care was produced in you by this very sorrow of yours before God, what clearing of yourselves, what wrath against sin, what fear, what desire, what serious purpose, what punishment. In everything you have made it clear that you are free from sin in this business.

2 Corinthians 7:12 So though I sent you a letter, it was not only because of the man who did the wrong, or because of him to whom the wrong was done, but so that your true care for us might be made clear in the eyes of God.

2 Corinthians 7:13 So we have been comforted: and we had the greater joy in our comfort because of the joy of Titus, for his spirit had been made glad by you all.

2 Corinthians 7:14 For I was not put to shame in anything in which I may have made clear to him my pride in you; but as we said nothing to you but what was true, so the good things which I said to Titus about you were seen by him to be true.

2 Corinthians 7:15 And his love to you is the more increased by his memory of you all, how you gave way to his authority, and how you took him to your hearts with fear and honour.

2 Corinthians 7:16 It gives me great joy to see you answering to my good opinion of you in every way.

2 Corinthians 8:1 And now we give you news, brothers, about the grace of God which has been given to the churches of Macedonia;

2 Corinthians 8:2 How while they were undergoing every sort of trouble, and were in the greatest need, they took all the greater joy in being able to give freely to the needs of others.

2 Corinthians 8:3 For I give them witness, that as they were able, and even more than they were able, they gave from the impulse of their hearts,

2 Corinthians 8:4 Seriously requesting us that they might have a part in this grace of being servants to the needs of the saints:

2 Corinthians 8:5 And going even farther than our hope, they first gave themselves to the Lord and to us after the purpose of God.

2 Corinthians 8:6 So that we made a request to Titus that, as he had made a start before, so he might make this grace complete in you.

2 Corinthians 8:7 And that as you are full of every good thing, of faith, of the word, of knowledge, of a ready mind, and of love to us, so you may be full of this grace in the same way.

2 Corinthians 8:8 I am not giving you an order, but using the ready mind of others as a test of the quality of your love.

2 Corinthians 8:9 For you see the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, how though he had wealth, he became poor on your account, so that through his need you might have wealth.

2 Corinthians 8:10 And in this I give my opinion: for it is to your profit, who were the first to make a start a year before, not only to do this, but to make clear that your minds were more than ready to do it.

2 Corinthians 8:11 Then make the doing of it complete; so that as you had a ready mind, you may give effect to it as you are able.

2 Corinthians 8:12 For if there is a ready mind, a man will have God’s approval in the measure of what he has, and not of what he has not.

2 Corinthians 8:13 And I am not saying this so that others may get off free, while the weight comes on you:

2 Corinthians 8:14 But so that things may be equal; that from those things of which you have more than enough at the present time their need may be helped, and that if you are in any need they may be a help to you in the same way, making things equal.

2 Corinthians 8:15 As it says in the Writings, He who had taken up much had nothing over and he who had little had enough.

2 Corinthians 8:16 But praise be to God, who puts the same care for you into the heart of Titus.

2 Corinthians 8:17 For while he gladly gave ear to our request, he was interested enough to go to you from the impulse of his heart.

2 Corinthians 8:18 And with him we have sent a brother whose praise in the good news has gone through all the churches;

2 Corinthians 8:19 And not only so, but he was marked out by the churches to go with us in the grace of this giving which we have undertaken to the glory of the Lord and to make clear that our mind was ready:

2 Corinthians 8:20 And so that no man might be able to say anything against us in the business of this giving which has been put into our hands:

2 Corinthians 8:21 For the business has been so ordered by us as to have the approval, not only of the Lord, but of men.

2 Corinthians 8:22 And we have sent with them our brother, whose ready spirit has been made clear to us at times and in ways without number, but it is now all the more so because of the certain faith which he has in you.

2 Corinthians 8:23 If any question comes up about Titus, he is my brother-worker, working with me for you; or about the others, they are the representatives of the churches to the glory of Christ.

2 Corinthians 8:24 Make clear then to them, as representatives of the churches, the quality of your love, and that the things which we have said about you are true.

2 Corinthians 9:1 But there is no need for me to say anything in my letter about the giving to the saints:

2 Corinthians 9:2 For I have before made clear to those of Macedonia my pride in your ready mind, saying to them that Achaia has been ready for a year back; and a great number have been moved to do the same by your example.

2 Corinthians 9:3 But I have sent the brothers, so that the good things we said about you may be seen to be true, and that, as I said, you may be ready:

2 Corinthians 9:4 For fear that, if any from Macedonia come with me, and you are not ready, we (not to say, you) might be put to shame in this thing.

2 Corinthians 9:5 So it seemed to me wise for the brothers to go before, and see that the amount which you had undertaken to give was ready, so that it might be a cause for praise, and not as if we were making profit out of you.

2 Corinthians 9:6 But in the Writings it says, He who puts in only a small number of seeds, will get in the same; and he who puts them in from a full hand, will have produce in full measure from them.

2 Corinthians 9:7 Let every man do after the purpose of his heart; not giving with grief, or by force: for God takes pleasure in a ready giver.

2 Corinthians 9:8 And God is able to give you all grace in full measure; so that ever having enough of all things, you may be full of every good work:

2 Corinthians 9:9 As it is said in the Writings, He has sent out far and wide, he has given to the poor; his righteousness is for ever.

2 Corinthians 9:10 And he who gives seed for putting into the field and bread for food, will take care of the growth of your seed, at the same time increasing the fruits of your righteousness;

2 Corinthians 9:11 Your wealth being increased in everything, with a simple mind, causing praise to God through us.

2 Corinthians 9:12 For this work of giving not only takes care of the needs of the saints, but is the cause of much praise to God;

2 Corinthians 9:13 For when, through this work of giving, they see what you are, they give glory to God for the way in which you have given yourselves to the good news of Christ, and for the wealth of your giving to them and to all;

2 Corinthians 9:14 While their hearts go out to you in love and in prayer for you, because of the great grace of God which is in you.

2 Corinthians 9:15 Praise be to God for what he has given, which words have no power to say.

2 Corinthians 10:1 Now I, Paul, myself make request to you by the quiet and gentle behaviour of Christ, I who am poor in spirit when with you, but who say what is in my mind to you without fear when I am away from you:

2 Corinthians 10:2 Yes, I make my request to you, so that when I am with you I may not have to make use of the authority which may be needed against some to whom we seem to be walking after the flesh.

2 Corinthians 10:3 For though we may be living in the flesh, we are not fighting after the way of the flesh

2 Corinthians 10:4 (For the arms with which we are fighting are not those of the flesh, but are strong before God for the destruction of high places);

2 Corinthians 10:5 Putting an end to reasonings, and every high thing which is lifted up against the knowledge of God, and causing every thought to come under the authority of Christ;

2 Corinthians 10:6 Being ready to give punishment to whatever is against his authority, after you have made it clear that you are completely under his control.

2 Corinthians 10:7 Give attention to the things which are before you. If any man seems to himself to be Christ’s, let him keep in mind that we are as much Christ’s as he is.

2 Corinthians 10:8 For though I might take pride in our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for your destruction), it will not be a cause of shame to me:

2 Corinthians 10:9 That I may not seem to have the desire of causing you fear by my letters.

2 Corinthians 10:10 For his letters, they say, have weight and are strong; but in body he is feeble, and his way of talking has little force.

2 Corinthians 10:11 Let those who say this keep in mind that, what we are in word by letters when we are away, so will we be in act when we are present.

2 Corinthians 10:12 For we will not make comparison of ourselves with some of those who say good things about themselves: but these, measuring themselves by themselves, and making comparison of themselves with themselves, are not wise.

2 Corinthians 10:13 We will not give glory to ourselves in over-great measure, but after the measure of the rule which God has given us, a measure which comes even to you.

2 Corinthians 10:14 For we have no need to make ourselves seem more than we are, as if our authority did not come as far as to you: for we came even as far as you with the good news of Christ:

2 Corinthians 10:15 Not taking credit to ourselves for what is not our business, that is, for the work of others; but having hope that, with the growth of your faith, we may get the credit for an increase which is the effect of our work,

2 Corinthians 10:16 So that we may be able to go on and take the good news to countries still farther away than you are, and not take credit for another man's work in making things ready to our hand.

2 Corinthians 10:17 But whoever has a desire for glory, let his glory be in the Lord.

2 Corinthians 10:18 For the Lord's approval of a man is not dependent on his opinion of himself, but on the Lord's opinion of him.

2 Corinthians 11:1 Put up with me if I am a little foolish: but, truly, you do put up with me.

2 Corinthians 11:2 For I have a very great care for you: because you have been married by me to one husband, and it is my desire to give you completely holy to Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:3 But I have a fear, that in some way, as Eve was tricked by the deceit of the snake, your minds may be turned away from their simple and holy love for Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:4 For if anyone comes preaching another Jesus from the one whose preachers we are, or if you have got a different spirit, or a different sort of good news from those which came to you, how well you put up with these things.

2 Corinthians 11:5 For in my opinion, I am in no way less than the most important of the Apostles.

2 Corinthians 11:6 But though I am rough in my way of talking, I am not so in knowledge, as we have made clear to all by our acts among you.

2 Corinthians 11:7 Or did I do wrong in making myself low so that you might be lifted up, because I gave you the good news of God without reward?

2 Corinthians 11:8 I took money from other churches as payment for my work, so that I might be your servant;

2 Corinthians 11:9 And when I was present with you, and was in need, I let no man be responsible for me; for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, gave me whatever was needed; and in everything I kept myself from being a trouble to you, and I will go on doing so.

2 Corinthians 11:10 As the true word of Christ is in me, I will let no man take from me this my cause of pride in the country of Achaia.

2 Corinthians 11:11 Why? because I have no love for you? let God be judge.

2 Corinthians 11:12 But what I do, that I will go on doing, so that I may give no chance to those who are looking for one; so that, in the cause of their pride, they may be seen to be the same as we are.

2 Corinthians 11:13 For such men are false Apostles, workers of deceit, making themselves seem like Apostles of Christ.

2 Corinthians 11:14 And it is no wonder; for even Satan himself is able to take the form of an angel of light.

2 Corinthians 11:15 So it is no great thing if his servants make themselves seem to be servants of righteousness; whose end will be the reward of their works.

2 Corinthians 11:16 I say again, Let me not seem foolish to anyone; but if I do, put up with me as such, so that I may take a little glory to myself.

2 Corinthians 11:17 What I am now saying is not by the order of the Lord, but as a foolish person, taking credit to myself, as it seems.

2 Corinthians 11:18 Seeing that there are those who take credit to themselves after the flesh, I will do the same.

2 Corinthians 11:19 For you put up with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves.

2 Corinthians 11:20 You put up with a man if he makes servants of you, if he makes profit out of you, if he makes you prisoners, if he puts himself in a high place, if he gives you blows on the face.

2 Corinthians 11:21 I say this by way of shaming ourselves, as if we had been feeble. But if anyone puts himself forward (I am talking like a foolish person), I will do the same.

2 Corinthians 11:22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they of Israel? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.

2 Corinthians 11:23 Are they servants of Christ? (I am talking foolishly) I am more so; I have had more experience of hard work, of prisons, of blows more than measure, of death.

2 Corinthians 11:24 Five times the Jews gave me forty blows but one.

2 Corinthians 11:25 Three times I was whipped with rods, once I was stoned, three times the ship I was in came to destruction at sea, a night and a day I have been in the water;

2 Corinthians 11:26 In frequent travels, in dangers on rivers, in dangers from outlaws, in dangers from my countrymen, in dangers from the Gentiles, in dangers in the town, in dangers in the waste land, in dangers at sea, in dangers among false brothers;

2 Corinthians 11:27 In hard work and weariness, in frequent watchings, going without food and drink, cold and in need of clothing.

2 Corinthians 11:28 In addition to all the other things, there is that which comes on me every day, the care of all the churches.

2 Corinthians 11:29 Who is feeble and I am not feeble? who is in danger of falling, and I am not angry?

2 Corinthians 11:30 If I have to take credit to myself, I will do so in the things in which I am feeble.

2 Corinthians 11:31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom be praise for ever, is witness that the things which I say are true.

2 Corinthians 11:32 In Damascus, the ruler under Aretas the king kept watch over the town of the people of Damascus, in order to take me:

2 Corinthians 11:33 And being let down in a basket from the wall through a window, I got free from his hands.

2 Corinthians 12:1 As it is necessary for me to take glory to myself, though it is not a good thing, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.

2 Corinthians 12:2 I have knowledge of a man in Christ, fourteen years back (if he was in the body, or out of the body, I am not able to say, but God only), who was taken up to the third heaven.

2 Corinthians 12:3 And I have knowledge of such a man (if he was in the body, or out of the body, I am not able to say, but God only),

2 Corinthians 12:4 How he was taken up into Paradise, and words came to his ears which may not be said, and which man is not able to say.

2 Corinthians 12:5 On account of such a one I will have glory: for myself I will take no glory, but only in my feeble body.

2 Corinthians 12:6 For if I had a desire to take credit to myself, it would not be foolish, for I would be saying what is true: but I will not, for fear that I might seem to any man more than he sees me to be, or has word from me that I am.

2 Corinthians 12:7 And because the revelations were so very great, in order that I might not be overmuch lifted up, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, one sent from Satan to give me pain.

2 Corinthians 12:8 And about this thing I made request to the Lord three times that it might be taken away from me.

2 Corinthians 12:9 And he said to me, My grace is enough for you, for my power is made complete in what is feeble. Most gladly, then, will I take pride in my feeble body, so that the power of Christ may be on me.

2 Corinthians 12:10 So I take pleasure in being feeble, in unkind words, in needs, in cruel attacks, in troubles, on account of Christ: for when I am feeble, then am I strong.

2 Corinthians 12:11 I have been forced by you to become foolish, though it was right for my praise to have come from you: for in no way was I less than the chief of the Apostles, though I am nothing.

2 Corinthians 12:12 Truly the signs of an Apostle were done among you in quiet strength, with wonders and acts of power.

2 Corinthians 12:13 For what is there in which you were made less than the other churches, but in the one thing that I was not a trouble to you? Let me have forgiveness for this wrong.

2 Corinthians 12:14 This is now the third time that I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a trouble to you: my desire is for you, not for your property: for it is not the children's business to make store for their fathers, but the fathers for the children.

2 Corinthians 12:15 And I will gladly give all I have for your souls. If I have the more love for you, am I to be loved the less?

2 Corinthians 12:16 But let it be so, that I was not a trouble to you myself; but (someone may say) being false, I took you with deceit.

2 Corinthians 12:17 Did I make a profit out of you by any of those whom I sent to you?

2 Corinthians 12:18 I gave orders to Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus make any profit out of you? were we not guided by the same Spirit, in the same ways?

2 Corinthians 12:19 It may seem to you that all this time we have been attempting to put ourselves in the right; but we are saying these things before God in Christ. For all things, dear brothers, are for your profit.

2 Corinthians 12:20 For I have a fear that, when I come, you may not be answering to my desire, and that I may not be answering to yours; that there may be fighting, hate, angry feeling, divisions, evil talk about others, secrets, thoughts of pride, outbursts against authority;

2 Corinthians 12:21 And that when I come again, my God may put me to shame among you, and I may have grief for those who have done wrong before and have had no regret for their unclean ways, and for the evil desires of the flesh to which they have given way.

2 Corinthians 13:1 This is the third time that I am coming to you. From the mouth of two or three witnesses will every word be made certain.

2 Corinthians 13:2 I said before, and still say it before I come, as being present for the second time, though I am still away from you, to those who have done wrong before, and to all the others, that if I come again I will not have pity;

2 Corinthians 13:3 Seeing that you are looking for a sign of Christ giving out his word in me; who is not feeble in relation to you, but is strong in you:

2 Corinthians 13:4 For he was feeble in that he was put to death on the cross, but he is living by the power of God. And we are feeble in him, but we will be living with him through the power of God in relation to you.

2 Corinthians 13:5 Make a test of yourselves, if you are in the faith; make certain of yourselves. Or are you not conscious in yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you, if you are truly Christ's?

2 Corinthians 13:6 But it is my hope that you will have no doubt that we are truly Christ's.

2 Corinthians 13:7 Now our prayer to God is that you may do no evil; not in order that it may be put to our credit, but so that you may do what is right, whatever we may seem.

2 Corinthians 13:8 Because we are able to do nothing against what is true, but only for it.

2 Corinthians 13:9 For we are glad when we are feeble and you are strong: and this is our prayer, even that you may be made complete.

2 Corinthians 13:10 For this cause I am writing these things while I am away, so that there may be need for me, when I am present, to make use of sharp measures, by the authority which the Lord has given me for building up and not for destruction.

2 Corinthians 13:11 Let this be my last word, brothers; be glad; be complete; be comforted; be of the same mind; be at peace with one another: and the God of love and peace will be with you.

2 Corinthians 13:12 Give one another a holy kiss.

2 Corinthians 13:13 All the saints send their love to you.

2 Corinthians 13:14 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the harmony of the Holy Spirit, be with you all.

Galatians

1:1 Paul, an Apostle (not from men, and not through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who made him come back from the dead),

Galatians 1:2 And all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:

Galatians 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,

Galatians 1:4 Who gave himself for our sins, so that he might make us free from this present evil world, after the purpose of our God and Father:

Galatians 1:5 To whom be the glory for ever and ever. So be it.

Galatians 1:6 I am surprised that you are being so quickly turned away from him whose word came to you in the grace of Christ, to good news of a different sort;

Galatians 1:7 Which is not another sort: only there are some who give you trouble, desiring to make changes in the good news of Christ.

Galatians 1:8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, were to be a preacher to you of good news other than that which we have given you, let there be a curse on him.

Galatians 1:9 As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man is a preacher to you of any good news other than that which has been given to you, let there be a curse on him.

Galatians 1:10 Am I now using arguments to men, or God? or is it my desire to give men pleasure? if I was still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.

Galatians 1:11 Because I say to you, my brothers, that the good news of which I was the preacher is not man’s.

Galatians 1:12 For I did not get it from man, and I was not given teaching in it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.

Galatians 1:13 For news has come to you of my way of life in the past in the Jews’ religion, how I was cruel without measure to the church of God, and did great damage to it:

Galatians 1:14 And I went farther in the Jews’ religion than a number of my generation among my countrymen, having a more burning interest in the beliefs handed down from my fathers.

Galatians 1:15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, by whom I was marked out even from my mother’s body, through his grace,

Galatians 1:16 To give the revelation of his Son in me, so that I might give the news of him to the Gentiles; then I did not take the opinion of flesh and blood,

Galatians 1:17 And I went not up to Jerusalem to those who were Apostles before me; but I went away into Arabia, and again I came back to Damascus.

Galatians 1:18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Cephas, and was there with him fifteen days.

Galatians 1:19 But of the other Apostles I saw only James, the Lord’s brother.

Galatians 1:20 Now God is witness that the things which I am writing to you are true.

Galatians 1:21 Then I came to the parts of Syria and Cilicia.

Galatians 1:22 And the churches of Judaea which were in Christ still had no knowledge of my face or person:

Galatians 1:23 Only it came to their ears that he who at one time was cruel to us is now preaching the faith which before had been attacked by him;

Galatians 1:24 And they gave glory to God in me.

Galatians 2:1 Then after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me.

Galatians 2:2 And I went up by revelation; and I put before them the good news which I was preaching among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were of good name, so that the work which I was or had been doing might not be without effect.

Galatians 2:3 But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was made to undergo circumcision:

Galatians 2:4 And that because of the false brothers let in secretly, who came searching out our free condition which we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might make servants of us;

Galatians 2:5 To whom we gave way not even for an hour; so that the true words of the good news might still be with you.

Galatians 2:6 But from those who seemed to be important (whatever they were has no weight with me: God does not take man's person into account): those who seemed to be important gave nothing new to me;

Galatians 2:7 But, quite the opposite, when they saw that I had been made responsible for preaching the good news to those without circumcision, even as Peter had been for those of the circumcision

Galatians 2:8 (Because he who was working in Peter as the Apostle of the circumcision was working no less in me among the Gentiles);

Galatians 2:9 When they saw the grace which was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who had the name of being pillars, gave to me and Barnabas their right hands as friends so that we might go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision;

Galatians 2:10 Only it was their desire that we would give thought to the poor; which very thing I had much in mind to do.

Galatians 2:11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I made a protest against him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong.

Galatians 2:12 For before certain men came from James, he did take food with the Gentiles: but when they came, he went back and made himself separate, fearing those who were of the circumcision.

Galatians 2:13 And the rest of the Jews went after him, so that even Barnabas was overcome by their false ways.

Galatians 2:14 But when I saw that they were not living uprightly in agreement with the true words of the good news, I said to Cephas before them all, If you, being a Jew, are living like the Gentiles, and not like the Jews, how will you make the Gentiles do the same as the Jews?

Galatians 2:15 We being Jews by birth, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

Galatians 2:16 Being conscious that a man does not get righteousness by the works of the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ, we had faith in Christ Jesus, so that we might get righteousness by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law will no flesh get righteousness.

Galatians 2:17 But if, while we were desiring to get righteousness through Christ, we ourselves were seen to be sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? In no way!

Galatians 2:18 For if I put up again those things which I gave to destruction, I am seen to be a wrongdoer.

Galatians 2:19 For I, through the law, have become dead to the law, so that I might be living to God.

Galatians 2:20 I have been put to death on the cross with Christ; still I am living; no longer I, but Christ is living in me; and that life which I now am living in the flesh I am living by faith, the faith of the Son of God, who in love for me, gave himself up for me.

Galatians 2:21 I do not make the grace of God of no effect: because if righteousness is through the law, then Christ was put to death for nothing.

Galatians 3:1 O foolish Galatians, by what strange powers have you been tricked, to whom it was made clear that Jesus Christ was put to death on the cross?

Galatians 3:2 Give me an answer to this one question, Did the Spirit come to you through the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

Galatians 3:3 Are you so foolish? having made a start in the Spirit, will you now be made complete in the flesh?

Galatians 3:4 Did you undergo such a number of things to no purpose? if it is in fact to no purpose.

Galatians 3:5 He who gives you the Spirit, and does works of power among you, is it by the works of law, or by the hearing of faith?

Galatians 3:6 Even as Abraham had faith in God, and it was put to his account as righteousness.

Galatians 3:7 Be certain, then, that those who are of faith, the same are sons of Abraham.

Galatians 3:8 And the holy Writings, seeing before the event that God would give the Gentiles righteousness by faith, gave the good news before to Abraham, saying, In you will all the nations have a blessing.

Galatians 3:9 So then those who are of faith have a part in the blessing of Abraham who was full of faith.

Galatians 3:10 For all who are of the works of the law are under a curse: because it is said in the Writings, A curse is on everyone who does not keep on doing all the things which are ordered in the book of the law.

Galatians 3:11 Now that no man gets righteousness by the law in the eyes of God, is clear; because, The upright will be living by faith.

Galatians 3:12 And the law is not of faith; but, He who does them will have life by them.

Galatians 3:13 Christ has made us free from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: because it is said in the Writings, A curse on everyone who is put to death by hanging on a tree:

Galatians 3:14 So that on the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; in order that we through faith might have the Spirit which God had undertaken to give.

Galatians 3:15 Brothers, as men would say, even a man's agreement, when it has been made certain, may not be put on one side, or have additions made to it.

Galatians 3:16 Now to Abraham were the undertakings given, and to his seed. He says not, And to seeds, as of a great number; but as of one, he says, And to your seed, which is Christ.

Galatians 3:17 Now this I say: The law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, does not put an end to the agreement made before by God, so as to make the undertaking without effect.

Galatians 3:18 Because if the heritage is by the law, it is no longer dependent on the word of God; but God gave it to Abraham by his word.

Galatians 3:19 What then is the law? It was an addition made because of sin, till the coming of the seed to whom the undertaking had been given; and it was ordered through angels by the hand of a go-between.

Galatians 3:20 Now a go-between is not a go-between of one; but God is one.

Galatians 3:21 Is the law then against the words of God? in no way; because if there had been a law which was able to give life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.

Galatians 3:22 However, the holy Writings have put all things under sin, so that that for which God gave the undertaking, based on faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who have such faith.

Galatians 3:23 But before faith came, we were kept in prison under the law, waiting for the revelation of the faith which was to come.

Galatians 3:24 So the law has been a servant to take us to Christ, so that we might have righteousness by faith.

Galatians 3:25 But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a servant.

Galatians 3:26 Because you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.

Galatians 3:27 For all those of you who were given baptism into Christ did put on Christ.

Galatians 3:28 There is no Jew or Greek, servant or free, male or female: because you are all one in Jesus Christ.

Galatians 3:29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and yours is the heritage by the right of God's undertaking given to Abraham.

Galatians 4:1 But I say that as long as the son is a child, he is in no way different from a servant, though he is lord of all;

Galatians 4:2 But is under keepers and managers till the time fixed by the father.

Galatians 4:3 So we, when we were young, were kept under the first rules of the world;

Galatians 4:4 But when the time had come, God sent out his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,

Galatians 4:5 That he might make them free who were under the law, and that we might be given the place of sons.

Galatians 4:6 And because you are sons, God has sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, saying, Abba, Father.

Galatians 4:7 So that you are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then the heritage of God is yours.

Galatians 4:8 But at that time, having no knowledge of God, you were servants to those who by right are no gods:

Galatians 4:9 But now that you have come to have knowledge of God, or more truly, God has knowledge of you, how is it that you go back again to the poor and feeble first things, desiring to be servants to them again?

Galatians 4:10 You keep days, and months, and fixed times, and years.

Galatians 4:11 I am in fear of you, that I may have been working for you to no purpose.

Galatians 4:12 My desire for you, brothers, is that you may be as I am, because I am as you are. You have done me no wrong;

Galatians 4:13 But you have knowledge that with a feeble body I was preaching the good news to you the first time;

Galatians 4:14 And you did not have a poor opinion of me because of the trouble in my flesh, or put shame on it; but you took me to your hearts as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.

Galatians 4:15 Where then is that happy condition of yours? because I give you witness, that, if possible, you would have taken out your eyes and given them to me.

Galatians 4:16 So then am I no longer your friend, because I give you true words?

Galatians 4:17 Their interest in you is not good; but their desire is that you may be shut out, so that you may go after them.

Galatians 4:18 But it is good to have an interest in a good cause at all times, and not only when I am present with you.

Galatians 4:19 My children, of whom I am again in birth-pains till Christ is formed in you,

Galatians 4:20 Truly my desire is to be present with you now, using a changed voice; for I am troubled about you.

Galatians 4:21 Say, you whose desire it is to be under the law, do you not give ear to the law?

Galatians 4:22 Because it is in the Writings, that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant-woman, and one by the free woman.

Galatians 4:23 Now the son by the servant-woman has his birth after the flesh; but the son by the free woman has his birth through the undertaking of God.

Galatians 4:24 Which things have a secret sense; because these women are the two agreements; one from the mountain of Sinai, giving birth to servants, which is Hagar.

Galatians 4:25 Now this Hagar is the mountain Sinai in Arabia, and is the image of the Jerusalem which now is: which is a servant with her children.

Galatians 4:26 But the Jerusalem on high is free, which is our mother.

Galatians 4:27 For it is in the Writings, You who have never given birth, be glad; give cries of joy, you who have had no birth-pains; for the children of her who has been given up by her husband are more than those of the woman who has a husband.

Galatians 4:28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of the undertaking of God.

Galatians 4:29 But as in those days he who had birth after the flesh was cruel to him who had birth after the Spirit, even so it is now.

Galatians 4:30 What then do the Writings say? Send away the servant-woman and her son; for the son of the servant-woman will not have a part in the heritage with the son of the free woman.

Galatians 4:31 So, brothers, we are not children of the servant-woman, but of the free woman.

Galatians 5:1 Christ has truly made us free: then keep your free condition and let no man put a yoke on you again.

Galatians 5:2 See, I Paul say to you, that if you undergo circumcision, Christ will be of no use to you.

Galatians 5:3 Yes, I give witness again to every man who undergoes circumcision, that he will have to keep all the law.

Galatians 5:4 You are cut off from Christ, you who would have righteousness by the law; you are turned away from grace.

Galatians 5:5 For we through the Spirit by faith are waiting for the hope of righteousness.

Galatians 5:6 Because in Christ Jesus, having circumcision or not having circumcision are equally of no profit; but only faith working through love.

Galatians 5:7 You were going on well; who was the cause of your not giving ear to what is true?

Galatians 5:8 This ready belief did not come from him who had made you his.

Galatians 5:9 A little leaven makes a change in all the mass.

Galatians 5:10 I am certain about you in the Lord, that you will be of no other mind; but he who is troubling you will have his punishment, whoever he is.

Galatians 5:11 But I, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still attacked? then has the shame of the cross been taken away.

Galatians 5:12 My desire is that they who give you trouble might even be cut off themselves.

Galatians 5:13 Because you, brothers, were marked out to be free; only do not make use of your free condition to give the flesh its chance, but through love be servants one to another.

Galatians 5:14 For all the law is made complete in one word, even in this, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself.

Galatians 5:15 But if you are given to fighting with one another, take care that you are not the cause of destruction one to another.

Galatians 5:16 But I say, Go on in the Spirit, and you will not come under the rule of the evil desires of the flesh.

Galatians 5:17 For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; because these are opposite the one to the other; so that you may not do the things which you have a mind to do.

Galatians 5:18 But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.

Galatians 5:19 Now the works of the flesh are clear, which are these: evil desire, unclean things, wrong use of the senses, Galatians 5:20 Worship of images, use of strange powers, hates, fighting, desire for what another has, angry feelings, attempts to get the better of others, divisions, false teachings,

Galatians 5:21 Envy, uncontrolled drinking and feasting, and such things: of which I give you word clearly, even as I did in the past, that they who do such things will have no part in the kingdom of God.

Galatians 5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, a quiet mind, kind acts, well-doing, faith,

Galatians 5:23 Gentle behaviour, control over desires: against such there is no law.

Galatians 5:24 And those who are Christ’s have put to death on the cross the flesh with its passions and its evil desires.

Galatians 5:25 If we are living by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us be guided.

Galatians 5:26 Let us not be full of self-glory, making one another angry, having envy of one another.

Galatians 6:1 Brothers, if a man is taken in any wrongdoing, you who are of the Spirit will put such a one right in a spirit of love; keeping watch on yourself, for fear that you yourself may be tested.

Galatians 6:2 Take on yourselves one another’s troubles, and so keep the law of Christ.

Galatians 6:3 For if a man has an idea that he is something when he is nothing, he is tricked by himself.

Galatians 6:4 But let every man make test of his work, and then will his cause for glory be in himself only, and not in his neighbour.

Galatians 6:5 Because every man is responsible for his part of the work.

Galatians 6:6 But let him who gets teaching in the word give a part in all good things to his teacher.

Galatians 6:7 Be not tricked; God is not made sport of: for whatever seed a man puts in, that will he get back as grain.

Galatians 6:8 Because he who puts in the seed of the flesh will of the flesh get the reward of death; but he who puts in the seed of the Spirit will of the Spirit get the reward of eternal life.

Galatians 6:9 And let us not get tired of well-doing; for at the right time we will get in the grain, if we do not give way to weariness.

Galatians 6:10 So then, as we have the chance, let us do good to all men, and specially to those who are of the family of the faith.

Galatians 6:11 See the size of the handwriting which I myself have made use of in writing to you.

Galatians 6:12 Those who have the desire to seem important in the flesh, put force on you to undergo circumcision; only that they may not be attacked because of the cross of Christ.

Galatians 6:13 Because even those who undergo circumcision do not themselves keep the law; but they would have you undergo circumcision, so that they may have glory in your flesh.

Galatians 6:14 But far be it from me to have glory in anything, but only in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which this world has come to an end on the cross for me, and I for it.

Galatians 6:15 For having circumcision is nothing, and not having circumcision is nothing, but only a new order of existence.

Galatians 6:16 And on all who are guided by this rule be peace and mercy, and on the Israel of God.

Galatians 6:17 From this time on let no man be a trouble to me; because my body is marked with the marks of Jesus.

Galatians 6:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. So be it.

Ephesians

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Christ Jesus by the purpose of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and those who have faith in Christ Jesus:

Ephesians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us every blessing of the Spirit in the heavens in Christ:

Ephesians 1:4 Even as he made selection of us in him from the first, so that we might be holy and free from all evil before him in love:

Ephesians 1:5 As we were designed before by him for the position of sons to himself, through Jesus Christ, in the good pleasure of his purpose,

Ephesians 1:6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely gave to us in the Loved One:

Ephesians 1:7 In whom we have salvation through his blood, the forgiveness of our sins, through the wealth of his grace,

Ephesians 1:8 Which he gave us in full measure in all wisdom and care;

Ephesians 1:9 Having made clear to us the secret of his purpose, in agreement with the design which he had in mind, to put into his hands

Ephesians 1:10 The ordering of the times when they are complete, so that all things might come to a head in Christ, the things in heaven and the things on the earth; in him, I say, Ephesians 1:11 In whom we have a heritage, being marked out from the first in his purpose who does all things in agreement with his designs;

Ephesians 1:12 So that his glory might have praise through us who first had hope in Christ:

Ephesians 1:13 In whom you, having been given the true word, the good news of your salvation, and through your faith in him, were given the sign of the Holy Spirit of hope,

Ephesians 1:14 Which is the first-fruit of our heritage, till God gets back that which is his, to the praise of his glory.

Ephesians 1:15 For this cause I, having had news of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and which you make clear to all the saints,

Ephesians 1:16 Give praise without end for you, keeping you in mind in my prayers;

Ephesians 1:17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him;

Ephesians 1:18 And that having the eyes of your heart full of light, you may have knowledge of what is the hope of his purpose, what is the wealth of the glory of his heritage in the saints,

Ephesians 1:19 And how unlimited is his power to us who have faith, as is seen in the working of the strength of his power,

Ephesians 1:20 By which he made Christ come back from the dead, and gave him a place at his right hand in heaven,

Ephesians 1:21 Far over all rule and authority and power and every name which is named, not only in the present order, but in that which is to come:

Ephesians 1:22 And he has put all things under his feet, and has made him to be head over all things to the church,

Ephesians 1:23 Which is his body, the full measure of him in whom all things are made complete.

Ephesians 2:1 And to you did he give life, when you were dead through your wrongdoing and sins,

Ephesians 2:2 In which you were living in the past, after the ways of this present world, doing the pleasure of the lord of the power of the air, the spirit who is now working in those who go against the purpose of God;

Ephesians 2:3 Among whom we all at one time were living in the pleasures of our flesh, giving way to the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and the punishment of God was waiting for us even as for the rest.

Ephesians 2:4 But God, being full of mercy, through the great love which he had for us,

Ephesians 2:5 Even when we were dead through our sins, gave us life together with Christ (by grace you have salvation),

Ephesians 2:6 So that we came back from death with him, and are seated with him in the heavens, in Christ Jesus;

Ephesians 2:7 That in the time to come he might make clear the full wealth of his grace in his mercy to us in Christ Jesus:

Ephesians 2:8 Because by grace you have salvation through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is given by God:

Ephesians 2:9 Not by works, so that no man may take glory to himself.

Ephesians 2:10 For by his act we were given existence in Christ Jesus to do those good works which God before made ready for us so that we might do them.

Ephesians 2:11 For this reason keep it in mind that in the past you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are looked on as being outside the circumcision by those who have circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands;

Ephesians 2:12 That you were at that time without Christ, being cut off from any part in Israel's rights as a nation, having no part in God's agreement, having no hope, and without God in the world.

Ephesians 2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who at one time were far off are made near in the blood of Christ.

Ephesians 2:14 For he is our peace, who has made the two into one, and by whom the middle wall of division has been broken down,

Ephesians 2:15 Having in his flesh put an end to that which made the division between us, even the law with its rules and orders, so that he might make in himself, of the two, one new man, so making peace;

Ephesians 2:16 And that the two might come into agreement with God in one body through the cross, so putting an end to that division.

Ephesians 2:17 And he came preaching peace to you who were far off, and to those who were near;

Ephesians 2:18 Because through him the two of us are able to come near in one Spirit to the Father.

Ephesians 2:19 So then you are no longer as those who have no part or place in the kingdom of God, but you are numbered among the saints, and of the family of God,

Ephesians 2:20 Resting on the base of the Apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief keystone,

Ephesians 2:21 In whom all the building, rightly joined together, comes to be a holy house of God in the Lord;

Ephesians 2:22 In whom you, with the rest, are united together as a living-place of God in the Spirit.

Ephesians 3:1 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles,

Ephesians 3:2 If that ordering of the grace of God has come to your knowledge, which was given to me for you,

Ephesians 3:3 How by revelation the secret was made clear to me, as I said before in a short letter,

Ephesians 3:4 By the reading of which you will be clear about my knowledge of the secret of Christ;

Ephesians 3:5 Which in other generations was not given to the sons of men, but the revelation of it has now been made to his holy Apostles and prophets in the Spirit;

Ephesians 3:6 Which is that the Gentiles have a part in the heritage, and in the same body, and in the same hope in Christ through the good news,

Ephesians 3:7 Of which I was made a preacher, through that grace of God which was given to me in the measure of the working of his power.

Ephesians 3:8 To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, was this grace given, so that I might make clear to the Gentiles the good news of the unending wealth of Christ:

Ephesians 3:9 And make all men see what is the ordering of the secret which from the first has been kept in God who made all things;

Ephesians 3:10 So that now to the rulers and the authorities in the heavens might be made clear through the church the wide-shining wisdom of God,

Ephesians 3:11 Which is seen in his eternal purpose in Christ Jesus our Lord:

Ephesians 3:12 By whom we come near to God without fear through faith in him.

Ephesians 3:13 For this reason it is my prayer that you may not become feeble because of my troubles for you, which are your glory.

Ephesians 3:14 For this cause I go down on my knees before the Father,

Ephesians 3:15 From whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,

Ephesians 3:16 That in the wealth of his glory he would make you strong with power through his Spirit in your hearts;

Ephesians 3:17 So that Christ may have his place in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and based in love, Ephesians 3:18 May have strength to see with all the saints how wide and long and high and deep it is,

Ephesians 3:19 And to have knowledge of the love of Christ which is outside all knowledge, so that you may be made complete as God himself is complete.

Ephesians 3:20 Now to him who is able to do in full measure more than all our desires or thoughts, through the power which is working in us,

Ephesians 3:21 To him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations for ever and ever. So be it.

Ephesians 4:1 I then, the prisoner in the Lord, make this request from my heart, that you will see that your behaviour is a credit to the position which God's purpose has given you,

Ephesians 4:2 With all gentle and quiet behaviour, taking whatever comes, putting up with one another in love;

Ephesians 4:3 Taking care to keep the harmony of the Spirit in the yoke of peace.

Ephesians 4:4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as you have been marked out by God in the one hope of his purpose for you;

Ephesians 4:5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,

Ephesians 4:6 One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.

Ephesians 4:7 But to every one of us has grace been given in the measure of the giving of Christ.

Ephesians 4:8 For this reason he says, He went up on high, taking his prisoners with him, and gave freely to men.

Ephesians 4:9 (Now this, He went up, what is it but that he first went down into the lower parts of the earth?

Ephesians 4:10 He who went down is the same who went up far over all the heavens so that he might make all things complete.)

Ephesians 4:11 And he gave some as Apostles, and some, prophets; and some, preachers of the good news; and some to give care and teaching;

Ephesians 4:12 For the training of the saints as servants in the church, for the building up of the body of Christ:

Ephesians 4:13 Till we all come to the harmony of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to full growth, to the full measure of Christ:

Ephesians 4:14 So that we may be no longer children, sent this way and that, turned about by every wind of teaching, by the twisting and tricks of men, by the deceits of error;

Ephesians 4:15 But saying true words in love, may come to full growth in him, who is the head, even Christ;

Ephesians 4:16 Through whom all the body, being rightly formed and united together, by the full working of every part, is increased to the building up of itself in love.

Ephesians 4:17 This I say, then, and give witness in the Lord, that you are to go no longer in the way of the Gentiles whose minds are turned to that which has no profit,

Ephesians 4:18 Whose thoughts are dark, to whom the life of God is strange because they are without knowledge, and their hearts have been made hard;

Ephesians 4:19 Who having no more power of feeling, have given themselves up to evil passions, to do all unclean things with overmuch desire.

Ephesians 4:20 For this was not the teaching of Christ which was given to you;

Ephesians 4:21 If in fact you gave ear to him, and were given teaching in him, even as what is true is made clear in Jesus:

Ephesians 4:22 That you are to put away, in relation to your earlier way of life, the old man, which has become evil by love of deceit;

Ephesians 4:23 And be made new in the spirit of your mind,

Ephesians 4:24 And put on the new man, to which God has given life, in righteousness and a true and holy way of living.

Ephesians 4:25 And so, putting away false words, let everyone say what is true to his neighbour: for we are parts one of another.

Ephesians 4:26 Be angry without doing wrong; let not the sun go down on your wrath;

Ephesians 4:27 And do not give way to the Evil One.

Ephesians 4:28 Let him who was a thief be so no longer, but let him do good work with his hands, so that he may have something to give to him who is in need.

Ephesians 4:29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouth, but only what is good for giving necessary teaching, and for grace to those who give ear.

Ephesians 4:30 And do not give grief to the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were marked for the day of salvation.

Ephesians 4:31 Let all bitter, sharp and angry feeling, and noise, and evil words, be put away from you, with all unkind acts;

Ephesians 4:32 And be kind to one another, full of pity, having forgiveness for one another, even as God in Christ had forgiveness for you.

Ephesians 5:1 Let it then be your desire to be like God, as well-loved children;

Ephesians 5:2 And be living in love, even as Christ had love for you, and gave himself up for us, an offering to God for a perfume of a sweet smell.

Ephesians 5:3 But evil acts of the flesh and all unclean things, or desire for others' property, let it not even be named among you, as is right for saints;

Ephesians 5:4 And let there be no low behaviour, or foolish talk, or words said in sport, which are not right, but in place of them the giving of praise.

Ephesians 5:5 Being certain of this, that no man who gives way to the passions of the flesh, no unclean person, or one who has desire for the property of others, or who gives worship to images, has any heritage in the kingdom of Christ and God.

Ephesians 5:6 Do not be turned from the right way by foolish words; for because of these things the punishment of God comes on those who do not put themselves under him.

Ephesians 5:7 Have no part with such men;

Ephesians 5:8 For you at one time were dark, but now are light in the Lord: let your behaviour be that of children of light

Ephesians 5:9 (Because the fruit of the light is in all righteousness and in everything which is good and true),

Ephesians 5:10 Testing by experience what is well-pleasing to the Lord;

Ephesians 5:11 And have no company with the works of the dark, which give no fruit, but make their true quality clear;

Ephesians 5:12 For the things which are done by them in secret it is shame even to put into words.

Ephesians 5:13 But all things, when their true quality is seen, are made clear by the light: because everything which is made clear is light.

Ephesians 5:14 For this reason he says, Be awake, you who are sleeping, and come up from among the dead, and Christ will be your light.

Ephesians 5:15 Take care then how you are living, not as unwise, but as wise;

Ephesians 5:16 Making good use of the time, because the days are evil.

Ephesians 5:17 For this reason, then, do not be foolish, but be conscious of the Lord's pleasure.

Ephesians 5:18 And do not take overmuch wine by which one may be overcome, but be full of the Spirit;

Ephesians 5:19 Joining with one another in holy songs of praise and of the Spirit, using your voice in songs and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

Ephesians 5:20 Giving praise at all times for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father;

Ephesians 5:21 Letting yourselves be ruled by one another in the fear of Christ.

Ephesians 5:22 Wives, be under the authority of your husbands, as of the Lord.

Ephesians 5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is the head of the church, being himself the saviour of the body.

Ephesians 5:24 And as the church is under Christ's authority, so let wives be under the rule of their husbands in all things.

Ephesians 5:25 Husbands, have love for your wives, even as Christ had love for the church, and gave himself for it;

Ephesians 5:26 So that he might make it holy, having made it clean with the washing of water by the word,

Ephesians 5:27 And might take it for himself, a church full of glory, not having one mark or fold or any such thing; but that it might be holy and complete.

Ephesians 5:28 Even so it is right for husbands to have love for their wives as for their bodies. He who has love for his wife has love for himself:

Ephesians 5:29 For no man ever had hate for his flesh; but he gives it food and takes care of it, even as Christ does for the church;

Ephesians 5:30 Because we are parts of his body.

Ephesians 5:31 For this cause will a man go away from his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.

Ephesians 5:32 This is a great secret: but my words are about Christ and the church.

Ephesians 5:33 But do you, everyone, have love for his wife, even as for himself; and let the wife see that she has respect for her husband.

Ephesians 6:1 Children, do what is ordered by your fathers and mothers in the Lord: for this is right.

Ephesians 6:2 Give honour to your father and mother (which is the first rule having a reward),

Ephesians 6:3 So that all may be well for you, and your life may be long on the earth.

Ephesians 6:4 And, you fathers, do not make your children angry: but give them training in the teaching and fear of the Lord.

Ephesians 6:5 Servants, do what is ordered by those who are your natural masters, having respect and fear for them, with all your heart, as to Christ;

Ephesians 6:6 Not only under your master’s eye, as pleasers of men; but as servants of Christ, doing the pleasure of God from the heart;

Ephesians 6:7 Doing your work readily, as to the Lord, and not to men:

Ephesians 6:8 In the knowledge that for every good thing anyone does, he will have his reward from the Lord, If he is a servant or if he is free.

Ephesians 6:9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, not making use of violent words: in the knowledge that their Master and yours is in heaven, and he has no respect for a man’s position.

Ephesians 6:10 Lastly, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his power.

Ephesians 6:11 Take up God’s instruments of war, so that you may be able to keep your position against all the deceits of the Evil One.

Ephesians 6:12 For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against authorities and powers, against the world-rulers of this dark night, against the spirits of evil in the heavens.

Ephesians 6:13 For this reason take up all the arms of God, so that you may be able to be strong in the evil day, and, having done all, to keep your place.

Ephesians 6:14 Take your place, then, having your body clothed with the true word, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness;

Ephesians 6:15 Be ready with the good news of peace as shoes on your feet;

Ephesians 6:16 And most of all, using faith as a cover to keep off all the flaming arrows of the Evil One.

Ephesians 6:17 And take salvation for your head-dress and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Ephesians 6:18 With prayers and deep desires, making requests at all times in the Spirit, and keeping watch, with strong purpose, in prayer for all the saints,

Ephesians 6:19 And for me, that words may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make clear without fear the secret of the good news,

Ephesians 6:20 For which I am a representative in chains, and that I may say without fear the things which it is right for me to say.

Ephesians 6:21 But so that you may have knowledge of my business, and how I am, Tychicus, the well-loved brother and tested servant in the Lord, will give you news of all things:

Ephesians 6:22 Whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may have knowledge of our position, and that he may give comfort to your hearts.

Ephesians 6:23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Ephesians 6:24 Grace be with all those who have true love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians

1:1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons of the church:

Philippians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 1:3 I give praise to my God at every memory of you,

Philippians 1:4 And in all my prayers for you all, making my request with joy,

Philippians 1:5 Because of your help in giving the good news from the first day till now;

Philippians 1:6 For I am certain of this very thing, that he by whom the good work was started in you will make it complete till the day of Jesus Christ:

Philippians 1:7 So it is right for me to take thought for you all in this way, because I have you in my heart; for in my chains, and in my arguments before the judges in support of the good news, making clear that it is true, you all have your part with me in grace.

Philippians 1:8 For God is my witness, how my love goes out to you all in the loving mercies of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 1:9 And my prayer is that you may be increased more and more in knowledge and experience;

Philippians 1:10 So that you may give your approval to the best things; that you may be true and without wrongdoing till the day of Christ;

Philippians 1:11 Being full of the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

Philippians 1:12 Now it is my purpose to make clear to you, brothers, that the cause of the good news has been helped by my experiences;

Philippians 1:13 So that it became clear through all the Praetorium, and to all the rest, that I was a prisoner on account of Christ;

Philippians 1:14 And most of the brothers in the Lord, taking heart because of my chains, are all the stronger to give the word of God without fear.

Philippians 1:15 Though some are preaching Christ out of envy and competition, others do it out of a good heart:

Philippians 1:16 These do it from love, conscious that I am responsible for the cause of the good news:

Philippians 1:17 But those are preaching Christ in a spirit of competition, not from their hearts, but with the purpose of giving me pain in my prison.

Philippians 1:18 What then? only that in every way, falsely or truly, the preaching of Christ goes on; and in this I am glad, and will be glad.

Philippians 1:19 For I am conscious that this will be for my salvation, through your prayer and the giving out of the stored wealth of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,

Philippians 1:20 In the measure of my strong hope and belief that in nothing will I be put to shame, but that without fear, as at all times, so now will Christ have glory in my body, by life or by death.

Philippians 1:21 For to me life is Christ and death is profit.

Philippians 1:22 But if I go on living in the flesh—if this is the fruit of my work—then I do not see what decision to make.

Philippians 1:23 I am in a hard position between the two, having a desire to go away and be with Christ, which is very much better:

Philippians 1:24 Still, to go on in the flesh is more necessary because of you.

Philippians 1:25 And being certain of this, I am conscious that I will go on, yes, and go on with you all, for your growth and joy in the faith;

Philippians 1:26 So that your pride in me may be increased in Christ Jesus through my being present with you again.

Philippians 1:27 Only let your behaviour do credit to the good news of Christ, so that if I come and see you or if I am away from you, I may have news of you that you are strong in one spirit, working together with one soul for the faith of the good news;

Philippians 1:28 Having no fear of those who are against you; which is a clear sign of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God;

Philippians 1:29 Because to you it has been given in the cause of Christ not only to have faith in him, but to undergo pain on his account:

Philippians 1:30 Fighting the same fight which you saw in me, and now have word of in me.

Philippians 2:1 If then there is any comfort in Christ, any help given by love, any uniting of hearts in the Spirit, any loving mercies and pity,

Philippians 2:2 Make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in harmony and of one mind;

Philippians 2:3 Doing nothing through envy or through pride, but with low thoughts of self let everyone take others to be better than himself;

Philippians 2:4 Not looking everyone to his private good, but keeping in mind the things of others.

Philippians 2:5 Let this mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus,

Philippians 2:6 To whom, though himself in the form of God, it did not seem that to take for oneself was to be like God;

Philippians 2:7 But he made himself as nothing, taking the form of a servant, being made like men;

Philippians 2:8 And being seen in form as a man, he took the lowest place, and let himself be put to death, even the death of the cross.

Philippians 2:9 For this reason God has put him in the highest place and has given to him the name which is greater than every name;

Philippians 2:10 So that at the name of Jesus every knee may be bent, of those in heaven and those on earth and those in the underworld,

Philippians 2:11 And that every tongue may give witness that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.

Philippians 2:12 So then, my loved ones, as you have at all times done what I say, not only when I am present, but now much more when I am not with you, give yourselves to working out your salvation with fear in your hearts;

Philippians 2:13 For it is God who is the cause of your desires and of your acts, for his good pleasure.

Philippians 2:14 Do all things without protests and arguments;

Philippians 2:15 So that you may be holy and gentle, children of God without sin in a twisted and foolish generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world,

Philippians 2:16 Offering the word of life; so that I may have glory in you in the day of Christ, because my running was not for nothing and my work was not without effect.

Philippians 2:17 And even if I am offered like a drink offering, giving myself for the cause and work of your faith, I am glad and have joy with you all:

Philippians 2:18 And in the same way do you be glad and have a part in my joy.

Philippians 2:19 But I am hoping in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you before long, so that I may be comforted when I have news of you.

Philippians 2:20 For I have no man of like mind who will truly have care for you.

Philippians 2:21 For they all go after what is theirs, not after the things of Christ.

Philippians 2:22 But his quality is clear to you; how, as a child is to its father, so he was a help to me in the work of the good news.

Philippians 2:23 Him then I am hoping to send as quickly as possible, when I am able to see how things will go for me:

Philippians 2:24 But I have faith in the Lord that I myself will come before long.

Philippians 2:25 But it seemed to me necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, who has taken part with me in the work and in the fight, and your servant, sent by you for help in my need;

Philippians 2:26 Because his heart was with you all, and he was greatly troubled because you had news that he was ill:

Philippians 2:27 For in fact he was ill almost to death: but God had mercy on him; and not only on him but on me, so that I might not have grief on grief.

Philippians 2:28 I have sent him, then, the more gladly, so that when you see him again, you may be happy and I may have the less sorrow.

Philippians 2:29 So take him to your hearts in the Lord with all joy, and give honour to such as he is:

Philippians 2:30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, putting his life in danger to make your care for me complete.

Philippians 3:1 For the rest, my brothers, be glad in the Lord. Writing the same things to you is no trouble to me, and for you it is safe.

Philippians 3:2 Be on the watch against dogs, against the workers of evil, against those of the circumcision:

Philippians 3:3 For we are the circumcision, who give worship to God and have glory in Jesus Christ, and have no faith in the flesh:

Philippians 3:4 Even though I myself might have faith in the flesh: if any other man has reason to have faith in the flesh, I have more:

Philippians 3:5 Being given circumcision on the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in relation to the law, a Pharisee:

Philippians 3:6 In bitter hate I was cruel to the church; I kept all the righteousness of the law to the last detail.

Philippians 3:7 But those things which were profit to me, I gave up for Christ.

Philippians 3:8 Yes truly, and I am ready to give up all things for the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, which is more than all: for whom I have undergone the loss of all things, and to me they are less than nothing, so that I may have Christ as my reward,

Philippians 3:9 And be seen in him, not having my righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:

Philippians 3:10 That I may have knowledge of him, and of the power of his coming back from the dead, and a part with him in his pains, becoming like him in his death;

Philippians 3:11 If in any way I may have the reward of life from the dead.

Philippians 3:12 Not as if I had even now got the reward or been made complete: but I go on in the hope that I may come to the knowledge of that for which I was made the servant of Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:13 Brothers, it is clear to me that I have not come to that knowledge; but one thing I do, letting go those things which are past, and stretching out to the things which are before,

Philippians 3:14 I go forward to the mark, even the reward of the high purpose of God in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 3:15 Then let us all, who have come to full growth, be of this mind: and if in anything you are of a different mind, even this will God make clear to you:

Philippians 3:16 Only, as far as we have got, let us be guided by the same rule.

Philippians 3:17 Brothers, take me as your example, and take note of those who are walking after the example we have given.

Philippians 3:18 For there are those, of whom I have given you word before, and do so now with sorrow, who are haters of the cross of Christ;

Philippians 3:19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is the stomach, and whose glory is in their shame, whose minds are fixed on the things of the earth.

Philippians 3:20 For our country is in heaven; from where the Saviour for whom we are waiting will come, even the Lord Jesus Christ:

Philippians 3:21 By whom this poor body of ours will be changed into the image of the body of his glory, in the measure of the working by which he is able to put all things under himself.

Philippians 4:1 So my brothers, well loved and very dear to me, my joy and crown, be strong in the Lord, my loved ones.

Philippians 4:2 I make request to Euodias and Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.

Philippians 4:3 And I make request to you, true helper in my work, to see to the needs of those women who took part with me in the good news, with Clement and the rest of my brother-workers whose names are in the book of life.

Philippians 4:4 Be glad in the Lord at all times: again I say, Be glad.

Philippians 4:5 Let your gentle behaviour be clear to all men. The Lord is near.

Philippians 4:6 Have no cares; but in everything with prayer and praise put your requests before God.

Philippians 4:7 And the peace of God, which is deeper than all knowledge, will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:8 For the rest, my brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things have honour, whatever things are upright, whatever things are holy, whatever things are beautiful, whatever things are of value, if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, give thought to these things.

Philippians 4:9 The things which came to you by my teaching and preaching, and which you saw in me, these things do, and the God of peace will be with you.

Philippians 4:10 But I am very glad in the Lord that your care for me has come to life again; though you did in fact take thought for me, but you were not able to give effect to it.

Philippians 4:11 But I will not say anything about my needs, for I am able, wherever I am, to be dependent on myself.

Philippians 4:12 It is the same to me if I am looked down on or honoured; everywhere and in all things I have the secret of how to be full and how to go without food; how to have wealth and how to be in need.

Philippians 4:13 I am able to do all things through him who gives me strength.

Philippians 4:14 But you did well to have care for me in my need.

Philippians 4:15 And you have knowledge, Philippians, that when the good news first came to you, when I went away from Macedonia, no church took part with me in the business of giving to the saints, but you only;

Philippians 4:16 Because even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to me in my need.

Philippians 4:17 Not that I am looking for an offering, but for fruit which may be put to your credit.

Philippians 4:18 I have all things and more than enough: I am made full, having had from Epaphroditus the things which came from you, a perfume of a sweet smell, an offering well pleasing to God.

Philippians 4:19 And my God will give you all you have need of from the wealth of his glory in Christ Jesus.

Philippians 4:20 Now to God our Father be glory for ever and ever. So be it.

Philippians 4:21 Give words of love to every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their love.

Philippians 4:22 All the saints send their love to you, specially those who are of Caesar’s house.

Philippians 4:23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.

Colossians

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the purpose of God, and Timothy our brother,

Colossians 1:2 To the saints and true brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.

Colossians 1:3 We give praise to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, making prayer for you at all times,

Colossians 1:4 After hearing of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have for all the saints,

Colossians 1:5 Through the hope which is in store for you in heaven; knowledge of which was given to you before in the true word of the good news,

Colossians 1:6 Which has come to you; and which in all the world is giving fruit and increase, as it has done in you from the day when it came to your ears and you had true knowledge of the grace of God;

Colossians 1:7 As it was given to you by Epaphras, our well-loved helper, who is a true servant of Christ for us,

Colossians 1:8 And who, himself, made clear to us your love in the Spirit.

Colossians 1:9 For this reason, we, from the day when we had word of it, keep on in prayer for you, that you may be full of the knowledge of his purpose, with all wisdom and experience of the Spirit,

Colossians 1:10 Living uprightly in the approval of the Lord, giving fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;

Colossians 1:11 Full of strength in the measure of the great power of his glory, so that you may undergo all troubles with joy;

Colossians 1:12 Giving praise to the Father who has given us a part in the heritage of the saints in light;

Colossians 1:13 Who has made us free from the power of evil and given us a place in the kingdom of the Son of his love;

Colossians 1:14 In whom we have our salvation, the forgiveness of sins:

Colossians 1:15 Who is the image of the unseen God coming into existence before all living things;

Colossians 1:16 For by him all things were made, in heaven and on earth, things seen and things unseen, authorities, lords, rulers, and powers; all things were made by him and for him;

Colossians 1:17 He is before all things, and in him all things have being.

Colossians 1:18 And he is the head of the body, the church: the starting point of all things, the first to come again from the dead; so that in all things he might have the chief place.

Colossians 1:19 For God in full measure was pleased to be in him;

Colossians 1:20 Through him uniting all things with himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, uniting all things which are on earth or in heaven.

Colossians 1:21 And you, who in the past were cut off and at war with God in your minds through evil works, he has now made one

Colossians 1:22 In the body of his flesh through death, so that you might be holy and without sin and free from all evil before him:

Colossians 1:23 If you keep yourselves safely based in the faith, not moved from the hope of the good news which came to you, and which was given to every living being under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

Colossians 1:24 Now I have joy in my pain because of you, and in my flesh I undergo whatever is still needed to make the sorrows of Christ complete, for the salvation of his body, the church;

Colossians 1:25 Of which I became a servant by the purpose of God which was given to me for you, to give effect to the word of God,

Colossians 1:26 The secret which has been kept from all times and generations, but has now been made clear to his saints,

Colossians 1:27 To whom God was pleased to give knowledge of the wealth of the glory of this secret among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

Colossians 1:28 Whom we are preaching; guiding and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that every man may be complete in Christ;

Colossians 1:29 And for this purpose I am working, using all my strength by the help of his power which is working in me strongly.

Colossians 2:1 For it is my desire to give you news of the great fight I am making for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not seen my face in the flesh;

Colossians 2:2 So that their hearts may be comforted, and that being joined together in love, they may come to the full wealth of the certain knowledge of the secret of God, even Christ,

Colossians 2:3 In whom are all the secret stores of wisdom and knowledge.

Colossians 2:4 I say this so that you may not be turned away by any deceit of words.

Colossians 2:5 For though I am not present in the flesh, still I am with you in the spirit, seeing with joy your order, and your unchanging faith in Christ.

Colossians 2:6 As, then, you took Christ Jesus the Lord, so go on in him,

Colossians 2:7 Rooted and based together in him, strong in the faith which the teaching gave you, giving praise to God at all times.

Colossians 2:8 Take care that no one takes you away by force, through man's wisdom and deceit, going after the beliefs of men and the theories of the world, and not after Christ:

Colossians 2:9 For in him all the wealth of God's being has a living form,

Colossians 2:10 And you are complete in him, who is the head of all rule and authority:

Colossians 2:11 In whom you had a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ;

Colossians 2:12 Having been put to death with him in baptism, by which you came to life again with him, through faith in the working of God, who made him come back from the dead.

Colossians 2:13 And you, being dead through your sins and the evil condition of your flesh, to you, I say, he gave life together with him, and forgiveness of all our sins;

Colossians 2:14 Having put an end to the handwriting of the law which was against us, taking it out of the way by nailing it to his cross;

Colossians 2:15 Having made himself free from the rule of authorities and powers, he put them openly to shame, glorying over them in it.

Colossians 2:16 For this reason let no man be your judge in any question of food or drink or feast days or new moons or Sabbaths:

Colossians 2:17 For these are an image of the things which are to come; but the body is Christ's.

Colossians 2:18 Let no man take your reward from you by consciously making little of himself and giving worship to angels; having his thoughts fixed on the things which he has seen, being foolishly lifted up in his natural mind,

Colossians 2:19 And not joined to the Head, from whom all the body, being given strength and kept together through its joins and bands, has its growth with the increase of God.

Colossians 2:20 If you were made free, by your death with Christ, from the rules of the world, why do you put yourselves under the authority of orders

Colossians 2:21 Which say there may be no touching, tasting, or taking in your hands, Colossians 2:22 (Rules which are all to come to an end with their use) after the orders and teaching of men?

Colossians 2:23 These things seem to have a sort of wisdom in self-ordered worship and making little of oneself, and being cruel to the body, not honouring it by giving it its natural use.

Colossians 3:1 If then you have a new life with Christ, give your attention to the things of heaven, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.

Colossians 3:2 Keep your mind on the higher things, not on the things of earth.

Colossians 3:3 For your life on earth is done, and you have a secret life with Christ in God.

Colossians 3:4 At the coming of Christ who is our life, you will be seen with him in glory.

Colossians 3:5 Then put to death your bodies which are of the earth; wrong use of the flesh, unclean things, passion, evil desires and envy, which is the worship of strange gods;

Colossians 3:6 Because of which the wrath of God comes on those who go against his orders;

Colossians 3:7 Among whom you were living in the past, when you did such things.

Colossians 3:8 But now it is right for you to put away all these things; wrath, passion, bad feeling, curses, unclean talk;

Colossians 3:9 Do not make false statements to one another; because you have put away the old man with all his doings,

Colossians 3:10 And have put on the new man, which has become new in knowledge after the image of his maker;

Colossians 3:11 Where there is no Greek or Jew, no one with circumcision or without circumcision, no division between nations, no servant or free man: but Christ is all and in all.

Colossians 3:12 As saints of God, then, holy and dearly loved, let your behaviour be marked by pity and mercy, kind feeling, a low opinion of yourselves, gentle ways, and a power of undergoing all things;

Colossians 3:13 Being gentle to one another and having forgiveness for one another, if anyone has done wrong to his brother, even as the Lord had forgiveness for you:

Colossians 3:14 And more than all, have love; the only way in which you may be completely joined together.

Colossians 3:15 And let the peace of Christ be ruling in your hearts, as it was the purpose of God for you to be one body; and give praise to God at all times.

Colossians 3:16 Let the word of Christ be in you in all wealth of wisdom; teaching and helping one another with songs of praise and holy words, making melody to God with grace in your hearts.

Colossians 3:17 And whatever you do, in word or in act, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving praise to God the Father through him.

Colossians 3:18 Wives, be under the authority of your husbands, as is right in the Lord.

Colossians 3:19 Husbands, have love for your wives, and be not bitter against them.

Colossians 3:20 Children, do the orders of your fathers and mothers in all things, for this is pleasing to the Lord.

Colossians 3:21 Fathers, do not be hard on your children, so that their spirit may not be broken.

Colossians 3:22 Servants, in all things do the orders of your natural masters; not only when their eyes are on you, as pleasers of men, but with all your heart, fearing the Lord:

Colossians 3:23 Whatever you do, do it readily, as to the Lord and not to men;

Colossians 3:24 Being certain that the Lord will give you the reward of the heritage: for you are the servants of the Lord Christ.

Colossians 3:25 For the wrongdoer will have punishment for the wrong he has done, without respect for any man’s position.

Colossians 4:1 Masters, give your servants what is right and equal, conscious that you have a Master in heaven.

Colossians 4:2 Give yourselves to prayer at all times, keeping watch with praise;

Colossians 4:3 And making prayer for us, that God may give us an open door for the preaching of the word, the secret of Christ, for which I am now in chains;

Colossians 4:4 So that I may make it clear, as it is right for me to do.

Colossians 4:5 Be wise in your behaviour to those who are outside, making good use of the time.

Colossians 4:6 Let your talk be with grace, mixed with salt, so that you may be able to give an answer to everyone.

Colossians 4:7 Tychicus will give you news of all my business: he is a dear brother and true servant and helper in the word;

Colossians 4:8 And I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may have news of how we are, and so that he may give your hearts comfort;

Colossians 4:9 And with him I have sent Onesimus, the true and well-loved brother, who is one of you. They will give you word of everything which is taking place here.

Colossians 4:10 Aristarchus, my brother-prisoner, sends his love to you, and Mark, a relation of Barnabas (about whom you have been given orders: if he comes to you, be kind to him),

Colossians 4:11 And Jesus, whose other name is Justus; these are of the circumcision: they are my only brother-workers for the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me.

Colossians 4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his love, ever taking thought for you in his prayers, that you may be complete and fully certain of all the purpose of God.

Colossians 4:13 For I give witness of him that he has undergone much trouble for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.

Colossians 4:14 Luke, our well-loved medical friend, and Demas, send you their love.

Colossians 4:15 Give my love to the brothers in Laodicea and to Nymphas and the church in their house.

Colossians 4:16 And when this letter has been made public among you, let the same be done in the church of Laodicea; and see that you have the letter from Laodicea.

Colossians 4:17 Say to Archippus, See that you do the work which the Lord has given you to do.

Colossians 4:18 I, Paul, give you this word of love in my handwriting. Keep in memory that I am a prisoner. Grace be with you.

1 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.

1 Thessalonians 1:2 We give praise to God at all times for you, keeping you in memory in our prayers;

1 Thessalonians 1:3 Having ever in mind your work of faith and acts of love and the strength of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father;

1 Thessalonians 1:4 Being conscious, my brothers, dear to God, that you have been marked out by God’s purpose;

1 Thessalonians 1:5 Because our good news came to you, not in word only, but in power, and in the Holy Spirit, so that you were completely certain of it; even as you saw what our behaviour to you was like from our love to you.

1 Thessalonians 1:6 And you took us and the Lord as your example, after the word had come to you in much trouble, with joy in the Holy Spirit;

1 Thessalonians 1:7 So that you became an example to all those who have faith in Christ in Macedonia and Achaia.

1 Thessalonians 1:8 For not only was the word of the Lord sounding out from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God is made clear; so that we have no need to say anything.

1 Thessalonians 1:9 For they themselves give the news of how we came among you; and how you were turned from images to God, to the worship of a true and living God,

1 Thessalonians 1:10 Waiting for his Son from heaven, who came back from the dead, even Jesus, our Saviour from the wrath to come.

1 Thessalonians 2:1 For you yourselves, brothers, are conscious that our coming among you was not without effect:

1 Thessalonians 2:2 But after we had first undergone much pain and been cruelly attacked as you saw, at Philippi, by the help of God we gave you the good news without fear, though everything was against us.

1 Thessalonians 2:3 For our witness does not come from error or from an unclean heart or from deceit:

1 Thessalonians 2:4 But even as the good news was given to us by the approval of God, so we give it out; not as pleasing men, but God by whom our hearts are tested.

1 Thessalonians 2:5 For it is common knowledge among you that we never made use of smooth-sounding false words, and God is witness that at no time were we secretly desiring profit for ourselves,

1 Thessalonians 2:6 Or looking for glory from men, from you or from others, when we might have made ourselves a care to you as Apostles of Christ.

1 Thessalonians 2:7 But we were gentle among you, like a woman caring for her little ones:

1 Thessalonians 2:8 Even so, being full of loving desire for you, we took delight in giving you not only God’s good news, but even our lives, because you were dear to us.

1 Thessalonians 2:9 For you have the memory, my brothers, of our trouble and care; how, working night and day, so that we might not be a trouble to any of you, we gave you the good news of God.

1 Thessalonians 2:10 You are witnesses, with God, how holy and upright and free from all evil was our way of life among you who have faith;

1 Thessalonians 2:11 Even as you saw how, like a father with his children, we were teaching and comforting you all, and giving witness,

1 Thessalonians 2:12 So that your lives might be pleasing to God, who has given you a part in his kingdom and his glory.

1 Thessalonians 2:13 And for this cause we still give praise to God, that, when the word came to your ears through us, you took it, not as the word of man, but, as it truly is, the word of God, which has living power in you who have faith.

1 Thessalonians 2:14 For you, my brothers, took as your examples the churches of God which are in Judaea in Christ Jesus; because you underwent the same things from your countrymen as they did from the Jews;

1 Thessalonians 2:15 Who put to death the Lord Jesus and the prophets, violently driving us out; who are unpleasing to God and against all men;

1 Thessalonians 2:16 Who, to make the measure of their sins complete, kept us from giving the word of salvation to the Gentiles: but the wrath of God is about to come on them in the fullest degree.

1 Thessalonians 2:17 But we, my brothers, being away from you for a short time, in body but not in heart, had all the more desire to see your face;

1 Thessalonians 2:18 For which reason we made attempts to come to you, even I, Paul, once and again; but Satan kept us from coming.

1 Thessalonians 2:19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of glory? Are not even you, before our Lord Jesus, at his coming?

1 Thessalonians 2:20 For you are our glory and our joy.

1 Thessalonians 3:1 At last our desire to have news of you was so strong that, while we ourselves were waiting at Athens,

1 Thessalonians 3:2 We sent Timothy, our brother and God’s servant in the good news of Christ, to give you strength and comfort in your faith;

1 Thessalonians 3:3 So that no man might be moved by these troubles; because you see that these things are part of God’s purpose for us.

1 Thessalonians 3:4 And when we were with you, we said to you that trouble was before us; and so it came about, as you see.

1 Thessalonians 3:5 For this reason, when I was no longer able to keep quiet, I sent to get news of your faith, fearing that you might be tested by the Evil One and that our work might come to nothing.

1 Thessalonians 3:6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has given us good news of your faith and love, and that you have happy memories of us, desiring greatly to see us, even as we do to see you;

1 Thessalonians 3:7 For this cause, brothers, in all our trouble and grief we were comforted about you because of your faith;

1 Thessalonians 3:8 For it is life to us if you keep your faith in the Lord unchanged.

1 Thessalonians 3:9 For how great is the praise which we give to God for you, and how great the joy with which we are glad because of you before our God;

1 Thessalonians 3:10 Night and day requesting God again and again that we may see your face and make your faith complete.

1 Thessalonians 3:11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus make a way for us to come to you;

1 Thessalonians 3:12 And the Lord give you increase of love in fullest measure to one another and to all men, even as our love to you;

1 Thessalonians 3:13 So that your hearts may be strong and free from all sin before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.

1 Thessalonians 4:1 And last of all, the prayer which we make to you from our heart and in the name of the Lord Jesus, is this: that as we made clear to you what sort of behaviour is pleasing to God, as in fact you are doing now, so you will go on in these ways, but more and more.

1 Thessalonians 4:2 Because you have in mind the orders we gave you through the Lord Jesus.

1 Thessalonians 4:3 For the purpose of God for you is this: that you may be holy, and may keep yourselves from the desires of the flesh;

1 Thessalonians 4:4 So that every one of you may keep his body holy and in honour;

1 Thessalonians 4:5 Not in the passion of evil desires, like the Gentiles, who have no knowledge of God;

1 Thessalonians 4:6 And that no man may make attempts to get the better of his brother in business: for the Lord is the judge in all these things, as we said to you before and gave witness.

1 Thessalonians 4:7 Because it is God’s purpose that our way of life may be not unclean but holy.

1 Thessalonians 4:8 Whoever, then, goes against this word, goes against not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.

1 Thessalonians 4:9 But about loving the brothers, there is no need for me to say anything to you in this letter: for you have the teaching of God that love for one another is right and necessary;

1 Thessalonians 4:10 And, truly, you are lovers of all the brothers in Macedonia; but it is our desire that your love may be increased still more;

1 Thessalonians 4:11 And that you may take pride in being quiet and doing your business, working with your hands as we gave you orders;

1 Thessalonians 4:12 That you may be respected by those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.

1 Thessalonians 4:13 But it is our desire, brothers, that you may be certain about those who are sleeping; so that you may have no need for sorrow, as others have who are without hope.

1 Thessalonians 4:14 For if we have faith that Jesus underwent death and came back again, even so those who are sleeping will come again with him by God’s power.

1 Thessalonians 4:15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are still living at the coming of the Lord, will not go before those who are sleeping.

1 Thessalonians 4:16 Because the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a word of authority, with the voice of the chief angel, with the sound of a horn: and the dead in Christ will come to life first;

1 Thessalonians 4:17 Then we who are still living will be taken up together with them into the clouds to see the Lord in the air: and so will we be for ever with the Lord.

1 Thessalonians 4:18 So then, give comfort to one another with these words.

1 Thessalonians 5:1 But about the times and their order, my brothers, there is no need for me to say anything to you.

1 Thessalonians 5:2 For you yourselves have the knowledge that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

1 Thessalonians 5:3 When they say, There is peace and no danger, then sudden destruction will come on them, as birth-pains on a woman with child; and they will not be able to get away from it.

1 Thessalonians 5:4 But you, my brothers, are not in the dark, for that day to overtake you like a thief:

1 Thessalonians 5:5 For you are all sons of light and of the day: we are not of the night or of the dark.

1 Thessalonians 5:6 So then, let us not take our rest as the others do, but let us be self-controlled and awake.

1 Thessalonians 5:7 For those who are sleeping do so in the night; and those who are the worse for drink are so in the night;

1 Thessalonians 5:8 But let us, who are of the day, be serious, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and on our heads, the hope of salvation.

1 Thessalonians 5:9 For God’s purpose for us is not wrath, but salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

1 Thessalonians 5:10 Who was put to death for us, so that, awake or sleeping, we may have a part in his life.

1 Thessalonians 5:11 So then, go on comforting and building up one another, as you have been doing.

1 Thessalonians 5:12 But we make this request to you, my brothers: give attention to those who are working among you, who are over you in the Lord to keep order among you;

1 Thessalonians 5:13 And have a high opinion of them in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.

1 Thessalonians 5:14 And our desire is that you will keep control over those whose lives are not well ordered, giving comfort to the feeble-hearted, supporting those with little strength, and putting up with much from all.

1 Thessalonians 5:15 Let no one give evil for evil; but ever go after what is good, for one another and for all.

1 Thessalonians 5:16 Have joy at all times.

1 Thessalonians 5:17 Keep on with your prayers.

1 Thessalonians 5:18 In everything give praise: for this is the purpose of God in Christ Jesus for you.

1 Thessalonians 5:19 Do not put out the light of the Spirit;

1 Thessalonians 5:20 Do not make little of the words of the prophets;

1 Thessalonians 5:21 Let all things be tested; keep to what is good;

1 Thessalonians 5:22 Keep from every form of evil.

1 Thessalonians 5:23 And may the God of peace himself make you holy in every way; and may your spirit and soul and body be free from all sin at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

1 Thessalonians 5:24 God, by whom you have been marked out in his purpose, is unchanging and will make it complete.

1 Thessalonians 5:25 Brothers, keep us in mind in your prayers.

1 Thessalonians 5:26 Give all the brothers a holy kiss.

1 Thessalonians 5:27 I give orders in the name of the Lord that all the brothers are to be present at the reading of this letter.

1 Thessalonians 5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

2 Thessalonians

1:1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Thessalonians 1:2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 1:3 It is right for us to give praise to God at all times for you, brothers, because of the great increase of your faith, and the wealth of your love for one another;

2 Thessalonians 1:4 So that we ourselves take pride in you in the churches of God for your untroubled mind and your faith in all the troubles and sorrows which you are going through;

2 Thessalonians 1:5 Which is a clear sign of the decision which God in his righteousness has made; to give you a part in his kingdom, for which you have undergone this pain;

2 Thessalonians 1:6 For it is an act of righteousness on God's part to give trouble as their reward to those who are troubling you,

2 Thessalonians 1:7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus comes from heaven with the angels of his power in flames of fire,

2 Thessalonians 1:8 To give punishment to those who have no knowledge of God, and to those who do not give ear to the good news of our Lord Jesus:

2 Thessalonians 1:9 Whose reward will be eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his strength,

2 Thessalonians 1:10 At his coming, when he will have glory in his saints, and will be a cause of wonder in all those who had faith (because our witness among you had effect) in that day.

2 Thessalonians 1:11 For this reason, you are ever in our prayers, that you may seem to our God such as may have a part in his purpose and that by his power he will make all his good purpose, and the work of faith, complete;

2 Thessalonians 1:12 So that glory may be given to the name of our Lord Jesus through you, and you may have glory in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:1 Now as to the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, and our meeting with him, it is our desire, my brothers,

2 Thessalonians 2:2 That you may not be moved in mind or troubled by a spirit, or by a word, or by a letter as from us, with the suggestion that the day of the Lord is even now come;

2 Thessalonians 2:3 Give no belief to false words: because there will first be a falling away from the faith, and the revelation of the man of sin, the son of destruction,

2 Thessalonians 2:4 Who puts himself against all authority, lifting himself up over all which is named God or is given worship; so that he takes his seat in the Temple of God, putting himself forward as God.

2 Thessalonians 2:5 Have you no memory of what I said when I was with you, giving you word of these things?

2 Thessalonians 2:6 And now it is clear to you what is keeping back his revelation till the time comes for him to be seen.

2 Thessalonians 2:7 For the secret of evil is even now at work: but there is one who is keeping back the evil till he is taken out of the way.

2 Thessalonians 2:8 And then will come the revelation of that evil one, whom the Lord Jesus will put to death with the breath of his mouth, and give to destruction by the revelation of his coming;

2 Thessalonians 2:9 Even the one whose coming is marked by the working of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders,

2 Thessalonians 2:10 And with every deceit of wrongdoing among those whose fate is destruction; because they were quite without that love of the true faith by which they might have salvation.

2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this cause, God will give them up to the power of deceit and they will put their faith in what is false:

2 Thessalonians 2:12 So that they all may be judged, who had no faith in what is true, but took pleasure in evil.

2 Thessalonians 2:13 But it is right for us to give praise to God at all times for you, brothers, loved by the Lord, because it was the purpose of God from the first that you might have salvation, being made holy by the Spirit and by faith in what is true:

2 Thessalonians 2:14 And in this purpose he gave you a part through the good news of which we were the preachers, even that you might have part in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Thessalonians 2:15 So then, brothers, be strong in purpose, and keep the teaching which has been given to you by word or by letter from us.

2 Thessalonians 2:16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who had love for us and has given us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,

2 Thessalonians 2:17 Give you comfort and strength in every good work and word.

2 Thessalonians 3:1 For the rest, my brothers, let there be prayer for us that the word of the Lord may go forward with increasing glory, even as it does with you;

2 Thessalonians 3:2 And that we may be made free from foolish and evil men; for not all have faith.

2 Thessalonians 3:3 But the Lord is true, who will give you strength and keep you safe from evil.

2 Thessalonians 3:4 And we have faith in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things about which we give you orders.

2 Thessalonians 3:5 And may your hearts be guided by the Lord into the love of God and quiet waiting for Christ.

2 Thessalonians 3:6 Now we give you orders, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from all those whose behaviour is not well ordered and in harmony with the teaching which they had from us.

2 Thessalonians 3:7 For you yourselves are used to taking us as your example, because our life among you was ruled by order,

2 Thessalonians 3:8 And we did not take food from any man for nothing, but were working hard night and day not to be a trouble to any of you:

2 Thessalonians 3:9 Not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, so that you might do the same.

2 Thessalonians 3:10 For even when we were with you we gave you orders, saying, If any man does no work, let him not have food.

2 Thessalonians 3:11 For it has come to our ears that there are some among you whose behaviour is uncontrolled, who do no work at all, but are over-interested in the business of others.

2 Thessalonians 3:12 Now to such we give orders and make request in the Lord Jesus, that, working quietly, they get their living.

2 Thessalonians 3:13 And you, my brothers, do not get tired of well-doing.

2 Thessalonians 3:14 And if any man does not give attention to what we have said in this letter, take note of that man, and keep away from him, so that he may be shamed.

2 Thessalonians 3:15 Have no feeling of hate for him, but take him in hand seriously as a brother.

2 Thessalonians 3:16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. May the Lord be with you all.

2 Thessalonians 3:17 These words of love to you at the end are in my writing, Paul's writing, and this is the mark of every letter from me.

2 Thessalonians 3:18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.

1 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the order of God our Saviour and Christ Jesus our hope;

1 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

1 Timothy 1:3 It was my desire, when I went on into Macedonia, that you might make a stop at Ephesus, to give orders to certain men not to put forward a different teaching,

1 Timothy 1:4 Or to give attention to stories and long lists of generations, from which come questionings and doubts, in place of God's ordered way of life which is in faith;

1 Timothy 1:5 But the effect of the order is love coming from a clean heart, and a knowledge of what is right, and true faith:

1 Timothy 1:6 From which some have been turned away, giving themselves to foolish talking;

1 Timothy 1:7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, though they have no knowledge of what they say or of the statements which they make so certainly.

1 Timothy 1:8 We are conscious that the law is good, if a man makes a right use of it,

1 Timothy 1:9 With the knowledge that the law is made, not for the upright man, but for those who have no respect for law and order, for evil men and sinners, for the unholy and those who have no religion, for those who put their fathers or mothers to death, for takers of life,

1 Timothy 1:10 For those who go after loose women, for those with unnatural desires, for those who take men prisoners, who make false statements and false oaths, and those who do any other things against the right teaching,

1 Timothy 1:11 Which may be seen in the good news of the glory of the great God, which was given into my care.

1 Timothy 1:12 I give praise to him who gave me power, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he took me to be true, making me his servant,

1 Timothy 1:13 Though I had said violent words against God, and done cruel acts, causing great trouble: but I was given mercy, because I did it without knowledge, not having faith;

1 Timothy 1:14 And the grace of our Lord was very great, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 1:15 It is a true saying, in which all may put their faith, that Christ Jesus came into the world to give salvation to sinners, of whom I am the chief:

1 Timothy 1:16 But for this reason I was given mercy, so that in me, the chief of sinners, Jesus Christ might make clear all his mercy, as an example to those who in the future would have faith in him to eternal life.

1 Timothy 1:17 Now to the King eternal, ever-living, unseen, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. So be it.

1 Timothy 1:18 This order I give to you, Timothy my son, in harmony with the words of the prophets about you, so that by them you may be strong, fighting the good fight,

1 Timothy 1:19 Keeping faith, and being conscious of well-doing; for some, by not doing these things, have gone wrong in relation to the faith:

1 Timothy 1:20 Such are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given up to Satan, so that they may say no more evil words against God.

1 Timothy 2:1 My desire is, first of all, that you will make requests and prayers and give praise for all men;

1 Timothy 2:2 For kings and all those in authority; so that we may have a calm and quiet life in all fear of God and serious behaviour.

1 Timothy 2:3 This is good and pleasing in the eyes of God our Saviour;

1 Timothy 2:4 Whose desire is that all men may have salvation and come to the knowledge of what is true.

1 Timothy 2:5 For there is one God and one peacemaker between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,

1 Timothy 2:6 Who gave himself as an offering for all; witness of which was to be given at the right time;

1 Timothy 2:7 And of this I became a preacher and an Apostle (what I say is true, not false,) and a teacher of the Gentiles in the true faith.

1 Timothy 2:8 It is my desire, then, that in every place men may give themselves to prayer, lifting up holy hands, without wrath or argument.

1 Timothy 2:9 And that women may be dressed in simple clothing, with a quiet and serious air; not with twisted hair and gold or jewels or robes of great price;

1 Timothy 2:10 But clothed with good works, as is right for women who are living in the fear of God.

1 Timothy 2:11 Let a woman quietly take the place of a learner and be under authority.

1 Timothy 2:12 In my opinion it is right for a woman not to be a teacher, or to have rule over a man, but to be quiet.

1 Timothy 2:13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve;

1 Timothy 2:14 And Adam was not taken by deceit, but the woman, being tricked, became a wrongdoer.

1 Timothy 2:15 But if they go on in faith and love and holy self-control, she will be kept safe at the time of childbirth.

1 Timothy 3:1 This is a true saying, A man desiring the position of a Bishop has a desire for a good work.

1 Timothy 3:2 The Bishop, then, is to be a man of good name, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, serious-minded, having respect for order, opening his house freely to guests, a ready teacher;

1 Timothy 3:3 Not quickly moved to wrath or blows, but gentle; no fighter, no lover of money;

1 Timothy 3:4 Ruling his house well, having his children under control with all serious behaviour;

1 Timothy 3:5 (For if a man has not the art of ruling his house, how will he take care of the church of God?)

1 Timothy 3:6 Not one newly taken into the church, for fear that, through his high opinion of himself, he may come into the same sin as the Evil One.

1 Timothy 3:7 And he is to have a good name among those outside the church, so that nothing may be said against him and he may not be taken by the designs of the Evil One.

1 Timothy 3:8 Deacons, in the same way, are to be serious in their behaviour, not false in word, not given to taking much wine or greatly desiring the wealth of this world;

1 Timothy 3:9 Keeping the secret of the faith in a heart free from sin.

1 Timothy 3:10 And let these first be put to the test; then let them become Deacons if there is nothing against them.

1 Timothy 3:11 Women are to be serious in behaviour, saying no evil of others, controlling themselves, true in all things.

1 Timothy 3:12 Let Deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their houses well.

1 Timothy 3:13 For those who have done good work as Deacons get for themselves a good position and become free from fear in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.

1 Timothy 3:14 I am writing these things to you, though I am hoping to come to you before long;

1 Timothy 3:15 But if I am long in coming, this will make clear to you what behaviour is right for men in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and base of what is true.

1 Timothy 3:16 And without argument, great is the secret of religion: He who was seen in the flesh, who was given God's approval in the spirit, was seen by the angels, of whom the good news was given among the nations, in whom the world had faith, who was taken up in glory.

1 Timothy 4:1 But the Spirit says clearly that in later times some will be turned away from the faith, giving their minds to spirits of deceit, and the teachings of evil spirits,

1 Timothy 4:2 Through the false ways of men whose words are untrue, whose hearts are burned as with a heated iron;

1 Timothy 4:3 Who keep men from being married and from taking food which God made to be taken with praise by those who have faith and true knowledge.

1 Timothy 4:4 Because everything which God has made is good, and nothing is evil, if it is taken with praise:

1 Timothy 4:5 For it is made holy by the word of God and by prayer.

1 Timothy 4:6 If you keep these things before the minds of the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, trained in the words of the faith and of the right teaching which has been your guide:

1 Timothy 4:7 But have nothing to do with unclean and foolish stories. Give yourself training in religion:

1 Timothy 4:8 For the training of the body is of profit for a little, but religion is of profit in every way, giving hope for the life which now is, and for that which is to come.

1 Timothy 4:9 This is a true saying, in which all may put their faith.

1 Timothy 4:10 And this is the purpose of all our work and our fighting, because our hope is in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, and specially of those who have faith.

1 Timothy 4:11 Let these be your orders and your teaching.

1 Timothy 4:12 Let no one make little of you because you are young, but be an example to the church in word, in behaviour, in love, in faith, in holy living.

1 Timothy 4:13 Till I come, give attention to the reading of the holy Writings, to comforting the saints, and to teaching.

1 Timothy 4:14 Make use of that grace in you, which was given to you by the word of the prophets, when the rulers of the church put their hands on you.

1 Timothy 4:15 Have a care for these things; give yourself to them with all your heart, so that all may see how you go forward.

1 Timothy 4:16 Give attention to yourself and your teaching. Go on in these things; for in doing so you will get salvation for yourself and for those who give hearing to you.

1 Timothy 5:1 Do not say sharp words to one who has authority in the church, but let your talk be as to a father, and to the younger men as to brothers:

1 Timothy 5:2 To the older women as to mothers, to the younger as to sisters, with a clean heart.

1 Timothy 5:3 Give honour to widows who are truly widows.

1 Timothy 5:4 But if any widow has children or children’s children, let these see that it is right to take care of their family and their fathers and mothers: for this is pleasing in the eyes of God.

1 Timothy 5:5 Now she who is truly a widow and without family puts her hope in God, giving herself to prayer day and night.

1 Timothy 5:6 But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she is living.

1 Timothy 5:7 Give orders to this effect, so that no evil may be said of anyone.

1 Timothy 5:8 If anyone has no care for his family and those in his house, he is false to the faith, and is worse than one who has no faith.

1 Timothy 5:9 Let no woman be numbered among the widows who is under sixty years old, and only if she has been the wife of one man,

1 Timothy 5:10 And if witness is given of her good works; if she has had the care of children, if she has been kind to travellers, washing the feet of the saints, helping those who are in trouble, giving herself to good works.

1 Timothy 5:11 But to the younger widows say No: for when their love is turned away from Christ, they have a desire to be married;

1 Timothy 5:12 And they are judged because they have been false to their first faith;

1 Timothy 5:13 And they get into the way of doing no work, going about from house to house; and not only doing no work, but talking foolishly, being over-interested in the business of others, saying things which they have no right to say.

1 Timothy 5:14 So it is my desire that the younger widows may be married and have children, controlling their families, and giving the Evil One no chance to say anything against them,

1 Timothy 5:15 For even now some are turned away to Satan.

1 Timothy 5:16 If any woman of the faith has relations who are widows, let her give them help, so that the care of them does not come on the church, and so it may give help to those who are truly widowed.

1 Timothy 5:17 Let rulers whose rule is good be honoured twice over, specially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

1 Timothy 5:18 For the Writings say, It is not right to keep the ox from taking the grain when he is crushing it. And, The worker has a right to his reward.

1 Timothy 5:19 Do not take as true any statement made against one in authority, but only if two or three give witness to it.

1 Timothy 5:20 Say sharp words to sinners when all are present, so that the rest may be in fear.

1 Timothy 5:21 I give you orders before God and Christ Jesus and the angels of God’s selection, to keep these orders without giving thought to one side more than another.

1 Timothy 5:22 Do not put hands on any man without thought, and have no part in other men’s sins: keep yourself clean.

1 Timothy 5:23 Do not take only water as your drink, but take a little wine for the good of your stomach, and because you are frequently ill.

1 Timothy 5:24 The sins of some men are clearly seen, going before them to be judged; but with others, their sins go after them.

1 Timothy 5:25 In the same way, there are good works which are clearly seen; and those which are not so, may not be kept secret.

1 Timothy 6:1 Let all who are servants under the yoke give all honour to their masters, so that no evil may be said against the name of God and his teaching.

1 Timothy 6:2 And let those whose masters are of the faith have respect for them because they are brothers, working for them the more readily, because those who take part in the good work are of the faith and are dear. Give orders and teaching about these things.

1 Timothy 6:3 If any man gives different teaching, not in agreement with the true words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the teaching which is in agreement with true religion,

1 Timothy 6:4 He has an over-high opinion of himself; being without knowledge, having only an unhealthy love of questionings and wars of words, from which come envy, fighting, cruel words, evil thoughts,

1 Timothy 6:5 Bitter talk of men who, being evil in mind and dead to what is true, take the faith to be a way of making profit.

1 Timothy 6:6 But true faith, with peace of mind, is of great profit:

1 Timothy 6:7 For we came into the world with nothing, and we are not able to take anything out;

1 Timothy 6:8 But if we have food and a roof over us, let that be enough.

1 Timothy 6:9 But those who have a desire for wealth are falling into danger, and are taken as in a net by a number of foolish and damaging desires, through which men are overtaken by death and destruction.

1 Timothy 6:10 For the love of money is a root of all evil: and some whose hearts were fixed on it have been turned away from the faith, and been wounded with unnumbered sorrows.

1 Timothy 6:11 But you, O man of God, keep yourself from these things, and go after righteousness, religion, faith, love, a quiet mind, gentle behaviour.

1 Timothy 6:12 Be fighting the good fight of the faith; take for yourself the life eternal, for which you were marked out, and of which you gave witness in the eyes of all.

1 Timothy 6:13 I give you orders before God, the giver of life, and Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate gave witness to the faith,

1 Timothy 6:14 To keep the word untouched by evil, clear from all shame, till the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ:

1 Timothy 6:15 Which at the right time he will make clear, who is the eternal and only Ruler, King of kings, and Lord of lords;

1 Timothy 6:16 Who only has life for ever, living in light to which no man may come near; whom no man has seen or is able to see: to whom be honour and power for ever. So be it.

1 Timothy 6:17 Give orders to those who have money and goods in this life, not to be lifted up in their minds, or to put their hope in the uncertain chances of wealth, but in God who gives us in full measure all things for our use;

1 Timothy 6:18 And to do good, having wealth in good works, being quick to give, taking part with one another;

1 Timothy 6:19 Making ready for themselves a safe place for the time to come, so that the true life may be theirs.

1 Timothy 6:20 O Timothy, take good care of that which is given to you, turning away from the wrong and foolish talk and arguments of that knowledge which is falsely so named;

1 Timothy 6:21 Through which some, who gave their minds to it, have been turned away from the faith. Grace be with you.

2 Timothy

1:1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, in the hope of the life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 Timothy 1:2 To Timothy, my well-loved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

2 Timothy 1:3 I give praise to God, whose servant I have been, with a heart free from sin, from the time of my fathers, because in my prayers at all times the thought of you is with me, night and day

2 Timothy 1:4 Desiring to see you, keeping in my memory your weeping, so that I may be full of joy;

2 Timothy 1:5 Having in mind your true faith, which first was in your mother’s mother Lois, and in your mother Eunice, and, I am certain, is now in you.

2 Timothy 1:6 For this reason I say to you, Let that grace of God which is in you, given to you by my hands, have living power.

2 Timothy 1:7 For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of self-control.

2 Timothy 1:8 Have no feeling of shame, then, for the witness of our Lord or for me, his prisoner: but undergo all things for the good news in the measure of the power of God;

2 Timothy 1:9 Who gave us salvation, marking us out for his purpose, not on account of our works, but in the measure of his purpose and his grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal,

2 Timothy 1:10 But has now been made clear by the revelation of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who put an end to death and made life unending come to light through the good news,

2 Timothy 1:11 Of which I was made a preacher and an Apostle and a teacher;

2 Timothy 1:12 And for which I undergo these things: but I have no feeling of shame. For I have knowledge of him in whom I have faith, and I am certain that he is able to keep that which I have given into his care till that day.

2 Timothy 1:13 Keep the form of those true words which you had from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 1:14 That good thing which was given to you keep safe, through the Holy Spirit which is in us.

2 Timothy 1:15 You have had news that all those in Asia went away from me; among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes:

2 Timothy 1:16 May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus because he frequently gave me help, and had no feeling of shame because I was in chains;

2 Timothy 1:17 But when he was in Rome, he went in search of me everywhere, and came to me

2 Timothy 1:18 (May he have the Lord's mercy in that day); and of all he did for me at Ephesus you have full knowledge.

2 Timothy 2:1 So then, my child, be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:2 And the things which I have said to you before a number of witnesses, give to those of the faith, so that they may be teachers of others.

2 Timothy 2:3 Be ready to do without the comforts of life, as one of the army of Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 2:4 A fighting man, when he is with the army, keeps himself free from the business of this life so that he may be pleasing to him who has taken him into his army.

2 Timothy 2:5 And if a man takes part in a competition he does not get the crown if he has not kept the rules.

2 Timothy 2:6 It is right for the worker in the fields to be the first to take of the fruit.

2 Timothy 2:7 Give thought to what I say; for the Lord will give you wisdom in all things.

2 Timothy 2:8 Keep in mind Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, who came back from the dead, as my good news gives witness:

2 Timothy 2:9 In which I put up with the hardest conditions, even prison chains, like one who has done a crime; but the word of God is not in chains.

2 Timothy 2:10 But I undergo all things for the saints, so that they may have salvation in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.

2 Timothy 2:11 This is a true saying: If we undergo death with him, then will we be living with him:

2 Timothy 2:12 If we go on to the end, then we will be ruling with him: if we say we have no knowledge of him, then he will say he has no knowledge of us:

2 Timothy 2:13 If we are without faith, still he keeps faith, for he will never be untrue to himself.

2 Timothy 2:14 Put these things before them, giving them orders in the name of the Lord to keep themselves from fighting about words, which is of no profit, only causing error in their hearers.

2 Timothy 2:15 Let it be your care to get the approval of God, as a workman who has no cause for shame, giving the true word in the right way.

2 Timothy 2:16 But take no part in wrong and foolish talk, for those who do so will go farther into evil,

2 Timothy 2:17 And their words will be like poisoned wounds in the flesh: such are Hymenaeus and Philetus;

2 Timothy 2:18 Men whose ideas are all false, who say that the coming back from the dead has even now taken place, overturning the faith of some.

2 Timothy 2:19 But God's strong base is unchanging, having this sign, The Lord has knowledge of those who are his: and, Let everyone by whom the name of the Lord is named be turned away from evil.

2 Timothy 2:20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but others of wood and earth, and some which are honoured and some without honour.

2 Timothy 2:21 If a man makes himself clean from these, he will be a vessel for honour, made holy, ready for the master's use, ready for every good work.

2 Timothy 2:22 But keep yourself from those desires of the flesh which are strong when the body is young, and go after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those whose prayers go up to the Lord from a clean heart.

2 Timothy 2:23 And put away foolish and uncontrolled questionings, seeing that they are a cause of trouble.

2 Timothy 2:24 For it is not right for the Lord's servant to make trouble, but he is to be gentle to all, ready in teaching, putting up with wrong,

2 Timothy 2:25 Gently guiding those who go against the teaching; if by chance God may give them a change of heart and true knowledge,

2 Timothy 2:26 And so they may get themselves free from the net of the Evil One, being made the prisoners of the Lord's servant, for the purpose of God.

2 Timothy 3:1 But be certain of this, that in the last days times of trouble will come.

2 Timothy 3:2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, uplifted in pride, given to bitter words, going against the authority of their fathers, never giving praise, having no religion,

2 Timothy 3:3 Without natural love, bitter haters, saying evil of others, violent and uncontrolled, hating all good,

2 Timothy 3:4 False to their friends, acting without thought, lifted up in mind, loving pleasure more than God;

2 Timothy 3:5 Having a form of religion, but turning their backs on the power of it: go not with these.

2 Timothy 3:6 For these are they who go secretly into houses, making prisoners of foolish women, weighted down with sin, turned from the way by their evil desires,

2 Timothy 3:7 Ever learning, and never coming to the knowledge of what is true.

2 Timothy 3:8 And as James and Jambres went against Moses, so do these go against what is true: men of evil minds, who, tested by faith, are seen to be false.

2 Timothy 3:9 But they will go no farther: for their foolish behaviour will be clear to all men, as theirs was in the end.

2 Timothy 3:10 But you took as your example my teaching, behaviour, purpose, and faith; my long waiting, my love, my quiet undergoing of trouble;

2 Timothy 3:11 My punishments and pain; the things which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; the cruel attacks made on me: and the Lord made me free from them all.

2 Timothy 3:12 Yes, and all whose purpose is to be living in the knowledge of God in Christ Jesus, will be cruelly attacked.

2 Timothy 3:13 Evil and false men will become worse and worse, using deceit and themselves overcome by deceit.

2 Timothy 3:14 But see that you keep to the teaching you have been given and the things of which you are certain, conscious of who has been your teacher;

2 Timothy 3:15 And that from the time when you were a child, you have had knowledge of the holy Writings, which are able to make you wise to salvation, through faith in Christ Jesus.

2 Timothy 3:16 Every holy Writing which comes from God is of profit for teaching, for training, for guiding, for education in righteousness:

2 Timothy 3:17 So that the man of God may be complete, trained and made ready for every good work.

2 Timothy 4:1 I give you orders, before God and Christ Jesus, who will be the judge of the living and the dead, and by his revelation and his kingdom;

2 Timothy 4:2 Be preaching the word at all times, in every place; make protests, say sharp words, give comfort, with long waiting and teaching;

2 Timothy 4:3 For the time will come when they will not take the true teaching; but, moved by their desires, they will get for themselves a great number of teachers for the pleasure of hearing them;

2 Timothy 4:4 And shutting their ears to what is true, will be turned away to belief in foolish stories.

2 Timothy 4:5 But be self-controlled in all things, do without comfort, go on preaching the good news, completing the work which has been given you to do.

2 Timothy 4:6 For I am even now being offered, and my end is near.

2 Timothy 4:7 I have made a good fight, I have come to the end of my journey, I have kept the faith:

2 Timothy 4:8 From now on, the crown of righteousness is made ready for me, which the Lord, the upright judge, Will give to me at that day: and not only to me, but to all those who have had love for his revelation.

2 Timothy 4:9 Do your best to come to me before long:

2 Timothy 4:10 For Demas has gone away from me, for love of this present life, and has gone to Thessalonica: Crescens has gone to Galatia,Titus to Dalmatia.

2 Timothy 4:11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and take him with you; for he is of use to me in the work.

2 Timothy 4:12 Tychicus I sent to Ephesus.

2 Timothy 4:13 The coat which I did not take from Troas and which is with Carpus, get when you come, and the books, specially the papers.

2 Timothy 4:14 Alexander the copper-worker did me much wrong: the Lord will give him the reward of his works:

2 Timothy 4:15 But be on the watch for him, for he was violent in his attacks on our teaching.

2 Timothy 4:16 At my first meeting with my judges, no one took my part, but all went away from me. May it not be put to their account.

2 Timothy 4:17 But the Lord was by my side and gave me strength; so that through me the news might be given out in full measure, and all the Gentiles might give ear: and I was taken out of the mouth of the lion.

2 Timothy 4:18 The Lord will keep me safe from every evil work and will give me salvation in his kingdom in heaven: to whom be glory for ever and ever. So be it.

2 Timothy 4:19 Give my love to Prisca and Aquila and those of the house of Onesiphorus.

2 Timothy 4:20 Erastus was stopping at Corinth; but Trophimus, when I last saw him was at Miletus, ill.

2 Timothy 4:21 Do your best to come before the winter. Eubulus sends you his love, and Pudens and Linus and Claudia, and all the brothers.

2 Timothy 4:22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

Titus

1:1 Paul, a servant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, in agreement with the faith of the saints of God and the full knowledge of what is true in harmony with religion,

Titus 1:2 In the hope of eternal life, which was made certain before eternal time, by the word of God who is ever true;

Titus 1:3 Who, in his time, made clear his word in the good news, of which, by the order of God our Saviour, I became a preacher;

Titus 1:4 To Titus, my true child in our common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

Titus 1:5 I did not take you with me when I went away from Crete, so that you might do what was necessary to put things in order there, placing men in authority over the churches in every town, as I said to you;

Titus 1:6 Men having a good record, husbands of one wife, whose children are of the faith, children of whom it may not be said that they are given to loose living or are uncontrolled.

Titus 1:7 For it is necessary for a Bishop to be a man of virtue, as God’s servant; not pushing himself forward, not quickly moved to wrath or blows, not desiring profit for himself;

Titus 1:8 But opening his house freely to guests; a lover of what is good, serious-minded, upright, holy, self-controlled;

Titus 1:9 Keeping to the true word of the teaching, so that he may be able to give comfort by right teaching and overcome the arguments of the doubters.

Titus 1:10 For there are men who are not ruled by law; foolish talkers, false teachers, specially those of the circumcision,

Titus 1:11 By whom some families have been completely overturned; who take money for teaching things which are not right; these will have to be stopped.

Titus 1:12 One of their prophets has said, The men of Crete are ever false, evil beasts, lovers of food, hating work.

Titus 1:13 This witness is true. So say sharp words to them so that they may come to the right faith,

Titus 1:14 Giving no attention to the fictions of the Jews and the rules of men who have no true knowledge.

Titus 1:15 To the clean in heart all things are clean: but to those who are unclean and without faith nothing is clean; they become unclean in mind and in thought.

Titus 1:16 They say that they have knowledge of God, while by their acts they are turning their backs on him; they are hated by all, hard-hearted, and judged to be without value for any good work.

Titus 2:1 But let your words be in agreement with true and right teaching:

Titus 2:2 That old men are to be simple in their tastes, serious, wise, true in faith, in love, and of a quiet mind.

Titus 2:3 That old women are to be self-respecting in behaviour, not saying evil of others, not given to taking much wine, teachers of that which is good,

Titus 2:4 Training the younger women to have love for their husbands and children,

Titus 2:5 To be wise in mind, clean in heart, kind; working in their houses, living under the authority of their husbands; so that no evil may be said of the word of God.

Titus 2:6 To the young men give orders to be wise and serious-minded:

Titus 2:7 In all things see that you are an example of good works; holy in your teaching, serious in behaviour,

Titus 2:8 Saying true and right words, against which no protest may be made, so that he who is not on our side may be put to shame, unable to say any evil of us.

Titus 2:9 Servants are to be under the authority of their masters, pleasing them in all things, without argument;

Titus 2:10 Not taking what is not theirs, but giving clear signs of their good faith, in all things doing credit to the teaching of God our Saviour.

Titus 2:11 For the grace of God has come, giving salvation to all men,

Titus 2:12 Training us so that, turning away from evil and the desires of this world, we may be living wisely and uprightly in the knowledge of God in this present life;

Titus 2:13 Looking for the glad hope, the revelation of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ;

Titus 2:14 Who gave himself for us, so that he might make us free from all wrongdoing, and make for himself a people clean in heart and on fire with good works.

Titus 2:15 On all these points give teaching and help, and make clear what is right with all authority. Let all men give you honour.

Titus 3:1 Make clear to them that they are to put themselves under rulers and authorities, to do what they are ordered, to be ready for every good work,

Titus 3:2 To say no evil of any man, not to be fighters, to give way to others, to be gentle in behaviour to all men.

Titus 3:3 For in the past we were foolish, hard in heart, turned from the true way, servants of evil desires and pleasures, living in bad feeling and envy, hated and hating one another.

Titus 3:4 But when the mercy of God our Saviour, and his love to man was seen,

Titus 3:5 Not by works of righteousness which we did ourselves, but in the measure of his mercy, he gave us salvation, through the washing of the new birth and the giving of new life in the Holy Spirit,

Titus 3:6 Which he gave us freely through Jesus Christ our Saviour;

Titus 3:7 So that, having been given righteousness through grace, we might have a part in the heritage, the hope of eternal life.

Titus 3:8 This is a true saying; and it is my desire that you may give certain witness about these things, so that those who have had faith in God may give attention to good works. These things are good and of profit to men;

Titus 3:9 But have nothing to do with foolish questionings, and lists of generations, and fights and arguments about the law; for they are of no profit and foolish.

Titus 3:10 A man whose opinions are not those of the church, after a first and second protest, is to be kept out of your society;

Titus 3:11 Clearly he is in error and a sinner, being self-judged.

Titus 3:12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis: for it is my purpose to be there for the winter.

Titus 3:13 Send Zenas, the man of law, and Apollos on their journey with all care, so that they may be in need of nothing.

Titus 3:14 And let our people go on with good works for necessary purposes, so that they may not be without fruit.

Titus 3:15 All who are with me send you their love. Give our love to our friends in the faith. Grace be with you all.

Philemon

1:1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our dear helper in the faith,

Philemon 1:2 And to Apphia, our sister, and to Archippus, our brother in God’s army, and to the church in your house:

Philemon 1:3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Philemon 1:4 I give praise to God at all times and make prayer for you,

Philemon 1:5 Hearing of the love and the faith which you have to the Lord Jesus and to all the saints;

Philemon 1:6 That the faith which you have in common with them may be working with power, in the knowledge of every good thing in you, for Christ.

Philemon 1:7 For I had great joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been made strong again through you, brother.

Philemon 1:8 And so, though I might, in the name of Christ, give you orders to do what is right,

Philemon 1:9 Still, because of love, in place of an order, I make a request to you, I, Paul, an old man and now a prisoner of Christ Jesus:

Philemon 1:10 My request is for my child Onesimus, the child of my chains,

Philemon 1:11 Who in the past was of no profit to you, but now is of profit to you and to me:

Philemon 1:12 Whom I have sent back to you, him who is my very heart:

Philemon 1:13 Though my desire was to keep him with me, to be my servant in the chains of the good news, in your place:

Philemon 1:14 But without your approval I would do nothing; so that your good works might not be forced, but done freely from your heart.

Philemon 1:15 For it is possible that for this reason he was parted from you for a time, so that you might have him for ever;

Philemon 1:16 No longer as a servant, but more than a servant, a brother, very dear to me specially, but much more to you, in the flesh as well as in the Lord.

Philemon 1:17 If then you take me to be your friend and brother, take him in as myself.

Philemon 1:18 If he has done you any wrong or is in debt to you for anything, put it to my account.

Philemon 1:19 I, Paul, writing this myself, say, I will make payment to you: and I do not say to you that you are in debt to me even for your life.

Philemon 1:20 So brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord: give new life to my heart in Christ.

Philemon 1:21 Being certain that you will do my desire, I am writing to you, in the knowledge that you will do even more than I say.

Philemon 1:22 And make a room ready for me; for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be given to you.

Philemon 1:23 Epaphras, my brother-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his love;

Philemon 1:24 And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my brother-workers.

Philemon 1:25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. So be it.

Hebrews

1:1 In times past the word of God came to our fathers through the prophets, in different parts and in different ways;

Hebrews 1:2 But now, at the end of these days, it has come to us through his Son, to whom he has given all things for a heritage, and through whom he made the order of the generations;

Hebrews 1:3 Who, being the outshining of his glory, the true image of his substance, supporting all things by the word of his power, having given himself as an offering making clean from sins, took his seat at the right hand of God in heaven;

Hebrews 1:4 Having become by so much better than the angels, as the name which is his heritage is more noble than theirs.

Hebrews 1:5 To which of the angels did God say at any time, You are my Son, this day I have given you being? or, I will be his Father, and he will be my Son?

Hebrews 1:6 And again, when he is sending his only Son into the world, he says, Let all the angels of God give him worship.

Hebrews 1:7 And of the angels he says, Who makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire:

Hebrews 1:8 But of the Son he says, Your seat of power, O God, is for ever and ever; and the rod of your kingdom is a rod of righteousness.

Hebrews 1:9 You have been a lover of righteousness and a hater of evil; and so God, your God, has put the oil of joy on your head more than on the heads of those who are with you.

Hebrews 1:10 You, Lord, at the first did put the earth on its base, and the heavens are the works of your hands:

Hebrews 1:11 They will come to their end; but you are for ever; they will become old as a robe;

Hebrews 1:12 They will be rolled up like a cloth, even like a robe, and they will be changed: but you are the same and your years will have no end.

Hebrews 1:13 But of which of the angels has he said at any time, Take your seat at my right hand till I put all those who are against you under your feet?

Hebrews 1:14 Are they not all helping spirits, who are sent out as servants to those whose heritage will be salvation?

Hebrews 2:1 For this reason there is the more need for us to give attention to the things which have come to our ears, for fear that by chance we might be slipping away.

Hebrews 2:2 Because if the word which came through the angels was fixed, and in the past every evil act against God's orders was given its full punishment;

Hebrews 2:3 What will come on us, if we do not give our minds to such a great salvation? a salvation of which our fathers first had knowledge through the words of the Lord, and which was made certain to us by those to whom his words came;

Hebrews 2:4 And God was a witness with them, by signs and wonders, and by more than natural powers, and by his distribution of the Holy Spirit at his pleasure.

Hebrews 2:5 For he did not make the angels rulers over the world to come, of which I am writing.

Hebrews 2:6 But a certain writer has given his witness, saying, What is man, that you keep him in mind? what is the son of man, that you take him into account?

Hebrews 2:7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you gave him a crown of glory and honour, and made him ruler over all the works of your hands:

Hebrews 2:8 You put all things under his feet. For in making man the ruler over all things, God did not put anything outside his authority; though we do not see everything under him now.

Hebrews 2:9 But we see him who was made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, crowned with glory and honour, because he let himself be put to death so that by the grace of God he might undergo death for all men.

Hebrews 2:10 Because it was right for him, for whom and through whom all things have being, in guiding his sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation complete through pain.

Hebrews 2:11 For he who makes holy and those who are made holy are all of one family; and for this reason it is no shame for him to give them the name of brothers,

Hebrews 2:12 Saying, I will give the knowledge of your name to my brothers, I will make a song of praise to you before the church.

Hebrews 2:13 And again he says, I will put my faith in him. And again, See, I am here, and the children which God has given to me.

Hebrews 2:14 And because the children are flesh and blood, he took a body himself and became like them; so that by his death he might put an end to him who had the power of death, that is to say, the Evil One;

Hebrews 2:15 And let those who all their lives were in chains because of their fear of death, go free.

Hebrews 2:16 For, truly, he does not take on the life of angels, but that of the seed of Abraham.

Hebrews 2:17 Because of this it was necessary for him to be made like his brothers in every way, so that he might be a high priest full of mercy and keeping faith in everything to do with God, making offerings for the sins of the people.

Hebrews 2:18 For having been put to the test himself, he is able to give help to others when they are tested.

Hebrews 3:1 For this reason, holy brothers, marked out to have a part in heaven, give thought to Jesus the representative and high priest of our faith;

Hebrews 3:2 Who kept faith with God who gave him his place, even as Moses did in all his house.

Hebrews 3:3 And it was right for this man to have more honour than Moses, even as the builder of a house has more honour than the house.

Hebrews 3:4 For every house has a builder; but the builder of all things is God.

Hebrews 3:5 And Moses certainly kept faith as a servant, in all his house, and as a witness of those things which were to be said later;

Hebrews 3:6 But Christ as a son, over his house; whose house are we, if we keep our hearts fixed in the glad and certain hope till the end.

Hebrews 3:7 And so, as the Holy Spirit says, Today if you let his voice come to your ears,

Hebrews 3:8 Be not hard of heart, as when you made me angry, on the day of testing in the waste land,

Hebrews 3:9 When your fathers put me to the test, and saw my works for forty years.

Hebrews 3:10 So that I was angry with this generation, and I said, Their hearts are in error at all times, and they have no knowledge of my ways;

Hebrews 3:11 And being angry I made an oath, saying, They may not come into my rest.

Hebrews 3:12 My brothers, take care that there is not by chance in any one of you an evil heart without belief, turning away from the living God:

Hebrews 3:13 But give comfort to one another every day as long as it is still Today; so that no one among you may be made hard by the deceit of sin:

Hebrews 3:14 For if we keep the substance of the faith which we had at the start, even till the end, we have a part with Christ;

Hebrews 3:15 As it is said, Today if you will let his voice come to your ears, be not hard of heart, as when you made him angry.

Hebrews 3:16 Who made him angry when his voice came to them? was it not all those who came out of Egypt with Moses?

Hebrews 3:17 And with whom was he angry for forty years? was it not with those who did evil, who came to their deaths in the waste land?

Hebrews 3:18 And to whom did he make an oath that they might not come into his rest? was it not to those who went against his orders?

Hebrews 3:19 So we see that they were not able to go in because they had no belief.

Hebrews 4:1 Let us then, though we still have God’s word that we may come into his rest, go in fear that some of you may be unable to do so.

Hebrews 4:2 And, truly, the good news came to us, even as it did to them; but the hearing of the word did them no good, because they were not united in faith with the true hearers.

Hebrews 4:3 For those of us who have belief come into his rest; even as he has said, As I said in my oath when I was angry, They may not come into my rest: though the works were done from the time of the making of the world.

Hebrews 4:4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day, And God had rest from all his works on the seventh day;

Hebrews 4:5 And in the same place he says again, They will not come into my rest.

Hebrews 4:6 So that as it is clear that some have to go in, and that the first hearers of the good news were not able to go in because they went against God’s orders,

Hebrews 4:7 After a long time, again naming a certain day, he says in David, Today (as he had said before), Today if you will let his voice come to your ears, be not hard of heart,

Hebrews 4:8 For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have said anything about another day.

Hebrews 4:9 So that there is still a Sabbath-keeping for the people of God.

Hebrews 4:10 For the man who comes into his rest has had rest from his works, as God did from his.

Hebrews 4:11 Because of this, let us have a strong desire to come into that rest, and let no one go after the example of those who went against God's orders.

Hebrews 4:12 For the word of God is living and full of power, and is sharper than any two-edged sword, cutting through and making a division even of the soul and the spirit, the bones and the muscles, and quick to see the thoughts and purposes of the heart.

Hebrews 4:13 And there is nothing made which is not completely clear to him; there is nothing covered, but all things are open to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

Hebrews 4:14 Having then a great high priest, who has made his way through the heavens, even Jesus the Son of God, let us be strong in our faith.

Hebrews 4:15 For we have not a high priest who is not able to be touched by the feelings of our feeble flesh; but we have one who has been tested in all points as we ourselves are tested, but without sin.

Hebrews 4:16 Then let us come near to the seat of grace without fear, so that mercy may be given to us, and we may get grace for our help in time of need.

Hebrews 5:1 Every high priest who is taken from among men is given his position to take care of the interests of men in those things which have to do with God, so that he may make offerings for sins.

Hebrews 5:2 He is able to have feeling for those who have no knowledge and for those who are wandering from the true way, because he himself is feeble;

Hebrews 5:3 And being feeble, he has to make sin-offerings for himself as well as for the people.

Hebrews 5:4 And no man who is not given authority by God, as Aaron was, takes this honour for himself.

Hebrews 5:5 In the same way Christ did not take for himself the glory of being made a high priest, but was given it by him who said, You are my Son, this day I have given you being:

Hebrews 5:6 As he says in another place, You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:7 Who in the days of his flesh, having sent up prayers and requests with strong crying and weeping to him who was able to give him salvation from death, had his prayer answered because of his fear of God.

Hebrews 5:8 And though he was a Son, through the pain which he underwent, the knowledge came to him of what it was to be under God’s orders;

Hebrews 5:9 And when he had been made complete, he became the giver of eternal salvation to all those who are under his orders;

Hebrews 5:10 Being named by God a high priest of the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 5:11 Of whom we have much to say which it is hard to make clear, because you are slow of hearing.

Hebrews 5:12 And though by this time it would be right for you to be teachers, you still have need of someone to give you teaching about the first simple rules of God’s revelation; you have become like babies who have need of milk, and not of solid food.

Hebrews 5:13 For everyone who takes milk is without experience of the word of righteousness: he is a child.

Hebrews 5:14 But solid food is for men of full growth, even for those whose senses are trained by use to see what is good and what is evil.

Hebrews 6:1 For this reason let us go on from the first things about Christ to full growth; not building again that on which it is based, that is, the turning of the heart from dead works, and faith in God,

Hebrews 6:2 The teaching of baptisms, and of the putting on of hands, and of the future life of the dead, and of the judging on the last day.

Hebrews 6:3 Now we will do this, if God lets us.

Hebrews 6:4 As for those who at one time saw the light, tasting the good things from heaven, and having their part in the Holy Spirit,

Hebrews 6:5 With knowledge of the good word of God, and of the powers of the coming time,

Hebrews 6:6 And then let themselves be turned away, it is not possible for their hearts to be made new a second time; because they themselves put the Son of God on the cross again, openly shaming him.

Hebrews 6:7 For a land, drinking in the frequent rain and producing good plants for those for whom it is worked, has a blessing from God:

Hebrews 6:8 But if it sends up thorns and evil plants, it is of no use and is ready to be cursed; its only end is to be burned.

Hebrews 6:9 But, my loved ones, though we say this, we are certain that you have better things in you, things which go with salvation;

Hebrews 6:10 For God is true, and will not put away from him the memory of your work and of your love for his name, in the help which you gave and still give to the saints.

Hebrews 6:11 And it is our desire that you may all keep the same high purpose in certain hope to the end:

Hebrews 6:12 So that you may not be slow in heart, but may take as your example those to whom God has given their heritage, because of their faith and their long waiting.

Hebrews 6:13 For when God made his oath to Abraham, because there was no greater oath, he made it by himself,

Hebrews 6:14 Saying, Be certain that I will give you my blessing, and make your numbers very great.

Hebrews 6:15 And so, when he had been waiting calmly for a long time, God’s word to him was put into effect.

Hebrews 6:16 For men at all times make their oaths by what is greater; and any argument is ended by the decision of the oath.

Hebrews 6:17 So that when it was God’s desire to make it specially clear to those who by his word were to have the heritage, that his purpose was fixed, he made it more certain with an oath;

Hebrews 6:18 So that we, who have gone in flight from danger to the hope which has been put before us, may have a strong comfort in two unchanging things, in which it is not possible for God to be false;

Hebrews 6:19 And this hope is like a strong band for our souls, fixed and certain, and going in to that which is inside the veil;

Hebrews 6:20 Where Jesus has gone before us, as a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:1 For this Melchizedek, the king of Salem, a priest of the Most High God, who gave Abraham his blessing, meeting him when he came back after putting the kings to death,

Hebrews 7:2 And to whom Abraham gave a tenth part of everything which he had, being first named King of righteousness, and then in addition, King of Salem, that is to say, King of peace;

Hebrews 7:3 Being without father or mother, or family, having no birth or end to his life, being made like the Son of God, is a priest for ever.

Hebrews 7:4 Now see how great this man was, to whom our father Abraham gave a tenth part of what he had got in the fight.

Hebrews 7:5 And it is true that by the law, those of the sons of Levi who have the position of priests may take a tenth part of the people’s goods; that is to say, they take it from their brothers though these are the sons of Abraham.

Hebrews 7:6 But this man, who was not of their family, took the tenth from Abraham, and gave a blessing to him to whom God had given his undertaking.

Hebrews 7:7 But there is no doubt that the less gets his blessing from the greater.

Hebrews 7:8 Now at the present time, men over whom death has power take the tenth; but then it was taken by one of whom it is witnessed that he is living.

Hebrews 7:9 And we may say that in Abraham, even Levi, who has a right to take the tenth part, gave it;

Hebrews 7:10 Because he was still in his father’s body when Melchizedek came to him.

Hebrews 7:11 Now if it was possible for things to be made complete through the priests of the house of Levi (for the law was given to the people in connection with them), what need was there for another priest who was of the order of Melchizedek and not of the order of Aaron?

Hebrews 7:12 Because if the priests are changed, it is necessary to make a change in the law.

Hebrews 7:13 For he of whom these things are said comes of another tribe, of which no man has ever made offerings at the altar.

Hebrews 7:14 Because it is clear that our Lord comes out of Judah, and Moses said nothing about priests from that tribe.

Hebrews 7:15 And this is even more clear if a second priest has come up who is like Melchizedek,

Hebrews 7:16 That is to say, not made by a law based on the flesh, but by the power of a life without end:

Hebrews 7:17 For it has been witnessed of him, You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

Hebrews 7:18 So the law which went before is put on one side, because it was feeble and without profit.

Hebrews 7:19 (Because the law made nothing complete), and in its place there is a better hope, through which we come near to God.

Hebrews 7:20 And as this is not without the taking of an oath

Hebrews 7:21 (For those were made priests without an oath, but this one was made a priest with an oath by him who says of him, The Lord gave his oath, which he will not take back, that you are a priest for ever);

Hebrews 7:22 By so much is it a better agreement which we have through Jesus.

Hebrews 7:23 And it is true that there have been a great number of those priests, because death does not let them go on for ever;

Hebrews 7:24 But this priest, because his life goes on for ever, is unchanging.

Hebrews 7:25 So that he is fully able to be the saviour of all who come to God through him, because he is ever living to make prayer to God for them.

Hebrews 7:26 It was right for us to have such a high priest, one who is holy and without evil, doing no wrong, having no part with sinners, and made higher than the heavens:

Hebrews 7:27 Who has no need to make offerings for sins every day, like those high priests, first for himself, and then for the people; because he did this once and for ever when he made an offering of himself.

Hebrews 7:28 The law makes high priests of men who are feeble; but the word of the oath, which was made after the law, gives that position to a Son, in whom all good is for ever complete.

Hebrews 8:1 Now of the things we are saying this is the chief point: We have such a high priest, who has taken his place at the right hand of God's high seat of glory in heaven,

Hebrews 8:2 As a servant of the holy things and of the true Tent, which was put up by God, not by man.

Hebrews 8:3 Now every high priest is given authority to take to God the things which are given and to make offerings; so that it is necessary for this man, like them, to have something for an offering.

Hebrews 8:4 If he had been on earth he would not have been a priest at all, because there are other priests who make the offerings ordered by the law;

Hebrews 8:5 Being servants of that which is a copy and an image of the things in heaven, as Moses, when he was about to make the Tent, had special orders from God: for, See, he said, that you make everything like the design which you saw in the mountain.

Hebrews 8:6 But now his position as priest is higher. because through him God has made a better agreement with man, based on the giving of better things.

Hebrews 8:7 For if that first agreement had been as good as possible, there would have been no place for a second.

Hebrews 8:8 For, protesting against them, he says, See, the days are coming when I will make a new agreement with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;

Hebrews 8:9 Not like the agreement which I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand, to be their guide out of the land of Egypt; for they did not keep the agreement with me, and I gave them up, says the Lord.

Hebrews 8:10 For this is the agreement which I will make with the people of Israel after those days: I will put my laws into their minds, writing them in their hearts: and I will be their God, and they will be my people:

Hebrews 8:11 And there will be no need for every man to be teaching his brother, or his neighbour, saying, This is the knowledge of the Lord: for they will all have knowledge of me, great and small.

Hebrews 8:12 And I will have mercy on their evil-doing, and I will not keep their sins in mind.

Hebrews 8:13 When he says, A new agreement, he has made the first agreement old. But anything which is getting old and past use will not be seen much longer.

Hebrews 9:1 Now the first agreement had its rules of worship, and a holy order.

Hebrews 9:2 For the first Tent was made ready, having in it the vessels for the lights and the table and the ordering of the bread; and this is named the holy place.

Hebrews 9:3 And inside the second veil was the place which is named the Holy of holies;

Hebrews 9:4 Having a vessel of gold in it for burning perfumes, and the ark of the agreement, which was covered with gold and which had in it a pot made of gold for the manna, and Aaron’s rod which put out buds, and the stones with the writing of the agreement;

Hebrews 9:5 And over it were the winged ones of glory with their wings covering the mercy-seat; about which it is not possible now to say anything in detail.

Hebrews 9:6 Now while these things were in existence, the priests went into the first Tent at all times, for prayer and the making of offerings.

Hebrews 9:7 But only the high priest went into the second, once a year, not without making an offering of blood for himself and for the errors of the people:

Hebrews 9:8 The Holy Spirit witnessing by this that the way into the holy place had not at that time been made open, while the first Tent was still in being;

Hebrews 9:9 And this is an image of the present time; when the offerings which are given are not able to make the heart of the worshipper completely clean,

Hebrews 9:10 Because they are only rules of the flesh, of meats and drinks and washings, which have their place till the time comes when things will be put right.

Hebrews 9:11 But now Christ has come as the high priest of the good things of the future, through this greater and better Tent, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this world,

Hebrews 9:12 And has gone once and for ever into the holy place, having got eternal salvation, not through the blood of goats and young oxen, but through his blood.

Hebrews 9:13 For if the blood of goats and oxen, and the dust from the burning of a young cow, being put on the unclean, make the flesh clean:

Hebrews 9:14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who, being without sin, made an offering of himself to God through the Holy Spirit, make your hearts clean from dead works to be servants of the living God?

Hebrews 9:15 And for this cause it is through him that a new agreement has come into being, so that after the errors under the first agreement had been taken away by his death, the word of God might have effect for those who were marked out for an eternal heritage.

Hebrews 9:16 Because where there is a testament, there has to be the death of the man who made it.

Hebrews 9:17 For a testament has effect after death; for what power has it while the man who made it is living?

Hebrews 9:18 So that even the first agreement was not made without blood.

Hebrews 9:19 For when Moses had given all the rules of the law to the people, he took the blood of goats and young oxen, with water and red wool and hyssop, and put it on the book itself and on all the people,

Hebrews 9:20 Saying, This blood is the sign of the agreement which God has made with you.

Hebrews 9:21 And the blood was put on the Tent and all the holy vessels in the same way.

Hebrews 9:22 And by the law almost all things are made clean with blood, and without blood there is no forgiveness.

Hebrews 9:23 For this cause it was necessary to make the copies of the things in heaven clean with these offerings; but the things themselves are made clean with better offerings than these.

Hebrews 9:24 For Christ did not go into a holy place which had been made by men’s hands as the copy of the true one; but he went into heaven itself, and now takes his place before the face of God for us.

Hebrews 9:25 And he did not have to make an offering of himself again and again, as the high priest goes into the holy place every year with blood which is not his;

Hebrews 9:26 For then he would have undergone a number of deaths from the time of the making of the world: but now he has come to us at the end of the old order, to put away sin by the offering of himself.

Hebrews 9:27 And because by God’s law death comes to men once, and after that they are judged;

Hebrews 9:28 So Christ, having at his first coming taken on himself the sins of men, will be seen a second time, without sin, by those who are waiting for him, for their salvation.

Hebrews 10:1 For the law, being only a poor copy of the future good things, and not the true image of those things, is never able to make the people who come to the altar every year with the same offerings completely clean.

Hebrews 10:2 For if this had been possible, would there not have been an end of those offerings, because the worshippers would have been made completely clean and would have been no longer conscious of sins?

Hebrews 10:3 But year by year there is a memory of sins in those offerings.

Hebrews 10:4 Because it is not possible for the blood of oxen and goats to take away sins.

Hebrews 10:5 So that when he comes into the world, he says, You had no desire for offerings, but you made a body ready for me;

Hebrews 10:6 You had no joy in burned offerings or in offerings for sin.

Hebrews 10:7 Then I said, See, I have come to do your pleasure, O God (as it is said of me in the roll of the book).

Hebrews 10:8 After saying, You had no desire for offerings, for burned offerings or offerings for sin (which are made by the law) and you had no pleasure in them,

Hebrews 10:9 Then he said, See, I have come to do your pleasure. He took away the old order, so that he might put the new order in its place.

Hebrews 10:10 By that pleasure we have been made holy, by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and for ever.

Hebrews 10:11 And every priest takes his place at the altar day by day, doing what is necessary, and making again and again the same offerings which are never able to take away sins.

Hebrews 10:12 But when Jesus had made one offering for sins for ever, he took his place at the right hand of God;

Hebrews 10:13 And has been waiting there from that time, till all who are against him are made a foot-rest for his feet.

Hebrews 10:14 Because by one offering he has made complete for ever those who are made holy.

Hebrews 10:15 And the Holy Spirit is a witness for us: for after he had said,

Hebrews 10:16 This is the agreement which I will make with them after those days, says the Lord; I will put my laws in their hearts, writing them in their minds; he said,

Hebrews 10:17 And I will keep no more memory of their sins and of their evil-doings.

Hebrews 10:18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no more offering for sin.

Hebrews 10:19 So then, my brothers, being able to go into the holy place without fear, because of the blood of Jesus, Hebrews 10:20 By the new and living way which he made open for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;

Hebrews 10:21 And having a great priest over the house of God,

Hebrews 10:22 Let us go in with true hearts, in certain faith, having our hearts made free from the sense of sin and our bodies washed with clean water:

Hebrews 10:23 Let us keep the witness of our hope strong and unshaking, for he is true who has given his word:

Hebrews 10:24 And let us be moving one another at all times to love and good works;

Hebrews 10:25 Not giving up our meetings, as is the way of some, but keeping one another strong in faith; and all the more because you see the day coming near.

Hebrews 10:26 For if we do evil on purpose after we have had the knowledge of what is true, there is no more offering for sins,

Hebrews 10:27 But only a great fear of being judged, and of the fire of wrath which will be the destruction of the haters of God.

Hebrews 10:28 A man who has gone against the law of Moses is put to death without pity on the word of two or three witnesses:

Hebrews 10:29 But will not the man by whom the Son of God has been crushed under foot, and the blood of the agreement with which he was washed clean has been taken as an unholy thing, and who has had no respect for the Spirit of grace, be judged bad enough for a very much worse punishment?

Hebrews 10:30 For we have had experience of him who says, Punishment is mine, I will give reward. And again, The Lord will be judge of his people.

Hebrews 10:31 We may well go in fear of falling into the hands of the living God.

Hebrews 10:32 But give thought to the days after you had seen the light, when you went through a great war of troubles;

Hebrews 10:33 In part, in being attacked by angry words and cruel acts, before the eyes of everyone, and in part, in being united with those who were attacked in this way.

Hebrews 10:34 For you had pity on those who were in prison, and had joy in the loss of your property, in the knowledge that you still had a better property and one which you would keep for ever.

Hebrews 10:35 So do not give up your hope which will be greatly rewarded.

Hebrews 10:36 For, having done what was right in God's eyes, you have need of waiting before his word has effect for you.

Hebrews 10:37 In a very little time he who is coming will come; he will not be slow.

Hebrews 10:38 But the upright man will be living by his faith; and if he goes back, my soul will have no pleasure in him.

Hebrews 10:39 But we are not of those who go back to destruction; but of those who have faith even to the salvation of the soul.

Hebrews 11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, and the sign that the things not seen are true.

Hebrews 11:2 For by it our fathers had God's approval.

Hebrews 11:3 By faith it is clear to us that the order of events was fixed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made from things which only seem to be.

Hebrews 11:4 By faith Abel made a better offering to God than Cain, and he had witness through it of his righteousness, God giving his approval of his offering: and his voice still comes to us through it though he is dead.

Hebrews 11:5 By faith Enoch was taken up to heaven so that he did not see death; he was seen no longer, for God took him away: for before he was taken, witness had been given that he was well-pleasing to God:

Hebrews 11:6 And without faith it is not possible to be well-pleasing to him, for it is necessary for anyone who comes to God to have the belief that God is, and that he is a rewarder of all those who make a serious search for him.

Hebrews 11:7 By faith Noah, being moved by the fear of God, made ready an ark for the salvation of his family, because God had given him news of things which were not seen at the time; and through it the world was judged by him, and he got for his heritage the righteousness which is by faith.

Hebrews 11:8 By faith Abraham did as God said when he was ordered to go out into a place which was to be given to him as a heritage, and went out without knowledge of where he was going.

Hebrews 11:9 By faith he was a wanderer in the land of the agreement, as in a strange land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who had a part with him in the same heritage:

Hebrews 11:10 For he was looking for the strong town, whose builder and maker is God.

Hebrews 11:11 And by faith Sarah herself had power to give birth, when she was very old, because she had faith in him who gave his word;

Hebrews 11:12 So that from one man, who was near to death, came children in number as the stars in heaven, or as the sand by the seaside, which may not be numbered.

Hebrews 11:13 All these came to their end in faith, not having had the heritage; but having seen it with delight far away, they gave witness that they were wanderers and not of the earth.

Hebrews 11:14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are searching for a country for themselves.

Hebrews 11:15 And truly if they had kept in mind the country from which they went out, they would have had chances of turning back.

Hebrews 11:16 But now their desire is for a better country, that is to say, for one in heaven; and so it is no shame to God to be named their God; for he has made ready a town for them.

Hebrews 11:17 By faith Abraham made an offering of Isaac, when he was tested: and he with whom the agreement had been made gave up as an offering the only son of his body,

Hebrews 11:18 Of whom it had been said, From Isaac will your seed take their name:

Hebrews 11:19 Judging that God was able to give life even to the dead; and because of this he did get him back as if from death.

Hebrews 11:20 By faith Isaac, blessing Jacob and Esau, gave news of things to come.

Hebrews 11:21 By faith Jacob gave a blessing to the two sons of Joseph, when he was near to death; and gave God worship, supported by his stick.

Hebrews 11:22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, said that the children of Israel would go out of Egypt; and gave orders about his bones.

Hebrews 11:23 By faith Moses was kept secretly by his father and mother for three months after his birth, because they saw that he was a fair child; and they had no fear of the king’s orders.

Hebrews 11:24 By faith Moses, when he became a man, had no desire to be named the son of Pharaoh’s daughter;

Hebrews 11:25 Feeling that it was better to undergo pain with the people of God, than for a short time to have a taste of the pleasures of sin;

Hebrews 11:26 Judging a part in the shame of Christ to be better than all the wealth of Egypt; for he was looking forward to his reward.

Hebrews 11:27 By faith he went out of Egypt, not being turned from his purpose by fear of the wrath of the king; for he kept on his way, as seeing him who is unseen.

Hebrews 11:28 By faith he kept the Passover, and put the sign of the blood on the houses, so that the angel of destruction might not put their oldest sons to death.

Hebrews 11:29 By faith they went through the Red Sea as if it had been dry land, though the Egyptians were overcome by the water when they made an attempt to do the same.

Hebrews 11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho came down, after they had been circled for seven days.

Hebrews 11:31 By faith Rahab, the loose woman, was not put to death with those who had gone against God's orders, because she had taken into her house in peace those sent to see the land.

Hebrews 11:32 What more am I to say? For there would not be time to give the stories of Gideon, Barak, Samson, and Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets:

Hebrews 11:33 Who through faith overcame kingdoms, did righteousness, got their reward, kept the mouths of lions shut,

Hebrews 11:34 Put out the power of fire, got safely away from the edge of the sword, were made strong when they had been feeble, became full of power in war, and put to flight the armies of the nations.

Hebrews 11:35 Women had their dead given back to them living; others let themselves be cruelly attacked, having no desire to go free, so that they might have a better life to come;

Hebrews 11:36 And others were tested by being laughed at or by blows, and even with chains and prisons:

Hebrews 11:37 They were stoned, they were cut up with knives, they were tested, they were put to death with the sword, they went about in sheepskins and in goatskins; being poor and in pain and cruelly attacked,

Hebrews 11:38 Wandering in waste places and in mountains and in holes in the rocks; for whom the world was not good enough.

Hebrews 11:39 And not one of these got the good things of the agreement, though they all had a good record through faith,

Hebrews 11:40 Because God had kept some better thing for us, so that it was not possible for them to become complete without us.

Hebrews 12:1 For this reason, as we are circled by so great a cloud of witnesses, putting off every weight, and the sin into which we come so readily, let us keep on running in the way which is marked out for us,

Hebrews 12:2 Having our eyes fixed on Jesus, the guide and end of our faith, who went through the pains of the cross, not caring for the shame, because of the joy which was before him, and who has now taken his place at the right hand of God's seat of power.

Hebrews 12:3 Give thought to him who has undergone so much of the hate of sinners against himself, so that you may not be tired and feeble of purpose.

Hebrews 12:4 Till now you have not given your blood in your fight against sin:

Hebrews 12:5 And you have not kept in mind the word which says to you as to sons, My son, do not make little of the Lord’s punishment, and do not give up hope when you are judged by him;

Hebrews 12:6 For the Lord sends punishment on his loved ones; everyone whom he takes as his son has experience of his rod.

Hebrews 12:7 It is for your training that you undergo these things; God is acting to you as a father does to his sons; for what son does not have punishment from his father?

Hebrews 12:8 But if you have not that punishment of which we all have our part, then you are not true sons, but children of shame.

Hebrews 12:9 And again, if the fathers of our flesh gave us punishment and had our respect, how much more will we be under the authority of the Father of spirits, and have life?

Hebrews 12:10 For they truly gave us punishment for a short time, as it seemed good to them; but he does it for our profit, so that we may become holy as he is.

Hebrews 12:11 At the time all punishment seems to be pain and not joy: but after, those who have been trained by it get from it the peace-giving fruit of righteousness.

Hebrews 12:12 For this cause let the hands which are hanging down be lifted up, and let the feeble knees be made strong,

Hebrews 12:13 And make straight roads for your feet, so that the feeble may not be turned out of the way, but may be made strong.

Hebrews 12:14 Let your desire be for peace with all men, and to be made holy, without which no man may see the Lord;

Hebrews 12:15 Looking with care to see that no man among you in his behaviour comes short of the grace of God; for fear that some bitter root may come up to be a trouble to you, and that some of you may be made unclean by it;

Hebrews 12:16 And that there may not be any evil liver, or any man without respect for God, like Esau, who let his birthright go for a plate of food.

Hebrews 12:17 For you have knowledge that even long after, when he was desiring the blessing for his heritage, he was turned away, though he made his request frequently and with weeping; because the past might not be changed.

Hebrews 12:18 You have not come to a mountain which may be touched, and is burning with fire, and to a black cloud, and a dark smoke, and a violent wind, Hebrews 12:19 And to the sound of a horn, and the voice of words, the hearers of which made request that not a word more might be said to them:

Hebrews 12:20 For the order which said, If the mountain is touched even by a beast, the beast is to be stoned, seemed hard to them;

Hebrews 12:21 And the vision was so overpowering that even Moses said, I am shaking and full of fear.

Hebrews 12:22 But you have come to the mountain of Zion, to the place of the living God, to the Jerusalem which is in heaven, and to an army of angels which may not be numbered,

Hebrews 12:23 To the great meeting and church of the first of those who are named in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of good men made complete,

Hebrews 12:24 And to Jesus by whom the new agreement has been made between God and man, and to the sign of the blood which says better things than Abel's blood.

Hebrews 12:25 See that you give ear to his voice which comes to you. For if those whose ears were shut to the voice which came to them on earth did not go free from punishment, what chance have we of going free if we give no attention to him whose voice comes from heaven?

Hebrews 12:26 Whose voice was the cause of the shaking of the earth; but now he has made an oath, saying, There will be still one more shaking, not only of the earth, but of heaven.

Hebrews 12:27 And the words, Still one more, make it clear that there will be a taking away of those things which are shaking, as of things which are made, so that there may be only those things of which no shaking is possible.

Hebrews 12:28 If then, we have a kingdom which will never be moved, let us have grace, so that we may give God such worship as is pleasing to him with fear and respect:

Hebrews 12:29 For our God is an all-burning fire.

Hebrews 13:1 Go on loving your brothers in the faith.

Hebrews 13:2 Take care to keep open house: because in this way some have had angels as their guests, without being conscious of it.

Hebrews 13:3 Keep in mind those who are in chains, as if you were chained with them, and those who are in trouble, as being yourselves in the body.

Hebrews 13:4 Let married life be honoured among all of you and not made unclean; for men untrue in married life will be judged by God.

Hebrews 13:5 Be free from the love of money and pleased with the things which you have; for he himself has said, I will be with you at all times.

Hebrews 13:6 So that we say with a good heart, The Lord is my helper; I will have no fear: what is man able to do to me?

Hebrews 13:7 Keep in mind those who were over you, and who gave you the word of God; seeing the outcome of their way of life, let your faith be like theirs.

Hebrews 13:8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.

Hebrews 13:9 Do not be turned away by different strange teachings, because it is good for your hearts to be made strong by grace, and not by meats, which were of no profit to those who took so much trouble over them.

Hebrews 13:10 We have an altar from which those priests who are servants in the Tent may not take food.

Hebrews 13:11 For the bodies of the beasts whose blood is taken into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin are burned outside the circle of the tents.

Hebrews 13:12 For this reason Jesus was put to death outside the walls, so that he might make the people holy by his blood.

Hebrews 13:13 Let us then go out to him outside the circle of the tents, taking his shame on ourselves.

Hebrews 13:14 For here we have no fixed resting-place, but our search is for the one which is to come.

Hebrews 13:15 Let us then make offerings of praise to God at all times through him, that is to say, the fruit of lips giving witness to his name.

Hebrews 13:16 But go on doing good and giving to others, because God is well-pleased with such offerings.

Hebrews 13:17 Give ear to those who are rulers over you, and do as they say: for they keep watch over your souls, ready to give an account of them; let them be able to do this with joy and not with grief, because that would be of no profit to you.

Hebrews 13:18 Make prayers for us, for we are certain that our hearts are free from the sense of sin, desiring the right way of life in all things.

Hebrews 13:19 I make this request more strongly, in the hope of coming back to you more quickly.

Hebrews 13:20 Now may the God of peace, who made that great keeper of his flock, even our Lord Jesus, come back from the dead through the blood of the eternal agreement,

Hebrews 13:21 Make you full of every good work and ready to do all his desires, working in us whatever is pleasing in his eyes through Jesus Christ; and may the glory be given to him for ever and ever. So be it.

Hebrews 13:22 But, brothers, take kindly the words which I have said for your profit; for I have not sent you a long letter.

Hebrews 13:23 Our brother Timothy has been let out of prison; and if he comes here in a short time, he and I will come to you together.

Hebrews 13:24 Give words of love from me to those who are rulers over you, and to all the saints. Those who are in Italy send you their love.

Hebrews 13:25 May grace be with you all.

James

1:1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, sends words of love to the twelve tribes of the Jews living in all parts of the earth.

James 1:2 Let it be all joy to you, my brothers, when you undergo tests of every sort;

James 1:3 Because you have the knowledge that the testing of your faith gives you the power of going on in hope;

James 1:4 But let this power have its full effect, so that you may be made complete, needing nothing.

James 1:5 But if any man among you is without wisdom, let him make his request to God, who gives freely to all without an unkind word, and it will be given to him.

James 1:6 Let him make his request in faith, doubting nothing; for he who has doubt in his heart is like the waves of the sea, which are troubled by the driving of the wind.

James 1:7 Let it not seem to such a man that he will get anything from the Lord;

James 1:8 For there is a division in his mind, and he is uncertain in all his ways.

James 1:9 But let the brother of low position be glad that he is lifted up;

James 1:10 But the man of wealth, that he is made low; because like the flower of the grass he will come to his end.

James 1:11 For when the sun comes up with its burning heat, the grass gets dry and the grace of its form is gone with the falling flower; so the man of wealth comes to nothing in his ways.

James 1:12 There is a blessing on the man who undergoes testing; because, if he has God’s approval, he will be given the crown of life, which the Lord has said he will give to those who have love for him.

James 1:13 Let no man say when he is tested, I am tested by God; for it is not possible for God to be tested by evil, and he himself puts no man to such a test:

James 1:14 But every man is tested when he is turned out of the right way by the attraction of his desire.

James 1:15 Then when its time comes, desire gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is of full growth, gives birth to death.

James 1:16 Do not be turned from the right way, dear brothers.

James 1:17 Every good and true thing is given to us from heaven, coming from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or any shade made by turning.

James 1:18 Of his purpose he gave us being, by his true word, so that we might be, in a sense, the first-fruits of all the things which he had made.

James 1:19 You have knowledge of this, dear brothers. But let every man be quick in hearing, slow in words, slow to get angry;

James 1:20 For the righteousness of God does not come about by the wrath of man.

James 1:21 For this reason, putting away all dirty behaviour and the overweight of evil, take into your souls without pride the word which, being planted there, is able to give you salvation.

James 1:22 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers of it, blinding yourselves with false ideas.

James 1:23 Because if any man is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a glass;

James 1:24 For after looking at himself he goes away, and in a short time he has no memory of what he was like.

James 1:25 But he who goes on looking into the true law which makes him free, being not a hearer without memory but a doer putting it into effect, this man will have a blessing on his acts.

James 1:26 If a man seems to have religion and has no control over his tongue but lets himself be tricked by what is false, this man's religion is of no value.

James 1:27 The religion which is holy and free from evil in the eyes of our God and Father is this: to take care of children who have no fathers and of widows who are in trouble, and to keep oneself untouched by the world.

James 2:1 My brothers, if you have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory, do not take a man's position into account.

James 2:2 For if a man comes into your Synagogue in fair clothing and with a gold ring, and a poor man comes in with dirty clothing,

James 2:3 And you do honour to the man in fair clothing and say, Come here and take this good place; and you say to the poor man, Take up your position there, or be seated at my feet;

James 2:4 Is there not a division in your minds? have you not become judges with evil thoughts?

James 2:5 Give ear, my dear brothers; are not those who are poor in the things of this world marked out by God to have faith as their wealth, and for their heritage the kingdom which he has said he will give to those who have love for him?

James 2:6 But you have put the poor man to shame. Are not the men of wealth rulers over you? do they not take you by force before their judges?

James 2:7 Do they not say evil of the holy name which was given to you?

James 2:8 But if you keep the greatest law of all, as it is given in the holy Writings, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself, you do well:

James 2:9 But if you take a man's position into account, you do evil, and are judged as evil-doers by the law.

James 2:10 For anyone who keeps all the law, but makes a slip in one point, is judged to have gone against it all.

James 2:11 For he who said, Do not be untrue in married life, is the same who said, Put no man to death. Now if you are not untrue in married life, but you put a man to death, the law is broken.

James 2:12 Let your words and your acts be those of men who are to be judged by the law which makes free.

James 2:13 For the man who has had no mercy will be judged without mercy, but mercy takes pride in overcoming judging.

James 2:14 What use is it, my brothers, for a man to say that he has faith, if he does nothing? will such a faith give him salvation?

James 2:15 If a brother or a sister is without clothing and in need of the day's food,

James 2:16 And one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warm and full of food; but you do not give them the things of which their bodies have need, what profit is there in this?

James 2:17 Even so faith without works is dead.

James 2:18 But a man may say, You have faith and I have works; let me see your faith without your works, and I will make my faith clear to you by my works.

James 2:19 You have the belief that God is one, and you do well: the evil spirits have the same belief, shaking with fear.

James 2:20 Do you not see, O foolish man, that faith without works is of no use?

James 2:21 Was not the righteousness of Abraham our father judged by his works, when he made an offering of Isaac his son on the altar?

James 2:22 You see that his faith was helping his works and was made complete by them;

James 2:23 And the holy Writings were put into effect which said, And Abraham had faith in God and it was put to his account as righteousness; and he was named the friend of God.

James 2:24 You see that a man’s righteousness is judged by his works and not by his faith only.

James 2:25 And in the same way, was not the righteousness of Rahab, the loose woman, judged by her works, when she took into her house those who were sent and let them go out by another way?

James 2:26 For as the body without the spirit is dead even so faith without works is dead.

James 3:1 Do not all be teachers, my brothers, because we teachers will be judged more hardly than others.

James 3:2 For we all go wrong in a number of things. If a man never makes a slip in his talk, then he is a complete man and able to keep all his body in control.

James 3:3 Now if we put bits of iron into horses’ mouths so that they may be guided by us, we have complete control of their bodies.

James 3:4 And again ships, though they are so great and are moved by violent winds, are turned by a very small guiding-blade, at the impulse of the man who is using it.

James 3:5 Even so the tongue is a small part of the body, but it takes credit for great things. How much wood may be lighted by a very little fire!

James 3:6 And the tongue is a fire; it is the power of evil placed in our bodies, making all the body unclean, putting the wheel of life on fire, and getting its fire from hell.

James 3:7 For every sort of beast and bird and every living thing on earth and in the sea has been controlled by man and is under his authority;

James 3:8 But the tongue may not be controlled by man; it is an unresting evil, it is full of the poison of death.

James 3:9 With it we give praise to our Lord and Father; and with it we put a curse on men who are made in God’s image.

James 3:10 Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, it is not right for these things to be so.

James 3:11 Does the fountain send from the same outlet sweet and bitter water?

James 3:12 Is a fig-tree able to give us olives, my brothers, or do we get figs from a vine, or sweet water from the salt sea?

James 3:13 Who has wisdom and good sense among you? let him make his works clear by a life of gentle wisdom.

James 3:14 But if you have bitter envy in your heart and the desire to get the better of others, have no pride in this, talking falsely against what is true.

James 3:15 This wisdom is not from heaven, but is of the earth and the flesh and the Evil One.

James 3:16 For where envy is, and the desire to get the better of others, there is no order, but every sort of evil-doing.

James 3:17 But the wisdom which is from heaven is first holy, then gentle, readily giving way in argument, full of peace and mercy and good works, not doubting, not seeming other than it is.

James 3:18 And the fruit of righteousness is planted in peace for those who make peace.

James 4:1 What is the cause of wars and fighting among you? is it not in your desires which are at war in your bodies?

James 4:2 You are burning with desire, and have not your desire, so you put men to death; you are full of envy, and you are not able to get your desire, so you are fighting and making war; you have not your desire, because you do not make request for it.

James 4:3 You make your request but you do not get it, because your request has been wrongly made, desiring the thing only so that you may make use of it for your pleasure.

James 4:4 O you who are false to God, do you not see that the friends of this world are not God's friends? Every man desiring to be a friend of this world makes himself a hater of God.

James 4:5 Or does it seem to you that it is for nothing that the holy Writings say, The spirit which God put into our hearts has a strong desire for us?

James 4:6 But he gives more grace. So that the Writings say, God is against the men of pride, but he gives grace to those who make themselves low before him.

James 4:7 For this cause be ruled by God; but make war on the Evil One and he will be put to flight before you.

James 4:8 Come near to God and he will come near to you. Make your hands clean, you evil-doers; put away deceit from your hearts, you false in mind.

James 4:9 Be troubled, with sorrow and weeping; let your laughing be turned to sorrow and your joy to grief.

James 4:10 Make yourselves low in the eyes of the Lord and you will be lifted up by him.

James 4:11 Do not say evil against one another, my brothers. He who says evil against his brother or makes himself his brother’s judge, says evil against the law and is judging the law: and in judging the law you become, not a doer of the law but a judge.

James 4:12 There is only one judge and law-giver, even he who has the power of salvation and of destruction; but who are you to be your neighbour’s judge?

James 4:13 How foolish it is to say, Today or tomorrow we will go into this town, and be there for a year and do business there and get wealth:

James 4:14 When you are not certain what will take place tomorrow. What is your life? It is a mist, which is seen for a little time and then is gone.

James 4:15 But the right thing to say would be, If it is the Lord’s pleasure and if we are still living, we will do this and that.

James 4:16 But now you go on glorying in your pride: and all such glorying is evil.

James 4:17 The man who has knowledge of how to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.

James 5:1 Come now, you men of wealth, give yourselves to weeping and crying because of the bitter troubles which are coming to you.

James 5:2 Your wealth is unclean and insects have made holes in your clothing.

James 5:3 Your gold and your silver are wasted and their waste will be a witness against you, burning into your flesh. You have put by your store in the last days.

James 5:4 See, the money which you falsely kept back from the workers cutting the grass in your field, is crying out against you; and the cries of those who took in your grain have come to the ears of the Lord of armies.

James 5:5 You have been living delicately on earth and have taken your pleasure; you have made your hearts fat for a day of destruction.

James 5:6 You have given your decision against the upright man and have put him to death. He puts up no fight against you.

James 5:7 Go on waiting calmly, my brothers, till the coming of the Lord, like the farmer waiting for the good fruit of the earth till the early and late rains have come.

James 5:8 Be as calm in your waiting; let your hearts be strong: because the coming of the Lord is near.

James 5:9 Say no hard things against one another, brothers, so that you will not be judged; see, the judge is waiting at the doors.

James 5:10 Take as an example of pain nobly undergone and of strength in trouble, the prophets who gave to men the words of the Lord.

James 5:11 We say that those men who have gone through pain are happy: you have the story of Job and the troubles through which he went and have seen that the Lord was full of pity and mercy in the end.

James 5:12 But most of all, my brothers, do not take oaths, not by the heaven, or by the earth, or by any other thing: but let your Yes be Yes, and your No be No: so that you may not be judged.

James 5:13 Is anyone among you in trouble? let him say prayers. Is anyone glad? let him make a song of praise.

James 5:14 Is anyone among you ill? let him send for the rulers of the church; and let them say prayers over him, putting oil on him in the name of the Lord.

James 5:15 And by the prayer of faith the man who is ill will be made well, and he will be lifted up by the Lord, and for any sin which he has done he will have forgiveness.

James 5:16 So then, make a statement of your sins to one another, and say prayers for one another so that you may be made well. The prayer of a good man is full of power in its working.

James 5:17 Elijah was a man of flesh and blood as we are, and he made a strong prayer that there might be no rain; and there was no rain on the earth for three years and six months.

James 5:18 And he made another prayer, and the heaven sent down rain and the earth gave her fruit.

James 5:19 My brothers, if one of you has gone out of the way of the true faith and another has made him see his error,

James 5:20 Be certain that he through whom a sinner has been turned from the error of his way, keeps a soul from death and is the cause of forgiveness for sins without number.

1 Peter

1:1 Peter, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to the saints who are living in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

1 Peter 1:2 Who, through the purpose of God, have been made holy by the Spirit, disciples of Jesus, made clean by his blood: May you have grace and peace in full measure.

1 Peter 1:3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who through his great mercy has given us a new birth and a living hope by the coming again of Jesus Christ from the dead,

1 Peter 1:4 And a heritage fair, holy and for ever new, waiting in heaven for you,

1 Peter 1:5 Who, by the power of God are kept, through faith, for that salvation, which will be seen at the last day.

1 Peter 1:6 You have cause for great joy in this, though it may have been necessary for you to be troubled for a little time, being tested in all sorts of ways,

1 Peter 1:7 So that the true metal of your faith, being of much greater value than gold (which, though it comes to an end, is tested by fire), may come to light in praise and glory and honour, at the revelation of Jesus Christ:

1 Peter 1:8 To whom your love is given, though you have not seen him; and the faith which you have in him, though you do not see him now, gives you joy greater than words and full of glory:

1 Peter 1:9 For so you have the true end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

1 Peter 1:10 For the prophets who gave the news of the grace which would come to you, made search with all care for knowledge of this salvation;

1 Peter 1:11 Attempting to see what sort of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was pointing to, when it gave witness to the pains which Christ would undergo and the glories which would come after them.

1 Peter 1:12 And it was made clear to those prophets that they were God’s servants not for themselves but for you, to give you word of the things which have now come to your ears from the preachers of the good news through the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; things which even angels have a desire to see.

1 Peter 1:13 So make your minds ready, and keep on the watch, hoping with all your power for the grace which is to come to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

1 Peter 1:14 Like children ruled by God, do not go back to the old desires of the time when you were without knowledge:

1 Peter 1:15 But be holy in every detail of your lives, as he, whose servants you are, is holy;

1 Peter 1:16 Because it has been said in the Writings, You are to be holy, for I am holy.

1 Peter 1:17 And if you give the name of Father to him who, judging every man by his acts, has no respect for a man’s position, then go in fear while you are on this earth:

1 Peter 1:18 Being conscious that you have been made free from that foolish way of life which was your heritage from your fathers, not through a payment of things like silver or gold which come to destruction,

1 Peter 1:19 But through holy blood, like that of a clean and unmarked lamb, even the blood of Christ:

1 Peter 1:20 Who was marked out by God before the making of the world, but was caused to be seen in these last times for you,

1 Peter 1:21 Who through him have faith in God who took him up again from the dead into glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.

1 Peter 1:22 And as you have made your souls clean, being ruled by what is true, and loving one another without deceit, see that your love is warm and from the heart:

1 Peter 1:23 Because you have had a new birth, not from the seed of man, but from eternal seed, through the word of a living and unchanging God.

1 Peter 1:24 For it is said, All flesh is like grass, and all its glory like the flower of the grass. The grass becomes dry and the flower dead:

1 Peter 1:25 But the word of the Lord is eternal. And this is the word of the good news which was given to you.

1 Peter 2:1 So putting away all wrongdoing, and all tricks and deceits and envies and evil talk,

1 Peter 2:2 Be full of desire for the true milk of the word, as babies at their mothers' breasts, so that you may go on to salvation;

1 Peter 2:3 If you have had a taste of the grace of the Lord:

1 Peter 2:4 To whom you come, as to a living stone, not honoured by men, but of great and special value to God;

1 Peter 2:5 You, as living stones, are being made into a house of the spirit, a holy order of priests, making those offerings of the spirit which are pleasing to God through Jesus Christ.

1 Peter 2:6 Because it is said in the Writings, See, I am placing a keystone in Zion, of great and special value; and the man who has faith in him will not be put to shame.

1 Peter 2:7 And the value is for you who have faith; but it is said for those without faith, The very stone which the builders put on one side, was made the chief stone of the building;

1 Peter 2:8 And, A stone of falling, a rock of trouble; the word is the cause of their fall, because they go against it, and this was the purpose of God.

1 Peter 2:9 But you are a special people, a holy nation, priests and kings, a people given up completely to God, so that you may make clear the virtues of him who took you out of the dark into the light of heaven.

1 Peter 2:10 In the past you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; then there was no mercy for you, but now mercy has been given to you.

1 Peter 2:11 My loved ones, I make this request with all my heart, that, as those for whom this world is a strange country, you will keep yourselves from the desires of the flesh which make war against the soul;

1 Peter 2:12 Being of good behaviour among the Gentiles; so that though they say now that you are evil-doers, they may see your good works and give glory to God when he comes to be their judge.

1 Peter 2:13 Keep all the laws of men because of the Lord; those of the king, who is over all,

1 Peter 2:14 And those of the rulers who are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers and for the praise of those who do well.

1 Peter 2:15 Because it is God's pleasure that foolish and narrow-minded men may be put to shame by your good behaviour:

1 Peter 2:16 As those who are free, not using your free position as a cover for wrongdoing, but living as the servants of God;

1 Peter 2:17 Have respect for all, loving the brothers, fearing God, honouring the king.

1 Peter 2:18 Servants, take orders from your masters with all respect; not only if they are good and gentle, but even if they are bad-humoured.

1 Peter 2:19 For it is a sign of grace if a man, desiring to do right in the eyes of God, undergoes pain as punishment for something which he has not done.

1 Peter 2:20 What credit is it if, when you have done evil, you take your punishment quietly? but if you are given punishment for doing right, and take it quietly, this is pleasing to God.

1 Peter 2:21 This is God's purpose for you: because Jesus himself underwent punishment for you, giving you an example, so that you might go in his footsteps:

1 Peter 2:22 Who did no evil, and there was no deceit in his mouth:

1 Peter 2:23 To sharp words he gave no sharp answer; when he was undergoing pain, no angry word came from his lips; but he put himself into the hands of the judge of righteousness:

1 Peter 2:24 He took our sins on himself, giving his body to be nailed on the tree, so that we, being dead to sin, might have a new life in righteousness, and by his wounds we have been made well.

1 Peter 2:25 Because, like sheep, you had gone out of the way; but now you have come back to him who keeps watch over your souls.

1 Peter 3:1 Wives, be ruled by your husbands; so that even if some of them give no attention to the word, their hearts may be changed by the behaviour of their wives,

1 Peter 3:2 When they see your holy behaviour in the fear of God.

1 Peter 3:3 Do not let your ornaments be those of the body such as dressing of the hair, or putting on of jewels of gold or fair clothing;

1 Peter 3:4 But let them be those of the unseen man of the heart, the ever-shining ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great price in the eyes of God.

1 Peter 3:5 And these were the ornaments of the holy women of the past, whose hope was in God, being ruled by their husbands:

1 Peter 3:6 As Sarah was ruled by Abraham, naming him lord; whose children you are if you do well, and are not put in fear by any danger.

1 Peter 3:7 And you husbands, give thought to your way of life with your wives, giving honour to the woman who is the feebler vessel, but who has an equal part in the heritage of the grace of life; so that you may not be kept from prayer.

1 Peter 3:8 Last of all, see that you are all in agreement; feeling for one another, loving one another like brothers, full of pity, without pride:

1 Peter 3:9 Not giving back evil for evil, or curse for curse, but in place of cursing, blessing; because this is the purpose of God for you that you may have a heritage of blessing.

1 Peter 3:10 For it is said, Let the man who has a love of life, desiring to see good days, keep his tongue from evil and his lips from words of deceit:

1 Peter 3:11 And let him be turned from evil and do good; searching for peace and going after it with all his heart.

1 Peter 3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the upright, and his ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.

1 Peter 3:13 Who will do you any damage if you keep your minds fixed on what is good?

1 Peter 3:14 But you are happy if you undergo pain because of righteousness; have no part in their fear and do not be troubled;

1 Peter 3:15 But give honour to Christ in your hearts as your Lord; and be ready at any time when you are questioned about the hope which is in you, to give an answer in the fear of the Lord and without pride;

1 Peter 3:16 Being conscious that you have done no wrong; so that those who say evil things about your good way of life as Christians may be put to shame.

1 Peter 3:17 Because if it is God's purpose for you to undergo pain, it is better to do so for well-doing than for evil-doing.

1 Peter 3:18 Because Christ once went through pain for sins, the upright one taking the place of sinners, so that through him we might come back to God; being put to death in the flesh, but given life in the Spirit;

1 Peter 3:19 By whom he went to the spirits in prison, preaching to those

1 Peter 3:20 Who, in the days of Noah, went against God’s orders; but God in his mercy kept back the punishment, while Noah got ready the ark, in which a small number, that is to say eight persons, got salvation through water:

1 Peter 3:21 And baptism, of which this is an image, now gives you salvation, not by washing clean the flesh, but by making you free from the sense of sin before God, through the coming again of Jesus Christ from the dead;

1 Peter 3:22 Who has gone into heaven, and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers having been put under his rule.

1 Peter 4:1 So that as Jesus was put to death in the flesh, do you yourselves be of the same mind; for the death of the flesh puts an end to sin;

1 Peter 4:2 So that you may give the rest of your lives in the flesh, not to the desires of men, but to the purpose of God.

1 Peter 4:3 Because for long enough, in times past, we have been living after the way of the Gentiles, given up to the desires of the flesh, to drinking and feasting and loose behaviour and unclean worship of images;

1 Peter 4:4 And they are wondering that you no longer go with them in this violent wasting of life, and are saying evil things of you:

1 Peter 4:5 But they will have to give an account of themselves to him who is ready to be the judge of the living and the dead.

1 Peter 4:6 For this was the reason why the good news of Jesus was given even to the dead, so that they might be judged as men in the flesh, but might be living before God in the spirit.

1 Peter 4:7 But the end of all things is near: so be serious in your behaviour and keep on the watch with prayer;

1 Peter 4:8 And most of all be warm in your love for one another; because in love there is forgiveness for sins without number:

1 Peter 4:9 Keep open house for all with a glad heart;

1 Peter 4:10 Making distribution among one another of whatever has been given to you, like true servants of the unmeasured grace of God;

1 Peter 4:11 If anyone has anything to say, let it be as the words of God; if anyone has the desire to be the servant of others, let him do it in the strength which is given by God; so that in all things God may have the glory through Jesus Christ, whose are the glory and the power for ever.

1 Peter 4:12 Dear brothers, do not be surprised, as if it was something strange, if your faith is tested as by fire:

1 Peter 4:13 But be glad that you are given a part in the pains of Christ; so that at the revelation of his glory you may have great joy.

1 Peter 4:14 If men say evil things of you because of the name of Christ, happy are you; for the Spirit of glory and of God is resting on you.

1 Peter 4:15 Let no one among you undergo punishment as a taker of life, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as one who is over-interested in other men's business;

1 Peter 4:16 But if he undergoes punishment as a Christian, that is no shame to him; let him give glory to God in this name.

1 Peter 4:17 For the time has come for the judging, starting with the church of God; but if it makes a start with us, what will be the end of those who are not under the rule of God?

1 Peter 4:18 And if it is hard for even the good man to get salvation, what chance has the man without religion or the sinner?

1 Peter 4:19 For this reason let those who by the purpose of God undergo punishment, keep on in well-doing and put their souls into the safe hands of their Maker.

1 Peter 5:1 I who am myself one of the rulers of the church, and a witness of the death of Christ, having my part in the coming glory, send this serious request to the chief men among you:

1 Peter 5:2 Keep watch over the flock of God which is in your care, using your authority, not as forced to do so, but gladly; and not for unclean profit but with a ready mind;

1 Peter 5:3 Not as lords over God's heritage, but making yourselves examples to the flock.

1 Peter 5:4 And at the coming of the chief Keeper of the sheep, you will be given the eternal crown of glory.

1 Peter 5:5 And in the same way, let the younger men be ruled by the older ones. Let all of you put away pride and make yourselves ready to be servants: for God is a hater of pride, but he gives grace to those who make themselves low.

1 Peter 5:6 For this cause make yourselves low under the strong hand of God, so that when the time comes you may be lifted up;

1 Peter 5:7 Putting all your troubles on him, for he takes care of you.

1 Peter 5:8 Be serious and keep watch; the Evil One, who is against you, goes about like a lion with open mouth in search of food;

1 Peter 5:9 Do not give way to him but be strong in your faith, in the knowledge that your brothers who are in the world undergo the same troubles.

1 Peter 5:10 And after you have undergone pain for a little time, the God of all grace who has given you a part in his eternal glory through Christ Jesus, will himself give you strength and support, and make you complete in every good thing;

1 Peter 5:11 His is the power for ever. So be it.

1 Peter 5:12 I have sent you this short letter by Silvanus, a true brother, in my opinion; comforting you and witnessing that this is the true grace of God; keep to it.

1 Peter 5:13 She who is in Babylon, who has a part with you in the purpose of God, sends you her love; and so does my son Mark.

1 Peter 5:14 Give one another the kiss of love. Peace be to you all in Christ.

2 Peter

1:1 Simon Peter, a servant and Apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who with us have a part in the same holy faith in the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:

2 Peter 1:2 May grace and peace ever be increasing in you, in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;

2 Peter 1:3 Because by his power he has given us everything necessary for life and righteousness, through the knowledge of him who has been our guide by his glory and virtue;

2 Peter 1:4 And through this he has given us the hope of great rewards highly to be valued; so that by them we might have our part in God’s being, and be made free from the destruction which is in the world through the desires of the flesh.

2 Peter 1:5 So, for this very cause, take every care; joining virtue to faith, and knowledge to virtue,

2 Peter 1:6 And self-control to knowledge, and a quiet mind to self-control, and fear of God to a quiet mind,

2 Peter 1:7 And love of the brothers to fear of God, and to love of the brothers, love itself.

2 Peter 1:8 For if you have these things in good measure, they will make you fertile and full of fruit in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:9 For the man who has not these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having no memory of how he was made clean from his old sins.

2 Peter 1:10 For this reason, my brothers, take all the more care to make your selection and approval certain; for if you do these things you will never have a fall:

2 Peter 1:11 For so the way will be open to you into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2 Peter 1:12 For this reason I will be ready at all times to keep your memory of these things awake, though you have the knowledge of them now and are well based in your present faith.

2 Peter 1:13 And it seems right to me, as long as I am in this tent of flesh, to keep your minds awake by working on your memory;

2 Peter 1:14 For I am conscious that in a short time I will have to put off this tent of flesh, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.

2 Peter 1:15 And I will take every care so that you may have a clear memory of these things after my death.

2 Peter 1:16 For when we gave you news of the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, our teaching was not based on stories put together by art, but we were eye-witnesses of his glory.

2 Peter 1:17 For God the Father gave him honour and glory, when such a voice came to him out of the great glory, saying, This is my dearly loved Son, with whom I am well pleased.

2 Peter 1:18 And this voice came from heaven even to our ears, when we were with him on the holy mountain.

2 Peter 1:19 And so the words of the prophets are made more certain; and it is well for you to give attention to them as to a light shining in a dark place, till the dawn comes and the morning star is seen in your hearts;

2 Peter 1:20 Being conscious in the first place that no man by himself may give a special sense to the words of the prophets.

2 Peter 1:21 For these words did not ever come through the impulse of men: but the prophets had them from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.

2 Peter 2:1 But there were false prophets among the people, as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly put forward wrong teachings for your destruction, even turning away from the Lord who gave himself for them; whose destruction will come quickly, and they themselves will be the cause of it.

2 Peter 2:2 And a great number will go with them in their evil ways, through whom the true way will have a bad name.

2 Peter 2:3 And in their desire for profit they will come to you with words of deceit, like traders doing business in souls: whose punishment has been ready for a long time and their destruction is watching for them.

2 Peter 2:4 For if God did not have pity for the angels who did evil, but sent them down into hell, to be kept in chains of eternal night till they were judged;

2 Peter 2:5 And did not have mercy on the world which then was, but only kept safe Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when he let loose the waters over the world of the evil-doers;

2 Peter 2:6 And sent destruction on Sodom and Gomorrah, burning them up with fire as an example to those whose way of life might in the future be unpleasing to him;

2 Peter 2:7 And kept safe Lot, the upright man, who was deeply troubled by the unclean life of the evil-doers

2 Peter 2:8 (Because the soul of that upright man living among them was pained from day to day by seeing and hearing their crimes):

2 Peter 2:9 The Lord is able to keep the upright safe in the time of testing, and to keep evil-doers under punishment till the day of judging;

2 Peter 2:10 But specially those who go after the unclean desires of the flesh, and make sport of authority. Ready to take chances, uncontrolled, they have no fear of saying evil of those in high places:

2 Peter 2:11 Though the angels, who are greater in strength and power, do not make use of violent language against them before the Lord.

2 Peter 2:12 But these men, like beasts without reason, whose natural use is to be taken and put to death, crying out against things of which they have no knowledge, will undergo that same destruction which they are designing for others;

2 Peter 2:13 For the evil which overtakes them is the reward of their evil-doing: such men take their pleasure in the delights of the flesh even in the daytime; they are like the marks of a disease, like poisoned wounds among you, feasting together with you in joy;

2 Peter 2:14 Having eyes full of evil desire, never having enough of sin; turning feeble souls out of the true way; they are children of cursing, whose hearts are well used to bitter envy;

2 Peter 2:15 Turning out of the true way, they have gone wandering in error, after the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who was pleased to take payment for wrongdoing;

2 Peter 2:16 But his wrongdoing was pointed out to him: an ass, talking with a man’s voice, put a stop to the error of the prophet.

2 Peter 2:17 These are fountains without water, and mists before a driving storm; for whom the eternal night is kept in store.

2 Peter 2:18 For with high-sounding false words, making use of the attraction of unclean desires of the flesh, they get into their power those newly made free from those who are living in error;

2 Peter 2:19 Saying that they will be free, while they themselves are the servants of destruction; because whatever gets the better of a man makes a servant of him.

2 Peter 2:20 For if, after they have got free from the unclean things of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again taken in the net and overcome, their last condition is worse than their first.

2 Peter 2:21 For it would have been better for them to have had no knowledge of the way of righteousness, than to go back again from the holy law which was given to them, after having knowledge of it.

2 Peter 2:22 They are an example of that true saying, The dog has gone back to the food it had put out, and the pig which had been washed to its rolling in the dirty earth.

2 Peter 3:1 My loved ones, this is now my second letter to you, and in this as in the first, I am attempting to keep your true minds awake;

2 Peter 3:2 So that you may keep in mind the words of the holy prophets in the past, and the law of the Lord and Saviour which was given to you by his Apostles.

2 Peter 3:3 Having first of all the knowledge that in the last days there will be men who, ruled by their evil desires, will make sport of holy things,

2 Peter 3:4 Saying, Where is the hope of his coming? From the death of the fathers till now everything has gone on as it was from the making of the world.

2 Peter 3:5 But in taking this view they put out of their minds the memory that in the old days there was a heaven, and an earth lifted out of the water and circled by water, by the word of God;

2 Peter 3:6 And that the world which then was came to an end through the overflowing of the waters.

2 Peter 3:7 But the present heaven and the present earth have been kept for destruction by fire, which is waiting for them on the day of the judging and destruction of evil men.

2 Peter 3:8 But, my loved ones, keep in mind this one thing, that with the Lord one day is the same as a thousand years, and a thousand years are no more than one day.

2 Peter 3:9 The Lord is not slow in keeping his word, as he seems to some, but he is waiting in mercy for you, not desiring the destruction of any, but that all may be turned from their evil ways.

2 Peter 3:10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief; and in that day the heavens will be rolled up with a great noise, and the substance of the earth will be changed by violent heat, and the world and everything in it will be burned up.

2 Peter 3:11 Seeing then that all these things are coming to such an end, what sort of persons is it right for you to be, in all holy behaviour and righteousness,

2 Peter 3:12 Looking for and truly desiring the coming of the day of God, when the heavens will come to an end through fire, and the substance of the earth will be changed by the great heat?

2 Peter 3:13 But having faith in his word, we are looking for a new heaven and a new earth, which will be the resting-place of righteousness.

2 Peter 3:14 For this reason, my loved ones, as you are looking for these things, take great care that when he comes you may be in peace before him, free from sin and every evil thing.

2 Peter 3:15 And be certain that the long waiting of the Lord is for salvation; even as our brother Paul has said in his letters to you, from the wisdom which was given to him;

2 Peter 3:16 And as he said in all his letters, which had to do with these things; in which are some hard sayings, so that, like the rest of the holy Writings, they are twisted by those who are uncertain and without knowledge, to the destruction of their souls.

2 Peter 3:17 For this reason, my loved ones, having knowledge of these things before they take place, take care that you are not turned away by the error of the uncontrolled, so falling from your true faith.

2 Peter 3:18 But be increased in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. May he have glory now and for ever. So be it.

1John

1:1 That which was from the first, which has come to our ears, and which we have seen with our eyes, looking on it and touching it with our hands, about the Word of life

1 John 1:2 (And the life was made clear to us, and we have seen it and are witnessing to it and giving you word of that eternal life which was with the Father and was seen by us);

1 John 1:3 We give you word of all we have seen and everything which has come to our ears, so that you may be united with us; and we are united with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ:

1 John 1:4 And we are writing these things to you so that our joy may be made complete.

1 John 1:5 This is the word which came to us from him and which we give to you, that God is light and in him there is nothing dark.

1 John 1:6 If we say we are joined to him, and are walking still in the dark, our words are false and our acts are untrue:

1 John 1:7 But if we are walking in the light, as he is in the light, we are all united with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son makes us clean from all sin.

1 John 1:8 If we say that we have no sin, we are false to ourselves and there is nothing true in us.

1 John 1:9 If we say openly that we have done wrong, he is upright and true to his word, giving us forgiveness of sins and making us clean from all evil.

1 John 1:10 If we say that we have no sin, we make him false and his word is not in us.

1 John 2:1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may be without sin. And if any man is a sinner, we have a friend and helper with the Father, Jesus Christ, the upright one:

1 John 2:2 He is the offering for our sins; and not for ours only, but for all the world.

1 John 2:3 And by this we may be certain that we have knowledge of him, if we keep his laws.

1 John 2:4 The man who says, I have knowledge of him, and does not keep his laws, is false, and there is nothing true in him:

1 John 2:5 But in every man who keeps his word, the love of God is made complete. By this we may be certain that we are in him:

1 John 2:6 He who says that he is living in him, will do as he did.

1 John 2:7 My loved ones, I do not give you a new law, but an old law which you had from the first; this old law is the word which came to your ears.

1 John 2:8 Again, I give you a new law, which is true in him and in you; for the night is near its end and the true light is even now shining out.

1 John 2:9 He who says that he is in the light, and has hate in his heart for his brother, is still in the dark.

1 John 2:10 He who has love for his brother is in the light, and there is no cause of error in him.

1 John 2:11 But he who has hate for his brother is in the dark, walking in the dark with no knowledge of where he is going, unable to see because of the dark.

1 John 2:12 I am writing to you, my children, because you have forgiveness of sins through his name.

1 John 2:13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have knowledge of him who was from the first. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the Evil One. I have sent a letter to you, children, because you have knowledge of the Father.

1 John 2:14 I have sent a letter to you, fathers, because you have knowledge of him who was from the first. I have sent a letter to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God is in you, and because you have overcome the Evil One.

1 John 2:15 Have no love for the world or for the things which are in the world. If any man has love for the world, the love of the Father is not in him.

1 John 2:16 Because everything in the world, the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father but of the world.

1 John 2:17 And the world and its desires is coming to an end: but he who does God's pleasure is living for ever.

1 John 2:18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you were given word that the Antichrist would come, so now a number of Antichrists have come to you; and by this we are certain that it is the last hour.

1 John 2:19 They went out from us but they were not of us; if they had been of us they would still be with us: but they went out from us so that it might be made clear that they were not of us.

1 John 2:20 And you have the Spirit from the Holy One and you all have knowledge.

1 John 2:21 I have not sent you this letter because you have no knowledge of what is true, but because you have knowledge, and because that which is false has nothing in common with that which is true.

1 John 2:22 Who is false but he who says that Jesus is not the Christ? He is the Antichrist who has no belief in the Father or the Son.

1 John 2:23 He who has no belief in the Son has not the Father: he who makes clear his belief in the Son has the Father.

1 John 2:24 But as for you, keep in your hearts the things which were made clear to you from the first. If you keep these things in your hearts you will be kept in the Father and the Son.

1 John 2:25 And this is the hope which he gave you, even eternal life.

1 John 2:26 I am writing these things to you about those whose purpose is that you may be turned out of the true way.

1 John 2:27 As for you, the Spirit which he gave you is still in you, and you have no need of any teacher; but as his Spirit gives you teaching about all things, and is true and not false, so keep your hearts in him, through the teaching which he has given you.

1 John 2:28 And now, my children, keep your hearts in him; so that at his revelation, we may have no fear or shame before him at his coming.

1 John 2:29 If you have knowledge that he is upright, it is clear to you that everyone who does righteousness is his offspring.

1 John 3:1 See what great love the Father has given us in naming us the children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not see who we are, because it did not see who he was.

1 John 3:2 My loved ones, now we are children of God, and at present it is not clear what we are to be. We are certain that at his revelation we will be like him; for we will see him as he is.

1 John 3:3 And everyone who has this hope in him makes himself holy, even as he is holy.

1 John 3:4 Everyone who is a sinner goes against the law, for sin is going against the law.

1 John 3:5 And you have knowledge that he came to take away sin: and in him there is no sin.

1 John 3:6 Anyone who is in him does no sin; anyone who is a sinner has not seen him and has no knowledge of him.

1 John 3:7 My little children, let no man take you out of the true way: he who does righteousness is upright, even as he is upright;

1 John 3:8 The sinner is a child of the Evil One; for the Evil One has been a sinner from the first. And the Son of God was seen on earth so that he might put an end to the works of the Evil One.

1 John 3:9 Anyone who is a child of God does no sin, because he still has God’s seed in him; he is not able to be a sinner, because God is his Father.

1 John 3:10 In this way it is clear who are the children of God and who are the children of the Evil One; anyone who does not do righteousness or who has no love for his brother, is not a child of God.

1 John 3:11 Because this is the word which was given to you from the first, that we are to have love for one another;

1 John 3:12 Not being of the Evil One like Cain, who put his brother to death. And why did he put him to death? Because his works were evil and his brother’s works were good.

1 John 3:13 Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world has no love for you.

1 John 3:14 We are conscious that we have come out of death into life because of our love for the brothers. He who has no love is still in death.

1 John 3:15 Anyone who has hate for his brother is a taker of life, and you may be certain that no taker of life has eternal life in him.

1 John 3:16 In this we see what love is, because he gave his life for us; and it is right for us to give our lives for the brothers.

1 John 3:17 But if a man has this world’s goods, and sees that his brother is in need, and keeps his heart shut against his brother, how is it possible for the love of God to be in him?

1 John 3:18 My little children, do not let our love be in word and in tongue, but let it be in act and in good faith.

1 John 3:19 In this way we may be certain that we are true, and may give our heart comfort before him,

1 John 3:20 When our heart says that we have done wrong; because God is greater than our heart, and has knowledge of all things.

1 John 3:21 My loved ones, if our heart does not say that we have done wrong, we have no fear before him;

1 John 3:22 And he gives us all our requests, because we keep his laws and do the things which are pleasing in his eyes.

1 John 3:23 And this is his law, that we have faith in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love for one another, even as he said to us.

1 John 3:24 He who keeps his laws is in God and God is in him. And the Spirit which he gave us is our witness that he is in us.

1 John 4:1 My loved ones, do not put your faith in every spirit, but put them to the test, to see if they are from God: because a great number of false prophets have gone out into the world.

1 John 4:2 By this you may have knowledge of the Spirit of God: every spirit which says that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God:

1 John 4:3 And every spirit which does not say this is not from God: this is the spirit of Antichrist, of which you have had word; and it is in the world even now.

1 John 4:4 You are of God, my little children, and you have overcome them because he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.

1 John 4:5 They are of the world, so their talk is the world's talk, and the world gives ear to them.

1 John 4:6 We are of God: he who has the knowledge of God gives ear to us; he who is not of God does not give ear to us. By this we may see which is the true spirit, and which is the spirit of error.

1 John 4:7 My loved ones, let us have love for one another: because love is of God, and everyone who has love is a child of God and has knowledge of God.

1 John 4:8 He who has no love has no knowledge of God, because God is love.

1 John 4:9 And the love of God was made clear to us when he sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him.

1 John 4:10 And this is love, not that we had love for God, but that he had love for us, and sent his Son to be an offering for our sins.

1 John 4:11 My loved ones, if God had such love for us, it is right for us to have love for one another.

1 John 4:12 No man has ever seen God: if we have love for one another, God is in us and his love is made complete in us:

1 John 4:13 And his Spirit which he has given us is the witness that we are in him and he is in us.

1 John 4:14 And we have seen and give witness that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.

1 John 4:15 Everyone who says openly that Jesus is the Son of God, has God in him and is in God.

1 John 4:16 And we have seen and had faith in the love which God has for us. God is love, and everyone who has love is in God, and God is in him.

1 John 4:17 In this way love is made complete in us, so that we may be without fear on the day of judging, because as he is, so are we in this world.

1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love: true love has no room for fear, because where fear is, there is pain; and he who is not free from fear is not complete in love.

1 John 4:19 We have the power of loving, because he first had love for us.

1 John 4:20 If a man says, I have love for God, and has hate for his brother, his words are false: for how is the man who has no love for his brother whom he has seen, able to have love for God whom he has not seen?

1 John 4:21 And this is the word which we have from him, that he who has love for God is to have the same love for his brother.

1 John 5:1 Everyone who has faith that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God: and everyone who has love for the Father has love for his child.

1 John 5:2 In this way, we are certain that we have love for the children of God, when we have love for God and keep his laws.

1 John 5:3 For loving God is keeping his laws: and his laws are not hard.

1 John 5:4 Anything which comes from God is able to overcome the world: and the power by which we have overcome the world is our faith.

1 John 5:5 Who is able to overcome the world but the man who has faith that Jesus is the Son of God?

1 John 5:6 This is he who came by water and by blood, Jesus Christ; not by water only but by water and by blood.

1 John 5:7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is true.

1 John 5:8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood: and all three are in agreement.

1 John 5:9 If we take the witness of men to be true, the witness of God is greater: because this is the witness which God has given about his Son.

1 John 5:10 He who has faith in the Son of God has the witness in himself: he who has not faith in God makes him false, because he has not faith in the witness which God has given about his Son.

1 John 5:11 And his witness is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

1 John 5:12 He who has the Son has the life; he who has not the Son of God has not the life.

1 John 5:13 I have put these things in writing for you who have faith in the name of the Son of God, so that you may be certain that you have eternal life.

1 John 5:14 And we are certain that if we make any request to him which is right in his eyes, he will give ear to us:

1 John 5:15 And if we are certain that he gives ear to all our requests, we are equally certain that we will get our requests.

1 John 5:16 If a man sees his brother doing a sin which is not bad enough for death, let him make a prayer to God, and God will give life to him whose sin was not bad enough for death. There is a sin whose punishment is death: I do not say that he may make such a request then.

1 John 5:17 All evil-doing is sin: but death is not the punishment for every sort of sin.

1 John 5:18 We are certain that one who is a child of God will do no sin, but the Son of God keeps him so that he is not touched by the Evil One.

1 John 5:19 We are certain that we are of God, but all the world is in the power of the Evil One.

1 John 5:20 And we are certain that the Son of God has come, and has given us a clear vision, so that we may see him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.

1 John 5:21 My little children, keep yourselves from false gods.

2 John

1:1 I, a ruler in the church, send word to the noble sister who is of God’s selection, and to her children, for whom I have true love; and not only I, but all who have knowledge of what is true;

2 John 1:2 Because of this true knowledge which is in us, and will be with us for ever:

2 John 1:3 May grace, mercy, and peace be with us from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in all true love.

2 John 1:4 It gave me great joy to see some of your children walking in the true way, even as we were ordered to do by the Father.

2 John 1:5 And now, my sister, I make a request to you, not sending you a new law, but the law which we had from the first, that we have love for one another.

2 John 1:6 And love is the keeping of his laws. This is the law which was given to you from the first, so that you might keep it.

2 John 1:7 Because a number of false teachers have gone out into the world, who do not give witness that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. Such a one is a false teacher and Antichrist.

2 John 1:8 Keep watch over yourselves, so that you do not make our work of no effect, but may get your full reward.

2 John 1:9 Anyone who goes on and does not keep to the teaching of Christ, has not God: he who keeps to the teaching has the Father and the Son.

2 John 1:10 If anyone comes to you not having this teaching, do not take him into your house or give him words of love:

2 John 1:11 For he who gives him words of love has a part in his evil works.

2 John 1:12 Having much to say to you, it is not my purpose to put it all down with paper and ink: but I am hoping to come to you, and to have talk with you face to face, so that your joy may be full.

2 John 1:13 The children of your noble sister, who is of God’s selection, send you their love.

3 John

1:1 I, a ruler in the church, send word to the well loved Gaius, for whom I have true love.

3 John 1:2 My loved one, it is my prayer that you may do well in all things, and be healthy in body, even as your soul does well.

3 John 1:3 For it gave me great joy when some of the brothers came and gave witness that you had the true faith and were walking in the true way.

3 John 1:4 I have no greater joy than to have news that my children are walking in the true way.

3 John 1:5 My loved one, you are doing a good work in being kind to those brothers who come from other places;

3 John 1:6 Who have given witness to the church of your love for them: and you will do well to send them on their way well cared for, as is right for servants of God:

3 John 1:7 For they went out for love of the Name, taking nothing from the Gentiles.

3 John 1:8 So it is right for us to take in such men as guests, so that we may take our part in the work of the true faith.

3 John 1:9 I sent a letter to the church, but Diotrephes, whose desire is ever to have the first place among them, will not have us there.

3 John 1:10 So if I come, I will keep in mind the things he does, talking against us with evil words: and as if this was not enough, he does not take the brothers into his house, and those who are ready to take them in, he keeps from doing so, putting them out of the church if they do.

3 John 1:11 My loved one, do not be copying what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God: he who does evil has not seen God.

3 John 1:12 Demetrius has the approval of all men and of what is true: and we give the same witness, and you are certain that our witness is true.

3 John 1:13 I had much to say to you, but it is not my purpose to put it all down with ink and pen:

3 John 1:14 But I am hoping to see you in a short time, and to have talk with you face to face. May you have peace. Your friends here send you their love. Give my love to our friends by name.

Juda

1:1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and the brother of James, to those of God’s selection who have been made holy by God the Father and are kept safe for Jesus Christ:

Juda 1:2 May mercy and peace and love be increased in you.

Juda 1:3 My loved ones, while my thoughts were full of a letter which I was going to send you about our common salvation, it was necessary for me to send you one requesting you with all my heart to go on fighting strongly for the faith which has been given to the saints once and for ever.

Juda 1:4 For certain men have come among you secretly, marked out before in the holy Writings for this evil fate, men without the fear of God, turning his grace into an unclean thing, and false to our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:5 Now it is my purpose to put you in mind, though you once had knowledge of all these things, of how the Lord, having taken a people safely out of Egypt, later sent destruction on those who had no faith;

Juda 1:6 And the angels who did not keep to their kingdom but went out from the place which was theirs, he has put in eternal chains and in dark night till the great day of the judging.

Juda 1:7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the towns near them, having like these, given themselves up to unclean desires and gone after strange flesh, have been made an example, undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

Juda 1:8 In the same way these dreamers make the flesh unclean, having no respect for authorities, and say evil of rulers.

Juda 1:9 Now when Michael, one of the chief angels, was fighting against the Evil One for the body of Moses, fearing to make use of violent words against him, he only said, May the Lord be your judge.

Juda 1:10 But these men say evil about such things as they have no knowledge of; and the things of which they have natural knowledge, like beasts without reason, are the cause of their destruction.

Juda 1:11 A curse on them! They have gone in the way of Cain, running uncontrolled into the error of Balaam for reward, and have come to destruction by saying evil against the Lord, like Korah.

Juda 1:12 These men are unseen rocks at your love-feasts, when they take part in them with you, keepers of sheep who without fear take the food of the sheep; clouds without water rushing before the wind, wasted trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots,

Juda 1:13 Violent waves of the sea, streaming with their shame, wandering stars for whom the darkest night is kept in store for ever.

Juda 1:14 The prophet Enoch, who was the seventh after Adam, said of these men, The Lord came with tens of thousands of his saints,

Juda 1:15 To be the judge of all, and to give a decision against all those whose lives are unpleasing to him, because of the evil acts which they have done, and because of all the hard things which sinners without fear of God have said against him.

Juda 1:16 These are the men who make trouble, ever desiring change, going after evil pleasures, using high-sounding words, respecting men’s position in the hope of reward.

Juda 1:17 But you, my loved ones, keep in memory the words which were said before by the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,

Juda 1:18 How they said to you, In the last days there will be men who, guided by their evil desires, will make sport of holy things.

Juda 1:19 These are the men who make divisions, natural men, not having the Spirit.

Juda 1:20 But you, my loved ones, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, and making prayers in the Holy Spirit,

Juda 1:21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for life eternal through the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Juda 1:22 And have pity on those who are in doubt;

Juda 1:23 And to some give salvation, pulling them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, hating even the clothing which is made unclean by the flesh.

Juda 1:24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to give you a place in his glory, free from all evil, with great joy,

Juda 1:25 To the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, let us give glory and honour and authority and power, before all time and now and for ever. So be it.

Revelation

1:1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ which God gave him so that his servants might have knowledge of the things which will quickly take place: and he sent and made it clear by his angel to his servant John;

Revelation 1:2 Who gave witness of the word of God, and of the witness of Jesus Christ, even of all the things which he saw.

Revelation 1:3 A blessing be on the reader, and on those who give ear to the prophet’s words, and keep the things which he has put in the book: for the time is near.

Revelation 1:4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him who is and was and is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his high seat;

Revelation 1:5 And from Jesus Christ, the true witness, the first to come back from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who had love for us and has made us clean from our sins by his blood;

Revelation 1:6 And has made us to be a kingdom and priests to his God and Father; to him let glory and power be given for ever and ever. So be it.

Revelation 1:7 See, he comes with the clouds, and every eye will see him, and those by whom he was wounded; and all the tribes of the earth will be sorrowing because of him. Yes, so be it.

Revelation 1:8 I am the First and the Last, says the Lord God who is and was and is to come, the Ruler of all.

Revelation 1:9 I, John, your brother, who have a part with you in the trouble and the kingdom and the quiet strength of Jesus, was in the island which is named Patmos, for the word of God and the witness of Jesus.

Revelation 1:10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord’s day, and a great voice at my back, as of a horn, came to my ears,

Revelation 1:11 Saying, What you see, put in a book, and send it to the seven churches; to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamos and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea.

Revelation 1:12 And turning to see the voice which said these words to me, I saw seven gold vessels with lights burning in them;

Revelation 1:13 And in the middle of them one like a son of man, clothed with a robe down to his feet, and with a band of gold round his breasts.

Revelation 1:14 And his head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;

Revelation 1:15 And his feet like polished brass, as if it had been burned in a fire; and his voice was as the sound of great waters.

Revelation 1:16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword: and his face was like the sun shining in its strength.

Revelation 1:17 And when I saw him, I went down on my face at his feet as one dead. And he put his right hand on me, saying, Have no fear; I am the first and the last and the Living one;

Revelation 1:18 And I was dead, and see, I am living for ever, and I have the keys of death and of Hell.

Revelation 1:19 Put in writing, then, the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will be after these;

Revelation 1:20 The secret of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and of the seven gold vessels with burning lights. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven lights are the seven churches.

Revelation 2:1 To the angel of the church in Ephesus say: These things says he who has the seven stars in his right hand, who is walking in the middle of the seven gold lights:

Revelation 2:2 I have knowledge of your doings, and of your hard work and long waiting, and that you will not put up with evil men, and have put to the test those who say they are Apostles and are not, and have seen that they are false;

Revelation 2:3 And you have the power of waiting, and have undergone trouble because of my name, without weariness.

Revelation 2:4 But I have this against you, that you are turned away from your first love.

Revelation 2:5 So keep in mind where you were at first, and be changed in heart and do the first works; or I will come to you, and will take away your light from its place, if your hearts are not changed.

Revelation 2:6 But at least you have the credit of hating the works of the Nicolaitans, as I do.

Revelation 2:7 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give of the fruit of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.

Revelation 2:8 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna say: These things says the first and the last, who was dead and is living:

Revelation 2:9 I have knowledge of your troubles and how poor you are (but you have true wealth), and the evil words of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are a Synagogue of Satan.

Revelation 2:10 Have no fear of the things which you will have to undergo: see, the Evil One will send some of you into prison, so that you may be put to the test; and you will have great trouble for ten days. Be true till death, and I will give you the crown of life.

Revelation 2:11 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not come under the power of the second death.

Revelation 2:12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos say: These things says he who has the sharp two-edged sword:

Revelation 2:13 I have knowledge that your living-place is where Satan has his seat: and you are true to my name, and were not turned away from your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my true witness, who was put to death among you, where Satan has his place.

Revelation 2:14 But I have some things against you, because you have with you those who keep the teaching of Balaam, by whose suggestion Balak made the children of Israel go out of the right way, taking food which was offered to false gods, and going after the desires of the flesh.

Revelation 2:15 And you have those who keep the teaching of the Nicolaitans.

Revelation 2:16 See, then, that you have a change of heart; or I will come to you quickly, and will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.

Revelation 2:17 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give of the secret manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name, of which no one has knowledge but he to whom it is given.

Revelation 2:18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira say: These things says the Son of God, whose eyes are like a flame of fire, and his feet like polished brass:

Revelation 2:19 I have knowledge of your works, and your love and faith and help and strength in trouble, and that your last works are more than the first.

Revelation 2:20 But I have this against you, that you let the woman Jezebel say she is a prophet and give false teaching, making my servants go after the desires of the flesh and take food offered to false gods.

Revelation 2:21 And I gave her time for a change of heart, but she has no mind to give up her unclean ways.

Revelation 2:22 See, I will put her into a bed, and those who make themselves unclean with her, into great trouble, if they go on with her works.

Revelation 2:23 And I will put her children to death; and all the churches will see that I am he who makes search into the secret thoughts and hearts of men: and I will give to every one of you the reward of your works.

Revelation 2:24 But to you I say, to the rest in Thyatira, even to those who have not this teaching, and have no knowledge of the secrets of Satan, as they say; I put on you no other weight.

Revelation 2:25 But what you have, keep safe till I come.

Revelation 2:26 He who overcomes, and keeps my works to the end, to him I will give rule over the nations,

Revelation 2:27 And he will be ruling them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of the potter they will be broken, even as I have power from my Father:

Revelation 2:28 And I will give him the morning star.

Revelation 2:29 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:1 And to the angel of the church in Sardis say: These things says he who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I have knowledge of your works, that you seem to be living but are dead.

Revelation 3:2 Be on the watch, and make strong the rest of the things which are near to death; because as judged by me your works have not come up to God’s measure.

Revelation 3:3 Keep in mind, then, the teaching which was given to you, and be ruled by it and have a change of heart. If then you do not keep watch, I will come like a thief, and you will have no knowledge of the hour when I will come on you.

Revelation 3:4 But you have some names in Sardis who have kept clean their robes; and as a reward they will go in white with me.

Revelation 3:5 He who overcomes will be dressed in white, and I will not take his name from the book of life, and I will give witness to his name before my Father, and before his angels.

Revelation 3:6 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia say: These things says he who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, opening the door so that it may be shut by no one, and shutting it so that it may be open to no one.

Revelation 3:8 I have knowledge of your works (see, I have put before you an open door which may be shut by no one), and that you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and have been true to my name.

Revelation 3:9 See, I will make those of the Synagogue of Satan who say they are Jews, and are not, but say what is false; I will make them come and give worship before your feet, and see my love for you.

Revelation 3:10 Because you have kept my word in quiet strength, I will keep you from the hour of testing which is coming on all the world, to put to the test those who are on earth.

Revelation 3:11 I come quickly: keep that which you have, so that no one may take your crown.

Revelation 3:12 Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the house of my God, and he will go out no more: and I will put on him the name of my God, and the name of the town of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.

Revelation 3:13 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 3:14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea say: These things says the true and certain witness, the head of God’s new order:

Revelation 3:15 I have knowledge of your works, that you are not cold or warm: it would be better if you were cold or warm.

Revelation 3:16 So because you are not one thing or the other, I will have no more to do with you.

Revelation 3:17 For you say, I have wealth, and have got together goods and land, and have need of nothing; and you are not conscious of your sad and unhappy condition, that you are poor and blind and without clothing.

Revelation 3:18 If you are wise you will get from me gold tested by fire, so that you may have true wealth; and white robes to put on, so that your shame may not be seen; and oil for your eyes, so that you may see.

Revelation 3:19 To all those who are dear to me, I give sharp words and punishment: then with all your heart have sorrow for your evil ways.

Revelation 3:20 See, I am waiting at the door and giving the sign; if my voice comes to any man’s ears and he makes the door open, I will come in to him, and will take food with him and he with me.

Revelation 3:21 To him who overcomes I will give a place with me on my high seat, even as I overcame, and am seated with my Father on his high seat.

Revelation 3:22 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.

Revelation 4:1 After these things I saw a door open in heaven, and the first voice came to my ears, like the sound of a horn, saying, Come up here, and I will make clear to you the things which are to come.

Revelation 4:2 Straight away I was in the Spirit: and I saw a high seat in heaven, and one was seated on it;

Revelation 4:3 And to my eyes he was like a jasper and a sardius stone: and there was an arch of light round the high seat, like an emerald.

Revelation 4:4 And round about the high seat were four and twenty seats: and on them I saw four and twenty rulers seated, clothed in white robes; and on their heads crowns of gold.

Revelation 4:5 And out of the high seat came flames and voices and thunders. And seven lights of fire were burning before the high seat, which are the seven Spirits of God;

Revelation 4:6 And before the high seat there was, as it seemed, a clear sea of glass; and in the middle of the high seat, and round about it, four beasts full of eyes round about.

Revelation 4:7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second like an ox, and the third had a face like a man, and the fourth was like an eagle in flight.

Revelation 4:8 And the four beasts, having every one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and inside: and without resting day and night, they say, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God, Ruler of all, who was and is and is to come.

Revelation 4:9 And when the beasts give glory and honour to him who is seated on the high seat, to him who is living for ever and ever,

Revelation 4:10 The four and twenty rulers go down on their faces before him who is seated on the high seat, and give worship to him who is living for ever and ever, and take off their crowns before the high seat, saying,

Revelation 4:11 It is right, our Lord and our God, for you to have glory and honour and power: because by you were all things made, and by your desire they came into being.

Revelation 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the high seat, a book with writing inside it and on the back, shut with seven stamps of wax.

Revelation 5:2 And I saw a strong angel saying in a loud voice, Who is able to make the book open, and to undo its stamps?

Revelation 5:3 And no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to get the book open, or to see what was in it.

Revelation 5:4 And I was very sad, because there was no one able to get the book open or to see what was in it.

Revelation 5:5 And one of the rulers said to me, Do not be sad: see, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome, and has power to undo the book and its seven stamps.

Revelation 5:6 And I saw in the middle of the high seat and of the four beasts, and in the middle of the rulers, a Lamb in his place, which seemed as if it had been put to death, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.

Revelation 5:7 And he came and took it out of the right hand of him who was seated on the high seat.

Revelation 5:8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and the four and twenty rulers went down on their faces before the Lamb, having every one an instrument of music, and gold vessels full of perfumes, which are the prayers of the saints.

Revelation 5:9 And their voices are sounding in a new song, saying, It is right for you to take the book and to make it open: for you were put to death and have made an offering to God of your blood for men of every tribe, and language, and people, and nation,

Revelation 5:10 And have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they are ruling on the earth.

Revelation 5:11 And I saw, and there came to my ears the sound of a great number of angels round about the high seat and the beasts and the rulers; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;

Revelation 5:12 Saying with a great voice, It is right to give to the Lamb who was put to death, power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing.

Revelation 5:13 And to my ears came the voice of everything in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and of all things which are in them, saying, To him who is seated on the high seat, and to the Lamb, may blessing and honour and glory and power be given for ever and ever.

Revelation 5:14 And the four beasts said, So be it. And the rulers went down on their faces and gave worship.

Revelation 6:1 And I saw when the Lamb undid one of the stamps, and the voice of one of the four beasts came to my ears, saying as with a voice of thunder, Come and see.

Revelation 6:2 And I saw a white horse, and he who was seated on it had a bow; and there was given to him a crown: and he went out with power to overcome.

Revelation 6:3 And when the second stamp was undone, the voice of the second beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see.

Revelation 6:4 And another horse came out, a red horse; and it was given to him who was seated on it to take peace from the earth, so that people might put one another to death: and there was given to him a great sword.

Revelation 6:5 And when the third stamp was undone, the voice of the third beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see. And I saw a black horse; and he who was seated on it had scales in his hand.

Revelation 6:6 And a voice came to my ears, from the middle of the four beasts, saying, A measure of grain for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny: and see that you do no damage to the oil and the wine.

Revelation 6:7 And when the fourth stamp was undone, the voice of the fourth beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see.

Revelation 6:8 And I saw a grey horse, and the name of him who was seated on it was Death; and Hell came after him. And there was given to them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to put to destruction by the sword, and by taking away their food, and by death, and by the beasts of the earth.

Revelation 6:9 And when the fifth stamp was undone, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been put to death for the word of God, and for the witness which they kept.

Revelation 6:10 And they gave a great cry, saying, How long will it be, O Ruler, holy and true, before you take your place as judge and give punishment for our blood to those on the earth?

Revelation 6:11 And there was given to every one a white robe, and they were ordered to take their rest for a little time, till the number was complete of the other servants, their brothers, who would be put to death, even as they had been.

Revelation 6:12 And I saw when the sixth stamp was undone, and there was a great earth-shock; and the sun became black as haircloth, and all the moon became as blood;

Revelation 6:13 And the stars of heaven were falling to the earth, like green fruit from a tree before the force of a great wind.

Revelation 6:14 And the heaven was taken away like the roll of a book when it is rolled up; and all the mountains and islands were moved out of their places.

Revelation 6:15 And the kings of the earth, and the rulers, and the chief captains, and the men of wealth, and the strong, and every servant and free man, took cover in the holes and the rocks of the mountains;

Revelation 6:16 And they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Come down on us, covering us from the face of him who is seated on the high seat, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

Revelation 6:17 For the great day of their wrath is come, and who may keep his place?

Revelation 7:1 After this I saw four angels in their places at the four points of the earth, keeping back the four winds in their hands, so that there might be no moving of the wind on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.

Revelation 7:2 And I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the mark of the living God: and he said with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to do damage to the earth and the sea,

Revelation 7:3 Do no damage to the earth, or the sea, or the trees, till we have put a mark on the servants of our God.

Revelation 7:4 And there came to my ears the number of those who had the mark on their brows, a hundred and forty-four thousand, who were marked out of every tribe of the people of Israel.

Revelation 7:5 Of the tribe of Judah were marked twelve thousand: of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand: of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:

Revelation 7:6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand: of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand: of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand:

Revelation 7:7 Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand: of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand: of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:

Revelation 7:8 Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand: of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand: of the tribe of Benjamin were marked twelve thousand.

Revelation 7:9 After these things I saw a great army of people more than might be numbered, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and languages, taking their places before the high seat and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, and with branches in their hands,

Revelation 7:10 Saying with a loud voice, Salvation to our God who is seated on the high seat, and to the Lamb.

Revelation 7:11 And all the angels were round about the high seat, and about the rulers and the four beasts; and they went down on their faces before the high seat, and gave worship to God, saying,

Revelation 7:12 So be it. Let blessing and glory and wisdom and praise and honour and power and strength be given to our God for ever and ever. So be it.

Revelation 7:13 And one of the rulers made answer, saying to me, These who have on white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?

Revelation 7:14 And I said to him, My lord, you have knowledge. And he said to me, These are they who came through the great testing, and their robes have been washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb.

Revelation 7:15 This is why they are before the high seat of God; and they are his servants day and night in his house: and he who is seated on the high seat will be a tent over them.

Revelation 7:16 They will never be in need of food or drink: and they will never again be troubled by the burning heat of the sun:

Revelation 7:17 For the Lamb who is on the high seat will be their keeper and their guide to fountains of living water: and God will make glad their eyes for ever.

Revelation 8:1 And when the seventh stamp was undone there was quiet in heaven for about half an hour.

Revelation 8:2 And I saw the seven angels who had their place before God; and seven horns were given to them.

Revelation 8:3 And another angel came and took his place at the altar, having a gold vessel for burning perfume; and there was given to him much perfume, so that he might put it with the prayers of all the saints on the gold altar which was before the high seat.

Revelation 8:4 And the smoke of the perfume, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

Revelation 8:5 And the angel took the vessel; and he made it full of the fire of the altar, and sent it down on the earth: and there came thunders and voices and flames and a shaking of the earth.

Revelation 8:6 And the seven angels who had the seven horns made ready for sounding them.

Revelation 8:7 And at the sounding of the first, a rain of ice and fire, mixed with blood, was sent on the earth: and a third part of the earth, and of the trees, and all green grass was burned up.

Revelation 8:8 And at the sounding of the second angel, it was as if a great mountain burning with fire was sent into the sea: and a third part of the sea became blood, Revelation 8:9 And destruction came on a third part of the living things which were in the sea, and on a third part of the ships.

Revelation 8:10 And at the sounding of the third angel, there went down from heaven a great star, burning like a flame, and it came on a third part of the rivers, and on the fountains of water.

Revelation 8:11 And the name of the star is Wormwood: and a third part of the waters became bitter; and a number of men came to their end because of the waters, for they were made bitter.

Revelation 8:12 And at the sounding of the fourth angel, a third part of the sun, and of the moon, and of the stars was made dark, so that there was no light for a third part of the day and of the night.

Revelation 8:13 And there came to my ears the cry of an eagle in flight in the middle of heaven, saying with a great voice, Trouble, trouble, trouble, to all on the earth, because of the other voices of the horns of the three angels, whose sounding is still to come.

Revelation 9:1 And at the sounding of the fifth angel I saw a star falling from heaven to the earth: and there was given to him the key of the great deep.

Revelation 9:2 And he made the great deep open and a smoke went up from it, like the smoke of a great oven; and the sun and the air were made dark because of the smoke.

Revelation 9:3 And from the smoke locusts came out on the earth; and power was given them, like the power of scorpions.

Revelation 9:4 And they were ordered to do no damage to the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only to such men as have not the mark of God on their brows.

Revelation 9:5 And orders were given them not to put them to death, but to give them great pain for five months: and their pain was as the pain from the wound of a scorpion.

Revelation 9:6 And in those days men will be hoping for death, and it will not come to them; and they will have a great desire for death, and death will go in flight from them.

Revelation 9:7 And the forms of the locusts were like horses made ready for war; and on their heads they had crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.

Revelation 9:8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.

Revelation 9:9 And they had breastplates like iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of carriages, like an army of horses rushing to the fight.

Revelation 9:10 And they have pointed tails like scorpions; and in their tails is their power to give men wounds for five months.

Revelation 9:11 They have over them as king the angel of the great deep: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek language Apollyon.

Revelation 9:12 The first Trouble is past: see, there are still two Troubles to come.

Revelation 9:13 And at the sounding of the sixth angel a voice came to my ears from the horns of the gold altar which is before God,

Revelation 9:14 Saying to the sixth angel who had the horn, Make free the four angels who are chained at the great river Euphrates.

Revelation 9:15 And the four angels were made free, who were ready for the hour and day and month and year, that they might put to death a third part of men.

Revelation 9:16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: the number of them came to my ears.

Revelation 9:17 And so I saw the horses in the vision, and those who were seated on them, having breastplates of fire and glass and of burning stone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and a smell of burning.

Revelation 9:18 By these evils a third part of men was put to death, by the fire, and the smoke, and the burning smell which came out of their mouths.

Revelation 9:19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails: because their tails are like snakes, and have heads, and with them they give wounds.

Revelation 9:20 And the rest of the people, who were not put to death by these evils, were not turned from the works of their hands, but went on giving worship to evil spirits, and images of gold and silver and brass and stone and wood which have no power of seeing or hearing or walking:

Revelation 9:21 And they had no regret for putting men to death, or for their use of secret arts, or for the evil desires of the flesh, or for taking the property of others.

Revelation 10:1 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and an arch of coloured light was round his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;

Revelation 10:2 And he had in his hand a little open book: and he put his right foot on the sea, and his left on the earth;

Revelation 10:3 And he gave a loud cry, like the angry voice of a lion: and at his cry the voices of the seven thunders were sounding.

Revelation 10:4 And when the seven thunders had given out their voices, I was about to put their words down: and a voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Keep secret the things which the seven thunders said, and do not put them in writing.

Revelation 10:5 And the angel which I saw taking his position on the sea and on the earth, put up his right hand to heaven,

Revelation 10:6 And took his oath by him who is living for ever and ever, who made the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that there would be no more waiting:

Revelation 10:7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when the sound of his horn is about to come, then will the secret of God be complete, of which he gave the good news to his servants the prophets.

Revelation 10:8 And the voice came to me again from heaven, saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who has his place on the sea and on the earth.

Revelation 10:9 And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me: Put it in your mouth; and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.

Revelation 10:10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and did as he said; and it was sweet as honey in my mouth: and when I had taken it, my stomach was made bitter.

Revelation 10:11 And they said to me, You are to give word again of what is coming in the future to the peoples and nations and languages and kings.

Revelation 11:1 And there was given to me a measuring rod: and one said, Go up and take the measure of the house of God, and the altar, and the worshippers in it.

Revelation 11:2 But do not take the measure of the space outside the house; because it has been given to the nations: and the holy town will be under their feet for forty-two months.

Revelation 11:3 And I will give orders to my two witnesses, and they will be prophets for a thousand, two hundred and sixty days, clothed with haircloth.

Revelation 11:4 These are the two olive-trees and the two lights, which are before the Lord of the earth.

Revelation 11:5 And if any man would do them damage, fire comes out of their mouth and puts an end to those who are working against them: and if any man has a desire to do them damage, in this way will he be put to death.

Revelation 11:6 These have the power to keep the heaven shut, so that there may be no rain in the days when they are prophets: and they have power over the waters to make them into blood, and to send every sort of disease on the earth as their pleasure is.

Revelation 11:7 And when they have come to the end of their witness, the beast which comes up out of the great deep will make war on them and overcome them and put them to death.

Revelation 11:8 And their dead bodies will be in the open street of the great town, which in the spirit is named Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was put to death on the cross.

Revelation 11:9 And the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will be looking on their dead bodies three days and a half, and will not let their dead bodies be put in the earth.

Revelation 11:10 And those who are on the earth will have pleasure and delight over them; and they will send offerings one to another because these two prophets gave great trouble to all on the earth.

Revelation 11:11 And after three days and a half the breath of life from God went into them, and they got up on their feet; and great fear came on those who saw them.

Revelation 11:12 And a great voice from heaven came to their ears, saying to them, Come up here. And they went up into heaven in the cloud, and were seen by those desiring their death.

Revelation 11:13 And in that hour there was a great earth-shock and a tenth part of the town came to destruction; and in the earth-shock seven thousand persons came to their end: and the rest were in fear, and gave glory to the God of heaven.

Revelation 11:14 The second Trouble is past: see, the third Trouble comes quickly.

Revelation 11:15 And at the sounding of the seventh angel there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he will have rule for ever and ever.

Revelation 11:16 And the four and twenty rulers, who are seated before God on their high seats, went down on their faces and gave worship to God, saying,

Revelation 11:17 We give you praise, O Lord God, Ruler of all, who is and who was; because you have taken up your great power and are ruling your kingdom.

Revelation 11:18 And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and the time of reward for your servants, the prophets, and for the saints, and for those in whom is the fear of your name, small and great, and the time of destruction for those who made the earth unclean.

Revelation 11:19 And the house of God which is in heaven was open; and the ark of his agreement was seen in his house, and there were flames and voices and thunders and an earth-shock and a rain of ice.

Revelation 12:1 And a great sign was seen in heaven: a A woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.

Revelation 12:2 And she was with child; and she gave a cry, in the pains of childbirth.

Revelation 12:3 And there was seen another sign in heaven; a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns.

Revelation 12:4 And his tail was pulling a third part of the stars of heaven down to the earth, and the dragon took his place before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when the birth had taken place he might put an end to her child.

Revelation 12:5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who was to have rule over all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was taken up to God and to his high seat.

Revelation 12:6 And the woman went in flight to the waste land, where she has a place made ready by God, so that there they may give her food a thousand, two hundred and sixty days.

Revelation 12:7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going out to the fight with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels made war,

Revelation 12:8 And they were overcome, and there was no more place for them in heaven.

Revelation 12:9 And the great dragon was forced down, the old snake, who is named the Evil One and Satan, by whom all the earth is turned from the right way; he was forced down to the earth, and his angels were forced down with him.

Revelation 12:10 And a great voice in heaven came to my ears, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: because he who says evil against our brothers before our God day and night is forced down.

Revelation 12:11 And they overcame him through the blood of the Lamb and the word of their witness; and loving not their lives they freely gave themselves up to death.

Revelation 12:12 Be glad then, O heavens, and you who are in them. But there is trouble for the earth and the sea: because the Evil One has come down to you, being very angry, having the knowledge that he has but a short time.

Revelation 12:13 And when the dragon saw that he was forced down to the earth, he made cruel attacks on the woman who gave birth to the male child.

Revelation 12:14 And there were given to the woman two wings of a great eagle, so that she might go in flight into the waste land, to her place, where she is given food for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the snake.

Revelation 12:15 And the snake sent out of his mouth after the woman a river of water, so that she might be taken away by the stream.

Revelation 12:16 And the earth gave help to the woman, and with open mouth took up the river which the dragon sent out of his mouth.

Revelation 12:17 And the dragon was angry with the woman and went away to make war on the rest of her seed, who keep the orders of God, and the witness of Jesus:

Revelation 13:1 And he took his place on the sand of the sea. And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads unholy names.

Revelation 13:2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power and his seat and great authority.

Revelation 13:3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had been given a death-wound; and his death-wound was made well: and all the earth was wondering at the beast.

Revelation 13:4 And they gave worship to the dragon, because he gave authority to the beast; and worshipping the beast, they said, Who is like the beast? and who is able to go to war with him?

Revelation 13:5 And there was given to him a mouth to say words of pride against God; and there was given to him authority to go on for forty-two months.

Revelation 13:6 And his mouth was open to say evil against God, and against his name and his Tent, even against those who are in heaven.

Revelation 13:7 And it was given to him to make war on the saints and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and language and nation.

Revelation 13:8 And all who are on the earth will give him worship, everyone whose name has not been from the first in the book of life of the Lamb who was put to death.

Revelation 13:9 If any man has ears, let him give ear.

Revelation 13:10 If any man sends others into prison, into prison he will go: if any man puts to death with the sword, with the sword will he be put to death. Here is the quiet strength and the faith of the saints.

Revelation 13:11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and his voice was like that of a dragon.

Revelation 13:12 And he makes use of all the authority of the first beast before his eyes. And he makes the earth and those who are in it give worship to the first beast, whose death-wound was made well.

Revelation 13:13 And he does great signs, even making fire come down from heaven on the earth before the eyes of men.

Revelation 13:14 And those who are on the earth are turned from the true way by him through the signs which he was given power to do before the beast; giving orders to those who are on the earth to make an image to the beast, who was wounded by the sword, and came to life.

Revelation 13:15 And he had power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that words might come from the image of the beast, and that he might have all those who did not give worship to the image of the beast put to death.

Revelation 13:16 And he gives to all, small and great, the poor and those who have wealth, the free and those who are not free, a mark on their right hand or on their brows;

Revelation 13:17 So that no man might be able to do trade but he who has the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name.

Revelation 13:18 Here is wisdom. He who has knowledge let him get the number of the beast; because it is the number of a man: and his number is Six hundred and sixty-six.

Revelation 14:1 And I saw the Lamb on the mountain of Zion, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand, marked on their brows with his name and the name of his Father.

Revelation 14:2 And a voice from heaven came to my ears, like the sound of great waters, and the sound of loud thunder: and the voice which came to me was like the sound of players, playing on instruments of music.

Revelation 14:3 And they made as it seemed a new song before the high seat, and before the four beasts and the rulers: and no man might have knowledge of the song but the hundred and forty-four thousand, even those from the earth whom God has made his for a price.

Revelation 14:4 These are they who have not made themselves unclean with women; for they are virgins. These are they who go after the Lamb wherever he goes. These were taken from among men to be the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.

Revelation 14:5 And in their mouth there was no false word, for they are untouched by evil.

Revelation 14:6 And I saw another angel in flight between heaven and earth, having eternal good news to give to those who are on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and language and people,

Revelation 14:7 Saying with a loud voice, Have fear of God and give him glory; because the hour of his judging is come; and give worship to him who made heaven and earth and the sea and the fountains of water.

Revelation 14:8 And a second angel came after, saying, Destruction has come to Babylon the great, which gave to all the nations the wine of the wrath of her evil ways.

Revelation 14:9 And a third angel came after them, saying with a loud voice, If any man gives worship to the beast and his image, and has his mark on his brow or on his hand,

Revelation 14:10 To him will be given of the wine of God’s wrath which is ready unmixed in the cup of his wrath and he will have cruel pain, burning with fire before the holy angels and before the Lamb:

Revelation 14:11 And the smoke of their pain goes up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, who give worship to the beast and his image, and have on them the mark of his name.

Revelation 14:12 Here is the quiet strength of the saints, who keep the orders of God, and the faith of Jesus.

Revelation 14:13 And a voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Put in writing, There is a blessing on the dead who from now on come to their end in the Lord: yes, says the Spirit, that they may have rest from their troubles; for their works go with them.

Revelation 14:14 And I saw a white cloud, and on the cloud I saw one seated, like a son of man, having on his head a crown of gold, and in his hand a sharp curved blade.

Revelation 14:15 And another angel came out from the house of God, crying with a loud voice to him who was seated on the cloud, Put in your blade, and let the grain be cut: because the hour for cutting it is come; for the grain of the earth is over-ready.

Revelation 14:16 And he who was seated on the cloud sent in his blade on the earth; and the grain of the earth was cut.

Revelation 14:17 And another angel came out from the house of God which is in heaven, having a sharp curved blade.

Revelation 14:18 And another angel came out from the altar, who has power over fire; and he gave a loud cry to him who had the sharp curved blade, saying, Put in your sharp blade, and let the grapes of the vine of the earth be cut; for her grapes are fully ready.

Revelation 14:19 And the angel sent his blade into the earth, and the vine of the earth was cut, and he put it into the great wine-crusher of the wrath of God.

Revelation 14:20 And the grapes were crushed under foot outside the town, and blood came out from them, even to the head-bands of the horses, two hundred miles.

Revelation 15:1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and strange; seven angels having the seven last punishments, for in them the wrath of God is complete.

Revelation 15:2 And I saw a sea which seemed like glass mixed with fire; and those who had overcome the beast and his image and the number of his name, were in their places by the sea of glass, with God’s instruments of music in their hands.

Revelation 15:3 And they give the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and full of wonder are your works, O Lord God, Ruler of all; true and full of righteousness are your ways, eternal King.

Revelation 15:4 What man is there who will not have fear before you, O Lord, and give glory to your name? because you only are holy; for all the nations will come and give worship before you; for your righteousness has been made clear.

Revelation 15:5 And after these things I saw, and the house of the Tent of witness in heaven was open:

Revelation 15:6 And the seven angels who had the seven punishments came out from the house of God, clothed with linen, clean and bright and with bands of gold about their breasts.

Revelation 15:7 And one of the four beasts gave to the seven angels seven gold vessels full of the wrath of God, who is living for ever and ever.

Revelation 15:8 And the house of God was full of smoke from the glory of God, and from his power, and no one was able to go into the house of God, till the seven punishments of the seven angels were ended.

Revelation 16:1 And a great voice out of the house of God came to my ears, saying to the seven angels, Go, and let that which is in the seven vessels of the wrath of God come down on the earth.

Revelation 16:2 And the first went, and let what was in his vessel come down on the earth; and it became an evil poisoning wound on the men who had the mark of the beast, and who gave worship to his image.

Revelation 16:3 And the second let what was in his vessel come out into the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living thing in the sea came to an end.

Revelation 16:4 And the third let what was in his vessel come out into the rivers and the fountains of water; and they became blood.

Revelation 16:5 And the voice of the angel of the waters came to my ears, saying, True and upright is your judging, O Holy One, who is and was from all time:

Revelation 16:6 For they made the blood of saints and prophets come out like a stream, and blood have you given them for drink; which is their right reward.

Revelation 16:7 And a voice came from the altar, saying, Even so, O Lord God, Ruler of all, true and full of righteousness is your judging.

Revelation 16:8 And the fourth let what was in his vessel come out on the sun; and power was given to it that men might be burned with fire.

Revelation 16:9 And men were burned with great heat: and they said evil things against the name of the God who has authority over these punishments; and they were not turned from their evil ways to give him glory.

Revelation 16:10 And the fifth let what was in his vessel come out on the high seat of the beast; and his kingdom was made dark; and they were biting their tongues for pain.

Revelation 16:11 And they said evil things against the God of heaven because of their pain and their wounds; and they were not turned from their evil works.

Revelation 16:12 And the sixth let what was in his vessel come out on the great river Euphrates; and it became dry, so that the way might be made ready for the kings from the east.

Revelation 16:13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, like frogs.

Revelation 16:14 For they are evil spirits, working signs; who go out even to the kings of all the earth, to get them together to the war of the great day of God, the Ruler of all.

Revelation 16:15 (See, I come as a thief. Happy is he who is watching and keeps his robes, so that he may not go unclothed, and his shame be seen.)

Revelation 16:16 And they got them together into the place which is named in Hebrew Armageddon.

Revelation 16:17 And the seventh let what was in his vessel come out on the air; and there came out a great voice from the house of God, from the high seat, saying, It is done.

Revelation 16:18 And there were flames and voices and thunders; and there was a great earth-shock so that never, from the time when men were on the earth, had there been so great an earth-shock, so full of power.

Revelation 16:19 And the great town was cut into three parts, and the towns of the nations came to destruction: and Babylon the great came into mind before God, to be given the cup of the wine of his wrath.

Revelation 16:20 And every island went in flight, and the mountains were seen no longer.

Revelation 16:21 And great drops of ice, every one about the weight of a talent, came down out of heaven on men: and men said evil things against God because of the punishment of the ice-drops; for it is very great.

Revelation 17:1 And one of the seven angels who had the seven vessels came and said to me, Come here, so that you may see the judging of the evil woman who is seated on the great waters;

Revelation 17:2 With whom the kings of the earth made themselves unclean, and those who are on the earth were full of the wine of her evil desires.

Revelation 17:3 And he took me away in the Spirit into a waste land: and I saw a woman seated on a bright red beast, full of evil names, having seven heads and ten horns, Revelation 17:4 And the woman was clothed in purple and bright red, with ornaments of gold and stones of great price and jewels; and in her hand was a gold cup full of evil things and her unclean desires;

Revelation 17:5 And on her brow was a name, SECRET, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE EVIL WOMEN AND OF THE UNCLEAN THINGS OF THE EARTH.

Revelation 17:6 And I saw the woman overcome as with the wine of the blood of the saints, and the blood of those put to death because of Jesus. And when I saw her, I was overcome with a great wonder.

Revelation 17:7 And the angel said to me, Why were you surprised? I will make clear to you the secret of the woman, and of the beast on which she is seated, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

Revelation 17:8 The beast which you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the great deep, and to go into destruction. And those who are on the earth, whose names have not been put in the book of life from the first, will be full of wonder when they see the beast, that he was, and is not, and still will be.

Revelation 17:9 Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman is seated:

Revelation 17:10 And they are seven kings; the five have come to an end, the one is, the other has not come; and when he comes, he will have to go on for a little time.

Revelation 17:11 And the beast which was, and is not, is himself the eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes into destruction.

Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which still have been given no kingdom; but they are given authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour.

Revelation 17:13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.

Revelation 17:14 These will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because he is the Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with him are named, marked out, and true.

Revelation 17:15 And he said to me, The waters which you saw, where the evil woman is seated, are peoples, and armies, and nations and languages.

Revelation 17:16 And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will be turned against the evil woman, and will make her waste and uncovered, and will take her flesh for food, and will have her burned with fire.

Revelation 17:17 Because God has put it in their hearts to do his purpose, and to be of one mind, giving their kingdom to the beast, till the words of God have effect and are complete.

Revelation 17:18 And the woman whom you saw is the great town, which is ruling over the kings of the earth.

Revelation 18:1 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was bright with his glory.

Revelation 18:2 And he gave a loud cry, saying, Babylon the great has come down from her high place, she has come to destruction and has become a place of evil spirits, and of every unclean spirit, and a hole for every unclean and hated bird.

Revelation 18:3 For through the wine of the wrath of her evil desires all the nations have come to destruction; and the kings of the earth made themselves unclean with her, and the traders of the earth had their wealth increased by the power of her evil ways.

Revelation 18:4 And another voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Come out of her, my people, so that you may have no part in her sins and in her punishments.

Revelation 18:5 For her sins have gone up even to heaven, and God has taken note of her evil-doing.

Revelation 18:6 Give to her as she gave, even an increased reward for her works; in the cup which was mixed by her, let there be mixed as much again for herself.

Revelation 18:7 As she gave glory to herself, and became more evil in her ways, in the same measure give her pain and weeping: for she says in her heart, I am seated here a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see sorrow.

Revelation 18:8 For this reason in one day will her troubles come, death and sorrow and need of food; and she will be completely burned with fire; for strong is the Lord God who is her judge.

Revelation 18:9 And the kings of the earth, who made themselves unclean with her, and in her company gave themselves up to evil, will be weeping and crying over her, when they see the smoke of her burning,

Revelation 18:10 Watching from far away, for fear of her punishment, saying, Sorrow, sorrow for Babylon, the great town, the strong town! for in one hour you have been judged.

Revelation 18:11 And the traders of the earth are weeping and crying over her, because no man has any more desire for their goods,

Revelation 18:12 Gold, and silver, and stones of great price, and jewels, and delicate linen, and robes of purple and silk and red; and perfumed wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of fair wood, and of brass, and iron, and stone;

Revelation 18:13 And sweet-smelling plants, and perfumes, and wine, and oil, and well crushed grain, and cattle and sheep; and horses and carriages and servants; and souls of men.

Revelation 18:14 And the fruit of your soul's desire has gone from you, and all things delicate and shining have come to an end and will never again be seen.

Revelation 18:15 The traders in these things, by which their wealth was increased, will be watching far off for fear of her punishment, weeping and crying;

Revelation 18:16 Saying, Sorrow, sorrow for the great town, she who was clothed in delicate linen, and purple, and red; with ornaments of gold and stones of great price and jewels!

Revelation 18:17 For in one hour such great wealth has come to nothing. And every shipmaster, and all who are sailing on the sea, and sailors and all who get their living by the sea, were watching from far away,

Revelation 18:18 And crying out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What town is like the great town?

Revelation 18:19 And they put dust on their heads, and were sad, weeping and crying, and saying, Sorrow, sorrow for the great town, in which was increased the wealth of all who had their ships on the sea because of her great stores! for in one hour she is made waste.

Revelation 18:20 Be glad over her, heaven, and you saints, and Apostles, and prophets; because she has been judged by God on your account.

Revelation 18:21 And a strong angel took up a stone like the great stone with which grain is crushed, and sent it into the sea, saying, So, with a great fall, will Babylon, the great town, come to destruction, and will not be seen any more at all.

Revelation 18:22 And the voice of players and makers of music will never again be sounding in you: and no worker, expert in art, will ever again be living in you; and there will be no sound of the crushing of grain any more at all in you;

Revelation 18:23 And never again will the shining of lights be seen in you; and the voice of the newly-married man and the bride will never again be sounding in you: for your traders were the lords of the earth, and by your evil powers were all the nations turned out of the right way.

Revelation 18:24 And in her was seen the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been put to death on the earth.

Revelation 19:1 After these things there came to my ears a sound like the voice of a great band of people in heaven, saying, Praise to the Lord; salvation and glory and power be to our God:

Revelation 19:2 For true and upright are his decisions; for by him has the evil woman been judged, who made the earth unclean with the sins of her body; and he has given her punishment for the blood of his servants.

Revelation 19:3 And again they said, Praise to the Lord. And her smoke went up for ever and ever.

Revelation 19:4 And the four and twenty rulers and the four beasts went down on their faces and gave worship to God who was seated on the high seat, saying, Even so, praise to the Lord.

Revelation 19:5 And a voice came from the high seat, saying, Give praise to our God, all you his servants, small and great, in whom is the fear of him.

Revelation 19:6 And there came to my ears the voice of a great army, like the sound of waters, and the sound of loud thunders, saying, Praise to the Lord: for the Lord our God, Ruler of all, is King.

Revelation 19:7 Let us be glad with delight, and let us give glory to him: because the time is come for the Lamb to be married, and his wife has made herself ready.

Revelation 19:8 And to her it was given to be clothed in delicate linen, clean and shining: for the clean linen is the righteousness of the saints.

Revelation 19:9 And he said to me, Put in the book, Happy are the guests at the bride-feast of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the true words of God.

Revelation 19:10 And I went on my face before his feet to give him worship. And he said to me, See you do it not: I am a brother-servant with you and with your brothers who keep the witness of Jesus: give worship to God: for the witness of Jesus is the spirit of the prophet's word.

Revelation 19:11 And the heaven was open; and I saw a white horse, and he who was seated on it was named Certain and True; and he is judging and making war in righteousness.

Revelation 19:12 And his eyes are a flame of fire, and crowns are on his head; and he has a name in writing, of which no man has knowledge but himself.

Revelation 19:13 And he is clothed in a robe washed with blood: and his name is The Word of God.

Revelation 19:14 And the armies which are in heaven went after him on white horses, clothed in delicate linen, white and clean.

Revelation 19:15 And out of his mouth comes a sharp sword, with which he overcomes the nations: and he has rule over them with a rod of iron: and he is crushing with his feet the grapes of the strong wrath of God the Ruler of all.

Revelation 19:16 And on his robe and on his leg is a name, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.

Revelation 19:17 And I saw an angel taking his place in the sun; and he was crying with a loud voice, saying to all the birds in flight in the heavens, Come together to the great feast of God;

Revelation 19:18 So that you may take for your food the flesh of kings, and of captains, and of strong men, and of horses and of those who are seated on them, and the flesh of all men, free and unfree, small and great.

Revelation 19:19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, come together to make war against him who was seated on the horse and against his army.

Revelation 19:20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who did the signs before him, by which they were turned from the true way who had the mark of the beast, and who gave worship to his image: these two were put living into the sea of ever-burning fire.

Revelation 19:21 And the rest were put to death with the sword of him who was on the horse, even the sword which came out of his mouth: and all the birds were made full with their flesh.

Revelation 20:1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the great deep and a great chain in his hand.

Revelation 20:2 And he took the dragon, the old snake, which is the Evil One and Satan, and put chains on him for a thousand years,

Revelation 20:3 And put him into the great deep, and it was shut and locked over him, so that he might put the nations in error no longer, till the thousand years were ended: after this he will be let loose for a little time.

Revelation 20:4 And I saw high seats, and they were seated on them, and the right of judging was given to them: and I saw the souls of those who were put to death for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and those who did not give worship to the beast, or to his image, and had not his mark on their brows or on their hands; and they were living and ruling with Christ a thousand years.

Revelation 20:5 The rest of the dead did not come to life again till the thousand years were ended. This is the first coming back from the dead.

Revelation 20:6 Happy and holy is he who has a part in this first coming: over these the second death has no authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will be ruling with him a thousand years.

Revelation 20:7 And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be let loose out of his prison,

Revelation 20:8 And will go out to put in error the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to get them together to the war, the number of whom is like the sands of the sea.

Revelation 20:9 And they went up over the face of the earth, and made a circle about the tents of the saints, and the well loved town: and fire came down out of heaven for their destruction.

Revelation 20:10 And the Evil One who put them in error was sent down into the sea of ever-burning fire, where the beast and the false prophet are, and their punishment will go on day and night for ever and ever.

Revelation 20:11 And I saw a great white seat, and him who was seated on it, before whose face the earth and the heaven went in flight; and there was no place for them.

Revelation 20:12 And I saw the dead, great and small, taking their places before the high seat; and the books were open, and another book was open, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged by the things which were in the books, even by their works.

Revelation 20:13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Hell gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man by his works.

Revelation 20:14 And death and Hell were put into the sea of fire. This is the second death, even the sea of fire.

Revelation 20:15 And if anyone’s name was not in the book of life, he went down into the sea of fire.

Revelation 21:1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were gone; and there was no more sea.

Revelation 21:2 And I saw the holy town, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, like a bride made beautiful for her husband.

Revelation 21:3 And there came to my ears a great voice out of the high seat, saying, See, the Tent of God is with men, and he will make his living-place with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God.

Revelation 21:4 And he will put an end to all their weeping; and there will be no more death, or sorrow, or crying, or pain; for the first things have come to an end.

Revelation 21:5 And he who is seated on the high seat said, See, I make all things new. And he said, Put it in the book; for these words are certain and true.

Revelation 21:6 And he said to me, It is done. I am the First and the Last, the start and the end. I will freely give of the fountain of the water of life to him who is in need.

Revelation 21:7 He who overcomes will have these things for his heritage; and I will be his God, and he will be my son.

Revelation 21:8 But those who are full of fear and without faith, the unclean and takers of life, those who do the sins of the flesh, and those who make use of evil powers or who give worship to images, and all those who are false, will have their part in the sea of ever-burning fire which is the second death.

Revelation 21:9 And one of the seven angels who had the seven vessels in which were the seven last punishments, came and said to me, Come here, and see the bride, the Lamb's wife.

Revelation 21:10 And he took me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and let me see the holy town Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,

Revelation 21:11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like a stone of great price, a jasper stone, clear as glass:

Revelation 21:12 She had a wall great and high, with twelve doors, and at the doors twelve angels; and names on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.

Revelation 21:13 And on the east were three doors; and on the north three doors; and on the south three doors; and on the west three doors.

Revelation 21:14 And the wall of the town had twelve bases, and on them the twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.

Revelation 21:15 And he who was talking with me had a gold measuring-rod to take the measure of the town, and of its doors, and its wall.

Revelation 21:16 And the town is square, as wide as it is long; and he took the measure of the town with the rod, one thousand and five hundred miles: it is equally long and wide and high.

Revelation 21:17 And he took the measure of its wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits, after the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.

Revelation 21:18 And the building of its wall was of jasper, and the town was clear gold, clear as glass.

Revelation 21:19 The bases of the wall of the town had ornaments of all sorts of beautiful stones. The first base was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;

Revelation 21:20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.

Revelation 21:21 And the twelve doors were twelve pearls; every door was made of one pearl; and the street of the town was clear gold, as clear as glass.

Revelation 21:22 And I saw no Temple there; because the Lord God, the Ruler of all, and the Lamb are its Temple.

Revelation 21:23 And the town has no need of the sun, or of the moon, to give it light: for the glory of God did make it light, and the light of it is the Lamb.

Revelation 21:24 And the nations will go in its light: and the kings of the earth will take their glory into it.

Revelation 21:25 And the doors of it will never be shut by day (for there is no night there):

Revelation 21:26 And the glory and honour of the nations will come into it:

Revelation 21:27 And nothing unclean may come into it, or anyone whose works are cursed or false; but only those whose names are in the Lamb’s book of life.

Revelation 22:1 And I saw a river of water of life, clear as glass, coming out of the high seat of God and of the Lamb,

Revelation 22:2 In the middle of its street. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, having twelve sorts of fruits, giving its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree give life to the nations.

Revelation 22:3 And there will be no more curse: and the high seat of God and of the Lamb will be there; and his servants will be worshipping him;

Revelation 22:4 And they will see his face; and his name will be on their brows.

Revelation 22:5 And there will be no more night; and they have no need of a light or of the shining of the sun; for the Lord God will give them light: and they will be ruling for ever and ever.

Revelation 22:6 And he said to me, These words are certain and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to make clear to his servants the things which are now to come about.

Revelation 22:7 See, I come quickly. A blessing on him who keeps the words of this book of the prophet.

Revelation 22:8 And I, John, am he who saw these things and to whose ears they came. And when I had seen and given ear, I went down on my face to give worship at the feet of the angel who made these things clear to me.

Revelation 22:9 And he said to me, See you do it not; I am a brother-servant with you and with your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book: give worship to God.

Revelation 22:10 And he said to me, Let not the words of this prophet’s book be kept secret, because the time is near.

Revelation 22:11 Let the evil man go on in his evil: and let the unclean be still unclean: and let the upright go on in his righteousness: and let the holy be holy still.

Revelation 22:12 See, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give to every man the outcome of his works.

Revelation 22:13 I am the First and the Last, the start and the end.

Revelation 22:14 A blessing on those whose robes are washed, so that they may have a right to the tree of life, and may go in by the doors into the town.

Revelation 22:15 Outside are the dogs, and those who make use of evil powers, those who make themselves unclean, and the takers of life, and those who give worship to images, and everyone whose delight is in what is false.

Revelation 22:16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give witness to you of these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright and morning star.

Revelation 22:17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him who gives ear, say, Come. And let him who is in need come; and let everyone desiring it take of the water of life freely.

Revelation 22:18 For I say to every man to whose ears have come the words of this prophet's book, If any man makes an addition to them, God will put on him the punishments which are in this book:

Revelation 22:19 And if any man takes away from the words of this book, God will take away from him his part in the tree of life and the holy town, even the things which are in this book.

Revelation 22:20 He who gives witness to these things says, Truly, I come quickly. Even so come, Lord Jesus.

Revelation 22:21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with the saints. So be it.

Genesis

1:1 In the beginning God created the heavens and the earth.

Genesis 1:2 Now the earth was formless and empty, darkness was over the surface of the deep, and the Spirit of God was hovering over the waters.

Genesis 1:3 And God said, “Let there be light,” and there was light.

Genesis 1:4 God saw that the light was good, and he separated the light from the darkness.

Genesis 1:5 God called the light “day”, and the darkness he called “night”. And there was evening, and there was morning—the first day.

Genesis 1:6 And God said, “Let there be an expanse between the waters to separate water from water.”

Genesis 1:7 So God made the expanse and separated the water under the expanse from the water above it. And it was so.

Genesis 1:8 God called the expanse “sky”. And there was evening, and there was morning—the second day.

Genesis 1:9 And God said, “Let the water under the sky be gathered to one place, and let dry ground appear.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:10 God called the dry ground “land”, and the gathered waters he called “seas”. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:11 Then God said, “Let the land produce vegetation: seed-bearing plants and trees on the land that bear fruit with seed in it, according to their various kinds.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:12 The land produced vegetation: plants bearing seed according to their kinds and trees bearing fruit with seed in it according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:13 And there was evening, and there was morning—the third day.

Genesis 1:14 And God said, “Let there be lights in the expanse of the sky to separate the day from the night, and let them serve as signs to mark seasons and days and years, Genesis 1:15 and let them be lights in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:16 God made two great lights—the greater light to govern the day and the lesser light to govern the night. He also made the stars.

Genesis 1:17 God set them in the expanse of the sky to give light on the earth,

Genesis 1:18 to govern the day and the night, and to separate light from darkness. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:19 And there was evening, and there was morning—the fourth day.

Genesis 1:20 And God said, “Let the water teem with living creatures, and let birds fly above the earth across the expanse of the sky.”

Genesis 1:21 So God created the great creatures of the sea and every living and moving thing with which the water teems, according to their kinds, and every winged bird according to its kind. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:22 God blessed them and said, “Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the water in the seas, and let the birds increase on the earth.”

Genesis 1:23 And there was evening, and there was morning—the fifth day.

Genesis 1:24 And God said, “Let the land produce living creatures according to their kinds: livestock, creatures that move along the ground, and wild animals, each according to its kind.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:25 God made the wild animals according to their kinds, the livestock according to their kinds, and all the creatures that move along the ground according to their kinds. And God saw that it was good.

Genesis 1:26 Then God said, “Let us make man in our image, in our likeness, and let them rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air, over the livestock, over all the earth, and over all the creatures that move along the ground.”

Genesis 1:27 So God created man in his own image, in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them.

Genesis 1:28 God blessed them and said to them, “Be fruitful and increase in number; fill the earth and subdue it. Rule over the fish of the sea and the birds of the air and over every living creature that moves on the ground.”

Genesis 1:29 Then God said, “I give you every seed-bearing plant on the face of the whole earth and every tree that has fruit with seed in it. They will be yours for food.

Genesis 1:30 And to all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air and all the creatures that move on the ground—everything that has the breath of life in it—I give every green plant for food.” And it was so.

Genesis 1:31 God saw all that he had made, and it was very good. And there was evening, and there was morning—the sixth day.

Genesis 2:1 Thus the heavens and the earth were completed in all their vast array.

Genesis 2:2 By the seventh day God had finished the work he had been doing; so on the seventh day he rested from all his work.

Genesis 2:3 And God blessed the seventh day and made it holy, because on it he rested from all the work of creating that he had done.

Genesis 2:4 This is the account of the heavens and the earth when they were created. When the LORD God made the earth and the heavens—

Genesis 2:5 and no shrub of the field had yet appeared on the earth and no plant of the field had yet sprung up, for the LORD God had not sent rain on the earth and there was no man to work the ground,

Genesis 2:6 but streams came up from the earth and watered the whole surface of the ground—

Genesis 2:7 the LORD God formed the man from the dust of the ground and breathed into his nostrils the breath of life, and the man became a living being.

Genesis 2:8 Now the LORD God had planted a garden in the east, in Eden; and there he put the man he had formed.

Genesis 2:9 And the LORD God made all kinds of trees grow out of the ground—trees that were pleasing to the eye and good for food. In the middle of the garden were the tree of life and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:10 A river watering the garden flowed from Eden; from there it was separated into four headwaters.

Genesis 2:11 The name of the first is the Pishon; it winds through the entire land of Havilah, where there is gold.

Genesis 2:12 (The gold of that land is good; aromatic resin and onyx are also there.)

Genesis 2:13 The name of the second river is the Gihon; it winds through the entire land of Cush.

Genesis 2:14 The name of the third river is the Tigris; it runs along the east side of Asshur. And the fourth river is the Euphrates.

Genesis 2:15 The LORD God took the man and put him in the Garden of Eden to work it and take care of it.

Genesis 2:16 And the LORD God commanded the man, “You are free to eat from any tree in the garden;

Genesis 2:17 but you must not eat from the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, for when you eat of it you will surely die.”

Genesis 2:18 The LORD God said, “It is not good for the man to be alone. I will make a helper suitable for him.”

Genesis 2:19 Now the LORD God had formed out of the ground all the beasts of the field and all the birds of the air. He brought them to the man to see what he would name them; and whatever the man called each living creature, that was its name.

Genesis 2:20 So the man gave names to all the livestock, the birds of the air and all the beasts of the field. But for Adam no suitable helper was found.

Genesis 2:21 So the LORD God caused the man to fall into a deep sleep; and while he was sleeping, he took one of the man’s ribs and closed up the place with flesh.

Genesis 2:22 Then the LORD God made a woman from the rib he had taken out of the man, and he brought her to the man.

Genesis 2:23 The man said, “This is now bone of my bones and flesh of my flesh; she shall be called`woman’, for she was taken out of man.”

Genesis 2:24 For this reason a man will leave his father and mother and be united to his wife, and they will become one flesh.

Genesis 2:25 The man and his wife were both naked, and they felt no shame.

Genesis 3:1 Now the serpent was more crafty than any of the wild animals the LORD God had made. He said to the woman, “Did God really say,`You must not eat from any tree in the garden’?”

Genesis 3:2 The woman said to the serpent, “We may eat fruit from the trees in the garden, Genesis 3:3 but God did say,`You must not eat fruit from the tree that is in the middle of the garden, and you must not touch it, or you will die.’“

Genesis 3:4 “You will not surely die,” the serpent said to the woman.

Genesis 3:5 “For God knows that when you eat of it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil.”

Genesis 3:6 When the woman saw that the fruit of the tree was good for food and pleasing to the eye, and also desirable for gaining wisdom, she took some and ate it. She also gave some to her husband, who was with her, and he ate it.

Genesis 3:7 Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they realised that they were naked; so they sewed fig leaves together and made coverings for themselves.

Genesis 3:8 Then the man and his wife heard the sound of the LORD God as he was walking in the garden in the cool of the day, and they hid from the LORD God among the trees of the garden.

Genesis 3:9 But the LORD God called to the man, “Where are you?”

Genesis 3:10 He answered, “I heard you in the garden, and I was afraid because I was naked; so I hid.”

Genesis 3:11 And he said, “Who told you that you were naked? Have you eaten from the tree from which I commanded you not to eat?”

Genesis 3:12 The man said, “The woman you put here with me—she gave me some fruit from the tree, and I ate it.”

Genesis 3:13 Then the LORD God said to the woman, “What is this you have done?” The woman said, “The serpent deceived me, and I ate.”

Genesis 3:14 So the LORD God said to the serpent, “Because you have done this, “Cursed are you above all the livestock and all the wild animals! You will crawl on your belly and you will eat dust all the days of your life.

Genesis 3:15 And I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; he will crush your head, and you will strike his heel.”

Genesis 3:16 To the woman he said, “I will greatly increase your pains in childbearing; with pain you will give birth to children. Your desire will be for your husband, and he will rule over you.”

Genesis 3:17 To Adam he said, “Because you listened to your wife and ate from the tree about which I commanded you,`You must not eat of it,’ “Cursed is the ground because of you; through painful toil you will eat of it all the days of your life.

Genesis 3:18 It will produce thorns and thistles for you, and you will eat the plants of the field.

Genesis 3:19 By the sweat of your brow you will eat your food until you return to the ground, since from it you were taken; for dust you are and to dust you will return.”

Genesis 3:20 Adam named his wife Eve, because she would become the mother of all the living.

Genesis 3:21 The LORD God made garments of skin for Adam and his wife and clothed them.

Genesis 3:22 And the LORD God said, “The man has now become like one of us, knowing good and evil. He must not be allowed to reach out his hand and take also from the tree of life and eat, and live for ever.”

Genesis 3:23 So the LORD God banished him from the Garden of Eden to work the ground from which he had been taken.

Genesis 3:24 After he drove the man out, he placed on the east side of the Garden of Eden cherubim and a flaming sword flashing back and forth to guard the way to the tree of life.

Genesis 4:1 Adam lay with his wife Eve, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Cain. She said, “With the help of the LORD I have brought forth a man.”

Genesis 4:2 Later she gave birth to his brother Abel. Now Abel kept flocks, and Cain worked the soil.

Genesis 4:3 In the course of time Cain brought some of the fruits of the soil as an offering to the LORD.

Genesis 4:4 But Abel brought fat portions from some of the firstborn of his flock. The LORD looked with favour on Abel and his offering, Genesis 4:5 but on Cain and his offering he did not look with favour. So Cain was very angry, and his face was downcast.

Genesis 4:6 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Why are you angry? Why is your face downcast?

Genesis 4:7 If you do what is right, will you not be accepted? But if you do not do what is right, sin is crouching at your door; it desires to have you, but you must master it."

Genesis 4:8 Now Cain said to his brother Abel, "Let's go out to the field." And while they were in the field, Cain attacked his brother Abel and killed him.

Genesis 4:9 Then the LORD said to Cain, "Where is your brother Abel?" "I don't know," he replied. "Am I my brother's keeper?"

Genesis 4:10 The LORD said, "What have you done? Listen! Your brother's blood cries out to me from the ground.

Genesis 4:11 Now you are under a curse and driven from the ground, which opened its mouth to receive your brother's blood from your hand.

Genesis 4:12 When you work the ground, it will no longer yield its crops for you. You will be a restless wanderer on the earth."

Genesis 4:13 Cain said to the LORD, "My punishment is more than I can bear.

Genesis 4:14 Today you are driving me from the land, and I will be hidden from your presence; I will be a restless wanderer on the earth, and whoever finds me will kill me."

Genesis 4:15 But the LORD said to him, "Not so; if anyone kills Cain, he will suffer vengeance seven times over." Then the LORD put a mark on Cain so that no-one who found him would kill him.

Genesis 4:16 So Cain went out from the LORD's presence and lived in the land of Nod, east of Eden.

Genesis 4:17 Cain lay with his wife, and she became pregnant and gave birth to Enoch. Cain was then building a city, and he named it after his son Enoch.

Genesis 4:18 To Enoch was born Irad, and Irad was the father of Mehujael, and Mehujael was the father of Methushael, and Methushael was the father of Lamech.

Genesis 4:19 Lamech married two women, one named Adah and the other Zillah.

Genesis 4:20 Adah gave birth to Jabal; he was the father of those who live in tents and raise livestock.

Genesis 4:21 His brother's name was Jubal; he was the father of all who play the harp and flute.

Genesis 4:22 Zillah also had a son, Tubal-Cain, who forged all kinds of tools out of bronze and iron. Tubal-Cain's sister was Naamah.

Genesis 4:23 Lamech said to his wives, "Adah and Zillah, listen to me; wives of Lamech, hear my words. I have killed a man for wounding me, a young man for injuring me.

Genesis 4:24 If Cain is avenged seven times, then Lamech seventy-seven times."

Genesis 4:25 Adam lay with his wife again, and she gave birth to a son and named him Seth, saying, "God has granted me another child in place of Abel, since Cain killed him."

Genesis 4:26 Seth also had a son, and he named him Enosh. At that time men began to call on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 5:1 This is the written account of Adam's line. When God created man, he made him in the likeness of God.

Genesis 5:2 He created them male and female and blessed them. And when they were created, he called them "man".

Genesis 5:3 When Adam had lived 130 years, he had a son in his own likeness, in his own image; and he named him Seth.

Genesis 5:4 After Seth was born, Adam lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:5 Altogether, Adam lived 930 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:6 When Seth had lived 105 years, he became the father of Enosh.

Genesis 5:7 And after he became the father of Enosh, Seth lived 807 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:8 Altogether, Seth lived 912 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:9 When Enosh had lived 90 years, he became the father of Kenan.

Genesis 5:10 And after he became the father of Kenan, Enosh lived 815 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:11 Altogether, Enosh lived 905 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:12 When Kenan had lived 70 years, he became the father of Mahalalel.

Genesis 5:13 And after he became the father of Mahalalel, Kenan lived 840 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:14 Altogether, Kenan lived 910 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:15 When Mahalalel had lived 65 years, he became the father of Jared.

Genesis 5:16 And after he became the father of Jared, Mahalalel lived 830 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:17 Altogether, Mahalalel lived 895 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:18 When Jared had lived 162 years, he became the father of Enoch.

Genesis 5:19 And after he became the father of Enoch, Jared lived 800 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:20 Altogether, Jared lived 962 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:21 When Enoch had lived 65 years, he became the father of Methuselah.

Genesis 5:22 And after he became the father of Methuselah, Enoch walked with God 300 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:23 Altogether, Enoch lived 365 years.

Genesis 5:24 Enoch walked with God; then he was no more, because God took him away.

Genesis 5:25 When Methuselah had lived 187 years, he became the father of Lamech.

Genesis 5:26 And after he became the father of Lamech, Methuselah lived 782 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:27 Altogether, Methuselah lived 969 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:28 When Lamech had lived 182 years, he had a son.

Genesis 5:29 He named him Noah and said, “He will comfort us in the labour and painful toil of our hands caused by the ground the LORD has cursed.”

Genesis 5:30 After Noah was born, Lamech lived 595 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 5:31 Altogether, Lamech lived 777 years, and then he died.

Genesis 5:32 After Noah was 500 years old, he became the father of Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Genesis 6:1 When men began to increase in number on the earth and daughters were born to them,

Genesis 6:2 the sons of God saw that the daughters of men were beautiful, and they married any of them they chose.

Genesis 6:3 Then the LORD said, “My Spirit will not contend with man for ever, for he is mortal; his days will be a hundred and twenty years.”

Genesis 6:4 The Nephilim were on the earth in those days—and also afterwards—when the sons of God went to the daughters of men and had children by them. They were the heroes of old, men of renown.

Genesis 6:5 The LORD saw how great man’s wickedness on the earth had become, and that every inclination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil all the time.

Genesis 6:6 The LORD was grieved that he had made man on the earth, and his heart was filled with pain.

Genesis 6:7 So the LORD said, “I will wipe mankind, whom I have created, from the face of the earth—men and animals, and creatures that move along the ground, and birds of the air—for I am grieved that I have made them.”

Genesis 6:8 But Noah found favour in the eyes of the LORD.

Genesis 6:9 This is the account of Noah. Noah was a righteous man, blameless among the people of his time, and he walked with God.

Genesis 6:10 Noah had three sons: Shem, Ham and Japheth.

Genesis 6:11 Now the earth was corrupt in God’s sight and was full of violence.

Genesis 6:12 God saw how corrupt the earth had become, for all the people on earth had corrupted their ways.

Genesis 6:13 So God said to Noah, “I am going to put an end to all people, for the earth is filled with violence because of them. I am surely going to destroy both them and the earth.

Genesis 6:14 So make yourself an ark of cypress wood; make rooms in it and coat it with pitch inside and out.

Genesis 6:15 This is how you are to build it: The ark is to be 450 feet long, 75 feet wide and 45 feet high.

Genesis 6:16 Make a roof for it and finish the ark to within 18 inches of the top. Put a door in the side of the ark and make lower, middle and upper decks.

Genesis 6:17 I am going to bring floodwaters on the earth to destroy all life under the heavens, every creature that has the breath of life in it. Everything on earth will perish.

Genesis 6:18 But I will establish my covenant with you, and you will enter the ark—you and your sons and your wife and your sons’ wives with you.

Genesis 6:19 You are to bring into the ark two of all living creatures, male and female, to keep them alive with you.

Genesis 6:20 Two of every kind of bird, of every kind of animal and of every kind of creature that moves along the ground will come to you to be kept alive.

Genesis 6:21 You are to take every kind of food that is to be eaten and store it away as food for you and for them.”

Genesis 6:22 Noah did everything just as God commanded him.

Genesis 7:1 The LORD then said to Noah, “Go into the ark, you and your whole family, because I have found you righteous in this generation.

Genesis 7:2 Take with you seven of every kind of clean animal, a male and its mate, and two of every kind of unclean animal, a male and its mate,

Genesis 7:3 and also seven of every kind of bird, male and female, to keep their various kinds alive throughout the earth.

Genesis 7:4 Seven days from now I will send rain on the earth for forty days and forty nights, and I will wipe from the face of the earth every living creature I have made.”

Genesis 7:5 And Noah did all that the LORD commanded him.

Genesis 7:6 Noah was six hundred years old when the floodwaters came on the earth.

Genesis 7:7 And Noah and his sons and his wife and his sons’ wives entered the ark to escape the waters of the flood.

Genesis 7:8 Pairs of clean and unclean animals, of birds and of all creatures that move along the ground,

Genesis 7:9 male and female, came to Noah and entered the ark, as God had commanded Noah.

Genesis 7:10 And after the seven days the floodwaters came on the earth.

Genesis 7:11 In the six hundredth year of Noah’s life, on the seventeenth day of the second month—on that day all the springs of the great deep burst forth, and the floodgates of the heavens were opened.

Genesis 7:12 And rain fell on the earth for forty days and forty nights.

Genesis 7:13 On that very day Noah and his sons, Shem, Ham and Japheth, together with his wife and the wives of his three sons, entered the ark.

Genesis 7:14 They had with them every wild animal according to its kind, all livestock according to their kinds, every creature that moves along the ground according to its kind and every bird according to its kind, everything with wings.

Genesis 7:15 Pairs of all creatures that have the breath of life in them came to Noah and entered the ark.

Genesis 7:16 The animals going in were male and female of every living thing, as God had commanded Noah. Then the LORD shut him in.

Genesis 7:17 For forty days the flood kept coming on the earth, and as the waters increased they lifted the ark high above the earth.

Genesis 7:18 The waters rose and increased greatly on the earth, and the ark floated on the surface of the water.

Genesis 7:19 They rose greatly on the earth, and all the high mountains under the entire heavens were covered.

Genesis 7:20 The waters rose and covered the mountains to a depth of more than twenty feet.

Genesis 7:21 Every living thing that moved on the earth perished—birds, livestock, wild animals, all the creatures that swarm over the earth, and all mankind.

Genesis 7:22 Everything on dry land that had the breath of life in its nostrils died.

Genesis 7:23 Every living thing on the face of the earth was wiped out; men and animals and the creatures that move along the ground and the birds of the air were wiped from the earth. Only Noah was left, and those with him in the ark.

Genesis 7:24 The waters flooded the earth for a hundred and fifty days.

Genesis 8:1 But God remembered Noah and all the wild animals and the livestock that were with him in the ark, and he sent a wind over the earth, and the waters receded.

Genesis 8:2 Now the springs of the deep and the floodgates of the heavens had been closed, and the rain had stopped falling from the sky.

Genesis 8:3 The water receded steadily from the earth. At the end of the hundred and fifty days the water had gone down,

Genesis 8:4 and on the seventeenth day of the seventh month the ark came to rest on the mountains of Ararat.

Genesis 8:5 The waters continued to recede until the tenth month, and on the first day of the tenth month the tops of the mountains became visible.

Genesis 8:6 After forty days Noah opened the window he had made in the ark

Genesis 8:7 and sent out a raven, and it kept flying back and forth until the water had dried up from the earth.

Genesis 8:8 Then he sent out a dove to see if the water had receded from the surface of the ground.

Genesis 8:9 But the dove could find no place to set its feet because there was water over all the surface of the earth; so it returned to Noah in the ark. He reached out his hand and took the dove and brought it back to himself in the ark.

Genesis 8:10 He waited seven more days and again sent out the dove from the ark.

Genesis 8:11 When the dove returned to him in the evening, there in its beak was a freshly plucked olive leaf! Then Noah knew that the water had receded from the earth.

Genesis 8:12 He waited seven more days and sent the dove out again, but this time it did not return to him.

Genesis 8:13 By the first day of the first month of Noah's six hundred and first year, the water had dried up from the earth. Noah then removed the covering from the ark and saw that the surface of the ground was dry.

Genesis 8:14 By the twenty-seventh day of the second month the earth was completely dry.

Genesis 8:15 Then God said to Noah,

Genesis 8:16 "Come out of the ark, you and your wife and your sons and their wives.

Genesis 8:17 Bring out every kind of living creature that is with you— the birds, the animals, and all the creatures that move along the ground—so they can multiply on the earth and be fruitful and increase in number upon it."

Genesis 8:18 So Noah came out, together with his sons and his wife and his sons' wives.

Genesis 8:19 All the animals and all the creatures that move along the ground and all the birds—everything that moves on the earth—came out of the ark, one kind after another.

Genesis 8:20 Then Noah built an altar to the LORD and, taking some of all the clean animals and clean birds, he sacrificed burnt offerings on it.

Genesis 8:21 The LORD smelled the pleasing aroma and said in his heart: "Never again will I curse the ground because of man, even though every inclination of his heart is evil from childhood. And never again will I destroy all living creatures, as I have done.

Genesis 8:22 "As long as the earth endures, seedtime and harvest, cold and heat, summer and winter, day and night will never cease."

Genesis 9:1 Then God blessed Noah and his sons, saying to them, "Be fruitful and increase in number and fill the earth.

Genesis 9:2 The fear and dread of you will fall upon all the beasts of the earth and all the birds of the air, upon every creature that moves along the ground, and upon all the fish of the sea; they are given into your hands.

Genesis 9:3 Everything that lives and moves will be food for you. Just as I gave you the green plants, I now give you everything.

Genesis 9:4 "But you must not eat meat that has its lifeblood still in it.

Genesis 9:5 And for your lifeblood I will surely demand an accounting. I will demand an accounting from every animal. And from each man, too, I will demand an accounting for the life of his fellow man.

Genesis 9:6 “Whoever sheds the blood of man, by man shall his blood be shed; for in the image of God has God made man.

Genesis 9:7 As for you, be fruitful and increase in number; multiply on the earth and increase upon it.”

Genesis 9:8 Then God said to Noah and to his sons with him:

Genesis 9:9 “I now establish my covenant with you and with your descendants after you

Genesis 9:10 and with every living creature that was with you—the birds, the livestock and all the wild animals, all those that came out of the ark with you—every living creature on earth.

Genesis 9:11 I establish my covenant with you: Never again will all life be cut off by the waters of a flood; never again will there be a flood to destroy the earth.”

Genesis 9:12 And God said, “This is the sign of the covenant I am making between me and you and every living creature with you, a covenant for all generations to come:

Genesis 9:13 I have set my rainbow in the clouds, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and the earth.

Genesis 9:14 Whenever I bring clouds over the earth and the rainbow appears in the clouds,

Genesis 9:15 I will remember my covenant between me and you and all living creatures of every kind. Never again will the waters become a flood to destroy all life.

Genesis 9:16 Whenever the rainbow appears in the clouds, I will see it and remember the everlasting covenant between God and all living creatures of every kind on the earth.”

Genesis 9:17 So God said to Noah, “This is the sign of the covenant I have established between me and all life on the earth.”

Genesis 9:18 The sons of Noah who came out of the ark were Shem, Ham and Japheth. (Ham was the father of Canaan.)

Genesis 9:19 These were the three sons of Noah, and from them came the people who were scattered over the earth.

Genesis 9:20 Noah, a man of the soil, proceeded to plant a vineyard.

Genesis 9:21 When he drank some of its wine, he became drunk and lay uncovered inside his tent.

Genesis 9:22 Ham, the father of Canaan, saw his father’s nakedness and told his two brothers outside.

Genesis 9:23 But Shem and Japheth took a garment and laid it across their shoulders; then they walked in backwards and covered their father’s nakedness. Their faces were turned the other way so that they would not see their father’s nakedness.

Genesis 9:24 When Noah awoke from his wine and found out what his youngest son had done to him,

Genesis 9:25 he said, “Cursed be Canaan! The lowest of slaves will he be to his brothers.”

Genesis 9:26 He also said, “Blessed be the LORD, the God of Shem! May Canaan be the slave of Shem.

Genesis 9:27 May God extend the territory of Japheth; may Japheth live in the tents of Shem, and may Canaan be his slave.”

Genesis 9:28 After the flood Noah lived 350 years.

Genesis 9:29 Altogether, Noah lived 950 years, and then he died.

Genesis 10:1 This is the account of Shem, Ham and Japheth, Noah’s sons, who themselves had sons after the flood.

Genesis 10:2 The sons of Japheth: Gomer, Magog, Madai, Javan, Tubal, Meshech and Tiras.

Genesis 10:3 The sons of Gomer: Ashkenaz, Riphath and Togarmah.

Genesis 10:4 The sons of Javan: Elishah, Tarshish, the Kittim and the Rodanim.

Genesis 10:5 (From these the maritime peoples spread out into their territories by their clans within their nations, each with its own language.)

Genesis 10:6 The sons of Ham: Cush, Mizraim, Put and Canaan.

Genesis 10:7 The sons of Cush: Seba, Havilah, Sabtah, Raamah and Sabteca. The sons of Raamah: Sheba and Dedan.

Genesis 10:8 Cush was the father of Nimrod, who grew to be a mighty warrior on the earth.

Genesis 10:9 He was a mighty hunter before the LORD; that is why it is said, “Like Nimrod, a mighty hunter before the LORD.”

Genesis 10:10 The first centres of his kingdom were Babylon, Erech, Akkad and Calneh, in Shinar.

Genesis 10:11 From that land he went to Assyria, where he built Nineveh, Rehoboth Ir, Calah

Genesis 10:12 and Resen, which is between Nineveh and Calah; that is the great city.

Genesis 10:13 Mizraim was the father of the Ludites, Anamites, Lehabites, Naphtuhites,

Genesis 10:14 Pathrusites, Casluhites (from whom the Philistines came) and Caphtorites.

Genesis 10:15 Canaan was the father of Sidon his firstborn, and of the Hittites, Genesis 10:16 Jebusites, Amorites, Girgashites,

Genesis 10:17 Hivites, Arkites, Sinites,

Genesis 10:18 Arvadites, Zemarites and Hamathites. Later the Canaanite clans scattered

Genesis 10:19 and the borders of Canaan reached from Sidon towards Gerar as far as Gaza, and then towards Sodom, Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, as far as Lasha.

Genesis 10:20 These are the sons of Ham by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

Genesis 10:21 Sons were also born to Shem, whose older brother was Japheth; Shem was the ancestor of all the sons of Eber.

Genesis 10:22 The sons of Shem: Elam, Asshur, Arphaxad, Lud and Aram.

Genesis 10:23 The sons of Aram: Uz, Hul, Gether and Meshech.

Genesis 10:24 Arphaxad was the father of Shelah, and Shelah the father of Eber.

Genesis 10:25 Two sons were born to Eber: One was named Peleg, because in his time the earth was divided; his brother was named Joktan.

Genesis 10:26 Joktan was the father of Almodad, Sheleph, Hazarmaveth, Jerah,

Genesis 10:27 Hadoram, Uzal, Diklah,

Genesis 10:28 Obal, Abimael, Sheba,

Genesis 10:29 Ophir, Havilah and Jobab. All these were sons of Joktan.

Genesis 10:30 The region where they lived stretched from Mesha towards Sephar, in the eastern hill country.

Genesis 10:31 These are the sons of Shem by their clans and languages, in their territories and nations.

Genesis 10:32 These are the clans of Noah’s sons, according to their lines of descent, within their nations. From these the nations spread out over the earth after the flood.

Genesis 11:1 Now the whole world had one language and a common speech.

Genesis 11:2 As men moved eastward, they found a plain in Shinar and settled there.

Genesis 11:3 They said to each other, “Come, let’s make bricks and bake them thoroughly.” They used brick instead of stone, and bitumen for mortar.

Genesis 11:4 Then they said, “Come, let us build ourselves a city, with a tower that reaches to the heavens, so that we may make a name for ourselves and not be scattered over the face of the whole earth.”

Genesis 11:5 But the LORD came down to see the city and the tower that the men were building.

Genesis 11:6 The LORD said, “If as one people speaking the same language they have begun to do this, then nothing they plan to do will be impossible for them.

Genesis 11:7 Come, let us go down and confuse their language so they will not understand each other.”

Genesis 11:8 So the LORD scattered them from there over all the earth, and they stopped building the city.

Genesis 11:9 That is why it was called Babel— because there the LORD confused the language of the whole world. From there the LORD scattered them over the face of the whole earth.

Genesis 11:10 This is the account of Shem. Two years after the flood, when Shem was 100 years old, he became the father of Arphaxad.

Genesis 11:11 And after he became the father of Arphaxad, Shem lived 500 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:12 When Arphaxad had lived 35 years, he became the father of Shelah.

Genesis 11:13 And after he became the father of Shelah, Arphaxad lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:14 When Shelah had lived 30 years, he became the father of Eber.

Genesis 11:15 And after he became the father of Eber, Shelah lived 403 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:16 When Eber had lived 34 years, he became the father of Peleg.

Genesis 11:17 And after he became the father of Peleg, Eber lived 430 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:18 When Peleg had lived 30 years, he became the father of Reu.

Genesis 11:19 And after he became the father of Reu, Peleg lived 209 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:20 When Reu had lived 32 years, he became the father of Serug.

Genesis 11:21 And after he became the father of Serug, Reu lived 207 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:22 When Serug had lived 30 years, he became the father of Nahor.

Genesis 11:23 And after he became the father of Nahor, Serug lived 200 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:24 When Nahor had lived 29 years, he became the father of Terah.

Genesis 11:25 And after he became the father of Terah, Nahor lived 119 years and had other sons and daughters.

Genesis 11:26 After Terah had lived 70 years, he became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran.

Genesis 11:27 This is the account of Terah. Terah became the father of Abram, Nahor and Haran. And Haran became the father of Lot.

Genesis 11:28 While his father Terah was still alive, Haran died in Ur of the Chaldeans, in the land of his birth.

Genesis 11:29 Abram and Nahor both married. The name of Abram's wife was Sarai, and the name of Nahor's wife was Milcah; she was the daughter of Haran, the father of both Milcah and Iscah.

Genesis 11:30 Now Sarai was barren; she had no children.

Genesis 11:31 Terah took his son Abram, his grandson Lot son of Haran, and his daughter-in-law Sarai, the wife of his son Abram, and together they set out from Ur of the Chaldeans to go to Canaan. But when they came to Haran, they settled there.

Genesis 11:32 Terah lived 205 years, and he died in Haran.

Genesis 12:1 The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you.

Genesis 12:2 "I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing.

Genesis 12:3 I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you."

Genesis 12:4 So Abram left, as the LORD had told him; and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he set out from Haran.

Genesis 12:5 He took his wife Sarai, his nephew Lot, all the possessions they had accumulated and the people they had acquired in Haran, and they set out for the land of Canaan, and they arrived there.

Genesis 12:6 Abram travelled through the land as far as the site of the great tree of Moreh at Shechem. At that time the Canaanites were in the land.

Genesis 12:7 The LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built an altar there to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

Genesis 12:8 From there he went on towards the hills east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east. There he built an altar to the LORD and called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 12:9 Then Abram set out and continued towards the Negev.

Genesis 12:10 Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe.

Genesis 12:11 As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know what a beautiful woman you are.

Genesis 12:12 When the Egyptians see you, they will say,`This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me but will let you live.

Genesis 12:13 Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you.”

Genesis 12:14 When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians saw that she was a very beautiful woman.

Genesis 12:15 And when Pharaoh’s officials saw her, they praised her to Pharaoh, and she was taken into his palace.

Genesis 12:16 He treated Abram well for her sake, and Abram acquired sheep and cattle, male and female donkeys, menservants and maidservants, and camels.

Genesis 12:17 But the LORD inflicted serious diseases on Pharaoh and his household because of Abram’s wife Sarai.

Genesis 12:18 So Pharaoh summoned Abram. “What have you done to me?” he said. “Why didn’t you tell me she was your wife?

Genesis 12:19 Why did you say,`She is my sister,’ so that I took her to be my wife? Now then, here is your wife. Take her and go!”

Genesis 12:20 Then Pharaoh gave orders about Abram to his men, and they sent him on his way, with his wife and everything he had.

Genesis 13:1 So Abram went up from Egypt to the Negev, with his wife and everything he had, and Lot went with him.

Genesis 13:2 Abram had become very wealthy in livestock and in silver and gold.

Genesis 13:3 From the Negev he went from place to place until he came to Bethel, to the place between Bethel and Ai where his tent had been earlier

Genesis 13:4 and where he had first built an altar. There Abram called on the name of the LORD.

Genesis 13:5 Now Lot, who was moving about with Abram, also had flocks and herds and tents.

Genesis 13:6 But the land could not support them while they stayed together, for their possessions were so great that they were not able to stay together.

Genesis 13:7 And quarrelling arose between Abram’s herdsmen and the herdsmen of Lot. The Canaanites and Perizzites were also living in the land at that time.

Genesis 13:8 So Abram said to Lot, “Let’s not have any quarrelling between you and me, or between your herdsmen and mine, for we are brothers.

Genesis 13:9 Is not the whole land before you? Let’s part company. If you go to the left, I’ll go to the right; if you go to the right, I’ll go to the left.”

Genesis 13:10 Lot looked up and saw that the whole plain of the Jordan was well watered, like the garden of the LORD, like the land of Egypt, towards Zoar. (This was before the LORD destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah.)

Genesis 13:11 So Lot chose for himself the whole plain of the Jordan and set out towards the east. The two men parted company:

Genesis 13:12 Abram lived in the land of Canaan, while Lot lived among the cities of the plain and pitched his tents near Sodom.

Genesis 13:13 Now the men of Sodom were wicked and were sinning greatly against the LORD.

Genesis 13:14 The LORD said to Abram after Lot had parted from him, “Lift up your eyes from where you are and look north and south, east and west.

Genesis 13:15 All the land that you see I will give to you and your offspring for ever.

Genesis 13:16 I will make your offspring like the dust of the earth, so that if anyone could count the dust, then your offspring could be counted.

Genesis 13:17 Go, walk through the length and breadth of the land, for I am giving it to you.”

Genesis 13:18 So Abram moved his tents and went to live near the great trees of Mamre at Hebron, where he built an altar to the LORD.

Genesis 14:1 At this time Amraphel king of Shinar, Arioch king of Ellasar, Kedorlaomer king of Elam and Tidal king of Goiim

Genesis 14:2 went to war against Bera king of Sodom, Birsha king of Gomorrah, Shinab king of Admah, Shemeber king of Zeboiim, and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar).

Genesis 14:3 All these latter kings joined forces in the Valley of Siddim (the Salt Sea).

Genesis 14:4 For twelve years they had been subject to Kedorlaomer, but in the thirteenth year they rebelled.

Genesis 14:5 In the fourteenth year, Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him went out and defeated the Rephaites in Ashteroth Karnaim, the Zuzites in Ham, the Emites in Shaveh Kiriathaim

Genesis 14:6 and the Horites in the hill country of Seir, as far as El Paran near the desert.

Genesis 14:7 Then they turned back and went to En Mishpat (that is, Kadesh), and they conquered the whole territory of the Amalekites, as well as the Amorites who were living in Hazezon Tamar.

Genesis 14:8 Then the king of Sodom, the king of Gomorrah, the king of Admah, the king of Zeboiim and the king of Bela (that is, Zoar) marched out and drew up their battle lines in the Valley of Siddim

Genesis 14:9 against Kedorlaomer king of Elam, Tidal king of Goiim, Amraphel king of Shinar and Arioch king of Ellasar—four kings against five.

Genesis 14:10 Now the Valley of Siddim was full of tar pits, and when the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, some of the men fell into them and the rest fled to the hills.

Genesis 14:11 The four kings seized all the goods of Sodom and Gomorrah and all their food; then they went away.

Genesis 14:12 They also carried off Abram's nephew Lot and his possessions, since he was living in Sodom.

Genesis 14:13 One who had escaped came and reported this to Abram the Hebrew. Now Abram was living near the great trees of Mamre the Amorite, a brother of Eshcol and Aner, all of whom were allied with Abram.

Genesis 14:14 When Abram heard that his relative had been taken captive, he called out the 318 trained men born in his household and went in pursuit as far as Dan.

Genesis 14:15 During the night Abram divided his men to attack them and he routed them, pursuing them as far as Hobah, north of Damascus.

Genesis 14:16 He recovered all the goods and brought back his relative Lot and his possessions, together with the women and the other people.

Genesis 14:17 After Abram returned from defeating Kedorlaomer and the kings allied with him, the king of Sodom came out to meet him in the Valley of Shaveh (that is, the King's Valley).

Genesis 14:18 Then Melchizedek king of Salem brought out bread and wine. He was priest of God Most High, Genesis 14:19 and he blessed Abram, saying, "Blessed be Abram by God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth.

Genesis 14:20 And blessed be God Most High, who delivered your enemies into your hand." Then Abram gave him a tenth of everything.

Genesis 14:21 The king of Sodom said to Abram, "Give me the people and keep the goods for yourself."

Genesis 14:22 But Abram said to the king of Sodom, “I have raised my hand to the LORD, God Most High, Creator of heaven and earth, and have taken an oath

Genesis 14:23 that I will accept nothing belonging to you, not even a thread or the thong of a sandal, so that you will never be able to say,`I made Abram rich.’

Genesis 14:24 I will accept nothing but what my men have eaten and the share that belongs to the men who went with me—to Aner, Eshcol and Mamre. Let them have their share.”

Genesis 15:1 After this, the word of the LORD came to Abram in a vision: “Do not be afraid, Abram. I am your shield, your very great reward.”

Genesis 15:2 But Abram said, “O Sovereign LORD, what can you give me since I remain childless and the one who will inherit my estate is Eliezer of Damascus?”

Genesis 15:3 And Abram said, “You have given me no children; so a servant in my household will be my heir.”

Genesis 15:4 Then the word of the LORD came to him: “This man will not be your heir, but a son coming from your own body will be your heir.”

Genesis 15:5 He took him outside and said, “Look up at the heavens and count the stars—if indeed you can count them.” Then he said to him, “So shall your offspring be.”

Genesis 15:6 Abram believed the LORD, and he credited it to him as righteousness.

Genesis 15:7 He also said to him, “I am the LORD, who brought you out of Ur of the Chaldeans to give you this land to take possession of it.”

Genesis 15:8 But Abram said, “O Sovereign LORD, how can I know that I shall gain possession of it?”

Genesis 15:9 So the LORD said to him, “Bring me a heifer, a goat and a ram, each three years old, along with a dove and a young pigeon.”

Genesis 15:10 Abram brought all these to him, cut them in two and arranged the halves opposite each other; the birds, however, he did not cut in half.

Genesis 15:11 Then birds of prey came down on the carcasses, but Abram drove them away.

Genesis 15:12 As the sun was setting, Abram fell into a deep sleep, and a thick and dreadful darkness came over him.

Genesis 15:13 Then the LORD said to him, “Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a country not their own, and they will be enslaved and ill-treated four hundred years.

Genesis 15:14 But I will punish the nation they serve as slaves, and afterwards they will come out with great possessions.

Genesis 15:15 You, however, will go to your fathers in peace and be buried at a good old age.

Genesis 15:16 In the fourth generation your descendants will come back here, for the sin of the Amorites has not yet reached its full measure.”

Genesis 15:17 When the sun had set and darkness had fallen, a smoking brazier with a blazing torch appeared and passed between the pieces.

Genesis 15:18 On that day the LORD made a covenant with Abram and said, “To your descendants I give this land, from the river of Egypt to the great river, the Euphrates—

Genesis 15:19 the land of the Kenites, Kenizzites, Kadmonites,

Genesis 15:20 Hittites, Perizzites, Rephaites,

Genesis 15:21 Amorites, Canaanites, Girgashites and Jebusites.”

Genesis 16:1 Now Sarai, Abram’s wife, had borne him no children. But she had an Egyptian maidservant named Hagar;

Genesis 16:2 so she said to Abram, “The LORD has kept me from having children. Go, sleep with my maidservant; perhaps I can build a family through her.” Abram agreed to what Sarai said.

Genesis 16:3 So after Abram had been living in Canaan ten years, Sarai his wife took her Egyptian maidservant Hagar and gave her to her husband to be his wife.

Genesis 16:4 He slept with Hagar, and she conceived. When she knew she was pregnant, she began to despise her mistress.

Genesis 16:5 Then Sarai said to Abram, “You are responsible for the wrong I am suffering. I put my servant in your arms, and now that she knows she is pregnant, she despises me. May the LORD judge between you and me.”

Genesis 16:6 “Your servant is in your hands,” Abram said. “Do with her whatever you think best.” Then Sarai ill-treated Hagar; so she fled from her.

Genesis 16:7 The angel of the LORD found Hagar near a spring in the desert; it was the spring that is beside the road to Shur.

Genesis 16:8 And he said, “Hagar, servant of Sarai, where have you come from, and where are you going?” “I’m running away from my mistress Sarai,” she answered.

Genesis 16:9 Then the angel of the LORD told her, “Go back to your mistress and submit to her.”

Genesis 16:10 The angel added, “I will so increase your descendants that they will be too numerous to count.”

Genesis 16:11 The angel of the LORD also said to her: “You are now with child and you will have a son. You shall name him Ishmael, for the LORD has heard of your misery.

Genesis 16:12 He will be a wild donkey of a man; his hand will be against everyone and everyone’s hand against him, and he will live in hostility towards all his brothers.”

Genesis 16:13 She gave this name to the LORD who spoke to her: “You are the God who sees me,” for she said, “I have now seen the One who sees me.”

Genesis 16:14 That is why the well was called Beer Lahai Roi; it is still there, between Kadesh and Bered.

Genesis 16:15 So Hagar bore Abram a son, and Abram gave the name Ishmael to the son she had borne.

Genesis 16:16 Abram was eighty-six years old when Hagar bore him Ishmael.

Genesis 17:1 When Abram was ninety-nine years old, the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am God Almighty; walk before me and be blameless.

Genesis 17:2 I will confirm my covenant between me and you and will greatly increase your numbers.”

Genesis 17:3 Abram fell face down, and God said to him,

Genesis 17:4 “As for me, this is my covenant with you: You will be the father of many nations.

Genesis 17:5 No longer will you be called Abram; your name will be Abraham, for I have made you a father of many nations.

Genesis 17:6 I will make you very fruitful; I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.

Genesis 17:7 I will establish my covenant as an everlasting covenant between me and you and your descendants after you for the generations to come, to be your God and the God of your descendants after you.

Genesis 17:8 The whole land of Canaan, where you are now an alien, I will give as an everlasting possession to you and your descendants after you; and I will be their God.”

Genesis 17:9 Then God said to Abraham, “As for you, you must keep my covenant, you and your descendants after you for the generations to come.

Genesis 17:10 This is my covenant with you and your descendants after you, the covenant you are to keep: Every male among you shall be circumcised.

Genesis 17:11 You are to undergo circumcision, and it will be the sign of the covenant between me and you.

Genesis 17:12 For the generations to come every male among you who is eight days old must be circumcised, including those born in your household or bought with money from a foreigner—those who are not your offspring.

Genesis 17:13 Whether born in your household or bought with your money, they must be circumcised. My covenant in your flesh is to be an everlasting covenant.

Genesis 17:14 Any uncircumcised male, who has not been circumcised in the flesh, will be cut off from his people; he has broken my covenant.”

Genesis 17:15 God also said to Abraham, “As for Sarai your wife, you are no longer to call her Sarai; her name will be Sarah.

Genesis 17:16 I will bless her and will surely give you a son by her. I will bless her so that she will be the mother of nations; kings of peoples will come from her.”

Genesis 17:17 Abraham fell face down; he laughed and said to himself, “Will a son be born to a man a hundred years old? Will Sarah bear a child at the age of ninety?”

Genesis 17:18 And Abraham said to God, “If only Ishmael might live under your blessing!”

Genesis 17:19 Then God said, “Yes, but your wife Sarah will bear you a son, and you will call him Isaac. I will establish my covenant with him as an everlasting covenant for his descendants after him.

Genesis 17:20 And as for Ishmael, I have heard you: I will surely bless him; I will make him fruitful and will greatly increase his numbers. He will be the father of twelve rulers, and I will make him into a great nation.

Genesis 17:21 But my covenant I will establish with Isaac, whom Sarah will bear to you by this time next year.”

Genesis 17:22 When he had finished speaking with Abraham, God went up from him.

Genesis 17:23 On that very day Abraham took his son Ishmael and all those born in his household or bought with his money, every male in his household, and circumcised them, as God told him.

Genesis 17:24 Abraham was ninety-nine years old when he was circumcised,

Genesis 17:25 and his son Ishmael was thirteen;

Genesis 17:26 Abraham and his son Ishmael were both circumcised on that same day.

Genesis 17:27 And every male in Abraham’s household, including those born in his household or bought from a foreigner, was circumcised with him.

Genesis 18:1 The LORD appeared to Abraham near the great trees of Mamre while he was sitting at the entrance to his tent in the heat of the day.

Genesis 18:2 Abraham looked up and saw three men standing nearby. When he saw them, he hurried from the entrance of his tent to meet them and bowed low to the ground.

Genesis 18:3 He said, “If I have found favour in your eyes, my lord, do not pass your servant by.

Genesis 18:4 Let a little water be brought, and then you may all wash your feet and rest under this tree.

Genesis 18:5 Let me get you something to eat, so you can be refreshed and then go on your way—now that you have come to your servant.” “Very well,” they answered, “do as you say.”

Genesis 18:6 So Abraham hurried into the tent to Sarah. “Quick,” he said, “get three seahs of fine flour and knead it and bake some bread.”

Genesis 18:7 Then he ran to the herd and selected a choice, tender calf and gave it to a servant, who hurried to prepare it.

Genesis 18:8 He then brought some curds and milk and the calf that had been prepared, and set these before them. While they ate, he stood near them under a tree.

Genesis 18:9 “Where is your wife Sarah?” they asked him. “There, in the tent,” he said.

Genesis 18:10 Then the LORD said, “I will surely return to you about this time next year, and Sarah your wife will have a son.” Now Sarah was listening at the entrance to the tent, which was behind him.

Genesis 18:11 Abraham and Sarah were already old and well advanced in years, and Sarah was past the age of childbearing.

Genesis 18:12 So Sarah laughed to herself as she thought, “After I am worn out and my master is old, will I now have this pleasure?”

Genesis 18:13 Then the LORD said to Abraham, “Why did Sarah laugh and say,`Will I really have a child, now that I am old?’

Genesis 18:14 Is anything too hard for the LORD? I will return to you at the appointed time next year and Sarah will have a son.”

Genesis 18:15 Sarah was afraid, so she lied and said, “I did not laugh.” But he said, “Yes, you did laugh.”

Genesis 18:16 When the men got up to leave, they looked down towards Sodom, and Abraham walked along with them to see them on their way.

Genesis 18:17 Then the LORD said, “Shall I hide from Abraham what I am about to do?

Genesis 18:18 Abraham will surely become a great and powerful nation, and all nations on earth will be blessed through him.

Genesis 18:19 For I have chosen him, so that he will direct his children and his household after him to keep the way of the LORD by doing what is right and just, so that the LORD will bring about for Abraham what he has promised him."

Genesis 18:20 Then the LORD said, "The outcry against Sodom and Gomorrah is so great and their sin so grievous Genesis 18:21 that I will go down and see if what they have done is as bad as the outcry that has reached me. If not, I will know."

Genesis 18:22 The men turned away and went towards Sodom, but Abraham remained standing before the LORD.

Genesis 18:23 Then Abraham approached him and said: "Will you sweep away the righteous with the wicked?

Genesis 18:24 What if there are fifty righteous people in the city? Will you really sweep it away and not spare the place for the sake of the fifty righteous people in it?

Genesis 18:25 Far be it from you to do such a thing—to kill the righteous with the wicked, treating the righteous and the wicked alike. Far be it from you! Will not the Judge of all the earth do right?"

Genesis 18:26 The LORD said, "If I find fifty righteous people in the city of Sodom, I will spare the whole place for their sake."

Genesis 18:27 Then Abraham spoke up again: "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, though I am nothing but dust and ashes, Genesis 18:28 what if the number of the righteous is five less than fifty? Will you destroy the whole city because of five people?" "If I find forty-five there," he said, "I will not destroy it."

Genesis 18:29 Once again he spoke to him, "What if only forty are found there?" He said, "For the sake of forty, I will not do it."

Genesis 18:30 Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak. What if only thirty can be found there?" He answered, "I will not do it if I find thirty there."

Genesis 18:31 Abraham said, "Now that I have been so bold as to speak to the Lord, what if only twenty can be found there?" He said, "For the sake of twenty, I will not destroy it."

Genesis 18:32 Then he said, "May the Lord not be angry, but let me speak just once more. What if only ten can be found there?" He answered, "For the sake of ten, I will not destroy it."

Genesis 18:33 When the LORD had finished speaking with Abraham, he left, and Abraham returned home.

Genesis 19:1 The two angels arrived at Sodom in the evening, and Lot was sitting in the gateway of the city. When he saw them, he got up to meet them and bowed down with his face to the ground.

Genesis 19:2 “My lords,” he said, “please turn aside to your servant’s house. You can wash your feet and spend the night and then go on your way early in the morning.” “No,” they answered, “we will spend the night in the square.”

Genesis 19:3 But he insisted so strongly that they did go with him and entered his house. He prepared a meal for them, baking bread without yeast, and they ate.

Genesis 19:4 Before they had gone to bed, all the men from every part of the city of Sodom—both young and old—surrounded the house.

Genesis 19:5 They called to Lot, “Where are the men who came to you tonight? Bring them out to us so that we can have sex with them.”

Genesis 19:6 Lot went outside to meet them and shut the door behind him

Genesis 19:7 and said, “No, my friends. Don’t do this wicked thing.

Genesis 19:8 Look, I have two daughters who have never slept with a man. Let me bring them out to you, and you can do what you like with them. But don’t do anything to these men, for they have come under the protection of my roof.”

Genesis 19:9 “Get out of our way,” they replied. And they said, “This fellow came here as an alien, and now he wants to play the judge! We’ll treat you worse than them.” They kept bringing pressure on Lot and moved forward to break down the door.

Genesis 19:10 But the men inside reached out and pulled Lot back into the house and shut the door.

Genesis 19:11 Then they struck the men who were at the door of the house, young and old, with blindness so that they could not find the door.

Genesis 19:12 The two men said to Lot, “Do you have anyone else here— sons-in-law, sons or daughters, or anyone else in the city who belongs to you? Get them out of here, Genesis 19:13 because we are going to destroy this place. The outcry to the LORD against its people is so great that he has sent us to destroy it.”

Genesis 19:14 So Lot went out and spoke to his sons-in-law, who were pledged to marry his daughters. He said, “Hurry and get out of this place, because the LORD is about to destroy the city!” But his sons-in-law thought he was joking.

Genesis 19:15 With the coming of dawn, the angels urged Lot, saying, “Hurry! Take your wife and your two daughters who are here, or you will be swept away when the city is punished.”

Genesis 19:16 When he hesitated, the men grasped his hand and the hands of his wife and of his two daughters and led them safely out of the city, for the LORD was merciful to them.

Genesis 19:17 As soon as they had brought them out, one of them said, “Flee for your lives! Don’t look back, and don’t stop anywhere in the plain! Flee to the mountains or you will be swept away!”

Genesis 19:18 But Lot said to them, “No, my lords, please!

Genesis 19:19 Your servant has found favour in your eyes, and you have shown great kindness to me in sparing my life. But I can’t flee to the mountains; this disaster will overtake me, and I’ll die.

Genesis 19:20 Look, here is a town near enough to run to, and it is small. Let me flee to it—it is very small, isn’t it? Then my life will be spared.”

Genesis 19:21 He said to him, “Very well, I will grant this request too; I will not overthrow the town you speak of.

Genesis 19:22 But flee there quickly, because I cannot do anything until you reach it.” (That is why the town was called Zoar.)

Genesis 19:23 By the time Lot reached Zoar, the sun had risen over the land.

Genesis 19:24 Then the LORD rained down burning sulphur on Sodom and Gomorrah—from the LORD out of the heavens.

Genesis 19:25 Thus he overthrew those cities and the entire plain, including all those living in the cities—and also the vegetation in the land.

Genesis 19:26 But Lot’s wife looked back, and she became a pillar of salt.

Genesis 19:27 Early the next morning Abraham got up and returned to the place where he had stood before the LORD.

Genesis 19:28 He looked down towards Sodom and Gomorrah, towards all the land of the plain, and he saw dense smoke rising from the land, like smoke from a furnace.

Genesis 19:29 So when God destroyed the cities of the plain, he remembered Abraham, and he brought Lot out of the catastrophe that overthrew the cities where Lot had lived.

Genesis 19:30 Lot and his two daughters left Zoar and settled in the mountains, for he was afraid to stay in Zoar. He and his two daughters lived in a cave.

Genesis 19:31 One day the older daughter said to the younger, “Our father is old, and there is no man around here to lie with us, as is the custom all over the earth.

Genesis 19:32 Let’s get our father to drink wine and then lie with him and preserve our family line through our father.”

Genesis 19:33 That night they got their father to drink wine, and the older daughter went in and lay with him. He was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Genesis 19:34 The next day the older daughter said to the younger, “Last night I lay with my father. Let’s get him to drink wine again tonight, and you go in and lie with him so we can preserve our family line through our father.”

Genesis 19:35 So they got their father to drink wine that night also, and the younger daughter went and lay with him. Again he was not aware of it when she lay down or when she got up.

Genesis 19:36 So both of Lot’s daughters became pregnant by their father.

Genesis 19:37 The older daughter had a son, and she named him Moab; he is the father of the Moabites of today.

Genesis 19:38 The younger daughter also had a son, and she named him Ben-Ammi; he is the father of the Ammonites of today.

Genesis 20:1 Now Abraham moved on from there into the region of the Negev and lived between Kadesh and Shur. For a while he stayed in Gerar, Genesis 20:2 and there Abraham said of his wife Sarah, “She is my sister.” Then Abimelech king of Gerar sent for Sarah and took her.

Genesis 20:3 But God came to Abimelech in a dream one night and said to him, “You are as good as dead because of the woman you have taken; she is a married woman.”

Genesis 20:4 Now Abimelech had not gone near her, so he said, “Lord, will you destroy an innocent nation?

Genesis 20:5 Did he not say to me,`She is my sister,’ and didn’t she also say,`He is my brother’? I have done this with a clear conscience and clean hands.”

Genesis 20:6 Then God said to him in the dream, “Yes, I know you did this with a clear conscience, and so I have kept you from sinning against me. That is why I did not let you touch her.

Genesis 20:7 Now return the man’s wife, for he is a prophet, and he will pray for you and you will live. But if you do not return her, you may be sure that you and all yours will die.”

Genesis 20:8 Early the next morning Abimelech summoned all his officials, and when he told them all that had happened, they were very much afraid.

Genesis 20:9 Then Abimelech called Abraham in and said, “What have you done to us? How have I wronged you that you have brought such great guilt upon me and my kingdom? You have done things to me that should not be done.”

Genesis 20:10 And Abimelech asked Abraham, “What was your reason for doing this?”

Genesis 20:11 Abraham replied, “I said to myself,`There is surely no fear of God in this place, and they will kill me because of my wife.’

Genesis 20:12 Besides, she really is my sister, the daughter of my father though not of my mother; and she became my wife.

Genesis 20:13 And when God caused me to wander from my father’s household, I said to her,`This is how you can show your love to me: Everywhere we go, say of me, “He is my brother.”“

Genesis 20:14 Then Abimelech brought sheep and cattle and male and female slaves and gave them to Abraham, and he returned Sarah his wife to him.

Genesis 20:15 And Abimelech said, “My land is before you; live wherever you like.”

Genesis 20:16 To Sarah he said, “I am giving your brother a thousand shekels of silver. This is to cover the offence against you before all who are with you; you are completely vindicated.”

Genesis 20:17 Then Abraham prayed to God, and God healed Abimelech, his wife and his slave girls so they could have children again,

Genesis 20:18 for the LORD had closed up every womb in Abimelech’s household because of Abraham’s wife Sarah.

Genesis 21:1 Now the LORD was gracious to Sarah as he had said, and the LORD did for Sarah what he had promised.

Genesis 21:2 Sarah became pregnant and bore a son to Abraham in his old age, at the very time God had promised him.

Genesis 21:3 Abraham gave the name Isaac to the son Sarah bore him.

Genesis 21:4 When his son Isaac was eight days old, Abraham circumcised him, as God commanded him.

Genesis 21:5 Abraham was a hundred years old when his son Isaac was born to him.

Genesis 21:6 Sarah said, “God has brought me laughter, and everyone who hears about this will laugh with me.”

Genesis 21:7 And she added, “Who would have said to Abraham that Sarah would nurse children? Yet I have borne him a son in his old age.”

Genesis 21:8 The child grew and was weaned, and on the day Isaac was weaned Abraham held a great feast.

Genesis 21:9 But Sarah saw that the son whom Hagar the Egyptian had borne to Abraham was mocking,

Genesis 21:10 and she said to Abraham, “Get rid of that slave woman and her son, for that slave woman’s son will never share in the inheritance with my son Isaac.”

Genesis 21:11 The matter distressed Abraham greatly because it concerned his son.

Genesis 21:12 But God said to him, “Do not be so distressed about the boy and your maidservant. Listen to whatever Sarah tells you, because it is through Isaac that your offspring will be reckoned.

Genesis 21:13 I will make the son of the maidservant into a nation also, because he is your offspring.”

Genesis 21:14 Early the next morning Abraham took some food and a skin of water and gave them to Hagar. He set them on her shoulders and then sent her off with the boy. She went on her way and wandered in the desert of Beersheba.

Genesis 21:15 When the water in the skin was gone, she put the boy under one of the bushes.

Genesis 21:16 Then she went off and sat down nearby, about a bowshot away, for she thought, “I cannot watch the boy die.” And as she sat there nearby, she began to sob.

Genesis 21:17 God heard the boy crying, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What is the matter, Hagar? Do not be afraid; God has heard the boy crying as he lies there.

Genesis 21:18 Lift the boy up and take him by the hand, for I will make him into a great nation.”

Genesis 21:19 Then God opened her eyes and she saw a well of water. So she went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

Genesis 21:20 God was with the boy as he grew up. He lived in the desert and became an archer.

Genesis 21:21 While he was living in the Desert of Paran, his mother got a wife for him from Egypt.

Genesis 21:22 At that time Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces said to Abraham, “God is with you in everything you do.

Genesis 21:23 Now swear to me here before God that you will not deal falsely with me or my children or my descendants. Show to me and the country where you are living as an alien the same kindness I have shown to you.”

Genesis 21:24 Abraham said, “I swear it.”

Genesis 21:25 Then Abraham complained to Abimelech about a well of water that Abimelech’s servants had seized.

Genesis 21:26 But Abimelech said, “I don’t know who has done this. You did not tell me, and I heard about it only today.”

Genesis 21:27 So Abraham brought sheep and cattle and gave them to Abimelech, and the two men made a treaty.

Genesis 21:28 Abraham set apart seven ewe lambs from the flock,

Genesis 21:29 and Abimelech asked Abraham, “What is the meaning of these seven ewe lambs you have set apart by themselves?”

Genesis 21:30 He replied, “Accept these seven lambs from my hand as a witness that I dug this well.”

Genesis 21:31 So that place was called Beersheba, because the two men swore an oath there.

Genesis 21:32 After the treaty had been made at Beersheba, Abimelech and Phicol the commander of his forces returned to the land of the Philistines.

Genesis 21:33 Abraham planted a tamarisk tree in Beersheba, and there he called upon the name of the LORD, the Eternal God.

Genesis 21:34 And Abraham stayed in the land of the Philistines for a long time.

Genesis 22:1 Some time later God tested Abraham. He said to him, “Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied.

Genesis 22:2 Then God said, “Take your son, your only son, Isaac, whom you love, and go to the region of Moriah. Sacrifice him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains I will tell you about.”

Genesis 22:3 Early the next morning Abraham got up and saddled his donkey. He took with him two of his servants and his son Isaac. When he had cut enough wood for the burnt offering, he set out for the place God had told him about.

Genesis 22:4 On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place in the distance.

Genesis 22:5 He said to his servants, “Stay here with the donkey while I and the boy go over there. We will worship and then we will come back to you.”

Genesis 22:6 Abraham took the wood for the burnt offering and placed it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. As the two of them went on together,

Genesis 22:7 Isaac spoke up and said to his father Abraham, “Father?” “Yes, my son?” Abraham replied. “The fire and wood are here,” Isaac said, “but where is the lamb for the burnt offering?”

Genesis 22:8 Abraham answered, “God himself will provide the lamb for the burnt offering, my son.” And the two of them went on together.

Genesis 22:9 When they reached the place God had told him about, Abraham built an altar there and arranged the wood on it. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar, on top of the wood.

Genesis 22:10 Then he reached out his hand and took the knife to slay his son.

Genesis 22:11 But the angel of the LORD called out to him from heaven, “Abraham! Abraham!” “Here I am,” he replied.

Genesis 22:12 “Do not lay a hand on the boy,” he said. “Do not do anything to him. Now I know that you fear God, because you have not withheld from me your son, your only son.”

Genesis 22:13 Abraham looked up and there in a thicket he saw a ram caught by its horns. He went over and took the ram and sacrificed it as a burnt offering instead of his son.

Genesis 22:14 So Abraham called that place The LORD Will Provide. And to this day it is said, “On the mountain of the LORD it will be provided.”

Genesis 22:15 The angel of the LORD called to Abraham from heaven a second time

Genesis 22:16 and said, “I swear by myself, declares the LORD, that because you have done this and have not withheld your son, your only son,

Genesis 22:17 I will surely bless you and make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and as the sand on the seashore. Your descendants will take possession of the cities of their enemies,

Genesis 22:18 and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed, because you have obeyed me.”

Genesis 22:19 Then Abraham returned to his servants, and they set off together for Beersheba. And Abraham stayed in Beersheba.

Genesis 22:20 Some time later Abraham was told, “Milcah is also a mother; she has borne sons to your brother Nahor:

Genesis 22:21 Uz the firstborn, Buz his brother, Kemuel (the father of Aram),

Genesis 22:22 Kesed, Hazo, Pildash, Jidlaph and Bethuel.”

Genesis 22:23 Bethuel became the father of Rebekah. Milcah bore these eight sons to Abraham’s brother Nahor.

Genesis 22:24 His concubine, whose name was Reumah, also had sons: Tebah, Gaham, Tahash and Maacah.

Genesis 23:1 Sarah lived to be a hundred and twenty-seven years old.

Genesis 23:2 She died at Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the land of Canaan, and Abraham went to mourn for Sarah and to weep over her.

Genesis 23:3 Then Abraham rose from beside his dead wife and spoke to the Hittites. He said,

Genesis 23:4 “I am an alien and a stranger among you. Sell me some property for a burial site here so that I can bury my dead.”

Genesis 23:5 The Hittites replied to Abraham,

Genesis 23:6 “Sir, listen to us. You are a mighty prince among us. Bury your dead in the choicest of our tombs. None of us will refuse you his tomb for burying your dead.”

Genesis 23:7 Then Abraham rose and bowed down before the people of the land, the Hittites.

Genesis 23:8 He said to them, “If you are willing to let me bury my dead, then listen to me and intercede with Ephron son of Zohar on my behalf Genesis 23:9 so that he will sell me the cave of Machpelah, which belongs to him and is at the end of his field. Ask him to sell it to me for the full price as a burial site among you.”

Genesis 23:10 Ephron the Hittite was sitting among his people and he replied to Abraham in the hearing of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of his city.

Genesis 23:11 “No, my lord,” he said. “Listen to me; I give you the field, and I give you the cave that is in it. I give it to you in the presence of my people. Bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:12 Again Abraham bowed down before the people of the land

Genesis 23:13 and he said to Ephron in their hearing, “Listen to me, if you will. I will pay the price of the field. Accept it from me so that I can bury my dead there.”

Genesis 23:14 Ephron answered Abraham,

Genesis 23:15 “Listen to me, my lord; the land is worth four hundred shekels of silver, but what is that between me and you? Bury your dead.”

Genesis 23:16 Abraham agreed to Ephron’s terms and weighed out for him the price he had named in the hearing of the Hittites: four hundred shekels of silver, according to the weight current among the merchants.

Genesis 23:17 So Ephron’s field in Machpelah near Mamre—both the field and the cave in it, and all the trees within the borders of the field—was legally made over Genesis 23:18 to Abraham as his property in the presence of all the Hittites who had come to the gate of the city.

Genesis 23:19 Afterwards Abraham buried his wife Sarah in the cave in the field of Machpelah near Mamre (which is at Hebron) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 23:20 So the field and the cave in it were legally made over to Abraham by the Hittites as a burial site.

Genesis 24:1 Abraham was now old and well advanced in years, and the LORD had blessed him in every way.

Genesis 24:2 He said to the chief servant in his household, the one in charge of all that he had, “Put your hand under my thigh.

Genesis 24:3 I want you to swear by the LORD, the God of heaven and the God of earth, that you will not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, among whom I am living,

Genesis 24:4 but will go to my country and my own relatives and get a wife for my son Isaac."

Genesis 24:5 The servant asked him, "What if the woman is unwilling to come back with me to this land? Shall I then take your son back to the country you came from?"

Genesis 24:6 "Make sure that you do not take my son back there," Abraham said.

Genesis 24:7 "The LORD, the God of heaven, who brought me out of my father's household and my native land and who spoke to me and promised me on oath, saying,`To your offspring I will give this land'—he will send his angel before you so that you can get a wife for my son from there.

Genesis 24:8 If the woman is unwilling to come back with you, then you will be released from this oath of mine. Only do not take my son back there."

Genesis 24:9 So the servant put his hand under the thigh of his master Abraham and swore an oath to him concerning this matter.

Genesis 24:10 Then the servant took ten of his master's camels and left, taking with him all kinds of good things from his master. He set out for Aram Naharaim and made his way to the town of Nahor.

Genesis 24:11 He made the camels kneel down near the well outside the town; it was towards evening, the time the women go out to draw water.

Genesis 24:12 Then he prayed, "O LORD, God of my master Abraham, give me success today, and show kindness to my master Abraham.

Genesis 24:13 See, I am standing beside this spring, and the daughters of the townspeople are coming out to draw water.

Genesis 24:14 May it be that when I say to a girl,`Please let down your jar that I may have a drink,' and she says,`Drink, and I'll water your camels too'—let her be the one you have chosen for your servant Isaac. By this I will know that you have shown kindness to my master."

Genesis 24:15 Before he had finished praying, Rebekah came out with her jar on her shoulder. She was the daughter of Bethuel son of Milcah, who was the wife of Abraham's brother Nahor.

Genesis 24:16 The girl was very beautiful, a virgin; no man had ever lain with her. She went down to the spring, filled her jar and came up again.

Genesis 24:17 The servant hurried to meet her and said, "Please give me a little water from your jar."

Genesis 24:18 “Drink, my lord,” she said, and quickly lowered the jar to her hands and gave him a drink.

Genesis 24:19 After she had given him a drink, she said, “I’ll draw water for your camels too, until they have finished drinking.”

Genesis 24:20 So she quickly emptied her jar into the trough, ran back to the well to draw more water, and drew enough for all his camels.

Genesis 24:21 Without saying a word, the man watched her closely to learn whether or not the LORD had made his journey successful.

Genesis 24:22 When the camels had finished drinking, the man took out a gold nose ring weighing a beka and two gold bracelets weighing ten shekels.

Genesis 24:23 Then he asked, “Whose daughter are you? Please tell me, is there room in your father’s house for us to spend the night?”

Genesis 24:24 She answered him, “I am the daughter of Bethuel, the son that Milcah bore to Nahor.”

Genesis 24:25 And she added, “We have plenty of straw and fodder, as well as room for you to spend the night.”

Genesis 24:26 Then the man bowed down and worshipped the LORD,

Genesis 24:27 saying, “Praise be to the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who has not abandoned his kindness and faithfulness to my master. As for me, the LORD has led me on the journey to the house of my master’s relatives.”

Genesis 24:28 The girl ran and told her mother’s household about these things.

Genesis 24:29 Now Rebekah had a brother named Laban, and he hurried out to the man at the spring.

Genesis 24:30 As soon as he had seen the nose ring, and the bracelets on his sister’s arms, and had heard Rebekah tell what the man said to her, he went out to the man and found him standing by the camels near the spring.

Genesis 24:31 “Come, you who are blessed by the LORD,” he said. “Why are you standing out here? I have prepared the house and a place for the camels.”

Genesis 24:32 So the man went to the house, and the camels were unloaded. Straw and fodder were brought for the camels, and water for him and his men to wash their feet.

Genesis 24:33 Then food was set before him, but he said, “I will not eat until I have told you what I have to say.” “Then tell us,” [Laban] said.

Genesis 24:34 So he said, “I am Abraham’s servant.

Genesis 24:35 The LORD has blessed my master abundantly, and he has become wealthy. He has given him sheep and cattle, silver and gold, menservants and maidservants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 24:36 My master's wife Sarah has borne him a son in her old age, and he has given him everything he owns.

Genesis 24:37 And my master made me swear an oath, and said,`You must not get a wife for my son from the daughters of the Canaanites, in whose land I live,

Genesis 24:38 but go to my father's family and to my own clan, and get a wife for my son.'

Genesis 24:39 "Then I asked my master,`What if the woman will not come back with me?'

Genesis 24:40 "He replied,`The LORD, before whom I have walked, will send his angel with you and make your journey a success, so that you can get a wife for my son from my own clan and from my father's family.

Genesis 24:41 Then, when you go to my clan, you will be released from my oath even if they refuse to give her to you—you will be released from my oath.'

Genesis 24:42 "When I came to the spring today, I said,`O LORD, God of my master Abraham, if you will, please grant success to the journey on which I have come.

Genesis 24:43 See, I am standing beside this spring; if a maiden comes out to draw water and I say to her, "Please let me drink a little water from your jar,"

Genesis 24:44 and if she says to me, "Drink, and I'll draw water for your camels too," let her be the one the LORD has chosen for my master's son.'

Genesis 24:45 "Before I finished praying in my heart, Rebekah came out, with her jar on her shoulder. She went down to the spring and drew water, and I said to her,`Please give me a drink.'

Genesis 24:46 "She quickly lowered her jar from her shoulder and said,`Drink, and I'll water your camels too.' So I drank, and she watered the camels also.

Genesis 24:47 "I asked her,`Whose daughter are you?' "She said,`The daughter of Bethuel son of Nahor, whom Milcah bore to him.' "Then I put the ring in her nose and the bracelets on her arms,

Genesis 24:48 and I bowed down and worshipped the LORD. I praised the LORD, the God of my master Abraham, who had led me on the right road to get the granddaughter of my master's brother for his son.

Genesis 24:49 Now if you will show kindness and faithfulness to my master, tell me; and if not, tell me, so I may know which way to turn."

Genesis 24:50 Laban and Bethuel answered, “This is from the LORD; we can say nothing to you one way or the other.

Genesis 24:51 Here is Rebekah; take her and go, and let her become the wife of your master’s son, as the LORD has directed.”

Genesis 24:52 When Abraham’s servant heard what they said, he bowed down to the ground before the LORD.

Genesis 24:53 Then the servant brought out gold and silver jewellery and articles of clothing and gave them to Rebekah; he also gave costly gifts to her brother and to her mother.

Genesis 24:54 Then he and the men who were with him ate and drank and spent the night there. When they got up the next morning, he said, “Send me on my way to my master.”

Genesis 24:55 But her brother and her mother replied, “Let the girl remain with us ten days or so; then you may go.”

Genesis 24:56 But he said to them, “Do not detain me, now that the LORD has granted success to my journey. Send me on my way so I may go to my master.”

Genesis 24:57 Then they said, “Let’s call the girl and ask her about it.”

Genesis 24:58 So they called Rebekah and asked her, “Will you go with this man?” “I will go,” she said.

Genesis 24:59 So they sent their sister Rebekah on her way, along with her nurse and Abraham’s servant and his men.

Genesis 24:60 And they blessed Rebekah and said to her, “Our sister, may you increase to thousands upon thousands; may your offspring possess the gates of their enemies.”

Genesis 24:61 Then Rebekah and her maids got ready and mounted their camels and went back with the man. So the servant took Rebekah and left.

Genesis 24:62 Now Isaac had come from Beer Lahai Roi, for he was living in the Negev.

Genesis 24:63 He went out to the field one evening to meditate, and as he looked up, he saw camels approaching.

Genesis 24:64 Rebekah also looked up and saw Isaac. She got down from her camel

Genesis 24:65 and asked the servant, “Who is that man in the field coming to meet us?” “He is my master,” the servant answered. So she took her veil and covered herself.

Genesis 24:66 Then the servant told Isaac all he had done.

Genesis 24:67 Isaac brought her into the tent of his mother Sarah, and he married Rebekah. So she became his wife, and he loved her; and Isaac was comforted after his mother’s death.

Genesis 25:1 Abraham took another wife, whose name was Keturah.

Genesis 25:2 She bore him Zimran, Jokshan, Medan, Midian, Ishbak and Shuah.

Genesis 25:3 Jokshan was the father of Sheba and Dedan; the descendants of Dedan were the Asshurites, the Letushites and the Leummites.

Genesis 25:4 The sons of Midian were Ephah, Epher, Hanoch, Abida and Eldaah. All these were descendants of Keturah.

Genesis 25:5 Abraham left everything he owned to Isaac.

Genesis 25:6 But while he was still living, he gave gifts to the sons of his concubines and sent them away from his son Isaac to the land of the east.

Genesis 25:7 Altogether, Abraham lived a hundred and seventy-five years.

Genesis 25:8 Then Abraham breathed his last and died at a good old age, an old man and full of years; and he was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:9 His sons Isaac and Ishmael buried him in the cave of Machpelah near Mamre, in the field of Ephron son of Zohar the Hittite, Genesis 25:10 the field Abraham had bought from the Hittites. There Abraham was buried with his wife Sarah.

Genesis 25:11 After Abraham’s death, God blessed his son Isaac, who then lived near Beer Lahai Roi.

Genesis 25:12 This is the account of Abraham’s son Ishmael, whom Sarah’s maidservant, Hagar the Egyptian, bore to Abraham.

Genesis 25:13 These are the names of the sons of Ishmael, listed in the order of their birth: Nebaioth the firstborn of Ishmael, Kedar, Adbeel, Mibsam,

Genesis 25:14 Mishma, Dumah, Massa,

Genesis 25:15 Hadad, Tema, Jetur, Naphish and Kedemah.

Genesis 25:16 These were the sons of Ishmael, and these are the names of the twelve tribal rulers according to their settlements and camps.

Genesis 25:17 Altogether, Ishmael lived a hundred and thirty-seven years. He breathed his last and died, and he was gathered to his people.

Genesis 25:18 His descendants settled in the area from Havilah to Shur, near the border of Egypt, as you go towards Asshur. And they lived in hostility towards all their brothers.

Genesis 25:19 This is the account of Abraham’s son Isaac. Abraham became the father of Isaac, Genesis 25:20 and Isaac was forty years old when he married Rebekah daughter of Bethuel the Aramean from Paddan Aram and sister of Laban the Aramean.

Genesis 25:21 Isaac prayed to the LORD on behalf of his wife, because she was barren. The LORD answered his prayer, and his wife Rebekah became pregnant.

Genesis 25:22 The babies jostled each other within her, and she said, “Why is this happening to me?” So she went to enquire of the LORD.

Genesis 25:23 The LORD said to her, “Two nations are in your womb, and two peoples from within you will be separated; one people will be stronger than the other, and the older will serve the younger.”

Genesis 25:24 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

Genesis 25:25 The first to come out was red, and his whole body was like a hairy garment; so they named him Esau.

Genesis 25:26 After this, his brother came out, with his hand grasping Esau’s heel; so he was named Jacob. Isaac was sixty years old when Rebekah gave birth to them.

Genesis 25:27 The boys grew up, and Esau became a skilful hunter, a man of the open country, while Jacob was a quiet man, staying among the tents.

Genesis 25:28 Isaac, who had a taste for wild game, loved Esau, but Rebekah loved Jacob.

Genesis 25:29 Once when Jacob was cooking some stew, Esau came in from the open country, famished.

Genesis 25:30 He said to Jacob, “Quick, let me have some of that red stew! I’m famished!” (That is why he was also called Edom.)

Genesis 25:31 Jacob replied, “First sell me your birthright.”

Genesis 25:32 “Look, I am about to die,” Esau said. “What good is the birthright to me?”

Genesis 25:33 But Jacob said, “Swear to me first.” So he swore an oath to him, selling his birthright to Jacob.

Genesis 25:34 Then Jacob gave Esau some bread and some lentil stew. He ate and drank, and then got up and left. So Esau despised his birthright.

Genesis 26:1 Now there was a famine in the land—besides the earlier famine of Abraham’s time—and Isaac went to Abimelech king of the Philistines in Gerar.

Genesis 26:2 The LORD appeared to Isaac and said, “Do not go down to Egypt; live in the land where I tell you to live.

Genesis 26:3 Stay in this land for a while, and I will be with you and will bless you. For to you and your descendants I will give all these lands and will confirm the oath I swore to your father Abraham.

Genesis 26:4 I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and will give them all these lands, and through your offspring all nations on earth will be blessed,

Genesis 26:5 because Abraham obeyed me and kept my requirements, my commands, my decrees and my laws."

Genesis 26:6 So Isaac stayed in Gerar.

Genesis 26:7 When the men of that place asked him about his wife, he said, "She is my sister," because he was afraid to say, "She is my wife." He thought, "The men of this place might kill me on account of Rebekah, because she is beautiful."

Genesis 26:8 When Isaac had been there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked down from a window and saw Isaac caressing his wife Rebekah.

Genesis 26:9 So Abimelech summoned Isaac and said, "She is really your wife! Why did you say,`She is my sister'?" Isaac answered him, "Because I thought I might lose my life on account of her."

Genesis 26:10 Then Abimelech said, "What is this you have done to us? One of the men might well have slept with your wife, and you would have brought guilt upon us."

Genesis 26:11 So Abimelech gave orders to all the people: "Anyone who molests this man or his wife shall surely be put to death."

Genesis 26:12 Isaac planted crops in that land and the same year reaped a hundredfold, because the LORD blessed him.

Genesis 26:13 The man became rich, and his wealth continued to grow until he became very wealthy.

Genesis 26:14 He had so many flocks and herds and servants that the Philistines envied him.

Genesis 26:15 So all the wells that his father's servants had dug in the time of his father Abraham, the Philistines stopped up, filling them with earth.

Genesis 26:16 Then Abimelech said to Isaac, "Move away from us; you have become too powerful for us."

Genesis 26:17 So Isaac moved away from there and encamped in the Valley of Gerar and settled there.

Genesis 26:18 Isaac reopened the wells that had been dug in the time of his father Abraham, which the Philistines had stopped up after Abraham died, and he gave them the same names his father had given them.

Genesis 26:19 Isaac’s servants dug in the valley and discovered a well of fresh water there.

Genesis 26:20 But the herdsmen of Gerar quarrelled with Isaac’s herdsmen and said, “The water is ours!” So he named the well Esek, because they disputed with him.

Genesis 26:21 Then they dug another well, but they quarrelled over that one also; so he named it Sitnah.

Genesis 26:22 He moved on from there and dug another well, and no-one quarrelled over it. He named it Rehoboth, saying, “Now the LORD has given us room and we will flourish in the land.”

Genesis 26:23 From there he went up to Beersheba.

Genesis 26:24 That night the LORD appeared to him and said, “I am the God of your father Abraham. Do not be afraid, for I am with you; I will bless you and will increase the number of your descendants for the sake of my servant Abraham.”

Genesis 26:25 Isaac built an altar there and called on the name of the LORD. There he pitched his tent, and there his servants dug a well.

Genesis 26:26 Meanwhile, Abimelech had come to him from Gerar, with Ahuzzath his personal adviser and Phicol the commander of his forces.

Genesis 26:27 Isaac asked them, “Why have you come to me, since you were hostile to me and sent me away?”

Genesis 26:28 They answered, “We saw clearly that the LORD was with you; so we said,`There ought to be a sworn agreement between us’—between us and you. Let us make a treaty with you Genesis 26:29 that you will do us no harm, just as we did not molest you but always treated you well and sent you away in peace. And now you are blessed by the LORD.”

Genesis 26:30 Isaac then made a feast for them, and they ate and drank.

Genesis 26:31 Early the next morning the men swore an oath to each other. Then Isaac sent them on their way, and they left him in peace.

Genesis 26:32 That day Isaac’s servants came and told him about the well they had dug. They said, “We’ve found water!”

Genesis 26:33 He called it Shibah, and to this day the name of the town has been Beersheba.

Genesis 26:34 When Esau was forty years old, he married Judith daughter of Beeri the Hittite, and also Basemath daughter of Elon the Hittite.

Genesis 26:35 They were a source of grief to Isaac and Rebekah.

Genesis 27:1 When Isaac was old and his eyes were so weak that he could no longer see, he called for Esau his older son and said to him, “My son.” “Here I am,” he answered.

Genesis 27:2 Isaac said, “I am now an old man and don’t know the day of my death.

Genesis 27:3 Now then, get your weapons—your quiver and bow—and go out to the open country to hunt some wild game for me.

Genesis 27:4 Prepare me the kind of tasty food I like and bring it to me to eat, so that I may give you my blessing before I die.”

Genesis 27:5 Now Rebekah was listening as Isaac spoke to his son Esau. When Esau left for the open country to hunt game and bring it back,

Genesis 27:6 Rebekah said to her son Jacob, “Look, I overheard your father say to your brother Esau,

Genesis 27:7 `Bring me some game and prepare me some tasty food to eat, so that I may give you my blessing in the presence of the LORD before I die.’

Genesis 27:8 Now, my son, listen carefully and do what I tell you:

Genesis 27:9 Go out to the flock and bring me two choice young goats, so that I can prepare some tasty food for your father, just the way he likes it.

Genesis 27:10 Then take it to your father to eat, so that he may give you his blessing before he dies.”

Genesis 27:11 Jacob said to Rebekah his mother, “But my brother Esau is a hairy man, and I’m a man with smooth skin.

Genesis 27:12 What if my father touches me? I would appear to be tricking him and would bring down a curse on myself rather than a blessing.”

Genesis 27:13 His mother said to him, “My son, let the curse fall on me. Just do what I say; go and get them for me.”

Genesis 27:14 So he went and got them and brought them to his mother, and she prepared some tasty food, just the way his father liked it.

Genesis 27:15 Then Rebekah took the best clothes of Esau her older son, which she had in the house, and put them on her younger son Jacob.

Genesis 27:16 She also covered his hands and the smooth part of his neck with the goatskins.

Genesis 27:17 Then she handed to her son Jacob the tasty food and the bread she had made.

Genesis 27:18 He went to his father and said, “My father.” “Yes, my son,” he answered. “Who is it?”

Genesis 27:19 Jacob said to his father, “I am Esau your firstborn. I have done as you told me. Please sit up and eat some of my game so that you may give me your blessing.”

Genesis 27:20 Isaac asked his son, “How did you find it so quickly, my son?” “The LORD your God gave me success,” he replied.

Genesis 27:21 Then Isaac said to Jacob, “Come near so I can touch you, my son, to know whether you really are my son Esau or not.”

Genesis 27:22 Jacob went close to his father Isaac, who touched him and said, “The voice is the voice of Jacob, but the hands are the hands of Esau.”

Genesis 27:23 He did not recognise him, for his hands were hairy like those of his brother Esau; so he blessed him.

Genesis 27:24 “Are you really my son Esau?” he asked. “I am,” he replied.

Genesis 27:25 Then he said, “My son, bring me some of your game to eat, so that I may give you my blessing.” Jacob brought it to him and he ate; and he brought some wine and he drank.

Genesis 27:26 Then his father Isaac said to him, “Come here, my son, and kiss me.”

Genesis 27:27 So he went to him and kissed him. When Isaac caught the smell of his clothes, he blessed him and said, “Ah, the smell of my son is like the smell of a field that the LORD has blessed.

Genesis 27:28 May God give you of heaven’s dew and of earth’s richness—an abundance of grain and new wine.

Genesis 27:29 May nations serve you and peoples bow down to you. Be lord over your brothers, and may the sons of your mother bow down to you. May those who curse you be cursed and those who bless you be blessed.”

Genesis 27:30 After Isaac finished blessing him and Jacob had scarcely left his father’s presence, his brother Esau came in from hunting.

Genesis 27:31 He too prepared some tasty food and brought it to his father. Then he said to him, “My father, sit up and eat some of my game, so that you may give me your blessing.”

Genesis 27:32 His father Isaac asked him, “Who are you?” “I am your son,” he answered, “your firstborn, Esau.”

Genesis 27:33 Isaac trembled violently and said, “Who was it, then, that hunted game and brought it to me? I ate it just before you came and I blessed him—and indeed he will be blessed!”

Genesis 27:34 When Esau heard his father’s words, he burst out with a loud and bitter cry and said to his father, “Bless me—me too, my father!”

Genesis 27:35 But he said, “Your brother came deceitfully and took your blessing.”

Genesis 27:36 Esau said, “Isn’t he rightly named Jacob? He has deceived me these two times: He took my birthright, and now he’s taken my blessing!” Then he asked, “Haven’t you reserved any blessing for me?”

Genesis 27:37 Isaac answered Esau, “I have made him lord over you and have made all his relatives his servants, and I have sustained him with grain and new wine. So what can I possibly do for you, my son?”

Genesis 27:38 Esau said to his father, “Do you have only one blessing, my father? Bless me too, my father!” Then Esau wept aloud.

Genesis 27:39 His father Isaac answered him, “Your dwelling will be away from the earth’s richness, away from the dew of heaven above.

Genesis 27:40 You will live by the sword and you will serve your brother. But when you grow restless, you will throw his yoke from off your neck.”

Genesis 27:41 Esau held a grudge against Jacob because of the blessing his father had given him. He said to himself, “The days of mourning for my father are near; then I will kill my brother Jacob.”

Genesis 27:42 When Rebekah was told what her older son Esau had said, she sent for her younger son Jacob and said to him, “Your brother Esau is consoling himself with the thought of killing you.

Genesis 27:43 Now then, my son, do what I say: Flee at once to my brother Laban in Haran.

Genesis 27:44 Stay with him for a while until your brother’s fury subsides.

Genesis 27:45 When your brother is no longer angry with you and forgets what you did to him, I’ll send word for you to come back from there. Why should I lose both of you in one day?”

Genesis 27:46 Then Rebekah said to Isaac, “I’m disgusted with living because of these Hittite women. If Jacob takes a wife from among the women of this land, from Hittite women like these, my life will not be worth living.”

Genesis 28:1 So Isaac called for Jacob and blessed him and commanded him: “Do not marry a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 28:2 Go at once to Paddan Aram, to the house of your mother’s father Bethuel. Take a wife for yourself there, from among the daughters of Laban, your mother’s brother.

Genesis 28:3 May God Almighty bless you and make you fruitful and increase your numbers until you become a community of peoples.

Genesis 28:4 May he give you and your descendants the blessing given to Abraham, so that you may take possession of the land where you now live as an alien, the land God gave to Abraham.”

Genesis 28:5 Then Isaac sent Jacob on his way, and he went to Paddan Aram, to Laban son of Bethuel the Aramean, the brother of Rebekah, who was the mother of Jacob and Esau.

Genesis 28:6 Now Esau learned that Isaac had blessed Jacob and had sent him to Paddan Aram to take a wife from there, and that when he blessed him he commanded him, “Do not marry a Canaanite woman,” Genesis 28:7 and that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother and had gone to Paddan Aram.

Genesis 28:8 Esau then realised how displeasing the Canaanite women were to his father Isaac;

Genesis 28:9 so he went to Ishmael and married Mahalath, the sister of Nebaioth and daughter of Ishmael son of Abraham, in addition to the wives he already had.

Genesis 28:10 Jacob left Beersheba and set out for Haran.

Genesis 28:11 When he reached a certain place, he stopped for the night because the sun had set. Taking one of the stones there, he put it under his head and lay down to sleep.

Genesis 28:12 He had a dream in which he saw a stairway resting on the earth, with its top reaching to heaven, and the angels of God were ascending and descending on it.

Genesis 28:13 There above it stood the LORD, and he said: “I am the LORD, the God of your father Abraham and the God of Isaac. I will give you and your descendants the land on which you are lying.

Genesis 28:14 Your descendants will be like the dust of the earth, and you will spread out to the west and to the east, to the north and to the south. All peoples on earth will be blessed through you and your offspring.

Genesis 28:15 I am with you and will watch over you wherever you go, and I will bring you back to this land. I will not leave you until I have done what I have promised you.”

Genesis 28:16 When Jacob awoke from his sleep, he thought, “Surely the LORD is in this place, and I was not aware of it.”

Genesis 28:17 He was afraid and said, “How awesome is this place! This is none other than the house of God; this is the gate of heaven.”

Genesis 28:18 Early the next morning Jacob took the stone he had placed under his head and set it up as a pillar and poured oil on top of it.

Genesis 28:19 He called that place Bethel, though the city used to be called Luz.

Genesis 28:20 Then Jacob made a vow, saying, “If God will be with me and will watch over me on this journey I am taking and will give me food to eat and clothes to wear

Genesis 28:21 so that I return safely to my father’s house, then the LORD will be my God

Genesis 28:22 and this stone that I have set up as a pillar will be God’s house, and of all that you give me I will give you a tenth.”

Genesis 29:1 Then Jacob continued on his journey and came to the land of the eastern peoples.

Genesis 29:2 There he saw a well in the field, with three flocks of sheep lying near it because the flocks were watered from that well. The stone over the mouth of the well was large.

Genesis 29:3 When all the flocks were gathered there, the shepherds would roll the stone away from the well’s mouth and water the sheep. Then they would return the stone to its place over the mouth of the well.

Genesis 29:4 Jacob asked the shepherds, “My brothers, where are you from?” “We’re from Haran,” they replied.

Genesis 29:5 He said to them, “Do you know Laban, Nahor’s grandson?” “Yes, we know him,” they answered.

Genesis 29:6 Then Jacob asked them, “Is he well?” “Yes, he is,” they said, “and here comes his daughter Rachel with the sheep.”

Genesis 29:7 “Look,” he said, “the sun is still high; it is not time for the flocks to be gathered. Water the sheep and take them back to pasture.”

Genesis 29:8 “We can’t,” they replied, “until all the flocks are gathered and the stone has been rolled away from the mouth of the well. Then we will water the sheep.”

Genesis 29:9 While he was still talking with them, Rachel came with her father’s sheep, for she was a shepherdess.

Genesis 29:10 When Jacob saw Rachel daughter of Laban, his mother’s brother, and Laban’s sheep, he went over and rolled the stone away from the mouth of the well and watered his uncle’s sheep.

Genesis 29:11 Then Jacob kissed Rachel and began to weep aloud.

Genesis 29:12 He had told Rachel that he was a relative of her father and a son of Rebekah. So she ran and told her father.

Genesis 29:13 As soon as Laban heard the news about Jacob, his sister’s son, he hurried to meet him. He embraced him and kissed him and brought him to his home, and there Jacob told him all these things.

Genesis 29:14 Then Laban said to him, “You are my own flesh and blood.” After Jacob had stayed with him for a whole month,

Genesis 29:15 Laban said to him, “Just because you are a relative of mine, should you work for me for nothing? Tell me what your wages should be.”

Genesis 29:16 Now Laban had two daughters; the name of the older was Leah, and the name of the younger was Rachel.

Genesis 29:17 Leah had weak eyes, but Rachel was lovely in form, and beautiful.

Genesis 29:18 Jacob was in love with Rachel and said, “I’ll work for you seven years in return for your younger daughter Rachel.”

Genesis 29:19 Laban said, “It’s better that I give her to you than to some other man. Stay here with me.”

Genesis 29:20 So Jacob served seven years to get Rachel, but they seemed like only a few days to him because of his love for her.

Genesis 29:21 Then Jacob said to Laban, “Give me my wife. My time is completed, and I want to lie with her.”

Genesis 29:22 So Laban brought together all the people of the place and gave a feast.

Genesis 29:23 But when evening came, he took his daughter Leah and gave her to Jacob, and Jacob lay with her.

Genesis 29:24 And Laban gave his servant girl Zilpah to his daughter as her maidservant.

Genesis 29:25 When morning came, there was Leah! So Jacob said to Laban, “What is this you have done to me? I served you for Rachel, didn’t I? Why have you deceived me?”

Genesis 29:26 Laban replied, “It is not our custom here to give the younger daughter in marriage before the older one.

Genesis 29:27 Finish this daughter’s bridal week; then we will give you the younger one also, in return for another seven years of work.”

Genesis 29:28 And Jacob did so. He finished the week with Leah, and then Laban gave him his daughter Rachel to be his wife.

Genesis 29:29 Laban gave his servant girl Bilhah to his daughter Rachel as her maidservant.

Genesis 29:30 Jacob lay with Rachel also, and he loved Rachel more than Leah. And he worked for Laban another seven years.

Genesis 29:31 When the LORD saw that Leah was not loved, he opened her womb, but Rachel was barren.

Genesis 29:32 Leah became pregnant and gave birth to a son. She named him Reuben, for she said, “It is because the LORD has seen my misery. Surely my husband will love me now.”

Genesis 29:33 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “Because the LORD heard that I am not loved, he gave me this one too.” So she named him Simeon.

Genesis 29:34 Again she conceived, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “Now at last my husband will become attached to me, because I have borne him three sons.” So he was named Levi.

Genesis 29:35 She conceived again, and when she gave birth to a son she said, “This time I will praise the LORD.” So she named him Judah. Then she stopped having children.

Genesis 30:1 When Rachel saw that she was not bearing Jacob any children, she became jealous of her sister. So she said to Jacob, “Give me children, or I’ll die!”

Genesis 30:2 Jacob became angry with her and said, “Am I in the place of God, who has kept you from having children?”

Genesis 30:3 Then she said, “Here is Bilhah, my maidservant. Sleep with her so that she can bear children for me and that through her I too can build a family.”

Genesis 30:4 So she gave him her servant Bilhah as a wife. Jacob slept with her,

Genesis 30:5 and she became pregnant and bore him a son.

Genesis 30:6 Then Rachel said, “God has vindicated me; he has listened to my plea and given me a son.” Because of this she named him Dan.

Genesis 30:7 Rachel’s servant Bilhah conceived again and bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:8 Then Rachel said, “I have had a great struggle with my sister, and I have won.” So she named him Naphtali.

Genesis 30:9 When Leah saw that she had stopped having children, she took her maidservant Zilpah and gave her to Jacob as a wife.

Genesis 30:10 Leah’s servant Zilpah bore Jacob a son.

Genesis 30:11 Then Leah said, “What good fortune!” So she named him Gad.

Genesis 30:12 Leah’s servant Zilpah bore Jacob a second son.

Genesis 30:13 Then Leah said, “How happy I am! The women will call me happy.” So she named him Asher.

Genesis 30:14 During wheat harvest, Reuben went out into the fields and found some mandrake plants, which he brought to his mother Leah. Rachel said to Leah, “Please give me some of your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:15 But she said to her, “Wasn’t it enough that you took away my husband? Will you take my son’s mandrakes too?” “Very well,” Rachel said, “he can sleep with you tonight in return for your son’s mandrakes.”

Genesis 30:16 So when Jacob came in from the fields that evening, Leah went out to meet him. “You must sleep with me,” she said. “I have hired you with my son’s mandrakes.” So he slept with her that night.

Genesis 30:17 God listened to Leah, and she became pregnant and bore Jacob a fifth son.

Genesis 30:18 Then Leah said, “God has rewarded me for giving my maidservant to my husband.” So she named him Issachar.

Genesis 30:19 Leah conceived again and bore Jacob a sixth son.

Genesis 30:20 Then Leah said, “God has presented me with a precious gift. This time my husband will treat me with honour, because I have borne him six sons.” So she named him Zebulun.

Genesis 30:21 Some time later she gave birth to a daughter and named her Dinah.

Genesis 30:22 Then God remembered Rachel; he listened to her and opened her womb.

Genesis 30:23 She became pregnant and gave birth to a son and said, “God has taken away my disgrace.”

Genesis 30:24 She named him Joseph, and said, “May the LORD add to me another son.”

Genesis 30:25 After Rachel gave birth to Joseph, Jacob said to Laban, “Send me on my way so that I can go back to my own homeland.

Genesis 30:26 Give me my wives and children, for whom I have served you, and I will be on my way. You know how much work I’ve done for you.”

Genesis 30:27 But Laban said to him, “If I have found favour in your eyes, please stay. I have learned by divination that the LORD has blessed me because of you.”

Genesis 30:28 He added, “Name your wages, and I will pay them.”

Genesis 30:29 Jacob said to him, “You know how I have worked for you and how your livestock has fared under my care.

Genesis 30:30 The little you had before I came has increased greatly, and the LORD has blessed you wherever I have been. But now, when may I do something for my own household?”

Genesis 30:31 “What shall I give you?” he asked. “Don’t give me anything,” Jacob replied. “But if you will do this one thing for me, I will go on tending your flocks and watching over them:

Genesis 30:32 Let me go through all your flocks today and remove from them every speckled or spotted sheep, every dark-coloured lamb and every spotted or speckled goat. They will be my wages.

Genesis 30:33 And my honesty will testify for me in the future, whenever you check on the wages you have paid me. Any goat in my possession that is not speckled or spotted, or any lamb that is not dark-coloured, will be considered stolen.”

Genesis 30:34 “Agreed,” said Laban. “Let it be as you have said.”

Genesis 30:35 That same day he removed all the male goats that were streaked or spotted, and all the speckled or spotted female goats (all that had white on them) and all the dark-coloured lambs, and he placed them in the care of his sons.

Genesis 30:36 Then he put a three-day journey between himself and Jacob, while Jacob continued to tend the rest of Laban’s flocks.

Genesis 30:37 Jacob, however, took fresh-cut branches from poplar, almond and plane trees and made white stripes on them by peeling the bark and exposing the white inner wood of the branches.

Genesis 30:38 Then he placed the peeled branches in all the watering troughs, so that they would be directly in front of the flocks when they came to drink. When the flocks were in heat and came to drink,

Genesis 30:39 they mated in front of the branches. And they bore young that were streaked or speckled or spotted.

Genesis 30:40 Jacob set apart the young of the flock by themselves, but made the rest face the streaked and dark-coloured animals that belonged to Laban. Thus he made separate flocks for himself and did not put them with Laban’s animals.

Genesis 30:41 Whenever the stronger females were in heat, Jacob would place the branches in the troughs in front of the animals so that they would mate near the branches,

Genesis 30:42 but if the animals were weak, he would not place them there. So the weak animals went to Laban and the strong ones to Jacob.

Genesis 30:43 In this way the man grew exceedingly prosperous and came to own large flocks, and maidservants and menservants, and camels and donkeys.

Genesis 31:1 Jacob heard that Laban’s sons were saying, “Jacob has taken everything our father owned and has gained all this wealth from what belonged to our father.”

Genesis 31:2 And Jacob noticed that Laban’s attitude towards him was not what it had been.

Genesis 31:3 Then the LORD said to Jacob, “Go back to the land of your fathers and to your relatives, and I will be with you.”

Genesis 31:4 So Jacob sent word to Rachel and Leah to come out to the fields where his flocks were.

Genesis 31:5 He said to them, “I see that your father’s attitude towards me is not what it was before, but the God of my father has been with me.

Genesis 31:6 You know that I’ve worked for your father with all my strength,

Genesis 31:7 yet your father has cheated me by changing my wages ten times. However, God has not allowed him to harm me.

Genesis 31:8 If he said,`The speckled ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks gave birth to speckled young; and if he said,`The streaked ones will be your wages,' then all the flocks bore streaked young.

Genesis 31:9 So God has taken away your father's livestock and has given them to me.

Genesis 31:10 "In the breeding season I once had a dream in which I looked up and saw that the male goats mating with the flock were streaked, speckled or spotted.

Genesis 31:11 The angel of God said to me in the dream,`Jacob.' I answered,`Here I am.'

Genesis 31:12 And he said,`Look up and see that all the male goats mating with the flock are streaked, speckled or spotted, for I have seen all that Laban has been doing to you.

Genesis 31:13 I am the God of Bethel, where you anointed a pillar and where you made a vow to me. Now leave this land at once and go back to your native land.'" Genesis 31:14 Then Rachel and Leah replied, "Do we still have any share in the inheritance of our father's estate?

Genesis 31:15 Does he not regard us as foreigners? Not only has he sold us, but he has used up what was paid for us.

Genesis 31:16 Surely all the wealth that God took away from our father belongs to us and our children. So do whatever God has told you."

Genesis 31:17 Then Jacob put his children and his wives on camels,

Genesis 31:18 and he drove all his livestock ahead of him, along with all the goods he had accumulated in Paddan Aram, to go to his father Isaac in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 31:19 When Laban had gone to shear his sheep, Rachel stole her father's household gods.

Genesis 31:20 Moreover, Jacob deceived Laban the Aramean by not telling him he was running away.

Genesis 31:21 So he fled with all he had, and crossing the River, he headed for the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:22 On the third day Laban was told that Jacob had fled.

Genesis 31:23 Taking his relatives with him, he pursued Jacob for seven days and caught up with him in the hill country of Gilead.

Genesis 31:24 Then God came to Laban the Aramean in a dream at night and said to him, "Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad."

Genesis 31:25 Jacob had pitched his tent in the hill country of Gilead when Laban overtook him, and Laban and his relatives camped there too.

Genesis 31:26 Then Laban said to Jacob, “What have you done? You’ve deceived me, and you’ve carried off my daughters like captives in war.

Genesis 31:27 Why did you run off secretly and deceive me? Why didn’t you tell me, so that I could send you away with joy and singing to the music of tambourines and harps?

Genesis 31:28 You didn’t even let me kiss my grandchildren and my daughters good-bye. You have done a foolish thing.

Genesis 31:29 I have the power to harm you; but last night the God of your father said to me,`Be careful not to say anything to Jacob, either good or bad.’

Genesis 31:30 Now you have gone off because you longed to return to your father’s house. But why did you steal my gods?”

Genesis 31:31 Jacob answered Laban, “I was afraid, because I thought you would take your daughters away from me by force.

Genesis 31:32 But if you find anyone who has your gods, he shall not live. In the presence of our relatives, see for yourself whether there is anything of yours here with me; and if so, take it.” Now Jacob did not know that Rachel had stolen the gods.

Genesis 31:33 So Laban went into Jacob’s tent and into Leah’s tent and into the tent of the two maidservants, but he found nothing. After he came out of Leah’s tent, he entered Rachel’s tent.

Genesis 31:34 Now Rachel had taken the household gods and put them inside her camel’s saddle and was sitting on them. Laban searched through everything in the tent but found nothing.

Genesis 31:35 Rachel said to her father, “Don’t be angry, my lord, that I cannot stand up in your presence; I’m having my period.” So he searched but could not find the household gods.

Genesis 31:36 Jacob was angry and took Laban to task. “What is my crime?” he asked Laban. “What sin have I committed that you hunt me down?

Genesis 31:37 Now that you have searched through all my goods, what have you found that belongs to your household? Put it here in front of your relatives and mine, and let them judge between the two of us.

Genesis 31:38 “I have been with you for twenty years now. Your sheep and goats have not miscarried, nor have I eaten rams from your flocks.

Genesis 31:39 I did not bring you animals torn by wild beasts; I bore the loss myself. And you demanded payment from me for whatever was stolen by day or night.

Genesis 31:40 This was my situation: The heat consumed me in the daytime and the cold at night, and sleep fled from my eyes.

Genesis 31:41 It was like this for the twenty years I was in your household. I worked for you fourteen years for your two daughters and six years for your flocks, and you changed my wages ten times.

Genesis 31:42 If the God of my father, the God of Abraham and the Fear of Isaac, had not been with me, you would surely have sent me away empty-handed. But God has seen my hardship and the toil of my hands, and last night he rebuked you.”

Genesis 31:43 Laban answered Jacob, “The women are my daughters, the children are my children, and the flocks are my flocks. All you see is mine. Yet what can I do today about these daughters of mine, or about the children they have borne?

Genesis 31:44 Come now, let’s make a covenant, you and I, and let it serve as a witness between us.”

Genesis 31:45 So Jacob took a stone and set it up as a pillar.

Genesis 31:46 He said to his relatives, “Gather some stones.” So they took stones and piled them in a heap, and they ate there by the heap.

Genesis 31:47 Laban called it Jegar Sahadutha, and Jacob called it Galeed.

Genesis 31:48 Laban said, “This heap is a witness between you and me today.” That is why it was called Galeed.

Genesis 31:49 It was also called Mizpah, because he said, “May the LORD keep watch between you and me when we are away from each other.

Genesis 31:50 If you ill-treat my daughters or if you take any wives besides my daughters, even though no-one is with us, remember that God is a witness between you and me.”

Genesis 31:51 Laban also said to Jacob, “Here is this heap, and here is this pillar I have set up between you and me.

Genesis 31:52 This heap is a witness, and this pillar is a witness, that I will not go past this heap to your side to harm you and that you will not go past this heap and pillar to my side to harm me.

Genesis 31:53 May the God of Abraham and the God of Nahor, the God of their father, judge between us.” So Jacob took an oath in the name of the Fear of his father Isaac.

Genesis 31:54 He offered a sacrifice there in the hill country and invited his relatives to a meal. After they had eaten, they spent the night there.

Genesis 31:55 Early the next morning Laban kissed his grandchildren and his daughters and blessed them. Then he left and returned home.

Genesis 32:1 Jacob also went on his way, and the angels of God met him.

Genesis 32:2 When Jacob saw them, he said, “This is the camp of God!” So he named that place Mahanaim.

Genesis 32:3 Jacob sent messengers ahead of him to his brother Esau in the land of Seir, the country of Edom.

Genesis 32:4 He instructed them: “This is what you are to say to my master Esau:`Your servant Jacob says, I have been staying with Laban and have remained there till now.

Genesis 32:5 I have cattle and donkeys, sheep and goats, menservants and maidservants. Now I am sending this message to my lord, that I may find favour in your eyes.’“

Genesis 32:6 When the messengers returned to Jacob, they said, “We went to your brother Esau, and now he is coming to meet you, and four hundred men are with him.”

Genesis 32:7 In great fear and distress Jacob divided the people who were with him into two groups, and the flocks and herds and camels as well.

Genesis 32:8 He thought, “If Esau comes and attacks one group, the group that is left may escape.”

Genesis 32:9 Then Jacob prayed, “O God of my father Abraham, God of my father Isaac, O LORD, who said to me,`Go back to your country and your relatives, and I will make you prosper,’ Genesis 32:10 I am unworthy of all the kindness and faithfulness you have shown your servant. I had only my staff when I crossed this Jordan, but now I have become two groups.

Genesis 32:11 Save me, I pray, from the hand of my brother Esau, for I am afraid he will come and attack me, and also the mothers with their children.

Genesis 32:12 But you have said,`I will surely make you prosper and will make your descendants like the sand of the sea, which cannot be counted.’“

Genesis 32:13 He spent the night there, and from what he had with him he selected a gift for his brother Esau:

Genesis 32:14 two hundred female goats and twenty male goats, two hundred ewes and twenty rams,

Genesis 32:15 thirty female camels with their young, forty cows and ten bulls, and twenty female donkeys and ten male donkeys.

Genesis 32:16 He put them in the care of his servants, each herd by itself, and said to his servants, “Go ahead of me, and keep some space between the herds.”

Genesis 32:17 He instructed the one in the lead: “When my brother Esau meets you and asks,`To whom do you belong, and where are you going, and who owns all these animals in front of you?’

Genesis 32:18 then you are to say,`They belong to your servant Jacob. They are a gift sent to my lord Esau, and he is coming behind us.'"

Genesis 32:19 He also instructed the second, the third and all the others who followed the herds: "You are to say the same thing to Esau when you meet him.

Genesis 32:20 And be sure to say,`Your servant Jacob is coming behind us.'" For he thought, "I will pacify him with these gifts I am sending on ahead; later, when I see him, perhaps he will receive me."

Genesis 32:21 So Jacob's gifts went on ahead of him, but he himself spent the night in the camp.

Genesis 32:22 That night Jacob got up and took his two wives, his two maidservants and his eleven sons and crossed the ford of the Jabbok.

Genesis 32:23 After he had sent them across the stream, he sent over all his possessions.

Genesis 32:24 So Jacob was left alone, and a man wrestled with him till daybreak.

Genesis 32:25 When the man saw that he could not overpower him, he touched the socket of Jacob's hip so that his hip was wrenched as he wrestled with the man.

Genesis 32:26 Then the man said, "Let me go, for it is daybreak." But Jacob replied, "I will not let you go unless you bless me."

Genesis 32:27 The man asked him, "What is your name?" "Jacob," he answered.

Genesis 32:28 Then the man said, "Your name will no longer be Jacob, but Israel, because you have struggled with God and with men and have overcome."

Genesis 32:29 Jacob said, "Please tell me your name." But he replied, "Why do you ask my name?" Then he blessed him there.

Genesis 32:30 So Jacob called the place Peniel, saying, "It is because I saw God face to face, and yet my life was spared."

Genesis 32:31 The sun rose above him as he passed Peniel, and he was limping because of his hip.

Genesis 32:32 Therefore to this day the Israelites do not eat the tendon attached to the socket of the hip, because the socket of Jacob's hip was touched near the tendon.

Genesis 33:1 Jacob looked up and there was Esau, coming with his four hundred men; so he divided the children among Leah, Rachel and the two maidservants.

Genesis 33:2 He put the maidservants and their children in front, Leah and her children next, and Rachel and Joseph in the rear.

Genesis 33:3 He himself went on ahead and bowed down to the ground seven times as he approached his brother.

Genesis 33:4 But Esau ran to meet Jacob and embraced him; he threw his arms around his neck and kissed him. And they wept.

Genesis 33:5 Then Esau looked up and saw the women and children. “Who are these with you?” he asked. Jacob answered, “They are the children God has graciously given your servant.”

Genesis 33:6 Then the maidservants and their children approached and bowed down.

Genesis 33:7 Next, Leah and her children came and bowed down. Last of all came Joseph and Rachel, and they too bowed down.

Genesis 33:8 Esau asked, “What do you mean by all these droves I met?” “To find favour in your eyes, my lord,” he said.

Genesis 33:9 But Esau said, “I already have plenty, my brother. Keep what you have for yourself.”

Genesis 33:10 “No, please!” said Jacob. “If I have found favour in your eyes, accept this gift from me. For to see your face is like seeing the face of God, now that you have received me favourably.

Genesis 33:11 Please accept the present that was brought to you, for God has been gracious to me and I have all I need.” And because Jacob insisted, Esau accepted it.

Genesis 33:12 Then Esau said, “Let us be on our way; I’ll accompany you.”

Genesis 33:13 But Jacob said to him, “My lord knows that the children are tender and that I must care for the ewes and cows that are nursing their young. If they are driven hard just one day, all the animals will die.

Genesis 33:14 So let my lord go on ahead of his servant, while I move along slowly at the pace of the droves before me and that of the children, until I come to my lord in Seir.”

Genesis 33:15 Esau said, “Then let me leave some of my men with you.” “But why do that?” Jacob asked. “Just let me find favour in the eyes of my lord.”

Genesis 33:16 So that day Esau started on his way back to Seir.

Genesis 33:17 Jacob, however, went to Succoth, where he built a place for himself and made shelters for his livestock. That is why the place is called Succoth.

Genesis 33:18 After Jacob came from Paddan Aram, he arrived safely at the city of Shechem in Canaan and camped within sight of the city.

Genesis 33:19 For a hundred pieces of silver, he bought from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem, the plot of ground where he pitched his tent.

Genesis 33:20 There he set up an altar and called it El Elohe Israel.

Genesis 34:1 Now Dinah, the daughter Leah had borne to Jacob, went out to visit the women of the land.

Genesis 34:2 When Shechem son of Hamor the Hivite, the ruler of that area, saw her, he took her and raped her.

Genesis 34:3 His heart was drawn to Dinah daughter of Jacob, and he loved the girl and spoke tenderly to her.

Genesis 34:4 And Shechem said to his father Hamor, “Get me this girl as my wife.”

Genesis 34:5 When Jacob heard that his daughter Dinah had been defiled, his sons were in the fields with his livestock; so he kept quiet about it until they came home.

Genesis 34:6 Then Shechem’s father Hamor went out to talk with Jacob.

Genesis 34:7 Now Jacob’s sons had come in from the fields as soon as they heard what had happened. They were filled with grief and fury, because Shechem had done a disgraceful thing in Israel by lying with Jacob’s daughter—a thing that should not be done.

Genesis 34:8 But Hamor said to them, “My son Shechem has his heart set on your daughter. Please give her to him as his wife.

Genesis 34:9 Intermarry with us; give us your daughters and take our daughters for yourselves.

Genesis 34:10 You can settle among us; the land is open to you. Live in it, trade in it, and acquire property in it.”

Genesis 34:11 Then Shechem said to Dinah’s father and brothers, “Let me find favour in your eyes, and I will give you whatever you ask.

Genesis 34:12 Make the price for the bride and the gift I am to bring as great as you like, and I’ll pay whatever you ask me. Only give me the girl as my wife.”

Genesis 34:13 Because their sister Dinah had been defiled, Jacob’s sons replied deceitfully as they spoke to Shechem and his father Hamor.

Genesis 34:14 They said to them, “We can’t do such a thing; we can’t give our sister to a man who is not circumcised. That would be a disgrace to us.

Genesis 34:15 We will give our consent to you on one condition only: that you become like us by circumcising all your males.

Genesis 34:16 Then we will give you our daughters and take your daughters for ourselves. We’ll settle among you and become one people with you.

Genesis 34:17 But if you will not agree to be circumcised, we'll take our sister and go."

Genesis 34:18 Their proposal seemed good to Hamor and his son Shechem.

Genesis 34:19 The young man, who was the most honoured of all his father's household, lost no time in doing what they said, because he was delighted with Jacob's daughter.

Genesis 34:20 So Hamor and his son Shechem went to the gate of their city to speak to their fellow townsmen.

Genesis 34:21 "These men are friendly towards us," they said. "Let them live in our land and trade in it; the land has plenty of room for them. We can marry their daughters and they can marry ours.

Genesis 34:22 But the men will consent to live with us as one people only on the condition that our males be circumcised, as they themselves are.

Genesis 34:23 Won't their livestock, their property and all their other animals become ours? So let us give our consent to them, and they will settle among us."

Genesis 34:24 All the men who went out of the city gate agreed with Hamor and his son Shechem, and every male in the city was circumcised.

Genesis 34:25 Three days later, while all of them were still in pain, two of Jacob's sons, Simeon and Levi, Dinah's brothers, took their swords and attacked the unsuspecting city, killing every male.

Genesis 34:26 They put Hamor and his son Shechem to the sword and took Dinah from Shechem's house and left.

Genesis 34:27 The sons of Jacob came upon the dead bodies and looted the city where their sister had been defiled.

Genesis 34:28 They seized their flocks and herds and donkeys and everything else of theirs in the city and out in the fields.

Genesis 34:29 They carried off all their wealth and all their women and children, taking as plunder everything in the houses.

Genesis 34:30 Then Jacob said to Simeon and Levi, "You have brought trouble on me by making me a stench to the Canaanites and Perizzites, the people living in this land. We are few in number, and if they join forces against me and attack me, I and my household will be destroyed."

Genesis 34:31 But they replied, "Should he have treated our sister like a prostitute?"

Genesis 35:1 Then God said to Jacob, "Go up to Bethel and settle there, and build an altar there to God, who appeared to you when you were fleeing from your brother Esau."

Genesis 35:2 So Jacob said to his household and to all who were with him, “Get rid of the foreign gods you have with you, and purify yourselves and change your clothes.

Genesis 35:3 Then come, let us go up to Bethel, where I will build an altar to God, who answered me in the day of my distress and who has been with me wherever I have gone.”

Genesis 35:4 So they gave Jacob all the foreign gods they had and the rings in their ears, and Jacob buried them under the oak at Shechem.

Genesis 35:5 Then they set out, and the terror of God fell upon the towns all around them so that no-one pursued them.

Genesis 35:6 Jacob and all the people with him came to Luz (that is, Bethel) in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 35:7 There he built an altar, and he called the place El Bethel, because it was there that God revealed himself to him when he was fleeing from his brother.

Genesis 35:8 Now Deborah, Rebekah’s nurse, died and was buried under the oak below Bethel. So it was named Allon Bacuth.

Genesis 35:9 After Jacob returned from Paddan Aram, God appeared to him again and blessed him.

Genesis 35:10 God said to him, “Your name is Jacob, but you will no longer be called Jacob; your name will be Israel.” So he named him Israel.

Genesis 35:11 And God said to him, “I am God Almighty; be fruitful and increase in number. A nation and a community of nations will come from you, and kings will come from your body.

Genesis 35:12 The land I gave to Abraham and Isaac I also give to you, and I will give this land to your descendants after you.”

Genesis 35:13 Then God went up from him at the place where he had talked with him.

Genesis 35:14 Jacob set up a stone pillar at the place where God had talked with him, and he poured out a drink offering on it; he also poured oil on it.

Genesis 35:15 Jacob called the place where God had talked with him Bethel.

Genesis 35:16 Then they moved on from Bethel. While they were still some distance from Ephrath, Rachel began to give birth and had great difficulty.

Genesis 35:17 And as she was having great difficulty in childbirth, the midwife said to her, “Don’t be afraid, for you have another son.”

Genesis 35:18 As she breathed her last—for she was dying—she named her son Ben-Oni. But his father named him Benjamin.

Genesis 35:19 So Rachel died and was buried on the way to Ephrath (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 35:20 Over her tomb Jacob set up a pillar, and to this day that pillar marks Rachel's tomb.

Genesis 35:21 Israel moved on again and pitched his tent beyond Migdal Eder.

Genesis 35:22 While Israel was living in that region, Reuben went in and slept with his father's concubine Bilhah, and Israel heard of it. Jacob had twelve sons:

Genesis 35:23 The sons of Leah: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob, Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar and Zebulun.

Genesis 35:24 The sons of Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 35:25 The sons of Rachel's maidservant Bilhah: Dan and Naphtali.

Genesis 35:26 The sons of Leah's maidservant Zilpah: Gad and Asher. These were the sons of Jacob, who were born to him in Paddan Aram.

Genesis 35:27 Jacob came home to his father Isaac in Mamre, near Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), where Abraham and Isaac had stayed.

Genesis 35:28 Isaac lived a hundred and eighty years.

Genesis 35:29 Then he breathed his last and died and was gathered to his people, old and full of years. And his sons Esau and Jacob buried him.

Genesis 36:1 This is the account of Esau (that is, Edom).

Genesis 36:2 Esau took his wives from the women of Canaan: Adah daughter of Elon the Hittite, and Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon the Hivite—

Genesis 36:3 also Basemath daughter of Ishmael and sister of Nebaioth.

Genesis 36:4 Adah bore Eliphaz to Esau, Basemath bore Reuel,

Genesis 36:5 and Oholibamah bore Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the sons of Esau, who were born to him in Canaan.

Genesis 36:6 Esau took his wives and sons and daughters and all the members of his household, as well as his livestock and all his other animals and all the goods he had acquired in Canaan, and moved to a land some distance from his brother Jacob.

Genesis 36:7 Their possessions were too great for them to remain together; the land where they were staying could not support them both because of their livestock.

Genesis 36:8 So Esau (that is, Edom) settled in the hill country of Seir.

Genesis 36:9 This is the account of Esau the father of the Edomites in the hill country of Seir.

Genesis 36:10 These are the names of Esau's sons: Eliphaz, the son of Esau's wife Adah, and Reuel, the son of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:11 The sons of Eliphaz: Teman, Omar, Zepho, Gatam and Kenaz.

Genesis 36:12 Esau's son Eliphaz also had a concubine named Timna, who bore him Amalek. These were grandsons of Esau's wife Adah.

Genesis 36:13 The sons of Reuel: Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:14 The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah and granddaughter of Zibeon, whom she bore to Esau: Jeush, Jalam and Korah.

Genesis 36:15 These were the chiefs among Esau's descendants: The sons of Eliphaz the firstborn of Esau: Chiefs Teman, Omar, Zepho, Kenaz, Genesis 36:16 Korah, Gatam and Amalek. These were the chiefs descended from Eliphaz in Edom; they were grandsons of Adah.

Genesis 36:17 The sons of Esau's son Reuel: Chiefs Nahath, Zerah, Shammah and Mizzah. These were the chiefs descended from Reuel in Edom; they were grandsons of Esau's wife Basemath.

Genesis 36:18 The sons of Esau's wife Oholibamah: Chiefs Jeush, Jalam and Korah. These were the chiefs descended from Esau's wife Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:19 These were the sons of Esau (that is, Edom), and these were their chiefs.

Genesis 36:20 These were the sons of Seir the Horite, who were living in the region: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah, Genesis 36:21 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These sons of Seir in Edom were Horite chiefs.

Genesis 36:22 The sons of Lotan: Hori and Homam. Timna was Lotan's sister.

Genesis 36:23 The sons of Shobal: Alvan, Manahath, Ebal, Shepho and Onam.

Genesis 36:24 The sons of Zibeon: Aiah and Anah. This is the Anah who discovered the hot springs in the desert while he was grazing the donkeys of his father Zibeon.

Genesis 36:25 The children of Anah: Dishon and Oholibamah daughter of Anah.

Genesis 36:26 The sons of Dishon: Hemdan, Eshban, Ithran and Keran.

Genesis 36:27 The sons of Ezer: Bilhan, Zaavan and Akan.

Genesis 36:28 The sons of Dishan: Uz and Aran.

Genesis 36:29 These were the Horite chiefs: Lotan, Shobal, Zibeon, Anah,

Genesis 36:30 Dishon, Ezer and Dishan. These were the Horite chiefs, according to their divisions, in the land of Seir.

Genesis 36:31 These were the kings who reigned in Edom before any Israelite king reigned:

Genesis 36:32 Bela son of Beor became king of Edom. His city was named Dinhabah.

Genesis 36:33 When Bela died, Jobab son of Zerah from Bozrah succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:34 When Jobab died, Husham from the land of the Temanites succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:35 When Husham died, Hadad son of Bedad, who defeated Midian in the country of Moab, succeeded him as king. His city was named Avith.

Genesis 36:36 When Hadad died, Samlah from Masrekah succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:37 When Samlah died, Shaul from Rehoboth on the river succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:38 When Shaul died, Baal-Hanan son of Acbor succeeded him as king.

Genesis 36:39 When Baal-Hanan son of Acbor died, Hadad succeeded him as king. His city was named Pau, and his wife’s name was Mehetabel daughter of Matred, the daughter of Me-Zahab.

Genesis 36:40 These were the chiefs descended from Esau, by name, according to their clans and regions: Timna, Alvah, Jetheth,

Genesis 36:41 Oholibamah, Elah, Pinon,

Genesis 36:42 Kenaz, Teman, Mibzar,

Genesis 36:43 Magdiel and Iram. These were the chiefs of Edom, according to their settlements in the land they occupied. This was Esau the father of the Edomites.

Genesis 37:1 Jacob lived in the land where his father had stayed, the land of Canaan.

Genesis 37:2 This is the account of Jacob. Joseph, a young man of seventeen, was tending the flocks with his brothers, the sons of Bilhah and the sons of Zilpah, his father’s wives, and he brought their father a bad report about them.

Genesis 37:3 Now Israel loved Joseph more than any of his other sons, because he had been born to him in his old age; and he made a richly ornamented robe for him.

Genesis 37:4 When his brothers saw that their father loved him more than any of them, they hated him and could not speak a kind word to him.

Genesis 37:5 Joseph had a dream, and when he told it to his brothers, they hated him all the more.

Genesis 37:6 He said to them, “Listen to this dream I had:

Genesis 37:7 We were binding sheaves of corn out in the field when suddenly my sheaf rose and stood upright, while your sheaves gathered round mine and bowed down to it.”

Genesis 37:8 His brothers said to him, “Do you intend to reign over us? Will you actually rule us?” And they hated him all the more because of his dream and what he had said.

Genesis 37:9 Then he had another dream, and he told it to his brothers. “Listen,” he said, “I had another dream, and this time the sun and moon and eleven stars were bowing down to me.”

Genesis 37:10 When he told his father as well as his brothers, his father rebuked him and said, “What is this dream you had? Will your mother and I and your brothers actually come and bow down to the ground before you?”

Genesis 37:11 His brothers were jealous of him, but his father kept the matter in mind.

Genesis 37:12 Now his brothers had gone to graze their father’s flocks near Shechem,

Genesis 37:13 and Israel said to Joseph, “As you know, your brothers are grazing the flocks near Shechem. Come, I am going to send you to them.” “Very well,” he replied.

Genesis 37:14 So he said to him, “Go and see if all is well with your brothers and with the flocks, and bring word back to me.” Then he sent him off from the Valley of Hebron. When Joseph arrived at Shechem,

Genesis 37:15 a man found him wandering around in the fields and asked him, “What are you looking for?”

Genesis 37:16 He replied, “I’m looking for my brothers. Can you tell me where they are grazing their flocks?”

Genesis 37:17 “They have moved on from here,” the man answered. “I heard them say,`Let’s go to Dothan.’“ So Joseph went after his brothers and found them near Dothan.

Genesis 37:18 But they saw him in the distance, and before he reached them, they plotted to kill him.

Genesis 37:19 “Here comes that dreamer!” they said to each other.

Genesis 37:20 “Come now, let’s kill him and throw him into one of these cisterns and say that a ferocious animal devoured him. Then we’ll see what comes of his dreams.”

Genesis 37:21 When Reuben heard this, he tried to rescue him from their hands. “Let’s not take his life,” he said.

Genesis 37:22 “Don’t shed any blood. Throw him into this cistern here in the desert, but don’t lay a hand on him.” Reuben said this to rescue him from them and take him back to his father.

Genesis 37:23 So when Joseph came to his brothers, they stripped him of his robe—the richly ornamented robe he was wearing—

Genesis 37:24 and they took him and threw him into the cistern. Now the cistern was empty; there was no water in it.

Genesis 37:25 As they sat down to eat their meal, they looked up and saw a caravan of Ishmaelites coming from Gilead. Their camels were loaded with spices, balm and myrrh, and they were on their way to take them down to Egypt.

Genesis 37:26 Judah said to his brothers, “What will we gain if we kill our brother and cover up his blood?

Genesis 37:27 Come, let’s sell him to the Ishmaelites and not lay our hands on him; after all, he is our brother, our own flesh and blood.” His brothers agreed.

Genesis 37:28 So when the Midianite merchants came by, his brothers pulled Joseph up out of the cistern and sold him for twenty shekels of silver to the Ishmaelites, who took him to Egypt.

Genesis 37:29 When Reuben returned to the cistern and saw that Joseph was not there, he tore his clothes.

Genesis 37:30 He went back to his brothers and said, “The boy isn’t there! Where can I turn now?”

Genesis 37:31 Then they got Joseph’s robe, slaughtered a goat and dipped the robe in the blood.

Genesis 37:32 They took the ornamented robe back to their father and said, “We found this. Examine it to see whether it is your son’s robe.”

Genesis 37:33 He recognised it and said, “It is my son’s robe! Some ferocious animal has devoured him. Joseph has surely been torn to pieces.”

Genesis 37:34 Then Jacob tore his clothes, put on sackcloth and mourned for his son many days.

Genesis 37:35 All his sons and daughters came to comfort him, but he refused to be comforted. “No,” he said, “in mourning will I go down to the grave to my son.” So his father wept for him.

Genesis 37:36 Meanwhile, the Midianites sold Joseph in Egypt to Potiphar, one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard.

Genesis 38:1 At that time, Judah left his brothers and went down to stay with a man of Adullam named Hirah.

Genesis 38:2 There Judah met the daughter of a Canaanite man named Shua. He married her and lay with her;

Genesis 38:3 she became pregnant and gave birth to a son, who was named Er.

Genesis 38:4 She conceived again and gave birth to a son and named him Onan.

Genesis 38:5 She gave birth to still another son and named him Shelah. It was at Kezib that she gave birth to him.

Genesis 38:6 Judah got a wife for Er, his firstborn, and her name was Tamar.

Genesis 38:7 But Er, Judah's firstborn, was wicked in the LORD's sight; so the LORD put him to death.

Genesis 38:8 Then Judah said to Onan, “Lie with your brother's wife and fulfil your duty to her as a brother-in-law to produce offspring for your brother.”

Genesis 38:9 But Onan knew that the offspring would not be his; so whenever he lay with his brother's wife, he spilled his semen on the ground to keep from producing offspring for his brother.

Genesis 38:10 What he did was wicked in the LORD's sight; so he put him to death also.

Genesis 38:11 Judah then said to his daughter-in-law Tamar, “Live as a widow in your father's house until my son Shelah grows up.” For he thought, “He may die too, just like his brothers.” So Tamar went to live in her father's house.

Genesis 38:12 After a long time Judah's wife, the daughter of Shua, died. When Judah had recovered from his grief, he went up to Timnah, to the men who were shearing his sheep, and his friend Hirah the Adullamite went with him.

Genesis 38:13 When Tamar was told, “Your father-in-law is on his way to Timnah to shear his sheep,”

Genesis 38:14 she took off her widow's clothes, covered herself with a veil to disguise herself, and then sat down at the entrance to Enaim, which is on the road to Timnah. For she saw that, though Shelah had now grown up, she had not been given to him as his wife.

Genesis 38:15 When Judah saw her, he thought she was a prostitute, for she had covered her face.

Genesis 38:16 Not realising that she was his daughter-in-law, he went over to her by the roadside and said, “Come now, let me sleep with you.” “And what will you give me to sleep with you?” she asked.

Genesis 38:17 “I’ll send you a young goat from my flock,” he said. “Will you give me something as a pledge until you send it?” she asked.

Genesis 38:18 He said, “What pledge should I give you?” “Your seal and its cord, and the staff in your hand,” she answered. So he gave them to her and slept with her, and she became pregnant by him.

Genesis 38:19 After she left, she took off her veil and put on her widow’s clothes again.

Genesis 38:20 Meanwhile Judah sent the young goat by his friend the Adullamite in order to get his pledge back from the woman, but he did not find her.

Genesis 38:21 He asked the men who lived there, “Where is the shrine-prostitute who was beside the road at Enaim?” “There hasn’t been any shrine-prostitute here,” they said.

Genesis 38:22 So he went back to Judah and said, “I didn’t find her. Besides, the men who lived there said,`There hasn’t been any shrine-prostitute here.’“

Genesis 38:23 Then Judah said, “Let her keep what she has, or we will become a laughing-stock. After all, I did send her this young goat, but you didn’t find her.”

Genesis 38:24 About three months later Judah was told, “Your daughter-in-law Tamar is guilty of prostitution, and as a result she is now pregnant.” Judah said, “Bring her out and have her burned to death!”

Genesis 38:25 As she was being brought out, she sent a message to her father-in-law. “I am pregnant by the man who owns these,” she said. And she added, “See if you recognise whose seal and cord and staff these are.”

Genesis 38:26 Judah recognised them and said, “She is more righteous than I, since I wouldn’t give her to my son Shelah.” And he did not sleep with her again.

Genesis 38:27 When the time came for her to give birth, there were twin boys in her womb.

Genesis 38:28 As she was giving birth, one of them put out his hand; so the midwife took a scarlet thread and tied it on his wrist and said, “This one came out first.”

Genesis 38:29 But when he drew back his hand, his brother came out, and she said, “So this is how you have broken out!” And he was named Perez.

Genesis 38:30 Then his brother, who had the scarlet thread on his wrist, came out and he was given the name Zerah.

Genesis 39:1 Now Joseph had been taken down to Egypt. Potiphar, an Egyptian who was one of Pharaoh's officials, the captain of the guard, bought him from the Ishmaelites who had taken him there.

Genesis 39:2 The LORD was with Joseph and he prospered, and he lived in the house of his Egyptian master.

Genesis 39:3 When his master saw that the LORD was with him and that the LORD gave him success in everything he did,

Genesis 39:4 Joseph found favour in his eyes and became his attendant. Potiphar put him in charge of his household, and he entrusted to his care everything he owned.

Genesis 39:5 From the time he put him in charge of his household and of all that he owned, the LORD blessed the household of the Egyptian because of Joseph. The blessing of the LORD was on everything Potiphar had, both in the house and in the field.

Genesis 39:6 So he left in Joseph's care everything he had; with Joseph in charge, he did not concern himself with anything except the food he ate. Now Joseph was well-built and handsome,

Genesis 39:7 and after a while his master's wife took notice of Joseph and said, "Come to bed with me!"

Genesis 39:8 But he refused. "With me in charge," he told her, "my master does not concern himself with anything in the house; everything he owns he has entrusted to my care.

Genesis 39:9 No-one is greater in this house than I am. My master has withheld nothing from me except you, because you are his wife. How then could I do such a wicked thing and sin against God?"

Genesis 39:10 And though she spoke to Joseph day after day, he refused to go to bed with her or even to be with her.

Genesis 39:11 One day he went into the house to attend to his duties, and none of the household servants was inside.

Genesis 39:12 She caught him by his cloak and said, "Come to bed with me!" But he left his cloak in her hand and ran out of the house.

Genesis 39:13 When she saw that he had left his cloak in her hand and had run out of the house,

Genesis 39:14 she called her household servants. "Look," she said to them, "this Hebrew has been brought to us to make sport of us! He came in here to sleep with me, but I screamed.

Genesis 39:15 When he heard me scream for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house."

Genesis 39:16 She kept his cloak beside her until his master came home.

Genesis 39:17 Then she told him this story: "That Hebrew slave you brought us came to me to make sport of me.

Genesis 39:18 But as soon as I screamed for help, he left his cloak beside me and ran out of the house.”

Genesis 39:19 When his master heard the story his wife told him, saying, “This is how your slave treated me,” he burned with anger.

Genesis 39:20 Joseph’s master took him and put him in prison, the place where the king’s prisoners were confined. But while Joseph was there in the prison,

Genesis 39:21 the LORD was with him; he showed him kindness and granted him favour in the eyes of the prison warder.

Genesis 39:22 So the warder put Joseph in charge of all those held in the prison, and he was made responsible for all that was done there.

Genesis 39:23 The warder paid no attention to anything under Joseph’s care, because the LORD was with Joseph and gave him success in whatever he did.

Genesis 40:1 Some time later, the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt offended their master, the king of Egypt.

Genesis 40:2 Pharaoh was angry with his two officials, the chief cupbearer and the chief baker,

Genesis 40:3 and put them in custody in the house of the captain of the guard, in the same prison where Joseph was confined.

Genesis 40:4 The captain of the guard assigned them to Joseph, and he attended them. After they had been in custody for some time,

Genesis 40:5 each of the two men—the cupbearer and the baker of the king of Egypt, who were being held in prison—had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

Genesis 40:6 When Joseph came to them the next morning, he saw that they were dejected.

Genesis 40:7 So he asked Pharaoh’s officials who were in custody with him in his master’s house, “Why are your faces so sad today?”

Genesis 40:8 “We both had dreams,” they answered, “but there is no-one to interpret them.” Then Joseph said to them, “Do not interpretations belong to God? Tell me your dreams.”

Genesis 40:9 So the chief cupbearer told Joseph his dream. He said to him, “In my dream I saw a vine in front of me, Genesis 40:10 and on the vine were three branches. As soon as it budded, it blossomed, and its clusters ripened into grapes.

Genesis 40:11 Pharaoh’s cup was in my hand, and I took the grapes, squeezed them into Pharaoh’s cup and put the cup in his hand.”

Genesis 40:12 “This is what it means,” Joseph said to him. “The three branches are three days.

Genesis 40:13 Within three days Pharaoh will lift up your head and restore you to your position, and you will put Pharaoh’s cup in his hand, just as you used to do when you were his cupbearer.

Genesis 40:14 But when all goes well with you, remember me and show me kindness; mention me to Pharaoh and get me out of this prison.

Genesis 40:15 For I was forcibly carried off from the land of the Hebrews, and even here I have done nothing to deserve being put in a dungeon.”

Genesis 40:16 When the chief baker saw that Joseph had given a favourable interpretation, he said to Joseph, “I too had a dream: On my head were three baskets of bread.

Genesis 40:17 In the top basket were all kinds of baked goods for Pharaoh, but the birds were eating them out of the basket on my head.”

Genesis 40:18 “This is what it means,” Joseph said. “The three baskets are three days.

Genesis 40:19 Within three days Pharaoh will lift off your head and hang you on a tree. And the birds will eat away your flesh.”

Genesis 40:20 Now the third day was Pharaoh’s birthday, and he gave a feast for all his officials. He lifted up the heads of the chief cupbearer and the chief baker in the presence of his officials:

Genesis 40:21 He restored the chief cupbearer to his position, so that he once again put the cup into Pharaoh’s hand,

Genesis 40:22 but he hanged the chief baker, just as Joseph had said to them in his interpretation.

Genesis 40:23 The chief cupbearer, however, did not remember Joseph; he forgot him.

Genesis 41:1 When two full years had passed, Pharaoh had a dream: He was standing by the Nile,

Genesis 41:2 when out of the river there came up seven cows, sleek and fat, and they grazed among the reeds.

Genesis 41:3 After them, seven other cows, ugly and gaunt, came up out of the Nile and stood beside those on the riverbank.

Genesis 41:4 And the cows that were ugly and gaunt ate up the seven sleek, fat cows. Then Pharaoh woke up.

Genesis 41:5 He fell asleep again and had a second dream: Seven ears of corn, healthy and good, were growing on a single stalk.

Genesis 41:6 After them, seven other ears of corn sprouted—thin and scorched by the east wind.

Genesis 41:7 The thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven healthy, full ears. Then Pharaoh woke up; it had been a dream.

Genesis 41:8 In the morning his mind was troubled, so he sent for all the magicians and wise men of Egypt. Pharaoh told them his dreams, but no-one could interpret them for him.

Genesis 41:9 Then the chief cupbearer said to Pharaoh, “Today I am reminded of my shortcomings.

Genesis 41:10 Pharaoh was once angry with his servants, and he imprisoned me and the chief baker in the house of the captain of the guard.

Genesis 41:11 Each of us had a dream the same night, and each dream had a meaning of its own.

Genesis 41:12 Now a young Hebrew was there with us, a servant of the captain of the guard. We told him our dreams, and he interpreted them for us, giving each man the interpretation of his dream.

Genesis 41:13 And things turned out exactly as he interpreted them to us: I was restored to my position, and the other man was hanged.”

Genesis 41:14 So Pharaoh sent for Joseph, and he was quickly brought from the dungeon. When he had shaved and changed his clothes, he came before Pharaoh.

Genesis 41:15 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I had a dream, and no-one can interpret it. But I have heard it said of you that when you hear a dream you can interpret it.”

Genesis 41:16 “I cannot do it,” Joseph replied to Pharaoh, “but God will give Pharaoh the answer he desires.”

Genesis 41:17 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “In my dream I was standing on the bank of the Nile,

Genesis 41:18 when out of the river there came up seven cows, fat and sleek, and they grazed among the reeds.

Genesis 41:19 After them, seven other cows came up—scrawny and very ugly and lean. I had never seen such ugly cows in all the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:20 The lean, ugly cows ate up the seven fat cows that came up first.

Genesis 41:21 But even after they ate them, no-one could tell that they had done so; they looked just as ugly as before. Then I woke up.

Genesis 41:22 “In my dreams I also saw seven ears of corn, full and good, growing on a single stalk.

Genesis 41:23 After them, seven other ears sprouted—withered and thin and scorched by the east wind.

Genesis 41:24 The thin ears of corn swallowed up the seven good ears. I told this to the magicians, but none could explain it to me.”

Genesis 41:25 Then Joseph said to Pharaoh, “The dreams of Pharaoh are one and the same. God has revealed to Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:26 The seven good cows are seven years, and the seven good ears of corn are seven years; it is one and the same dream.

Genesis 41:27 The seven lean, ugly cows that came up afterwards are seven years, and so are the seven worthless ears of corn scorched by the east wind: They are seven years of famine.

Genesis 41:28 “It is just as I said to Pharaoh: God has shown Pharaoh what he is about to do.

Genesis 41:29 Seven years of great abundance are coming throughout the land of Egypt,

Genesis 41:30 but seven years of famine will follow them. Then all the abundance in Egypt will be forgotten, and the famine will ravage the land.

Genesis 41:31 The abundance in the land will not be remembered, because the famine that follows it will be so severe.

Genesis 41:32 The reason the dream was given to Pharaoh in two forms is that the matter has been firmly decided by God, and God will do it soon.

Genesis 41:33 “And now let Pharaoh look for a discerning and wise man and put him in charge of the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:34 Let Pharaoh appoint commissioners over the land to take a fifth of the harvest of Egypt during the seven years of abundance.

Genesis 41:35 They should collect all the food of these good years that are coming and store up the grain under the authority of Pharaoh, to be kept in the cities for food.

Genesis 41:36 This food should be held in reserve for the country, to be used during the seven years of famine that will come upon Egypt, so that the country may not be ruined by the famine.”

Genesis 41:37 The plan seemed good to Pharaoh and to all his officials.

Genesis 41:38 So Pharaoh asked them, “Can we find anyone like this man, one in whom is the spirit of God?”

Genesis 41:39 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Since God has made all this known to you, there is no-one so discerning and wise as you.

Genesis 41:40 You shall be in charge of my palace, and all my people are to submit to your orders. Only with respect to the throne will I be greater than you.”

Genesis 41:41 So Pharaoh said to Joseph, “I hereby put you in charge of the whole land of Egypt.”

Genesis 41:42 Then Pharaoh took his signet ring from his finger and put it on Joseph's finger. He dressed him in robes of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck.

Genesis 41:43 He had him ride in a chariot as his second-in-command, and men shouted before him, "Make way!" Thus he put him in charge of the whole land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:44 Then Pharaoh said to Joseph, "I am Pharaoh, but without your word no-one will lift hand or foot in all Egypt."

Genesis 41:45 Pharaoh gave Joseph the name Zaphenath-Paneah and gave him Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On, to be his wife. And Joseph went throughout the land of Egypt.

Genesis 41:46 Joseph was thirty years old when he entered the service of Pharaoh king of Egypt. And Joseph went out from Pharaoh's presence and travelled throughout Egypt.

Genesis 41:47 During the seven years of abundance the land produced plentifully.

Genesis 41:48 Joseph collected all the food produced in those seven years of abundance in Egypt and stored it in the cities. In each city he put the food grown in the fields surrounding it.

Genesis 41:49 Joseph stored up huge quantities of grain, like the sand of the sea; it was so much that he stopped keeping records because it was beyond measure.

Genesis 41:50 Before the years of famine came, two sons were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.

Genesis 41:51 Joseph named his firstborn Manasseh and said, "It is because God has made me forget all my trouble and all my father's household."

Genesis 41:52 The second son he named Ephraim and said, "It is because God has made me fruitful in the land of my suffering."

Genesis 41:53 The seven years of abundance in Egypt came to an end,

Genesis 41:54 and the seven years of famine began, just as Joseph had said. There was famine in all the other lands, but in the whole land of Egypt there was food.

Genesis 41:55 When all Egypt began to feel the famine, the people cried to Pharaoh for food. Then Pharaoh told all the Egyptians, "Go to Joseph and do what he tells you."

Genesis 41:56 When the famine had spread over the whole country, Joseph opened the storehouses and sold grain to the Egyptians, for the famine was severe throughout Egypt.

Genesis 41:57 And all the countries came to Egypt to buy grain from Joseph, because the famine was severe in all the world.

Genesis 42:1 When Jacob learned that there was grain in Egypt, he said to his sons, “Why do you just keep looking at each other?”

Genesis 42:2 He continued, “I have heard that there is grain in Egypt. Go down there and buy some for us, so that we may live and not die.”

Genesis 42:3 Then ten of Joseph’s brothers went down to buy grain from Egypt.

Genesis 42:4 But Jacob did not send Benjamin, Joseph’s brother, with the others, because he was afraid that harm might come to him.

Genesis 42:5 So Israel’s sons were among those who went to buy grain, for the famine was in the land of Canaan also.

Genesis 42:6 Now Joseph was the governor of the land, the one who sold grain to all its people. So when Joseph’s brothers arrived, they bowed down to him with their faces to the ground.

Genesis 42:7 As soon as Joseph saw his brothers, he recognised them, but he pretended to be a stranger and spoke harshly to them. “Where do you come from?” he asked. “From the land of Canaan,” they replied, “to buy food.”

Genesis 42:8 Although Joseph recognised his brothers, they did not recognise him.

Genesis 42:9 Then he remembered his dreams about them and said to them, “You are spies! You have come to see where our land is unprotected.”

Genesis 42:10 “No, my lord,” they answered. “Your servants have come to buy food.

Genesis 42:11 We are all the sons of one man. Your servants are honest men, not spies.”

Genesis 42:12 “No!” he said to them. “You have come to see where our land is unprotected.”

Genesis 42:13 But they replied, “Your servants were twelve brothers, the sons of one man, who lives in the land of Canaan. The youngest is now with our father, and one is no more.”

Genesis 42:14 Joseph said to them, “It is just as I told you: You are spies!

Genesis 42:15 And this is how you will be tested: As surely as Pharaoh lives, you will not leave this place unless your youngest brother comes here.

Genesis 42:16 Send one of your number to get your brother; the rest of you will be kept in prison, so that your words may be tested to see if you are telling the truth. If you are not, then as surely as Pharaoh lives, you are spies!”

Genesis 42:17 And he put them all in custody for three days.

Genesis 42:18 On the third day, Joseph said to them, “Do this and you will live, for I fear God:

Genesis 42:19 If you are honest men, let one of your brothers stay here in prison, while the rest of you go and take grain back for your starving households.

Genesis 42:20 But you must bring your youngest brother to me, so that your words may be verified and that you may not die.” This they proceeded to do.

Genesis 42:21 They said to one another, “Surely we are being punished because of our brother. We saw how distressed he was when he pleaded with us for his life, but we would not listen; that’s why this distress has come upon us.”

Genesis 42:22 Reuben replied, “Didn’t I tell you not to sin against the boy? But you wouldn’t listen! Now we must give an accounting for his blood.”

Genesis 42:23 They did not realise that Joseph could understand them, since he was using an interpreter.

Genesis 42:24 He turned away from them and began to weep, but then turned back and spoke to them again. He had Simeon taken from them and bound before their eyes.

Genesis 42:25 Joseph gave orders to fill their bags with grain, to put each man’s silver back in his sack, and to give them provisions for their journey. After this was done for them,

Genesis 42:26 they loaded their grain on their donkeys and left.

Genesis 42:27 At the place where they stopped for the night one of them opened his sack to get feed for his donkey, and he saw his silver in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 42:28 “My silver has been returned,” he said to his brothers. “Here it is in my sack.” Their hearts sank and they turned to each other trembling and said, “What is this that God has done to us?”

Genesis 42:29 When they came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan, they told him all that had happened to them. They said, Genesis 42:30 “The man who is lord over the land spoke harshly to us and treated us as though we were spying on the land.

Genesis 42:31 But we said to him,`We are honest men; we are not spies.

Genesis 42:32 We were twelve brothers, sons of one father. One is no more, and the youngest is now with our father in Canaan.’

Genesis 42:33 “Then the man who is lord over the land said to us,`This is how I will know whether you are honest men: Leave one of your brothers here with me, and take food for your starving households and go.

Genesis 42:34 But bring your youngest brother to me so I will know that you are not spies but honest men. Then I will give your brother back to you, and you can trade in the land.'"

Genesis 42:35 As they were emptying their sacks, there in each man's sack was his pouch of silver! When they and their father saw the money pouches, they were frightened.

Genesis 42:36 Their father Jacob said to them, "You have deprived me of my children. Joseph is no more and Simeon is no more, and now you want to take Benjamin. Everything is against me!"

Genesis 42:37 Then Reuben said to his father, "You may put both of my sons to death if I do not bring him back to you. Entrust him to my care, and I will bring him back."

Genesis 42:38 But Jacob said, "My son will not go down there with you; his brother is dead and he is the only one left. If harm comes to him on the journey you are taking, you will bring my grey head down to the grave in sorrow."

Genesis 43:1 Now the famine was still severe in the land.

Genesis 43:2 So when they had eaten all the grain they had brought from Egypt, their father said to them, "Go back and buy us a little more food."

Genesis 43:3 But Judah said to him, "The man warned us solemnly,`You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'

Genesis 43:4 If you will send our brother along with us, we will go down and buy food for you.

Genesis 43:5 But if you will not send him, we will not go down, because the man said to us,`You will not see my face again unless your brother is with you.'"

Genesis 43:6 Israel asked, "Why did you bring this trouble on me by telling the man you had another brother?"

Genesis 43:7 They replied, "The man questioned us closely about ourselves and our family.`Is your father still living?' he asked us.`Do you have another brother?' We simply answered his questions. How were we to know he would say,`Bring your brother down here'?"

Genesis 43:8 Then Judah said to Israel his father, "Send the boy along with me and we will go at once, so that we and you and our children may live and not die.

Genesis 43:9 I myself will guarantee his safety; you can hold me personally responsible for him. If I do not bring him back to you and set him here before you, I will bear the blame before you all my life.

Genesis 43:10 As it is, if we had not delayed, we could have gone and returned twice."

Genesis 43:11 Then their father Israel said to them, “If it must be, then do this: Put some of the best products of the land in your bags and take them down to the man as a gift—a little balm and a little honey, some spices and myrrh, some pistachio nuts and almonds.

Genesis 43:12 Take double the amount of silver with you, for you must return the silver that was put back into the mouths of your sacks. Perhaps it was a mistake.

Genesis 43:13 Take your brother also and go back to the man at once.

Genesis 43:14 And may God Almighty grant you mercy before the man so that he will let your other brother and Benjamin come back with you. As for me, if I am bereaved, I am bereaved.”

Genesis 43:15 So the men took the gifts and double the amount of silver, and Benjamin also. They hurried down to Egypt and presented themselves to Joseph.

Genesis 43:16 When Joseph saw Benjamin with them, he said to the steward of his house, “Take these men to my house, slaughter an animal and prepare dinner; they are to eat with me at noon.”

Genesis 43:17 The man did as Joseph told him and took the men to Joseph’s house.

Genesis 43:18 Now the men were frightened when they were taken to his house. They thought, “We were brought here because of the silver that was put back into our sacks the first time. He wants to attack us and overpower us and seize us as slaves and take our donkeys.”

Genesis 43:19 So they went up to Joseph’s steward and spoke to him at the entrance to the house.

Genesis 43:20 “Please, sir,” they said, “we came down here the first time to buy food.

Genesis 43:21 But at the place where we stopped for the night we opened our sacks and each of us found his silver—the exact weight—in the mouth of his sack. So we have brought it back with us.

Genesis 43:22 We have also brought additional silver with us to buy food. We don’t know who put our silver in our sacks.”

Genesis 43:23 “It’s all right,” he said. “Don’t be afraid. Your God, the God of your father, has given you treasure in your sacks; I received your silver.” Then he brought Simeon out to them.

Genesis 43:24 The steward took the men into Joseph’s house, gave them water to wash their feet and provided fodder for their donkeys.

Genesis 43:25 They prepared their gifts for Joseph’s arrival at noon, because they had heard that they were to eat there.

Genesis 43:26 When Joseph came home, they presented to him the gifts they had brought into the house, and they bowed down before him to the ground.

Genesis 43:27 He asked them how they were, and then he said, “How is your aged father you told me about? Is he still living?”

Genesis 43:28 They replied, “Your servant our father is still alive and well.” And they bowed low to pay him honour.

Genesis 43:29 As he looked about and saw his brother Benjamin, his own mother’s son, he asked, “Is this your youngest brother, the one you told me about?” And he said, “God be gracious to you, my son.”

Genesis 43:30 Deeply moved at the sight of his brother, Joseph hurried out and looked for a place to weep. He went into his private room and wept there.

Genesis 43:31 After he had washed his face, he came out and, controlling himself, said, “Serve the food.”

Genesis 43:32 They served him by himself, the brothers by themselves, and the Egyptians who ate with him by themselves, because Egyptians could not eat with Hebrews, for that is detestable to Egyptians.

Genesis 43:33 The men had been seated before him in the order of their ages, from the firstborn to the youngest; and they looked at each other in astonishment.

Genesis 43:34 When portions were served to them from Joseph’s table, Benjamin’s portion was five times as much as anyone else’s. So they feasted and drank freely with him.

Genesis 44:1 Now Joseph gave these instructions to the steward of his house: “Fill the men’s sacks with as much food as they can carry, and put each man’s silver in the mouth of his sack.

Genesis 44:2 Then put my cup, the silver one, in the mouth of the youngest one’s sack, along with the silver for his grain.” And he did as Joseph said.

Genesis 44:3 As morning dawned, the men were sent on their way with their donkeys.

Genesis 44:4 They had not gone far from the city when Joseph said to his steward, “Go after those men at once, and when you catch up with them, say to them,`Why have you repaid good with evil?

Genesis 44:5 Isn’t this the cup my master drinks from and also uses for divination? This is a wicked thing you have done.’“

Genesis 44:6 When he caught up with them, he repeated these words to them.

Genesis 44:7 But they said to him, “Why does my lord say such things? Far be it from your servants to do anything like that!

Genesis 44:8 We even brought back to you from the land of Canaan the silver we found inside the mouths of our sacks. So why would we steal silver or gold from your master's house?

Genesis 44:9 If any of your servants is found to have it, he will die; and the rest of us will become my lord's slaves."

Genesis 44:10 "Very well, then," he said, "let it be as you say. Whoever is found to have it will become my slave; the rest of you will be free from blame."

Genesis 44:11 Each of them quickly lowered his sack to the ground and opened it.

Genesis 44:12 Then the steward proceeded to search, beginning with the oldest and ending with the youngest. And the cup was found in Benjamin's sack.

Genesis 44:13 At this, they tore their clothes. Then they all loaded their donkeys and returned to the city.

Genesis 44:14 Joseph was still in the house when Judah and his brothers came in, and they threw themselves to the ground before him.

Genesis 44:15 Joseph said to them, "What is this you have done? Don't you know that a man like me can find things out by divination?"

Genesis 44:16 "What can we say to my lord?" Judah replied. "What can we say? How can we prove our innocence? God has uncovered your servants' guilt. We are now my lord's slaves—we ourselves and the one who was found to have the cup."

Genesis 44:17 But Joseph said, "Far be it from me to do such a thing! Only the man who was found to have the cup will become my slave. The rest of you, go back to your father in peace."

Genesis 44:18 Then Judah went up to him and said: "Please, my lord, let your servant speak a word to my lord. Do not be angry with your servant, though you are equal to Pharaoh himself.

Genesis 44:19 My lord asked his servants,`Do you have a father or a brother?'

Genesis 44:20 And we answered,`We have an aged father, and there is a young son born to him in his old age. His brother is dead, and he is the only one of his mother's sons left, and his father loves him.'

Genesis 44:21 "Then you said to your servants,`Bring him down to me so I can see him for myself.'

Genesis 44:22 And we said to my lord,`The boy cannot leave his father; if he leaves him, his father will die.'

Genesis 44:23 But you told your servants,`Unless your youngest brother comes down with you, you will not see my face again.'

Genesis 44:24 When we went back to your servant my father, we told him what my lord had said.

Genesis 44:25 “Then our father said,`Go back and buy a little more food.’

Genesis 44:26 But we said,`We cannot go down. Only if our youngest brother is with us will we go. We cannot see the man’s face unless our youngest brother is with us.’

Genesis 44:27 “Your servant my father said to us,`You know that my wife bore me two sons.

Genesis 44:28 One of them went away from me, and I said, “He has surely been torn to pieces.” And I have not seen him since.

Genesis 44:29 If you take this one from me too and harm comes to him, you will bring my grey head down to the grave in misery.’

Genesis 44:30 “So now, if the boy is not with us when I go back to your servant my father and if my father, whose life is closely bound up with the boy’s life,

Genesis 44:31 sees that the boy isn’t there, he will die. Your servants will bring the grey head of our father down to the grave in sorrow.

Genesis 44:32 Your servant guaranteed the boy’s safety to my father. I said,`If I do not bring him back to you, I will bear the blame before you, my father, all my life!’

Genesis 44:33 “Now then, please let your servant remain here as my lord’s slave in place of the boy, and let the boy return with his brothers.

Genesis 44:34 How can I go back to my father if the boy is not with me? No! Do not let me see the misery that would come upon my father.”

Genesis 45:1 Then Joseph could no longer control himself before all his attendants, and he cried out, “Make everyone leave my presence!” So there was no-one with Joseph when he made himself known to his brothers.

Genesis 45:2 And he wept so loudly that the Egyptians heard him, and Pharaoh’s household heard about it.

Genesis 45:3 Joseph said to his brothers, “I am Joseph! Is my father still living?” But his brothers were not able to answer him, because they were terrified at his presence.

Genesis 45:4 Then Joseph said to his brothers, “Come close to me.” When they had done so, he said, “I am your brother Joseph, the one you sold into Egypt!

Genesis 45:5 And now, do not be distressed and do not be angry with yourselves for selling me here, because it was to save lives that God sent me ahead of you.

Genesis 45:6 For two years now there has been famine in the land, and for the next five years there will not be ploughing and reaping.

Genesis 45:7 But God sent me ahead of you to preserve for you a remnant on earth and to save your lives by a great deliverance.

Genesis 45:8 “So then, it was not you who sent me here, but God. He made me father to Pharaoh, lord of his entire household and ruler of all Egypt.

Genesis 45:9 Now hurry back to my father and say to him,`This is what your son Joseph says: God has made me lord of all Egypt. Come down to me; don’t delay.

Genesis 45:10 You shall live in the region of Goshen and be near me— you, your children and grandchildren, your flocks and herds, and all you have.

Genesis 45:11 I will provide for you there, because five years of famine are still to come. Otherwise you and your household and all who belong to you will become destitute.’

Genesis 45:12 “You can see for yourselves, and so can my brother Benjamin, that it is really I who am speaking to you.

Genesis 45:13 Tell my father about all the honour accorded me in Egypt and about everything you have seen. And bring my father down here quickly.”

Genesis 45:14 Then he threw his arms around his brother Benjamin and wept, and Benjamin embraced him, weeping.

Genesis 45:15 And he kissed all his brothers and wept over them. Afterwards his brothers talked with him.

Genesis 45:16 When the news reached Pharaoh’s palace that Joseph’s brothers had come, Pharaoh and all his officials were pleased.

Genesis 45:17 Pharaoh said to Joseph, “Tell your brothers,`Do this: Load your animals and return to the land of Canaan,

Genesis 45:18 and bring your father and your families back to me. I will give you the best of the land of Egypt and you can enjoy the fat of the land.’

Genesis 45:19 “You are also directed to tell them,`Do this: Take some carts from Egypt for your children and your wives, and get your father and come.

Genesis 45:20 Never mind about your belongings, because the best of all Egypt will be yours.’“

Genesis 45:21 So the sons of Israel did this. Joseph gave them carts, as Pharaoh had commanded, and he also gave them provisions for their journey.

Genesis 45:22 To each of them he gave new clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels of silver and five sets of clothes.

Genesis 45:23 And this is what he sent to his father: ten donkeys loaded with the best things of Egypt, and ten female donkeys loaded with grain and bread and other provisions for his journey.

Genesis 45:24 Then he sent his brothers away, and as they were leaving he said to them, “Don’t quarrel on the way!”

Genesis 45:25 So they went up out of Egypt and came to their father Jacob in the land of Canaan.

Genesis 45:26 They told him, “Joseph is still alive! In fact, he is ruler of all Egypt.” Jacob was stunned; he did not believe them.

Genesis 45:27 But when they told him everything Joseph had said to them, and when he saw the carts Joseph had sent to carry him back, the spirit of their father Jacob revived.

Genesis 45:28 And Israel said, “I’m convinced! My son Joseph is still alive. I will go and see him before I die.”

Genesis 46:1 So Israel set out with all that was his, and when he reached Beersheba, he offered sacrifices to the God of his father Isaac.

Genesis 46:2 And God spoke to Israel in a vision at night and said, “Jacob! Jacob!” “Here I am,” he replied.

Genesis 46:3 “I am God, the God of your father,” he said. “Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.

Genesis 46:4 I will go down to Egypt with you, and I will surely bring you back again. And Joseph’s own hand will close your eyes.”

Genesis 46:5 Then Jacob left Beersheba, and Israel’s sons took their father Jacob and their children and their wives in the carts that Pharaoh had sent to transport him.

Genesis 46:6 They also took with them their livestock and the possessions they had acquired in Canaan, and Jacob and all his offspring went to Egypt.

Genesis 46:7 He took with him to Egypt his sons and grandsons and his daughters and granddaughters—all his offspring.

Genesis 46:8 These are the names of the sons of Israel (Jacob and his descendants) who went to Egypt: Reuben the firstborn of Jacob.

Genesis 46:9 The sons of Reuben: Hanoch, Pallu, Hezron and Carmi.

Genesis 46:10 The sons of Simeon: Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman.

Genesis 46:11 The sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Genesis 46:12 The sons of Judah: Er, Onan, Shelah, Perez and Zerah (but Er and Onan had died in the land of Canaan). The sons of Perez: Hezron and Hamul.

Genesis 46:13 The sons of Issachar: Tola, Puah, Jashub and Shimron.

Genesis 46:14 The sons of Zebulun: Sered, Elon and Jahleel.

Genesis 46:15 These were the sons Leah bore to Jacob in Paddan Aram, besides his daughter Dinah. These sons and daughters of his were thirty-three in all.

Genesis 46:16 The sons of Gad: Zephon, Haggi, Shuni, Ezbon, Eri, Arodi and Areli.

Genesis 46:17 The sons of Asher: Imnah, Ishvah, Ishvi and Beriah. Their sister was Serah. The sons of Beriah: Heber and Malkiel.

Genesis 46:18 These were the children born to Jacob by Zilpah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Leah—sixteen in all.

Genesis 46:19 The sons of Jacob’s wife Rachel: Joseph and Benjamin.

Genesis 46:20 In Egypt, Manasseh and Ephraim were born to Joseph by Asenath daughter of Potiphera, priest of On.

Genesis 46:21 The sons of Benjamin: Bela, Beker, Ashbel, Gera, Naaman, Ehi, Rosh, Muppim, Huppim and Ard.

Genesis 46:22 These were the sons of Rachel who were born to Jacob— fourteen in all.

Genesis 46:23 The son of Dan: Hushim.

Genesis 46:24 The sons of Naphtali: Jahziel, Guni, Jezer and Shillem.

Genesis 46:25 These were the sons born to Jacob by Bilhah, whom Laban had given to his daughter Rachel—seven in all.

Genesis 46:26 All those who went to Egypt with Jacob—those who were his direct descendants, not counting his sons’ wives— numbered sixty-six persons.

Genesis 46:27 With the two sons who had been born to Joseph in Egypt, the members of Jacob’s family, which went to Egypt, were seventy in all.

Genesis 46:28 Now Jacob sent Judah ahead of him to Joseph to get directions to Goshen. When they arrived in the region of Goshen, Genesis 46:29 Joseph had his chariot made ready and went to Goshen to meet his father Israel. As soon as Joseph appeared before him, he threw his arms around his father and wept for a long time.

Genesis 46:30 Israel said to Joseph, “Now I am ready to die, since I have seen for myself that you are still alive.”

Genesis 46:31 Then Joseph said to his brothers and to his father’s household, “I will go up and speak to Pharaoh and will say to him,`My brothers and my father’s household, who were living in the land of Canaan, have come to me.

Genesis 46:32 The men are shepherds; they tend livestock, and they have brought along their flocks and herds and everything they own.’

Genesis 46:33 When Pharaoh calls you in and asks,`What is your occupation?'

Genesis 46:34 you should answer,`Your servants have tended livestock from our boyhood on, just as our fathers did.' Then you will be allowed to settle in the region of Goshen, for all shepherds are detestable to the Egyptians."

Genesis 47:1 Joseph went and told Pharaoh, "My father and brothers, with their flocks and herds and everything they own, have come from the land of Canaan and are now in Goshen."

Genesis 47:2 He chose five of his brothers and presented them before Pharaoh.

Genesis 47:3 Pharaoh asked the brothers, "What is your occupation?" "Your servants are shepherds," they replied to Pharaoh, "just as our fathers were."

Genesis 47:4 They also said to him, "We have come to live here awhile, because the famine is severe in Canaan and your servants' flocks have no pasture. So now, please let your servants settle in Goshen."

Genesis 47:5 Pharaoh said to Joseph, "Your father and your brothers have come to you, Genesis 47:6 and the land of Egypt is before you; settle your father and your brothers in the best part of the land. Let them live in Goshen. And if you know of any among them with special ability, put them in charge of my own livestock."

Genesis 47:7 Then Joseph brought his father Jacob in and presented him before Pharaoh. After Jacob blessed Pharaoh,

Genesis 47:8 Pharaoh asked him, "How old are you?"

Genesis 47:9 And Jacob said to Pharaoh, "The years of my pilgrimage are a hundred and thirty. My years have been few and difficult, and they do not equal the years of the pilgrimage of my fathers."

Genesis 47:10 Then Jacob blessed Pharaoh and went out from his presence.

Genesis 47:11 So Joseph settled his father and his brothers in Egypt and gave them property in the best part of the land, the district of Rameses, as Pharaoh directed.

Genesis 47:12 Joseph also provided his father and his brothers and all his father's household with food, according to the number of their children.

Genesis 47:13 There was no food, however, in the whole region because the famine was severe; both Egypt and Canaan wasted away because of the famine.

Genesis 47:14 Joseph collected all the money that was to be found in Egypt and Canaan in payment for the grain they were buying, and he brought it to Pharaoh’s palace.

Genesis 47:15 When the money of the people of Egypt and Canaan was gone, all Egypt came to Joseph and said, “Give us food. Why should we die before your eyes? Our money is used up.”

Genesis 47:16 “Then bring your livestock,” said Joseph. “I will sell you food in exchange for your livestock, since your money is gone.”

Genesis 47:17 So they brought their livestock to Joseph, and he gave them food in exchange for their horses, their sheep and goats, their cattle and donkeys. And he brought them through that year with food in exchange for all their livestock.

Genesis 47:18 When that year was over, they came to him the following year and said, “We cannot hide from our lord the fact that since our money is gone and our livestock belongs to you, there is nothing left for our lord except our bodies and our land.

Genesis 47:19 Why should we perish before your eyes—we and our land as well? Buy us and our land in exchange for food, and we with our land will be in bondage to Pharaoh. Give us seed so that we may live and not die, and that the land may not become desolate.”

Genesis 47:20 So Joseph bought all the land in Egypt for Pharaoh. The Egyptians, one and all, sold their fields, because the famine was too severe for them. The land became Pharaoh’s, Genesis 47:21 and Joseph reduced the people to servitude, from one end of Egypt to the other.

Genesis 47:22 However, he did not buy the land of the priests, because they received a regular allotment from Pharaoh and had food enough from the allotment Pharaoh gave them. That is why they did not sell their land.

Genesis 47:23 Joseph said to the people, “Now that I have bought you and your land today for Pharaoh, here is seed for you so you can plant the ground.

Genesis 47:24 But when the crop comes in, give a fifth of it to Pharaoh. The other four-fifths you may keep as seed for the fields and as food for yourselves and your households and your children.”

Genesis 47:25 “You have saved our lives,” they said. “May we find favour in the eyes of our lord; we will be in bondage to Pharaoh.”

Genesis 47:26 So Joseph established it as a law concerning land in Egypt—still in force today—that a fifth of the produce belongs to Pharaoh. It was only the land of the priests that did not become Pharaoh’s.

Genesis 47:27 Now the Israelites settled in Egypt in the region of Goshen. They acquired property there and were fruitful and increased greatly in number.

Genesis 47:28 Jacob lived in Egypt seventeen years, and the years of his life were a hundred and forty-seven.

Genesis 47:29 When the time drew near for Israel to die, he called for his son Joseph and said to him, “If I have found favour in your eyes, put your hand under my thigh and promise that you will show me kindness and faithfulness. Do not bury me in Egypt, Genesis 47:30 but when I rest with my fathers, carry me out of Egypt and bury me where they are buried.” “I will do as you say,” he said.

Genesis 47:31 “Swear to me,” he said. Then Joseph swore to him, and Israel worshipped as he leaned on the top of his staff.

Genesis 48:1 Some time later Joseph was told, “Your father is ill.” So he took his two sons Manasseh and Ephraim along with him.

Genesis 48:2 When Jacob was told, “Your son Joseph has come to you,” Israel rallied his strength and sat up on the bed.

Genesis 48:3 Jacob said to Joseph, “God Almighty appeared to me at Luz in the land of Canaan, and there he blessed me

Genesis 48:4 and said to me,`I am going to make you fruitful and will increase your numbers. I will make you a community of peoples, and I will give this land as an everlasting possession to your descendants after you.’

Genesis 48:5 “Now then, your two sons born to you in Egypt before I came to you here will be reckoned as mine; Ephraim and Manasseh will be mine, just as Reuben and Simeon are mine.

Genesis 48:6 Any children born to you after them will be yours; in the territory they inherit they will be reckoned under the names of their brothers.

Genesis 48:7 As I was returning from Paddan, to my sorrow Rachel died in the land of Canaan while we were still on the way, a little distance from Ephrath. So I buried her there beside the road to Ephrath” (that is, Bethlehem).

Genesis 48:8 When Israel saw the sons of Joseph, he asked, “Who are these?”

Genesis 48:9 “They are the sons God has given me here,” Joseph said to his father. Then Israel said, “Bring them to me so that I may bless them.”

Genesis 48:10 Now Israel’s eyes were failing because of old age, and he could hardly see. So Joseph brought his sons close to him, and his father kissed them and embraced them.

Genesis 48:11 Israel said to Joseph, “I never expected to see your face again, and now God has allowed me to see your children too.”

Genesis 48:12 Then Joseph removed them from Israel’s knees and bowed down with his face to the ground.

Genesis 48:13 And Joseph took both of them, Ephraim on his right towards Israel’s left hand and Manasseh on his left towards Israel’s right hand, and brought them close to him.

Genesis 48:14 But Israel reached out his right hand and put it on Ephraim’s head, though he was the younger, and crossing his arms, he put his left hand on Manasseh’s head, even though Manasseh was the firstborn.

Genesis 48:15 Then he blessed Joseph and said, “May the God before whom my fathers Abraham and Isaac walked, the God who has been my shepherd all my life to this day, Genesis 48:16 the Angel who has delivered me from all harm—may he bless these boys. May they be called by my name and the names of my fathers Abraham and Isaac, and may they increase greatly upon the earth.”

Genesis 48:17 When Joseph saw his father placing his right hand on Ephraim’s head he was displeased; so he took hold of his father’s hand to move it from Ephraim’s head to Manasseh’s head.

Genesis 48:18 Joseph said to him, “No, my father, this one is the firstborn; put your right hand on his head.”

Genesis 48:19 But his father refused and said, “I know, my son, I know. He too will become a people, and he too will become great. Nevertheless, his younger brother will be greater than he, and his descendants will become a group of nations.”

Genesis 48:20 He blessed them that day and said, “In your name will Israel pronounce this blessing:`May God make you like Ephraim and Manasseh.’“ So he put Ephraim ahead of Manasseh.

Genesis 48:21 Then Israel said to Joseph, “I am about to die, but God will be with you and take you back to the land of your fathers.

Genesis 48:22 And to you, as one who is over your brothers, I give the ridge of land I took from the Amorites with my sword and my bow.”

Genesis 49:1 Then Jacob called for his sons and said: “Gather round so that I can tell you what will happen to you in days to come.

Genesis 49:2 “Assemble and listen, sons of Jacob; listen to your father Israel.

Genesis 49:3 “Reuben, you are my firstborn, my might, the first sign of my strength, excelling in honour, excelling in power.

Genesis 49:4 Turbulent as the waters, you will no longer excel, for you went up onto your father’s bed, onto my couch and defiled it.

Genesis 49:5 “Simeon and Levi are brothers—their swords are weapons of violence.

Genesis 49:6 Let me not enter their council, let me not join their assembly, for they have killed men in their anger and hamstrung oxen as they pleased.

Genesis 49:7 Cursed be their anger, so fierce, and their fury, so cruel! I will scatter them in Jacob and disperse them in Israel.

Genesis 49:8 “Judah, your brothers will praise you; your hand will be on the neck of your enemies; your father’s sons will bow down to you.

Genesis 49:9 You are a lion’s cub, O Judah; you return from the prey, my son. Like a lion he crouches and lies down, like a lioness— who dares to rouse him?

Genesis 49:10 The sceptre will not depart from Judah, nor the ruler’s staff from between his feet, until he comes to whom it belongs and the obedience of the nations is his.

Genesis 49:11 He will tether his donkey to a vine, his colt to the choicest branch; he will wash his garments in wine, his robes in the blood of grapes.

Genesis 49:12 His eyes will be darker than wine, his teeth whiter than milk.

Genesis 49:13 “Zebulun will live by the seashore and become a haven for ships; his border will extend towards Sidon.

Genesis 49:14 “Issachar is a scrawny donkey lying down between two saddlebags.

Genesis 49:15 When he sees how good is his resting place and how pleasant is his land, he will bend his shoulder to the burden and submit to forced labour.

Genesis 49:16 “Dan will provide justice for his people as one of the tribes of Israel.

Genesis 49:17 Dan will be a serpent by the roadside, a viper along the path, that bites the horse’s heels so that its rider tumbles backwards.

Genesis 49:18 “I look for your deliverance, O LORD.

Genesis 49:19 “Gad will be attacked by a band of raiders, but he will attack them at their heels.

Genesis 49:20 “Asher’s food will be rich; he will provide delicacies fit for a king.

Genesis 49:21 “Naphtali is a doe set free that bears beautiful fawns.

Genesis 49:22 “Joseph is a fruitful vine, a fruitful vine near a spring, whose branches climb over a wall.

Genesis 49:23 With bitterness archers attacked him; they shot at him with hostility.

Genesis 49:24 But his bow remained steady, his strong arms stayed supple, because of the hand of the Mighty One of Jacob, because of the Shepherd, the Rock of Israel,

Genesis 49:25 because of your father’s God, who helps you, because of the Almighty, who blesses you with blessings of the heavens above, blessings of the deep that lies below, blessings of the breast and womb.

Genesis 49:26 Your father’s blessings are greater than the blessings of the ancient mountains, than the bounty of the age-old hills. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Genesis 49:27 “Benjamin is a ravenous wolf; in the morning he devours the prey, in the evening he divides the plunder.”

Genesis 49:28 All these are the twelve tribes of Israel, and this is what their father said to them when he blessed them, giving each the blessing appropriate to him.

Genesis 49:29 Then he gave them these instructions: “I am about to be gathered to my people. Bury me with my fathers in the cave in the field of Ephron the Hittite, Genesis 49:30 the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre in Canaan, which Abraham bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

Genesis 49:31 There Abraham and his wife Sarah were buried, there Isaac and his wife Rebekah were buried, and there I buried Leah.

Genesis 49:32 The field and the cave in it were bought from the Hittites.”

Genesis 49:33 When Jacob had finished giving instructions to his sons, he drew his feet up into the bed, breathed his last and was gathered to his people.

Genesis 50:1 Joseph threw himself upon his father and wept over him and kissed him.

Genesis 50:2 Then Joseph directed the physicians in his service to embalm his father Israel. So the physicians embalmed him, Genesis 50:3 taking a full forty days, for that was the time required for embalming. And the Egyptians mourned for him seventy days.

Genesis 50:4 When the days of mourning had passed, Joseph said to Pharaoh’s court, “If I have found favour in your eyes, speak to Pharaoh for me. Tell him, Genesis 50:5 `My father made me swear an oath and said, “I am about to die; bury me in the tomb I dug for myself in the land of Canaan.” Now let me go up and bury my father; then I will return.’“

Genesis 50:6 Pharaoh said, “Go up and bury your father, as he made you swear to do.”

Genesis 50:7 So Joseph went up to bury his father. All Pharaoh’s officials accompanied him—the dignitaries of his court and all the dignitaries of Egypt—

Genesis 50:8 besides all the members of Joseph’s household and his brothers and those belonging to his father’s household. Only their children and their flocks and herds were left in Goshen.

Genesis 50:9 Chariots and horsemen also went up with him. It was a very large company.

Genesis 50:10 When they reached the threshing-floor of Atad, near the Jordan, they lamented loudly and bitterly; and there Joseph observed a seven-day period of mourning for his father.

Genesis 50:11 When the Canaanites who lived there saw the mourning at the threshing-floor of Atad, they said, “The Egyptians are holding a solemn ceremony of mourning.” That is why that place near the Jordan is called Abel Mizraim.

Genesis 50:12 So Jacob’s sons did as he had commanded them:

Genesis 50:13 They carried him to the land of Canaan and buried him in the cave in the field of Machpelah, near Mamre, which Abraham had bought as a burial place from Ephron the Hittite, along with the field.

Genesis 50:14 After burying his father, Joseph returned to Egypt, together with his brothers and all the others who had gone with him to bury his father.

Genesis 50:15 When Joseph’s brothers saw that their father was dead, they said, “What if Joseph holds a grudge against us and pays us back for all the wrongs we did to him?”

Genesis 50:16 So they sent word to Joseph, saying, “Your father left these instructions before he died:

Genesis 50:17 `This is what you are to say to Joseph: I ask you to forgive your brothers the sins and the wrongs they committed in treating you so badly.’ Now please forgive the sins of the servants of the God of your father.” When their message came to him, Joseph wept.

Genesis 50:18 His brothers then came and threw themselves down before him. “We are your slaves,” they said.

Genesis 50:19 But Joseph said to them, “Don’t be afraid. Am I in the place of God?

Genesis 50:20 You intended to harm me, but God intended it for good to accomplish what is now being done, the saving of many lives.

Genesis 50:21 So then, don’t be afraid. I will provide for you and your children.” And he reassured them and spoke kindly to them.

Genesis 50:22 Joseph stayed in Egypt, along with all his father’s family. He lived a hundred and ten years

Genesis 50:23 and saw the third generation of Ephraim's children. Also the children of Makir son of Manasseh were placed at birth on Joseph's knees.

Genesis 50:24 Then Joseph said to his brothers, "I am about to die. But God will surely come to your aid and take you up out of this land to the land he promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob."

Genesis 50:25 And Joseph made the sons of Israel swear an oath and said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up from this place."

Genesis 50:26 So Joseph died at the age of a hundred and ten. And after they embalmed him, he was placed in a coffin in Egypt.

Exodus

1:1 These are the names of the sons of Israel who went to Egypt with Jacob, each with his family:

Exodus 1:2 Reuben, Simeon, Levi and Judah;

Exodus 1:3 Issachar, Zebulun and Benjamin;

Exodus 1:4 Dan and Naphtali; Gad and Asher.

Exodus 1:5 The descendants of Jacob numbered seventy in all; Joseph was already in Egypt.

Exodus 1:6 Now Joseph and all his brothers and all that generation died,

Exodus 1:7 but the Israelites were fruitful and multiplied greatly and became exceedingly numerous, so that the land was filled with them.

Exodus 1:8 Then a new king, who did not know about Joseph, came to power in Egypt.

Exodus 1:9 "Look," he said to his people, "the Israelites have become much too numerous for us.

Exodus 1:10 Come, we must deal shrewdly with them or they will become even more numerous and, if war breaks out, will join our enemies, fight against us and leave the country."

Exodus 1:11 So they put slave masters over them to oppress them with forced labour, and they built Pithom and Rameses as store cities for Pharaoh.

Exodus 1:12 But the more they were oppressed, the more they multiplied and spread; so the Egyptians came to dread the Israelites

Exodus 1:13 and worked them ruthlessly.

Exodus 1:14 They made their lives bitter with hard labour in brick and mortar and with all kinds of work in the fields; in all their hard labour the Egyptians used them ruthlessly.

Exodus 1:15 The king of Egypt said to the Hebrew midwives, whose names were Shiphrah and Puah,

Exodus 1:16 “When you help the Hebrew women in childbirth and observe them on the delivery stool, if it is a boy, kill him; but if it is a girl, let her live.”

Exodus 1:17 The midwives, however, feared God and did not do what the king of Egypt had told them to do; they let the boys live.

Exodus 1:18 Then the king of Egypt summoned the midwives and asked them, “Why have you done this? Why have you let the boys live?”

Exodus 1:19 The midwives answered Pharaoh, “Hebrew women are not like Egyptian women; they are vigorous and give birth before the midwives arrive.”

Exodus 1:20 So God was kind to the midwives and the people increased and became even more numerous.

Exodus 1:21 And because the midwives feared God, he gave them families of their own.

Exodus 1:22 Then Pharaoh gave this order to all his people: “Every boy that is born you must throw into the Nile, but let every girl live.”

Exodus 2:1 Now a man of the house of Levi married a Levite woman,

Exodus 2:2 and she became pregnant and gave birth to a son. When she saw that he was a fine child, she hid him for three months.

Exodus 2:3 But when she could hide him no longer, she got a papyrus basket for him and coated it with tar and pitch. Then she placed the child in it and put it among the reeds along the bank of the Nile.

Exodus 2:4 His sister stood at a distance to see what would happen to him.

Exodus 2:5 Then Pharaoh’s daughter went down to the Nile to bathe, and her attendants were walking along the river bank. She saw the basket among the reeds and sent her slave girl to get it.

Exodus 2:6 She opened it and saw the baby. He was crying, and she felt sorry for him. “This is one of the Hebrew babies,” she said.

Exodus 2:7 Then his sister asked Pharaoh’s daughter, “Shall I go and get one of the Hebrew women to nurse the baby for you?”

Exodus 2:8 “Yes, go,” she answered. And the girl went and got the baby’s mother.

Exodus 2:9 Pharaoh’s daughter said to her, “Take this baby and nurse him for me, and I will pay you.” So the woman took the baby and nursed him.

Exodus 2:10 When the child grew older, she took him to Pharaoh’s daughter and he became her son. She named him Moses, saying, “I drew him out of the water.”

Exodus 2:11 One day, after Moses had grown up, he went out to where his own people were and watched them at their hard labour. He saw an Egyptian beating a Hebrew, one of his own people.

Exodus 2:12 Glancing this way and that and seeing no-one, he killed the Egyptian and hid him in the sand.

Exodus 2:13 The next day he went out and saw two Hebrews fighting. He asked the one in the wrong, “Why are you hitting your fellow Hebrew?”

Exodus 2:14 The man said, “Who made you ruler and judge over us? Are you thinking of killing me as you killed the Egyptian?” Then Moses was afraid and thought, “What I did must have become known.”

Exodus 2:15 When Pharaoh heard of this, he tried to kill Moses, but Moses fled from Pharaoh and went to live in Midian, where he sat down by a well.

Exodus 2:16 Now a priest of Midian had seven daughters, and they came to draw water and fill the troughs to water their father’s flock.

Exodus 2:17 Some shepherds came along and drove them away, but Moses got up and came to their rescue and watered their flock.

Exodus 2:18 When the girls returned to Reuel their father, he asked them, “Why have you returned so early today?”

Exodus 2:19 They answered, “An Egyptian rescued us from the shepherds. He even drew water for us and watered the flock.”

Exodus 2:20 “And where is he?” he asked his daughters. “Why did you leave him? Invite him to have something to eat.”

Exodus 2:21 Moses agreed to stay with the man, who gave his daughter Zipporah to Moses in marriage.

Exodus 2:22 Zipporah gave birth to a son, and Moses named him Gershom, saying, “I have become an alien in a foreign land.”

Exodus 2:23 During that long period, the king of Egypt died. The Israelites groaned in their slavery and cried out, and their cry for help because of their slavery went up to God.

Exodus 2:24 God heard their groaning and he remembered his covenant with Abraham, with Isaac and with Jacob.

Exodus 2:25 So God looked on the Israelites and was concerned about them.

Exodus 3:1 Now Moses was tending the flock of Jethro his father-in-law, the priest of Midian, and he led the flock to the far side of the desert and came to Horeb, the mountain of God.

Exodus 3:2 There the angel of the LORD appeared to him in flames of fire from within a bush. Moses saw that though the bush was on fire it did not burn up.

Exodus 3:3 So Moses thought, “I will go over and see this strange sight— why the bush does not burn up.”

Exodus 3:4 When the LORD saw that he had gone over to look, God called to him from within the bush, “Moses! Moses!” And Moses said, “Here I am.”

Exodus 3:5 “Do not come any closer,” God said. “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy ground.”

Exodus 3:6 Then he said, “I am the God of your father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob.” At this, Moses hid his face, because he was afraid to look at God.

Exodus 3:7 The LORD said, “I have indeed seen the misery of my people in Egypt. I have heard them crying out because of their slave drivers, and I am concerned about their suffering.

Exodus 3:8 So I have come down to rescue them from the hand of the Egyptians and to bring them up out of that land into a good and spacious land, a land flowing with milk and honey—the home of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exodus 3:9 And now the cry of the Israelites has reached me, and I have seen the way the Egyptians are oppressing them.

Exodus 3:10 So now, go. I am sending you to Pharaoh to bring my people the Israelites out of Egypt.”

Exodus 3:11 But Moses said to God, “Who am I, that I should go to Pharaoh and bring the Israelites out of Egypt?”

Exodus 3:12 And God said, “I will be with you. And this will be the sign to you that it is I who have sent you: When you have brought the people out of Egypt, you will worship God on this mountain.”

Exodus 3:13 Moses said to God, “Suppose I go to the Israelites and say to them,`The God of your fathers has sent me to you,’ and they ask me,`What is his name?’ Then what shall I tell them?”

Exodus 3:14 God said to Moses, “I AM WHO I AM. This is what you are to say to the Israelites:`I AM has sent me to you.’“

Exodus 3:15 God also said to Moses, “Say to the Israelites,`The LORD, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has sent me to you.’ This is my name for ever, the name by which I am to be remembered from generation to generation.

Exodus 3:16 “Go, assemble the elders of Israel and say to them,`The LORD, the God of your fathers—the God of Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—appeared to me and said: I have watched over you and have seen what has been done to you in Egypt.

Exodus 3:17 And I have promised to bring you up out of your misery in Egypt into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites—a land flowing with milk and honey.’

Exodus 3:18 “The elders of Israel will listen to you. Then you and the elders are to go to the king of Egypt and say to him,`The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has met with us. Let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God.’

Exodus 3:19 But I know that the king of Egypt will not let you go unless a mighty hand compels him.

Exodus 3:20 So I will stretch out my hand and strike the Egyptians with all the wonders that I will perform among them. After that, he will let you go.

Exodus 3:21 “And I will make the Egyptians favourably disposed towards this people, so that when you leave you will not go empty-handed.

Exodus 3:22 Every woman is to ask her neighbour and any woman living in her house for articles of silver and gold and for clothing, which you will put on your sons and daughters. And so you will plunder the Egyptians.”

Exodus 4:1 Moses answered, “What if they do not believe me or listen to me and say,`The LORD did not appear to you’?”

Exodus 4:2 Then the LORD said to him, “What is that in your hand?” “A staff,” he replied.

Exodus 4:3 The LORD said, “Throw it on the ground.” Moses threw it on the ground and it became a snake, and he ran from it.

Exodus 4:4 Then the LORD said to him, “Reach out your hand and take it by the tail.” So Moses reached out and took hold of the snake and it turned back into a staff in his hand.

Exodus 4:5 “This,” said the LORD, “is so that they may believe that the LORD, the God of their fathers—the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac and the God of Jacob—has appeared to you.”

Exodus 4:6 Then the LORD said, “Put your hand inside your cloak.” So Moses put his hand into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was leprous, like snow.

Exodus 4:7 “Now put it back into your cloak,” he said. So Moses put his hand back into his cloak, and when he took it out, it was restored, like the rest of his flesh.

Exodus 4:8 Then the LORD said, “If they do not believe you or pay attention to the first miraculous sign, they may believe the second.

Exodus 4:9 But if they do not believe these two signs or listen to you, take some water from the Nile and pour it on the dry ground. The water you take from the river will become blood on the ground.”

Exodus 4:10 Moses said to the LORD, “O Lord, I have never been eloquent, neither in the past nor since you have spoken to your servant. I am slow of speech and tongue.”

Exodus 4:11 The LORD said to him, “Who gave man his mouth? Who makes him deaf or mute? Who gives him sight or makes him blind? Is it not I, the LORD?

Exodus 4:12 Now go; I will help you speak and will teach you what to say.”

Exodus 4:13 But Moses said, “O Lord, please send someone else to do it.”

Exodus 4:14 Then the LORD’s anger burned against Moses and he said, “What about your brother, Aaron the Levite? I know he can speak well. He is already on his way to meet you, and his heart will be glad when he sees you.

Exodus 4:15 You shall speak to him and put words in his mouth; I will help both of you speak and will teach you what to do.

Exodus 4:16 He will speak to the people for you, and it will be as if he were your mouth and as if you were God to him.

Exodus 4:17 But take this staff in your hand so that you can perform miraculous signs with it.”

Exodus 4:18 Then Moses went back to Jethro his father-in-law and said to him, “Let me go back to my own people in Egypt to see if any of them are still alive.” Jethro said, “Go, and I wish you well.”

Exodus 4:19 Now the LORD had said to Moses in Midian, “Go back to Egypt, for all the men who wanted to kill you are dead.”

Exodus 4:20 So Moses took his wife and sons, put them on a donkey and started back to Egypt. And he took the staff of God in his hand.

Exodus 4:21 The LORD said to Moses, “When you return to Egypt, see that you perform before Pharaoh all the wonders I have given you the power to do. But I will harden his heart so that he will not let the people go.

Exodus 4:22 Then say to Pharaoh,`This is what the LORD says: Israel is my firstborn son,

Exodus 4:23 and I told you, “Let my son go, so that he may worship me.” But you refused to let him go; so I will kill your firstborn son.’“

Exodus 4:24 At a lodging place on the way, the LORD met [Moses] and was about to kill him.

Exodus 4:25 But Zipporah took a flint knife, cut off her son’s foreskin and touched [Moses’] feet with it. “Surely you are a bridegroom of blood to me,” she said.

Exodus 4:26 So the LORD let him alone. (At that time she said “bridegroom of blood”, referring to circumcision.)

Exodus 4:27 The LORD said to Aaron, “Go into the desert to meet Moses.” So he met Moses at the mountain of God and kissed him.

Exodus 4:28 Then Moses told Aaron everything the LORD had sent him to say, and also about all the miraculous signs he had commanded him to perform.

Exodus 4:29 Moses and Aaron brought together all the elders of the Israelites,

Exodus 4:30 and Aaron told them everything the LORD had said to Moses. He also performed the signs before the people,

Exodus 4:31 and they believed. And when they heard that the LORD was concerned about them and had seen their misery, they bowed down and worshipped.

Exodus 5:1 Afterwards Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Let my people go, so that they may hold a festival to me in the desert.’“

Exodus 5:2 Pharaoh said, “Who is the LORD, that I should obey him and let Israel go? I do not know the LORD and I will not let Israel go.”

Exodus 5:3 Then they said, “The God of the Hebrews has met with us. Now let us take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, or he may strike us with plagues or with the sword.”

Exodus 5:4 But the king of Egypt said, “Moses and Aaron, why are you taking the people away from their labour? Get back to your work!”

Exodus 5:5 Then Pharaoh said, “Look, the people of the land are now numerous, and you are stopping them from working.”

Exodus 5:6 That same day Pharaoh gave this order to the slave drivers and foremen in charge of the people:

Exodus 5:7 “You are no longer to supply the people with straw for making bricks; let them go and gather their own straw.

Exodus 5:8 But require them to make the same number of bricks as before; don’t reduce the quota. They are lazy; that is why they are crying out,`Let us go and sacrifice to our God.’

Exodus 5:9 Make the work harder for the men so that they keep working and pay no attention to lies.”

Exodus 5:10 Then the slave drivers and the foremen went out and said to the people, “This is what Pharaoh says:`I will not give you any more straw.

Exodus 5:11 Go and get your own straw wherever you can find it, but your work will not be reduced at all.’“

Exodus 5:12 So the people scattered all over Egypt to gather stubble to use for straw.

Exodus 5:13 The slave drivers kept pressing them, saying, “Complete the work required of you for each day, just as when you had straw.”

Exodus 5:14 The Israelite foremen appointed by Pharaoh's slave drivers were beaten and were asked, "Why didn't you meet your quota of bricks yesterday or today, as before?"

Exodus 5:15 Then the Israelite foremen went and appealed to Pharaoh: "Why have you treated your servants this way?

Exodus 5:16 Your servants are given no straw, yet we are told,`Make bricks!' Your servants are being beaten, but the fault is with your own people."

Exodus 5:17 Pharaoh said, "Lazy, that's what you are—lazy! That is why you keep saying,`Let us go and sacrifice to the LORD.'

Exodus 5:18 Now get to work. You will not be given any straw, yet you must produce your full quota of bricks."

Exodus 5:19 The Israelite foremen realised they were in trouble when they were told, "You are not to reduce the number of bricks required of you for each day."

Exodus 5:20 When they left Pharaoh, they found Moses and Aaron waiting to meet them,

Exodus 5:21 and they said, "May the LORD look upon you and judge you! You have made us a stench to Pharaoh and his officials and have put a sword in their hand to kill us."

Exodus 5:22 Moses returned to the LORD and said, "O Lord, why have you brought trouble upon this people? Is this why you sent me?

Exodus 5:23 Ever since I went to Pharaoh to speak in your name, he has brought trouble upon this people, and you have not rescued your people at all."

Exodus 6:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Now you will see what I will do to Pharaoh: Because of my mighty hand he will let them go; because of my mighty hand he will drive them out of his country."

Exodus 6:2 God also said to Moses, "I am the LORD.

Exodus 6:3 I appeared to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob as God Almighty, but by my name the LORD I did not make myself known to them.

Exodus 6:4 I also established my covenant with them to give them the land of Canaan, where they lived as aliens.

Exodus 6:5 Moreover, I have heard the groaning of the Israelites, whom the Egyptians are enslaving, and I have remembered my covenant.

Exodus 6:6 "Therefore, say to the Israelites:`I am the LORD, and I will bring you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians. I will free you from being slaves to them, and I will redeem you with an outstretched arm and with mighty acts of judgment.

Exodus 6:7 I will take you as my own people, and I will be your God. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God, who brought you out from under the yoke of the Egyptians.

Exodus 6:8 And I will bring you to the land I swore with uplifted hand to give to Abraham, to Isaac and to Jacob. I will give it to you as a possession. I am the LORD.’“

Exodus 6:9 Moses reported this to the Israelites, but they did not listen to him because of their discouragement and cruel bondage.

Exodus 6:10 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 6:11 “Go, tell Pharaoh king of Egypt to let the Israelites go out of his country.”

Exodus 6:12 But Moses said to the LORD, “If the Israelites will not listen to me, why would Pharaoh listen to me, since I speak with faltering lips?”

Exodus 6:13 Now the LORD spoke to Moses and Aaron about the Israelites and Pharaoh king of Egypt, and he commanded them to bring the Israelites out of Egypt.

Exodus 6:14 These were the heads of their families: The sons of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel were Hanoch and Pallu, Hezron and Carmi. These were the clans of Reuben.

Exodus 6:15 The sons of Simeon were Jemuel, Jamin, Ohad, Jakin, Zohar and Shaul the son of a Canaanite woman. These were the clans of Simeon.

Exodus 6:16 These were the names of the sons of Levi according to their records: Gershon, Kohath and Merari. Levi lived 137 years.

Exodus 6:17 The sons of Gershon, by clans, were Libni and Shimei.

Exodus 6:18 The sons of Kohath were Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel. Kohath lived 133 years.

Exodus 6:19 The sons of Merari were Mahli and Mushi. These were the clans of Levi according to their records.

Exodus 6:20 Amram married his father’s sister Jochebed, who bore him Aaron and Moses. Amram lived 137 years.

Exodus 6:21 The sons of Izhar were Korah, Nepheg and Zicri.

Exodus 6:22 The sons of Uzziel were Mishael, Elzaphan and Sithri.

Exodus 6:23 Aaron married Elisheba, daughter of Amminadab and sister of Nahshon, and she bore him Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Exodus 6:24 The sons of Korah were Assir, Elkanah and Abiasaph. These were the Korahite clans.

Exodus 6:25 Eleazar son of Aaron married one of the daughters of Putiel, and she bore him Phinehas. These were the heads of the Levite families, clan by clan.

Exodus 6:26 It was this same Aaron and Moses to whom the LORD said, “Bring the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions.”

Exodus 6:27 They were the ones who spoke to Pharaoh king of Egypt about bringing the Israelites out of Egypt. It was the same Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 6:28 Now when the LORD spoke to Moses in Egypt,

Exodus 6:29 he said to him, “I am the LORD. Tell Pharaoh king of Egypt everything I tell you.”

Exodus 6:30 But Moses said to the LORD, “Since I speak with faltering lips, why would Pharaoh listen to me?”

Exodus 7:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “See, I have made you like God to Pharaoh, and your brother Aaron will be your prophet.

Exodus 7:2 You are to say everything I command you, and your brother Aaron is to tell Pharaoh to let the Israelites go out of his country.

Exodus 7:3 But I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and though I multiply my miraculous signs and wonders in Egypt,

Exodus 7:4 he will not listen to you. Then I will lay my hand on Egypt and with mighty acts of judgment I will bring out my divisions, my people the Israelites.

Exodus 7:5 And the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I stretch out my hand against Egypt and bring the Israelites out of it.”

Exodus 7:6 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD commanded them.

Exodus 7:7 Moses was eighty years old and Aaron eighty-three when they spoke to Pharaoh.

Exodus 7:8 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Exodus 7:9 “When Pharaoh says to you,`Perform a miracle,’ then say to Aaron,`Take your staff and throw it down before Pharaoh,’ and it will become a snake.”

Exodus 7:10 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and did just as the LORD commanded. Aaron threw his staff down in front of Pharaoh and his officials, and it became a snake.

Exodus 7:11 Pharaoh then summoned the wise men and sorcerers, and the Egyptian magicians also did the same things by their secret arts:

Exodus 7:12 Each one threw down his staff and it became a snake. But Aaron’s staff swallowed up their staffs.

Exodus 7:13 Yet Pharaoh’s heart became hard and he would not listen to them, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Pharaoh’s heart is unyielding; he refuses to let the people go.

Exodus 7:15 Go to Pharaoh in the morning as he goes out to the water. Wait on the bank of the Nile to meet him, and take in your hand the staff that was changed into a snake.

Exodus 7:16 Then say to him,`The LORD, the God of the Hebrews, has sent me to say to you: Let my people go, so that they may worship me in the desert. But until now you have not listened.

Exodus 7:17 This is what the LORD says: By this you will know that I am the LORD: With the staff that is in my hand I will strike the water of the Nile, and it will be changed into blood.

Exodus 7:18 The fish in the Nile will die, and the river will stink; the Egyptians will not be able to drink its water.'"

Exodus 7:19 The LORD said to Moses, "Tell Aaron,`Take your staff and stretch out your hand over the waters of Egypt—over the streams and canals, over the ponds and all the reservoirs'— and they will turn to blood. Blood will be everywhere in Egypt, even in the wooden buckets and stone jars."

Exodus 7:20 Moses and Aaron did just as the LORD had commanded. He raised his staff in the presence of Pharaoh and his officials and struck the water of the Nile, and all the water was changed into blood.

Exodus 7:21 The fish in the Nile died, and the river smelled so bad that the Egyptians could not drink its water. Blood was everywhere in Egypt.

Exodus 7:22 But the Egyptian magicians did the same things by their secret arts, and Pharaoh's heart became hard; he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 7:23 Instead, he turned and went into his palace, and did not take even this to heart.

Exodus 7:24 And all the Egyptians dug along the Nile to get drinking water, because they could not drink the water of the river.

Exodus 7:25 Seven days passed after the LORD struck the Nile.

Exodus 8:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh and say to him,`This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 8:2 If you refuse to let them go, I will plague your whole country with frogs.

Exodus 8:3 The Nile will teem with frogs. They will come up into your palace and your bedroom and onto your bed, into the houses of your officials and on your people, and into your ovens and kneading troughs.

Exodus 8:4 The frogs will go up on you and your people and all your officials.'"

Exodus 8:5 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron,`Stretch out your hand with your staff over the streams and canals and ponds, and make frogs come up on the land of Egypt.’“

Exodus 8:6 So Aaron stretched out his hand over the waters of Egypt, and the frogs came up and covered the land.

Exodus 8:7 But the magicians did the same things by their secret arts; they also made frogs come up on the land of Egypt.

Exodus 8:8 Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Pray to the LORD to take the frogs away from me and my people, and I will let your people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:9 Moses said to Pharaoh, “I leave to you the honour of setting the time for me to pray for you and your officials and your people that you and your houses may be rid of the frogs, except for those that remain in the Nile.”

Exodus 8:10 “Tomorrow,” Pharaoh said. Moses replied, “It will be as you say, so that you may know there is no-one like the LORD our God.

Exodus 8:11 The frogs will leave you and your houses, your officials and your people; they will remain only in the Nile.”

Exodus 8:12 After Moses and Aaron left Pharaoh, Moses cried out to the LORD about the frogs he had brought on Pharaoh.

Exodus 8:13 And the LORD did what Moses asked. The frogs died in the houses, in the courtyards and in the fields.

Exodus 8:14 They were piled into heaps, and the land reeked of them.

Exodus 8:15 But when Pharaoh saw that there was relief, he hardened his heart and would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:16 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell Aaron,`Stretch out your staff and strike the dust of the ground,’ and throughout the land of Egypt the dust will become gnats.”

Exodus 8:17 They did this, and when Aaron stretched out his hand with the staff and struck the dust of the ground, gnats came upon men and animals. All the dust throughout the land of Egypt became gnats.

Exodus 8:18 But when the magicians tried to produce gnats by their secret arts, they could not. And the gnats were on men and animals.

Exodus 8:19 The magicians said to Pharaoh, “This is the finger of God.” But Pharaoh’s heart was hard and he would not listen, just as the LORD had said.

Exodus 8:20 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning and confront Pharaoh as he goes to the water and say to him,`This is what the LORD says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 8:21 If you do not let my people go, I will send swarms of flies on you and your officials, on your people and into your houses. The houses of the Egyptians will be full of flies, and even the ground where they are.

Exodus 8:22 “`But on that day I will deal differently with the land of Goshen, where my people live; no swarms of flies will be there, so that you will know that I, the LORD, am in this land.

Exodus 8:23 I will make a distinction between my people and your people. This miraculous sign will occur tomorrow.’“

Exodus 8:24 And the LORD did this. Dense swarms of flies poured into Pharaoh’s palace and into the houses of his officials, and throughout Egypt the land was ruined by the flies.

Exodus 8:25 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Go, sacrifice to your God here in the land.”

Exodus 8:26 But Moses said, “That would not be right. The sacrifices we offer the LORD our God would be detestable to the Egyptians. And if we offer sacrifices that are detestable in their eyes, will they not stone us?

Exodus 8:27 We must take a three-day journey into the desert to offer sacrifices to the LORD our God, as he commands us.”

Exodus 8:28 Pharaoh said, “I will let you go to offer sacrifices to the LORD your God in the desert, but you must not go very far. Now pray for me.”

Exodus 8:29 Moses answered, “As soon as I leave you, I will pray to the LORD, and tomorrow the flies will leave Pharaoh and his officials and his people. Only be sure that Pharaoh does not act deceitfully again by not letting the people go to offer sacrifices to the LORD.”

Exodus 8:30 Then Moses left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD,

Exodus 8:31 and the LORD did what Moses asked: The flies left Pharaoh and his officials and his people; not a fly remained.

Exodus 8:32 But this time also Pharaoh hardened his heart and would not let the people go.

Exodus 9:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go to Pharaoh and say to him,`This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: “Let my people go, so that they may worship me.”

Exodus 9:2 If you refuse to let them go and continue to hold them back,

Exodus 9:3 the hand of the LORD will bring a terrible plague on your livestock in the field—on your horses and donkeys and camels and on your cattle and sheep and goats.

Exodus 9:4 But the LORD will make a distinction between the livestock of Israel and that of Egypt, so that no animal belonging to the Israelites will die.’“

Exodus 9:5 The LORD set a time and said, “Tomorrow the LORD will do this in the land.”

Exodus 9:6 And the next day the LORD did it: All the livestock of the Egyptians died, but not one animal belonging to the Israelites died.

Exodus 9:7 Pharaoh sent men to investigate and found that not even one of the animals of the Israelites had died. Yet his heart was unyielding and he would not let the people go.

Exodus 9:8 Then the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Take handfuls of soot from a furnace and have Moses toss it into the air in the presence of Pharaoh.

Exodus 9:9 It will become fine dust over the whole land of Egypt, and festering boils will break out on men and animals throughout the land.”

Exodus 9:10 So they took soot from a furnace and stood before Pharaoh. Moses tossed it into the air, and festering boils broke out on men and animals.

Exodus 9:11 The magicians could not stand before Moses because of the boils that were on them and on all the Egyptians.

Exodus 9:12 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart and he would not listen to Moses and Aaron, just as the LORD had said to Moses.

Exodus 9:13 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Get up early in the morning, confront Pharaoh and say to him,`This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says: Let my people go, so that they may worship me,

Exodus 9:14 or this time I will send the full force of my plagues against you and against your officials and your people, so you may know that there is no-one like me in all the earth.

Exodus 9:15 For by now I could have stretched out my hand and struck you and your people with a plague that would have wiped you off the earth.

Exodus 9:16 But I have raised you up for this very purpose, that I might show you my power and that my name might be proclaimed in all the earth.

Exodus 9:17 You still set yourself against my people and will not let them go.

Exodus 9:18 Therefore, at this time tomorrow I will send the worst hailstorm that has ever fallen on Egypt, from the day it was founded till now.

Exodus 9:19 Give an order now to bring your livestock and everything you have in the field to a place of shelter, because the hail will fall on every man and animal that has not been brought in and is still out in the field, and they will die.’“

Exodus 9:20 Those officials of Pharaoh who feared the word of the LORD hurried to bring their slaves and their livestock inside.

Exodus 9:21 But those who ignored the word of the LORD left their slaves and livestock in the field.

Exodus 9:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand towards the sky so that hail will fall all over Egypt—on men and animals and on everything growing in the fields of Egypt.”

Exodus 9:23 When Moses stretched out his staff towards the sky, the LORD sent thunder and hail, and lightning flashed down to the ground. So the LORD rained hail on the land of Egypt;

Exodus 9:24 hail fell and lightning flashed back and forth. It was the worst storm in all the land of Egypt since it had become a nation.

Exodus 9:25 Throughout Egypt hail struck everything in the fields—both men and animals; it beat down everything growing in the fields and stripped every tree.

Exodus 9:26 The only place it did not hail was the land of Goshen, where the Israelites were.

Exodus 9:27 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron. “This time I have sinned,” he said to them. “The LORD is in the right, and I and my people are in the wrong.

Exodus 9:28 Pray to the LORD, for we have had enough thunder and hail. I will let you go; you don’t have to stay any longer.”

Exodus 9:29 Moses replied, “When I have gone out of the city, I will spread out my hands in prayer to the LORD. The thunder will stop and there will be no more hail, so you may know that the earth is the LORD’s.

Exodus 9:30 But I know that you and your officials still do not fear the LORD God.”

Exodus 9:31 (The flax and barley were destroyed, since the barley was in the ear and the flax was in bloom.

Exodus 9:32 The wheat and spelt, however, were not destroyed, because they ripen later.)

Exodus 9:33 Then Moses left Pharaoh and went out of the city. He spread out his hands towards the LORD; the thunder and hail stopped, and the rain no longer poured down on the land.

Exodus 9:34 When Pharaoh saw that the rain and hail and thunder had stopped, he sinned again: He and his officials hardened their hearts.

Exodus 9:35 So Pharaoh's heart was hard and he would not let the Israelites go, just as the LORD had said through Moses.

Exodus 10:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, "Go to Pharaoh, for I have hardened his heart and the hearts of his officials so that I may perform these miraculous signs of mine among them

Exodus 10:2 that you may tell your children and grandchildren how I dealt harshly with the Egyptians and how I performed my signs among them, and that you may know that I am the LORD."

Exodus 10:3 So Moses and Aaron went to Pharaoh and said to him, "This is what the LORD, the God of the Hebrews, says:`How long will you refuse to humble yourself before me? Let my people go, so that they may worship me.

Exodus 10:4 If you refuse to let them go, I will bring locusts into your country tomorrow.

Exodus 10:5 They will cover the face of the ground so that it cannot be seen. They will devour what little you have left after the hail, including every tree that is growing in your fields.

Exodus 10:6 They will fill your houses and those of all your officials and all the Egyptians—something neither your fathers nor your forefathers have ever seen from the day they settled in this land till now.'" Then Moses turned and left Pharaoh.

Exodus 10:7 Pharaoh's officials said to him, "How long will this man be a snare to us? Let the people go, so that they may worship the LORD their God. Do you not yet realise that Egypt is ruined?"

Exodus 10:8 Then Moses and Aaron were brought back to Pharaoh. "Go, worship the LORD your God," he said. "But just who will be going?"

Exodus 10:9 Moses answered, "We will go with our young and old, with our sons and daughters, and with our flocks and herds, because we are to celebrate a festival to the LORD."

Exodus 10:10 Pharaoh said, "The LORD be with you—if I let you go, along with your women and children! Clearly you are bent on evil.

Exodus 10:11 No! Let only the men go; and worship the LORD, since that's what you have been asking for." Then Moses and Aaron were driven out of Pharaoh's presence.

Exodus 10:12 And the LORD said to Moses, "Stretch out your hand over Egypt so that locusts will swarm over the land and devour everything growing in the fields, everything left by the hail."

Exodus 10:13 So Moses stretched out his staff over Egypt, and the LORD made an east wind blow across the land all that day and all that night. By morning the wind had brought the locusts;

Exodus 10:14 they invaded all Egypt and settled down in every area of the country in great numbers. Never before had there been such a plague of locusts, nor will there ever be again.

Exodus 10:15 They covered all the ground until it was black. They devoured all that was left after the hail—everything growing in the fields and the fruit on the trees. Nothing green remained on tree or plant in all the land of Egypt.

Exodus 10:16 Pharaoh quickly summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “I have sinned against the LORD your God and against you.

Exodus 10:17 Now forgive my sin once more and pray to the LORD your God to take this deadly plague away from me.”

Exodus 10:18 Moses then left Pharaoh and prayed to the LORD.

Exodus 10:19 And the LORD changed the wind to a very strong west wind, which caught up the locusts and carried them into the Red Sea. Not a locust was left anywhere in Egypt.

Exodus 10:20 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he would not let the Israelites go.

Exodus 10:21 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand towards the sky so that darkness will spread over Egypt— darkness that can be felt.”

Exodus 10:22 So Moses stretched out his hand towards the sky, and total darkness covered all Egypt for three days.

Exodus 10:23 No-one could see anyone else or leave his place for three days. Yet all the Israelites had light in the places where they lived.

Exodus 10:24 Then Pharaoh summoned Moses and said, “Go, worship the LORD. Even your women and children may go with you; only leave your flocks and herds behind.”

Exodus 10:25 But Moses said, “You must allow us to have sacrifices and burnt offerings to present to the LORD our God.

Exodus 10:26 Our livestock too must go with us; not a hoof is to be left behind. We have to use some of them in worshipping the LORD our God, and until we get there we will not know what we are to use to worship the LORD.”

Exodus 10:27 But the LORD hardened Pharaoh’s heart, and he was not willing to let them go.

Exodus 10:28 Pharaoh said to Moses, “Get out of my sight! Make sure you do not appear before me again! The day you see my face you will die.”

Exodus 10:29 “Just as you say,” Moses replied, “I will never appear before you again.”

Exodus 11:1 Now the LORD said to Moses, “I will bring one more plague on Pharaoh and on Egypt. After that, he will let you go from here, and when he does, he will drive you out completely.

Exodus 11:2 Tell the people that men and women alike are to ask their neighbours for articles of silver and gold.”

Exodus 11:3 (The LORD made the Egyptians favourably disposed towards the people, and Moses himself was highly regarded in Egypt by Pharaoh's officials and by the people.)

Exodus 11:4 So Moses said, "This is what the LORD says:`About midnight I will go throughout Egypt.

Exodus 11:5 Every firstborn son in Egypt will die, from the firstborn son of Pharaoh, who sits on the throne, to the firstborn son of the slave girl, who is at her hand mill, and all the firstborn of the cattle as well.

Exodus 11:6 There will be loud wailing throughout Egypt—worse than there has ever been or ever will be again.

Exodus 11:7 But among the Israelites not a dog will bark at any man or animal.' Then you will know that the LORD makes a distinction between Egypt and Israel.

Exodus 11:8 All these officials of yours will come to me, bowing down before me and saying,`Go, you and all the people who follow you!' After that I will leave." Then Moses, hot with anger, left Pharaoh.

Exodus 11:9 The LORD had said to Moses, "Pharaoh will refuse to listen to you—so that my wonders may be multiplied in Egypt."

Exodus 11:10 Moses and Aaron performed all these wonders before Pharaoh, but the LORD hardened Pharaoh's heart, and he would not let the Israelites go out of his country.

Exodus 12:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron in Egypt,

Exodus 12:2 "This month is to be for you the first month, the first month of your year.

Exodus 12:3 Tell the whole community of Israel that on the tenth day of this month each man is to take a lamb for his family, one for each household.

Exodus 12:4 If any household is too small for a whole lamb, they must share one with their nearest neighbour, having taken into account the number of people there are. You are to determine the amount of lamb needed in accordance with what each person will eat.

Exodus 12:5 The animals you choose must be year-old males without defect, and you may take them from the sheep or the goats.

Exodus 12:6 Take care of them until the fourteenth day of the month, when all the people of the community of Israel must slaughter them at twilight.

Exodus 12:7 Then they are to take some of the blood and put it on the sides and tops of the door-frames of the houses where they eat the lambs.

Exodus 12:8 That same night they are to eat the meat roasted over the fire, along with bitter herbs, and bread made without yeast.

Exodus 12:9 Do not eat the meat raw or cooked in water, but roast it over the fire—head, legs and inner parts.

Exodus 12:10 Do not leave any of it till morning; if some is left till morning, you must burn it.

Exodus 12:11 This is how you are to eat it: with your cloak tucked into your belt, your sandals on your feet and your staff in your hand. Eat it in haste; it is the LORD's Passover.

Exodus 12:12 "On that same night I will pass through Egypt and strike down every firstborn—both men and animals—and I will bring judgment on all the gods of Egypt. I am the LORD.

Exodus 12:13 The blood will be a sign for you on the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, I will pass over you. No destructive plague will touch you when I strike Egypt.

Exodus 12:14 "This is a day you are to commemorate; for the generations to come you shall celebrate it as a festival to the LORD—a lasting ordinance.

Exodus 12:15 For seven days you are to eat bread made without yeast. On the first day remove the yeast from your houses, for whoever eats anything with yeast in it from the first day until the seventh must be cut off from Israel.

Exodus 12:16 On the first day hold a sacred assembly, and another one on the seventh day. Do no work at all on these days, except to prepare food for everyone to eat—that is all you may do.

Exodus 12:17 "Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread, because it was on this very day that I brought your divisions out of Egypt. Celebrate this day as a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Exodus 12:18 In the first month you are to eat bread made without yeast, from the evening of the fourteenth day until the evening of the twenty-first day.

Exodus 12:19 For seven days no yeast is to be found in your houses. And whoever eats anything with yeast in it must be cut off from the community of Israel, whether he is an alien or native-born.

Exodus 12:20 Eat nothing made with yeast. Wherever you live, you must eat unleavened bread."

Exodus 12:21 Then Moses summoned all the elders of Israel and said to them, "Go at once and select the animals for your families and slaughter the Passover lamb.

Exodus 12:22 Take a bunch of hyssop, dip it into the blood in the basin and put some of the blood on the top and on both sides of the door-frame. Not one of you shall go out of the door of his house until morning.

Exodus 12:23 When the LORD goes through the land to strike down the Egyptians, he will see the blood on the top and sides of the doorframe and will pass over that doorway, and he will not permit the destroyer to enter your houses and strike you down.

Exodus 12:24 “Obey these instructions as a lasting ordinance for you and your descendants.

Exodus 12:25 When you enter the land that the LORD will give you as he promised, observe this ceremony.

Exodus 12:26 And when your children ask you,`What does this ceremony mean to you?’

Exodus 12:27 then tell them,`It is the Passover sacrifice to the LORD, who passed over the houses of the Israelites in Egypt and spared our homes when he struck down the Egyptians.’“ Then the people bowed down and worshipped.

Exodus 12:28 The Israelites did just what the LORD commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:29 At midnight the LORD struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, from the firstborn of Pharaoh, who sat on the throne, to the firstborn of the prisoner, who was in the dungeon, and the firstborn of all the livestock as well.

Exodus 12:30 Pharaoh and all his officials and all the Egyptians got up during the night, and there was loud wailing in Egypt, for there was not a house without someone dead.

Exodus 12:31 During the night Pharaoh summoned Moses and Aaron and said, “Up! Leave my people, you and the Israelites! Go, worship the LORD as you have requested.

Exodus 12:32 Take your flocks and herds, as you have said, and go. And also bless me.”

Exodus 12:33 The Egyptians urged the people to hurry and leave the country. “For otherwise,” they said, “we will all die!”

Exodus 12:34 So the people took their dough before the yeast was added, and carried it on their shoulders in kneading troughs wrapped in clothing.

Exodus 12:35 The Israelites did as Moses instructed and asked the Egyptians for articles of silver and gold and for clothing.

Exodus 12:36 The LORD had made the Egyptians favourably disposed towards the people, and they gave them what they asked for; so they plundered the Egyptians.

Exodus 12:37 The Israelites journeyed from Rameses to Succoth. There were about six hundred thousand men on foot, besides women and children.

Exodus 12:38 Many other people went up with them, as well as large droves of livestock, both flocks and herds.

Exodus 12:39 With the dough they had brought from Egypt, they baked cakes of unleavened bread. The dough was without yeast because they had been driven out of Egypt and did not have time to prepare food for themselves.

Exodus 12:40 Now the length of time the Israelite people lived in Egypt was 430 years.

Exodus 12:41 At the end of the 430 years, to the very day, all the LORD’s divisions left Egypt.

Exodus 12:42 Because the LORD kept vigil that night to bring them out of Egypt, on this night all the Israelites are to keep vigil to honour the LORD for the generations to come.

Exodus 12:43 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “These are the regulations for the Passover: “No foreigner is to eat of it.

Exodus 12:44 Any slave you have bought may eat of it after you have circumcised him,

Exodus 12:45 but a temporary resident and a hired worker may not eat of it.

Exodus 12:46 “It must be eaten inside one house; take none of the meat outside the house. Do not break any of the bones.

Exodus 12:47 The whole community of Israel must celebrate it.

Exodus 12:48 “An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover must have all the males in his household circumcised; then he may take part like one born in the land. No uncircumcised male may eat of it.

Exodus 12:49 The same law applies to the native-born and to the alien living among you.”

Exodus 12:50 All the Israelites did just what the LORD had commanded Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 12:51 And on that very day the LORD brought the Israelites out of Egypt by their divisions.

Exodus 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 13:2 “Consecrate to me every firstborn male. The first offspring of every womb among the Israelites belongs to me, whether man or animal.”

Exodus 13:3 Then Moses said to the people, “Commemorate this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery, because the LORD brought you out of it with a mighty hand. Eat nothing containing yeast.

Exodus 13:4 Today, in the month of Abib, you are leaving.

Exodus 13:5 When the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Hivites and Jebusites—the land he swore to your forefathers to give you, a land flowing with milk and honey—you are to observe this ceremony in this month:

Exodus 13:6 For seven days eat bread made without yeast and on the seventh day hold a festival to the LORD.

Exodus 13:7 Eat unleavened bread during those seven days; nothing with yeast in it is to be seen among you, nor shall any yeast be seen anywhere within your borders.

Exodus 13:8 On that day tell your son,`I do this because of what the LORD did for me when I came out of Egypt.'

Exodus 13:9 This observance will be for you like a sign on your hand and a reminder on your forehead that the law of the LORD is to be on your lips. For the LORD brought you out of Egypt with his mighty hand.

Exodus 13:10 You must keep this ordinance at the appointed time year after year.

Exodus 13:11 "After the LORD brings you into the land of the Canaanites and gives it to you, as he promised on oath to you and your forefathers,

Exodus 13:12 you are to give over to the LORD the first offspring of every womb. All the firstborn males of your livestock belong to the LORD.

Exodus 13:13 Redeem with a lamb every firstborn donkey, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem every firstborn among your sons.

Exodus 13:14 "In days to come when your son asks you,`What does this mean?' say to him,`With a mighty hand the LORD brought us out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Exodus 13:15 When Pharaoh stubbornly refused to let us go, the LORD killed every firstborn in Egypt, both man and animal. This is why I sacrifice to the LORD the first male offspring of every womb and redeem each of my firstborn sons.'

Exodus 13:16 And it will be like a sign on your hand and a symbol on your forehead that the LORD brought us out of Egypt with his mighty hand."

Exodus 13:17 When Pharaoh let the people go, God did not lead them on the road through the Philistine country, though that was shorter. For God said, "If they face war, they might change their minds and return to Egypt."

Exodus 13:18 So God led the people around by the desert road towards the Red Sea. The Israelites went up out of Egypt armed for battle.

Exodus 13:19 Moses took the bones of Joseph with him because Joseph had made the sons of Israel swear an oath. He had said, "God will surely come to your aid, and then you must carry my bones up with you from this place."

Exodus 13:20 After leaving Succoth they camped at Etham on the edge of the desert.

Exodus 13:21 By day the LORD went ahead of them in a pillar of cloud to guide them on their way and by night in a pillar of fire to give them light, so that they could travel by day or night.

Exodus 13:22 Neither the pillar of cloud by day nor the pillar of fire by night left its place in front of the people.

Exodus 14:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 14:2 “Tell the Israelites to turn back and camp near Pi Hahiroth, between Migdol and the sea. They are to camp by the sea, directly opposite Baal Zephon.

Exodus 14:3 Pharaoh will think,`The Israelites are wandering around the land in confusion, hemmed in by the desert.’

Exodus 14:4 And I will harden Pharaoh’s heart, and he will pursue them. But I will gain glory for myself through Pharaoh and all his army, and the Egyptians will know that I am the LORD.” So the Israelites did this.

Exodus 14:5 When the king of Egypt was told that the people had fled, Pharaoh and his officials changed their minds about them and said, “What have we done? We have let the Israelites go and have lost their services!”

Exodus 14:6 So he had his chariot made ready and took his army with him.

Exodus 14:7 He took six hundred of the best chariots, along with all the other chariots of Egypt, with officers over all of them.

Exodus 14:8 The LORD hardened the heart of Pharaoh king of Egypt, so that he pursued the Israelites, who were marching out boldly.

Exodus 14:9 The Egyptians—all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots, horsemen and troops—pursued the Israelites and overtook them as they camped by the sea near Pi Hahiroth, opposite Baal Zephon.

Exodus 14:10 As Pharaoh approached, the Israelites looked up, and there were the Egyptians, marching after them. They were terrified and cried out to the LORD.

Exodus 14:11 They said to Moses, “Was it because there were no graves in Egypt that you brought us to the desert to die? What have you done to us by bringing us out of Egypt?

Exodus 14:12 Didn’t we say to you in Egypt,`Leave us alone; let us serve the Egyptians’? It would have been better for us to serve the Egyptians than to die in the desert!”

Exodus 14:13 Moses answered the people, “Do not be afraid. Stand firm and you will see the deliverance the LORD will bring you today. The Egyptians you see today you will never see again.

Exodus 14:14 The LORD will fight for you; you need only to be still.”

Exodus 14:15 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Why are you crying out to me? Tell the Israelites to move on.

Exodus 14:16 Raise your staff and stretch out your hand over the sea to divide the water so that the Israelites can go through the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 14:17 I will harden the hearts of the Egyptians so that they will go in after them. And I will gain glory through Pharaoh and all his army, through his chariots and his horsemen.

Exodus 14:18 The Egyptians will know that I am the LORD when I gain glory through Pharaoh, his chariots and his horsemen.”

Exodus 14:19 Then the angel of God, who had been travelling in front of Israel’s army, withdrew and went behind them. The pillar of cloud also moved from in front and stood behind them,

Exodus 14:20 coming between the armies of Egypt and Israel. Throughout the night the cloud brought darkness to the one side and light to the other; so neither went near the other all night long.

Exodus 14:21 Then Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and all that night the LORD drove the sea back with a strong east wind and turned it into dry land. The waters were divided,

Exodus 14:22 and the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:23 The Egyptians pursued them, and all Pharaoh’s horses and chariots and horsemen followed them into the sea.

Exodus 14:24 During the last watch of the night the LORD looked down from the pillar of fire and cloud at the Egyptian army and threw it into confusion.

Exodus 14:25 He made the wheels of their chariots come off so that they had difficulty driving. And the Egyptians said, “Let’s get away from the Israelites! The LORD is fighting for them against Egypt.”

Exodus 14:26 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Stretch out your hand over the sea so that the waters may flow back over the Egyptians and their chariots and horsemen.”

Exodus 14:27 Moses stretched out his hand over the sea, and at daybreak the sea went back to its place. The Egyptians were fleeing towards it, and the LORD swept them into the sea.

Exodus 14:28 The water flowed back and covered the chariots and horsemen—the entire army of Pharaoh that had followed the Israelites into the sea. Not one of them survived.

Exodus 14:29 But the Israelites went through the sea on dry ground, with a wall of water on their right and on their left.

Exodus 14:30 That day the LORD saved Israel from the hands of the Egyptians, and Israel saw the Egyptians lying dead on the shore.

Exodus 14:31 And when the Israelites saw the great power the LORD displayed against the Egyptians, the people feared the LORD and put their trust in him and in Moses his servant.

Exodus 15:1 Then Moses and the Israelites sang this song to the LORD: “I will sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.

Exodus 15:2 The LORD is my strength and my song; he has become my salvation. He is my God, and I will praise him, my father’s God, and I will exalt him.

Exodus 15:3 The LORD is a warrior; the LORD is his name.

Exodus 15:4 Pharaoh’s chariots and his army he has hurled into the sea. The best of Pharaoh’s officers are drowned in the Red Sea.

Exodus 15:5 The deep waters have covered them; they sank to the depths like a stone.

Exodus 15:6 “Your right hand, O LORD, was majestic in power. Your right hand, O LORD, shattered the enemy.

Exodus 15:7 In the greatness of your majesty you threw down those who opposed you. You unleashed your burning anger; it consumed them like stubble.

Exodus 15:8 By the blast of your nostrils the waters piled up. The surging waters stood firm like a wall; the deep waters congealed in the heart of the sea.

Exodus 15:9 “The enemy boasted,`I will pursue, I will overtake them. I will divide the spoils; I will gorge myself on them. I will draw my sword and my hand will destroy them.’

Exodus 15:10 But you blew with your breath, and the sea covered them. They sank like lead in the mighty waters.

Exodus 15:11 “Who among the gods is like you, O LORD? Who is like you— majestic in holiness, awesome in glory, working wonders?

Exodus 15:12 You stretched out your right hand and the earth swallowed them.

Exodus 15:13 “In your unfailing love you will lead the people you have redeemed. In your strength you will guide them to your holy dwelling.

Exodus 15:14 The nations will hear and tremble; anguish will grip the people of Philistia.

Exodus 15:15 The chiefs of Edom will be terrified, the leaders of Moab will be seized with trembling, the people of Canaan will melt away;

Exodus 15:16 terror and dread will fall upon them. By the power of your arm they will be as still as a stone—until your people pass by, O LORD, until the people you bought pass by.

Exodus 15:17 You will bring them in and plant them on the mountain of your inheritance—the place, O LORD, you made for your dwelling, the sanctuary, O Lord, your hands established.

Exodus 15:18 The LORD will reign for ever and ever.”

Exodus 15:19 When Pharaoh’s horses, chariots and horsemen went into the sea, the LORD brought the waters of the sea back over them, but the Israelites walked through the sea on dry ground.

Exodus 15:20 Then Miriam the prophetess, Aaron’s sister, took a tambourine in her hand, and all the women followed her, with tambourines and dancing.

Exodus 15:21 Miriam sang to them: “Sing to the LORD, for he is highly exalted. The horse and its rider he has hurled into the sea.”

Exodus 15:22 Then Moses led Israel from the Red Sea and they went into the Desert of Shur. For three days they travelled in the desert without finding water.

Exodus 15:23 When they came to Marah, they could not drink its water because it was bitter. (That is why the place is called Marah.)

Exodus 15:24 So the people grumbled against Moses, saying, “What are we to drink?”

Exodus 15:25 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, and the LORD showed him a piece of wood. He threw it into the water, and the water became sweet. There the LORD made a decree and a law for them, and there he tested them.

Exodus 15:26 He said, “If you listen carefully to the voice of the LORD your God and do what is right in his eyes, if you pay attention to his commands and keep all his decrees, I will not bring on you any of the diseases I brought on the Egyptians, for I am the LORD, who heals you.”

Exodus 15:27 Then they came to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there near the water.

Exodus 16:1 The whole Israelite community set out from Elim and came to the Desert of Sin, which is between Elim and Sinai, on the fifteenth day of the second month after they had come out of Egypt.

Exodus 16:2 In the desert the whole community grumbled against Moses and Aaron.

Exodus 16:3 The Israelites said to them, “If only we had died by the LORD’s hand in Egypt! There we sat round pots of meat and ate all the food we wanted, but you have brought us out into this desert to starve this entire assembly to death.”

Exodus 16:4 Then the LORD said to Moses, “I will rain down bread from heaven for you. The people are to go out each day and gather enough for that day. In this way I will test them and see whether they will follow my instructions.

Exodus 16:5 On the sixth day they are to prepare what they bring in, and that is to be twice as much as they gather on the other days.”

Exodus 16:6 So Moses and Aaron said to all the Israelites, “In the evening you will know that it was the LORD who brought you out of Egypt, Exodus 16:7 and in the morning you will see the glory of the LORD, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we, that you should grumble against us?”

Exodus 16:8 Moses also said, “You will know that it was the LORD when he gives you meat to eat in the evening and all the bread you want in the morning, because he has heard your grumbling against him. Who are we? You are not grumbling against us, but against the LORD.”

Exodus 16:9 Then Moses told Aaron, “Say to the entire Israelite community,`Come before the LORD, for he has heard your grumbling.’“

Exodus 16:10 While Aaron was speaking to the whole Israelite community, they looked towards the desert, and there was the glory of the LORD appearing in the cloud.

Exodus 16:11 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 16:12 “I have heard the grumbling of the Israelites. Tell them,`At twilight you will eat meat, and in the morning you will be filled with bread. Then you will know that I am the LORD your God.’“

Exodus 16:13 That evening quail came and covered the camp, and in the morning there was a layer of dew around the camp.

Exodus 16:14 When the dew was gone, thin flakes like frost on the ground appeared on the desert floor.

Exodus 16:15 When the Israelites saw it, they said to each other, “What is it?” For they did not know what it was. Moses said to them, “It is the bread the LORD has given you to eat.

Exodus 16:16 This is what the LORD has commanded:`Each one is to gather as much as he needs. Take an omer for each person you have in your tent.’“

Exodus 16:17 The Israelites did as they were told; some gathered much, some little.

Exodus 16:18 And when they measured it by the omer, he who gathered much did not have too much, and he who gathered little did not have too little. Each one gathered as much as he needed.

Exodus 16:19 Then Moses said to them, “No-one is to keep any of it until morning.”

Exodus 16:20 However, some of them paid no attention to Moses; they kept part of it until morning, but it was full of maggots and began to smell. So Moses was angry with them.

Exodus 16:21 Each morning everyone gathered as much as he needed, and when the sun grew hot, it melted away.

Exodus 16:22 On the sixth day, they gathered twice as much—two omers for each person—and the leaders of the community came and reported this to Moses.

Exodus 16:23 He said to them, “This is what the LORD commanded:`Tomorrow is to be a day of rest, a holy Sabbath to the LORD. So bake what you want to bake and boil what you want to boil. Save whatever is left and keep it until morning.’“

Exodus 16:24 So they saved it until morning, as Moses commanded, and it did not stink or get maggots in it.

Exodus 16:25 “Eat it today,” Moses said, “because today is a Sabbath to the LORD. You will not find any of it on the ground today.

Exodus 16:26 Six days you are to gather it, but on the seventh day, the Sabbath, there will not be any.”

Exodus 16:27 Nevertheless, some of the people went out on the seventh day to gather it, but they found none.

Exodus 16:28 Then the LORD said to Moses, “How long will you refuse to keep my commands and my instructions?

Exodus 16:29 Bear in mind that the LORD has given you the Sabbath; that is why on the sixth day he gives you bread for two days. Everyone is to stay where he is on the seventh day; no-one is to go out.”

Exodus 16:30 So the people rested on the seventh day.

Exodus 16:31 The people of Israel called the bread manna. It was white like coriander seed and tasted like wafers made with honey.

Exodus 16:32 Moses said, “This is what the LORD has commanded:`Take an omer of manna and keep it for the generations to come, so they can see the bread I gave you to eat in the desert when I brought you out of Egypt.’“

Exodus 16:33 So Moses said to Aaron, “Take a jar and put an omer of manna in it. Then place it before the LORD to be kept for the generations to come.”

Exodus 16:34 As the LORD commanded Moses, Aaron put the manna in front of the Testimony, that it might be kept.

Exodus 16:35 The Israelites ate manna for forty years, until they came to a land that was settled; they ate manna until they reached the border of Canaan.

Exodus 16:36 (An omer is one tenth of an ephah.)

Exodus 17:1 The whole Israelite community set out from the Desert of Sin, travelling from place to place as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink.

Exodus 17:2 So they quarrelled with Moses and said, “Give us water to drink.” Moses replied, “Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you put the LORD to the test?”

Exodus 17:3 But the people were thirsty for water there, and they grumbled against Moses. They said, “Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to make us and our children and livestock die of thirst?”

Exodus 17:4 Then Moses cried out to the LORD, “What am I to do with these people? They are almost ready to stone me.”

Exodus 17:5 The LORD answered Moses, “Walk on ahead of the people. Take with you some of the elders of Israel and take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go.

Exodus 17:6 I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink.” So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel.

Exodus 17:7 And he called the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarrelled and because they tested the LORD saying, “Is the LORD among us or not?”

Exodus 17:8 The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Exodus 17:9 Moses said to Joshua, “Choose some of our men and go out to fight the Amalekites. Tomorrow I will stand on top of the hill with the staff of God in my hands.”

Exodus 17:10 So Joshua fought the Amalekites as Moses had ordered, and Moses, Aaron and Hur went to the top of the hill.

Exodus 17:11 As long as Moses held up his hands, the Israelites were winning, but whenever he lowered his hands, the Amalekites were winning.

Exodus 17:12 When Moses’ hands grew tired, they took a stone and put it under him and he sat on it. Aaron and Hur held his hands up—one on one side, one on the other—so that his hands remained steady till sunset.

Exodus 17:13 So Joshua overcame the Amalekite army with the sword.

Exodus 17:14 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write this on a scroll as something to be remembered and make sure that Joshua hears it, because I will completely blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven.”

Exodus 17:15 Moses built an altar and called it The LORD is my Banner.

Exodus 17:16 He said, “For hands were lifted up to the throne of the LORD. The LORD will be at war against the Amalekites from generation to generation.”

Exodus 18:1 Now Jethro, the priest of Midian and father-in-law of Moses, heard of everything God had done for Moses and for his people Israel, and how the LORD had brought Israel out of Egypt.

Exodus 18:2 After Moses had sent away his wife Zipporah, his father-in-law Jethro received her

Exodus 18:3 and her two sons. One son was named Gershom, for Moses said, “I have become an alien in a foreign land”;

Exodus 18:4 and the other was named Eliezer, for he said, “My father’s God was my helper; he saved me from the sword of Pharaoh.”

Exodus 18:5 Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, together with Moses’ sons and wife, came to him in the desert, where he was camped near the mountain of God.

Exodus 18:6 Jethro had sent word to him, “I, your father-in-law Jethro, am coming to you with your wife and her two sons.”

Exodus 18:7 So Moses went out to meet his father-in-law and bowed down and kissed him. They greeted each other and then went into the tent.

Exodus 18:8 Moses told his father-in-law about everything the LORD had done to Pharaoh and the Egyptians for Israel’s sake and about all the hardships they had met along the way and how the LORD had saved them.

Exodus 18:9 Jethro was delighted to hear about all the good things the LORD had done for Israel in rescuing them from the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:10 He said, “Praise be to the LORD, who rescued you from the hand of the Egyptians and of Pharaoh, and who rescued the people from the hand of the Egyptians.

Exodus 18:11 Now I know that the LORD is greater than all other gods, for he did this to those who had treated Israel arrogantly.”

Exodus 18:12 Then Jethro, Moses’ father-in-law, brought a burnt offering and other sacrifices to God, and Aaron came with all the elders of Israel to eat bread with Moses’ father-in-law in the presence of God.

Exodus 18:13 The next day Moses took his seat to serve as judge for the people, and they stood round him from morning till evening.

Exodus 18:14 When his father-in-law saw all that Moses was doing for the people, he said, “What is this you are doing for the people? Why do you alone sit as judge, while all these people stand round you from morning till evening?”

Exodus 18:15 Moses answered him, “Because the people come to me to seek God’s will.

Exodus 18:16 Whenever they have a dispute, it is brought to me, and I decide between the parties and inform them of God’s decrees and laws.”

Exodus 18:17 Moses’ father-in-law replied, “What you are doing is not good.

Exodus 18:18 You and these people who come to you will only wear yourselves out. The work is too heavy for you; you cannot handle it alone.

Exodus 18:19 Listen now to me and I will give you some advice, and may God be with you. You must be the people’s representative before God and bring their disputes to him.

Exodus 18:20 Teach them the decrees and laws, and show them the way to live and the duties they are to perform.

Exodus 18:21 But select capable men from all the people—men who fear God, trustworthy men who hate dishonest gain—and appoint them as officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exodus 18:22 Have them serve as judges for the people at all times, but have them bring every difficult case to you; the simple cases they can decide themselves. That will make your load lighter, because they will share it with you.

Exodus 18:23 If you do this and God so commands, you will be able to stand the strain, and all these people will go home satisfied.”

Exodus 18:24 Moses listened to his father-in-law and did everything he said.

Exodus 18:25 He chose capable men from all Israel and made them leaders of the people, officials over thousands, hundreds, fifties and tens.

Exodus 18:26 They served as judges for the people at all times. The difficult cases they brought to Moses, but the simple ones they decided themselves.

Exodus 18:27 Then Moses sent his father-in-law on his way, and Jethro returned to his own country.

Exodus 19:1 In the third month after the Israelites left Egypt—on the very day—they came to the Desert of Sinai.

Exodus 19:2 After they set out from Rephidim, they entered the Desert of Sinai, and Israel camped there in the desert in front of the mountain.

Exodus 19:3 Then Moses went up to God, and the LORD called to him from the mountain and said, “This is what you are to say to the house of Jacob and what you are to tell the people of Israel:

Exodus 19:4 `You yourselves have seen what I did to Egypt, and how I carried you on eagles' wings and brought you to myself.

Exodus 19:5 Now if you obey me fully and keep my covenant, then out of all nations you will be my treasured possession. Although the whole earth is mine,

Exodus 19:6 you will be for me a kingdom of priests and a holy nation.' These are the words you are to speak to the Israelites."

Exodus 19:7 So Moses went back and summoned the elders of the people and set before them all the words the LORD had commanded him to speak.

Exodus 19:8 The people all responded together, "We will do everything the LORD has said." So Moses brought their answer back to the LORD.

Exodus 19:9 The LORD said to Moses, "I am going to come to you in a dense cloud, so that the people will hear me speaking with you and will always put their trust in you." Then Moses told the LORD what the people had said.

Exodus 19:10 And the LORD said to Moses, "Go to the people and consecrate them today and tomorrow. Make them wash their clothes

Exodus 19:11 and be ready by the third day, because on that day the LORD will come down on Mount Sinai in the sight of all the people.

Exodus 19:12 Put limits for the people around the mountain and tell them,`Be careful that you do not go up the mountain or touch the foot of it. Whoever touches the mountain shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 19:13 He shall surely be stoned or shot with arrows; not a hand is to be laid on him. Whether man or animal, he shall not be permitted to live.' Only when the ram's horn sounds a long blast may they go up to the mountain."

Exodus 19:14 After Moses had gone down the mountain to the people, he consecrated them, and they washed their clothes.

Exodus 19:15 Then he said to the people, "Prepare yourselves for the third day. Abstain from sexual relations."

Exodus 19:16 On the morning of the third day there was thunder and lightning, with a thick cloud over the mountain, and a very loud trumpet blast. Everyone in the camp trembled.

Exodus 19:17 Then Moses led the people out of the camp to meet with God, and they stood at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 19:18 Mount Sinai was covered with smoke, because the LORD descended on it in fire. The smoke billowed up from it like smoke from a furnace, the whole mountain trembled violently, Exodus 19:19 and the sound of the trumpet grew louder and louder. Then Moses spoke and the voice of God answered him.

Exodus 19:20 The LORD descended to the top of Mount Sinai and called Moses to the top of the mountain. So Moses went up Exodus 19:21 and the LORD said to him, “Go down and warn the people so they do not force their way through to see the LORD and many of them perish.

Exodus 19:22 Even the priests, who approach the LORD, must consecrate themselves, or the LORD will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:23 Moses said to the LORD, “The people cannot come up Mount Sinai, because you yourself warned us,`Put limits around the mountain and set it apart as holy.’“

Exodus 19:24 The LORD replied, “Go down and bring Aaron up with you. But the priests and the people must not force their way through to come up to the LORD, or he will break out against them.”

Exodus 19:25 So Moses went down to the people and told them.

Exodus 20:1 And God spoke all these words:

Exodus 20:2 “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Exodus 20:3 “You shall have no other gods before me.

Exodus 20:4 “You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.

Exodus 20:5 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Exodus 20:6 but showing love to a thousand [generations] of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Exodus 20:7 “You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Exodus 20:8 “Remember the Sabbath day by keeping it holy.

Exodus 20:9 Six days you shall labour and do all your work,

Exodus 20:10 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your animals, nor the alien within your gates.

Exodus 20:11 For in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, the sea, and all that is in them, but he rested on the seventh day. Therefore the LORD blessed the Sabbath day and made it holy.

Exodus 20:12 “Honour your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Exodus 20:13 “You shall not murder.

Exodus 20:14 “You shall not commit adultery.

Exodus 20:15 “You shall not steal.

Exodus 20:16 “You shall not give false testimony against your neighbour.

Exodus 20:17 “You shall not covet your neighbour’s house. You shall not covet your neighbour’s wife, or his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.”

Exodus 20:18 When the people saw the thunder and lightning and heard the trumpet and saw the mountain in smoke, they trembled with fear. They stayed at a distance

Exodus 20:19 and said to Moses, “Speak to us yourself and we will listen. But do not have God speak to us or we will die.”

Exodus 20:20 Moses said to the people, “Do not be afraid. God has come to test you, so that the fear of God will be with you to keep you from sinning.”

Exodus 20:21 The people remained at a distance, while Moses approached the thick darkness where God was.

Exodus 20:22 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites this:`You have seen for yourselves that I have spoken to you from heaven:

Exodus 20:23 Do not make any gods to be alongside me; do not make for yourselves gods of silver or gods of gold.

Exodus 20:24 “`Make an altar of earth for me and sacrifice on it your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, your sheep and goats and your cattle. Wherever I cause my name to be honoured, I will come to you and bless you.

Exodus 20:25 If you make an altar of stones for me, do not build it with dressed stones, for you will defile it if you use a tool on it.

Exodus 20:26 And do not go up to my altar on steps, lest your nakedness be exposed on it.’

Exodus 21:1 “These are the laws you are to set before them:

Exodus 21:2 “If you buy a Hebrew servant, he is to serve you for six years. But in the seventh year, he shall go free, without paying anything.

Exodus 21:3 If he comes alone, he is to go free alone; but if he has a wife when he comes, she is to go with him.

Exodus 21:4 If his master gives him a wife and she bears him sons or daughters, the woman and her children shall belong to her master, and only the man shall go free.

Exodus 21:5 “But if the servant declares,`I love my master and my wife and children and do not want to go free,’

Exodus 21:6 then his master must take him before the judges. He shall take him to the door or the door-post and pierce his ear with an awl. Then he will be his servant for life.

Exodus 21:7 “If a man sells his daughter as a servant, she is not to go free as menservants do.

Exodus 21:8 If she does not please the master who has selected her for himself, he must let her be redeemed. He has no right to sell her to foreigners, because he has broken faith with her.

Exodus 21:9 If he selects her for his son, he must grant her the rights of a daughter.

Exodus 21:10 If he marries another woman, he must not deprive the first one of her food, clothing and marital rights.

Exodus 21:11 If he does not provide her with these three things, she is to go free, without any payment of money.

Exodus 21:12 “Anyone who strikes a man and kills him shall surely be put to death.

Exodus 21:13 However, if he does not do it intentionally, but God lets it happen, he is to flee to a place I will designate.

Exodus 21:14 But if a man schemes and kills another man deliberately, take him away from my altar and put him to death.

Exodus 21:15 “Anyone who attacks his father or his mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:16 “Anyone who kidnaps another and either sells him or still has him when he is caught must be put to death.

Exodus 21:17 “Anyone who curses his father or mother must be put to death.

Exodus 21:18 “If men quarrel and one hits the other with a stone or with his fist and he does not die but is confined to bed,

Exodus 21:19 the one who struck the blow will not be held responsible if the other gets up and walks around outside with his staff; however, he must pay the injured man for the loss of his time and see that he is completely healed.

Exodus 21:20 “If a man beats his male or female slave with a rod and the slave dies as a direct result, he must be punished,

Exodus 21:21 but he is not to be punished if the slave gets up after a day or two, since the slave is his property.

Exodus 21:22 “If men who are fighting hit a pregnant woman and she gives birth prematurely but there is no serious injury, the offender must be fined whatever the woman’s husband demands and the court allows.

Exodus 21:23 But if there is serious injury, you are to take life for life,

Exodus 21:24 eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot,

Exodus 21:25 burn for burn, wound for wound, bruise for bruise.

Exodus 21:26 “If a man hits a manservant or maidservant in the eye and destroys it, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the eye.

Exodus 21:27 And if he knocks out the tooth of a manservant or maidservant, he must let the servant go free to compensate for the tooth.

Exodus 21:28 “If a bull gores a man or a woman to death, the bull must be stoned to death, and its meat must not be eaten. But the owner of the bull will not be held responsible.

Exodus 21:29 If, however, the bull has had the habit of goring and the owner has been warned but has not kept it penned up and it kills a man or woman, the bull must be stoned and the owner also must be put to death.

Exodus 21:30 However, if payment is demanded of him, he may redeem his life by paying whatever is demanded.

Exodus 21:31 This law also applies if the bull gores a son or a daughter.

Exodus 21:32 If the bull gores a male or female slave, the owner must pay thirty shekels of silver to the master of the slave, and the bull must be stoned.

Exodus 21:33 “If a man uncovers a pit or digs one and fails to cover it and an ox or a donkey falls into it,

Exodus 21:34 the owner of the pit must pay for the loss; he must pay its owner, and the dead animal will be his.

Exodus 21:35 “If a man’s bull injures the bull of another and it dies, they are to sell the live one and divide both the money and the dead animal equally.

Exodus 21:36 However, if it was known that the bull had the habit of goring, yet the owner did not keep it penned up, the owner must pay, animal for animal, and the dead animal will be his.

Exodus 22:1 “If a man steals an ox or a sheep and slaughters it or sells it, he must pay back five head of cattle for the ox and four sheep for the sheep.

Exodus 22:2 “If a thief is caught breaking in and is struck so that he dies, the defender is not guilty of bloodshed;

Exodus 22:3 but if it happens after sunrise, he is guilty of bloodshed. “A thief must certainly make restitution, but if he has nothing, he must be sold to pay for his theft.

Exodus 22:4 “If the stolen animal is found alive in his possession—whether ox or donkey or sheep—he must pay back double.

Exodus 22:5 “If a man grazes his livestock in a field or vineyard and lets them stray and they graze in another man’s field, he must make restitution from the best of his own field or vineyard.

Exodus 22:6 “If a fire breaks out and spreads into thornbushes so that it burns shocks of grain or standing corn or the whole field, the one who started the fire must make restitution.

Exodus 22:7 “If a man gives his neighbour silver or goods for safekeeping and they are stolen from the neighbour’s house, the thief, if he is caught, must pay back double.

Exodus 22:8 But if the thief is not found, the owner of the house must appear before the judges to determine whether he has laid his hands on the other man’s property.

Exodus 22:9 In all cases of illegal possession of an ox, a donkey, a sheep, a garment, or any other lost property about which somebody says,`This is mine,’ both parties are to bring their cases before the judges. The one whom the judges declare guilty must pay back double to his neighbour.

Exodus 22:10 “If a man gives a donkey, an ox, a sheep or any other animal to his neighbour for safekeeping and it dies or is injured or is taken away while no-one is looking,

Exodus 22:11 the issue between them will be settled by the taking of an oath before the LORD that the neighbour did not lay hands on the other person’s property. The owner is to accept this, and no restitution is required.

Exodus 22:12 But if the animal was stolen from the neighbour, he must make restitution to the owner.

Exodus 22:13 If it was torn to pieces by a wild animal, he shall bring in the remains as evidence and he will not be required to pay for the torn animal.

Exodus 22:14 “If a man borrows an animal from his neighbour and it is injured or dies while the owner is not present, he must make restitution.

Exodus 22:15 But if the owner is with the animal, the borrower will not have to pay. If the animal was hired, the money paid for the hire covers the loss.

Exodus 22:16 “If a man seduces a virgin who is not pledged to be married and sleeps with her, he must pay the bride-price, and she shall be his wife.

Exodus 22:17 If her father absolutely refuses to give her to him, he must still pay the bride-price for virgins.

Exodus 22:18 “Do not allow a sorceress to live.

Exodus 22:19 “Anyone who has sexual relations with an animal must be put to death.

Exodus 22:20 “Whoever sacrifices to any god other than the LORD must be destroyed.

Exodus 22:21 “Do not ill-treat an alien or oppress him, for you were aliens in Egypt.

Exodus 22:22 “Do not take advantage of a widow or an orphan.

Exodus 22:23 If you do and they cry out to me, I will certainly hear their cry.

Exodus 22:24 My anger will be aroused, and I will kill you with the sword; your wives will become widows and your children fatherless.

Exodus 22:25 “If you lend money to one of my people among you who is needy, do not be like a money-lender; charge him no interest.

Exodus 22:26 If you take your neighbour’s cloak as a pledge, return it to him by sunset,

Exodus 22:27 because his cloak is the only covering he has for his body. What else will he sleep in? When he cries out to me, I will hear, for I am compassionate.

Exodus 22:28 “Do not blaspheme God or curse the ruler of your people.

Exodus 22:29 “Do not hold back offerings from your granaries or your vats. “You must give me the firstborn of your sons.

Exodus 22:30 Do the same with your cattle and your sheep. Let them stay with their mothers for seven days, but give them to me on the eighth day.

Exodus 22:31 “You are to be my holy people. So do not eat the meat of an animal torn by wild beasts; throw it to the dogs.

Exodus 23:1 “Do not spread false reports. Do not help a wicked man by being a malicious witness.

Exodus 23:2 “Do not follow the crowd in doing wrong. When you give testimony in a lawsuit, do not pervert justice by siding with the crowd, Exodus 23:3 and do not show favouritism to a poor man in his lawsuit.

Exodus 23:4 “If you come across your enemy’s ox or donkey wandering off, be sure to take it back to him.

Exodus 23:5 If you see the donkey of someone who hates you fallen down under its load, do not leave it there; be sure you help him with it.

Exodus 23:6 “Do not deny justice to your poor people in their lawsuits.

Exodus 23:7 Have nothing to do with a false charge and do not put an innocent or honest person to death, for I will not acquit the guilty.

Exodus 23:8 “Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds those who see and twists the words of the righteous.

Exodus 23:9 “Do not oppress an alien; you yourselves know how it feels to be aliens, because you were aliens in Egypt.

Exodus 23:10 “For six years you are to sow your fields and harvest the crops,

Exodus 23:11 but during the seventh year let the land lie unploughed and unused. Then the poor among your people may get food from it, and the wild animals may eat what they leave. Do the same with your vineyard and your olive grove.

Exodus 23:12 “Six days do your work, but on the seventh day do not work, so that your ox and your donkey may rest and the slave born in your household, and the alien as well, may be refreshed.

Exodus 23:13 “Be careful to do everything I have said to you. Do not invoke the names of other gods; do not let them be heard on your lips.

Exodus 23:14 “Three times a year you are to celebrate a festival to me.

Exodus 23:15 “Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread; for seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt. “No-one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 23:16 “Celebrate the Feast of Harvest with the firstfruits of the crops you sow in your field. “Celebrate the Feast of Ingathering at the end of the year, when you gather in your crops from the field.

Exodus 23:17 “Three times a year all the men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD.

Exodus 23:18 “Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast. “The fat of my festival offerings must not be kept until morning.

Exodus 23:19 “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.

Exodus 23:20 “See, I am sending an angel ahead of you to guard you along the way and to bring you to the place I have prepared.

Exodus 23:21 Pay attention to him and listen to what he says. Do not rebel against him; he will not forgive your rebellion, since my Name is in him.

Exodus 23:22 If you listen carefully to what he says and do all that I say, I will be an enemy to your enemies and will oppose those who oppose you.

Exodus 23:23 My angel will go ahead of you and bring you into the land of the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hivites and Jebusites, and I will wipe them out.

Exodus 23:24 Do not bow down before their gods or worship them or follow their practices. You must demolish them and break their sacred stones to pieces.

Exodus 23:25 Worship the LORD your God, and his blessing will be on your food and water. I will take away sickness from among you, Exodus 23:26 and none will miscarry or be barren in your land. I will give you a full life span.

Exodus 23:27 “I will send my terror ahead of you and throw into confusion every nation you encounter. I will make all your enemies turn their backs and run.

Exodus 23:28 I will send the hornet ahead of you to drive the Hivites, Canaanites and Hittites out of your way.

Exodus 23:29 But I will not drive them out in a single year, because the land would become desolate and the wild animals too numerous for you.

Exodus 23:30 Little by little I will drive them out before you, until you have increased enough to take possession of the land.

Exodus 23:31 “I will establish your borders from the Red Sea to the Sea of the Philistines, and from the desert to the River. I will hand over to you the people who live in the land and you will drive them out before you.

Exodus 23:32 Do not make a covenant with them or with their gods.

Exodus 23:33 Do not let them live in your land, or they will cause you to sin against me, because the worship of their gods will certainly be a snare to you.”

Exodus 24:1 Then he said to Moses, “Come up to the LORD, you and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and seventy of the elders of Israel. You are to worship at a distance, Exodus 24:2 but Moses alone is to approach the LORD; the others must not come near. And the people may not come up with him.”

Exodus 24:3 When Moses went and told the people all the LORD’s words and laws, they responded with one voice, “Everything the LORD has said we will do.”

Exodus 24:4 Moses then wrote down everything the LORD had said. He got up early the next morning and built an altar at the foot of the mountain and set up twelve stone pillars representing the twelve tribes of Israel.

Exodus 24:5 Then he sent young Israelite men, and they offered burnt offerings and sacrificed young bulls as fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Exodus 24:6 Moses took half of the blood and put it in bowls, and the other half he sprinkled on the altar.

Exodus 24:7 Then he took the Book of the Covenant and read it to the people. They responded, “We will do everything the LORD has said; we will obey.”

Exodus 24:8 Moses then took the blood, sprinkled it on the people and said, “This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words.”

Exodus 24:9 Moses and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, and the seventy elders of Israel went up

Exodus 24:10 and saw the God of Israel. Under his feet was something like a pavement made of sapphire, clear as the sky itself.

Exodus 24:11 But God did not raise his hand against these leaders of the Israelites; they saw God, and they ate and drank.

Exodus 24:12 The LORD said to Moses, “Come up to me on the mountain and stay here, and I will give you the tablets of stone, with the law and commands I have written for their instruction.”

Exodus 24:13 Then Moses set out with Joshua his assistant, and Moses went up on the mountain of God.

Exodus 24:14 He said to the elders, “Wait here for us until we come back to you. Aaron and Hur are with you, and anyone involved in a dispute can go to them.”

Exodus 24:15 When Moses went up on the mountain, the cloud covered it,

Exodus 24:16 and the glory of the LORD settled on Mount Sinai. For six days the cloud covered the mountain, and on the seventh day the LORD called to Moses from within the cloud.

Exodus 24:17 To the Israelites the glory of the LORD looked like a consuming fire on top of the mountain.

Exodus 24:18 Then Moses entered the cloud as he went on up the mountain. And he stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights.

Exodus 25:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 25:2 “Tell the Israelites to bring me an offering. You are to receive the offering for me from each man whose heart prompts him to give.

Exodus 25:3 These are the offerings you are to receive from them: gold, silver and bronze;

Exodus 25:4 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;

Exodus 25:5 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;

Exodus 25:6 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exodus 25:7 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Exodus 25:8 “Then have them make a sanctuary for me, and I will dwell among them.

Exodus 25:9 Make this tabernacle and all its furnishings exactly like the pattern I will show you.

Exodus 25:10 “Have them make a chest of acacia wood—two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 25:11 Overlay it with pure gold, both inside and out, and make a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 25:12 Cast four gold rings for it and fasten them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Exodus 25:13 Then make poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 25:14 Insert the poles into the rings on the sides of the chest to carry it.

Exodus 25:15 The poles are to remain in the rings of this ark; they are not to be removed.

Exodus 25:16 Then put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

Exodus 25:17 “Make an atonement cover of pure gold—two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.

Exodus 25:18 And make two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover.

Exodus 25:19 Make one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; make the cherubim of one piece with the cover, at the two ends.

Exodus 25:20 The cherubim are to have their wings spread upwards, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim are to face each other, looking towards the cover.

Exodus 25:21 Place the cover on top of the ark and put in the ark the Testimony, which I will give you.

Exodus 25:22 There, above the cover between the two cherubim that are over the ark of the Testimony, I will meet with you and give you all my commands for the Israelites.

Exodus 25:23 “Make a table of acacia wood—two cubits long, a cubit wide and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 25:24 Overlay it with pure gold and make a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 25:25 Also make around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold moulding on the rim.

Exodus 25:26 Make four gold rings for the table and fasten them to the four corners, where the four legs are.

Exodus 25:27 The rings are to be close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

Exodus 25:28 Make the poles of acacia wood, overlay them with gold and carry the table with them.

Exodus 25:29 And make its plates and dishes of pure gold, as well as its pitchers and bowls for the pouring out of offerings.

Exodus 25:30 Put the bread of the Presence on this table to be before me at all times.

Exodus 25:31 “Make a lampstand of pure gold and hammer it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms shall be of one piece with it.

Exodus 25:32 Six branches are to extend from the sides of the lampstand— three on one side and three on the other.

Exodus 25:33 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms are to be on one branch, three on the next branch, and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.

Exodus 25:34 And on the lampstand there are to be four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.

Exodus 25:35 One bud shall be under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—six branches in all.

Exodus 25:36 The buds and branches shall all be of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

Exodus 25:37 “Then make its seven lamps and set them up on it so that they light the space in front of it.

Exodus 25:38 Its wick trimmers and trays are to be of pure gold.

Exodus 25:39 A talent of pure gold is to be used for the lampstand and all these accessories.

Exodus 25:40 See that you make them according to the pattern shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26:1 “Make the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 26:2 All the curtains are to be the same size—twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exodus 26:3 Join five of the curtains together, and do the same with the other five.

Exodus 26:4 Make loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and do the same with the end curtain in the other set.

Exodus 26:5 Make fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.

Exodus 26:6 Then make fifty gold clasps and use them to fasten the curtains together so that the tabernacle is a unit.

Exodus 26:7 “Make curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven altogether.

Exodus 26:8 All eleven curtains are to be the same size—thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exodus 26:9 Join five of the curtains together into one set and the other six into another set. Fold the sixth curtain double at the front of the tent.

Exodus 26:10 Make fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

Exodus 26:11 Then make fifty bronze clasps and put them in the loops to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Exodus 26:12 As for the additional length of the tent curtains, the half curtain that is left over is to hang down at the rear of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:13 The tent curtains will be a cubit longer on both sides; what is left will hang over the sides of the tabernacle so as to cover it.

Exodus 26:14 Make for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Exodus 26:15 “Make upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:16 Each frame is to be ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Exodus 26:17 with two projections set parallel to each other. Make all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Exodus 26:18 Make twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Exodus 26:19 and make forty silver bases to go under them—two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Exodus 26:20 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, make twenty frames

Exodus 26:21 and forty silver bases—two under each frame.

Exodus 26:22 Make six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Exodus 26:23 and make two frames for the corners at the far end.

Exodus 26:24 At these two corners they must be double from the bottom all the way to the top, and fitted into a single ring; both shall be like that.

Exodus 26:25 So there will be eight frames and sixteen silver bases— two under each frame.

Exodus 26:26 “Also make crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle, Exodus 26:27 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

Exodus 26:28 The centre crossbar is to extend from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Exodus 26:29 Overlay the frames with gold and make gold rings to hold the crossbars. Also overlay the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 26:30 “Set up the tabernacle according to the plan shown you on the mountain.

Exodus 26:31 “Make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 26:32 Hang it with gold hooks on four posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold and standing on four silver bases.

Exodus 26:33 Hang the curtain from the clasps and place the ark of the Testimony behind the curtain. The curtain will separate the Holy Place from the Most Holy Place.

Exodus 26:34 Put the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony in the Most Holy Place.

Exodus 26:35 Place the table outside the curtain on the north side of the tabernacle and put the lampstand opposite it on the south side.

Exodus 26:36 “For the entrance to the tent make a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer.

Exodus 26:37 Make gold hooks for this curtain and five posts of acacia wood overlaid with gold. And cast five bronze bases for them.

Exodus 27:1 “Build an altar of acacia wood, three cubits high; it is to be square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Exodus 27:2 Make a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar are of one piece, and overlay the altar with bronze.

Exodus 27:3 Make all its utensils of bronze—its pots to remove the ashes, and its shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Exodus 27:4 Make a grating for it, a bronze network, and make a bronze ring at each of the four corners of the network.

Exodus 27:5 Put it under the ledge of the altar so that it is halfway up the altar.

Exodus 27:6 Make poles of acacia wood for the altar and overlay them with bronze.

Exodus 27:7 The poles are to be inserted into the rings so they will be on two sides of the altar when it is carried.

Exodus 27:8 Make the altar hollow, out of boards. It is to be made just as you were shown on the mountain.

Exodus 27:9 “Make a courtyard for the tabernacle. The south side shall be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains of finely twisted linen,

Exodus 27:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exodus 27:11 The north side shall also be a hundred cubits long and is to have curtains, with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exodus 27:12 “The west end of the courtyard shall be fifty cubits wide and have curtains, with ten posts and ten bases.

Exodus 27:13 On the east end, towards the sunrise, the courtyard shall also be fifty cubits wide.

Exodus 27:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Exodus 27:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long are to be on the other side, with three posts and three bases.

Exodus 27:16 “For the entrance to the courtyard, provide a curtain twenty cubits long, of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen— the work of an embroiderer—with four posts and four bases.

Exodus 27:17 All the posts around the courtyard are to have silver bands and hooks, and bronze bases.

Exodus 27:18 The courtyard shall be a hundred cubits long and fifty cubits wide, with curtains of finely twisted linen five cubits high, and with bronze bases.

Exodus 27:19 All the other articles used in the service of the tabernacle, whatever their function, including all the tent pegs for it and those for the courtyard, are to be of bronze.

Exodus 27:20 “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning.

Exodus 27:21 In the Tent of Meeting, outside the curtain that is in front of the Testimony, Aaron and his sons are to keep the lamps burning before the LORD from evening till morning. This is to be a lasting ordinance among the Israelites for the generations to come.

Exodus 28:1 “Have Aaron your brother brought to you from among the Israelites, with his sons Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar, so that they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:2 Make sacred garments for your brother Aaron, to give him dignity and honour.

Exodus 28:3 Tell all the skilled men to whom I have given wisdom in such matters that they are to make garments for Aaron, for his consecration, so that he may serve me as priest.

Exodus 28:4 These are the garments they are to make: a breastpiece, an ephod, a robe, a woven tunic, a turban and a sash. They are to make these sacred garments for your brother Aaron and his sons, so that they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:5 Make them use gold, and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and fine linen.

Exodus 28:6 “Make the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen—the work of a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 28:7 It is to have two shoulder pieces attached to two of its corners, so that it can be fastened.

Exodus 28:8 Its skilfully woven waistband is to be like it—of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen.

Exodus 28:9 “Take two onyx stones and engrave on them the names of the sons of Israel

Exodus 28:10 in the order of their birth—six names on one stone and the remaining six on the other.

Exodus 28:11 Engrave the names of the sons of Israel on the two stones the way a gem cutter engraves a seal. Then mount the stones in gold filigree settings

Exodus 28:12 and fasten them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel. Aaron is to bear the names on his shoulders as a memorial before the LORD.

Exodus 28:13 Make gold filigree settings

Exodus 28:14 and two braided chains of pure gold, like a rope, and attach the chains to the settings.

Exodus 28:15 “Fashion a breastpiece for making decisions—the work of a skilled craftsman. Make it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exodus 28:16 It is to be square—a span long and a span wide—and folded double.

Exodus 28:17 Then mount four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there shall be a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;

Exodus 28:18 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Exodus 28:19 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Exodus 28:20 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. Mount them in gold filigree settings.

Exodus 28:21 There are to be twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exodus 28:22 “For the breastpiece make braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Exodus 28:23 Make two gold rings for it and fasten them to two corners of the breastpiece.

Exodus 28:24 Fasten the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Exodus 28:25 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Exodus 28:26 Make two gold rings and attach them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 28:27 Make two more gold rings and attach them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Exodus 28:28 The rings of the breastpiece are to be tied to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband, so that the breastpiece will not swing out from the ephod.

Exodus 28:29 “Whenever Aaron enters the Holy Place, he will bear the names of the sons of Israel over his heart on the breastpiece of decision as a continuing memorial before the LORD.

Exodus 28:30 Also put the Urim and the Thummim in the breastpiece, so they may be over Aaron’s heart whenever he enters the presence of the LORD. Thus Aaron will always bear the means of making decisions for the Israelites over his heart before the LORD.

Exodus 28:31 “Make the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth,

Exodus 28:32 with an opening for the head in its centre. There shall be a woven edge like a collar around this opening, so that it will not tear.

Exodus 28:33 Make pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn around the hem of the robe, with gold bells between them.

Exodus 28:34 The gold bells and the pomegranates are to alternate around the hem of the robe.

Exodus 28:35 Aaron must wear it when he ministers. The sound of the bells will be heard when he enters the Holy Place before the LORD and when he comes out, so that he will not die.

Exodus 28:36 “Make a plate of pure gold and engrave on it as on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Exodus 28:37 Fasten a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban; it is to be on the front of the turban.

Exodus 28:38 It will be on Aaron’s forehead, and he will bear the guilt involved in the sacred gifts the Israelites consecrate, whatever their gifts may be. It will be on Aaron’s forehead continually so that they will be acceptable to the LORD.

Exodus 28:39 “Weave the tunic of fine linen and make the turban of fine linen. The sash is to be the work of an embroiderer.

Exodus 28:40 Make tunics, sashes and headbands for Aaron’s sons, to give them dignity and honour.

Exodus 28:41 After you put these clothes on your brother Aaron and his sons, anoint and ordain them. Consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 28:42 “Make linen undergarments as a covering for the body, reaching from the waist to the thigh.

Exodus 28:43 Aaron and his sons must wear them whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting or approach the altar to minister in the Holy Place, so that they will not incur guilt and die. “This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants.

Exodus 29:1 “This is what you are to do to consecrate them, so that they may serve me as priests: Take a young bull and two rams without defect.

Exodus 29:2 And from fine wheat flour, without yeast, make bread, and cakes mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

Exodus 29:3 Put them in a basket and present them in it—along with the bull and the two rams.

Exodus 29:4 Then bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 29:5 Take the garments and dress Aaron with the tunic, the robe of the ephod, the ephod itself and the breastpiece. Fasten the ephod on him by its skilfully woven waistband.

Exodus 29:6 Put the turban on his head and attach the sacred diadem to the turban.

Exodus 29:7 Take the anointing oil and anoint him by pouring it on his head.

Exodus 29:8 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics

Exodus 29:9 and put headbands on them. Then tie sashes on Aaron and his sons. The priesthood is theirs by a lasting ordinance. In this way you shall ordain Aaron and his sons.

Exodus 29:10 “Bring the bull to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:11 Slaughter it in the LORD’s presence at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exodus 29:12 Take some of the bull’s blood and put it on the horns of the altar with your finger, and pour out the rest of it at the base of the altar.

Exodus 29:13 Then take all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys with the fat on them, and burn them on the altar.

Exodus 29:14 But burn the bull’s flesh and its hide and its offal outside the camp. It is a sin offering.

Exodus 29:15 “Take one of the rams, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:16 Slaughter it and take the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides.

Exodus 29:17 Cut the ram into pieces and wash the inner parts and the legs, putting them with the head and the other pieces.

Exodus 29:18 Then burn the entire ram on the altar. It is a burnt offering to the LORD, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exodus 29:19 “Take the other ram, and Aaron and his sons shall lay their hands on its head.

Exodus 29:20 Slaughter it, take some of its blood and put it on the lobes of the right ears of Aaron and his sons, on the thumbs of their right hands, and on the big toes of their right feet. Then sprinkle blood against the altar on all sides.

Exodus 29:21 And take some of the blood on the altar and some of the anointing oil and sprinkle it on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. Then he and his sons and their garments will be consecrated.

Exodus 29:22 “Take from this ram the fat, the fat tail, the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys with the fat on them, and the right thigh. (This is the ram for the ordination.)

Exodus 29:23 From the basket of bread made without yeast, which is before the LORD, take a loaf, and a cake made with oil, and a wafer.

Exodus 29:24 Put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Exodus 29:25 Then take them from their hands and burn them on the altar along with the burnt offering for a pleasing aroma to the LORD, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exodus 29:26 After you take the breast of the ram for Aaron’s ordination, wave it before the LORD as a wave offering, and it will be your share.

Exodus 29:27 “Consecrate those parts of the ordination ram that belong to Aaron and his sons: the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented.

Exodus 29:28 This is always to be the regular share from the Israelites for Aaron and his sons. It is the contribution the Israelites are to make to the LORD from their fellowship offerings.

Exodus 29:29 “Aaron’s sacred garments will belong to his descendants so that they can be anointed and ordained in them.

Exodus 29:30 The son who succeeds him as priest and comes to the Tent of Meeting to minister in the Holy Place is to wear them seven days.

Exodus 29:31 “Take the ram for the ordination and cook the meat in a sacred place.

Exodus 29:32 At the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, Aaron and his sons are to eat the meat of the ram and the bread that is in the basket.

Exodus 29:33 They are to eat these offerings by which atonement was made for their ordination and consecration. But no-one else may eat them, because they are sacred.

Exodus 29:34 And if any of the meat of the ordination ram or any bread is left over till morning, burn it up. It must not be eaten, because it is sacred.

Exodus 29:35 “Do for Aaron and his sons everything I have commanded you, taking seven days to ordain them.

Exodus 29:36 Sacrifice a bull each day as a sin offering to make atonement. Purify the altar by making atonement for it, and anoint it to consecrate it.

Exodus 29:37 For seven days make atonement for the altar and consecrate it. Then the altar will be most holy, and whatever touches it will be holy.

Exodus 29:38 “This is what you are to offer on the altar regularly each day: two lambs a year old.

Exodus 29:39 Offer one in the morning and the other at twilight.

Exodus 29:40 With the first lamb offer a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil from pressed olives, and a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

Exodus 29:41 Sacrifice the other lamb at twilight with the same grain offering and its drink offering as in the morning—a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Exodus 29:42 “For the generations to come this burnt offering is to be made regularly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. There I will meet you and speak to you;

Exodus 29:43 there also I will meet with the Israelites, and the place will be consecrated by my glory.

Exodus 29:44 “So I will consecrate the Tent of Meeting and the altar and will consecrate Aaron and his sons to serve me as priests.

Exodus 29:45 Then I will dwell among the Israelites and be their God.

Exodus 29:46 They will know that I am the LORD their God, who brought them out of Egypt so that I might dwell among them. I am the LORD their God.

Exodus 30:1 “Make an altar of acacia wood for burning incense.

Exodus 30:2 It is to be square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high— its horns of one piece with it.

Exodus 30:3 Overlay the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and make a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 30:4 Make two gold rings for the altar below the moulding—two on opposite sides—to hold the poles used to carry it.

Exodus 30:5 Make the poles of acacia wood and overlay them with gold.

Exodus 30:6 Put the altar in front of the curtain that is before the ark of the Testimony—before the atonement cover that is over the Testimony—where I will meet with you.

Exodus 30:7 “Aaron must burn fragrant incense on the altar every morning when he tends the lamps.

Exodus 30:8 He must burn incense again when he lights the lamps at twilight so that incense will burn regularly before the LORD for the generations to come.

Exodus 30:9 Do not offer on this altar any other incense or any burnt offering or grain offering, and do not pour a drink offering on it.

Exodus 30:10 Once a year Aaron shall make atonement on its horns. This annual atonement must be made with the blood of the atoning sin offering for the generations to come. It is most holy to the LORD.”

Exodus 30:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:12 “When you take a census of the Israelites to count them, each one must pay the LORD a ransom for his life at the time he is counted. Then no plague will come on them when you number them.

Exodus 30:13 Each one who crosses over to those already counted is to give a half shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs. This half shekel is an offering to the LORD.

Exodus 30:14 All who cross over, those twenty years old or more, are to give an offering to the LORD.

Exodus 30:15 The rich are not to give more than a half shekel and the poor are not to give less when you make the offering to the LORD to atone for your lives.

Exodus 30:16 Receive the atonement money from the Israelites and use it for the service of the Tent of Meeting. It will be a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD, making atonement for your lives.”

Exodus 30:17 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:18 “Make a bronze basin, with its bronze stand, for washing. Place it between the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and put water in it.

Exodus 30:19 Aaron and his sons are to wash their hands and feet with water from it.

Exodus 30:20 Whenever they enter the Tent of Meeting, they shall wash with water so that they will not die. Also, when they approach the altar to minister by presenting an offering made to the LORD by fire,

Exodus 30:21 they shall wash their hands and feet so that they will not die. This is to be a lasting ordinance for Aaron and his descendants for the generations to come.”

Exodus 30:22 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 30:23 “Take the following fine spices: 500 shekels of liquid myrrh, half as much (that is, 250 shekels) of fragrant cinnamon, 250 shekels of fragrant cane,

Exodus 30:24 500 shekels of cassia—all according to the sanctuary shekel—and a hin of olive oil.

Exodus 30:25 Make these into a sacred anointing oil, a fragrant blend, the work of a perfumer. It will be the sacred anointing oil.

Exodus 30:26 Then use it to anoint the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony,

Exodus 30:27 the table and all its articles, the lampstand and its accessories, the altar of incense,

Exodus 30:28 the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, and the basin with its stand.

Exodus 30:29 You shall consecrate them so they will be most holy, and whatever touches them will be holy.

Exodus 30:30 “Anoint Aaron and his sons and consecrate them so they may serve me as priests.

Exodus 30:31 Say to the Israelites,`This is to be my sacred anointing oil for the generations to come.

Exodus 30:32 Do not pour it on men’s bodies and do not make any oil with the same formula. It is sacred, and you are to consider it sacred.

Exodus 30:33 Whoever makes perfume like it and whoever puts it on anyone other than a priest must be cut off from his people.’“

Exodus 30:34 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Take fragrant spices—gum resin, onycha and galbanum—and pure frankincense, all in equal amounts,

Exodus 30:35 and make a fragrant blend of incense, the work of a perfumer. It is to be salted and pure and sacred.

Exodus 30:36 Grind some of it to powder and place it in front of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, where I will meet with you. It shall be most holy to you.

Exodus 30:37 Do not make any incense with this formula for yourselves; consider it holy to the LORD.

Exodus 30:38 Whoever makes any like it to enjoy its fragrance must be cut off from his people.”

Exodus 31:1 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 31:2 “See I have chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exodus 31:3 and I have filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts—

Exodus 31:4 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Exodus 31:5 to cut and set stones, to work in wood, and to engage in all kinds of craftsmanship.

Exodus 31:6 Moreover, I have appointed Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, to help him. Also I have given skill to all the craftsmen to make everything I have commanded you:

Exodus 31:7 the Tent of Meeting, the ark of the Testimony with the atonement cover on it, and all the other furnishings of the tent—

Exodus 31:8 the table and its articles, the pure gold lampstand and all its accessories, the altar of incense,

Exodus 31:9 the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils, the basin with its stand—

Exodus 31:10 and also the woven garments, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests,

Exodus 31:11 and the anointing oil and fragrant incense for the Holy Place. They are to make them just as I commanded you.”

Exodus 31:12 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Exodus 31:13 “Say to the Israelites,`You must observe my Sabbaths. This will be a sign between me and you for the generations to come, so that you may know that I am the LORD, who makes you holy.

Exodus 31:14 “`Observe the Sabbath, because it is holy to you. Anyone who desecrates it must be put to death; whoever does any work on that day must be cut off from his people.

Exodus 31:15 For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, holy to the LORD. Whoever does any work on the Sabbath day must be put to death.

Exodus 31:16 The Israelites are to observe the Sabbath, celebrating it for the generations to come as a lasting covenant.

Exodus 31:17 It will be a sign between me and the Israelites for ever, for in six days the LORD made the heavens and the earth, and on the seventh day he abstained from work and rested.’“

Exodus 31:18 When the LORD finished speaking to Moses on Mount Sinai, he gave him the two tablets of the Testimony, the tablets of stone inscribed by the finger of God.

Exodus 32:1 When the people saw that Moses was so long in coming down from the mountain, they gathered round Aaron and said, “Come, make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don’t know what has happened to him.”

Exodus 32:2 Aaron answered them, “Take off the gold ear-rings that your wives, your sons and your daughters are wearing, and bring them to me.”

Exodus 32:3 So all the people took off their ear-rings and brought them to Aaron.

Exodus 32:4 He took what they handed him and made it into an idol cast in the shape of a calf, fashioning it with a tool. Then they said, “These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.”

Exodus 32:5 When Aaron saw this, he built an altar in front of the calf and announced, “Tomorrow there will be a festival to the LORD.”

Exodus 32:6 So the next day the people rose early and sacrificed burnt offerings and presented fellowship offerings. Afterwards they sat down to eat and drink and got up to indulge in revelry.

Exodus 32:7 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go down, because your people, whom you brought up out of Egypt, have become corrupt.

Exodus 32:8 They have been quick to turn away from what I commanded them and have made themselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. They have bowed down to it and sacrificed to it and have said,`These are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.’

Exodus 32:9 “I have seen these people,” the LORD said to Moses, “and they are a stiff-necked people.

Exodus 32:10 Now leave me alone so that my anger may burn against them and that I may destroy them. Then I will make you into a great nation.”

Exodus 32:11 But Moses sought the favour of the LORD his God. “O LORD,” he said, “why should your anger burn against your people, whom you brought out of Egypt with great power and a mighty hand?

Exodus 32:12 Why should the Egyptians say,`It was with evil intent that he brought them out, to kill them in the mountains and to wipe them off the face of the earth’? Turn from your fierce anger; relent and do not bring disaster on your people.

Exodus 32:13 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Israel, to whom you swore by your own self:`I will make your descendants as numerous as the stars in the sky and I will give your descendants all this land I promised them, and it will be their inheritance for ever.'"

Exodus 32:14 Then the LORD relented and did not bring on his people the disaster he had threatened.

Exodus 32:15 Moses turned and went down the mountain with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands. They were inscribed on both sides, front and back.

Exodus 32:16 The tablets were the work of God; the writing was the writing of God, engraved on the tablets.

Exodus 32:17 When Joshua heard the noise of the people shouting, he said to Moses, "There is the sound of war in the camp."

Exodus 32:18 Moses replied: "It is not the sound of victory, it is not the sound of defeat; it is the sound of singing that I hear."

Exodus 32:19 When Moses approached the camp and saw the calf and the dancing, his anger burned and he threw the tablets out of his hands, breaking them to pieces at the foot of the mountain.

Exodus 32:20 And he took the calf they had made and burned it in the fire; then he ground it to powder, scattered it on the water and made the Israelites drink it.

Exodus 32:21 He said to Aaron, "What did these people do to you, that you led them into such great sin?"

Exodus 32:22 "Do not be angry, my lord," Aaron answered. "You know how prone these people are to evil.

Exodus 32:23 They said to me,`Make us gods who will go before us. As for this fellow Moses who brought us up out of Egypt, we don't know what has happened to him.'

Exodus 32:24 So I told them,`Whoever has any gold jewellery, take it off.' Then they gave me the gold, and I threw it into the fire, and out came this calf!"

Exodus 32:25 Moses saw that the people were running wild and that Aaron had let them get out of control and so become a laughing-stock to their enemies.

Exodus 32:26 So he stood at the entrance to the camp and said, "Whoever is for the LORD, come to me." And all the Levites rallied to him.

Exodus 32:27 Then he said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Each man strap a sword to his side. Go back and forth through the camp from one end to the other, each killing his brother and friend and neighbour.'"

Exodus 32:28 The Levites did as Moses commanded, and that day about three thousand of the people died.

Exodus 32:29 Then Moses said, “You have been set apart to the LORD today, for you were against your own sons and brothers, and he has blessed you this day.”

Exodus 32:30 The next day Moses said to the people, “You have committed a great sin. But now I will go up to the LORD; perhaps I can make atonement for your sin.”

Exodus 32:31 So Moses went back to the LORD and said, “Oh, what a great sin these people have committed! They have made themselves gods of gold.

Exodus 32:32 But now, please forgive their sin—but if not, then blot me out of the book you have written.”

Exodus 32:33 The LORD replied to Moses, “Whoever has sinned against me I will blot out of my book.

Exodus 32:34 Now go, lead the people to the place I spoke of, and my angel will go before you. However, when the time comes for me to punish, I will punish them for their sin.”

Exodus 32:35 And the LORD struck the people with a plague because of what they did with the calf Aaron had made.

Exodus 33:1 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Leave this place, you and the people you brought up out of Egypt, and go up to the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, saying,`I will give it to your descendants.’

Exodus 33:2 I will send an angel before you and drive out the Canaanites, Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exodus 33:3 Go up to the land flowing with milk and honey. But I will not go with you, because you are a stiff-necked people and I might destroy you on the way.”

Exodus 33:4 When the people heard these distressing words, they began to mourn and no-one put on any ornaments.

Exodus 33:5 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Tell the Israelites,`You are a stiff-necked people. If I were to go with you even for a moment, I might destroy you. Now take off your ornaments and I will decide what to do with you.’“

Exodus 33:6 So the Israelites stripped off their ornaments at Mount Horeb.

Exodus 33:7 Now Moses used to take a tent and pitch it outside the camp some distance away, calling it the “tent of meeting”. Anyone enquiring of the LORD would go to the tent of meeting outside the camp.

Exodus 33:8 And whenever Moses went out to the tent, all the people rose and stood at the entrances to their tents, watching Moses until he entered the tent.

Exodus 33:9 As Moses went into the tent, the pillar of cloud would come down and stay at the entrance, while the LORD spoke with Moses.

Exodus 33:10 Whenever the people saw the pillar of cloud standing at the entrance to the tent, they all stood and worshipped, each at the entrance to his tent.

Exodus 33:11 The LORD would speak to Moses face to face, as a man speaks with his friend. Then Moses would return to the camp, but his young assistant Joshua son of Nun did not leave the tent.

Exodus 33:12 Moses said to the LORD, “You have been telling me,`Lead these people,’ but you have not let me know whom you will send with me. You have said,`I know you by name and you have found favour with me.’

Exodus 33:13 If you are pleased with me, teach me your ways so I may know you and continue to find favour with you. Remember that this nation is your people.”

Exodus 33:14 The LORD replied, “My Presence will go with you, and I will give you rest.”

Exodus 33:15 Then Moses said to him, “If your Presence does not go with us, do not send us up from here.

Exodus 33:16 How will anyone know that you are pleased with me and with your people unless you go with us? What else will distinguish me and your people from all the other people on the face of the earth?”

Exodus 33:17 And the LORD said to Moses, “I will do the very thing you have asked, because I am pleased with you and I know you by name.”

Exodus 33:18 Then Moses said, “Now show me your glory.”

Exodus 33:19 And the LORD said, “I will cause all my goodness to pass in front of you, and I will proclaim my name, the LORD, in your presence. I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.

Exodus 33:20 But,” he said, “you cannot see my face, for no-one may see me and live.”

Exodus 33:21 Then the LORD said, “There is a place near me where you may stand on a rock.

Exodus 33:22 When my glory passes by, I will put you in a cleft in the rock and cover you with my hand until I have passed by.

Exodus 33:23 Then I will remove my hand and you will see my back; but my face must not be seen.”

Exodus 34:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I will write on them the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke.

Exodus 34:2 Be ready in the morning, and then come up on Mount Sinai. Present yourself to me there on top of the mountain.

Exodus 34:3 No-one is to come with you or be seen anywhere on the mountain; not even the flocks and herds may graze in front of the mountain.”

Exodus 34:4 So Moses chiselled out two stone tablets like the first ones and went up Mount Sinai early in the morning, as the LORD had commanded him; and he carried the two stone tablets in his hands.

Exodus 34:5 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and stood there with him and proclaimed his name, the LORD.

Exodus 34:6 And he passed in front of Moses, proclaiming, “The LORD, the LORD, the compassionate and gracious God, slow to anger, abounding in love and faithfulness, Exodus 34:7 maintaining love to thousands, and forgiving wickedness, rebellion and sin. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children and their children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.”

Exodus 34:8 Moses bowed to the ground at once and worshipped.

Exodus 34:9 “O Lord, if I have found favour in your eyes,” he said, “then let the Lord go with us. Although this is a stiff-necked people, forgive our wickedness and our sin, and take us as your inheritance.”

Exodus 34:10 Then the LORD said: “I am making a covenant with you. Before all your people I will do wonders never before done in any nation in all the world. The people you live among will see how awesome is the work that I, the LORD, will do for you.

Exodus 34:11 Obey what I command you today. I will drive out before you the Amorites, Canaanites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Exodus 34:12 Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land where you are going, or they will be a snare among you.

Exodus 34:13 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and cut down their Asherah poles.

Exodus 34:14 Do not worship any other god, for the LORD, whose name is Jealous, is a jealous God.

Exodus 34:15 “Be careful not to make a treaty with those who live in the land; for when they prostitute themselves to their gods and sacrifice to them, they will invite you and you will eat their sacrifices.

Exodus 34:16 And when you choose some of their daughters as wives for your sons and those daughters prostitute themselves to their gods, they will lead your sons to do the same.

Exodus 34:17 “Do not make cast idols.

Exodus 34:18 “Celebrate the Feast of Unleavened Bread. For seven days eat bread made without yeast, as I commanded you. Do this at the appointed time in the month of Abib, for in that month you came out of Egypt.

Exodus 34:19 “The first offspring of every womb belongs to me, including all the firstborn males of your livestock, whether from herd or flock.

Exodus 34:20 Redeem the firstborn donkey with a lamb, but if you do not redeem it, break its neck. Redeem all your firstborn sons. “No-one is to appear before me empty-handed.

Exodus 34:21 “Six days you shall labour, but on the seventh day you shall rest; even during the ploughing season and harvest you must rest.

Exodus 34:22 “Celebrate the Feast of Weeks with the firstfruits of the wheat harvest, and the Feast of Ingathering at the turn of the year.

Exodus 34:23 Three times a year all your men are to appear before the Sovereign LORD, the God of Israel.

Exodus 34:24 I will drive out nations before you and enlarge your territory, and no-one will covet your land when you go up three times each year to appear before the LORD your God.

Exodus 34:25 “Do not offer the blood of a sacrifice to me along with anything containing yeast, and do not let any of the sacrifice from the Passover Feast remain until morning.

Exodus 34:26 “Bring the best of the firstfruits of your soil to the house of the LORD your God. “Do not cook a young goat in its mother’s milk.”

Exodus 34:27 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Write down these words, for in accordance with these words I have made a covenant with you and with Israel.”

Exodus 34:28 Moses was there with the LORD forty days and forty nights without eating bread or drinking water. And he wrote on the tablets the words of the covenant—the Ten Commandments.

Exodus 34:29 When Moses came down from Mount Sinai with the two tablets of the Testimony in his hands, he was not aware that his face was radiant because he had spoken with the LORD.

Exodus 34:30 When Aaron and all the Israelites saw Moses, his face was radiant, and they were afraid to come near him.

Exodus 34:31 But Moses called to them; so Aaron and all the leaders of the community came back to him, and he spoke to them.

Exodus 34:32 Afterwards all the Israelites came near him, and he gave them all the commands the LORD had given him on Mount Sinai.

Exodus 34:33 When Moses finished speaking to them, he put a veil over his face.

Exodus 34:34 But whenever he entered the LORD's presence to speak with him, he removed the veil until he came out. And when he came out and told the Israelites what he had been commanded, Exodus 34:35 they saw that his face was radiant. Then Moses would put the veil back over his face until he went in to speak with the LORD.

Exodus 35:1 Moses assembled the whole Israelite community and said to them, "These are the things the LORD has commanded you to do:

Exodus 35:2 For six days, work is to be done, but the seventh day shall be your holy day, a Sabbath of rest to the LORD. Whoever does any work on it must be put to death.

Exodus 35:3 Do not light a fire in any of your dwellings on the Sabbath day."

Exodus 35:4 Moses said to the whole Israelite community, "This is what the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:5 From what you have, take an offering for the LORD. Everyone who is willing is to bring to the LORD an offering of gold, silver and bronze;

Exodus 35:6 blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen; goat hair;

Exodus 35:7 ram skins dyed red and hides of sea cows; acacia wood;

Exodus 35:8 olive oil for the light; spices for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense;

Exodus 35:9 and onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Exodus 35:10 "All who are skilled among you are to come and make everything the LORD has commanded:

Exodus 35:11 the tabernacle with its tent and its covering, clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Exodus 35:12 the ark with its poles and the atonement cover and the curtain that shields it;

Exodus 35:13 the table with its poles and all its articles and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 35:14 the lampstand that is for light with its accessories, lamps and oil for the light;

Exodus 35:15 the altar of incense with its poles, the anointing oil and the fragrant incense; the curtain for the doorway at the entrance to the tabernacle;

Exodus 35:16 the altar of burnt offering with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the bronze basin with its stand;

Exodus 35:17 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard;

Exodus 35:18 the tent pegs for the tabernacle and for the courtyard, and their ropes;

Exodus 35:19 the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary— both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when they serve as priests.”

Exodus 35:20 Then the whole Israelite community withdrew from Moses’ presence,

Exodus 35:21 and everyone who was willing and whose heart moved him came and brought an offering to the LORD for the work on the Tent of Meeting, for all its service, and for the sacred garments.

Exodus 35:22 All who were willing, men and women alike, came and brought gold jewellery of all kinds: brooches, ear-rings, rings and ornaments. They all presented their gold as a wave offering to the LORD.

Exodus 35:23 Everyone who had blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen, or goat hair, ram skins dyed red or hides of sea cows brought them.

Exodus 35:24 Those presenting an offering of silver or bronze brought it as an offering to the LORD, and everyone who had acacia wood for any part of the work brought it.

Exodus 35:25 Every skilled woman spun with her hands and brought what she had spun—blue, purple or scarlet yarn or fine linen.

Exodus 35:26 And all the women who were willing and had the skill spun the goat hair.

Exodus 35:27 The leaders brought onyx stones and other gems to be mounted on the ephod and breastpiece.

Exodus 35:28 They also brought spices and olive oil for the light and for the anointing oil and for the fragrant incense.

Exodus 35:29 All the Israelite men and women who were willing brought to the LORD freewill offerings for all the work the LORD through Moses had commanded them to do.

Exodus 35:30 Then Moses said to the Israelites, “See, the LORD has chosen Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah,

Exodus 35:31 and he has filled him with the Spirit of God, with skill, ability and knowledge in all kinds of crafts—

Exodus 35:32 to make artistic designs for work in gold, silver and bronze,

Exodus 35:33 to cut and set stones, to work in wood and to engage in all kinds of artistic craftsmanship.

Exodus 35:34 And he has given both him and Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan, the ability to teach others.

Exodus 35:35 He has filled them with skill to do all kinds of work as craftsmen, designers, embroiderers in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen, and weavers—all of them master craftsmen and designers.

Exodus 36:1 So Bezalel, Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD has given skill and ability to know how to carry out all the work of constructing the sanctuary are to do the work just as the LORD has commanded."

Exodus 36:2 Then Moses summoned Bezalel and Oholiab and every skilled person to whom the LORD had given ability and who was willing to come and do the work.

Exodus 36:3 They received from Moses all the offerings the Israelites had brought to carry out the work of constructing the sanctuary. And the people continued to bring freewill offerings morning after morning.

Exodus 36:4 So all the skilled craftsmen who were doing all the work on the sanctuary left their work

Exodus 36:5 and said to Moses, "The people are bringing more than enough for doing the work the LORD commanded to be done."

Exodus 36:6 Then Moses gave an order and they sent this word throughout the camp: "No man or woman is to make anything else as an offering for the sanctuary." And so the people were restrained from bringing more,

Exodus 36:7 because what they already had was more than enough to do all the work.

Exodus 36:8 All the skilled men among the workmen made the tabernacle with ten curtains of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn, with cherubim worked into them by a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 36:9 All the curtains were the same size—twenty-eight cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exodus 36:10 They joined five of the curtains together and did the same with the other five.

Exodus 36:11 Then they made loops of blue material along the edge of the end curtain in one set, and the same was done with the end curtain in the other set.

Exodus 36:12 They also made fifty loops on one curtain and fifty loops on the end curtain of the other set, with the loops opposite each other.

Exodus 36:13 Then they made fifty gold clasps and used them to fasten the two sets of curtains together so that the tabernacle was a unit.

Exodus 36:14 They made curtains of goat hair for the tent over the tabernacle—eleven altogether.

Exodus 36:15 All eleven curtains were the same size—thirty cubits long and four cubits wide.

Exodus 36:16 They joined five of the curtains into one set and the other six into another set.

Exodus 36:17 Then they made fifty loops along the edge of the end curtain in one set and also along the edge of the end curtain in the other set.

Exodus 36:18 They made fifty bronze clasps to fasten the tent together as a unit.

Exodus 36:19 Then they made for the tent a covering of ram skins dyed red, and over that a covering of hides of sea cows.

Exodus 36:20 They made upright frames of acacia wood for the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:21 Each frame was ten cubits long and a cubit and a half wide,

Exodus 36:22 with two projections set parallel to each other. They made all the frames of the tabernacle in this way.

Exodus 36:23 They made twenty frames for the south side of the tabernacle

Exodus 36:24 and made forty silver bases to go under them—two bases for each frame, one under each projection.

Exodus 36:25 For the other side, the north side of the tabernacle, they made twenty frames

Exodus 36:26 and forty silver bases—two under each frame.

Exodus 36:27 They made six frames for the far end, that is, the west end of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:28 and two frames were made for the corners of the tabernacle at the far end.

Exodus 36:29 At these two corners the frames were double from the bottom all the way to the top and fitted into a single ring; both were made alike.

Exodus 36:30 So there were eight frames and sixteen silver bases—two under each frame.

Exodus 36:31 They also made crossbars of acacia wood: five for the frames on one side of the tabernacle,

Exodus 36:32 five for those on the other side, and five for the frames on the west, at the far end of the tabernacle.

Exodus 36:33 They made the centre crossbar so that it extended from end to end at the middle of the frames.

Exodus 36:34 They overlaid the frames with gold and made gold rings to hold the crossbars. They also overlaid the crossbars with gold.

Exodus 36:35 They made the curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen, with cherubim worked into it by a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 36:36 They made four posts of acacia wood for it and overlaid them with gold. They made gold hooks for them and cast their four silver bases.

Exodus 36:37 For the entrance to the tent they made a curtain of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer;

Exodus 36:38 and they made five posts with hooks for them. They overlaid the tops of the posts and their bands with gold and made their five bases of bronze.

Exodus 37:1 Bezalel made the ark of acacia wood—two and a half cubits long, a cubit and a half wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 37:2 He overlaid it with pure gold, both inside and out, and made a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 37:3 He cast four gold rings for it and fastened them to its four feet, with two rings on one side and two rings on the other.

Exodus 37:4 Then he made poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:5 And he inserted the poles into the rings on the sides of the ark to carry it.

Exodus 37:6 He made the atonement cover of pure gold—two and a half cubits long and a cubit and a half wide.

Exodus 37:7 Then he made two cherubim out of hammered gold at the ends of the cover.

Exodus 37:8 He made one cherub on one end and the second cherub on the other; at the two ends he made them of one piece with the cover.

Exodus 37:9 The cherubim had their wings spread upwards, overshadowing the cover with them. The cherubim faced each other, looking towards the cover.

Exodus 37:10 They made the table of acacia wood—two cubits long, a cubit wide, and a cubit and a half high.

Exodus 37:11 Then they overlaid it with pure gold and made a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 37:12 They also made around it a rim a handbreadth wide and put a gold moulding on the rim.

Exodus 37:13 They cast four gold rings for the table and fastened them to the four corners, where the four legs were.

Exodus 37:14 The rings were put close to the rim to hold the poles used in carrying the table.

Exodus 37:15 The poles for carrying the table were made of acacia wood and were overlaid with gold.

Exodus 37:16 And they made from pure gold the articles for the table— its plates and dishes and bowls and its pitchers for the pouring out of drink offerings.

Exodus 37:17 They made the lampstand of pure gold and hammered it out, base and shaft; its flowerlike cups, buds and blossoms were of one piece with it.

Exodus 37:18 Six branches extended from the sides of the lampstand— three on one side and three on the other.

Exodus 37:19 Three cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms were on one branch, three on the next branch and the same for all six branches extending from the lampstand.

Exodus 37:20 And on the lampstand were four cups shaped like almond flowers with buds and blossoms.

Exodus 37:21 One bud was under the first pair of branches extending from the lampstand, a second bud under the second pair, and a third bud under the third pair—six branches in all.

Exodus 37:22 The buds and the branches were all of one piece with the lampstand, hammered out of pure gold.

Exodus 37:23 They made its seven lamps, as well as its wick trimmers and trays, of pure gold.

Exodus 37:24 They made the lampstand and all its accessories from one talent of pure gold.

Exodus 37:25 They made the altar of incense out of acacia wood. It was square, a cubit long and a cubit wide, and two cubits high— its horns of one piece with it.

Exodus 37:26 They overlaid the top and all the sides and the horns with pure gold, and made a gold moulding around it.

Exodus 37:27 They made two gold rings below the moulding—two on opposite sides—to hold the poles used to carry it.

Exodus 37:28 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with gold.

Exodus 37:29 They also made the sacred anointing oil and the pure, fragrant incense—the work of a perfumer.

Exodus 38:1 They built the altar of burnt offering of acacia wood, three cubits high; it was square, five cubits long and five cubits wide.

Exodus 38:2 They made a horn at each of the four corners, so that the horns and the altar were of one piece, and they overlaid the altar with bronze.

Exodus 38:3 They made all its utensils of bronze—its pots, shovels, sprinkling bowls, meat forks and firepans.

Exodus 38:4 They made a grating for the altar, a bronze network, to be under its ledge, halfway up the altar.

Exodus 38:5 They cast bronze rings to hold the poles for the four corners of the bronze grating.

Exodus 38:6 They made the poles of acacia wood and overlaid them with bronze.

Exodus 38:7 They inserted the poles into the rings so they would be on the sides of the altar for carrying it. They made it hollow, out of boards.

Exodus 38:8 They made the bronze basin and its bronze stand from the mirrors of the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Exodus 38:9 Next they made the courtyard. The south side was a hundred cubits long and had curtains of finely twisted linen,

Exodus 38:10 with twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, and with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exodus 38:11 The north side was also a hundred cubits long and had twenty posts and twenty bronze bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exodus 38:12 The west end was fifty cubits wide and had curtains, with ten posts and ten bases, with silver hooks and bands on the posts.

Exodus 38:13 The east end, towards the sunrise, was also fifty cubits wide.

Exodus 38:14 Curtains fifteen cubits long were on one side of the entrance, with three posts and three bases,

Exodus 38:15 and curtains fifteen cubits long were on the other side of the entrance to the courtyard, with three posts and three bases.

Exodus 38:16 All the curtains around the courtyard were of finely twisted linen.

Exodus 38:17 The bases for the posts were bronze. The hooks and bands on the posts were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver; so all the posts of the courtyard had silver bands.

Exodus 38:18 The curtain for the entrance to the courtyard was of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen—the work of an embroiderer. It was twenty cubits long and, like the curtains of the courtyard, five cubits high,

Exodus 38:19 with four posts and four bronze bases. Their hooks and bands were silver, and their tops were overlaid with silver.

Exodus 38:20 All the tent pegs of the tabernacle and of the surrounding courtyard were bronze.

Exodus 38:21 These are the amounts of the materials used for the tabernacle, the tabernacle of the Testimony, which were recorded at

Moses’ command by the Levites under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Exodus 38:22 (Bezalel son of Uri, the son of Hur, of the tribe of Judah, made everything the LORD commanded Moses; Exodus 38:23 with him was Oholiab son of Ahisamach, of the tribe of Dan— a craftsman and designer, and an embroiderer in blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen.)

Exodus 38:24 The total amount of the gold from the wave offering used for all the work on the sanctuary was 29 talents and 730 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Exodus 38:25 The silver obtained from those of the community who were counted in the census was 100 talents and 1,775 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel—

Exodus 38:26 one beka per person, that is, half a shekel, according to the sanctuary shekel, from everyone who had crossed over to those counted, twenty years old or more, a total of 603,550 men.

Exodus 38:27 The 100 talents of silver were used to cast the bases for the sanctuary and for the curtain—100 bases from the 100 talents, one talent for each base.

Exodus 38:28 They used the 1,775 shekels to make the hooks for the posts, to overlay the tops of the posts, and to make their bands.

Exodus 38:29 The bronze from the wave offering was 70 talents and 2,400 shekels.

Exodus 38:30 They used it to make the bases for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the bronze altar with its bronze grating and all its utensils,

Exodus 38:31 the bases for the surrounding courtyard and those for its entrance and all the tent pegs for the tabernacle and those for the surrounding courtyard.

Exodus 39:1 From the blue, purple and scarlet yarn they made woven garments for ministering in the sanctuary. They also made sacred garments for Aaron, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:2 They made the ephod of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exodus 39:3 They hammered out thin sheets of gold and cut strands to be worked into the blue, purple and scarlet yarn and fine linen— the work of a skilled craftsman.

Exodus 39:4 They made shoulder pieces for the ephod, which were attached to two of its corners, so that it could be fastened.

Exodus 39:5 Its skilfully woven waistband was like it—of one piece with the ephod and made with gold, and with blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and with finely twisted linen, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:6 They mounted the onyx stones in gold filigree settings and engraved them like a seal with the names of the sons of Israel.

Exodus 39:7 Then they fastened them on the shoulder pieces of the ephod as memorial stones for the sons of Israel, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:8 They fashioned the breastpiece—the work of a skilled craftsman. They made it like the ephod: of gold, and of blue, purple and scarlet yarn, and of finely twisted linen.

Exodus 39:9 It was square—a span long and a span wide—and folded double.

Exodus 39:10 Then they mounted four rows of precious stones on it. In the first row there was a ruby, a topaz and a beryl;

Exodus 39:11 in the second row a turquoise, a sapphire and an emerald;

Exodus 39:12 in the third row a jacinth, an agate and an amethyst;

Exodus 39:13 in the fourth row a chrysolite, an onyx and a jasper. They were mounted in gold filigree settings.

Exodus 39:14 There were twelve stones, one for each of the names of the sons of Israel, each engraved like a seal with the name of one of the twelve tribes.

Exodus 39:15 For the breastpiece they made braided chains of pure gold, like a rope.

Exodus 39:16 They made two gold filigree settings and two gold rings, and fastened the rings to two of the corners of the breastpiece.

Exodus 39:17 They fastened the two gold chains to the rings at the corners of the breastpiece,

Exodus 39:18 and the other ends of the chains to the two settings, attaching them to the shoulder pieces of the ephod at the front.

Exodus 39:19 They made two gold rings and attached them to the other two corners of the breastpiece on the inside edge next to the ephod.

Exodus 39:20 Then they made two more gold rings and attached them to the bottom of the shoulder pieces on the front of the ephod, close to the seam just above the waistband of the ephod.

Exodus 39:21 They tied the rings of the breastpiece to the rings of the ephod with blue cord, connecting it to the waistband so that the breastpiece would not swing out from the ephod—as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:22 They made the robe of the ephod entirely of blue cloth— the work of a weaver—

Exodus 39:23 with an opening in the centre of the robe like the opening of a collar, and a band around this opening, so that it would not tear.

Exodus 39:24 They made pomegranates of blue, purple and scarlet yarn and finely twisted linen around the hem of the robe.

Exodus 39:25 And they made bells of pure gold and attached them around the hem between the pomegranates.

Exodus 39:26 The bells and pomegranates alternated around the hem of the robe to be worn for ministering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:27 For Aaron and his sons, they made tunics of fine linen— the work of a weaver—

Exodus 39:28 and the turban of fine linen, the linen headbands and the undergarments of finely twisted linen.

Exodus 39:29 The sash was of finely twisted linen and blue, purple and scarlet yarn—the work of an embroiderer—as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:30 They made the plate, the sacred diadem, out of pure gold and engraved on it, like an inscription on a seal: HOLY TO THE LORD.

Exodus 39:31 Then they fastened a blue cord to it to attach it to the turban, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:32 So all the work on the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, was completed. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:33 Then they brought the tabernacle to Moses: the tent and all its furnishings, its clasps, frames, crossbars, posts and bases;

Exodus 39:34 the covering of ram skins dyed red, the covering of hides of sea cows and the shielding curtain;

Exodus 39:35 the ark of the Testimony with its poles and the atonement cover;

Exodus 39:36 the table with all its articles and the bread of the Presence;

Exodus 39:37 the pure gold lampstand with its row of lamps and all its accessories, and the oil for the light;

Exodus 39:38 the gold altar, the anointing oil, the fragrant incense, and the curtain for the entrance to the tent;

Exodus 39:39 the bronze altar with its bronze grating, its poles and all its utensils; the basin with its stand;

Exodus 39:40 the curtains of the courtyard with its posts and bases, and the curtain for the entrance to the courtyard; the ropes and tent pegs for the courtyard; all the furnishings for the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

Exodus 39:41 and the woven garments worn for ministering in the sanctuary, both the sacred garments for Aaron the priest and the garments for his sons when serving as priests.

Exodus 39:42 The Israelites had done all the work just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Exodus 39:43 Moses inspected the work and saw that they had done it just as the LORD had commanded. So Moses blessed them.

Exodus 40:1 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Exodus 40:2 “Set up the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, on the first day of the first month.

Exodus 40:3 Place the ark of the Testimony in it and shield the ark with the curtain.

Exodus 40:4 Bring in the table and set out what belongs on it. Then bring in the lampstand and set up its lamps.

Exodus 40:5 Place the gold altar of incense in front of the ark of the Testimony and put the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:6 “Place the altar of burnt offering in front of the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting;

Exodus 40:7 place the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it.

Exodus 40:8 Set up the courtyard around it and put the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard.

Exodus 40:9 “Take the anointing oil and anoint the tabernacle and everything in it; consecrate it and all its furnishings, and it will be holy.

Exodus 40:10 Then anoint the altar of burnt offering and all its utensils; consecrate the altar, and it will be most holy.

Exodus 40:11 Anoint the basin and its stand and consecrate them.

Exodus 40:12 “Bring Aaron and his sons to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and wash them with water.

Exodus 40:13 Then dress Aaron in the sacred garments, anoint him and consecrate him so that he may serve me as priest.

Exodus 40:14 Bring his sons and dress them in tunics.

Exodus 40:15 Anoint them just as you anointed their father, so that they may serve me as priests. Their anointing will be to a priesthood that will continue for all generations to come.”

Exodus 40:16 Moses did everything just as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:17 So the tabernacle was set up on the first day of the first month in the second year.

Exodus 40:18 When Moses set up the tabernacle, he put the bases in place, erected the frames, inserted the crossbars and set up the posts.

Exodus 40:19 Then he spread the tent over the tabernacle and put the covering over the tent, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:20 He took the Testimony and placed it in the ark, attached the poles to the ark and put the atonement cover over it.

Exodus 40:21 Then he brought the ark into the tabernacle and hung the shielding curtain and shielded the ark of the Testimony, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:22 Moses placed the table in the Tent of Meeting on the north side of the tabernacle outside the curtain

Exodus 40:23 and set out the bread on it before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:24 He placed the lampstand in the Tent of Meeting opposite the table on the south side of the tabernacle

Exodus 40:25 and set up the lamps before the LORD, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:26 Moses placed the gold altar in the Tent of Meeting in front of the curtain

Exodus 40:27 and burned fragrant incense on it, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:28 Then he put up the curtain at the entrance to the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:29 He set the altar of burnt offering near the entrance to the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, and offered on it burnt offerings and grain offerings, as the LORD commanded him.

Exodus 40:30 He placed the basin between the Tent of Meeting and the altar and put water in it for washing,

Exodus 40:31 and Moses and Aaron and his sons used it to wash their hands and feet.

Exodus 40:32 They washed whenever they entered the Tent of Meeting or approached the altar, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Exodus 40:33 Then Moses set up the courtyard around the tabernacle and altar and put up the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard. And so Moses finished the work.

Exodus 40:34 Then the cloud covered the Tent of Meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:35 Moses could not enter the Tent of Meeting because the cloud had settled upon it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle.

Exodus 40:36 In all the travels of the Israelites, whenever the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle, they would set out;

Exodus 40:37 but if the cloud did not lift, they did not set out— until the day it lifted.

Exodus 40:38 So the cloud of the LORD was over the tabernacle by day, and fire was in the cloud by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel during all their travels.

Leviticus

1:1 The LORD called to Moses and spoke to him from the Tent of Meeting. He said,

Leviticus 1:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When any of you brings an offering to the LORD, bring as your offering an animal from either the herd or the flock.

Leviticus 1:3 “`If the offering is a burnt offering from the herd, he is to offer a male without defect. He must present it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting so that it will be acceptable to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:4 He is to lay his hand on the head of the burnt offering, and it will be accepted on his behalf to make atonement for him.

Leviticus 1:5 He is to slaughter the young bull before the LORD, and then Aaron’s sons the priests shall bring the blood and sprinkle it against the altar on all sides at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 1:6 He is to skin the burnt offering and cut it into pieces.

Leviticus 1:7 The sons of Aaron the priest are to put fire on the altar and arrange wood on the fire.

Leviticus 1:8 Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall arrange the pieces, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Leviticus 1:9 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to burn all of it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:10 “`If the offering is a burnt offering from the flock, from either the sheep or the goats, he is to offer a male without defect.

Leviticus 1:11 He is to slaughter it at the north side of the altar before the LORD, and Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 1:12 He is to cut it into pieces, and the priest shall arrange them, including the head and the fat, on the burning wood that is on the altar.

Leviticus 1:13 He is to wash the inner parts and the legs with water, and the priest is to bring all of it and burn it on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 1:14 “`If the offering to the LORD is a burnt offering of birds, he is to offer a dove or a young pigeon.

Leviticus 1:15 The priest shall bring it to the altar, wring off the head and burn it on the altar; its blood shall be drained out on the side of the altar.

Leviticus 1:16 He is to remove the crop with its contents and throw it to the east side of the altar, where the ashes are.

Leviticus 1:17 He shall tear it open by the wings, not severing it completely, and then the priest shall burn it on the wood that is on the fire on the altar. It is a burnt offering, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:1 “`When someone brings a grain offering to the LORD, his offering is to be of fine flour. He is to pour oil on it, put incense on it

Leviticus 2:2 and take it to Aaron’s sons the priests. The priest shall take a handful of the fine flour and oil, together with all the incense, and burn this as a memorial portion on the altar, an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:3 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 2:4 “`If you bring a grain offering baked in an oven, it is to consist of fine flour: cakes made without yeast and mixed with oil, or wafers made without yeast and spread with oil.

Leviticus 2:5 If your grain offering is prepared on a griddle, it is to be made of fine flour mixed with oil, and without yeast.

Leviticus 2:6 Crumble it and pour oil on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:7 If your grain offering is cooked in a pan, it is to be made of fine flour and oil.

Leviticus 2:8 Bring the grain offering made of these things to the LORD; present it to the priest, who shall take it to the altar.

Leviticus 2:9 He shall take out the memorial portion from the grain offering and burn it on the altar as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 2:10 The rest of the grain offering belongs to Aaron and his sons; it is a most holy part of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 2:11 “`Every grain offering you bring to the LORD must be made without yeast, for you are not to burn any yeast or honey in an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 2:12 You may bring them to the LORD as an offering of the firstfruits, but they are not to be offered on the altar as a pleasing aroma.

Leviticus 2:13 Season all your grain offerings with salt. Do not leave the salt of the covenant of your God out of your grain offerings; add salt to all your offerings.

Leviticus 2:14 “`If you bring a grain offering of firstfruits to the LORD, offer crushed heads of new grain roasted in the fire.

Leviticus 2:15 Put oil and incense on it; it is a grain offering.

Leviticus 2:16 The priest shall burn the memorial portion of the crushed grain and the oil, together with all the incense, as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 3:1 “`If someone’s offering is a fellowship offering, and he offers an animal from the herd, whether male or female, he is to present before the LORD an animal without defect.

Leviticus 3:2 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons the priests shall sprinkle the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:3 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Leviticus 3:4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:5 Then Aaron’s sons are to burn it on the altar on top of the burnt offering that is on the burning wood, as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 3:6 “`If he offers an animal from the flock as a fellowship offering to the LORD, he is to offer a male or female without defect.

Leviticus 3:7 If he offers a lamb, he is to present it before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:8 He is to lay his hand on the head of his offering and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:9 From the fellowship offering he is to bring a sacrifice made to the LORD by fire: its fat, the entire fat tail cut off close to the backbone, all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Leviticus 3:10 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:11 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 3:12 “`If his offering is a goat, he is to present it before the LORD.

Leviticus 3:13 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it in front of the Tent of Meeting. Then Aaron’s sons shall sprinkle its blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 3:14 From what he offers he is to make this offering to the LORD by fire: all the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Leviticus 3:15 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys.

Leviticus 3:16 The priest shall burn them on the altar as food, an offering made by fire, a pleasing aroma. All the fat is the LORD’s.

Leviticus 3:17 “`This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live: You must not eat any fat or any blood.’“

Leviticus 4:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 4:2 “Say to the Israelites:`When anyone sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands—

Leviticus 4:3 “`If the anointed priest sins, bringing guilt on the people, he must bring to the LORD a young bull without defect as a sin offering for the sin he has committed.

Leviticus 4:4 He is to present the bull at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting before the LORD. He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:5 Then the anointed priest shall take some of the bull’s blood and carry it into the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 4:6 He is to dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle some of it seven times before the LORD, in front of the curtain of the sanctuary.

Leviticus 4:7 The priest shall then put some of the blood on the horns of the altar of fragrant incense that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the bull’s blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 4:8 He shall remove all the fat from the bull of the sin offering—the fat that covers the inner parts or is connected to them,

Leviticus 4:9 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which he will remove with the kidneys—

Leviticus 4:10 just as the fat is removed from the ox sacrificed as a fellowship offering. Then the priest shall burn them on the altar of burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:11 But the hide of the bull and all its flesh, as well as the head and legs, the inner parts and offal—

Leviticus 4:12 that is, all the rest of the bull—he must take outside the camp to a place ceremonially clean, where the ashes are thrown, and burn it in a wood fire on the ash heap.

Leviticus 4:13 “`If the whole Israelite community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands, even though the community is unaware of the matter, they are guilty.

Leviticus 4:14 When they become aware of the sin they committed, the assembly must bring a young bull as a sin offering and present it before the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 4:15 The elders of the community are to lay their hands on the bull’s head before the LORD, and the bull shall be slaughtered before the LORD.

Leviticus 4:16 Then the anointed priest is to take some of the bull's blood into the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 4:17 He shall dip his finger into the blood and sprinkle it before the LORD seven times in front of the curtain.

Leviticus 4:18 He is to put some of the blood on the horns of the altar that is before the LORD in the Tent of Meeting. The rest of the blood he shall pour out at the base of the altar of burnt offering at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 4:19 He shall remove all the fat from it and burn it on the altar,

Leviticus 4:20 and do with this bull just as he did with the bull for the sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for them, and they will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:21 Then he shall take the bull outside the camp and burn it as he burned the first bull. This is the sin offering for the community.

Leviticus 4:22 "`When a leader sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the commands of the LORD his God, he is guilty.

Leviticus 4:23 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering a male goat without defect.

Leviticus 4:24 He is to lay his hand on the goat's head and slaughter it at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered before the LORD. It is a sin offering.

Leviticus 4:25 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:26 He shall burn all the fat on the altar as he burned the fat of the fellowship offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for the man's sin, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:27 "`If a member of the community sins unintentionally and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, he is guilty.

Leviticus 4:28 When he is made aware of the sin he committed, he must bring as his offering for the sin he committed a female goat without defect.

Leviticus 4:29 He is to lay his hand on the head of the sin offering and slaughter it at the place of the burnt offering.

Leviticus 4:30 Then the priest is to take some of the blood with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:31 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD. In this way the priest will make atonement for him, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 4:32 “`If he brings a lamb as his sin offering, he is to bring a female without defect.

Leviticus 4:33 He is to lay his hand on its head and slaughter it for a sin offering at the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered.

Leviticus 4:34 Then the priest shall take some of the blood of the sin offering with his finger and put it on the horns of the altar of burnt offering and pour out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 4:35 He shall remove all the fat, just as the fat is removed from the lamb of the fellowship offering, and the priest shall burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:1 “`If a person sins because he does not speak up when he hears a public charge to testify regarding something he has seen or learned about, he will be held responsible.

Leviticus 5:2 “`Or if a person touches anything ceremonially unclean— whether the carcasses of unclean wild animals or of unclean livestock or of unclean creatures that move along the ground— even though he is unaware of it, he has become unclean and is guilty.

Leviticus 5:3 “`Or if he touches human uncleanness—anything that would make him unclean—even though he is unaware of it, when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:4 “`Or if a person thoughtlessly takes an oath to do anything, whether good or evil—in any matter one might carelessly swear about—even though he is unaware of it, in any case when he learns of it he will be guilty.

Leviticus 5:5 “`When anyone is guilty in any of these ways, he must confess in what way he has sinned

Leviticus 5:6 and, as a penalty for the sin he has committed, he must bring to the LORD a female lamb or goat from the flock as a sin offering; and the priest shall make atonement for him for his sin.

Leviticus 5:7 “`If he cannot afford a lamb, he is to bring two doves or two young pigeons to the LORD as a penalty for his sin—one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 5:8 He is to bring them to the priest, who shall first offer the one for the sin offering. He is to wring its head from its neck, not severing it completely,

Leviticus 5:9 and is to sprinkle some of the blood of the sin offering against the side of the altar; the rest of the blood must be drained out at the base of the altar. It is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:10 The priest shall then offer the other as a burnt offering in the prescribed way and make atonement for him for the sin he has committed, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:11 “`If, however, he cannot afford two doves or two young pigeons, he is to bring as an offering for his sin a tenth of an ephah of fine flour for a sin offering. He must not put oil or incense on it, because it is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:12 He is to bring it to the priest, who shall take a handful of it as a memorial portion and burn it on the altar on top of the offerings made to the LORD by fire. It is a sin offering.

Leviticus 5:13 In this way the priest will make atonement for him for any of these sins he has committed, and he will be forgiven. The rest of the offering will belong to the priest, as in the case of the grain offering.’“

Leviticus 5:14 The LORD said to Moses:

Leviticus 5:15 “When a person commits a violation and sins unintentionally in regard to any of the LORD’s holy things, he is to bring to the LORD as a penalty a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value in silver, according to the sanctuary shekel. It is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 5:16 He must make restitution for what he has failed to do in regard to the holy things, add a fifth of the value to that and give it all to the priest, who will make atonement for him with the ram as a guilt offering, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:17 “If a person sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD’s commands, even though he does not know it, he is guilty and will be held responsible.

Leviticus 5:18 He is to bring to the priest as a guilt offering a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value. In this way the priest will make atonement for him for the wrong he has committed unintentionally, and he will be forgiven.

Leviticus 5:19 It is a guilt offering; he has been guilty of wrongdoing against the LORD.”

Leviticus 6:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Leviticus 6:2 “If anyone sins and is unfaithful to the LORD by deceiving his neighbour about something entrusted to him or left in his care or stolen, or if he cheats him,

Leviticus 6:3 or if he finds lost property and lies about it, or if he swears falsely, or if he commits any such sin that people may do—

Leviticus 6:4 when he thus sins and becomes guilty, he must return what he has stolen or taken by extortion, or what was entrusted to him, or the lost property he found, Leviticus 6:5 or whatever it was he swore falsely about. He must make restitution in full, add a fifth of the value to it and give it all to the owner on the day he presents his guilt offering.

Leviticus 6:6 And as a penalty he must bring to the priest, that is, to the LORD, his guilt offering, a ram from the flock, one without defect and of the proper value.

Leviticus 6:7 In this way the priest will make atonement for him before the LORD, and he will be forgiven for any of these things he did that made him guilty.”

Leviticus 6:8 The LORD said to Moses:

Leviticus 6:9 “Give Aaron and his sons this command:`These are the regulations for the burnt offering: The burnt offering is to remain on the altar hearth throughout the night, till morning, and the fire must be kept burning on the altar.

Leviticus 6:10 The priest shall then put on his linen clothes, with linen undergarments next to his body, and shall remove the ashes of the burnt offering that the fire has consumed on the altar and place them beside the altar.

Leviticus 6:11 Then he is to take off these clothes and put on others, and carry the ashes outside the camp to a place that is ceremonially clean.

Leviticus 6:12 The fire on the altar must be kept burning; it must not go out. Every morning the priest is to add firewood and arrange the burnt offering on the fire and burn the fat of the fellowship offerings on it.

Leviticus 6:13 The fire must be kept burning on the altar continuously; it must not go out.

Leviticus 6:14 “`These are the regulations for the grain offering: Aaron’s sons are to bring it before the LORD, in front of the altar.

Leviticus 6:15 The priest is to take a handful of fine flour and oil, together with all the incense on the grain offering, and burn the memorial portion on the altar as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:16 Aaron and his sons shall eat the rest of it, but it is to be eaten without yeast in a holy place; they are to eat it in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 6:17 It must not be baked with yeast; I have given it as their share of the offerings made to me by fire. Like the sin offering and the guilt offering, it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:18 Any male descendant of Aaron may eat it. It is his regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire for the generations to come. Whatever touches it will become holy.’“ Leviticus 6:19 The LORD also said to Moses, Leviticus 6:20 “This is the offering Aaron and his sons are to bring to the LORD on the day he is anointed: a tenth of an ephah of fine flour as a regular grain offering, half of it in the morning and half in the evening.

Leviticus 6:21 Prepare it with oil on a griddle; bring it well-mixed and present the grain offering broken in pieces as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 6:22 The son who is to succeed him as anointed priest shall prepare it. It is the LORD’s regular share and is to be burned completely.

Leviticus 6:23 Every grain offering of a priest shall be burned completely; it must not be eaten.”

Leviticus 6:24 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 6:25 “Say to Aaron and his sons:`These are the regulations for the sin offering: The sin offering is to be slaughtered before the LORD in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:26 The priest who offers it shall eat it; it is to be eaten in a holy place, in the courtyard of the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 6:27 Whatever touches any of the flesh will become holy, and if any of the blood is spattered on a garment, you must wash it in a holy place.

Leviticus 6:28 The clay pot that the meat is cooked in must be broken; but if it is cooked in a bronze pot, the pot is to be scoured and rinsed with water.

Leviticus 6:29 Any male in a priest’s family may eat it; it is most holy.

Leviticus 6:30 But any sin offering whose blood is brought into the Tent of Meeting to make atonement in the Holy Place must not be eaten; it must be burned.

Leviticus 7:1 “`These are the regulations for the guilt offering, which is most holy:

Leviticus 7:2 The guilt offering is to be slaughtered in the place where the burnt offering is slaughtered, and its blood is to be sprinkled against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 7:3 All its fat shall be offered: the fat tail and the fat that covers the inner parts,

Leviticus 7:4 both kidneys with the fat on them near the loins, and the covering of the liver, which is to be removed with the kidneys.

Leviticus 7:5 The priest shall burn them on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is a guilt offering.

Leviticus 7:6 Any male in a priest’s family may eat it, but it must be eaten in a holy place; it is most holy.

Leviticus 7:7 “`The same law applies to both the sin offering and the guilt offering: They belong to the priest who makes atonement with them.

Leviticus 7:8 The priest who offers a burnt offering for anyone may keep its hide for himself.

Leviticus 7:9 Every grain offering baked in an oven or cooked in a pan or on a griddle belongs to the priest who offers it,

Leviticus 7:10 and every grain offering, whether mixed with oil or dry, belongs equally to all the sons of Aaron.

Leviticus 7:11 “`These are the regulations for the fellowship offering a person may present to the LORD:

Leviticus 7:12 “`If he offers it as an expression of thankfulness, then along with this thank-offering he is to offer cakes of bread made without yeast and mixed with oil, wafers made without yeast and spread with oil, and cakes of fine flour well-kneaded and mixed with oil.

Leviticus 7:13 Along with his fellowship offering of thanksgiving he is to present an offering with cakes of bread made with yeast.

Leviticus 7:14 He is to bring one of each kind as an offering, a contribution to the LORD; it belongs to the priest who sprinkles the blood of the fellowship offerings.

Leviticus 7:15 The meat of his fellowship offering of thanksgiving must be eaten on the day it is offered; he must leave none of it till morning.

Leviticus 7:16 “`If, however, his offering is the result of a vow or is a freewill offering, the sacrifice shall be eaten on the day he offers it, but anything left over may be eaten on the next day.

Leviticus 7:17 Any meat of the sacrifice left over till the third day must be burned up.

Leviticus 7:18 If any meat of the fellowship offering is eaten on the third day, it will not be accepted. It will not be credited to the one who offered it, for it is impure; the person who eats any of it will be held responsible.

Leviticus 7:19 “`Meat that touches anything ceremonially unclean must not be eaten; it must be burned up. As for other meat, anyone ceremonially clean may eat it.

Leviticus 7:20 But if anyone who is unclean eats any meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:21 If anyone touches something unclean—whether human uncleanness or an unclean animal or any unclean, detestable thing—and then eats any of the meat of the fellowship offering belonging to the LORD, that person must be cut off from his people.’“

Leviticus 7:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 7:23 “Say to the Israelites:`Do not eat any of the fat of cattle, sheep or goats.

Leviticus 7:24 The fat of an animal found dead or torn by wild animals may be used for any other purpose, but you must not eat it.

Leviticus 7:25 Anyone who eats the fat of an animal from which an offering by fire may be made to the LORD must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 7:26 And wherever you live, you must not eat the blood of any bird or animal.

Leviticus 7:27 If anyone eats blood, that person must be cut off from his people.’“

Leviticus 7:28 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 7:29 “Say to the Israelites:`Anyone who brings a fellowship offering to the LORD is to bring part of it as his sacrifice to the LORD.

Leviticus 7:30 With his own hands he is to bring the offering made to the LORD by fire; he is to bring the fat, together with the breast, and wave the breast before the LORD as a wave offering.

Leviticus 7:31 The priest shall burn the fat on the altar, but the breast belongs to Aaron and his sons.

Leviticus 7:32 You are to give the right thigh of your fellowship offerings to the priest as a contribution.

Leviticus 7:33 The son of Aaron who offers the blood and the fat of the fellowship offering shall have the right thigh as his share.

Leviticus 7:34 From the fellowship offerings of the Israelites, I have taken the breast that is waved and the thigh that is presented and have given them to Aaron the priest and his sons as their regular share from the Israelites.’“

Leviticus 7:35 This is the portion of the offerings made to the LORD by fire that were allotted to Aaron and his sons on the day they were presented to serve the LORD as priests.

Leviticus 7:36 On the day they were anointed, the LORD commanded that the Israelites give this to them as their regular share for the generations to come.

Leviticus 7:37 These, then, are the regulations for the burnt offering, the grain offering, the sin offering, the guilt offering, the ordination offering and the fellowship offering,

Leviticus 7:38 which the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai on the day he commanded the Israelites to bring their offerings to the LORD, in the Desert of Sinai.

Leviticus 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 8:2 “Bring Aaron and his sons, their garments, the anointing oil, the bull for the sin offering, the two rams and the basket containing bread made without yeast, Leviticus 8:3 and gather the entire assembly at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.”

Leviticus 8:4 Moses did as the LORD commanded him, and the assembly gathered at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 8:5 Moses said to the assembly, “This is what the LORD has commanded to be done.”

Leviticus 8:6 Then Moses brought Aaron and his sons forward and washed them with water.

Leviticus 8:7 He put the tunic on Aaron, tied the sash around him, clothed him with the robe and put the ephod on him. He also tied the ephod to him by its skilfully woven waistband; so it was fastened on him.

Leviticus 8:8 He placed the breastpiece on him and put the Urim and Thummim in the breastpiece.

Leviticus 8:9 Then he placed the turban on Aaron’s head and set the gold plate, the sacred diadem, on the front of it, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:10 Then Moses took the anointing oil and anointed the tabernacle and everything in it, and so consecrated them.

Leviticus 8:11 He sprinkled some of the oil on the altar seven times, anointing the altar and all its utensils and the basin with its stand, to consecrate them.

Leviticus 8:12 He poured some of the anointing oil on Aaron’s head and anointed him to consecrate him.

Leviticus 8:13 Then he brought Aaron’s sons forward, put tunics on them, tied sashes around them and put headbands on them, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:14 He then presented the bull for the sin offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Leviticus 8:15 Moses slaughtered the bull and took some of the blood, and with his finger he put it on all the horns of the altar to purify the altar. He poured out the rest of the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated it to make atonement for it.

Leviticus 8:16 Moses also took all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, and both kidneys and their fat, and burned it on the altar.

Leviticus 8:17 But the bull with its hide and its flesh and its offal he burned up outside the camp, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:18 He then presented the ram for the burnt offering, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Leviticus 8:19 Then Moses slaughtered the ram and sprinkled the blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 8:20 He cut the ram into pieces and burned the head, the pieces and the fat.

Leviticus 8:21 He washed the inner parts and the legs with water and burned the whole ram on the altar as a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:22 He then presented the other ram, the ram for the ordination, and Aaron and his sons laid their hands on its head.

Leviticus 8:23 Moses slaughtered the ram and took some of its blood and put it on the lobe of Aaron’s right ear, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 8:24 Moses also brought Aaron’s sons forward and put some of the blood on the lobes of their right ears, on the thumbs of their right hands and on the big toes of their right feet. Then he sprinkled blood against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 8:25 He took the fat, the fat tail, all the fat around the inner parts, the covering of the liver, both kidneys and their fat and the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:26 Then from the basket of bread made without yeast, which was before the LORD, he took a cake of bread, and one made with oil, and a wafer; he put these on the fat portions and on the right thigh.

Leviticus 8:27 He put all these in the hands of Aaron and his sons and waved them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Leviticus 8:28 Then Moses took them from their hands and burned them on the altar on top of the burnt offering as an ordination offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 8:29 He also took the breast—Moses’ share of the ordination ram—and waved it before the LORD as a wave offering, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 8:30 Then Moses took some of the anointing oil and some of the blood from the altar and sprinkled them on Aaron and his garments and on his sons and their garments. So he consecrated Aaron and his garments and his sons and their garments.

Leviticus 8:31 Moses then said to Aaron and his sons, “Cook the meat at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and eat it there with the bread from the basket of ordination offerings, as I commanded, saying,`Aaron and his sons are to eat it.’

Leviticus 8:32 Then burn up the rest of the meat and the bread.

Leviticus 8:33 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for seven days, until the days of your ordination are completed, for your ordination will last seven days.

Leviticus 8:34 What has been done today was commanded by the LORD to make atonement for you.

Leviticus 8:35 You must stay at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting day and night for seven days and do what the LORD requires, so that you will not die; for that is what I have been commanded."

Leviticus 8:36 So Aaron and his sons did everything the LORD commanded through Moses.

Leviticus 9:1 On the eighth day Moses summoned Aaron and his sons and the elders of Israel.

Leviticus 9:2 He said to Aaron, "Take a bull calf for your sin offering and a ram for your burnt offering, both without defect, and present them before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:3 Then say to the Israelites:`Take a male goat for a sin offering, a calf and a lamb—both a year old and without defect—for a burnt offering,

Leviticus 9:4 and an ox and a ram for a fellowship offering to sacrifice before the LORD, together with a grain offering mixed with oil. For today the LORD will appear to you.'"

Leviticus 9:5 They took the things Moses commanded to the front of the Tent of Meeting, and the entire assembly came near and stood before the LORD.

Leviticus 9:6 Then Moses said, "This is what the LORD has commanded you to do, so that the glory of the LORD may appear to you."

Leviticus 9:7 Moses said to Aaron, "Come to the altar and sacrifice your sin offering and your burnt offering and make atonement for yourself and the people; sacrifice the offering that is for the people and make atonement for them, as the LORD has commanded."

Leviticus 9:8 So Aaron came to the altar and slaughtered the calf as a sin offering for himself.

Leviticus 9:9 His sons brought the blood to him, and he dipped his finger into the blood and put it on the horns of the altar; the rest of the blood he poured out at the base of the altar.

Leviticus 9:10 On the altar he burned the fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver from the sin offering, as the LORD commanded Moses;

Leviticus 9:11 the flesh and the hide he burned up outside the camp.

Leviticus 9:12 Then he slaughtered the burnt offering. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 9:13 They handed him the burnt offering piece by piece, including the head, and he burned them on the altar.

Leviticus 9:14 He washed the inner parts and the legs and burned them on top of the burnt offering on the altar.

Leviticus 9:15 Aaron then brought the offering that was for the people. He took the goat for the people’s sin offering and slaughtered it and offered it for a sin offering as he did with the first one.

Leviticus 9:16 He brought the burnt offering and offered it in the prescribed way.

Leviticus 9:17 He also brought the grain offering, took a handful of it and burned it on the altar in addition to the morning’s burnt offering.

Leviticus 9:18 He slaughtered the ox and the ram as the fellowship offering for the people. His sons handed him the blood, and he sprinkled it against the altar on all sides.

Leviticus 9:19 But the fat portions of the ox and the ram—the fat tail, the layer of fat, the kidneys and the covering of the liver—

Leviticus 9:20 these they laid on the breasts, and then Aaron burned the fat on the altar.

Leviticus 9:21 Aaron waved the breasts and the right thigh before the LORD as a wave offering, as Moses commanded.

Leviticus 9:22 Then Aaron lifted his hands towards the people and blessed them. And having sacrificed the sin offering, the burnt offering and the fellowship offering, he stepped down.

Leviticus 9:23 Moses and Aaron then went into the Tent of Meeting. When they came out, they blessed the people; and the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people.

Leviticus 9:24 Fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat portions on the altar. And when all the people saw it, they shouted for joy and fell face down.

Leviticus 10:1 Aaron’s sons Nadab and Abihu took their censers, put fire in them and added incense; and they offered unauthorised fire before the LORD, contrary to his command.

Leviticus 10:2 So fire came out from the presence of the LORD and consumed them, and they died before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:3 Moses then said to Aaron, “This is what the LORD spoke of when he said: “`Among those who approach me I will show myself holy; in the sight of all the people I will be honoured.’“ Aaron remained silent.

Leviticus 10:4 Moses summoned Mishael and Elzaphan, sons of Aaron’s uncle Uzziel, and said to them, “Come here; carry your cousins outside the camp, away from the front of the sanctuary.”

Leviticus 10:5 So they came and carried them, still in their tunics, outside the camp, as Moses ordered.

Leviticus 10:6 Then Moses said to Aaron and his sons Eleazar and Ithamar, “Do not let your hair become unkempt, and do not tear your clothes, or you will die and the LORD will be angry with the whole community. But your relatives, all the house of Israel, may mourn for those the LORD has destroyed by fire.

Leviticus 10:7 Do not leave the entrance to the Tent of Meeting or you will die, because the LORD’s anointing oil is on you.” So they did as Moses said.

Leviticus 10:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron,

Leviticus 10:9 “You and your sons are not to drink wine or other fermented drink whenever you go into the Tent of Meeting, or you will die. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Leviticus 10:10 You must distinguish between the holy and the common, between the unclean and the clean,

Leviticus 10:11 and you must teach the Israelites all the decrees the LORD has given them through Moses.”

Leviticus 10:12 Moses said to Aaron and his remaining sons, Eleazar and Ithamar, “Take the grain offering left over from the offerings made to the LORD by fire and eat it prepared without yeast beside the altar, for it is most holy.

Leviticus 10:13 Eat it in a holy place, because it is your share and your sons’ share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire; for so I have been commanded.

Leviticus 10:14 But you and your sons and your daughters may eat the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. Eat them in a ceremonially clean place; they have been given to you and your children as your share of the Israelites’ fellowship offerings.

Leviticus 10:15 The thigh that was presented and the breast that was waved must be brought with the fat portions of the offerings made by fire, to be waved before the LORD as a wave offering. This will be the regular share for you and your children, as the LORD has commanded.”

Leviticus 10:16 When Moses enquired about the goat of the sin offering and found that it had been burned up, he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, Aaron’s remaining sons, and asked,

Leviticus 10:17 “Why didn’t you eat the sin offering in the sanctuary area? It is most holy; it was given to you to take away the guilt of the community by making atonement for them before the LORD.

Leviticus 10:18 Since its blood was not taken into the Holy Place, you should have eaten the goat in the sanctuary area, as I commanded.”

Leviticus 10:19 Aaron replied to Moses, “Today they sacrificed their sin offering and their burnt offering before the LORD, but such things as this have happened to me. Would the LORD have been pleased if I had eaten the sin offering today?”

Leviticus 10:20 When Moses heard this, he was satisfied.

Leviticus 11:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 11:2 “Say to the Israelites:`Of all the animals that live on land, these are the ones you may eat:

Leviticus 11:3 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof completely divided and that chews the cud.

Leviticus 11:4 “`There are some that only chew the cud or only have a split hoof, but you must not eat them. The camel, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is ceremonially unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:5 The coney, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:6 The rabbit, though it chews the cud, does not have a split hoof; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:7 And the pig, though it has a split hoof completely divided, does not chew the cud; it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:8 You must not eat their meat or touch their carcasses; they are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:9 “`Of all the creatures living in the water of the seas and the streams, you may eat any that have fins and scales.

Leviticus 11:10 But all creatures in the seas or streams that do not have fins and scales—whether among all the swarming things or among all the other living creatures in the water—you are to detest.

Leviticus 11:11 And since you are to detest them, you must not eat their meat and you must detest their carcasses.

Leviticus 11:12 Anything living in the water that does not have fins and scales is to be detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:13 “`These are the birds you are to detest and not eat because they are detestable: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture,

Leviticus 11:14 the red kite, any kind of black kite,

Leviticus 11:15 any kind of raven,

Leviticus 11:16 the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

Leviticus 11:17 the little owl, the cormorant, the great owl,

Leviticus 11:18 the white owl, the desert owl, the osprey,

Leviticus 11:19 the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

Leviticus 11:20 “`All flying insects that walk on all fours are to be detestable to you.

Leviticus 11:21 There are, however, some winged creatures that walk on all fours that you may eat: those that have jointed legs for hopping on the ground.

Leviticus 11:22 Of these you may eat any kind of locust, katydid, cricket or grasshopper.

Leviticus 11:23 But all other winged creatures that have four legs you are to detest.

Leviticus 11:24 “`You will make yourselves unclean by these; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:25 Whoever picks up one of their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:26 “`Every animal that has a split hoof not completely divided or that does not chew the cud is unclean for you; whoever touches [the carcass of] any of them will be unclean.

Leviticus 11:27 Of all the animals that walk on all fours, those that walk on their paws are unclean for you; whoever touches their carcasses will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:28 Anyone who picks up their carcasses must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening. They are unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:29 “`Of the animals that move about on the ground, these are unclean for you: the weasel, the rat, any kind of great lizard,

Leviticus 11:30 the gecko, the monitor lizard, the wall lizard, the skink and the chameleon.

Leviticus 11:31 Of all those that move along the ground, these are unclean for you. Whoever touches them when they are dead will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:32 When one of them dies and falls on something, that article, whatever its use, will be unclean, whether it is made of wood, cloth, hide or sackcloth. Put it in water; it will be unclean till evening, and then it will be clean.

Leviticus 11:33 If one of them falls into a clay pot, everything in it will be unclean, and you must break the pot.

Leviticus 11:34 Any food that could be eaten but has water on it from such a pot is unclean, and any liquid that could be drunk from it is unclean.

Leviticus 11:35 Anything that one of their carcasses falls on becomes unclean; an oven or cooking pot must be broken up. They are unclean, and you are to regard them as unclean.

Leviticus 11:36 A spring, however, or a cistern for collecting water remains clean, but anyone who touches one of these carcasses is unclean.

Leviticus 11:37 If a carcass falls on any seeds that are to be planted, they remain clean.

Leviticus 11:38 But if water has been put on the seed and a carcass falls on it, it is unclean for you.

Leviticus 11:39 “`If an animal that you are allowed to eat dies, anyone who touches the carcass will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:40 Anyone who eats some of the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening. Anyone who picks up the carcass must wash his clothes, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 11:41 “`Every creature that moves about on the ground is detestable; it is not to be eaten.

Leviticus 11:42 You are not to eat any creature that moves about on the ground, whether it moves on its belly or walks on all fours or on many feet; it is detestable.

Leviticus 11:43 Do not defile yourselves by any of these creatures. Do not make yourselves unclean by means of them or be made unclean by them.

Leviticus 11:44 I am the LORD your God; consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am holy. Do not make yourselves unclean by any creature that moves about on the ground.

Leviticus 11:45 I am the LORD who brought you up out of Egypt to be your God; therefore be holy, because I am holy.

Leviticus 11:46 “`These are the regulations concerning animals, birds, every living thing that moves in the water and every creature that moves about on the ground.

Leviticus 11:47 You must distinguish between the unclean and the clean, between living creatures that may be eaten and those that may not be eaten.’“

Leviticus 12:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 12:2 “Say to the Israelites:`A woman who becomes pregnant and gives birth to a son will be ceremonially unclean for seven days, just as she is unclean during her monthly period.

Leviticus 12:3 On the eighth day the boy is to be circumcised.

Leviticus 12:4 Then the woman must wait thirty-three days to be purified from her bleeding. She must not touch anything sacred or go to the sanctuary until the days of her purification are over.

Leviticus 12:5 If she gives birth to a daughter, for two weeks the woman will be unclean, as during her period. Then she must wait sixty-six days to be purified from her bleeding.

Leviticus 12:6 “`When the days of her purification for a son or daughter are over, she is to bring to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting a year-old lamb for a burnt offering and a young pigeon or a dove for a sin offering.

Leviticus 12:7 He shall offer them before the LORD to make atonement for her, and then she will be ceremonially clean from her flow of blood. "`These are the regulations for the woman who gives birth to a boy or a girl.

Leviticus 12:8 If she cannot afford a lamb, she is to bring two doves or two young pigeons, one for a burnt offering and the other for a sin offering. In this way the priest will make atonement for her, and she will be clean.'"

Leviticus 13:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 13:2 "When anyone has a swelling or a rash or a bright spot on his skin that may become an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to Aaron the priest or to one of his sons who is a priest.

Leviticus 13:3 The priest is to examine the sore on his skin, and if the hair in the sore has turned white and the sore appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious skin disease. When the priest examines him, he shall pronounce him ceremonially unclean.

Leviticus 13:4 If the spot on his skin is white but does not appear to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has not turned white, the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:5 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if he sees that the sore is unchanged and has not spread in the skin, he is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Leviticus 13:6 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him again, and if the sore has faded and has not spread in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a rash. The man must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 13:7 But if the rash does spread in his skin after he has shown himself to the priest to be pronounced clean, he must appear before the priest again.

Leviticus 13:8 The priest is to examine him, and if the rash has spread in the skin, he shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious disease.

Leviticus 13:9 "When anyone has an infectious skin disease, he must be brought to the priest.

Leviticus 13:10 The priest is to examine him, and if there is a white swelling in the skin that has turned the hair white and if there is raw flesh in the swelling,

Leviticus 13:11 it is a chronic skin disease and the priest shall pronounce him unclean. He is not to put him in isolation, because he is already unclean.

Leviticus 13:12 "If the disease breaks out all over his skin and, so far as the priest can see, it covers all the skin of the infected person from head to foot, Leviticus 13:13 the priest is to examine him, and if the disease has covered his whole body, he shall pronounce that person clean. Since it has all turned white, he is clean.

Leviticus 13:14 But whenever raw flesh appears on him, he will be unclean.

Leviticus 13:15 When the priest sees the raw flesh, he shall pronounce him unclean. The raw flesh is unclean; he has an infectious disease.

Leviticus 13:16 Should the raw flesh change and turn white, he must go to the priest.

Leviticus 13:17 The priest is to examine him, and if the sores have turned white, the priest shall pronounce the infected person clean; then he will be clean.

Leviticus 13:18 “When someone has a boil on his skin and it heals,

Leviticus 13:19 and in the place where the boil was, a white swelling or reddish-white spot appears, he must present himself to the priest.

Leviticus 13:20 The priest is to examine it, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it has turned white, the priest shall pronounce him unclean. It is an infectious skin disease that has broken out where the boil was.

Leviticus 13:21 But if, when the priest examines it, there is no white hair in it and it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:22 If it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is infectious.

Leviticus 13:23 But if the spot is unchanged and has not spread, it is only a scar from the boil, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:24 “When someone has a burn on his skin and a reddish-white or white spot appears in the raw flesh of the burn,

Leviticus 13:25 the priest is to examine the spot, and if the hair in it has turned white, and it appears to be more than skin deep, it is an infectious disease that has broken out in the burn. The priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:26 But if the priest examines it and there is no white hair in the spot and if it is not more than skin deep and has faded, then the priest is to put him in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:27 On the seventh day the priest is to examine him, and if it is spreading in the skin, the priest shall pronounce him unclean; it is an infectious skin disease.

Leviticus 13:28 If, however, the spot is unchanged and has not spread in the skin but has faded, it is a swelling from the burn, and the priest shall pronounce him clean; it is only a scar from the burn.

Leviticus 13:29 “If a man or woman has a sore on the head or on the chin,

Leviticus 13:30 the priest is to examine the sore, and if it appears to be more than skin deep and the hair in it is yellow and thin, the priest shall pronounce that person unclean; it is an itch, an infectious disease of the head or chin.

Leviticus 13:31 But if, when the priest examines this kind of sore, it does not seem to be more than skin deep and there is no black hair in it, then the priest is to put the infected person in isolation for seven days.

Leviticus 13:32 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the sore, and if the itch has not spread and there is no yellow hair in it and it does not appear to be more than skin deep,

Leviticus 13:33 he must be shaved except for the diseased area, and the priest is to keep him in isolation another seven days.

Leviticus 13:34 On the seventh day the priest is to examine the itch, and if it has not spread in the skin and appears to be no more than skin deep, the priest shall pronounce him clean. He must wash his clothes, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 13:35 But if the itch does spread in the skin after he is pronounced clean,

Leviticus 13:36 the priest is to examine him, and if the itch has spread in the skin, the priest does not need to look for yellow hair; the person is unclean.

Leviticus 13:37 If, however, in his judgment it is unchanged and black hair has grown in it, the itch is healed. He is clean, and the priest shall pronounce him clean.

Leviticus 13:38 “When a man or woman has white spots on the skin,

Leviticus 13:39 the priest is to examine them, and if the spots are dull white, it is a harmless rash that has broken out on the skin; that person is clean.

Leviticus 13:40 “When a man has lost his hair and is bald, he is clean.

Leviticus 13:41 If he has lost his hair from the front of his scalp and has a bald forehead, he is clean.

Leviticus 13:42 But if he has a reddish-white sore on his bald head or forehead, it is an infectious disease breaking out on his head or forehead.

Leviticus 13:43 The priest is to examine him, and if the swollen sore on his head or forehead is reddish-white like an infectious skin disease, Leviticus 13:44 the man is diseased and is unclean. The priest shall pronounce him unclean because of the sore on his head.

Leviticus 13:45 “The person with such an infectious disease must wear torn clothes, let his hair be unkempt, cover the lower part of his face and cry out,`Unclean! Unclean!’

Leviticus 13:46 As long as he has the infection he remains unclean. He must live alone; he must live outside the camp.

Leviticus 13:47 “If any clothing is contaminated with mildew—any woollen or linen clothing,

Leviticus 13:48 any woven or knitted material of linen or wool, any leather or anything made of leather—

Leviticus 13:49 and if the contamination in the clothing, or leather, or woven or knitted material, or any leather article, is greenish or reddish, it is a spreading mildew and must be shown to the priest.

Leviticus 13:50 The priest is to examine the mildew and isolate the affected article for seven days.

Leviticus 13:51 On the seventh day he is to examine it, and if the mildew has spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather, whatever its use, it is a destructive mildew; the article is unclean.

Leviticus 13:52 He must burn up the clothing, or the woven or knitted material of wool or linen, or any leather article that has the contamination in it, because the mildew is destructive; the article must be burned up.

Leviticus 13:53 “But if, when the priest examines it, the mildew has not spread in the clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or the leather article,

Leviticus 13:54 he shall order that the contaminated article be washed. Then he is to isolate it for another seven days.

Leviticus 13:55 After the affected article has been washed, the priest is to examine it, and if the mildew has not changed its appearance, even though it has not spread, it is unclean. Burn it with fire, whether the mildew has affected one side or the other.

Leviticus 13:56 If, when the priest examines it, the mildew has faded after the article has been washed, he is to tear the contaminated part out of the clothing, or the leather, or the woven or knitted material.

Leviticus 13:57 But if it reappears in the clothing, or in the woven or knitted material, or in the leather article, it is spreading, and whatever has the mildew must be burned with fire.

Leviticus 13:58 The clothing, or the woven or knitted material, or any leather article that has been washed and is rid of the mildew, must be washed again, and it will be clean.”

Leviticus 13:59 These are the regulations concerning contamination by mildew in woollen or linen clothing, woven or knitted material, or any leather article, for pronouncing them clean or unclean.

Leviticus 14:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 14:2 “These are the regulations for the diseased person at the time of his ceremonial cleansing, when he is brought to the priest:

Leviticus 14:3 The priest is to go outside the camp and examine him. If the person has been healed of his infectious skin disease, Leviticus 14:4 the priest shall order that two live clean birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop be brought for the one to be cleansed.

Leviticus 14:5 Then the priest shall order that one of the birds be killed over fresh water in a clay pot.

Leviticus 14:6 He is then to take the live bird and dip it, together with the cedar wood, the scarlet yarn and the hyssop, into the blood of the bird that was killed over the fresh water.

Leviticus 14:7 Seven times he shall sprinkle the one to be cleansed of the infectious disease and pronounce him clean. Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields.

Leviticus 14:8 “The person to be cleansed must wash his clothes, shave off all his hair and bathe with water; then he will be ceremonially clean. After this he may come into the camp, but he must stay outside his tent for seven days.

Leviticus 14:9 On the seventh day he must shave off all his hair; he must shave his head, his beard, his eyebrows and the rest of his hair. He must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:10 “On the eighth day he must bring two male lambs and one ewe lamb a year old, each without defect, along with three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, and one log of oil.

Leviticus 14:11 The priest who pronounces him clean shall present both the one to be cleansed and his offerings before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 14:12 “Then the priest is to take one of the male lambs and offer it as a guilt offering, along with the log of oil; he shall wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Leviticus 14:13 He is to slaughter the lamb in the holy place where the sin offering and the burnt offering are slaughtered. Like the sin offering, the guilt offering belongs to the priest; it is most holy.

Leviticus 14:14 The priest is to take some of the blood of the guilt offering and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:15 The priest shall then take some of the log of oil, pour it in the palm of his own left hand, Leviticus 14:16 dip his right forefinger into the oil in his palm, and with his finger sprinkle some of it before the LORD seven times.

Leviticus 14:17 The priest is to put some of the oil remaining in his palm on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot, on top of the blood of the guilt offering.

Leviticus 14:18 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed and make atonement for him before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:19 “Then the priest is to sacrifice the sin offering and make atonement for the one to be cleansed from his uncleanness. After that, the priest shall slaughter the burnt offering Leviticus 14:20 and offer it on the altar, together with the grain offering, and make atonement for him, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 14:21 “If, however, he is poor and cannot afford these, he must take one male lamb as a guilt offering to be waved to make atonement for him, together with a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil for a grain offering, a log of oil,

Leviticus 14:22 and two doves or two young pigeons, which he can afford, one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 14:23 “On the eighth day he must bring them for his cleansing to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:24 The priest is to take the lamb for the guilt offering, together with the log of oil, and wave them before the LORD as a wave offering.

Leviticus 14:25 He shall slaughter the lamb for the guilt offering and take some of its blood and put it on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:26 The priest is to pour some of the oil into the palm of his own left hand,

Leviticus 14:27 and with his right forefinger sprinkle some of the oil from his palm seven times before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:28 Some of the oil in his palm he is to put on the same places he put the blood of the guilt offering—on the lobe of the right ear of the one to be cleansed, on the thumb of his right hand and on the big toe of his right foot.

Leviticus 14:29 The rest of the oil in his palm the priest shall put on the head of the one to be cleansed, to make atonement for him before the LORD.

Leviticus 14:30 Then he shall sacrifice the doves or the young pigeons, which the person can afford, Leviticus 14:31 one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering, together with the grain offering. In this way the priest will make atonement before the LORD on behalf of the one to be cleansed.”

Leviticus 14:32 These are the regulations for anyone who has an infectious skin disease and who cannot afford the regular offerings for his cleansing.

Leviticus 14:33 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 14:34 “When you enter the land of Canaan, which I am giving you as your possession, and I put a spreading mildew in a house in that land,

Leviticus 14:35 the owner of the house must go and tell the priest,`I have seen something that looks like mildew in my house.’

Leviticus 14:36 The priest is to order the house to be emptied before he goes in to examine the mildew, so that nothing in the house will be pronounced unclean. After this the priest is to go in and inspect the house.

Leviticus 14:37 He is to examine the mildew on the walls, and if it has greenish or reddish depressions that appear to be deeper than the surface of the wall,

Leviticus 14:38 the priest shall go out of the doorway of the house and close it up for seven days.

Leviticus 14:39 On the seventh day the priest shall return to inspect the house. If the mildew has spread on the walls,

Leviticus 14:40 he is to order that the contaminated stones be torn out and thrown into an unclean place outside the town.

Leviticus 14:41 He must have all the inside walls of the house scraped and the material that is scraped off dumped into an unclean place outside the town.

Leviticus 14:42 Then they are to take other stones to replace these and take new clay and plaster the house.

Leviticus 14:43 “If the mildew reappears in the house after the stones have been torn out and the house scraped and plastered,

Leviticus 14:44 the priest is to go and examine it and, if the mildew has spread in the house, it is a destructive mildew; the house is unclean.

Leviticus 14:45 It must be torn down—its stones, timbers and all the plaster—and taken out of the town to an unclean place.

Leviticus 14:46 “Anyone who goes into the house while it is closed up will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 14:47 Anyone who sleeps or eats in the house must wash his clothes.

Leviticus 14:48 “But if the priest comes to examine it and the mildew has not spread after the house has been plastered, he shall pronounce the house clean, because the mildew is gone.

Leviticus 14:49 To purify the house he is to take two birds and some cedar wood, scarlet yarn and hyssop.

Leviticus 14:50 He shall kill one of the birds over fresh water in a clay pot.

Leviticus 14:51 Then he is to take the cedar wood, the hyssop, the scarlet yarn and the live bird, dip them into the blood of the dead bird and the fresh water, and sprinkle the house seven times.

Leviticus 14:52 He shall purify the house with the bird’s blood, the fresh water, the live bird, the cedar wood, the hyssop and the scarlet yarn.

Leviticus 14:53 Then he is to release the live bird in the open fields outside the town. In this way he will make atonement for the house, and it will be clean.”

Leviticus 14:54 These are the regulations for any infectious skin disease, for an itch,

Leviticus 14:55 for mildew in clothing or in a house,

Leviticus 14:56 and for a swelling, a rash or a bright spot,

Leviticus 14:57 to determine when something is clean or unclean. These are the regulations for infectious skin diseases and mildew.

Leviticus 15:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Leviticus 15:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When any man has a bodily discharge, the discharge is unclean.

Leviticus 15:3 Whether it continues flowing from his body or is blocked, it will make him unclean. This is how his discharge will bring about uncleanness:

Leviticus 15:4 “`Any bed the man with a discharge lies on will be unclean, and anything he sits on will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:5 Anyone who touches his bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:6 Whoever sits on anything that the man with a discharge sat on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:7 “`Whoever touches the man who has a discharge must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:8 “`If the man with the discharge spits on someone who is clean, that person must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:9 “`Everything the man sits on when riding will be unclean,

Leviticus 15:10 and whoever touches any of the things that were under him will be unclean till evening; whoever picks up those things must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:11 “`Anyone the man with a discharge touches without rinsing his hands with water must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:12 “`A clay pot that the man touches must be broken, and any wooden article is to be rinsed with water.

Leviticus 15:13 “`When a man is cleansed from his discharge, he is to count off seven days for his ceremonial cleansing; he must wash his clothes and bathe himself with fresh water, and he will be clean.

Leviticus 15:14 On the eighth day he must take two doves or two young pigeons and come before the LORD to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and give them to the priest.

Leviticus 15:15 The priest is to sacrifice them, the one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement before the LORD for the man because of his discharge.

Leviticus 15:16 “`When a man has an emission of semen, he must bathe his whole body with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:17 Any clothing or leather that has semen on it must be washed with water, and it will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:18 When a man lies with a woman and there is an emission of semen, both must bathe with water, and they will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:19 “`When a woman has her regular flow of blood, the impurity of her monthly period will last seven days, and anyone who touches her will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:20 “`Anything she lies on during her period will be unclean, and anything she sits on will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:21 Whoever touches her bed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:22 Whoever touches anything she sits on must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:23 Whether it is the bed or anything she was sitting on, when anyone touches it, he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:24 “`If a man lies with her and her monthly flow touches him, he will be unclean for seven days; any bed he lies on will be unclean.

Leviticus 15:25 “`When a woman has a discharge of blood for many days at a time other than her monthly period or has a discharge that continues beyond her period, she will be unclean as long as she has the discharge, just as in the days of her period.

Leviticus 15:26 Any bed she lies on while her discharge continues will be unclean, as is her bed during her monthly period, and anything she sits on will be unclean, as during her period.

Leviticus 15:27 Whoever touches them will be unclean; he must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be unclean till evening.

Leviticus 15:28 “`When she is cleansed from her discharge, she must count off seven days, and after that she will be ceremonially clean.

Leviticus 15:29 On the eighth day she must take two doves or two young pigeons and bring them to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 15:30 The priest is to sacrifice one for a sin offering and the other for a burnt offering. In this way he will make atonement for her before the LORD for the uncleanness of her discharge.

Leviticus 15:31 “`You must keep the Israelites separate from things that make them unclean, so they will not die in their uncleanness for defiling my dwelling-place, which is among them.’“

Leviticus 15:32 These are the regulations for a man with a discharge, for anyone made unclean by an emission of semen,

Leviticus 15:33 for a woman in her monthly period, for a man or a woman with a discharge, and for a man who lies with a woman who is ceremonially unclean.

Leviticus 16:1 The LORD spoke to Moses after the death of the two sons of Aaron who died when they approached the LORD.

Leviticus 16:2 The LORD said to Moses: “Tell your brother Aaron not to come whenever he chooses into the Most Holy Place behind the curtain in front of the atonement cover on the ark, or else he will die, because I appear in the cloud over the atonement cover.

Leviticus 16:3 “This is how Aaron is to enter the sanctuary area: with a young bull for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:4 He is to put on the sacred linen tunic, with linen undergarments next to his body; he is to tie the linen sash around him and put on the linen turban. These are sacred garments; so he must bathe himself with water before he puts them on.

Leviticus 16:5 From the Israelite community he is to take two male goats for a sin offering and a ram for a burnt offering.

Leviticus 16:6 “Aaron is to offer the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household.

Leviticus 16:7 Then he is to take the two goats and present them before the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Leviticus 16:8 He is to cast lots for the two goats—one lot for the LORD and the other for the scapegoat.

Leviticus 16:9 Aaron shall bring the goat whose lot falls to the LORD and sacrifice it for a sin offering.

Leviticus 16:10 But the goat chosen by lot as the scapegoat shall be presented alive before the LORD to be used for making atonement by sending it into the desert as a scapegoat.

Leviticus 16:11 "Aaron shall bring the bull for his own sin offering to make atonement for himself and his household, and he is to slaughter the bull for his own sin offering.

Leviticus 16:12 He is to take a censer full of burning coals from the altar before the LORD and two handfuls of finely ground fragrant incense and take them behind the curtain.

Leviticus 16:13 He is to put the incense on the fire before the LORD, and the smoke of the incense will conceal the atonement cover above the Testimony, so that he will not die.

Leviticus 16:14 He is to take some of the bull's blood and with his finger sprinkle it on the front of the atonement cover; then he shall sprinkle some of it with his finger seven times before the atonement cover.

Leviticus 16:15 "He shall then slaughter the goat for the sin offering for the people and take its blood behind the curtain and do with it as he did with the bull's blood: He shall sprinkle it on the atonement cover and in front of it.

Leviticus 16:16 In this way he will make atonement for the Most Holy Place because of the uncleanness and rebellion of the Israelites, whatever their sins have been. He is to do the same for the Tent of Meeting, which is among them in the midst of their uncleanness.

Leviticus 16:17 No-one is to be in the Tent of Meeting from the time Aaron goes in to make atonement in the Most Holy Place until he comes out, having made atonement for himself, his household and the whole community of Israel.

Leviticus 16:18 "Then he shall come out to the altar that is before the LORD and make atonement for it. He shall take some of the bull's blood and some of the goat's blood and put it on all the horns of the altar.

Leviticus 16:19 He shall sprinkle some of the blood on it with his finger seven times to cleanse it and consecrate it from the uncleanness of the Israelites.

Leviticus 16:20 “When Aaron has finished making atonement for the Most Holy Place, the Tent of Meeting and the altar, he shall bring forward the live goat.

Leviticus 16:21 He is to lay both hands on the head of the live goat and confess over it all the wickedness and rebellion of the Israelites—all their sins—and put them on the goat’s head. He shall send the goat away into the desert in the care of a man appointed for the task.

Leviticus 16:22 The goat will carry on itself all their sins to a solitary place; and the man shall release it in the desert.

Leviticus 16:23 “Then Aaron is to go into the Tent of Meeting and take off the linen garments he put on before he entered the Most Holy Place, and he is to leave them there.

Leviticus 16:24 He shall bathe himself with water in a holy place and put on his regular garments. Then he shall come out and sacrifice the burnt offering for himself and the burnt offering for the people, to make atonement for himself and for the people.

Leviticus 16:25 He shall also burn the fat of the sin offering on the altar.

Leviticus 16:26 “The man who releases the goat as a scapegoat must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterwards he may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:27 The bull and the goat for the sin offerings, whose blood was brought into the Most Holy Place to make atonement, must be taken outside the camp; their hides, flesh and offal are to be burned up.

Leviticus 16:28 The man who burns them must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water; afterwards he may come into the camp.

Leviticus 16:29 “This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: On the tenth day of the seventh month you must deny yourselves and not do any work—whether native-born or an alien living among you—

Leviticus 16:30 because on this day atonement will be made for you, to cleanse you. Then, before the LORD, you will be clean from all your sins.

Leviticus 16:31 It is a sabbath of rest, and you must deny yourselves; it is a lasting ordinance.

Leviticus 16:32 The priest who is anointed and ordained to succeed his father as high priest is to make atonement. He is to put on the sacred linen garments

Leviticus 16:33 and make atonement for the Most Holy Place, for the Tent of Meeting and the altar, and for the priests and all the people of the community.

Leviticus 16:34 “This is to be a lasting ordinance for you: Atonement is to be made once a year for all the sins of the Israelites.” And it was done, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 17:2 “Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them:`This is what the LORD has commanded:

Leviticus 17:3 Any Israelite who sacrifices an ox, a lamb or a goat in the camp or outside of it

Leviticus 17:4 instead of bringing it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to present it as an offering to the LORD in front of the tabernacle of the LORD—that man shall be considered guilty of bloodshed; he has shed blood and must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 17:5 This is so that the Israelites will bring to the LORD the sacrifices they are now making in the open fields. They must bring them to the priest, that is, to the LORD, at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and sacrifice them as fellowship offerings.

Leviticus 17:6 The priest is to sprinkle the blood against the altar of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and burn the fat as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 17:7 They must no longer offer any of their sacrifices to the goat idols to whom they prostitute themselves. This is to be a lasting ordinance for them and for the generations to come.’

Leviticus 17:8 “Say to them:`Any Israelite or any alien living among them who offers a burnt offering or sacrifice

Leviticus 17:9 and does not bring it to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting to sacrifice it to the LORD—that man must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 17:10 “`Any Israelite or any alien living among them who eats any blood—I will set my face against that person who eats blood and will cut him off from his people.

Leviticus 17:11 For the life of a creature is in the blood, and I have given it to you to make atonement for yourselves on the altar; it is the blood that makes atonement for one’s life.

Leviticus 17:12 Therefore I say to the Israelites, “None of you may eat blood, nor may an alien living among you eat blood.”

Leviticus 17:13 “`Any Israelite or any alien living among you who hunts any animal or bird that may be eaten must drain out the blood and cover it with earth,

Leviticus 17:14 because the life of every creature is its blood. That is why I have said to the Israelites, “You must not eat the blood of any creature, because the life of every creature is its blood; anyone who eats it must be cut off.”

Leviticus 17:15 “`Anyone, whether native-born or alien, who eats anything found dead or torn by wild animals must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he will be ceremonially unclean till evening; then he will be clean.

Leviticus 17:16 But if he does not wash his clothes and bathe himself, he will be held responsible.'"

Leviticus 18:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 18:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:3 You must not do as they do in Egypt, where you used to live, and you must not do as they do in the land of Canaan, where I am bringing you. Do not follow their practices.

Leviticus 18:4 You must obey my laws and be careful to follow my decrees. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 18:5 Keep my decrees and laws, for the man who obeys them will live by them. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:6 "`No-one is to approach any close relative to have sexual relations. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:7 "`Do not dishonour your father by having sexual relations with your mother. She is your mother; do not have relations with her.

Leviticus 18:8 "`Do not have sexual relations with your father's wife; that would dishonour your father.

Leviticus 18:9 "`Do not have sexual relations with your sister, either your father's daughter or your mother's daughter, whether she was born in the same home or elsewhere.

Leviticus 18:10 "`Do not have sexual relations with your son's daughter or your daughter's daughter; that would dishonour you.

Leviticus 18:11 "`Do not have sexual relations with the daughter of your father's wife, born to your father; she is your sister.

Leviticus 18:12 "`Do not have sexual relations with your father's sister; she is your father's close relative.

Leviticus 18:13 "`Do not have sexual relations with your mother's sister, because she is your mother's close relative.

Leviticus 18:14 "`Do not dishonour your father's brother by approaching his wife to have sexual relations; she is your aunt.

Leviticus 18:15 "`Do not have sexual relations with your daughter-in-law. She is your son's wife; do not have relations with her.

Leviticus 18:16 "`Do not have sexual relations with your brother's wife; that would dishonour your brother.

Leviticus 18:17 "`Do not have sexual relations with both a woman and her daughter. Do not have sexual relations with either her son's daughter or her daughter's daughter; they are her close relatives. That is wickedness.

Leviticus 18:18 "`Do not take your wife's sister as a rival wife and have sexual relations with her while your wife is living.

Leviticus 18:19 “`Do not approach a woman to have sexual relations during the uncleanness of her monthly period.

Leviticus 18:20 “`Do not have sexual relations with your neighbour’s wife and defile yourself with her.

Leviticus 18:21 “`Do not give any of your children to be sacrificed to Molech, for you must not profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 18:22 “`Do not lie with a man as one lies with a woman; that is detestable.

Leviticus 18:23 “`Do not have sexual relations with an animal and defile yourself with it. A woman must not present herself to an animal to have sexual relations with it; that is a perversion.

Leviticus 18:24 “`Do not defile yourselves in any of these ways, because this is how the nations that I am going to drive out before you became defiled.

Leviticus 18:25 Even the land was defiled; so I punished it for its sin, and the land vomited out its inhabitants.

Leviticus 18:26 But you must keep my decrees and my laws. The native-born and the aliens living among you must not do any of these detestable things, Leviticus 18:27 for all these things were done by the people who lived in the land before you, and the land became defiled.

Leviticus 18:28 And if you defile the land, it will vomit you out as it vomited out the nations that were before you.

Leviticus 18:29 “`Everyone who does any of these detestable things—such persons must be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 18:30 Keep my requirements and do not follow any of the detestable customs that were practised before you came and do not defile yourselves with them. I am the LORD your God.’“

Leviticus 19:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 19:2 “Speak to the entire assembly of Israel and say to them:`Be holy because I, the LORD your God, am holy.

Leviticus 19:3 “`Each of you must respect his mother and father, and you must observe my Sabbaths. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:4 “`Do not turn to idols or make gods of cast metal for yourselves. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:5 “`When you sacrifice a fellowship offering to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.

Leviticus 19:6 It shall be eaten on the day you sacrifice it or on the next day; anything left over until the third day must be burned up.

Leviticus 19:7 If any of it is eaten on the third day, it is impure and will not be accepted.

Leviticus 19:8 Whoever eats it will be held responsible because he has desecrated what is holy to the LORD; that person must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 19:9 “`When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest.

Leviticus 19:10 Do not go over your vineyard a second time or pick up the grapes that have fallen. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:11 “`Do not steal. “`Do not lie. “`Do not deceive one another.

Leviticus 19:12 “`Do not swear falsely by my name and so profane the name of your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:13 “`Do not defraud your neighbour or rob him. “`Do not hold back the wages of a hired man overnight.

Leviticus 19:14 “`Do not curse the deaf or put a stumbling-block in front of the blind, but fear your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:15 “`Do not pervert justice; do not show partiality to the poor or favouritism to the great, but judge your neighbour fairly.

Leviticus 19:16 “`Do not go about spreading slander among your people. “`Do not do anything that endangers your neighbour’s life. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:17 “`Do not hate your brother in your heart. Rebuke your neighbour frankly so that you will not share in his guilt.

Leviticus 19:18 “`Do not seek revenge or bear a grudge against one of your people, but love your neighbour as yourself. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:19 “`Keep my decrees. “`Do not mate different kinds of animals. “`Do not plant your field with two kinds of seed. “`Do not wear clothing woven of two kinds of material.

Leviticus 19:20 “`If a man sleeps with a woman who is a slave girl promised to another man but who has not been ransomed or given her freedom, there must be due punishment. Yet they are not to be put to death, because she had not been freed.

Leviticus 19:21 The man, however, must bring a ram to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting for a guilt offering to the LORD.

Leviticus 19:22 With the ram of the guilt offering the priest is to make atonement for him before the LORD for the sin he has committed, and his sin will be forgiven.

Leviticus 19:23 “`When you enter the land and plant any kind of fruit tree, regard its fruit as forbidden. For three years you are to consider it forbidden; it must not be eaten.

Leviticus 19:24 In the fourth year all its fruit will be holy, an offering of praise to the LORD.

Leviticus 19:25 But in the fifth year you may eat its fruit. In this way your harvest will be increased. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:26 “`Do not eat any meat with the blood still in it. “`Do not practise divination or sorcery.

Leviticus 19:27 “`Do not cut the hair at the sides of your head or clip off the edges of your beard.

Leviticus 19:28 “`Do not cut your bodies for the dead or put tattoo marks on yourselves. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:29 “`Do not degrade your daughter by making her a prostitute, or the land will turn to prostitution and be filled with wickedness.

Leviticus 19:30 “`Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:31 “`Do not turn to mediums or seek out spiritists, for you will be defiled by them. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:32 “`Rise in the presence of the aged, show respect for the elderly and revere your God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 19:33 “`When an alien lives with you in your land, do not ill-treat him.

Leviticus 19:34 The alien living with you must be treated as one of your native-born. Love him as yourself, for you were aliens in Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 19:35 “`Do not use dishonest standards when measuring length, weight or quantity.

Leviticus 19:36 Use honest scales and honest weights, an honest ephah and an honest hin. I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt.

Leviticus 19:37 “`Keep all my decrees and all my laws and follow them. I am the LORD.'“

Leviticus 20:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 20:2 “Say to the Israelites:`Any Israelite or any alien living in Israel who gives any of his children to Molech must be put to death. The people of the community are to stone him.

Leviticus 20:3 I will set my face against that man and I will cut him off from his people; for by giving his children to Molech, he has defiled my sanctuary and profaned my holy name.

Leviticus 20:4 If the people of the community close their eyes when that man gives one of his children to Molech and they fail to put him to death,

Leviticus 20:5 I will set my face against that man and his family and will cut off from their people both him and all who follow him in prostituting themselves to Molech.

Leviticus 20:6 “`I will set my face against the person who turns to mediums and spiritists to prostitute himself by following them, and I will cut him off from his people.

Leviticus 20:7 “`Consecrate yourselves and be holy, because I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 20:8 Keep my decrees and follow them. I am the LORD, who makes you holy.

Leviticus 20:9 “`If anyone curses his father or mother, he must be put to death. He has cursed his father or his mother, and his blood will be on his own head.

Leviticus 20:10 “`If a man commits adultery with another man’s wife— with the wife of his neighbour—both the adulterer and the adulteress must be put to death.

Leviticus 20:11 “`If a man sleeps with his father’s wife, he has dishonoured his father. Both the man and the woman must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Leviticus 20:12 “`If a man sleeps with his daughter-in-law, both of them must be put to death. What they have done is a perversion; their blood will be on their own heads.

Leviticus 20:13 “`If a man lies with a man as one lies with a woman, both of them have done what is detestable. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Leviticus 20:14 “`If a man marries both a woman and her mother, it is wicked. Both he and they must be burned in the fire, so that no wickedness will be among you.

Leviticus 20:15 “`If a man has sexual relations with an animal, he must be put to death, and you must kill the animal.

Leviticus 20:16 “`If a woman approaches an animal to have sexual relations with it, kill both the woman and the animal. They must be put to death; their blood will be on their own heads.

Leviticus 20:17 “`If a man marries his sister, the daughter of either his father or his mother, and they have sexual relations, it is a disgrace. They must be cut off before the eyes of their people. He has dishonoured his sister and will be held responsible.

Leviticus 20:18 “`If a man lies with a woman during her monthly period and has sexual relations with her, he has exposed the source of her flow, and she has also uncovered it. Both of them must be cut off from their people.

Leviticus 20:19 “`Do not have sexual relations with the sister of either your mother or your father, for that would dishonour a close relative; both of you would be held responsible.

Leviticus 20:20 “`If a man sleeps with his aunt, he has dishonoured his uncle. They will be held responsible; they will die childless.

Leviticus 20:21 “`If a man marries his brother’s wife, it is an act of impurity; he has dishonoured his brother. They will be childless.

Leviticus 20:22 “`Keep all my decrees and laws and follow them, so that the land where I am bringing you to live may not vomit you out.

Leviticus 20:23 You must not live according to the customs of the nations I am going to drive out before you. Because they did all these things, I abhorred them.

Leviticus 20:24 But I said to you, “You will possess their land; I will give it to you as an inheritance, a land flowing with milk and honey.” I am the LORD your God, who has set you apart from the nations.

Leviticus 20:25 “`You must therefore make a distinction between clean and unclean animals and between unclean and clean birds. Do not defile yourselves by any animal or bird or anything that moves along the ground—those which I have set apart as unclean for you.

Leviticus 20:26 You are to be holy to me because I, the LORD, am holy, and I have set you apart from the nations to be my own.

Leviticus 20:27 “`A man or woman who is a medium or spiritist among you must be put to death. You are to stone them; their blood will be on their own heads.’“

Leviticus 21:1 The LORD said to Moses, “Speak to the priests, the sons of Aaron, and say to them:`A priest must not make himself ceremonially unclean for any of his people who die,

Leviticus 21:2 except for a close relative, such as his mother or father, his son or daughter, his brother,

Leviticus 21:3 or an unmarried sister who is dependent on him since she has no husband—for her he may make himself unclean.

Leviticus 21:4 He must not make himself unclean for people related to him by marriage, and so defile himself.

Leviticus 21:5 “`Priests must not shave their heads or shave off the edges of their beards or cut their bodies.

Leviticus 21:6 They must be holy to their God and must not profane the name of their God. Because they present the offerings made to the LORD by fire, the food of their God, they are to be holy.

Leviticus 21:7 “`They must not marry women defiled by prostitution or divorced from their husbands, because priests are holy to their God.

Leviticus 21:8 Regard them as holy, because they offer up the food of your God. Consider them holy, because I the LORD am holy—I who make you holy.

Leviticus 21:9 “`If a priest’s daughter defiles herself by becoming a prostitute, she disgraces her father; she must be burned in the fire.

Leviticus 21:10 “`The high priest, the one among his brothers who has had the anointing oil poured on his head and who has been ordained to wear the priestly garments, must not let his hair become unkempt or tear his clothes.

Leviticus 21:11 He must not enter a place where there is a dead body. He must not make himself unclean, even for his father or mother,

Leviticus 21:12 nor leave the sanctuary of his God or desecrate it, because he has been dedicated by the anointing oil of his God. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 21:13 "`The woman he marries must be a virgin.

Leviticus 21:14 He must not marry a widow, a divorced woman, or a woman defiled by prostitution, but only a virgin from his own people,

Leviticus 21:15 so that he will not defile his offspring among his people. I am the LORD, who makes him holy.'"

Leviticus 21:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 21:17 "Say to Aaron:`For the generations to come none of your descendants who has a defect may come near to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:18 No man who has any defect may come near: no man who is blind or lame, disfigured or deformed;

Leviticus 21:19 no man with a crippled foot or hand,

Leviticus 21:20 or who is hunchbacked or dwarfed, or who has any eye defect, or who has festering or running sores or damaged testicles.

Leviticus 21:21 No descendant of Aaron the priest who has any defect is to come near to present the offerings made to the LORD by fire. He has a defect; he must not come near to offer the food of his God.

Leviticus 21:22 He may eat the most holy food of his God, as well as the holy food;

Leviticus 21:23 yet because of his defect, he must not go near the curtain or approach the altar, and so desecrate my sanctuary. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.'"

Leviticus 21:24 So Moses told this to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites.

Leviticus 22:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 22:2 "Tell Aaron and his sons to treat with respect the sacred offerings the Israelites consecrate to me, so that they will not profane my holy name. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:3 "Say to them:`For the generations to come, if any of your descendants is ceremonially unclean and yet comes near the sacred offerings that the Israelites consecrate to the LORD, that person must be cut off from my presence. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:4 "`If a descendant of Aaron has an infectious skin disease or a bodily discharge, he may not eat the sacred offerings until he is cleansed. He will also be unclean if he touches something defiled by a corpse or by anyone who has an emission of semen,

Leviticus 22:5 or if he touches any crawling thing that makes him unclean, or any person who makes him unclean, whatever the uncleanness may be.

Leviticus 22:6 The one who touches any such thing will be unclean till evening. He must not eat any of the sacred offerings unless he has bathed himself with water.

Leviticus 22:7 When the sun goes down, he will be clean, and after that he may eat the sacred offerings, for they are his food.

Leviticus 22:8 He must not eat anything found dead or torn by wild animals, and so become unclean through it. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:9 “`The priests are to keep my requirements so that they do not become guilty and die for treating them with contempt. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.

Leviticus 22:10 “`No-one outside a priest’s family may eat the sacred offering, nor may the guest of a priest or his hired worker eat it.

Leviticus 22:11 But if a priest buys a slave with money, or if a slave is born in his household, that slave may eat his food.

Leviticus 22:12 If a priest’s daughter marries anyone other than a priest, she may not eat any of the sacred contributions.

Leviticus 22:13 But if a priest’s daughter becomes a widow or is divorced, yet has no children, and she returns to live in her father’s house as in her youth, she may eat of her father’s food. No unauthorised person, however, may eat any of it.

Leviticus 22:14 “`If anyone eats a sacred offering by mistake, he must make restitution to the priest for the offering and add a fifth of the value to it.

Leviticus 22:15 The priests must not desecrate the sacred offerings the Israelites present to the LORD

Leviticus 22:16 by allowing them to eat the sacred offerings and so bring upon them guilt requiring payment. I am the LORD, who makes them holy.’“

Leviticus 22:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 22:18 “Speak to Aaron and his sons and to all the Israelites and say to them:`If any of you—either an Israelite or an alien living in Israel—presents a gift for a burnt offering to the LORD, either to fulfil a vow or as a freewill offering,

Leviticus 22:19 you must present a male without defect from the cattle, sheep or goats in order that it may be accepted on your behalf.

Leviticus 22:20 Do not bring anything with a defect, because it will not be accepted on your behalf.

Leviticus 22:21 When anyone brings from the herd or flock a fellowship offering to the LORD to fulfil a special vow or as a freewill offering, it must be without defect or blemish to be acceptable.

Leviticus 22:22 Do not offer to the LORD the blind, the injured or the maimed, or anything with warts or festering or running sores. Do not place any of these on the altar as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 22:23 You may, however, present as a freewill offering an ox or a sheep that is deformed or stunted, but it will not be accepted in fulfilment of a vow.

Leviticus 22:24 You must not offer to the LORD an animal whose testicles are bruised, crushed, torn or cut. You must not do this in your own land,

Leviticus 22:25 and you must not accept such animals from the hand of a foreigner and offer them as the food of your God. They will not be accepted on your behalf, because they are deformed and have defects.'"

Leviticus 22:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 22:27 "When a calf, a lamb or a goat is born, it is to remain with its mother for seven days. From the eighth day on, it will be acceptable as an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 22:28 Do not slaughter a cow or a sheep and its young on the same day.

Leviticus 22:29 "When you sacrifice a thank-offering to the LORD, sacrifice it in such a way that it will be accepted on your behalf.

Leviticus 22:30 It must be eaten that same day; leave none of it till morning. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:31 "Keep my commands and follow them. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 22:32 Do not profane my holy name. I must be acknowledged as holy by the Israelites. I am the LORD, who makes you holy Leviticus 22:33 and who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD."

Leviticus 23:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 23:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`These are my appointed feasts, the appointed feasts of the LORD, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies.

Leviticus 23:3 "`There are six days when you may work, but the seventh day is a Sabbath of rest, a day of sacred assembly. You are not to do any work; wherever you live, it is a Sabbath to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:4 "`These are the LORD's appointed feasts, the sacred assemblies you are to proclaim at their appointed times:

Leviticus 23:5 The LORD’s Passover begins at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month.

Leviticus 23:6 On the fifteenth day of that month the LORD’s Feast of Unleavened Bread begins; for seven days you must eat bread made without yeast.

Leviticus 23:7 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Leviticus 23:8 For seven days present an offering made to the LORD by fire. And on the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.’“

Leviticus 23:9 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 23:10 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When you enter the land I am going to give you and you reap its harvest, bring to the priest a sheaf of the first grain you harvest.

Leviticus 23:11 He is to wave the sheaf before the LORD so it will be accepted on your behalf; the priest is to wave it on the day after the Sabbath.

Leviticus 23:12 On the day you wave the sheaf, you must sacrifice as a burnt offering to the LORD a lamb a year old without defect,

Leviticus 23:13 together with its grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil—an offering made to the LORD by fire, a pleasing aroma—and its drink offering of a quarter of a hin of wine.

Leviticus 23:14 You must not eat any bread, or roasted or new grain, until the very day you bring this offering to your God. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:15 “`From the day after the Sabbath, the day you brought the sheaf of the wave offering, count off seven full weeks.

Leviticus 23:16 Count off fifty days up to the day after the seventh Sabbath, and then present an offering of new grain to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:17 From wherever you live, bring two loaves made of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour, baked with yeast, as a wave offering of firstfruits to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:18 Present with this bread seven male lambs, each a year old and without defect, one young bull and two rams. They will be a burnt offering to the LORD, together with their grain offerings and drink offerings—an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Leviticus 23:19 Then sacrifice one male goat for a sin offering and two lambs, each a year old, for a fellowship offering.

Leviticus 23:20 The priest is to wave the two lambs before the LORD as a wave offering, together with the bread of the firstfruits. They are a sacred offering to the LORD for the priest.

Leviticus 23:21 On that same day you are to proclaim a sacred assembly and do no regular work. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:22 "`When you reap the harvest of your land, do not reap to the very edges of your field or gather the gleanings of your harvest. Leave them for the poor and the alien. I am the LORD your God.'"

Leviticus 23:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 23:24 "Say to the Israelites:`On the first day of the seventh month you are to have a day of rest, a sacred assembly commemorated with trumpet blasts.

Leviticus 23:25 Do no regular work, but present an offering made to the LORD by fire.'"

Leviticus 23:26 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 23:27 "The tenth day of this seventh month is the Day of Atonement. Hold a sacred assembly and deny yourselves, and present an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 23:28 Do no work on that day, because it is the Day of Atonement, when atonement is made for you before the LORD your God.

Leviticus 23:29 Anyone who does not deny himself on that day must be cut off from his people.

Leviticus 23:30 I will destroy from among his people anyone who does any work on that day.

Leviticus 23:31 You shall do no work at all. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come, wherever you live.

Leviticus 23:32 It is a sabbath of rest for you, and you must deny yourselves. From the evening of the ninth day of the month until the following evening you are to observe your sabbath."

Leviticus 23:33 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 23:34 "Say to the Israelites:`On the fifteenth day of the seventh month the LORD's Feast of Tabernacles begins, and it lasts for seven days.

Leviticus 23:35 The first day is a sacred assembly; do no regular work.

Leviticus 23:36 For seven days present offerings made to the LORD by fire, and on the eighth day hold a sacred assembly and present an offering made to the LORD by fire. It is the closing assembly; do no regular work.

Leviticus 23:37 ("`These are the LORD's appointed feasts, which you are to proclaim as sacred assemblies for bringing offerings made to the LORD by fire—the burnt offerings and grain offerings, sacrifices and drink offerings required for each day.

Leviticus 23:38 These offerings are in addition to those for the LORD’s Sabbaths and in addition to your gifts and whatever you have vowed and all the freewill offerings you give to the LORD.)

Leviticus 23:39 “`So beginning with the fifteenth day of the seventh month, after you have gathered the crops of the land, celebrate the festival to the LORD for seven days; the first day is a day of rest, and the eighth day also is a day of rest.

Leviticus 23:40 On the first day you are to take choice fruit from the trees, and palm fronds, leafy branches and poplars, and rejoice before the LORD your God for seven days.

Leviticus 23:41 Celebrate this as a festival to the LORD for seven days each year. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come; celebrate it in the seventh month.

Leviticus 23:42 Live in booths for seven days: All native-born Israelites are to live in booths

Leviticus 23:43 so that your descendants will know that I made the Israelites live in booths when I brought them out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.’“

Leviticus 23:44 So Moses announced to the Israelites the appointed feasts of the LORD.

Leviticus 24:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 24:2 “Command the Israelites to bring you clear oil of pressed olives for the light so that the lamps may be kept burning continually.

Leviticus 24:3 Outside the curtain of the Testimony in the Tent of Meeting, Aaron is to tend the lamps before the LORD from evening till morning, continually. This is to be a lasting ordinance for the generations to come.

Leviticus 24:4 The lamps on the pure gold lampstand before the LORD must be tended continually.

Leviticus 24:5 “Take fine flour and bake twelve loaves of bread, using two-tenths of an ephah for each loaf.

Leviticus 24:6 Set them in two rows, six in each row, on the table of pure gold before the LORD.

Leviticus 24:7 Along each row put some pure incense as a memorial portion to represent the bread and to be an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Leviticus 24:8 This bread is to be set out before the LORD regularly, Sabbath after Sabbath, on behalf of the Israelites, as a lasting covenant.

Leviticus 24:9 It belongs to Aaron and his sons, who are to eat it in a holy place, because it is a most holy part of their regular share of the offerings made to the LORD by fire.”

Leviticus 24:10 Now the son of an Israelite mother and an Egyptian father went out among the Israelites, and a fight broke out in the camp between him and an Israelite.

Leviticus 24:11 The son of the Israelite woman blasphemed the Name with a curse; so they brought him to Moses. (His mother's name was Shelomith, the daughter of Dibri the Danite.)

Leviticus 24:12 They put him in custody until the will of the LORD should be made clear to them.

Leviticus 24:13 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Leviticus 24:14 "Take the blasphemer outside the camp. All those who heard him are to lay their hands on his head, and the entire assembly is to stone him.

Leviticus 24:15 Say to the Israelites:`If anyone curses his God, he will be held responsible;

Leviticus 24:16 anyone who blasphemes the name of the LORD must be put to death. The entire assembly must stone him. Whether an alien or native-born, when he blasphemes the Name, he must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:17 "`If anyone takes the life of a human being, he must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:18 Anyone who takes the life of someone's animal must make restitution—life for life.

Leviticus 24:19 If anyone injures his neighbour, whatever he has done must be done to him:

Leviticus 24:20 fracture for fracture, eye for eye, tooth for tooth. As he has injured the other, so he is to be injured.

Leviticus 24:21 Whoever kills an animal must make restitution, but whoever kills a man must be put to death.

Leviticus 24:22 You are to have the same law for the alien and the native-born. I am the LORD your God.'"

Leviticus 24:23 Then Moses spoke to the Israelites, and they took the blasphemer outside the camp and stoned him. The Israelites did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Leviticus 25:1 The LORD said to Moses on Mount Sinai,

Leviticus 25:2 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When you enter the land I am going to give you, the land itself must observe a sabbath to the LORD.

Leviticus 25:3 For six years sow your fields, and for six years prune your vineyards and gather their crops.

Leviticus 25:4 But in the seventh year the land is to have a sabbath of rest, a sabbath to the LORD. Do not sow your fields or prune your vineyards.

Leviticus 25:5 Do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the grapes of your untended vines. The land is to have a year of rest.

Leviticus 25:6 Whatever the land yields during the sabbath year will be food for you—for yourself, your manservant and maidservant, and the hired worker and temporary resident who live among you,

Leviticus 25:7 as well as for your livestock and the wild animals in your land. Whatever the land produces may be eaten.

Leviticus 25:8 “`Count off seven sabbaths of years—seven times seven years—so that the seven sabbaths of years amount to a period of forty-nine years.

Leviticus 25:9 Then have the trumpet sounded everywhere on the tenth day of the seventh month; on the Day of Atonement sound the trumpet throughout your land.

Leviticus 25:10 Consecrate the fiftieth year and proclaim liberty throughout the land to all its inhabitants. It shall be a jubilee for you; each one of you is to return to his family property and each to his own clan.

Leviticus 25:11 The fiftieth year shall be a jubilee for you; do not sow and do not reap what grows of itself or harvest the untended vines.

Leviticus 25:12 For it is a jubilee and is to be holy for you; eat only what is taken directly from the fields.

Leviticus 25:13 “`In this Year of Jubilee everyone is to return to his own property.

Leviticus 25:14 “`If you sell land to one of your countrymen or buy any from him, do not take advantage of each other.

Leviticus 25:15 You are to buy from your countryman on the basis of the number of years since the Jubilee. And he is to sell to you on the basis of the number of years left for harvesting crops.

Leviticus 25:16 When the years are many, you are to increase the price, and when the years are few, you are to decrease the price, because what he is really selling you is the number of crops.

Leviticus 25:17 Do not take advantage of each other, but fear your God. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 25:18 “`Follow my decrees and be careful to obey my laws, and you will live safely in the land.

Leviticus 25:19 Then the land will yield its fruit, and you will eat your fill and live there in safety.

Leviticus 25:20 You may ask, “What will we eat in the seventh year if we do not plant or harvest our crops?”

Leviticus 25:21 I will send you such a blessing in the sixth year that the land will yield enough for three years.

Leviticus 25:22 While you plant during the eighth year, you will eat from the old crop and will continue to eat from it until the harvest of the ninth year comes in.

Leviticus 25:23 “`The land must not be sold permanently, because the land is mine and you are but aliens and my tenants.

Leviticus 25:24 Throughout the country that you hold as a possession, you must provide for the redemption of the land.

Leviticus 25:25 “`If one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells some of his property, his nearest relative is to come and redeem what his countryman has sold.

Leviticus 25:26 If, however, a man has no-one to redeem it for him but he himself prospers and acquires sufficient means to redeem it,

Leviticus 25:27 he is to determine the value for the years since he sold it and refund the balance to the man to whom he sold it; he can then go back to his own property.

Leviticus 25:28 But if he does not acquire the means to repay him, what he sold will remain in the possession of the buyer until the Year of Jubilee. It will be returned in the Jubilee, and he can then go back to his property.

Leviticus 25:29 “`If a man sells a house in a walled city, he retains the right of redemption a full year after its sale. During that time he may redeem it.

Leviticus 25:30 If it is not redeemed before a full year has passed, the house in the walled city shall belong permanently to the buyer and his descendants. It is not to be returned in the Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:31 But houses in villages without walls round them are to be considered as open country. They can be redeemed, and they are to be returned in the Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:32 “`The Levites always have the right to redeem their houses in the Levitical towns, which they possess.

Leviticus 25:33 So the property of the Levites is redeemable—that is, a house sold in any town they hold—and is to be returned in the Jubilee, because the houses in the towns of the Levites are their property among the Israelites.

Leviticus 25:34 But the pasture-land belonging to their towns must not be sold; it is their permanent possession.

Leviticus 25:35 “`If one of your countrymen becomes poor and is unable to support himself among you, help him as you would an alien or a temporary resident, so that he can continue to live among you.

Leviticus 25:36 Do not take interest of any kind from him, but fear your God, so that your countryman may continue to live among you.

Leviticus 25:37 You must not lend him money at interest or sell him food at a profit.

Leviticus 25:38 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to give you the land of Canaan and to be your God.

Leviticus 25:39 “`If one of your countrymen becomes poor among you and sells himself to you, do not make him work as a slave.

Leviticus 25:40 He is to be treated as a hired worker or a temporary resident among you; he is to work for you until the Year of Jubilee.

Leviticus 25:41 Then he and his children are to be released, and he will go back to his own clan and to the property of his forefathers.

Leviticus 25:42 Because the Israelites are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt, they must not be sold as slaves.

Leviticus 25:43 Do not rule over them ruthlessly, but fear your God.

Leviticus 25:44 “`Your male and female slaves are to come from the nations around you; from them you may buy slaves.

Leviticus 25:45 You may also buy some of the temporary residents living among you and members of their clans born in your country, and they will become your property.

Leviticus 25:46 You can will them to your children as inherited property and can make them slaves for life, but you must not rule over your fellow Israelites ruthlessly.

Leviticus 25:47 “`If an alien or a temporary resident among you becomes rich and one of your countrymen becomes poor and sells himself to the alien living among you or to a member of the alien’s clan,

Leviticus 25:48 he retains the right of redemption after he has sold himself. One of his relatives may redeem him:

Leviticus 25:49 An uncle or a cousin or any blood-relative in his clan may redeem him. Or if he prospers, he may redeem himself.

Leviticus 25:50 He and his buyer are to count the time from the year he sold himself up to the Year of Jubilee. The price for his release is to be based on the rate paid to a hired man for that number of years.

Leviticus 25:51 If many years remain, he must pay for his redemption a larger share of the price paid for him.

Leviticus 25:52 If only a few years remain until the Year of Jubilee, he is to compute that and pay for his redemption accordingly.

Leviticus 25:53 He is to be treated as a man hired from year to year; you must see to it that his owner does not rule over him ruthlessly.

Leviticus 25:54 “`Even if he is not redeemed in any of these ways, he and his children are to be released in the Year of Jubilee, Leviticus 25:55 for the Israelites belong to me as servants. They are my servants, whom I brought out of Egypt. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:1 “`Do not make idols or set up an image or a sacred stone for yourselves, and do not place a carved stone in your land to bow down before it. I am the LORD your God.

Leviticus 26:2 “`Observe my Sabbaths and have reverence for my sanctuary. I am the LORD.

Leviticus 26:3 “`If you follow my decrees and are careful to obey my commands,

Leviticus 26:4 I will send you rain in its season, and the ground will yield its crops and the trees of the field their fruit.

Leviticus 26:5 Your threshing will continue until grape harvest and the grape harvest will continue until planting, and you will eat all the food you want and live in safety in your land.

Leviticus 26:6 “`I will grant peace in the land, and you will lie down and no-one will make you afraid. I will remove savage beasts from the land, and the sword will not pass through your country.

Leviticus 26:7 You will pursue your enemies, and they will fall by the sword before you.

Leviticus 26:8 Five of you will chase a hundred, and a hundred of you will chase ten thousand, and your enemies will fall by the sword before you.

Leviticus 26:9 “`I will look on you with favour and make you fruitful and increase your numbers, and I will keep my covenant with you.

Leviticus 26:10 You will still be eating last year’s harvest when you will have to move it out to make room for the new.

Leviticus 26:11 I will put my dwelling-place among you, and I will not abhor you.

Leviticus 26:12 I will walk among you and be your God, and you will be my people.

Leviticus 26:13 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt so that you would no longer be slaves to the Egyptians; I broke the bars of your yoke and enabled you to walk with heads held high.

Leviticus 26:14 “`But if you will not listen to me and carry out all these commands,

Leviticus 26:15 and if you reject my decrees and abhor my laws and fail to carry out all my commands and so violate my covenant,

Leviticus 26:16 then I will do this to you: I will bring upon you sudden terror, wasting diseases and fever that will destroy your sight and drain away your life. You will plant seed in vain, because your enemies will eat it.

Leviticus 26:17 I will set my face against you so that you will be defeated by your enemies; those who hate you will rule over you, and you will flee even when no-one is pursuing you.

Leviticus 26:18 “`If after all this you will not listen to me, I will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Leviticus 26:19 I will break down your stubborn pride and make the sky above you like iron and the ground beneath you like bronze.

Leviticus 26:20 Your strength will be spent in vain, because your soil will not yield its crops, nor will the trees of the land yield their fruit.

Leviticus 26:21 “`If you remain hostile towards me and refuse to listen to me, I will multiply your afflictions seven times over, as your sins deserve.

Leviticus 26:22 I will send wild animals against you, and they will rob you of your children, destroy your cattle and make you so few in number that your roads will be deserted.

Leviticus 26:23 “`If in spite of these things you do not accept my correction but continue to be hostile towards me,

Leviticus 26:24 I myself will be hostile towards you and will afflict you for your sins seven times over.

Leviticus 26:25 And I will bring the sword upon you to avenge the breaking of the covenant. When you withdraw into your cities, I will send a plague among you, and you will be given into enemy hands.

Leviticus 26:26 When I cut off your supply of bread, ten women will be able to bake your bread in one oven, and they will dole out the bread by weight. You will eat, but you will not be satisfied.

Leviticus 26:27 “`If in spite of this you still do not listen to me but continue to be hostile towards me,

Leviticus 26:28 then in my anger I will be hostile towards you, and I myself will punish you for your sins seven times over.

Leviticus 26:29 You will eat the flesh of your sons and the flesh of your daughters.

Leviticus 26:30 I will destroy your high places, cut down your incense altars and pile your dead bodies on the lifeless forms of your idols, and I will abhor you.

Leviticus 26:31 I will turn your cities into ruins and lay waste your sanctuaries, and I will take no delight in the pleasing aroma of your offerings.

Leviticus 26:32 I will lay waste the land, so that your enemies who live there will be appalled.

Leviticus 26:33 I will scatter you among the nations and will draw out my sword and pursue you. Your land will be laid waste, and your cities will lie in ruins.

Leviticus 26:34 Then the land will enjoy its sabbath years all the time that it lies desolate and you are in the country of your enemies; then the land will rest and enjoy its sabbaths.

Leviticus 26:35 All the time that it lies desolate, the land will have the rest it did not have during the sabbaths you lived in it.

Leviticus 26:36 “`As for those of you who are left, I will make their hearts so fearful in the lands of their enemies that the sound of a wind-blown leaf will put them to flight. They will run as though fleeing from the sword, and they will fall, even though no-one is pursuing them.

Leviticus 26:37 They will stumble over one another as though fleeing from the sword, even though no-one is pursuing them. So you will not be able to stand before your enemies.

Leviticus 26:38 You will perish among the nations; the land of your enemies will devour you.

Leviticus 26:39 Those of you who are left will waste away in the lands of their enemies because of their sins; also because of their fathers’ sins they will waste away.

Leviticus 26:40 “`But if they will confess their sins and the sins of their fathers—their treachery against me and their hostility towards me,

Leviticus 26:41 which made me hostile towards them so that I sent them into the land of their enemies—then when their uncircumcised hearts are humbled and they pay for their sin,

Leviticus 26:42 I will remember my covenant with Jacob and my covenant with Isaac and my covenant with Abraham, and I will remember the land.

Leviticus 26:43 For the land will be deserted by them and will enjoy its sabbaths while it lies desolate without them. They will pay for their sins because they rejected my laws and abhorred my decrees.

Leviticus 26:44 Yet in spite of this, when they are in the land of their enemies, I will not reject them or abhor them so as to destroy them completely, breaking my covenant with them. I am the LORD their God.

Leviticus 26:45 But for their sake I will remember the covenant with their ancestors whom I brought out of Egypt in the sight of the nations to be their God. I am the LORD.’“

Leviticus 26:46 These are the decrees, the laws and the regulations that the LORD established on Mount Sinai between himself and the Israelites through Moses.

Leviticus 27:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Leviticus 27:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`If anyone makes a special vow to dedicate persons to the LORD by giving equivalent values,

Leviticus 27:3 set the value of a male between the ages of twenty and sixty at fifty shekels of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel;

Leviticus 27:4 and if it is a female, set her value at thirty shekels.

Leviticus 27:5 If it is a person between the ages of five and twenty, set the value of a male at twenty shekels and of a female at ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:6 If it is a person between one month and five years, set the value of a male at five shekels of silver and that of a female at three shekels of silver.

Leviticus 27:7 If it is a person sixty years old or more, set the value of a male at fifteen shekels and of a female at ten shekels.

Leviticus 27:8 If anyone making the vow is too poor to pay the specified amount, he is to present the person to the priest, who will set the value for him according to what the man making the vow can afford.

Leviticus 27:9 "`If what he vowed is an animal that is acceptable as an offering to the LORD, such an animal given to the LORD becomes holy.

Leviticus 27:10 He must not exchange it or substitute a good one for a bad one, or a bad one for a good one; if he should substitute one animal for another, both it and the substitute become holy.

Leviticus 27:11 If what he vowed is a ceremonially unclean animal—one that is not acceptable as an offering to the LORD—the animal must be presented to the priest,

Leviticus 27:12 who will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, that is what it will be.

Leviticus 27:13 If the owner wishes to redeem the animal, he must add a fifth to its value.

Leviticus 27:14 "`If a man dedicates his house as something holy to the LORD, the priest will judge its quality as good or bad. Whatever value the priest then sets, so it will remain.

Leviticus 27:15 If the man who dedicates his house redeems it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the house will again become his.

Leviticus 27:16 "`If a man dedicates to the LORD part of his family land, its value is to be set according to the amount of seed required for it—fifty shekels of silver to a homer of barley seed.

Leviticus 27:17 If he dedicates his field during the Year of Jubilee, the value that has been set remains.

Leviticus 27:18 But if he dedicates his field after the Jubilee, the priest will determine the value according to the number of years that remain until the next Year of Jubilee, and its set value will be reduced.

Leviticus 27:19 If the man who dedicates the field wishes to redeem it, he must add a fifth to its value, and the field will again become his.

Leviticus 27:20 If, however, he does not redeem the field, or if he has sold it to someone else, it can never be redeemed.

Leviticus 27:21 When the field is released in the Jubilee, it will become holy, like a field devoted to the LORD; it will become the property of the priests.

Leviticus 27:22 “`If a man dedicates to the LORD a field he has bought, which is not part of his family land,

Leviticus 27:23 the priest will determine its value up to the Year of Jubilee, and the man must pay its value on that day as something holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:24 In the Year of Jubilee the field will revert to the person from whom he bought it, the one whose land it was.

Leviticus 27:25 Every value is to be set according to the sanctuary shekel, twenty gerahs to the shekel.

Leviticus 27:26 “`No-one, however, may dedicate the firstborn of an animal, since the firstborn already belongs to the LORD; whether an ox or a sheep, it is the LORD’s.

Leviticus 27:27 If it is one of the unclean animals, he may buy it back at its set value, adding a fifth of the value to it. If he does not redeem it, it is to be sold at its set value.

Leviticus 27:28 “`But nothing that a man owns and devotes to the LORD—whether man or animal or family land— may be sold or redeemed; everything so devoted is most holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:29 “`No person devoted to destruction may be ransomed; he must be put to death.

Leviticus 27:30 “`A tithe of everything from the land, whether grain from the soil or fruit from the trees, belongs to the LORD; it is holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:31 If a man redeems any of his tithe, he must add a fifth of the value to it.

Leviticus 27:32 The entire tithe of the herd and flock—every tenth animal that passes under the shepherd’s rod—will be holy to the LORD.

Leviticus 27:33 He must not pick out the good from the bad or make any substitution. If he does make a substitution, both the animal and its substitute become holy and cannot be redeemed.’“

Leviticus 27:34 These are the commands the LORD gave Moses on Mount Sinai for the Israelites.

Numbers

1:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Tent of Meeting in the Desert of Sinai on the first day of the second month of the second year after the Israelites came out of Egypt. He said:

Numbers 1:2 “Take a census of the whole Israelite community by their clans and families, listing every man by name, one by one.

Numbers 1:3 You and Aaron are to number by their divisions all the men in Israel twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army.

Numbers 1:4 One man from each tribe, each the head of his family, is to help you.

Numbers 1:5 These are the names of the men who are to assist you: from Reuben, Elizur son of Shedeur;

Numbers 1:6 from Simeon, Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai;

Numbers 1:7 from Judah, Nahshon son of Amminadab;

Numbers 1:8 from Issachar, Nethanel son of Zuar;

Numbers 1:9 from Zebulun, Eliab son of Helon;

Numbers 1:10 from the sons of Joseph: from Ephraim, Elishama son of Ammihud; from Manasseh, Gamaliel son of Pedahzur;

Numbers 1:11 from Benjamin, Abidan son of Gideoni;

Numbers 1:12 from Dan, Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai;

Numbers 1:13 from Asher, Pagiel son of Ocran;

Numbers 1:14 from Gad, Eliasaph son of Deuel;

Numbers 1:15 from Naphtali, Ahira son of Enan.”

Numbers 1:16 These were the men appointed from the community, the leaders of their ancestral tribes. They were the heads of the clans of Israel.

Numbers 1:17 Moses and Aaron took these men whose names had been given,

Numbers 1:18 and they called the whole community together on the first day of the second month. The people indicated their ancestry by their clans and families, and the men twenty years old or more were listed by name, one by one,

Numbers 1:19 as the LORD commanded Moses. And so he counted them in the Desert of Sinai:

Numbers 1:20 From the descendants of Reuben the firstborn son of Israel: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:21 The number from the tribe of Reuben was 46,500.

Numbers 1:22 From the descendants of Simeon: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were counted and listed by name, one by one, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:23 The number from the tribe of Simeon was 59,300.

Numbers 1:24 From the descendants of Gad: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:25 The number from the tribe of Gad was 45,650.

Numbers 1:26 From the descendants of Judah: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:27 The number from the tribe of Judah was 74,600.

Numbers 1:28 From the descendants of Issachar: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:29 The number from the tribe of Issachar was 54,400.

Numbers 1:30 From the descendants of Zebulun: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:31 The number from the tribe of Zebulun was 57,400.

Numbers 1:32 From the sons of Joseph: From the descendants of Ephraim: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:33 The number from the tribe of Ephraim was 40,500.

Numbers 1:34 From the descendants of Manasseh: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:35 The number from the tribe of Manasseh was 32,200.

Numbers 1:36 From the descendants of Benjamin: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:37 The number from the tribe of Benjamin was 35,400.

Numbers 1:38 From the descendants of Dan: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:39 The number from the tribe of Dan was 62,700.

Numbers 1:40 From the descendants of Asher: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:41 The number from the tribe of Asher was 41,500.

Numbers 1:42 From the descendants of Naphtali: All the men twenty years old or more who were able to serve in the army were listed by name, according to the records of their clans and families.

Numbers 1:43 The number from the tribe of Naphtali was 53,400.

Numbers 1:44 These were the men counted by Moses and Aaron and the twelve leaders of Israel, each one representing his family.

Numbers 1:45 All the Israelites twenty years old or more who were able to serve in Israel's army were counted according to their families.

Numbers 1:46 The total number was 603,550.

Numbers 1:47 The families of the tribe of Levi, however, were not counted along with the others.

Numbers 1:48 The LORD had said to Moses:

Numbers 1:49 "You must not count the tribe of Levi or include them in the census of the other Israelites.

Numbers 1:50 Instead, appoint the Levites to be in charge of the tabernacle of the Testimony—over all its furnishings and everything belonging to it. They are to carry the tabernacle and all its furnishings; they are to take care of it and encamp round it.

Numbers 1:51 Whenever the tabernacle is to move, the Levites are to take it down, and whenever the tabernacle is to be set up, the Levites shall do it. Anyone else who goes near it shall be put to death.

Numbers 1:52 The Israelites are to set up their tents by divisions, each man in his own camp under his own standard.

Numbers 1:53 The Levites, however, are to set up their tents round the tabernacle of the Testimony so that wrath will not fall on the Israelite community. The Levites are to be responsible for the care of the tabernacle of the Testimony."

Numbers 1:54 The Israelites did all this just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Numbers 2:2 "The Israelites are to camp round the Tent of Meeting some distance from it, each man under his standard with the banners of his family."

Numbers 2:3 On the east, towards the sunrise, the divisions of the camp of Judah are to encamp under their standard. The leader of the people of Judah is Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Numbers 2:4 His division numbers 74,600.

Numbers 2:5 The tribe of Issachar will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Issachar is Nethanel son of Zuar.

Numbers 2:6 His division numbers 54,400.

Numbers 2:7 The tribe of Zebulun will be next. The leader of the people of Zebulun is Eliab son of Helon.

Numbers 2:8 His division numbers 57,400.

Numbers 2:9 All the men assigned to the camp of Judah, according to their divisions, number 186,400. They will set out first.

Numbers 2:10 On the south will be the divisions of the camp of Reuben under their standard. The leader of the people of Reuben is Elizur son of Shedeur.

Numbers 2:11 His division numbers 46,500.

Numbers 2:12 The tribe of Simeon will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Simeon is Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 2:13 His division numbers 59,300.

Numbers 2:14 The tribe of Gad will be next. The leader of the people of Gad is Eliasaph son of Deuel.

Numbers 2:15 His division numbers 45,650.

Numbers 2:16 All the men assigned to the camp of Reuben, according to their divisions, number 151,450. They will set out second.

Numbers 2:17 Then the Tent of Meeting and the camp of the Levites will set out in the middle of the camps. They will set out in the same order as they encamp, each in his own place under his standard.

Numbers 2:18 On the west will be the divisions of the camp of Ephraim under their standard. The leader of the people of Ephraim is Elishama son of Ammihud.

Numbers 2:19 His division numbers 40,500.

Numbers 2:20 The tribe of Manasseh will be next to them. The leader of the people of Manasseh is Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 2:21 His division numbers 32,200.

Numbers 2:22 The tribe of Benjamin will be next. The leader of the people of Benjamin is Abidan son of Gideoni.

Numbers 2:23 His division numbers 35,400.

Numbers 2:24 All the men assigned to the camp of Ephraim, according to their divisions, number 108,100. They will set out third.

Numbers 2:25 On the north will be the divisions of the camp of Dan, under their standard. The leader of the people of Dan is Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 2:26 His division numbers 62,700.

Numbers 2:27 The tribe of Asher will camp next to them. The leader of the people of Asher is Pagiel son of Ocran.

Numbers 2:28 His division numbers 41,500.

Numbers 2:29 The tribe of Naphtali will be next. The leader of the people of Naphtali is Ahira son of Enan.

Numbers 2:30 His division numbers 53,400.

Numbers 2:31 All the men assigned to the camp of Dan number 157,600. They will set out last, under their standards.

Numbers 2:32 These are the Israelites, counted according to their families. All those in the camps, by their divisions, number 603,550.

Numbers 2:33 The Levites, however, were not counted along with the other Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 2:34 So the Israelites did everything the LORD commanded Moses; that is the way they encamped under their standards, and that is the way they set out, each with his clan and family.

Numbers 3:1 This is the account of the family of Aaron and Moses at the time the LORD talked with Moses on Mount Sinai.

Numbers 3:2 The names of the sons of Aaron were Nadab the firstborn and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Numbers 3:3 Those were the names of Aaron’s sons, the anointed priests, who were ordained to serve as priests.

Numbers 3:4 Nadab and Abihu, however, fell dead before the LORD when they made an offering with unauthorised fire before him in the Desert of Sinai. They had no sons; so only Eleazar and Ithamar served as priests during the lifetime of their father Aaron.

Numbers 3:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 3:6 “Bring the tribe of Levi and present them to Aaron the priest to assist him.

Numbers 3:7 They are to perform duties for him and for the whole community at the Tent of Meeting by doing the work of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:8 They are to take care of all the furnishings of the Tent of Meeting, fulfilling the obligations of the Israelites by doing the work of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:9 Give the Levites to Aaron and his sons; they are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to him.

Numbers 3:10 Appoint Aaron and his sons to serve as priests; anyone else who approaches the sanctuary must be put to death.”

Numbers 3:11 The LORD also said to Moses,

Numbers 3:12 “I have taken the Levites from among the Israelites in place of the first male offspring of every Israelite woman. The Levites are mine, Numbers 3:13 for all the firstborn are mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set apart for myself every firstborn in Israel, whether man or animal. They are to be mine. I am the LORD.”

Numbers 3:14 The LORD said to Moses in the Desert of Sinai,

Numbers 3:15 “Count the Levites by their families and clans. Count every male a month old or more.”

Numbers 3:16 So Moses counted them, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

Numbers 3:17 These were the names of the sons of Levi: Gershon, Kohath and Merari.

Numbers 3:18 These were the names of the Gershonite clans: Libni and Shimei.

Numbers 3:19 The Kohathite clans: Amram, Izhar, Hebron and Uzziel.

Numbers 3:20 The Merarite clans: Mahli and Mushi. These were the Levite clans, according to their families.

Numbers 3:21 To Gershon belonged the clans of the Libnites and Shimeites; these were the Gershonite clans.

Numbers 3:22 The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 7,500.

Numbers 3:23 The Gershonite clans were to camp on the west, behind the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:24 The leader of the families of the Gershonites was Eliasaph son of Lael.

Numbers 3:25 At the Tent of Meeting the Gershonites were responsible for the care of the tabernacle and tent, its coverings, the curtain at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 3:26 the curtains of the courtyard, the curtain at the entrance to the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, and the ropes—and everything related to their use.

Numbers 3:27 To Kohath belonged the clans of the Amramites, Izharites, Hebronites and Uzzielites; these were the Kohathite clans.

Numbers 3:28 The number of all the males a month old or more was 8,600. The Kohathites were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:29 The Kohathite clans were to camp on the south side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:30 The leader of the families of the Kohathite clans was Elizaphan son of Uzziel.

Numbers 3:31 They were responsible for the care of the ark, the table, the lampstand, the altars, the articles of the sanctuary used in ministering, the curtain, and everything related to their use.

Numbers 3:32 The chief leader of the Levites was Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest. He was appointed over those who were responsible for the care of the sanctuary.

Numbers 3:33 To Merari belonged the clans of the Mahlites and the Mushites; these were the Merarite clans.

Numbers 3:34 The number of all the males a month old or more who were counted was 6,200.

Numbers 3:35 The leader of the families of the Merarite clans was Zuriel son of Abihail; they were to camp on the north side of the tabernacle.

Numbers 3:36 The Merarites were appointed to take care of the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts, bases, all its equipment, and everything related to their use,

Numbers 3:37 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs and ropes.

Numbers 3:38 Moses and Aaron and his sons were to camp to the east of the tabernacle, towards the sunrise, in front of the Tent of Meeting. They were responsible for the care of the sanctuary on behalf of the Israelites. Anyone else who approached the sanctuary was to be put to death.

Numbers 3:39 The total number of Levites counted at the LORD’s command by Moses and Aaron according to their clans, including every male a month old or more, was 22,000.

Numbers 3:40 The LORD said to Moses, “Count all the firstborn Israelite males who are a month old or more and make a list of their names.

Numbers 3:41 Take the Levites for me in place of all the firstborn of the Israelites, and the livestock of the Levites in place of all the firstborn of the livestock of the Israelites. I am the LORD.”

Numbers 3:42 So Moses counted all the firstborn of the Israelites, as the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 3:43 The total number of firstborn males a month old or more, listed by name, was 22,273.

Numbers 3:44 The LORD also said to Moses,

Numbers 3:45 “Take the Levites in place of all the firstborn of Israel, and the livestock of the Levites in place of their livestock. The Levites are to be mine. I am the LORD.

Numbers 3:46 To redeem the 273 firstborn Israelites who exceed the number of the Levites, Numbers 3:47 collect five shekels for each one, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Numbers 3:48 Give the money for the redemption of the additional Israelites to Aaron and his sons.”

Numbers 3:49 So Moses collected the redemption money from those who exceeded the number redeemed by the Levites.

Numbers 3:50 From the firstborn of the Israelites he collected silver weighing 1,365 shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Numbers 3:51 Moses gave the redemption money to Aaron and his sons, as he was commanded by the word of the LORD.

Numbers 4:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Numbers 4:2 “Take a census of the Kohathite branch of the Levites by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:3 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 4:4 “This is the work of the Kohathites in the Tent of Meeting: the care of the most holy things.

Numbers 4:5 When the camp is to move, Aaron and his sons are to go in and take down the shielding curtain and cover the ark of the Testimony with it.

Numbers 4:6 Then they are to cover this with hides of sea cows, spread a cloth of solid blue over that and put the poles in place.

Numbers 4:7 “Over the table of the Presence they are to spread a blue cloth and put on it the plates, dishes and bowls, and the jars for drink offerings; the bread that is continually there is to remain on it.

Numbers 4:8 Over these they are to spread a scarlet cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:9 “They are to take a blue cloth and cover the lampstand that is for light, together with its lamps, its wick trimmers and trays, and all its jars for the oil used to supply it.

Numbers 4:10 Then they are to wrap it and all its accessories in a covering of hides of sea cows and put it on a carrying frame.

Numbers 4:11 “Over the gold altar they are to spread a blue cloth and cover that with hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:12 “They are to take all the articles used for ministering in the sanctuary, wrap them in a blue cloth, cover that with hides of sea cows and put them on a carrying frame.

Numbers 4:13 “They are to remove the ashes from the bronze altar and spread a purple cloth over it.

Numbers 4:14 Then they are to place on it all the utensils used for ministering at the altar, including the firepans, meat forks, shovels and sprinkling bowls. Over it they are to spread a covering of hides of sea cows and put its poles in place.

Numbers 4:15 “After Aaron and his sons have finished covering the holy furnishings and all the holy articles, and when the camp is ready to move, the Kohathites are to come to do the carrying. But they must not touch the holy things or they will die. The Kohathites are to carry those things that are in the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 4:16 “Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, is to have charge of the oil for the light, the fragrant incense, the regular grain offering and the anointing oil. He is to be in charge of the entire tabernacle and everything in it, including its holy furnishings and articles.”

Numbers 4:17 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 4:18 “See that the Kohathite tribal clans are not cut off from the Levites.

Numbers 4:19 So that they may live and not die when they come near the most holy things, do this for them: Aaron and his sons are to go into the sanctuary and assign to each man his work and what he is to carry.

Numbers 4:20 But the Kohathites must not go in to look at the holy things, even for a moment, or they will die.”

Numbers 4:21 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 4:22 “Take a census also of the Gershonites by their families and clans.

Numbers 4:23 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 4:24 “This is the service of the Gershonite clans as they work and carry burdens:

Numbers 4:25 They are to carry the curtains of the tabernacle, the Tent of Meeting, its covering and the outer covering of hides of sea cows, the curtains for the entrance to the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 4:26 the curtains of the courtyard surrounding the tabernacle and altar, the curtain for the entrance, the ropes and all the equipment used in its service. The Gershonites are to do all that needs to be done with these things.

Numbers 4:27 All their service, whether carrying or doing other work, is to be done under the direction of Aaron and his sons. You shall assign to them as their responsibility all they are to carry.

Numbers 4:28 This is the service of the Gershonite clans at the Tent of Meeting. Their duties are to be under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Numbers 4:29 “Count the Merarites by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:30 Count all the men from thirty to fifty years of age who come to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 4:31 This is their duty as they perform service at the Tent of Meeting: to carry the frames of the tabernacle, its crossbars, posts and bases,

Numbers 4:32 as well as the posts of the surrounding courtyard with their bases, tent pegs, ropes, all their equipment and everything related to their use. Assign to each man the specific things he is to carry.

Numbers 4:33 This is the service of the Merarite clans as they work at the Tent of Meeting under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.”

Numbers 4:34 Moses, Aaron and the leaders of the community counted the Kohathites by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:35 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work in the Tent of Meeting, Numbers 4:36 counted by clans, were 2,750.

Numbers 4:37 This was the total of all those in the Kohathite clans who served in the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command through Moses.

Numbers 4:38 The Gershonites were counted by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:39 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 4:40 counted by their clans and families, were 2,630.

Numbers 4:41 This was the total of those in the Gershonite clans who served at the Tent of Meeting. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command.

Numbers 4:42 The Merarites were counted by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:43 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to serve in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 4:44 counted by their clans, were 3,200.

Numbers 4:45 This was the total of those in the Merarite clans. Moses and Aaron counted them according to the LORD’s command through Moses.

Numbers 4:46 So Moses, Aaron and the leaders of Israel counted all the Levites by their clans and families.

Numbers 4:47 All the men from thirty to fifty years of age who came to do the work of serving and carrying the Tent of Meeting

Numbers 4:48 numbered 8,580.

Numbers 4:49 At the LORD’s command through Moses, each was assigned his work and told what to carry. Thus they were counted, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 5:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 5:2 “Command the Israelites to send away from the camp anyone who has an infectious skin disease or a discharge of any kind, or who is ceremonially unclean because of a dead body.

Numbers 5:3 Send away male and female alike; send them outside the camp so that they will not defile their camp, where I dwell among them.”

Numbers 5:4 The Israelites did this; they sent them outside the camp. They did just as the LORD had instructed Moses.

Numbers 5:5 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 5:6 “Say to the Israelites:`When a man or woman wrongs another in any way and so is unfaithful to the LORD, that person is guilty

Numbers 5:7 and must confess the sin he has committed. He must make full restitution for his wrong, add one fifth to it and give it all to the person he has wronged.

Numbers 5:8 But if that person has no close relative to whom restitution can be made for the wrong, the restitution belongs to the LORD and must be given to the priest, along with the ram with which atonement is made for him.

Numbers 5:9 All the sacred contributions the Israelites bring to a priest will belong to him.

Numbers 5:10 Each man’s sacred gifts are his own, but what he gives to the priest will belong to the priest.’“

Numbers 5:11 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 5:12 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`If a man’s wife goes astray and is unfaithful to him

Numbers 5:13 by sleeping with another man, and this is hidden from her husband and her impurity is undetected (since there is no witness against her and she has not been caught in the act),

Numbers 5:14 and if feelings of jealousy come over her husband and he suspects his wife and she is impure—or if he is jealous and suspects her even though she is not impure—

Numbers 5:15 then he is to take his wife to the priest. He must also take an offering of a tenth of an ephah of barley flour on her behalf. He must not pour oil on it or put incense on it, because it is a grain offering for jealousy, a reminder offering to draw attention to guilt.

Numbers 5:16 “`The priest shall bring her and make her stand before the LORD.

Numbers 5:17 Then he shall take some holy water in a clay jar and put some dust from the tabernacle floor into the water.

Numbers 5:18 After the priest has made the woman stand before the LORD, he shall loosen her hair and place in her hands the reminder offering, the grain offering for jealousy, while he himself holds the bitter water that brings a curse.

Numbers 5:19 Then the priest shall put the woman under oath and say to her, “If no other man has slept with you and you have not gone astray and become impure while married to your husband, may this bitter water that brings a curse not harm you.

Numbers 5:20 But if you have gone astray while married to your husband and you have defiled yourself by sleeping with a man other than your husband”—

Numbers 5:21 here the priest is to put the woman under this curse of the oath—”may the LORD cause your people to curse and denounce you when he causes your thigh to waste away and your abdomen to swell.

Numbers 5:22 May this water that brings a curse enter your body so that your abdomen swells and your thigh wastes away.” “`Then the woman is to say, “Amen. So be it.”

Numbers 5:23 “`The priest is to write these curses on a scroll and then wash them off into the bitter water.

Numbers 5:24 He shall make the woman drink the bitter water that brings a curse, and this water will enter her and cause bitter suffering.

Numbers 5:25 The priest is to take from her hands the grain offering for jealousy, wave it before the LORD and bring it to the altar.

Numbers 5:26 The priest is then to take a handful of the grain offering as a memorial offering and burn it on the altar; after that, he is to make the woman drink the water.

Numbers 5:27 If she has defiled herself and been unfaithful to her husband, then when she is made to drink the water that brings a curse, it will go into her and cause bitter suffering; her abdomen will swell and her thigh waste away, and she will become accursed among her people.

Numbers 5:28 If, however, the woman has not defiled herself and is free from impurity, she will be cleared of guilt and will be able to have children.

Numbers 5:29 “`This, then, is the law of jealousy when a woman goes astray and defiles herself while married to her husband,

Numbers 5:30 or when feelings of jealousy come over a man because he suspects his wife. The priest is to make her stand before the LORD and is to apply this entire law to her.

Numbers 5:31 The husband will be innocent of any wrongdoing, but the woman will bear the consequences of her sin.’“

Numbers 6:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 6:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`If a man or woman wants to make a special vow, a vow of separation to the LORD as a Nazirite,

Numbers 6:3 he must abstain from wine and other fermented drink and must not drink vinegar made from wine or from other fermented drink. He must not drink grape juice or eat grapes or raisins.

Numbers 6:4 As long as he is a Nazirite, he must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, not even the seeds or skins.

Numbers 6:5 “`During the entire period of his vow of separation no razor may be used on his head. He must be holy until the period of his separation to the LORD is over; he must let the hair of his head grow long.

Numbers 6:6 Throughout the period of his separation to the LORD he must not go near a dead body.

Numbers 6:7 Even if his own father or mother or brother or sister dies, he must not make himself ceremonially unclean on account of them, because the symbol of his separation to God is on his head.

Numbers 6:8 Throughout the period of his separation he is consecrated to the LORD.

Numbers 6:9 “`If someone dies suddenly in his presence, thus defiling the hair he has dedicated, he must shave his head on the day of his cleansing—the seventh day.

Numbers 6:10 Then on the eighth day he must bring two doves or two young pigeons to the priest at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 6:11 The priest is to offer one as a sin offering and the other as a burnt offering to make atonement for him because he sinned by being in the presence of the dead body. That same day he is to consecrate his head.

Numbers 6:12 He must dedicate himself to the LORD for the period of his separation and must bring a year-old male lamb as a guilt offering. The previous days do not count, because he became defiled during his separation.

Numbers 6:13 “`Now this is the law for the Nazirite when the period of his separation is over. He is to be brought to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 6:14 There he is to present his offerings to the LORD: a year-old male lamb without defect for a burnt offering, a year-old ewe lamb without defect for a sin offering, a ram without defect for a fellowship offering,

Numbers 6:15 together with their grain offerings and drink offerings, and a basket of bread made without yeast—cakes made of fine flour mixed with oil, and wafers spread with oil.

Numbers 6:16 “`The priest is to present them before the LORD and make the sin offering and the burnt offering.

Numbers 6:17 He is to present the basket of unleavened bread and is to sacrifice the ram as a fellowship offering to the LORD, together with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 6:18 “`Then at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the Nazirite must shave off the hair that he dedicated. He is to take the hair and put it in the fire that is under the sacrifice of the fellowship offering.

Numbers 6:19 “`After the Nazirite has shaved off the hair of his dedication, the priest is to place in his hands a boiled shoulder of the ram, and a cake and a wafer from the basket, both made without yeast.

Numbers 6:20 The priest shall then wave them before the LORD as a wave offering; they are holy and belong to the priest, together with the breast that was waved and the thigh that was presented. After that, the Nazirite may drink wine.

Numbers 6:21 “`This is the law of the Nazirite who vows his offering to the LORD in accordance with his separation, in addition to whatever else he can afford. He must fulfil the vow he has made, according to the law of the Nazirite.’“

Numbers 6:22 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 6:23 “Tell Aaron and his sons,`This is how you are to bless the Israelites. Say to them:

Numbers 6:24 “`”The LORD bless you and keep you;

Numbers 6:25 the LORD make his face shine upon you and be gracious to you;

Numbers 6:26 the LORD turn his face towards you and give you peace.”‘

Numbers 6:27 “So they will put my name on the Israelites, and I will bless them.”

Numbers 7:1 When Moses finished setting up the tabernacle, he anointed it and consecrated it and all its furnishings. He also anointed and consecrated the altar and all its utensils.

Numbers 7:2 Then the leaders of Israel, the heads of families who were the tribal leaders in charge of those who were counted, made offerings.

Numbers 7:3 They brought as their gifts before the LORD six covered carts and twelve oxen—an ox from each leader and a cart from every two. These they presented before the tabernacle.

Numbers 7:4 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 7:5 “Accept these from them, that they may be used in the work at the Tent of Meeting. Give them to the Levites as each man’s work requires.”

Numbers 7:6 So Moses took the carts and oxen and gave them to the Levites.

Numbers 7:7 He gave two carts and four oxen to the Gershonites, as their work required,

Numbers 7:8 and he gave four carts and eight oxen to the Merarites, as their work required. They were all under the direction of Ithamar son of Aaron, the priest.

Numbers 7:9 But Moses did not give any to the Kohathites, because they were to carry on their shoulders the holy things, for which they were responsible.

Numbers 7:10 When the altar was anointed, the leaders brought their offerings for its dedication and presented them before the altar.

Numbers 7:11 For the LORD had said to Moses, “Each day one leader is to bring his offering for the dedication of the altar.”

Numbers 7:12 The one who brought his offering on the first day was Nahshon son of Amminadab of the tribe of Judah.

Numbers 7:13 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:14 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:15 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:16 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:17 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Nahshon son of Amminadab.

Numbers 7:18 On the second day Nethanel son of Zuar, the leader of Issachar, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:19 The offering he brought was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:20 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:21 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:22 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:23 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Nethanel son of Zuar.

Numbers 7:24 On the third day, Eliab son of Helon, the leader of the people of Zebulun, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:25 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:26 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:27 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:28 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:29 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Eliab son of Helon.

Numbers 7:30 On the fourth day Elizur son of Shedeur, the leader of the people of Reuben, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:31 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:32 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:33 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:34 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:35 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Elizur son of Shedeur.

Numbers 7:36 On the fifth day Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai, the leader of the people of Simeon, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:37 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:38 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:39 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:40 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:41 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai.

Numbers 7:42 On the sixth day Eliasaph son of Deuel, the leader of the people of Gad, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:43 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:44 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:45 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:46 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:47 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Eliasaph son of Deuel.

Numbers 7:48 On the seventh day Elishama son of Ammihud, the leader of the people of Ephraim, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:49 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:50 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:51 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:52 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:53 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Elishama son of Ammihud.

Numbers 7:54 On the eighth day Gamaliel son of Pedahzur, the leader of the people of Manasseh, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:55 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:56 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:57 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:58 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:59 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Gamaliel son of Pedahzur.

Numbers 7:60 On the ninth day Abidan son of Gideoni, the leader of the people of Benjamin, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:61 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:62 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:63 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:64 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:65 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Abidan son of Gideoni.

Numbers 7:66 On the tenth day Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai, the leader of the people of Dan, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:67 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:68 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:69 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:70 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:71 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai.

Numbers 7:72 On the eleventh day Pagiel son of Ocran, the leader of the people of Asher, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:73 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:74 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:75 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:76 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:77 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Pagiel son of Ocran.

Numbers 7:78 On the twelfth day Ahira son of Enan, the leader of the people of Naphtali, brought his offering.

Numbers 7:79 His offering was one silver plate weighing a hundred and thirty shekels, and one silver sprinkling bowl weighing seventy shekels, both according to the sanctuary shekel, each filled with fine flour mixed with oil as a grain offering;

Numbers 7:80 one gold dish weighing ten shekels, filled with incense;

Numbers 7:81 one young bull, one ram and one male lamb a year old, for a burnt offering;

Numbers 7:82 one male goat for a sin offering;

Numbers 7:83 and two oxen, five rams, five male goats and five male lambs a year old, to be sacrificed as a fellowship offering. This was the offering of Ahira son of Enan.

Numbers 7:84 These were the offerings of the Israelite leaders for the dedication of the altar when it was anointed: twelve silver plates, twelve silver sprinkling bowls and twelve gold dishes.

Numbers 7:85 Each silver plate weighed a hundred and thirty shekels, and each sprinkling bowl seventy shekels. Altogether, the silver dishes weighed two thousand four hundred shekels, according to the sanctuary shekel.

Numbers 7:86 The twelve gold dishes filled with incense weighed ten shekels each, according to the sanctuary shekel. Altogether, the gold dishes weighed a hundred and twenty shekels.

Numbers 7:87 The total number of animals for the burnt offering came to twelve young bulls, twelve rams and twelve male lambs a year old, together with their grain offering. Twelve male goats were used for the sin offering.

Numbers 7:88 The total number of animals for the sacrifice of the fellowship offering came to twenty-four oxen, sixty rams, sixty male goats and sixty male lambs a year old. These were the offerings for the dedication of the altar after it was anointed.

Numbers 7:89 When Moses entered the Tent of Meeting to speak with the LORD, he heard the voice speaking to him from between the two cherubim above the atonement cover on the ark of the Testimony. And he spoke with him.

Numbers 8:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 8:2 “Speak to Aaron and say to him,`When you set up the seven lamps, they are to light the area in front of the lampstand.’“

Numbers 8:3 Aaron did so; he set up the lamps so that they faced forward on the lampstand, just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:4 This is how the lampstand was made: It was made of hammered gold—from its base to its blossoms. The lampstand was made exactly like the pattern the LORD had shown Moses.

Numbers 8:5 The LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 8:6 “Take the Levites from among the other Israelites and make them ceremonially clean.

Numbers 8:7 To purify them, do this: Sprinkle the water of cleansing on them; then make them shave their whole bodies and wash their clothes, and so purify themselves.

Numbers 8:8 Make them take a young bull with its grain offering of fine flour mixed with oil; then you are to take a second young bull for a sin offering.

Numbers 8:9 Bring the Levites to the front of the Tent of Meeting and assemble the whole Israelite community.

Numbers 8:10 You are to bring the Levites before the LORD, and the Israelites are to lay their hands on them.

Numbers 8:11 Aaron is to present the Levites before the LORD as a wave offering from the Israelites, so that they may be ready to do the work of the LORD.

Numbers 8:12 “After the Levites lay their hands on the heads of the bulls, use the one for a sin offering to the LORD and the other for a burnt offering, to make atonement for the Levites.

Numbers 8:13 Make the Levites stand in front of Aaron and his sons and then present them as a wave offering to the LORD.

Numbers 8:14 In this way you are to set the Levites apart from the other Israelites, and the Levites will be mine.

Numbers 8:15 “After you have purified the Levites and presented them as a wave offering, they are to come to do their work at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 8:16 They are the Israelites who are to be given wholly to me. I have taken them as my own in place of the firstborn, the first male offspring from every Israelite woman.

Numbers 8:17 Every firstborn male in Israel, whether man or animal, is mine. When I struck down all the firstborn in Egypt, I set them apart for myself.

Numbers 8:18 And I have taken the Levites in place of all the firstborn sons in Israel.

Numbers 8:19 Of all the Israelites, I have given the Levites as gifts to Aaron and his sons to do the work at the Tent of Meeting on behalf of the Israelites and to make atonement for them so that no plague will strike the Israelites when they go near the sanctuary.”

Numbers 8:20 Moses, Aaron and the whole Israelite community did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:21 The Levites purified themselves and washed their clothes. Then Aaron presented them as a wave offering before the LORD and made atonement for them to purify them.

Numbers 8:22 After that, the Levites came to do their work at the Tent of Meeting under the supervision of Aaron and his sons. They did with the Levites just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 8:23 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 8:24 “This applies to the Levites: Men twenty-five years old or more shall come to take part in the work at the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 8:25 but at the age of fifty, they must retire from their regular service and work no longer.

Numbers 8:26 They may assist their brothers in performing their duties at the Tent of Meeting, but they themselves must not do the work. This, then, is how you are to assign the responsibilities of the Levites.”

Numbers 9:1 The LORD spoke to Moses in the Desert of Sinai in the first month of the second year after they came out of Egypt. He said, Numbers 9:2 “Make the Israelites celebrate the Passover at the appointed time.

Numbers 9:3 Celebrate it at the appointed time, at twilight on the fourteenth day of this month, in accordance with all its rules and regulations.”

Numbers 9:4 So Moses told the Israelites to celebrate the Passover,

Numbers 9:5 and they did so in the Desert of Sinai at twilight on the fourteenth day of the first month. The Israelites did everything just as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 9:6 But some of them could not celebrate the Passover on that day because they were ceremonially unclean on account of a dead body. So they came to Moses and Aaron that same day

Numbers 9:7 and said to Moses, “We have become unclean because of a dead body, but why should we be kept from presenting the LORD’s offering with the other Israelites at the appointed time?”

Numbers 9:8 Moses answered them, “Wait until I find out what the LORD commands concerning you.”

Numbers 9:9 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 9:10 “Tell the Israelites:`When any of you or your descendants are unclean because of a dead body or are away on a journey, they may still celebrate the LORD’s Passover.

Numbers 9:11 They are to celebrate it on the fourteenth day of the second month at twilight. They are to eat the lamb, together with unleavened bread and bitter herbs.

Numbers 9:12 They must not leave any of it till morning or break any of its bones. When they celebrate the Passover, they must follow all the regulations.

Numbers 9:13 But if a man who is ceremonially clean and not on a journey fails to celebrate the Passover, that person must be cut off from his people because he did not present the LORD’s offering at the appointed time. That man will bear the consequences of his sin.

Numbers 9:14 “`An alien living among you who wants to celebrate the LORD’s Passover must do so in accordance with its rules and regulations. You must have the same regulations for the alien and the native-born.’“

Numbers 9:15 On the day the tabernacle, the Tent of the Testimony, was set up, the cloud covered it. From evening till morning the cloud above the tabernacle looked like fire.

Numbers 9:16 That is how it continued to be; the cloud covered it, and at night it looked like fire.

Numbers 9:17 Whenever the cloud lifted from above the Tent, the Israelites set out; wherever the cloud settled, the Israelites encamped.

Numbers 9:18 At the LORD's command the Israelites set out, and at his command they encamped. As long as the cloud stayed over the tabernacle, they remained in camp.

Numbers 9:19 When the cloud remained over the tabernacle a long time, the Israelites obeyed the LORD's order and did not set out.

Numbers 9:20 Sometimes the cloud was over the tabernacle only a few days; at the LORD's command they would encamp, and then at his command they would set out.

Numbers 9:21 Sometimes the cloud stayed only from evening till morning, and when it lifted in the morning, they set out. Whether by day or by night, whenever the cloud lifted, they set out.

Numbers 9:22 Whether the cloud stayed over the tabernacle for two days or a month or a year, the Israelites would remain in camp and not set out; but when it lifted, they would set out.

Numbers 9:23 At the LORD's command they encamped, and at the LORD's command they set out. They obeyed the LORD's order, in accordance with his command through Moses.

Numbers 10:1 The LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 10:2 "Make two trumpets of hammered silver, and use them for calling the community together and for having the camps set out.

Numbers 10:3 When both are sounded, the whole community is to assemble before you at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 10:4 If only one is sounded, the leaders—the heads of the clans of Israel—are to assemble before you.

Numbers 10:5 When a trumpet blast is sounded, the tribes camping on the east are to set out.

Numbers 10:6 At the sounding of a second blast, the camps on the south are to set out. The blast will be the signal for setting out.

Numbers 10:7 To gather the assembly, blow the trumpets, but not with the same signal.

Numbers 10:8 "The sons of Aaron, the priests, are to blow the trumpets. This is to be a lasting ordinance for you and the generations to come.

Numbers 10:9 When you go into battle in your own land against an enemy who is oppressing you, sound a blast on the trumpets. Then you will be remembered by the LORD your God and rescued from your enemies.

Numbers 10:10 Also at your times of rejoicing—your appointed feasts and New Moon festivals—you are to sound the trumpets over your burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, and they will be a memorial for you before your God. I am the LORD your God."

Numbers 10:11 On the twentieth day of the second month of the second year, the cloud lifted from above the tabernacle of the Testimony.

Numbers 10:12 Then the Israelites set out from the Desert of Sinai and travelled from place to place until the cloud came to rest in the Desert of Paran.

Numbers 10:13 They set out, this first time, at the LORD's command through Moses.

Numbers 10:14 The divisions of the camp of Judah went first, under their standard. Nahshon son of Amminadab was in command.

Numbers 10:15 Nethanel son of Zuar was over the division of the tribe of Issachar, Numbers 10:16 and Eliab son of Helon was over the division of the tribe of Zebulun.

Numbers 10:17 Then the tabernacle was taken down, and the Gershonites and Merarites, who carried it, set out.

Numbers 10:18 The divisions of the camp of Reuben went next, under their standard. Elizur son of Shedeur was in command.

Numbers 10:19 Shelumiel son of Zurishaddai was over the division of the tribe of Simeon, Numbers 10:20 and Eliasaph son of Deuel was over the division of the tribe of Gad.

Numbers 10:21 Then the Kohathites set out, carrying the holy things. The tabernacle was to be set up before they arrived.

Numbers 10:22 The divisions of the camp of Ephraim went next, under their standard. Elishama son of Ammihud was in command.

Numbers 10:23 Gamaliel son of Pedahzur was over the division of the tribe of Manasseh, Numbers 10:24 and Abidan son of Gideoni was over the division of the tribe of Benjamin.

Numbers 10:25 Finally, as the rear guard for all the units, the divisions of the camp of Dan set out, under their standard. Ahiezer son of Ammishaddai was in command.

Numbers 10:26 Pagiel son of Ocran was over the division of the tribe of Asher, Numbers 10:27 and Ahira son of Enan was over the division of the tribe of Naphtali.

Numbers 10:28 This was the order of march for the Israelite divisions as they set out.

Numbers 10:29 Now Moses said to Hobab son of Reuel the Midianite, Moses' father-in-law, "We are setting out for the place about which the LORD said,`I will give it to you.' Come with us and we will treat you well, for the LORD has promised good things to Israel."

Numbers 10:30 He answered, "No, I will not go; I am going back to my own land and my own people."

Numbers 10:31 But Moses said, "Please do not leave us. You know where we should camp in the desert, and you can be our eyes.

Numbers 10:32 If you come with us, we will share with you whatever good things the LORD gives us."

Numbers 10:33 So they set out from the mountain of the LORD and travelled for three days. The ark of the covenant of the LORD went before them during those three days to find them a place to rest.

Numbers 10:34 The cloud of the LORD was over them by day when they set out from the camp.

Numbers 10:35 Whenever the ark set out, Moses said, "Rise up, O LORD! May your enemies be scattered; may your foes flee before you."

Numbers 10:36 Whenever it came to rest, he said, "Return, O LORD, to the countless thousands of Israel."

Numbers 11:1 Now the people complained about their hardships in the hearing of the LORD, and when he heard them his anger was aroused. Then fire from the LORD burned among them and consumed some of the outskirts of the camp.

Numbers 11:2 When the people cried out to Moses, he prayed to the LORD and the fire died down.

Numbers 11:3 So that place was called Taberah, because fire from the LORD had burned among them.

Numbers 11:4 The rabble with them began to crave other food, and again the Israelites started wailing and said, "If only we had meat to eat!

Numbers 11:5 We remember the fish we ate in Egypt at no cost—also the cucumbers, melons, leeks, onions and garlic.

Numbers 11:6 But now we have lost our appetite; we never see anything but this manna!"

Numbers 11:7 The manna was like coriander seed and looked like resin.

Numbers 11:8 The people went around gathering it, and then ground it in a hand mill or crushed it in a mortar. They cooked it in a pot or made it into cakes. And it tasted like something made with olive oil.

Numbers 11:9 When the dew settled on the camp at night, the manna also came down.

Numbers 11:10 Moses heard the people of every family wailing, each at the entrance to his tent. The LORD became exceedingly angry, and Moses was troubled.

Numbers 11:11 He asked the LORD, “Why have you brought this trouble on your servant? What have I done to displease you that you put the burden of all these people on me?

Numbers 11:12 Did I conceive all these people? Did I give them birth? Why do you tell me to carry them in my arms, as a nurse carries an infant, to the land you promised on oath to their forefathers?

Numbers 11:13 Where can I get meat for all these people? They keep wailing to me,`Give us meat to eat!’

Numbers 11:14 I cannot carry all these people by myself; the burden is too heavy for me.

Numbers 11:15 If this is how you are going to treat me, put me to death right now—if I have found favour in your eyes—and do not let me face my own ruin.”

Numbers 11:16 The LORD said to Moses: “Bring me seventy of Israel’s elders who are known to you as leaders and officials among the people. Make them come to the Tent of Meeting, that they may stand there with you.

Numbers 11:17 I will come down and speak with you there, and I will take of the Spirit that is on you and put the Spirit on them. They will help you carry the burden of the people so that you will not have to carry it alone.

Numbers 11:18 “Tell the people:`Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow, when you will eat meat. The LORD heard you when you wailed, “If only we had meat to eat! We were better off in Egypt!” Now the LORD will give you meat, and you will eat it.

Numbers 11:19 You will not eat it for just one day, or two days, or five, ten or twenty days, Numbers 11:20 but for a whole month—until it comes out of your nostrils and you loathe it—because you have rejected the LORD, who is among you, and have wailed before him, saying, “Why did we ever leave Egypt?”“

Numbers 11:21 But Moses said, “Here I am among six hundred thousand men on foot, and you say,`I will give them meat to eat for a whole month!’

Numbers 11:22 Would they have enough if flocks and herds were slaughtered for them? Would they have enough if all the fish in the sea were caught for them?”

Numbers 11:23 The LORD answered Moses, “Is the LORD’s arm too short? You will now see whether or not what I say will come true for you.”

Numbers 11:24 So Moses went out and told the people what the LORD had said. He brought together seventy of their elders and made them stand round the Tent.

Numbers 11:25 Then the LORD came down in the cloud and spoke with him, and he took of the Spirit that was on him and put the Spirit on the seventy elders. When the Spirit rested on them, they prophesied, but they did not do so again.

Numbers 11:26 However, two men, whose names were Eldad and Medad, had remained in the camp. They were listed among the elders, but did not go out to the Tent. Yet the Spirit also rested on them, and they prophesied in the camp.

Numbers 11:27 A young man ran and told Moses, “Eldad and Medad are prophesying in the camp.”

Numbers 11:28 Joshua son of Nun, who had been Moses’ assistant since youth, spoke up and said, “Moses, my lord, stop them!”

Numbers 11:29 But Moses replied, “Are you jealous for my sake? I wish that all the LORD’s people were prophets and that the LORD would put his Spirit on them!”

Numbers 11:30 Then Moses and the elders of Israel returned to the camp.

Numbers 11:31 Now a wind went out from the LORD and drove quail in from the sea. It brought them down all around the camp to about three feet above the ground, as far as a day’s walk in any direction.

Numbers 11:32 All that day and night and all the next day the people went out and gathered quail. No-one gathered less than ten homers. Then they spread them out all around the camp.

Numbers 11:33 But while the meat was still between their teeth and before it could be consumed, the anger of the LORD burned against the people, and he struck them with a severe plague.

Numbers 11:34 Therefore the place was named Kibroth Hattaavah, because there they buried the people who had craved other food.

Numbers 11:35 From Kibroth Hattaavah the people travelled to Hazeroth and stayed there.

Numbers 12:1 Miriam and Aaron began to talk against Moses because of his Cushite wife, for he had married a Cushite.

Numbers 12:2 “Has the LORD spoken only through Moses?” they asked. “Hasn’t he also spoken through us?” And the LORD heard this.

Numbers 12:3 (Now Moses was a very humble man, more humble than anyone else on the face of the earth.)

Numbers 12:4 At once the LORD said to Moses, Aaron and Miriam, “Come out to the Tent of Meeting, all three of you.” So the three of them came out.

Numbers 12:5 Then the LORD came down in a pillar of cloud; he stood at the entrance to the Tent and summoned Aaron and Miriam. When both of them stepped forward, Numbers 12:6 he said, “Listen to my words: “When a prophet of the LORD is among you, I reveal myself to him in visions, I speak to him in dreams.

Numbers 12:7 But this is not true of my servant Moses; he is faithful in all my house.

Numbers 12:8 With him I speak face to face, clearly and not in riddles; he sees the form of the LORD. Why then were you not afraid to speak against my servant Moses?”

Numbers 12:9 The anger of the LORD burned against them, and he left them.

Numbers 12:10 When the cloud lifted from above the Tent, there stood Miriam—leprous, like snow. Aaron turned towards her and saw that she had leprosy;

Numbers 12:11 and he said to Moses, “Please, my lord, do not hold against us the sin we have so foolishly committed.

Numbers 12:12 Do not let her be like a stillborn infant coming from its mother’s womb with its flesh half eaten away.”

Numbers 12:13 So Moses cried out to the LORD, “O God, please heal her!”

Numbers 12:14 The LORD replied to Moses, “If her father had spat in her face, would she not have been in disgrace for seven days? Confine her outside the camp for seven days; after that she can be brought back.”

Numbers 12:15 So Miriam was confined outside the camp for seven days, and the people did not move on till she was brought back.

Numbers 12:16 After that, the people left Hazeroth and encamped in the Desert of Paran.

Numbers 13:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 13:2 “Send some men to explore the land of Canaan, which I am giving to the Israelites. From each ancestral tribe send one of its leaders.”

Numbers 13:3 So at the LORD’s command Moses sent them out from the Desert of Paran. All of them were leaders of the Israelites.

Numbers 13:4 These are their names: from the tribe of Reuben, Shammua son of Zaccur;

Numbers 13:5 from the tribe of Simeon, Shaphat son of Hori;

Numbers 13:6 from the tribe of Judah, Caleb son of Jephunneh;

Numbers 13:7 from the tribe of Issachar, Igal son of Joseph;

Numbers 13:8 from the tribe of Ephraim, Hoshea son of Nun;

Numbers 13:9 from the tribe of Benjamin, Palti son of Raphu;

Numbers 13:10 from the tribe of Zebulun, Gaddiel son of Sodi;

Numbers 13:11 from the tribe of Manasseh (a tribe of Joseph), Gaddi son of Susi;

Numbers 13:12 from the tribe of Dan, Ammiel son of Gemalli;

Numbers 13:13 from the tribe of Asher, Sethur son of Michael;

Numbers 13:14 from the tribe of Naphtali, Nahbi son of Vophsi;

Numbers 13:15 from the tribe of Gad, Geuel son of Maki.

Numbers 13:16 These are the names of the men Moses sent to explore the land. (Moses gave Hoshea son of Nun the name Joshua.)

Numbers 13:17 When Moses sent them to explore Canaan, he said, “Go up through the Negev and on into the hill country.

Numbers 13:18 See what the land is like and whether the people who live there are strong or weak, few or many.

Numbers 13:19 What kind of land do they live in? Is it good or bad? What kind of towns do they live in? Are they unwalled or fortified?

Numbers 13:20 How is the soil? Is it fertile or poor? Are there trees on it or not? Do your best to bring back some of the fruit of the land.” (It was the season for the first ripe grapes.)

Numbers 13:21 So they went up and explored the land from the Desert of Zin as far as Rehob, towards Lebo Hamath.

Numbers 13:22 They went up through the Negev and came to Hebron, where Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai, the descendants of Anak, lived. (Hebron had been built seven years before Zoan in Egypt.)

Numbers 13:23 When they reached the Valley of Eshcol, they cut off a branch bearing a single cluster of grapes. Two of them carried it on a pole between them, along with some pomegranates and figs.

Numbers 13:24 That place was called the Valley of Eshcol because of the cluster of grapes the Israelites cut off there.

Numbers 13:25 At the end of forty days they returned from exploring the land.

Numbers 13:26 They came back to Moses and Aaron and the whole Israelite community at Kadesh in the Desert of Paran. There they reported to them and to the whole assembly and showed them the fruit of the land.

Numbers 13:27 They gave Moses this account: “We went into the land to which you sent us, and it does flow with milk and honey! Here is its fruit.

Numbers 13:28 But the people who live there are powerful, and the cities are fortified and very large. We even saw descendants of Anak there.

Numbers 13:29 The Amalekites live in the Negev; the Hittites, Jebusites and Amorites live in the hill country; and the Canaanites live near the sea and along the Jordan.”

Numbers 13:30 Then Caleb silenced the people before Moses and said, “We should go up and take possession of the land, for we can certainly do it.”

Numbers 13:31 But the men who had gone up with him said, “We can’t attack those people; they are stronger than we are.”

Numbers 13:32 And they spread among the Israelites a bad report about the land they had explored. They said, “The land we explored devours those living in it. All the people we saw there are of great size.

Numbers 13:33 We saw the Nephilim there (the descendants of Anak come from the Nephilim). We seemed like grasshoppers in our own eyes, and we looked the same to them.”

Numbers 14:1 That night all the people of the community raised their voices and wept aloud.

Numbers 14:2 All the Israelites grumbled against Moses and Aaron, and the whole assembly said to them, “If only we had died in Egypt! Or in this desert!

Numbers 14:3 Why is the LORD bringing us to this land only to let us fall by the sword? Our wives and children will be taken as plunder. Wouldn’t it be better for us to go back to Egypt?”

Numbers 14:4 And they said to each other, “We should choose a leader and go back to Egypt.”

Numbers 14:5 Then Moses and Aaron fell face down in front of the whole Israelite assembly gathered there.

Numbers 14:6 Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh, who were among those who had explored the land, tore their clothes

Numbers 14:7 and said to the entire Israelite assembly, “The land we passed through and explored is exceedingly good.

Numbers 14:8 If the LORD is pleased with us, he will lead us into that land, a land flowing with milk and honey, and will give it to us.

Numbers 14:9 Only do not rebel against the LORD. And do not be afraid of the people of the land, because we will swallow them up. Their protection is gone, but the LORD is with us. Do not be afraid of them.”

Numbers 14:10 But the whole assembly talked about stoning them. Then the glory of the LORD appeared at the Tent of Meeting to all the Israelites.

Numbers 14:11 The LORD said to Moses, “How long will these people treat me with contempt? How long will they refuse to believe in me, in spite of all the miraculous signs I have performed among them?

Numbers 14:12 I will strike them down with a plague and destroy them, but I will make you into a nation greater and stronger than they.”

Numbers 14:13 Moses said to the LORD, “Then the Egyptians will hear about it! By your power you brought these people up from among them.

Numbers 14:14 And they will tell the inhabitants of this land about it. They have already heard that you, O LORD, are with these people and that you, O LORD, have been seen face to face, that your cloud stays over them, and that you go before them in a pillar of cloud by day and a pillar of fire by night.

Numbers 14:15 If you put these people to death all at one time, the nations who have heard this report about you will say,

Numbers 14:16 `The LORD was not able to bring these people into the land he promised them on oath; so he slaughtered them in the desert.’

Numbers 14:17 “Now may the Lord’s strength be displayed, just as you have declared:

Numbers 14:18 `The LORD is slow to anger, abounding in love and forgiving sin and rebellion. Yet he does not leave the guilty unpunished; he punishes the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation.’

Numbers 14:19 In accordance with your great love, forgive the sin of these people, just as you have pardoned them from the time they left Egypt until now.”

Numbers 14:20 The LORD replied, “I have forgiven them, as you asked.

Numbers 14:21 Nevertheless, as surely as I live and as surely as the glory of the LORD fills the whole earth,

Numbers 14:22 not one of the men who saw my glory and the miraculous signs I performed in Egypt and in the desert but who disobeyed me and tested me ten times—

Numbers 14:23 not one of them will ever see the land I promised on oath to their forefathers. No-one who has treated me with contempt will ever see it.

Numbers 14:24 But because my servant Caleb has a different spirit and follows me wholeheartedly, I will bring him into the land he went to, and his descendants will inherit it.

Numbers 14:25 Since the Amalekites and Canaanites are living in the valleys, turn back tomorrow and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea.”

Numbers 14:26 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Numbers 14:27 “How long will this wicked community grumble against me? I have heard the complaints of these grumbling Israelites.

Numbers 14:28 So tell them,`As surely as I live, declares the LORD, I will do to you the very things I heard you say:

Numbers 14:29 In this desert your bodies will fall—every one of you twenty years old or more who was counted in the census and who has grumbled against me.

Numbers 14:30 Not one of you will enter the land I swore with uplifted hand to make your home, except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 14:31 As for your children that you said would be taken as plunder, I will bring them in to enjoy the land you have rejected.

Numbers 14:32 But you—your bodies will fall in this desert.

Numbers 14:33 Your children will be shepherds here for forty years, suffering for your unfaithfulness, until the last of your bodies lies in the desert.

Numbers 14:34 For forty years—one year for each of the forty days you explored the land—you will suffer for your sins and know what it is like to have me against you.’

Numbers 14:35 I, the LORD, have spoken, and I will surely do these things to this whole wicked community, which has banded together against me. They will meet their end in this desert; here they will die.”

Numbers 14:36 So the men Moses had sent to explore the land, who returned and made the whole community grumble against him by spreading a bad report about it—

Numbers 14:37 these men responsible for spreading the bad report about the land were struck down and died of a plague before the LORD.

Numbers 14:38 Of the men who went to explore the land, only Joshua son of Nun and Caleb son of Jephunneh survived.

Numbers 14:39 When Moses reported this to all the Israelites, they mourned bitterly.

Numbers 14:40 Early the next morning they went up towards the high hill country. “We have sinned,” they said. “We will go up to the place the LORD promised.”

Numbers 14:41 But Moses said, “Why are you disobeying the LORD’s command? This will not succeed!

Numbers 14:42 Do not go up, because the LORD is not with you. You will be defeated by your enemies, Numbers 14:43 for the Amalekites and Canaanites will face you there. Because you have turned away from the LORD, he will not be with you and you will fall by the sword.”

Numbers 14:44 Nevertheless, in their presumption they went up towards the high hill country, though neither Moses nor the ark of the LORD’s covenant moved from the camp.

Numbers 14:45 Then the Amalekites and Canaanites who lived in that hill country came down and attacked them and beat them down all the way to Hormah.

Numbers 15:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:2 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`After you enter the land I am giving you as a home

Numbers 15:3 and you present to the LORD offerings made by fire, from the herd or the flock, as an aroma pleasing to the LORD— whether burnt offerings or sacrifices, for special vows or freewill offerings or festival offerings—

Numbers 15:4 then the one who brings his offering shall present to the LORD a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil.

Numbers 15:5 With each lamb for the burnt offering or the sacrifice, prepare a quarter of a hin of wine as a drink offering.

Numbers 15:6 “`With a ram prepare a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a third of a hin of oil,

Numbers 15:7 and a third of a hin of wine as a drink offering. Offer it as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 15:8 “`When you prepare a young bull as a burnt offering or sacrifice, for a special vow or a fellowship offering to the LORD,

Numbers 15:9 bring with the bull a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with half a hin of oil.

Numbers 15:10 Also bring half a hin of wine as a drink offering. It will be an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 15:11 Each bull or ram, each lamb or young goat, is to be prepared in this manner.

Numbers 15:12 Do this for each one, for as many as you prepare.

Numbers 15:13 “`Everyone who is native-born must do these things in this way when he brings an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 15:14 For the generations to come, whenever an alien or anyone else living among you presents an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, he must do exactly as you do.

Numbers 15:15 The community is to have the same rules for you and for the alien living among you; this is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. You and the alien shall be the same before the LORD:

Numbers 15:16 The same laws and regulations will apply both to you and to the alien living among you.'"

Numbers 15:17 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:18 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When you enter the land to which I am taking you

Numbers 15:19 and you eat the food of the land, present a portion as an offering to the LORD.

Numbers 15:20 Present a cake from the first of your ground meal and present it as an offering from the threshing-floor.

Numbers 15:21 Throughout the generations to come you are to give this offering to the LORD from the first of your ground meal.

Numbers 15:22 "`Now if you unintentionally fail to keep any of these commands the LORD gave Moses—

Numbers 15:23 any of the LORD's commands to you through him, from the day the LORD gave them and continuing through the generations to come—

Numbers 15:24 and if this is done unintentionally without the community being aware of it, then the whole community is to offer a young bull for a burnt offering as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, along with its prescribed grain offering and drink offering, and a male goat for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:25 The priest is to make atonement for the whole Israelite community, and they will be forgiven, for it was not intentional and they have brought to the LORD for their wrong an offering made by fire and a sin offering.

Numbers 15:26 The whole Israelite community and the aliens living among them will be forgiven, because all the people were involved in the unintentional wrong.

Numbers 15:27 "`But if just one person sins unintentionally, he must bring a year-old female goat for a sin offering.

Numbers 15:28 The priest is to make atonement before the LORD for the one who erred by sinning unintentionally, and when atonement has been made for him, he will be forgiven.

Numbers 15:29 One and the same law applies to everyone who sins unintentionally, whether he is a native-born Israelite or an alien.

Numbers 15:30 "`But anyone who sins defiantly, whether native-born or alien, blasphemes the LORD, and that person must be cut off from his people.

Numbers 15:31 Because he has despised the LORD's word and broken his commands, that person must surely be cut off; his guilt remains on him.'"

Numbers 15:32 While the Israelites were in the desert, a man was found gathering wood on the Sabbath day.

Numbers 15:33 Those who found him gathering wood brought him to Moses and Aaron and the whole assembly,

Numbers 15:34 and they kept him in custody, because it was not clear what should be done to him.

Numbers 15:35 Then the LORD said to Moses, "The man must die. The whole assembly must stone him outside the camp."

Numbers 15:36 So the assembly took him outside the camp and stoned him to death, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 15:37 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 15:38 "Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`Throughout the generations to come you are to make tassels on the corners of your garments, with a blue cord on each tassel.

Numbers 15:39 You will have these tassels to look at and so you will remember all the commands of the LORD, that you may obey them and not prostitute yourselves by going after the lusts of your own hearts and eyes.

Numbers 15:40 Then you will remember to obey all my commands and will be consecrated to your God.

Numbers 15:41 I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt to be your God. I am the LORD your God.'"

Numbers 16:1 Korah son of Izhar, the son of Kohath, the son of Levi, and certain Reubenites—Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab, and On son of Peleth—became insolent

Numbers 16:2 and rose up against Moses. With them were 250 Israelite men, well-known community leaders who had been appointed members of the council.

Numbers 16:3 They came as a group to oppose Moses and Aaron and said to them, "You have gone too far! The whole community is holy, every one of them, and the LORD is with them. Why then do you set yourselves above the LORD's assembly?"

Numbers 16:4 When Moses heard this, he fell face down.

Numbers 16:5 Then he said to Korah and all his followers: "In the morning the LORD will show who belongs to him and who is holy, and he will make that person come near him. The man he chooses he will cause to come near him.

Numbers 16:6 You, Korah, and all your followers are to do this: Take censers

Numbers 16:7 and tomorrow put fire and incense in them before the LORD. The man the LORD chooses will be the one who is holy. You Levites have gone too far!"

Numbers 16:8 Moses also said to Korah, “Now listen, you Levites!

Numbers 16:9 Isn’t it enough for you that the God of Israel has separated you from the rest of the Israelite community and brought you near himself to do the work at the LORD’s tabernacle and to stand before the community and minister to them?

Numbers 16:10 He has brought you and all your fellow Levites near himself, but now you are trying to get the priesthood too.

Numbers 16:11 It is against the LORD that you and all your followers have banded together. Who is Aaron that you should grumble against him?”

Numbers 16:12 Then Moses summoned Dathan and Abiram, the sons of Eliab. But they said, “We will not come!

Numbers 16:13 Isn’t it enough that you have brought us up out of a land flowing with milk and honey to kill us in the desert? And now you also want to lord it over us?

Numbers 16:14 Moreover, you haven’t brought us into a land flowing with milk and honey or given us an inheritance of fields and vineyards. Will you gouge out the eyes of these men? No, we will not come!”

Numbers 16:15 Then Moses became very angry and said to the LORD, “Do not accept their offering. I have not taken so much as a donkey from them, nor have I wronged any of them.”

Numbers 16:16 Moses said to Korah, “You and all your followers are to appear before the LORD tomorrow—you and they and Aaron.

Numbers 16:17 Each man is to take his censer and put incense in it— 250 censers in all—and present it before the LORD. You and Aaron are to present your censers also.”

Numbers 16:18 So each man took his censer, put fire and incense in it, and stood with Moses and Aaron at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 16:19 When Korah had gathered all his followers in opposition to them at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, the glory of the LORD appeared to the entire assembly.

Numbers 16:20 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron,

Numbers 16:21 “Separate yourselves from this assembly so that I can put an end to them at once.”

Numbers 16:22 But Moses and Aaron fell face down and cried out, “O God, God of the spirits of all mankind, will you be angry with the entire assembly when only one man sins?”

Numbers 16:23 Then the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:24 “Say to the assembly,`Move away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram.’“

Numbers 16:25 Moses got up and went to Dathan and Abiram, and the elders of Israel followed him.

Numbers 16:26 He warned the assembly, “Move back from the tents of these wicked men! Do not touch anything belonging to them, or you will be swept away because of all their sins.”

Numbers 16:27 So they moved away from the tents of Korah, Dathan and Abiram. Dathan and Abiram had come out and were standing with their wives, children and little ones at the entrances to their tents.

Numbers 16:28 Then Moses said, “This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it was not my idea:

Numbers 16:29 If these men die a natural death and experience only what usually happens to men, then the LORD has not sent me.

Numbers 16:30 But if the LORD brings about something totally new, and the earth opens its mouth and swallows them, with everything that belongs to them, and they go down alive into the grave, then you will know that these men have treated the LORD with contempt.”

Numbers 16:31 As soon as he finished saying all this, the ground under them split apart

Numbers 16:32 and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed them, with their households and all Korah’s men and all their possessions.

Numbers 16:33 They went down alive into the grave, with everything they owned; the earth closed over them, and they perished and were gone from the community.

Numbers 16:34 At their cries, all the Israelites around them fled, shouting, “The earth is going to swallow us too!”

Numbers 16:35 And fire came out from the LORD and consumed the 250 men who were offering the incense.

Numbers 16:36 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:37 “Tell Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest, to take the censers out of the smouldering remains and scatter the coals some distance away, for the censers are holy—

Numbers 16:38 the censers of the men who sinned at the cost of their lives. Hammer the censers into sheets to overlay the altar, for they were presented before the LORD and have become holy. Let them be a sign to the Israelites.”

Numbers 16:39 So Eleazar the priest collected the bronze censers brought by those who had been burned up, and he had them hammered out to overlay the altar,

Numbers 16:40 as the LORD directed him through Moses. This was to remind the Israelites that no-one except a descendant of Aaron should come to burn incense before the LORD, or he would become like Korah and his followers.

Numbers 16:41 The next day the whole Israelite community grumbled against Moses and Aaron. “You have killed the LORD’s people,” they said.

Numbers 16:42 But when the assembly gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron and turned towards the Tent of Meeting, suddenly the cloud covered it and the glory of the LORD appeared.

Numbers 16:43 Then Moses and Aaron went to the front of the Tent of Meeting,

Numbers 16:44 and the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 16:45 “Get away from this assembly so that I can put an end to them at once.” And they fell face down.

Numbers 16:46 Then Moses said to Aaron, “Take your censer and put incense in it, along with fire from the altar, and hurry to the assembly to make atonement for them. Wrath has come out from the LORD; the plague has started.”

Numbers 16:47 So Aaron did as Moses said, and ran into the midst of the assembly. The plague had already started among the people, but Aaron offered the incense and made atonement for them.

Numbers 16:48 He stood between the living and the dead, and the plague stopped.

Numbers 16:49 But 14,700 people died from the plague, in addition to those who had died because of Korah.

Numbers 16:50 Then Aaron returned to Moses at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting, for the plague had stopped.

Numbers 17:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 17:2 “Speak to the Israelites and get twelve staffs from them, one from the leader of each of their ancestral tribes. Write the name of each man on his staff.

Numbers 17:3 On the staff of Levi write Aaron’s name, for there must be one staff for the head of each ancestral tribe.

Numbers 17:4 Place them in the Tent of Meeting in front of the Testimony, where I meet with you.

Numbers 17:5 The staff belonging to the man I choose will sprout, and I will rid myself of this constant grumbling against you by the Israelites.”

Numbers 17:6 So Moses spoke to the Israelites, and their leaders gave him twelve staffs, one for the leader of each of their ancestral tribes, and Aaron’s staff was among them.

Numbers 17:7 Moses placed the staffs before the LORD in the Tent of the Testimony.

Numbers 17:8 The next day Moses entered the Tent of the Testimony and saw that Aaron's staff, which represented the house of Levi, had not only sprouted but had budded, blossomed and produced almonds.

Numbers 17:9 Then Moses brought out all the staffs from the LORD's presence to all the Israelites. They looked at them, and each man took his own staff.

Numbers 17:10 The LORD said to Moses, "Put back Aaron's staff in front of the Testimony, to be kept as a sign to the rebellious. This will put an end to their grumbling against me, so that they will not die."

Numbers 17:11 Moses did just as the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 17:12 The Israelites said to Moses, "We shall die! We are lost, we are all lost!

Numbers 17:13 Anyone who even comes near the tabernacle of the LORD will die. Are we all going to die?"

Numbers 18:1 The LORD said to Aaron, "You, your sons and your father's family are to bear the responsibility for offences against the sanctuary, and you and your sons alone are to bear the responsibility for offences against the priesthood.

Numbers 18:2 Bring your fellow Levites from your ancestral tribe to join you and assist you when you and your sons minister before the Tent of the Testimony.

Numbers 18:3 They are to be responsible to you and are to perform all the duties of the Tent, but they must not go near the furnishings of the sanctuary or the altar, or both they and you will die.

Numbers 18:4 They are to join you and be responsible for the care of the Tent of Meeting—all the work at the Tent—and no-one else may come near where you are.

Numbers 18:5 "You are to be responsible for the care of the sanctuary and the altar, so that wrath will not fall on the Israelites again.

Numbers 18:6 I myself have selected your fellow Levites from among the Israelites as a gift to you, dedicated to the LORD to do the work at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 18:7 But only you and your sons may serve as priests in connection with everything at the altar and inside the curtain. I am giving you the service of the priesthood as a gift. Anyone else who comes near the sanctuary must be put to death."

Numbers 18:8 Then the LORD said to Aaron, "I myself have put you in charge of the offerings presented to me; all the holy offerings the Israelites give me I give to you and your sons as your portion and regular share.

Numbers 18:9 You are to have the part of the most holy offerings that is kept from the fire. From all the gifts they bring me as most holy offerings, whether grain or sin or guilt offerings, that part belongs to you and your sons.

Numbers 18:10 Eat it as something most holy; every male shall eat it. You must regard it as holy.

Numbers 18:11 “This also is yours: whatever is set aside from the gifts of all the wave offerings of the Israelites. I give this to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:12 “I give you all the finest olive oil and all the finest new wine and grain they give to the LORD as the firstfruits of their harvest.

Numbers 18:13 All the land’s firstfruits that they bring to the LORD will be yours. Everyone in your household who is ceremonially clean may eat it.

Numbers 18:14 “Everything in Israel that is devoted to the LORD is yours.

Numbers 18:15 The first offspring of every womb, both man and animal, that is offered to the LORD is yours. But you must redeem every firstborn son and every firstborn male of unclean animals.

Numbers 18:16 When they are a month old, you must redeem them at the redemption price set at five shekels of silver, according to the sanctuary shekel, which weighs twenty gerahs.

Numbers 18:17 “But you must not redeem the firstborn of an ox, a sheep or a goat; they are holy. Sprinkle their blood on the altar and burn their fat as an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 18:18 Their meat is to be yours, just as the breast of the wave offering and the right thigh are yours.

Numbers 18:19 Whatever is set aside from the holy offerings the Israelites present to the LORD I give to you and your sons and daughters as your regular share. It is an everlasting covenant of salt before the LORD for both you and your offspring.”

Numbers 18:20 The LORD said to Aaron, “You will have no inheritance in their land, nor will you have any share among them; I am your share and your inheritance among the Israelites.

Numbers 18:21 “I give to the Levites all the tithes in Israel as their inheritance in return for the work they do while serving at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 18:22 From now on the Israelites must not go near the Tent of Meeting, or they will bear the consequences of their sin and will die.

Numbers 18:23 It is the Levites who are to do the work at the Tent of Meeting and bear the responsibility for offences against it. This is a lasting ordinance for the generations to come. They will receive no inheritance among the Israelites.

Numbers 18:24 Instead, I give to the Levites as their inheritance the tithes that the Israelites present as an offering to the LORD. That is why I said concerning them:`They will have no inheritance among the Israelites.'"

Numbers 18:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 18:26 "Speak to the Levites and say to them:`When you receive from the Israelites the tithe I give you as your inheritance, you must present a tenth of that tithe as the LORD's offering.

Numbers 18:27 Your offering will be reckoned to you as grain from the threshing-floor or juice from the winepress.

Numbers 18:28 In this way you also will present an offering to the LORD from all the tithes you receive from the Israelites. From these tithes you must give the LORD's portion to Aaron the priest.

Numbers 18:29 You must present as the LORD's portion the best and holiest part of everything given to you.'

Numbers 18:30 "Say to the Levites:`When you present the best part, it will be reckoned to you as the product of the threshing-floor or the winepress.

Numbers 18:31 You and your households may eat the rest of it anywhere, for it is your wages for your work at the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 18:32 By presenting the best part of it you will not be guilty in this matter; then you will not defile the holy offerings of the Israelites, and you will not die.'"

Numbers 19:1 The LORD said to Moses and Aaron:

Numbers 19:2 "This is a requirement of the law that the LORD has commanded: Tell the Israelites to bring you a red heifer without defect or blemish and that has never been under a yoke.

Numbers 19:3 Give it to Eleazar the priest; it is to be taken outside the camp and slaughtered in his presence.

Numbers 19:4 Then Eleazar the priest is to take some of its blood on his finger and sprinkle it seven times towards the front of the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 19:5 While he watches, the heifer is to be burned—its hide, flesh, blood and offal.

Numbers 19:6 The priest is to take some cedar wood, hyssop and scarlet wool and throw them onto the burning heifer.

Numbers 19:7 After that, the priest must wash his clothes and bathe himself with water. He may then come into the camp, but he will be ceremonially unclean till evening.

Numbers 19:8 The man who burns it must also wash his clothes and bathe with water, and he too will be unclean till evening.

Numbers 19:9 “A man who is clean shall gather up the ashes of the heifer and put them in a ceremonially clean place outside the camp. They shall be kept by the Israelite community for use in the water of cleansing; it is for purification from sin.

Numbers 19:10 The man who gathers up the ashes of the heifer must also wash his clothes, and he too will be unclean till evening. This will be a lasting ordinance both for the Israelites and for the aliens living among them.

Numbers 19:11 “Whoever touches the dead body of anyone will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:12 He must purify himself with the water on the third day and on the seventh day; then he will be clean. But if he does not purify himself on the third and seventh days, he will not be clean.

Numbers 19:13 Whoever touches the dead body of anyone and fails to purify himself defiles the LORD’s tabernacle. That person must be cut off from Israel. Because the water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, he is unclean; his uncleanness remains on him.

Numbers 19:14 “This is the law that applies when a person dies in a tent: Anyone who enters the tent and anyone who is in it will be unclean for seven days, Numbers 19:15 and every open container without a lid fastened on it will be unclean.

Numbers 19:16 “Anyone out in the open who touches someone who has been killed with a sword or someone who has died a natural death, or anyone who touches a human bone or a grave, will be unclean for seven days.

Numbers 19:17 “For the unclean person, put some ashes from the burned purification offering into a jar and pour fresh water over them.

Numbers 19:18 Then a man who is ceremonially clean is to take some hyssop, dip it in the water and sprinkle the tent and all the furnishings and the people who were there. He must also sprinkle anyone who has touched a human bone or a grave or someone who has been killed or someone who has died a natural death.

Numbers 19:19 The man who is clean is to sprinkle the unclean person on the third and seventh days, and on the seventh day he is to purify him. The person being cleansed must wash his clothes and bathe with water, and that evening he will be clean.

Numbers 19:20 But if a person who is unclean does not purify himself, he must be cut off from the community, because he has defiled the sanctuary of the LORD. The water of cleansing has not been sprinkled on him, and he is unclean.

Numbers 19:21 This is a lasting ordinance for them. “The man who sprinkles the water of cleansing must also wash his clothes, and anyone who touches the water of cleansing will be unclean till evening.

Numbers 19:22 Anything that an unclean person touches becomes unclean, and anyone who touches it becomes unclean till evening.”

Numbers 20:1 In the first month the whole Israelite community arrived at the Desert of Zin, and they stayed at Kadesh. There Miriam died and was buried.

Numbers 20:2 Now there was no water for the community, and the people gathered in opposition to Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 20:3 They quarrelled with Moses and said, “If only we had died when our brothers fell dead before the LORD!

Numbers 20:4 Why did you bring the LORD’s community into this desert, that we and our livestock should die here?

Numbers 20:5 Why did you bring us up out of Egypt to this terrible place? It has no grain or figs, grapevines or pomegranates. And there is no water to drink!”

Numbers 20:6 Moses and Aaron went from the assembly to the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and fell face down, and the glory of the LORD appeared to them.

Numbers 20:7 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 20:8 “Take the staff, and you and your brother Aaron gather the assembly together. Speak to that rock before their eyes and it will pour out its water. You will bring water out of the rock for the community so that they and their livestock can drink.”

Numbers 20:9 So Moses took the staff from the LORD’s presence, just as he commanded him.

Numbers 20:10 He and Aaron gathered the assembly together in front of the rock and Moses said to them, “Listen, you rebels, must we bring you water out of this rock?”

Numbers 20:11 Then Moses raised his arm and struck the rock twice with his staff. Water gushed out, and the community and their livestock drank.

Numbers 20:12 But the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, “Because you did not trust in me enough to honour me as holy in the sight of the Israelites, you will not bring this community into the land I give them.”

Numbers 20:13 These were the waters of Meribah, where the Israelites quarrelled with the LORD and where he showed himself holy among them.

Numbers 20:14 Moses sent messengers from Kadesh to the king of Edom, saying: “This is what your brother Israel says: You know about all the hardships that have come upon us.

Numbers 20:15 Our forefathers went down into Egypt, and we lived there many years. The Egyptians ill-treated us and our fathers, Numbers 20:16 but when we cried out to the LORD, he heard our cry and sent an angel and brought us out of Egypt. “Now we are here at Kadesh, a town on the edge of your territory.

Numbers 20:17 Please let us pass through your country. We will not go through any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king’s highway and not turn to the right or to the left until we have passed through your territory.”

Numbers 20:18 But Edom answered: “You may not pass through here; if you try, we will march out and attack you with the sword.”

Numbers 20:19 The Israelites replied: “We will go along the main road, and if we or our livestock drink any of your water, we will pay for it. We only want to pass through on foot—nothing else.”

Numbers 20:20 Again they answered: “You may not pass through.” Then Edom came out against them with a large and powerful army.

Numbers 20:21 Since Edom refused to let them go through their territory, Israel turned away from them.

Numbers 20:22 The whole Israelite community set out from Kadesh and came to Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:23 At Mount Hor, near the border of Edom, the LORD said to Moses and Aaron, Numbers 20:24 “Aaron will be gathered to his people. He will not enter the land I give the Israelites, because both of you rebelled against my command at the waters of Meribah.

Numbers 20:25 Call Aaron and his son Eleazar and take them up Mount Hor.

Numbers 20:26 Remove Aaron’s garments and put them on his son Eleazar, for Aaron will be gathered to his people; he will die there.”

Numbers 20:27 Moses did as the LORD commanded: They went up Mount Hor in the sight of the whole community.

Numbers 20:28 Moses removed Aaron’s garments and put them on his son Eleazar. And Aaron died there on top of the mountain. Then Moses and Eleazar came down from the mountain, Numbers 20:29 and when the whole community learned that Aaron had died, the entire house of Israel mourned for him thirty days.

Numbers 21:1 When the Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev, heard that Israel was coming along the road to Atharim, he attacked the Israelites and captured some of them.

Numbers 21:2 Then Israel made this vow to the LORD: “If you will deliver these people into our hands, we will totally destroy their cities.”

Numbers 21:3 The LORD listened to Israel's plea and gave the Canaanites over to them. They completely destroyed them and their towns; so the place was named Hormah.

Numbers 21:4 They travelled from Mount Hor along the route to the Red Sea, to go round Edom. But the people grew impatient on the way;

Numbers 21:5 they spoke against God and against Moses, and said, "Why have you brought us up out of Egypt to die in the desert? There is no bread! There is no water! And we detest this miserable food!"

Numbers 21:6 Then the LORD sent venomous snakes among them; they bit the people and many Israelites died.

Numbers 21:7 The people came to Moses and said, "We sinned when we spoke against the LORD and against you. Pray that the LORD will take the snakes away from us." So Moses prayed for the people.

Numbers 21:8 The LORD said to Moses, "Make a snake and put it up on a pole; anyone who is bitten can look at it and live."

Numbers 21:9 So Moses made a bronze snake and put it up on a pole. Then when anyone was bitten by a snake and looked at the bronze snake, he lived.

Numbers 21:10 The Israelites moved on and camped at Oboth.

Numbers 21:11 Then they set out from Oboth and camped in Iye Abarim, in the desert that faces Moab towards the sunrise.

Numbers 21:12 From there they moved on and camped in the Zered Valley.

Numbers 21:13 They set out from there and camped alongside the Arnon, which is in the desert extending into Amorite territory. The Arnon is the border of Moab, between Moab and the Amorites.

Numbers 21:14 That is why the Book of the Wars of the LORD says:"...Waheb in Suphah and the ravines, the Arnon Numbers 21:15 and the slopes of the ravines that lead to the site of Ar and lie along the border of Moab."

Numbers 21:16 From there they continued on to Beer, the well where the LORD said to Moses, "Gather the people together and I will give them water."

Numbers 21:17 Then Israel sang this song: "Spring up, O well! Sing about it, Numbers 21:18 about the well that the princes dug, that the nobles of the people sank—the nobles with sceptres and staffs." Then they went from the desert to Mattanah,

Numbers 21:19 from Mattanah to Nahaliel, from Nahaliel to Bamoth,

Numbers 21:20 and from Bamoth to the valley in Moab where the top of Pisgah overlooks the wasteland.

Numbers 21:21 Israel sent messengers to say to Sihon king of the Amorites:

Numbers 21:22 “Let us pass through your country. We will not turn aside into any field or vineyard, or drink water from any well. We will travel along the king’s highway until we have passed through your territory.”

Numbers 21:23 But Sihon would not let Israel pass through his territory. He mustered his entire army and marched out into the desert against Israel. When he reached Jahaz, he fought with Israel.

Numbers 21:24 Israel, however, put him to the sword and took over his land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, but only as far as the Ammonites, because their border was fortified.

Numbers 21:25 Israel captured all the cities of the Amorites and occupied them, including Heshbon and all its surrounding settlements.

Numbers 21:26 Heshbon was the city of Sihon king of the Amorites, who had fought against the former king of Moab and had taken from him all his land as far as the Arnon.

Numbers 21:27 That is why the poets say: “Come to Heshbon and let it be rebuilt; let Sihon’s city be restored.

Numbers 21:28 “Fire went out from Heshbon, a blaze from the city of Sihon. It consumed Ar of Moab, the citizens of Arnon’s heights.

Numbers 21:29 Woe to you, O Moab! You are destroyed, O people of Chemosh! He has given up his sons as fugitives and his daughters as captives to Sihon king of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:30 “But we have overthrown them; Heshbon is destroyed all the way to Dibon. We have demolished them as far as Nophah, which extends to Medeba.”

Numbers 21:31 So Israel settled in the land of the Amorites.

Numbers 21:32 After Moses had sent spies to Jazer, the Israelites captured its surrounding settlements and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Numbers 21:33 Then they turned and went up along the road towards Bashan, and Og king of Bashan and his whole army marched out to meet them in battle at Edrei.

Numbers 21:34 The LORD said to Moses, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you, with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”

Numbers 21:35 So they struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army, leaving them no survivors. And they took possession of his land.

Numbers 22:1 Then the Israelites travelled to the plains of Moab and camped along the Jordan across from Jericho.

Numbers 22:2 Now Balak son of Zippor saw all that Israel had done to the Amorites, Numbers 22:3 and Moab was terrified because there were so many people. Indeed, Moab was filled with dread because of the Israelites.

Numbers 22:4 The Moabites said to the elders of Midian, “This horde is going to lick up everything around us, as an ox licks up the grass of the field.” So Balak son of Zippor, who was king of Moab at that time, Numbers 22:5 sent messengers to summon Balaam son of Beor, who was at Pethor, near the River, in his native land. Balak said: “A people has come out of Egypt; they cover the face of the land and have settled next to me.

Numbers 22:6 Now come and put a curse on these people, because they are too powerful for me. Perhaps then I will be able to defeat them and drive them out of the country. For I know that those you bless are blessed, and those you curse are cursed.”

Numbers 22:7 The elders of Moab and Midian left, taking with them the fee for divination. When they came to Balaam, they told him what Balak had said.

Numbers 22:8 “Spend the night here,” Balaam said to them, “and I will bring you back the answer the LORD gives me.” So the Moabite princes stayed with him.

Numbers 22:9 God came to Balaam and asked, “Who are these men with you?”

Numbers 22:10 Balaam said to God, “Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab, sent me this message:

Numbers 22:11 `A people that has come out of Egypt covers the face of the land. Now come and put a curse on them for me. Perhaps then I will be able to fight them and drive them away.’“

Numbers 22:12 But God said to Balaam, “Do not go with them. You must not put a curse on those people, because they are blessed.”

Numbers 22:13 The next morning Balaam got up and said to Balak’s princes, “Go back to your own country, for the LORD has refused to let me go with you.”

Numbers 22:14 So the Moabite princes returned to Balak and said, “Balaam refused to come with us.”

Numbers 22:15 Then Balak sent other princes, more numerous and more distinguished than the first.

Numbers 22:16 They came to Balaam and said: “This is what Balak son of Zippor says: Do not let anything keep you from coming to me, Numbers 22:17 because I will reward you handsomely and do whatever you say. Come and put a curse on these people for me.”

Numbers 22:18 But Balaam answered them, “Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything great or small to go beyond the command of the LORD my God.

Numbers 22:19 Now stay here tonight as the others did, and I will find out what else the LORD will tell me.”

Numbers 22:20 That night God came to Balaam and said, “Since these men have come to summon you, go with them, but do only what I tell you.”

Numbers 22:21 Balaam got up in the morning, saddled his donkey and went with the princes of Moab.

Numbers 22:22 But God was very angry when he went, and the angel of the LORD stood in the road to oppose him. Balaam was riding on his donkey, and his two servants were with him.

Numbers 22:23 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with a drawn sword in his hand, she turned off the road into a field. Balaam beat her to get her back on the road.

Numbers 22:24 Then the angel of the LORD stood in a narrow path between two vineyards, with walls on both sides.

Numbers 22:25 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she pressed close to the wall, crushing Balaam’s foot against it. So he beat her again.

Numbers 22:26 Then the angel of the LORD moved on ahead and stood in a narrow place where there was no room to turn, either to the right or to the left.

Numbers 22:27 When the donkey saw the angel of the LORD, she lay down under Balaam, and he was angry and beat her with his staff.

Numbers 22:28 Then the LORD opened the donkey’s mouth, and she said to Balaam, “What have I done to you to make you beat me these three times?”

Numbers 22:29 Balaam answered the donkey, “You have made a fool of me! If I had a sword in my hand, I would kill you right now.”

Numbers 22:30 The donkey said to Balaam, “Am I not your own donkey, which you have always ridden, to this day? Have I been in the habit of doing this to you?” “No,” he said.

Numbers 22:31 Then the LORD opened Balaam’s eyes, and he saw the angel of the LORD standing in the road with his sword drawn. So he bowed low and fell face down.

Numbers 22:32 The angel of the LORD asked him, “Why have you beaten your donkey these three times? I have come here to oppose you because your path is a reckless one before me.

Numbers 22:33 The donkey saw me and turned away from me these three times. If she had not turned away, I would certainly have killed you by now, but I would have spared her.”

Numbers 22:34 Balaam said to the angel of the LORD, “I have sinned. I did not realise you were standing in the road to oppose me. Now if you are displeased, I will go back.”

Numbers 22:35 The angel of the LORD said to Balaam, “Go with the men, but speak only what I tell you.” So Balaam went with the princes of Balak.

Numbers 22:36 When Balak heard that Balaam was coming, he went out to meet him at the Moabite town on the Arnon border, at the edge of his territory.

Numbers 22:37 Balak said to Balaam, “Did I not send you an urgent summons? Why didn’t you come to me? Am I really not able to reward you?”

Numbers 22:38 “Well, I have come to you now,” Balaam replied. “But can I say just anything? I must speak only what God puts in my mouth.”

Numbers 22:39 Then Balaam went with Balak to Kiriath Huzoth.

Numbers 22:40 Balak sacrificed cattle and sheep, and gave some to Balaam and the princes who were with him.

Numbers 22:41 The next morning Balak took Balaam up to Bamoth Baal, and from there he saw part of the people.

Numbers 23:1 Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Numbers 23:2 Balak did as Balaam said, and the two of them offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:3 Then Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I go aside. Perhaps the LORD will come to meet with me. Whatever he reveals to me I will tell you.” Then he went off to a barren height.

Numbers 23:4 God met with him, and Balaam said, “I have prepared seven altars, and on each altar I have offered a bull and a ram.”

Numbers 23:5 The LORD put a message in Balaam’s mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Numbers 23:6 So he went back to him and found him standing beside his offering, with all the princes of Moab.

Numbers 23:7 Then Balaam uttered his oracle: “Balak brought me from Aram, the king of Moab from the eastern mountains.`Come,’ he said,`curse Jacob for me; come, denounce Israel.’

Numbers 23:8 How can I curse those whom God has not cursed? How can I denounce those whom the LORD has not denounced?

Numbers 23:9 From the rocky peaks I see them, from the heights I view them. I see people who live apart and do not consider themselves one of the nations.

Numbers 23:10 Who can count the dust of Jacob or number the fourth part of Israel? Let me die the death of the righteous, and may my end be like theirs!”

Numbers 23:11 Balak said to Balaam, “What have you done to me? I brought you to curse my enemies, but you have done nothing but bless them!”

Numbers 23:12 He answered, “Must I not speak what the LORD puts in my mouth?”

Numbers 23:13 Then Balak said to him, “Come with me to another place where you can see them; you will see only a part but not all of them. And from there, curse them for me.”

Numbers 23:14 So he took him to the field of Zophim on the top of Pisgah, and there he built seven altars and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 23:15 Balaam said to Balak, “Stay here beside your offering while I meet with him over there.”

Numbers 23:16 The LORD met with Balaam and put a message in his mouth and said, “Go back to Balak and give him this message.”

Numbers 23:17 So he went to him and found him standing beside his offering, with the princes of Moab. Balak asked him, “What did the LORD say?”

Numbers 23:18 Then he uttered his oracle: “Arise, Balak, and listen; hear me, son of Zippor.

Numbers 23:19 God is not a man, that he should lie, nor a son of man, that he should change his mind. Does he speak and then not act? Does he promise and not fulfil?

Numbers 23:20 I have received a command to bless; he has blessed, and I cannot change it.

Numbers 23:21 “No misfortune is seen in Jacob, no misery observed in Israel. The LORD their God is with them; the shout of the King is among them.

Numbers 23:22 God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox.

Numbers 23:23 There is no sorcery against Jacob, no divination against Israel. It will now be said of Jacob and of Israel,`See what God has done!’

Numbers 23:24 The people rise like a lioness; they rouse themselves like a lion that does not rest till he devours his prey and drinks the blood of his victims.”

Numbers 23:25 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Neither curse them at all nor bless them at all!”

Numbers 23:26 Balaam answered, “Did I not tell you I must do whatever the LORD says?”

Numbers 23:27 Then Balak said to Balaam, “Come, let me take you to another place. Perhaps it will please God to let you curse them for me from there.”

Numbers 23:28 And Balak took Balaam to the top of Peor, overlooking the wasteland.

Numbers 23:29 Balaam said, “Build me seven altars here, and prepare seven bulls and seven rams for me.”

Numbers 23:30 Balak did as Balaam had said, and offered a bull and a ram on each altar.

Numbers 24:1 Now when Balaam saw that it pleased the LORD to bless Israel, he did not resort to sorcery as at other times, but turned his face towards the desert.

Numbers 24:2 When Balaam looked out and saw Israel encamped tribe by tribe, the Spirit of God came upon him

Numbers 24:3 and he uttered his oracle: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Numbers 24:4 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Numbers 24:5 “How beautiful are your tents, O Jacob, your dwelling-places, O Israel!

Numbers 24:6 “Like valleys they spread out, like gardens beside a river, like aloes planted by the LORD, like cedars beside the waters.

Numbers 24:7 Water will flow from their buckets; their seed will have abundant water. “Their king will be greater than Agag; their kingdom will be exalted.

Numbers 24:8 “God brought them out of Egypt; they have the strength of a wild ox. They devour hostile nations and break their bones in pieces; with their arrows they pierce them.

Numbers 24:9 Like a lion they crouch and lie down, like a lioness—who dares to rouse them? “May those who bless you be blessed and those who curse you be cursed!”

Numbers 24:10 Then Balak’s anger burned against Balaam. He struck his hands together and said to him, “I summoned you to curse my enemies, but you have blessed them these three times.

Numbers 24:11 Now leave at once and go home! I said I would reward you handsomely, but the LORD has kept you from being rewarded.”

Numbers 24:12 Balaam answered Balak, “Did I not tell the messengers you sent me,

Numbers 24:13 `Even if Balak gave me his palace filled with silver and gold, I could not do anything of my own accord, good or bad, to go beyond the command of the LORD—and I must say only what the LORD says’?

Numbers 24:14 Now I am going back to my people, but come, let me warn you of what this people will do to your people in days to come.”

Numbers 24:15 Then he uttered his oracle: “The oracle of Balaam son of Beor, the oracle of one whose eye sees clearly,

Numbers 24:16 the oracle of one who hears the words of God, who has knowledge from the Most High, who sees a vision from the Almighty, who falls prostrate, and whose eyes are opened:

Numbers 24:17 “I see him, but not now; I behold him, but not near. A star will come out of Jacob; a sceptre will rise out of Israel. He will crush the foreheads of Moab, the skulls of all the sons of Sheth.

Numbers 24:18 Edom will be conquered; Seir, his enemy, will be conquered, but Israel will grow strong.

Numbers 24:19 A ruler will come out of Jacob and destroy the survivors of the city.”

Numbers 24:20 Then Balaam saw Amalek and uttered his oracle: “Amalek was first among the nations, but he will come to ruin at last.”

Numbers 24:21 Then he saw the Kenites and uttered his oracle: “Your dwelling-place is secure, your nest is set in a rock;

Numbers 24:22 yet you Kenites will be destroyed when Asshur takes you captive.”

Numbers 24:23 Then he uttered his oracle: “Ah, who can live when God does this?

Numbers 24:24 Ships will come from the shores of Kittim; they will subdue Asshur and Eber, but they too will come to ruin.”

Numbers 24:25 Then Balaam got up and returned home and Balak went his own way.

Numbers 25:1 While Israel was staying in Shittim, the men began to indulge in sexual immorality with Moabite women, Numbers 25:2 who invited them to the sacrifices to their gods. The people ate and bowed down before these gods.

Numbers 25:3 So Israel joined in worshipping the Baal of Peor. And the LORD’s anger burned against them.

Numbers 25:4 The LORD said to Moses, “Take all the leaders of these people, kill them and expose them in broad daylight before the LORD, so that the LORD’s fierce anger may turn away from Israel.”

Numbers 25:5 So Moses said to Israel's judges, "Each of you must put to death those of your men who have joined in worshipping the Baal of Peor."

Numbers 25:6 Then an Israelite man brought to his family a Midianite woman right before the eyes of Moses and the whole assembly of Israel while they were weeping at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

Numbers 25:7 When Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, saw this, he left the assembly, took a spear in his hand

Numbers 25:8 and followed the Israelite into the tent. He drove the spear through both of them—through the Israelite and into the woman's body. Then the plague against the Israelites was stopped;

Numbers 25:9 but those who died in the plague numbered 24,000.

Numbers 25:10 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 25:11 "Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, the priest, has turned my anger away from the Israelites; for he was as zealous as I am for my honour among them, so that in my zeal I did not put an end to them.

Numbers 25:12 Therefore tell him I am making my covenant of peace with him.

Numbers 25:13 He and his descendants will have a covenant of a lasting priesthood, because he was zealous for the honour of his God and made atonement for the Israelites."

Numbers 25:14 The name of the Israelite who was killed with the Midianite woman was Zimri son of Salu, the leader of a Simeonite family.

Numbers 25:15 And the name of the Midianite woman who was put to death was Cozbi daughter of Zur, a tribal chief of a Midianite family.

Numbers 25:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 25:17 "Treat the Midianites as enemies and kill them,

Numbers 25:18 because they treated you as enemies when they deceived you in the affair of Peor and their sister Cozbi, the daughter of a Midianite leader, the woman who was killed when the plague came as a result of Peor."

Numbers 26:1 After the plague the LORD said to Moses and Eleazar son of Aaron, the priest,

Numbers 26:2 "Take a census of the whole Israelite community by families— all those twenty years old or more who are able to serve in the army of Israel."

Numbers 26:3 So on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, Moses and Eleazar the priest spoke with them and said,

Numbers 26:4 "Take a census of men twenty years old or more, as the LORD commanded Moses." These were the Israelites who came out of Egypt:

Numbers 26:5 The descendants of Reuben, the firstborn son of Israel, were: through Hanoch, the Hanochite clan; through Pallu, the Palluite clan;

Numbers 26:6 through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Carmi, the Carmite clan.

Numbers 26:7 These were the clans of Reuben; those numbered were 43,730.

Numbers 26:8 The son of Pallu was Eliab,

Numbers 26:9 and the sons of Eliab were Nemuel, Dathan and Abiram. The same Dathan and Abiram were the community officials who rebelled against Moses and Aaron and were among Korah's followers when they rebelled against the LORD.

Numbers 26:10 The earth opened its mouth and swallowed them along with Korah, whose followers died when the fire devoured the 250 men. And they served as a warning sign.

Numbers 26:11 The line of Korah, however, did not die out.

Numbers 26:12 The descendants of Simeon by their clans were: through Nemuel, the Nemuelite clan; through Jamin, the Jaminite clan; through Jakin, the Jakinite clan;

Numbers 26:13 through Zerah, the Zerahite clan; through Shaul, the Shaulite clan.

Numbers 26:14 These were the clans of Simeon; there were 22,200 men.

Numbers 26:15 The descendants of Gad by their clans were: through Zephon, the Zephonite clan; through Haggi, the Haggite clan; through Shuni, the Shunite clan;

Numbers 26:16 through Ozni, the Oznite clan; through Eri, the Erite clan;

Numbers 26:17 through Arodi, the Arodite clan; through Areli, the Arelite clan.

Numbers 26:18 These were the clans of Gad; those numbered were 40,500.

Numbers 26:19 Er and Onan were sons of Judah, but they died in Canaan.

Numbers 26:20 The descendants of Judah by their clans were: through Shelah, the Shelanite clan; through Perez, the Perezite clan; through Zerah, the Zerahite clan.

Numbers 26:21 The descendants of Perez were: through Hezron, the Hezronite clan; through Hamul, the Hamulite clan.

Numbers 26:22 These were the clans of Judah; those numbered were 76,500.

Numbers 26:23 The descendants of Issachar by their clans were: through Tola, the Tolaite clan; through Puah, the Puite clan;

Numbers 26:24 through Jashub, the Jashubite clan; through Shimron, the Shimronite clan.

Numbers 26:25 These were the clans of Issachar; those numbered were 64,300.

Numbers 26:26 The descendants of Zebulun by their clans were: through Sered, the Seredite clan; through Elon, the Elonite clan; through Jahleel, the Jahleelite clan.

Numbers 26:27 These were the clans of Zebulun; those numbered were 60,500.

Numbers 26:28 The descendants of Joseph by their clans through Manasseh and Ephraim were:

Numbers 26:29 The descendants of Manasseh: through Makir, the Makirite clan (Makir was the father of Gilead); through Gilead, the Gileadite clan.

Numbers 26:30 These were the descendants of Gilead: through Iezer, the Iezerite clan; through Helek, the Helekite clan;

Numbers 26:31 through Asriel, the Asrielite clan; through Shechem, the Shechemite clan;

Numbers 26:32 through Shemida, the Shemidaite clan; through Hepher, the Hepherite clan.

Numbers 26:33 (Zelophehad son of Hepher had no sons; he had only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.)

Numbers 26:34 These were the clans of Manasseh; those numbered were 52,700.

Numbers 26:35 These were the descendants of Ephraim by their clans: through Shuthelah, the Shuthelahite clan; through Beker, the Bekerite clan; through Tahan, the Tahanite clan.

Numbers 26:36 These were the descendants of Shuthelah: through Eran, the Eranite clan.

Numbers 26:37 These were the clans of Ephraim; those numbered were 32,500. These were the descendants of Joseph by their clans.

Numbers 26:38 The descendants of Benjamin by their clans were: through Bela, the Belaite clan; through Ashbel, the Ashbelite clan; through Ahiram, the Ahiramite clan;

Numbers 26:39 through Shupham, the Shuphamite clan; through Hupham, the Huphamite clan.

Numbers 26:40 The descendants of Bela through Ard and Naaman were: through Ard, the Ardite clan; through Naaman, the Naamite clan.

Numbers 26:41 These were the clans of Benjamin; those numbered were 45,600.

Numbers 26:42 These were the descendants of Dan by their clans: through Shuham, the Shuhamite clan. These were the clans of Dan:

Numbers 26:43 All of them were Shuhamite clans; and those numbered were 64,400.

Numbers 26:44 The descendants of Asher by their clans were: through Imnah, the Imnite clan; through Ishvi, the Ishvite clan; through Beriah, the Beriite clan;

Numbers 26:45 and through the descendants of Beriah: through Heber, the Heberite clan; through Malkiel, the Malkielite clan.

Numbers 26:46 (Asher had a daughter named Serah.)

Numbers 26:47 These were the clans of Asher; those numbered were 53,400.

Numbers 26:48 The descendants of Naphtali by their clans were: through Jahzeel, the Jahzeelite clan; through Guni, the Gunite clan;

Numbers 26:49 through Jezer, the Jezerite clan; through Shillem, the Shillemite clan.

Numbers 26:50 These were the clans of Naphtali; those numbered were 45,400.

Numbers 26:51 The total number of the men of Israel was 601,730.

Numbers 26:52 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 26:53 “The land is to be allotted to them as an inheritance based on the number of names.

Numbers 26:54 To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one; each is to receive its inheritance according to the number of those listed.

Numbers 26:55 Be sure that the land is distributed by lot. What each group inherits will be according to the names for its ancestral tribe.

Numbers 26:56 Each inheritance is to be distributed by lot among the larger and smaller groups.”

Numbers 26:57 These were the Levites who were counted by their clans: through Gershon, the Gershonite clan; through Kohath, the Kohathite clan; through Merari, the Merarite clan.

Numbers 26:58 These also were Levite clans: the Libnite clan, the Hebronite clan, the Mahlite clan, the Mushite clan, the Korahite clan. (Kohath was the forefather of Amram;

Numbers 26:59 the name of Amram’s wife was Jochebed, a descendant of Levi, who was born to the Levites in Egypt. To Amram she bore Aaron, Moses and their sister Miriam.

Numbers 26:60 Aaron was the father of Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.

Numbers 26:61 But Nadab and Abihu died when they made an offering before the LORD with unauthorised fire.)

Numbers 26:62 All the male Levites a month old or more numbered 23,000. They were not counted along with the other Israelites because they received no inheritance among them.

Numbers 26:63 These are the ones counted by Moses and Eleazar the priest when they counted the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Numbers 26:64 Not one of them was among those counted by Moses and Aaron the priest when they counted the Israelites in the Desert of Sinai.

Numbers 26:65 For the LORD had told those Israelites they would surely die in the desert, and not one of them was left except Caleb son of Jephunneh and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 27:1 The daughters of Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, belonged to the clans of Manasseh son of Joseph. The names of the daughters were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah. They approached

Numbers 27:2 the entrance to the Tent of Meeting and stood before Moses, Eleazar the priest, the leaders and the whole assembly, and said, Numbers 27:3 “Our father died in the desert. He was not among Korah’s followers, who banded together against the LORD, but he died for his own sin and left no sons.

Numbers 27:4 Why should our father’s name disappear from his clan because he had no son? Give us property among our father’s relatives.”

Numbers 27:5 So Moses brought their case before the LORD

Numbers 27:6 and the LORD said to him,

Numbers 27:7 “What Zelophehad’s daughters are saying is right. You must certainly give them property as an inheritance among their father’s relatives and give their father’s inheritance over to them.

Numbers 27:8 “Say to the Israelites,`If a man dies and leaves no son, give his inheritance over to his daughter.

Numbers 27:9 If he has no daughter, give his inheritance to his brothers.

Numbers 27:10 If he has no brothers, give his inheritance to his father’s brothers.

Numbers 27:11 If his father had no brothers, give his inheritance to the nearest relative in his clan, that he may possess it. This is to be a legal requirement for the Israelites, as the LORD commanded Moses.’“ Numbers 27:12 Then the LORD said to Moses, “Go up this mountain in the Abarim Range and see the land I have given the Israelites.

Numbers 27:13 After you have seen it, you too will be gathered to your people, as your brother Aaron was,

Numbers 27:14 for when the community rebelled at the waters in the Desert of Zin, both of you disobeyed my command to honour me as holy before their eyes.” (These were the waters of Meribah Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.)

Numbers 27:15 Moses said to the LORD,

Numbers 27:16 “May the LORD, the God of the spirits of all mankind, appoint a man over this community

Numbers 27:17 to go out and come in before them, one who will lead them out and bring them in, so that the LORD’s people will not be like sheep without a shepherd.”

Numbers 27:18 So the LORD said to Moses, “Take Joshua son of Nun, a man in whom is the spirit, and lay your hand on him.

Numbers 27:19 Make him stand before Eleazar the priest and the entire assembly and commission him in their presence.

Numbers 27:20 Give him some of your authority so that the whole Israelite community will obey him.

Numbers 27:21 He is to stand before Eleazar the priest, who will obtain decisions for him by enquiring of the Urim before the LORD. At his command he and the entire community of the Israelites will go out, and at his command they will come in.”

Numbers 27:22 Moses did as the LORD commanded him. He took Joshua and made him stand before Eleazar the priest and the whole assembly.

Numbers 27:23 Then he laid his hands on him and commissioned him, as the LORD instructed through Moses.

Numbers 28:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 28:2 “Give this command to the Israelites and say to them:`See that you present to me at the appointed time the food for my offerings made by fire, as an aroma pleasing to me.’

Numbers 28:3 Say to them:`This is the offering made by fire that you are to present to the LORD: two lambs a year old without defect, as a regular burnt offering each day.

Numbers 28:4 Prepare one lamb in the morning and the other at twilight,

Numbers 28:5 together with a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with a quarter of a hin of oil from pressed olives.

Numbers 28:6 This is the regular burnt offering instituted at Mount Sinai as a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Numbers 28:7 The accompanying drink offering is to be a quarter of a hin of fermented drink with each lamb. Pour out the drink offering to the LORD at the sanctuary.

Numbers 28:8 Prepare the second lamb at twilight, along with the same kind of grain offering and drink offering that you prepare in the morning. This is an offering made by fire, an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 28:9 "`On the Sabbath day, make an offering of two lambs a year old without defect, together with its drink offering and a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil.

Numbers 28:10 This is the burnt offering for every Sabbath, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:11 "`On the first of every month, present to the LORD a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 28:12 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, a grain offering of two-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil;

Numbers 28:13 and with each lamb, a grain offering of a tenth of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil. This is for a burnt offering, a pleasing aroma, an offering made to the LORD by fire.

Numbers 28:14 With each bull there is to be a drink offering of half a hin of wine; with the ram, a third of a hin; and with each lamb, a quarter of a hin. This is the monthly burnt offering to be made at each new moon during the year.

Numbers 28:15 Besides the regular burnt offering with its drink offering, one male goat is to be presented to the LORD as a sin offering.

Numbers 28:16 "`On the fourteenth day of the first month the LORD's Passover is to be held.

Numbers 28:17 On the fifteenth day of this month there is to be a festival; for seven days eat bread made without yeast.

Numbers 28:18 On the first day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Numbers 28:19 Present to the LORD an offering made by fire, a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 28:20 With each bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Numbers 28:21 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Numbers 28:22 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:23 Prepare these in addition to the regular morning burnt offering.

Numbers 28:24 In this way prepare the food for the offering made by fire every day for seven days as an aroma pleasing to the LORD; it is to be prepared in addition to the regular burnt offering and its drink offering.

Numbers 28:25 On the seventh day hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Numbers 28:26 “`On the day of firstfruits, when you present to the LORD an offering of new grain during the Feast of Weeks, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work.

Numbers 28:27 Present a burnt offering of two young bulls, one ram and seven male lambs a year old as an aroma pleasing to the LORD.

Numbers 28:28 With each bull there is to be a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Numbers 28:29 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Numbers 28:30 Include one male goat to make atonement for you.

Numbers 28:31 Prepare these together with their drink offerings, in addition to the regular burnt offering and its grain offering. Be sure the animals are without defect.

Numbers 29:1 “`On the first day of the seventh month hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. It is a day for you to sound the trumpets.

Numbers 29:2 As an aroma pleasing to the LORD, prepare a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:3 With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Numbers 29:4 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Numbers 29:5 Include one male goat as a sin offering to make atonement for you.

Numbers 29:6 These are in addition to the monthly and daily burnt offerings with their grain offerings and drink offerings as specified. They are offerings made to the LORD by fire—a pleasing aroma.

Numbers 29:7 “`On the tenth day of this seventh month hold a sacred assembly. You must deny yourselves and do no work.

Numbers 29:8 Present as an aroma pleasing to the LORD a burnt offering of one young bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:9 With the bull prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with the ram, two-tenths;

Numbers 29:10 and with each of the seven lambs, one-tenth.

Numbers 29:11 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the sin offering for atonement and the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:12 “`On the fifteenth day of the seventh month, hold a sacred assembly and do no regular work. Celebrate a festival to the LORD for seven days.

Numbers 29:13 Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, a burnt offering of thirteen young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:14 With each of the thirteen bulls prepare a grain offering of three-tenths of an ephah of fine flour mixed with oil; with each of the two rams, two-tenths;

Numbers 29:15 and with each of the fourteen lambs, one-tenth.

Numbers 29:16 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:17 “`On the second day prepare twelve young bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:18 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:19 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering, and their drink offerings.

Numbers 29:20 “`On the third day prepare eleven bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:21 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:22 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:23 “`On the fourth day prepare ten bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:24 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:25 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:26 “`On the fifth day prepare nine bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:27 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:28 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:29 “`On the sixth day prepare eight bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:30 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:31 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:32 “`On the seventh day prepare seven bulls, two rams and fourteen male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:33 With the bulls, rams and lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:34 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:35 “`On the eighth day hold an assembly and do no regular work.

Numbers 29:36 Present an offering made by fire as an aroma pleasing to the LORD, a burnt offering of one bull, one ram and seven male lambs a year old, all without defect.

Numbers 29:37 With the bull, the ram and the lambs, prepare their grain offerings and drink offerings according to the number specified.

Numbers 29:38 Include one male goat as a sin offering, in addition to the regular burnt offering with its grain offering and drink offering.

Numbers 29:39 “`In addition to what you vow and your freewill offerings, prepare these for the LORD at your appointed feasts: your burnt offerings, grain offerings, drink offerings and fellowship offerings.’“

Numbers 29:40 Moses told the Israelites all that the LORD commanded him.

Numbers 30:1 Moses said to the heads of the tribes of Israel: “This is what the LORD commands:

Numbers 30:2 When a man makes a vow to the LORD or takes an oath to bind himself by a pledge, he must not break his word but must do everything he said.

Numbers 30:3 “When a young woman still living in her father’s house makes a vow to the LORD or binds herself by a pledge

Numbers 30:4 and her father hears about her vow or pledge but says nothing to her, then all her vows and every pledge by which she bound herself will stand.

Numbers 30:5 But if her father forbids her when he hears about it, none of her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand; the LORD will release her because her father has forbidden her.

Numbers 30:6 “If she marries after she makes a vow or after her lips utter a rash promise by which she binds herself

Numbers 30:7 and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her, then her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand.

Numbers 30:8 But if her husband forbids her when he hears about it, he nullifies the vow that binds her or the rash promise by which she binds herself, and the LORD will release her.

Numbers 30:9 “Any vow or obligation taken by a widow or divorced woman will be binding on her.

Numbers 30:10 “If a woman living with her husband makes a vow or binds herself by a pledge under oath

Numbers 30:11 and her husband hears about it but says nothing to her and does not forbid her, then all her vows or the pledges by which she bound herself will stand.

Numbers 30:12 But if her husband nullifies them when he hears about them, then none of the vows or pledges that came from her lips will stand. Her husband has nullified them, and the LORD will release her.

Numbers 30:13 Her husband may confirm or nullify any vow she makes or any sworn pledge to deny herself.

Numbers 30:14 But if her husband says nothing to her about it from day to day, then he confirms all her vows or the pledges binding on her. He confirms them by saying nothing to her when he hears about them.

Numbers 30:15 If, however, he nullifies them some time after he hears about them, then he is responsible for her guilt.”

Numbers 30:16 These are the regulations the LORD gave Moses concerning relationships between a man and his wife, and between a father and his young daughter still living in his house.

Numbers 31:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 31:2 “Take vengeance on the Midianites for the Israelites. After that, you will be gathered to your people.”

Numbers 31:3 So Moses said to the people, “Arm some of your men to go to war against the Midianites and to carry out the LORD’s vengeance on them.

Numbers 31:4 Send into battle a thousand men from each of the tribes of Israel.”

Numbers 31:5 So twelve thousand men armed for battle, a thousand from each tribe, were supplied from the clans of Israel.

Numbers 31:6 Moses sent them into battle, a thousand from each tribe, along with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, who took with him articles from the sanctuary and the trumpets for signalling.

Numbers 31:7 They fought against Midian, as the LORD commanded Moses, and killed every man.

Numbers 31:8 Among their victims were Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba— the five kings of Midian. They also killed Balaam son of Beor with the sword.

Numbers 31:9 The Israelites captured the Midianite women and children and took all the Midianite herds, flocks and goods as plunder.

Numbers 31:10 They burned all the towns where the Midianites had settled, as well as all their camps.

Numbers 31:11 They took all the plunder and spoils, including the people and animals,

Numbers 31:12 and brought the captives, spoils and plunder to Moses and Eleazar the priest and the Israelite assembly at their camp on the plains of Moab, by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Numbers 31:13 Moses, Eleazar the priest and all the leaders of the community went to meet them outside the camp.

Numbers 31:14 Moses was angry with the officers of the army—the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds—who returned from the battle.

Numbers 31:15 “Have you allowed all the women to live?” he asked them.

Numbers 31:16 “They were the ones who followed Balaam’s advice and were the means of turning the Israelites away from the LORD in what happened at Peor, so that a plague struck the LORD’s people.

Numbers 31:17 Now kill all the boys. And kill every woman who has slept with a man, Numbers 31:18 but save for yourselves every girl who has never slept with a man.

Numbers 31:19 “All of you who have killed anyone or touched anyone who was killed must stay outside the camp seven days. On the third and seventh days you must purify yourselves and your captives.

Numbers 31:20 Purify every garment as well as everything made of leather, goat hair or wood.”

Numbers 31:21 Then Eleazar the priest said to the soldiers who had gone into battle, “This is the requirement of the law that the LORD gave Moses:

Numbers 31:22 Gold, silver, bronze, iron, tin, lead

Numbers 31:23 and anything else that can withstand fire must be put through the fire, and then it will be clean. But it must also be purified with the water of cleansing. And whatever cannot withstand fire must be put through that water.

Numbers 31:24 On the seventh day wash your clothes and you will be clean. Then you may come into the camp.”

Numbers 31:25 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 31:26 “You and Eleazar the priest and the family heads of the community are to count all the people and animals that were captured.

Numbers 31:27 Divide the spoils between the soldiers who took part in the battle and the rest of the community.

Numbers 31:28 From the soldiers who fought in the battle, set apart as tribute for the LORD one out of every five hundred, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep or goats.

Numbers 31:29 Take this tribute from their half share and give it to Eleazar the priest as the LORD’s part.

Numbers 31:30 From the Israelites’ half, select one out of every fifty, whether persons, cattle, donkeys, sheep, goats or other animals. Give them to the Levites, who are responsible for the care of the LORD’s tabernacle.”

Numbers 31:31 So Moses and Eleazar the priest did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:32 The plunder remaining from the spoils that the soldiers took was 675,000 sheep,

Numbers 31:33 72,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:34 61,000 donkeys

Numbers 31:35 and 32,000 women who had never slept with a man.

Numbers 31:36 The half share of those who fought in the battle was: 337,500 sheep,

Numbers 31:37 of which the tribute for the LORD was 675;

Numbers 31:38 36,000 cattle, of which the tribute for the LORD was 72;

Numbers 31:39 30,500 donkeys, of which the tribute for the LORD was 61;

Numbers 31:40 16,000 people, of which the tribute for the LORD was 32.

Numbers 31:41 Moses gave the tribute to Eleazar the priest as the LORD’s part, as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 31:42 The half belonging to the Israelites, which Moses set apart from that of the fighting men—

Numbers 31:43 the community’s half—was 337,500 sheep,

Numbers 31:44 36,000 cattle,

Numbers 31:45 30,500 donkeys

Numbers 31:46 and 16,000 people.

Numbers 31:47 From the Israelites’ half, Moses selected one out of every fifty persons and animals, as the LORD commanded him, and gave them to the Levites, who were responsible for the care of the LORD’s tabernacle.

Numbers 31:48 Then the officers who were over the units of the army— the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds— went to Moses Numbers 31:49 and said to him, “Your servants have counted the soldiers under our command, and not one is missing.

Numbers 31:50 So we have brought as an offering to the LORD the gold articles each of us acquired—armlets, bracelets, signet rings, earrings and necklaces—to make atonement for ourselves before the LORD.”

Numbers 31:51 Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted from them the gold— all the handcrafted articles.

Numbers 31:52 All the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds that Moses and Eleazar presented as a gift to the LORD weighed 16,750 shekels.

Numbers 31:53 Each soldier had taken plunder for himself.

Numbers 31:54 Moses and Eleazar the priest accepted the gold from the commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds and brought it into the Tent of Meeting as a memorial for the Israelites before the LORD.

Numbers 32:1 The Reubenites and Gadites, who had very large herds and flocks, saw that the lands of Jazer and Gilead were suitable for livestock.

Numbers 32:2 So they came to Moses and Eleazar the priest and to the leaders of the community, and said,

Numbers 32:3 “Ataroth, Dibon, Jazer, Nimrah, Heshbon, Elealeh, Sebam, Nebo and Beon—

Numbers 32:4 the land the LORD subdued before the people of Israel— are suitable for livestock, and your servants have livestock.

Numbers 32:5 If we have found favour in your eyes,” they said, “let this land be given to your servants as our possession. Do not make us cross the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:6 Moses said to the Gadites and Reubenites, “Shall your countrymen go to war while you sit here?

Numbers 32:7 Why do you discourage the Israelites from going over into the land the LORD has given them?

Numbers 32:8 This is what your fathers did when I sent them from Kadesh Barnea to look over the land.

Numbers 32:9 After they went up to the Valley of Eshcol and viewed the land, they discouraged the Israelites from entering the land the LORD had given them.

Numbers 32:10 The LORD’s anger was aroused that day and he swore this oath:

Numbers 32:11 `Because they have not followed me wholeheartedly, not one of the men twenty years old or more who came up out of Egypt will see the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—

Numbers 32:12 not one except Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite and Joshua son of Nun, for they followed the LORD wholeheartedly.'

Numbers 32:13 The LORD's anger burned against Israel and he made them wander in the desert for forty years, until the whole generation of those who had done evil in his sight was gone.

Numbers 32:14 "And here you are, a brood of sinners, standing in the place of your fathers and making the LORD even more angry with Israel.

Numbers 32:15 If you turn away from following him, he will again leave all this people in the desert, and you will be the cause of their destruction."

Numbers 32:16 Then they came up to him and said, "We would like to build pens here for our livestock and cities for our women and children.

Numbers 32:17 But we are ready to arm ourselves and go ahead of the Israelites until we have brought them to their place. Meanwhile our women and children will live in fortified cities, for protection from the inhabitants of the land.

Numbers 32:18 We will not return to our homes until every Israelite has received his inheritance.

Numbers 32:19 We will not receive any inheritance with them on the other side of the Jordan, because our inheritance has come to us on the east side of the Jordan."

Numbers 32:20 Then Moses said to them, "If you will do this—if you will arm yourselves before the LORD for battle,

Numbers 32:21 and if all of you will go armed over the Jordan before the LORD until he has driven his enemies out before him—

Numbers 32:22 then when the land is subdued before the LORD, you may return and be free from your obligation to the LORD and to Israel. And this land will be your possession before the LORD.

Numbers 32:23 "But if you fail to do this, you will be sinning against the LORD; and you may be sure that your sin will find you out.

Numbers 32:24 Build cities for your women and children, and pens for your flocks, but do what you have promised."

Numbers 32:25 The Gadites and Reubenites said to Moses, "We your servants will do as our lord commands.

Numbers 32:26 Our children and wives, our flocks and herds will remain here in the cities of Gilead.

Numbers 32:27 But your servants, every man armed for battle, will cross over to fight before the LORD, just as our lord says.”

Numbers 32:28 Then Moses gave orders about them to Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun and to the family heads of the Israelite tribes.

Numbers 32:29 He said to them, “If the Gadites and Reubenites, every man armed for battle, cross over the Jordan with you before the LORD, then when the land is subdued before you, give them the land of Gilead as their possession.

Numbers 32:30 But if they do not cross over with you armed, they must accept their possession with you in Canaan.”

Numbers 32:31 The Gadites and Reubenites answered, “Your servants will do what the LORD has said.

Numbers 32:32 We will cross over before the LORD into Canaan armed, but the property we inherit will be on this side of the Jordan.”

Numbers 32:33 Then Moses gave to the Gadites, the Reubenites and the half-tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph the kingdom of Sihon king of the Amorites and the kingdom of Og king of Bashan—the whole land with its cities and the territory around them.

Numbers 32:34 The Gadites built up Dibon, Ataroth, Aroer,

Numbers 32:35 Atroth Shophan, Jazer, Jogbehah,

Numbers 32:36 Beth Nimrah and Beth Haran as fortified cities, and built pens for their flocks.

Numbers 32:37 And the Reubenites rebuilt Heshbon, Elealeh and Kiriathaim, Numbers 32:38 as well as Nebo and Baal Meon (these names were changed) and Sibmah. They gave names to the cities they rebuilt.

Numbers 32:39 The descendants of Makir son of Manasseh went to Gilead, captured it and drove out the Amorites who were there.

Numbers 32:40 So Moses gave Gilead to the Makirites, the descendants of Manasseh, and they settled there.

Numbers 32:41 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, captured their settlements and called them Havvoth Jair.

Numbers 32:42 And Nobah captured Kenath and its surrounding settlements and called it Nobah after himself.

Numbers 33:1 Here are the stages in the journey of the Israelites when they came out of Egypt by divisions under the leadership of Moses and Aaron.

Numbers 33:2 At the LORD’s command Moses recorded the stages in their journey. This is their journey by stages:

Numbers 33:3 The Israelites set out from Rameses on the fifteenth day of the first month, the day after the Passover. They marched out boldly in full view of all the Egyptians, Numbers 33:4 who were burying all their firstborn, whom the LORD had struck down among them; for the LORD had brought judgment on their gods.

Numbers 33:5 The Israelites left Rameses and camped at Succoth.

Numbers 33:6 They left Succoth and camped at Etham, on the edge of the desert.

Numbers 33:7 They left Etham, turned back to Pi Hahiroth, to the east of Baal Zephon, and camped near Migdol.

Numbers 33:8 They left Pi Hahiroth and passed through the sea into the desert, and when they had travelled for three days in the Desert of Etham, they camped at Marah.

Numbers 33:9 They left Marah and went to Elim, where there were twelve springs and seventy palm trees, and they camped there.

Numbers 33:10 They left Elim and camped by the Red Sea.

Numbers 33:11 They left the Red Sea and camped in the Desert of Sin.

Numbers 33:13 They left Dophkah and camped at Alush.

Numbers 33:14 They left Alush and camped at Rephidim, where there was no water for the people to drink.

Numbers 33:15 They left Rephidim and camped in the Desert of Sinai.

Numbers 33:16 They left the Desert of Sinai and camped at Kibroth Hattaavah.

Numbers 33:18 They left Hazeroth and camped at Rithmah.

Numbers 33:20 They left Rimmon Perez and camped at Libnah.

Numbers 33:26 They left Makheloth and camped at Tahath.

Numbers 33:27 They left Tahath and camped at Terah.

Numbers 33:29 They left Mithcah and camped at Hashmonah.

Numbers 33:30 They left Hashmonah and camped at Moseroth.

Numbers 33:32 They left Bene Jaakan and camped at Hor Haggidgad.

Numbers 33:36 They left Ezion Geber and camped at Kadesh, in the Desert of Zin.

Numbers 33:37 They left Kadesh and camped at Mount Hor, on the border of Edom.

Numbers 33:38 At the LORD’s command Aaron the priest went up Mount Hor, where he died on the first day of the fifth month of the fortieth year after the Israelites came out of Egypt.

Numbers 33:39 Aaron was a hundred and twenty-three years old when he died on Mount Hor.

Numbers 33:40 The Canaanite king of Arad, who lived in the Negev of Canaan, heard that the Israelites were coming.

Numbers 33:44 They left Oboth and camped at Iye Abarim, on the border of Moab.

Numbers 33:45 They left Iyim and camped at Dibon Gad.

Numbers 33:47 They left Almon Diblathaim and camped in the mountains of Abarim, near Nebo.

Numbers 33:48 They left the mountains of Abarim and camped on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Numbers 33:49 There on the plains of Moab they camped along the Jordan from Beth Jeshimoth to Abel Shittim.

Numbers 33:50 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho the LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 33:51 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When you cross the Jordan into Canaan,

Numbers 33:52 drive out all the inhabitants of the land before you. Destroy all their carved images and their cast idols, and demolish all their high places.

Numbers 33:53 Take possession of the land and settle in it, for I have given you the land to possess.

Numbers 33:54 Distribute the land by lot, according to your clans. To a larger group give a larger inheritance, and to a smaller group a smaller one. Whatever falls to them by lot will be theirs. Distribute it according to your ancestral tribes.

Numbers 33:55 "`But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the land, those you allow to remain will become barbs in your eyes and thorns in your sides. They will give you trouble in the land where you will live.

Numbers 33:56 And then I will do to you what I plan to do to them.'"

Numbers 34:1 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 34:2 "Command the Israelites and say to them:`When you enter Canaan, the land that will be allotted to you as an inheritance will have these boundaries:

Numbers 34:3 "`Your southern side will include some of the Desert of Zin along the border of Edom. On the east, your southern boundary will start from the end of the Salt Sea,

Numbers 34:4 cross south of Scorpion Pass, continue on to Zin and go south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it will go to Hazar Addar and over to Azmon, Numbers 34:5 where it will turn, join the Wadi of Egypt and end at the Sea.

Numbers 34:6 "`Your western boundary will be the coast of the Great Sea. This will be your boundary on the west.

Numbers 34:7 "`For your northern boundary, run a line from the Great Sea to Mount Hor

Numbers 34:8 and from Mount Hor to Lebo Hamath. Then the boundary will go to Zedad, Numbers 34:9 continue to Ziphron and end at Hazar Enan. This will be your boundary on the north.

Numbers 34:10 "`For your eastern boundary, run a line from Hazar Enan to Shepham.

Numbers 34:11 The boundary will go down from Shepham to Riblah on the east side of Ain and continue along the slopes east of the Sea of Kinnereth.

Numbers 34:12 Then the boundary will go down along the Jordan and end at the Salt Sea. "`This will be your land, with its boundaries on every side.'"

Numbers 34:13 Moses commanded the Israelites: "Assign this land by lot as an inheritance. The LORD has ordered that it be given to the nine and a half tribes, Numbers 34:14 because the families of the tribe of Reuben, the tribe of Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh have received their inheritance.

Numbers 34:15 These two and a half tribes have received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan of Jericho, towards the sunrise.”

Numbers 34:16 The LORD said to Moses,

Numbers 34:17 “These are the names of the men who are to assign the land for you as an inheritance: Eleazar the priest and Joshua son of Nun.

Numbers 34:18 And appoint one leader from each tribe to help assign the land.

Numbers 34:19 These are their names: Caleb son of Jephunneh, from the tribe of Judah;

Numbers 34:20 Shemuel son of Ammihud, from the tribe of Simeon;

Numbers 34:21 Elidad son of Kislon, from the tribe of Benjamin;

Numbers 34:22 Bukki son of Jogli, the leader from the tribe of Dan;

Numbers 34:23 Hanniel son of Ephod, the leader from the tribe of Manasseh son of Joseph;

Numbers 34:24 Kemuel son of Shiphtan, the leader from the tribe of Ephraim son of Joseph;

Numbers 34:25 Elizaphan son of Parnach, the leader from the tribe of Zebulun;

Numbers 34:26 Paltiel son of Azzan, the leader from the tribe of Issachar;

Numbers 34:27 Ahihud son of Shelomi, the leader from the tribe of Asher;

Numbers 34:28 Pedahel son of Ammihud, the leader from the tribe of Naphtali.”

Numbers 34:29 These are the men the LORD commanded to assign the inheritance to the Israelites in the land of Canaan.

Numbers 35:1 On the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho, the LORD said to Moses, Numbers 35:2 “Command the Israelites to give the Levites towns to live in from the inheritance the Israelites will possess. And give them pasture-lands around the towns.

Numbers 35:3 Then they will have towns to live in and pasture-lands for their cattle, flocks and all their other livestock.

Numbers 35:4 “The pasture-lands around the towns that you give the Levites will extend out fifteen hundred feet from the town wall.

Numbers 35:5 Outside the town, measure three thousand feet on the east side, three thousand on the south side, three thousand on the west and three thousand on the north, with the town in the centre. They will have this area as pasture-land for the towns.

Numbers 35:6 “Six of the towns you give the Levites will be cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone may flee. In addition, give them forty-two other towns.

Numbers 35:7 In all you must give the Levites forty-eight towns, together with their pasture-lands.

Numbers 35:8 The towns you give the Levites from the land the Israelites possess are to be given in proportion to the inheritance of each tribe: Take many towns from a tribe that has many, but few from one that has few.”

Numbers 35:9 Then the LORD said to Moses:

Numbers 35:10 “Speak to the Israelites and say to them:`When you cross the Jordan into Canaan,

Numbers 35:11 select some towns to be your cities of refuge, to which a person who has killed someone accidentally may flee.

Numbers 35:12 They will be places of refuge from the avenger, so that a person accused of murder may not die before he stands trial before the assembly.

Numbers 35:13 These six towns you give will be your cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:14 Give three on this side of the Jordan and three in Canaan as cities of refuge.

Numbers 35:15 These six towns will be a place of refuge for Israelites, aliens and any other people living among them, so that anyone who has killed another accidentally can flee there.

Numbers 35:16 “`If a man strikes someone with an iron object so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:17 Or if anyone has a stone in his hand that could kill, and he strikes someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:18 Or if anyone has a wooden object in his hand that could kill, and he hits someone so that he dies, he is a murderer; the murderer shall be put to death.

Numbers 35:19 The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death; when he meets him, he shall put him to death.

Numbers 35:20 If anyone with malice aforethought pushes another or throws something at him intentionally so that he dies

Numbers 35:21 or if in hostility he hits him with his fist so that he dies, that person shall be put to death; he is a murderer. The avenger of blood shall put the murderer to death when he meets him.

Numbers 35:22 “`But if without hostility someone suddenly pushes another or throws something at him unintentionally

Numbers 35:23 or, without seeing him, drops a stone on him that could kill him, and he dies, then since he was not his enemy and he did not intend to harm him,

Numbers 35:24 the assembly must judge between him and the avenger of blood according to these regulations.

Numbers 35:25 The assembly must protect the one accused of murder from the avenger of blood and send him back to the city of refuge to which he fled. He must stay there until the death of the high priest, who was anointed with holy oil.

Numbers 35:26 "`But if the accused ever goes outside the limits of the city of refuge to which he has fled

Numbers 35:27 and the avenger of blood finds him outside the city, the avenger of blood may kill the accused without being guilty of murder.

Numbers 35:28 The accused must stay in his city of refuge until the death of the high priest; only after the death of the high priest may he return to his own property.

Numbers 35:29 "`These are to be legal requirements for you throughout the generations to come, wherever you live.

Numbers 35:30 "`Anyone who kills a person is to be put to death as a murderer only on the testimony of witnesses. But no-one is to be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Numbers 35:31 "`Do not accept a ransom for the life of a murderer, who deserves to die. He must surely be put to death.

Numbers 35:32 "`Do not accept a ransom for anyone who has fled to a city of refuge and so allow him to go back and live on his own land before the death of the high priest.

Numbers 35:33 "`Do not pollute the land where you are. Bloodshed pollutes the land, and atonement cannot be made for the land on which blood has been shed, except by the blood of the one who shed it.

Numbers 35:34 Do not defile the land where you live and where I dwell, for I, the LORD, dwell among the Israelites.'"

Numbers 36:1 The family heads of the clan of Gilead son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, who were from the clans of the descendants of Joseph, came and spoke before Moses and the leaders, the heads of the Israelite families.

Numbers 36:2 They said, "When the LORD commanded my lord to give the land as an inheritance to the Israelites by lot, he ordered you to give the inheritance of our brother Zelophehad to his daughters.

Numbers 36:3 Now suppose they marry men from other Israelite tribes; then their inheritance will be taken from our ancestral inheritance and added to that of the tribe they marry into. And so part of the inheritance allotted to us will be taken away.

Numbers 36:4 When the Year of Jubilee for the Israelites comes, their inheritance will be added to that of the tribe into which they marry, and their property will be taken from the tribal inheritance of our forefathers.”

Numbers 36:5 Then at the LORD’s command Moses gave this order to the Israelites: “What the tribe of the descendants of Joseph is saying is right.

Numbers 36:6 This is what the LORD commands for Zelophehad’s daughters: They may marry anyone they please as long as they marry within the tribal clan of their father.

Numbers 36:7 No inheritance in Israel is to pass from tribe to tribe, for every Israelite shall keep the tribal land inherited from his forefathers.

Numbers 36:8 Every daughter who inherits land in any Israelite tribe must marry someone in her father’s tribal clan, so that every Israelite will possess the inheritance of his fathers.

Numbers 36:9 No inheritance may pass from tribe to tribe, for each Israelite tribe is to keep the land it inherits.”

Numbers 36:10 So Zelophehad’s daughters did as the LORD commanded Moses.

Numbers 36:11 Zelophehad’s daughters—Mahlah, Tirzah, Hoglah, Milcah and Noah—married their cousins on their father’s side.

Numbers 36:12 They married within the clans of the descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph, and their inheritance remained in their father’s clan and tribe.

Numbers 36:13 These are the commands and regulations the LORD gave through Moses to the Israelites on the plains of Moab by the Jordan across from Jericho.

Deuteronomy

1:1 These are the words Moses spoke to all Israel in the desert east of the Jordan—that is, in the Arabah—opposite Suph, between Paran and Tophel, Laban, Hazeroth and Dizahab.

Deuteronomy 1:2 (It takes eleven days to go from Horeb to Kadesh Barnea by the Mount Seir road.)

Deuteronomy 1:3 In the fortieth year, on the first day of the eleventh month, Moses proclaimed to the Israelites all that the LORD had commanded him concerning them.

Deuteronomy 1:4 This was after he had defeated Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon, and at Edrei had defeated Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

Deuteronomy 1:5 East of the Jordan in the territory of Moab, Moses began to expound this law, saying:

Deuteronomy 1:6 The LORD our God said to us at Horeb, “You have stayed long enough at this mountain.

Deuteronomy 1:7 Break camp and advance into the hill country of the Amorites; go to all the neighbouring peoples in the Arabah, in the mountains, in the western foothills, in the Negev and along the coast, to the land of the Canaanites and to Lebanon, as far as the great river, the Euphrates.

Deuteronomy 1:8 See, I have given you this land. Go in and take possession of the land that the LORD swore he would give to your fathers— to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob—and to their descendants after them.”

Deuteronomy 1:9 At that time I said to you, “You are too heavy a burden for me to carry alone.

Deuteronomy 1:10 The LORD your God has increased your numbers so that today you are as many as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 1:11 May the LORD, the God of your fathers, increase you a thousand times and bless you as he has promised!

Deuteronomy 1:12 But how can I bear your problems and your burdens and your disputes all by myself?

Deuteronomy 1:13 Choose some wise, understanding and respected men from each of your tribes, and I will set them over you.”

Deuteronomy 1:14 You answered me, “What you propose to do is good.”

Deuteronomy 1:15 So I took the leading men of your tribes, wise and respected men, and appointed them to have authority over you— as commanders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens and as tribal officials.

Deuteronomy 1:16 And I charged your judges at that time: Hear the disputes between your brothers and judge fairly, whether the case is between brother Israelites or between one of them and an alien.

Deuteronomy 1:17 Do not show partiality in judging; hear both small and great alike. Do not be afraid of any man, for judgment belongs to God. Bring me any case too hard for you, and I will hear it.

Deuteronomy 1:18 And at that time I told you everything you were to do.

Deuteronomy 1:19 Then, as the LORD our God commanded us, we set out from Horeb and went towards the hill country of the Amorites through all that vast and dreadful desert that you have seen, and so we reached Kadesh Barnea.

Deuteronomy 1:20 Then I said to you, “You have reached the hill country of the Amorites, which the LORD our God is giving us.

Deuteronomy 1:21 See, the LORD your God has given you the land. Go up and take possession of it as the LORD, the God of your fathers, told you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”

Deuteronomy 1:22 Then all of you came to me and said, “Let us send men ahead to spy out the land for us and bring back a report about the route we are to take and the towns we will come to.”

Deuteronomy 1:23 The idea seemed good to me; so I selected twelve of you, one man from each tribe.

Deuteronomy 1:24 They left and went up into the hill country, and came to the Valley of Eshcol and explored it.

Deuteronomy 1:25 Taking with them some of the fruit of the land, they brought it down to us and reported, “It is a good land that the LORD our God is giving us.”

Deuteronomy 1:26 But you were unwilling to go up; you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 1:27 You grumbled in your tents and said, “The LORD hates us; so he brought us out of Egypt to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us.

Deuteronomy 1:28 Where can we go? Our brothers have made us lose heart. They say,`The people are stronger and taller than we are; the cities are large, with walls up to the sky. We even saw the Anakites there.’“ Deuteronomy 1:29 Then I said to you, “Do not be terrified; do not be afraid of them.

Deuteronomy 1:30 The LORD your God, who is going before you, will fight for you, as he did for you in Egypt, before your very eyes,

Deuteronomy 1:31 and in the desert. There you saw how the LORD your God carried you, as a father carries his son, all the way you went until you reached this place.”

Deuteronomy 1:32 In spite of this, you did not trust in the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 1:33 who went ahead of you on your journey, in fire by night and in a cloud by day, to search out places for you to camp and to show you the way you should go.

Deuteronomy 1:34 When the LORD heard what you said, he was angry and solemnly swore:

Deuteronomy 1:35 “Not a man of this evil generation shall see the good land I swore to give your forefathers, Deuteronomy 1:36 except Caleb son of Jephunneh. He will see it, and I will give him and his descendants the land he set his feet on, because he followed the LORD wholeheartedly.”

Deuteronomy 1:37 Because of you the LORD became angry with me also and said, “You shall not enter it, either.

Deuteronomy 1:38 But your assistant,Joshua son of Nun, will enter it. Encourage him, because he will lead Israel to inherit it.

Deuteronomy 1:39 And the little ones that you said would be taken captive, your children who do not yet know good from bad—they will enter the land. I will give it to them and they will take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 1:40 But as for you, turn round and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea.”

Deuteronomy 1:41 Then you replied, “We have sinned against the LORD. We will go up and fight, as the LORD our God commanded us.” So every one of you put on his weapons, thinking it easy to go up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:42 But the LORD said to me, “Tell them,`Do not go up and fight, because I will not be with you. You will be defeated by your enemies.’“

Deuteronomy 1:43 So I told you, but you would not listen. You rebelled against the LORD’s command and in your arrogance you marched up into the hill country.

Deuteronomy 1:44 The Amorites who lived in those hills came out against you; they chased you like a swarm of bees and beat you down from Seir all the way to Hormah.

Deuteronomy 1:45 You came back and wept before the LORD, but he paid no attention to your weeping and turned a deaf ear to you.

Deuteronomy 1:46 And so you stayed in Kadesh many days—all the time you spent there.

Deuteronomy 2:1 Then we turned back and set out towards the desert along the route to the Red Sea, as the LORD had directed me. For a long time we made our way around the hill country of Seir.

Deuteronomy 2:2 Then the LORD said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:3 “You have made your way around this hill country long enough; now turn north.

Deuteronomy 2:4 Give the people these orders:`You are about to pass through the territory of your brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. They will be afraid of you, but be very careful.

Deuteronomy 2:5 Do not provoke them to war, for I will not give you any of their land, not even enough to put your foot on. I have given Esau the hill country of Seir as his own.

Deuteronomy 2:6 You are to pay them in silver for the food you eat and the water you drink.’“

Deuteronomy 2:7 The LORD your God has blessed you in all the work of your hands. He has watched over your journey through this vast desert. These forty years the LORD your God has been with you, and you have not lacked anything.

Deuteronomy 2:8 So we went on past our brothers the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir. We turned from the Arabah road, which comes up from Elath and Ezion Geber, and travelled along the desert road of Moab.

Deuteronomy 2:9 Then the LORD said to me, “Do not harass the Moabites or provoke them to war, for I will not give you any part of their land. I have given Ar to the descendants of Lot as a possession.”

Deuteronomy 2:10 (The Emites used to live there—a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites.

Deuteronomy 2:11 Like the Anakites, they too were considered Rephaites, but the Moabites called them Emites.

Deuteronomy 2:12 Horites used to live in Seir, but the descendants of Esau drove them out. They destroyed the Horites from before them and settled in their place, just as Israel did in the land the LORD gave them as their possession.)

Deuteronomy 2:13 And the LORD said, “Now get up and cross the Zered Valley.” So we crossed the valley.

Deuteronomy 2:14 Thirty-eight years passed from the time we left Kadesh Barnea until we crossed the Zered Valley. By then, that entire generation of fighting men had perished from the camp, as the LORD had sworn to them.

Deuteronomy 2:15 The LORD’s hand was against them until he had completely eliminated them from the camp.

Deuteronomy 2:16 Now when the last of these fighting men among the people had died,

Deuteronomy 2:17 the LORD said to me,

Deuteronomy 2:18 “Today you are to pass by the region of Moab at Ar.

Deuteronomy 2:19 When you come to the Ammonites, do not harass them or provoke them to war, for I will not give you possession of any land belonging to the Ammonites. I have given it as a possession to the descendants of Lot.”

Deuteronomy 2:20 (That too was considered a land of the Rephaites, who used to live there; but the Ammonites called them Zamzummites.

Deuteronomy 2:21 They were a people strong and numerous, and as tall as the Anakites. The LORD destroyed them from before the Ammonites, who drove them out and settled in their place.

Deuteronomy 2:22 The LORD had done the same for the descendants of Esau, who lived in Seir, when he destroyed the Horites from before them. They drove them out and have lived in their place to this day.

Deuteronomy 2:23 And as for the Avvites who lived in villages as far as Gaza, the Caphtorites coming out from Caphtor destroyed them and settled in their place.)

Deuteronomy 2:24 “Set out now and cross the Arnon Gorge. See, I have given into your hand Sihon the Amorite, king of Heshbon, and his country. Begin to take possession of it and engage him in battle.

Deuteronomy 2:25 This very day I will begin to put the terror and fear of you on all the nations under heaven. They will hear reports of you and will tremble and be in anguish because of you.”

Deuteronomy 2:26 From the desert of Kedemoth I sent messengers to Sihon king of Heshbon offering peace and saying,

Deuteronomy 2:27 “Let us pass through your country. We will stay on the main road; we will not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 2:28 Sell us food to eat and water to drink for their price in silver. Only let us pass through on foot—

Deuteronomy 2:29 as the descendants of Esau, who live in Seir, and the Moabites, who live in Ar, did for us—until we cross the Jordan into the land the LORD our God is giving us.”

Deuteronomy 2:30 But Sihon king of Heshbon refused to let us pass through. For the LORD your God had made his spirit stubborn and his heart obstinate in order to give him into your hands, as he has now done.

Deuteronomy 2:31 The LORD said to me, “See, I have begun to deliver Sihon and his country over to you. Now begin to conquer and possess his land.”

Deuteronomy 2:32 When Sihon and all his army came out to meet us in battle at Jahaz,

Deuteronomy 2:33 the LORD our God delivered him over to us and we struck him down, together with his sons and his whole army.

Deuteronomy 2:34 At that time we took all his towns and completely destroyed them—men, women and children. We left no survivors.

Deuteronomy 2:35 But the livestock and the plunder from the towns we had captured we carried off for ourselves.

Deuteronomy 2:36 From Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the gorge, even as far as Gilead, not one town was too strong for us. The LORD our God gave us all of them.

Deuteronomy 2:37 But in accordance with the command of the LORD our God, you did not encroach on any of the land of the Ammonites, neither the land along the course of the Jabbok nor that around the towns in the hills.

Deuteronomy 3:1 Next we turned and went up along the road towards Bashan, and Og king of Bashan with his whole army marched out to meet us in battle at Edrei.

Deuteronomy 3:2 The LORD said to me, “Do not be afraid of him, for I have handed him over to you with his whole army and his land. Do to him what you did to Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon.”

Deuteronomy 3:3 So the LORD our God also gave into our hands Og king of Bashan and all his army. We struck them down, leaving no survivors.

Deuteronomy 3:4 At that time we took all his cities. There was not one of the sixty cities that we did not take from them—the whole region of Argob, Og’s kingdom in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:5 All these cities were fortified with high walls and with gates and bars, and there were also a great many unwalled villages.

Deuteronomy 3:6 We completely destroyed them, as we had done with Sihon king of Heshbon, destroying every city—men, women and children.

Deuteronomy 3:7 But all the livestock and the plunder from their cities we carried off for ourselves.

Deuteronomy 3:8 So at that time we took from these two kings of the Amorites the territory east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge as far as Mount Hermon.

Deuteronomy 3:9 (Hermon is called Sirion by the Sidonians; the Amorites call it Senir.)

Deuteronomy 3:10 We took all the towns on the plateau, and all Gilead, and all Bashan as far as Salecah and Edrei, towns of Og’s kingdom in Bashan.

Deuteronomy 3:11 (Only Og king of Bashan was left of the remnant of the Rephaites. His bed was made of iron and was more than thirteen feet long and six feet wide. It is still in Rabbah of the Ammonites.)

Deuteronomy 3:12 Of the land that we took over at that time, I gave the Reubenites and the Gadites the territory north of Aroer by the Arnon Gorge, including half the hill country of Gilead, together with its towns.

Deuteronomy 3:13 The rest of Gilead and also all of Bashan, the kingdom of Og, I gave to the half-tribe of Manasseh. (The whole region of Argob in Bashan used to be known as a land of the Rephaites.

Deuteronomy 3:14 Jair, a descendant of Manasseh, took the whole region of Argob as far as the border of the Geshurites and the Maacathites; it was named after him, so that to this day Bashan is called Havvoth Jair.)

Deuteronomy 3:15 And I gave Gilead to Makir.

Deuteronomy 3:16 But to the Reubenites and the Gadites I gave the territory extending from Gilead down to the Arnon Gorge (the middle of the gorge being the border) and out to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites.

Deuteronomy 3:17 Its western border was the Jordan in the Arabah, from Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 3:18 I commanded you at that time: “The LORD your God has given you this land to take possession of it. But all your able-bodied men, armed for battle, must cross over ahead of your brother Israelites.

Deuteronomy 3:19 However, your wives, your children and your livestock (I know you have much livestock) may stay in the towns I have given you,

Deuteronomy 3:20 until the LORD gives rest to your brothers as he has to you, and they too have taken over the land that the LORD your God is giving them, across the Jordan. After that, each of you may go back to the possession I have given you.”

Deuteronomy 3:21 At that time I commanded Joshua: “You have seen with your own eyes all that the LORD your God has done to these two kings. The LORD will do the same to all the kingdoms over there where you are going.

Deuteronomy 3:22 Do not be afraid of them; the LORD your God himself will fight for you.”

Deuteronomy 3:23 At that time I pleaded with the LORD:

Deuteronomy 3:24 “O Sovereign LORD, you have begun to show to your servant your greatness and your strong hand. For what god is there in heaven or on earth who can do the deeds and mighty works you do?

Deuteronomy 3:25 Let me go over and see the good land beyond the Jordan— that fine hill country and Lebanon.”

Deuteronomy 3:26 But because of you the LORD was angry with me and would not listen to me. “That is enough,” the LORD said. “Do not speak to me any more about this matter.

Deuteronomy 3:27 Go up to the top of Pisgah and look west and north and south and east. Look at the land with your own eyes, since you are not going to cross this Jordan.

Deuteronomy 3:28 But commission Joshua, and encourage and strengthen him, for he will lead this people across and will cause them to inherit the land that you will see.”

Deuteronomy 3:29 So we stayed in the valley near Beth Peor.

Deuteronomy 4:1 Hear now, O Israel, the decrees and laws I am about to teach you. Follow them so that you may live and may go in and take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, is giving you.

Deuteronomy 4:2 Do not add to what I command you and do not subtract from it, but keep the commands of the LORD your God that I give you.

Deuteronomy 4:3 You saw with your own eyes what the LORD did at Baal Peor. The LORD your God destroyed from among you everyone who followed the Baal of Peor, Deuteronomy 4:4 but all of you who held fast to the LORD your God are still alive today.

Deuteronomy 4:5 See, I have taught you decrees and laws as the LORD my God commanded me, so that you may follow them in the land you are entering to take possession of it.

Deuteronomy 4:6 Observe them carefully, for this will show your wisdom and understanding to the nations, who will hear about all these decrees and say, “Surely this great nation is a wise and understanding people.”

Deuteronomy 4:7 What other nation is so great as to have their gods near them the way the LORD our God is near us whenever we pray to him?

Deuteronomy 4:8 And what other nation is so great as to have such righteous decrees and laws as this body of laws I am setting before you today?

Deuteronomy 4:9 Only be careful, and watch yourselves closely so that you do not forget the things your eyes have seen or let them slip from your heart as long as you live. Teach them to your children and to their children after them.

Deuteronomy 4:10 Remember the day you stood before the LORD your God at Horeb, when he said to me, “Assemble the people before me to hear my words so that they may learn to revere me as long as they live in the land and may teach them to their children.”

Deuteronomy 4:11 You came near and stood at the foot of the mountain while it blazed with fire to the very heavens, with black clouds and deep darkness.

Deuteronomy 4:12 Then the LORD spoke to you out of the fire. You heard the sound of words but saw no form; there was only a voice.

Deuteronomy 4:13 He declared to you his covenant, the Ten Commandments, which he commanded you to follow and then wrote them on two stone tablets.

Deuteronomy 4:14 And the LORD directed me at that time to teach you the decrees and laws you are to follow in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess.

Deuteronomy 4:15 You saw no form of any kind the day the LORD spoke to you at Horeb out of the fire. Therefore watch yourselves very carefully,

Deuteronomy 4:16 so that you do not become corrupt and make for yourselves an idol, an image of any shape, whether formed like a man or a woman,

Deuteronomy 4:17 or like any animal on earth or any bird that flies in the air,

Deuteronomy 4:18 or like any creature that moves along the ground or any fish in the waters below.

Deuteronomy 4:19 And when you look up to the sky and see the sun, the moon and the stars—all the heavenly array—do not be enticed into bowing down to them and worshipping things the LORD your God has apportioned to all the nations under heaven.

Deuteronomy 4:20 But as for you, the LORD took you and brought you out of the iron-smelting furnace, out of Egypt, to be the people of his inheritance, as you now are.

Deuteronomy 4:21 The LORD was angry with me because of you, and he solemnly swore that I would not cross the Jordan and enter the good land the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance.

Deuteronomy 4:22 I will die in this land; I will not cross the Jordan; but you are about to cross over and take possession of that good land.

Deuteronomy 4:23 Be careful not to forget the covenant of the LORD your God that he made with you; do not make for yourselves an idol in the form of anything the LORD your God has forbidden.

Deuteronomy 4:24 For the LORD your God is a consuming fire, a jealous God.

Deuteronomy 4:25 After you have had children and grandchildren and have lived in the land a long time—if you then become corrupt and make any kind of idol, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God and provoking him to anger,

Deuteronomy 4:26 I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you this day that you will quickly perish from the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess. You will not live there long but will certainly be destroyed.

Deuteronomy 4:27 The LORD will scatter you among the peoples, and only a few of you will survive among the nations to which the LORD will drive you.

Deuteronomy 4:28 There you will worship man-made gods of wood and stone, which cannot see or hear or eat or smell.

Deuteronomy 4:29 But if from there you seek the LORD your God, you will find him if you look for him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 4:30 When you are in distress and all these things have happened to you, then in later days you will return to the LORD your God and obey him.

Deuteronomy 4:31 For the LORD your God is a merciful God; he will not abandon or destroy you or forget the covenant with your forefathers, which he confirmed to them by oath.

Deuteronomy 4:32 Ask now about the former days, long before your time, from the day God created man on the earth; ask from one end of the heavens to the other. Has anything so great as this ever happened, or has anything like it ever been heard of?

Deuteronomy 4:33 Has any other people heard the voice of God speaking out of fire, as you have, and lived?

Deuteronomy 4:34 Has any god ever tried to take for himself one nation out of another nation, by testings, by miraculous signs and wonders, by war, by a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, or by great and awesome deeds, like all the things the LORD your God did for you in Egypt before your very eyes?

Deuteronomy 4:35 You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:36 From heaven he made you hear his voice to discipline you. On earth he showed you his great fire, and you heard his words from out of the fire.

Deuteronomy 4:37 Because he loved your forefathers and chose their descendants after them, he brought you out of Egypt by his Presence and his great strength,

Deuteronomy 4:38 to drive out before you nations greater and stronger than you and to bring you into their land to give it to you for your inheritance, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 4:39 Acknowledge and take to heart this day that the LORD is God in heaven above and on the earth below. There is no other.

Deuteronomy 4:40 Keep his decrees and commands, which I am giving you today, so that it may go well with you and your children after you and that you may live long in the land the LORD your God gives you for all time.

Deuteronomy 4:41 Then Moses set aside three cities east of the Jordan,

Deuteronomy 4:42 to which anyone who had killed a person could flee if he had unintentionally killed his neighbour without malice aforethought. He could flee into one of these cities and save his life.

Deuteronomy 4:43 The cities were these: Bezer in the desert plateau, for the Reubenites; Ramoth in Gilead, for the Gadites; and Golan in Bashan, for the Manassites.

Deuteronomy 4:44 This is the law Moses set before the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 4:45 These are the stipulations, decrees and laws Moses gave them when they came out of Egypt

Deuteronomy 4:46 and were in the valley near Beth Peor east of the Jordan, in the land of Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon and was defeated by Moses and the Israelites as they came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 4:47 They took possession of his land and the land of Og king of Bashan, the two Amorite kings east of the Jordan.

Deuteronomy 4:48 This land extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge to Mount Siyon (that is, Hermon),

Deuteronomy 4:49 and included all the Arabah east of the Jordan, as far as the Sea of the Arabah, below the slopes of Pisgah.

Deuteronomy 5:1 Moses summoned all Israel and said: Hear, O Israel, the decrees and the laws I declare in your hearing today. Learn them and be sure to follow them.

Deuteronomy 5:2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 5:3 It was not with our fathers that the LORD made this covenant, but with us, with all of us who are alive here today.

Deuteronomy 5:4 The LORD spoke to you face to face out of the fire on the mountain.

Deuteronomy 5:5 (At that time I stood between the LORD and you to declare to you the word of the LORD, because you were afraid of the fire and did not go up the mountain.) And he said:

Deuteronomy 5:6 “I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deuteronomy 5:7 “You shall have no other gods before me.

Deuteronomy 5:8 “You shall not make for yourself an idol in the form of anything in heaven above or on the earth beneath or in the waters below.

Deuteronomy 5:9 You shall not bow down to them or worship them; for I, the LORD your God, am a jealous God, punishing the children for the sin of the fathers to the third and fourth generation of those who hate me,

Deuteronomy 5:10 but showing love to a thousand [generations] of those who love me and keep my commandments.

Deuteronomy 5:11 “You shall not misuse the name of the LORD your God, for the LORD will not hold anyone guiltless who misuses his name.

Deuteronomy 5:12 “Observe the Sabbath day by keeping it holy, as the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 5:13 Six days you shall labour and do all your work, Deuteronomy 5:14 but the seventh day is a Sabbath to the LORD your God. On it you shall not do any work, neither you, nor your son or daughter, nor your manservant or maidservant, nor your ox, your donkey or any of your animals, nor the alien within your gates, so that your manservant and maidservant may rest, as you do.

Deuteronomy 5:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and that the LORD your God brought you out of there with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm. Therefore the LORD your God has commanded you to observe the Sabbath day.

Deuteronomy 5:16 “Honour your father and your mother, as the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live long and that it may go well with you in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 5:17 “You shall not murder.

Deuteronomy 5:18 “You shall not commit adultery.

Deuteronomy 5:19 “You shall not steal.

Deuteronomy 5:20 “You shall not give false testimony against your neighbour.

Deuteronomy 5:21 “You shall not covet your neighbour’s wife. You shall not set your desire on your neighbour’s house or land, his manservant or maidservant, his ox or donkey, or anything that belongs to your neighbour.”

Deuteronomy 5:22 These are the commandments the LORD proclaimed in a loud voice to your whole assembly there on the mountain from out of the fire, the cloud and the deep darkness; and he added nothing more. Then he wrote them on two stone tablets and gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 5:23 When you heard the voice out of the darkness, while the mountain was ablaze with fire, all the leading men of your tribes and your elders came to me.

Deuteronomy 5:24 And you said, “The LORD our God has shown us his glory and his majesty, and we have heard his voice from the fire. Today we have seen that a man can live even if God speaks with him.

Deuteronomy 5:25 But now, why should we die? This great fire will consume us, and we will die if we hear the voice of the LORD our God any longer.

Deuteronomy 5:26 For what mortal man has ever heard the voice of the living God speaking out of fire, as we have, and survived?

Deuteronomy 5:27 Go near and listen to all that the LORD our God says. Then tell us whatever the LORD our God tells you. We will listen and obey.”

Deuteronomy 5:28 The LORD heard you when you spoke to me and the LORD said to me, “I have heard what this people said to you. Everything they said was good.

Deuteronomy 5:29 Oh, that their hearts would be inclined to fear me and keep all my commands always, so that it might go well with them and their children for ever!

Deuteronomy 5:30 “Go, tell them to return to their tents.

Deuteronomy 5:31 But you stay here with me so that I may give you all the commands, decrees and laws that you are to teach them to follow in the land I am giving them to possess.”

Deuteronomy 5:32 So be careful to do what the LORD your God has commanded you; do not turn aside to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 5:33 Walk in all the way that the LORD your God has commanded you, so that you may live and prosper and prolong your days in the land that you will possess.

Deuteronomy 6:1 These are the commands, decrees and laws the LORD your God directed me to teach you to observe in the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,

Deuteronomy 6:2 so that you, your children and their children after them may fear the LORD your God as long as you live by keeping all his decrees and commands that I give you, and so that you may enjoy long life.

Deuteronomy 6:3 Hear, O Israel, and be careful to obey so that it may go well with you and that you may increase greatly in a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

Deuteronomy 6:4 Hear, O Israel: The LORD our God, the LORD is one.

Deuteronomy 6:5 Love the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.

Deuteronomy 6:6 These commandments that I give you today are to be upon your hearts.

Deuteronomy 6:7 Impress them on your children. Talk about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 6:8 Tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Deuteronomy 6:9 Write them on the door-frames of your houses and on your gates.

Deuteronomy 6:10 When the LORD your God brings you into the land he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, to give you—a land with large, flourishing cities you did not build,

Deuteronomy 6:11 houses filled with all kinds of good things you did not provide, wells you did not dig, and vineyards and olive groves you did not plant—then when you eat and are satisfied, Deuteronomy 6:12 be careful that you do not forget the LORD, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deuteronomy 6:13 Fear the LORD your God, serve him only and take your oaths in his name.

Deuteronomy 6:14 Do not follow other gods, the gods of the peoples around you;

Deuteronomy 6:15 for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a jealous God and his anger will burn against you, and he will destroy you from the face of the land.

Deuteronomy 6:16 Do not test the LORD your God as you did at Massah.

Deuteronomy 6:17 Be sure to keep the commands of the LORD your God and the stipulations and decrees he has given you.

Deuteronomy 6:18 Do what is right and good in the LORD's sight, so that it may go well with you and you may go in and take over the good land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers,

Deuteronomy 6:19 thrusting out all your enemies before you, as the LORD said.

Deuteronomy 6:20 In the future, when your son asks you, "What is the meaning of the stipulations, decrees and laws the LORD our God has commanded you?"

Deuteronomy 6:21 tell him: "We were slaves of Pharaoh in Egypt, but the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 6:22 Before our eyes the LORD sent miraculous signs and wonders— great and terrible—upon Egypt and Pharaoh and his whole household.

Deuteronomy 6:23 But he brought us out from there to bring us in and give us the land that he promised on oath to our forefathers.

Deuteronomy 6:24 The LORD commanded us to obey all these decrees and to fear the LORD our God, so that we might always prosper and be kept alive, as is the case today.

Deuteronomy 6:25 And if we are careful to obey all this law before the LORD our God, as he has commanded us, that will be our righteousness."

Deuteronomy 7:1 When the LORD your God brings you into the land you are entering to possess and drives out before you many nations— the Hittites, Girgashites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites, seven nations larger and stronger than you—

Deuteronomy 7:2 and when the LORD your God has delivered them over to you and you have defeated them, then you must destroy them totally. Make no treaty with them, and show them no mercy.

Deuteronomy 7:3 Do not intermarry with them. Do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons,

Deuteronomy 7:4 for they will turn your sons away from following me to serve other gods, and the LORD's anger will burn against you and will quickly destroy you.

Deuteronomy 7:5 This is what you are to do to them: Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones, cut down their Asherah poles and burn their idols in the fire.

Deuteronomy 7:6 For you are a people holy to the LORD your God. The LORD your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his people, his treasured possession.

Deuteronomy 7:7 The LORD did not set his affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.

Deuteronomy 7:8 But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your forefathers that he brought you out with a mighty hand and redeemed you from the land of slavery, from the power of Pharaoh king of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:9 Know therefore that the LORD your God is God; he is the faithful God, keeping his covenant of love to a thousand generations of those who love him and keep his commands.

Deuteronomy 7:10 But those who hate him he will repay to their face by destruction; he will not be slow to repay to their face those who hate him.

Deuteronomy 7:11 Therefore, take care to follow the commands, decrees and laws I give you today.

Deuteronomy 7:12 If you pay attention to these laws and are careful to follow them, then the LORD your God will keep his covenant of love with you, as he swore to your forefathers.

Deuteronomy 7:13 He will love you and bless you and increase your numbers. He will bless the fruit of your womb, the crops of your land—your grain, new wine and oil—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks in the land that he swore to your forefathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 7:14 You will be blessed more than any other people; none of your men or women will be childless, nor any of your livestock without young.

Deuteronomy 7:15 The LORD will keep you free from every disease. He will not inflict on you the horrible diseases you knew in Egypt, but he will inflict them on all who hate you.

Deuteronomy 7:16 You must destroy all the peoples the LORD your God gives over to you. Do not look on them with pity and do not serve their gods, for that will be a snare to you.

Deuteronomy 7:17 You may say to yourselves, “These nations are stronger than we are. How can we drive them out?”

Deuteronomy 7:18 But do not be afraid of them; remember well what the LORD your God did to Pharaoh and to all Egypt.

Deuteronomy 7:19 You saw with your own eyes the great trials, the miraculous signs and wonders, the mighty hand and outstretched arm, with which the LORD your God brought you out. The LORD your God will do the same to all the peoples you now fear.

Deuteronomy 7:20 Moreover, the LORD your God will send the hornet among them until even the survivors who hide from you have perished.

Deuteronomy 7:21 Do not be terrified by them, for the LORD your God, who is among you, is a great and awesome God.

Deuteronomy 7:22 The LORD your God will drive out those nations before you, little by little. You will not be allowed to eliminate them all at once, or the wild animals will multiply around you.

Deuteronomy 7:23 But the LORD your God will deliver them over to you, throwing them into great confusion until they are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 7:24 He will give their kings into your hand, and you will wipe out their names from under heaven. No-one will be able to stand up against you; you will destroy them.

Deuteronomy 7:25 The images of their gods you are to burn in the fire. Do not covet the silver and gold on them, and do not take it for yourselves, or you will be ensnared by it, for it is detestable to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 7:26 Do not bring a detestable thing into your house or you, like it, will be set apart for destruction. Utterly abhor and detest it, for it is set apart for destruction.

Deuteronomy 8:1 Be careful to follow every command I am giving you today, so that you may live and increase and may enter and possess the land that the LORD promised on oath to your forefathers.

Deuteronomy 8:2 Remember how the LORD your God led you all the way in the desert these forty years, to humble you and to test you in order to know what was in your heart, whether or not you would keep his commands.

Deuteronomy 8:3 He humbled you, causing you to hunger and then feeding you with manna, which neither you nor your fathers had known, to teach you that man does not live on bread alone but on every word that comes from the mouth of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 8:4 Your clothes did not wear out and your feet did not swell during these forty years.

Deuteronomy 8:5 Know then in your heart that as a man disciplines his son, so the LORD your God disciplines you.

Deuteronomy 8:6 Observe the commands of the LORD your God, walking in his ways and revering him.

Deuteronomy 8:7 For the LORD your God is bringing you into a good land—a land with streams and pools of water, with springs flowing in the valleys and hills;

Deuteronomy 8:8 a land with wheat and barley, vines and fig-trees, pomegranates, olive oil and honey;

Deuteronomy 8:9 a land where bread will not be scarce and you will lack nothing; a land where the rocks are iron and you can dig copper out of the hills.

Deuteronomy 8:10 When you have eaten and are satisfied, praise the LORD your God for the good land he has given you.

Deuteronomy 8:11 Be careful that you do not forget the LORD your God, failing to observe his commands, his laws and his decrees that I am giving you this day.

Deuteronomy 8:12 Otherwise, when you eat and are satisfied, when you build fine houses and settle down,

Deuteronomy 8:13 and when your herds and flocks grow large and your silver and gold increase and all you have is multiplied,

Deuteronomy 8:14 then your heart will become proud and you will forget the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deuteronomy 8:15 He led you through the vast and dreadful desert, that thirsty and waterless land, with its venomous snakes and scorpions. He brought you water out of hard rock.

Deuteronomy 8:16 He gave you manna to eat in the desert, something your fathers had never known, to humble and to test you so that in the end it might go well with you.

Deuteronomy 8:17 You may say to yourself, “My power and the strength of my hands have produced this wealth for me.”

Deuteronomy 8:18 But remember the LORD your God, for it is he who gives you the ability to produce wealth, and so confirms his covenant, which he swore to your forefathers, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 8:19 If you ever forget the LORD your God and follow other gods and worship and bow down to them, I testify against you today that you will surely be destroyed.

Deuteronomy 8:20 Like the nations the LORD destroyed before you, so you will be destroyed for not obeying the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 9:1 Hear, O Israel. You are now about to cross the Jordan to go in and dispossess nations greater and stronger than you, with large cities that have walls up to the sky.

Deuteronomy 9:2 The people are strong and tall—Anakites! You know about them and have heard it said: “Who can stand up against the Anakites?”

Deuteronomy 9:3 But be assured today that the LORD your God is the one who goes across ahead of you like a devouring fire. He will destroy them; he will subdue them before you. And you will drive them out and annihilate them quickly, as the LORD has promised you.

Deuteronomy 9:4 After the LORD your God has driven them out before you, do not say to yourself, “The LORD has brought me here to take possession of this land because of my righteousness.” No, it is on account of the wickedness of these nations that the LORD is going to drive them out before you.

Deuteronomy 9:5 It is not because of your righteousness or your integrity that you are going in to take possession of their land; but on account of the wickedness of these nations, the LORD your God will drive them out before you, to accomplish what he swore to your fathers, to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 9:6 Understand, then, that it is not because of your righteousness that the LORD your God is giving you this good land to possess, for you are a stiff-necked people.

Deuteronomy 9:7 Remember this and never forget how you provoked the LORD your God to anger in the desert. From the day you left Egypt until you arrived here, you have been rebellious against the LORD.

Deuteronomy 9:8 At Horeb you aroused the LORD’s wrath so that he was angry enough to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:9 When I went up on the mountain to receive the tablets of stone, the tablets of the covenant that the LORD had made with you, I stayed on the mountain forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water.

Deuteronomy 9:10 The LORD gave me two stone tablets inscribed by the finger of God. On them were all the commandments the LORD proclaimed to you on the mountain out of the fire, on the day of the assembly.

Deuteronomy 9:11 At the end of the forty days and forty nights, the LORD gave me the two stone tablets, the tablets of the covenant.

Deuteronomy 9:12 Then the LORD told me, “Go down from here at once, because your people whom you brought out of Egypt have become corrupt. They have turned away quickly from what I commanded them and have made a cast idol for themselves.”

Deuteronomy 9:13 And the LORD said to me, “I have seen this people, and they are a stiff-necked people indeed!

Deuteronomy 9:14 Let me alone, so that I may destroy them and blot out their name from under heaven. And I will make you into a nation stronger and more numerous than they.”

Deuteronomy 9:15 So I turned and went down from the mountain while it was ablaze with fire. And the two tablets of the covenant were in my hands.

Deuteronomy 9:16 When I looked, I saw that you had sinned against the LORD your God; you had made for yourselves an idol cast in the shape of a calf. You had turned aside quickly from the way that the LORD had commanded you.

Deuteronomy 9:17 So I took the two tablets and threw them out of my hands, breaking them to pieces before your eyes.

Deuteronomy 9:18 Then once again I fell prostrate before the LORD for forty days and forty nights; I ate no bread and drank no water, because of all the sin you had committed, doing what was evil in the LORD’s sight and so provoking him to anger.

Deuteronomy 9:19 I feared the anger and wrath of the LORD, for he was angry enough with you to destroy you. But again the LORD listened to me.

Deuteronomy 9:20 And the LORD was angry enough with Aaron to destroy him, but at that time I prayed for Aaron too.

Deuteronomy 9:21 Also I took that sinful thing of yours, the calf you had made, and burned it in the fire. Then I crushed it and ground it to powder as fine as dust and threw the dust into a stream that flowed down the mountain.

Deuteronomy 9:22 You also made the LORD angry at Taberah, at Massah and at Kibroth Hattaavah.

Deuteronomy 9:23 And when the LORD sent you out from Kadesh Barnea, he said, “Go up and take possession of the land I have given you.” But you rebelled against the command of the LORD your God. You did not trust him or obey him.

Deuteronomy 9:24 You have been rebellious against the LORD ever since I have known you.

Deuteronomy 9:25 I lay prostrate before the LORD those forty days and forty nights because the LORD had said he would destroy you.

Deuteronomy 9:26 I prayed to the LORD and said, “O Sovereign LORD, do not destroy your people, your own inheritance that you redeemed by your great power and brought out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

Deuteronomy 9:27 Remember your servants Abraham, Isaac and Jacob. Overlook the stubbornness of this people, their wickedness and their sin.

Deuteronomy 9:28 Otherwise, the country from which you brought us will say,`Because the LORD was not able to take them into the land he had promised them, and because he hated them, he brought them out to put them to death in the desert.’

Deuteronomy 9:29 But they are your people, your inheritance that you brought out by your great power and your outstretched arm.”

Deuteronomy 10:1 At that time the LORD said to me, “Chisel out two stone tablets like the first ones and come up to me on the mountain. Also make a wooden chest.

Deuteronomy 10:2 I will write on the tablets the words that were on the first tablets, which you broke. Then you are to put them in the chest.”

Deuteronomy 10:3 So I made the ark out of acacia wood and chiselled out two stone tablets like the first ones, and I went up on the mountain with the two tablets in my hands.

Deuteronomy 10:4 The LORD wrote on these tablets what he had written before, the Ten Commandments he had proclaimed to you on the mountain, out of the fire, on the day of the assembly. And the LORD gave them to me.

Deuteronomy 10:5 Then I came back down the mountain and put the tablets in the ark I had made, as the LORD commanded me, and they are there now.

Deuteronomy 10:6 (The Israelites travelled from the wells of the Jaakanites to Moserah. There Aaron died and was buried, and Eleazar his son succeeded him as priest.

Deuteronomy 10:7 From there they travelled to Gudgodah and on to Jotbathah, a land with streams of water.

Deuteronomy 10:8 At that time the LORD set apart the tribe of Levi to carry the ark of the covenant of the LORD, to stand before the LORD to minister and to pronounce blessings in his name, as they still do today.

Deuteronomy 10:9 That is why the Levites have no share or inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as the LORD your God told them.)

Deuteronomy 10:10 Now I had stayed on the mountain forty days and nights, as I did the first time, and the LORD listened to me at this time also. It was not his will to destroy you.

Deuteronomy 10:11 “Go,” the LORD said to me, “and lead the people on their way, so that they may enter and possess the land that I swore to their fathers to give them.”

Deuteronomy 10:12 And now, O Israel, what does the LORD your God ask of you but to fear the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to love him, to serve the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul,

Deuteronomy 10:13 and to observe the LORD’s commands and decrees that I am giving you today for your own good?

Deuteronomy 10:14 To the LORD your God belong the heavens, even the highest heavens, the earth and everything in it.

Deuteronomy 10:15 Yet the LORD set his affection on your forefathers and loved them, and he chose you, their descendants, above all the nations, as it is today.

Deuteronomy 10:16 Circumcise your hearts, therefore, and do not be stiff-necked any longer.

Deuteronomy 10:17 For the LORD your God is God of gods and Lord of lords, the great God, mighty and awesome, who shows no partiality and accepts no bribes.

Deuteronomy 10:18 He defends the cause of the fatherless and the widow, and loves the alien, giving him food and clothing.

Deuteronomy 10:19 And you are to love those who are aliens, for you yourselves were aliens in Egypt.

Deuteronomy 10:20 Fear the LORD your God and serve him. Hold fast to him and take your oaths in his name.

Deuteronomy 10:21 He is your praise; he is your God, who performed for you those great and awesome wonders you saw with your own eyes.

Deuteronomy 10:22 Your forefathers who went down into Egypt were seventy in all, and now the LORD your God has made you as numerous as the stars in the sky.

Deuteronomy 11:1 Love the LORD your God and keep his requirements, his decrees, his laws and his commands always.

Deuteronomy 11:2 Remember today that your children were not the ones who saw and experienced the discipline of the LORD your God: his majesty, his mighty hand, his outstretched arm;

Deuteronomy 11:3 the signs he performed and the things he did in the heart of Egypt, both to Pharaoh king of Egypt and to his whole country;

Deuteronomy 11:4 what he did to the Egyptian army, to its horses and chariots, how he overwhelmed them with the waters of the Red Sea as they were pursuing you, and how the LORD brought lasting ruin on them.

Deuteronomy 11:5 It was not your children who saw what he did for you in the desert until you arrived at this place,

Deuteronomy 11:6 and what he did to Dathan and Abiram, sons of Eliab the Reubenite, when the earth opened its mouth right in the middle of all Israel and swallowed them up with their households, their tents and every living thing that belonged to them.

Deuteronomy 11:7 But it was your own eyes that saw all these great things the LORD has done.

Deuteronomy 11:8 Observe therefore all the commands I am giving you today, so that you may have the strength to go in and take over the land that you are crossing the Jordan to possess,

Deuteronomy 11:9 and so that you may live long in the land that the LORD swore to your forefathers to give to them and their descendants, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Deuteronomy 11:10 The land you are entering to take over is not like the land of Egypt, from which you have come, where you planted your seed and irrigated it by foot as in a vegetable garden.

Deuteronomy 11:11 But the land you are crossing the Jordan to take possession of is a land of mountains and valleys that drinks rain from heaven.

Deuteronomy 11:12 It is a land the LORD your God cares for; the eyes of the LORD your God are continually on it from the beginning of the year to its end.

Deuteronomy 11:13 So if you faithfully obey the commands I am giving you today—to love the LORD your God and to serve him with all your heart and with all your soul—

Deuteronomy 11:14 then I will send rain on your land in its season, both autumn and spring rains, so that you may gather in your grain, new wine and oil.

Deuteronomy 11:15 I will provide grass in the fields for your cattle, and you will eat and be satisfied.

Deuteronomy 11:16 Be careful, or you will be enticed to turn away and worship other gods and bow down to them.

Deuteronomy 11:17 Then the LORD’s anger will burn against you, and he will shut the heavens so that it will not rain and the ground will yield no produce, and you will soon perish from the good land the LORD is giving you.

Deuteronomy 11:18 Fix these words of mine in your hearts and minds; tie them as symbols on your hands and bind them on your foreheads.

Deuteronomy 11:19 Teach them to your children, talking about them when you sit at home and when you walk along the road, when you lie down and when you get up.

Deuteronomy 11:20 Write them on the door-frames of your houses and on your gates, Deuteronomy 11:21 so that your days and the days of your children may be many in the land that the LORD swore to give your forefathers, as many as the days that the heavens are above the earth.

Deuteronomy 11:22 If you carefully observe all these commands I am giving you to follow—to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways and to hold fast to him—

Deuteronomy 11:23 then the LORD will drive out all these nations before you, and you will dispossess nations larger and stronger than you.

Deuteronomy 11:24 Every place where you set your foot will be yours: Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the Euphrates River to the western sea.

Deuteronomy 11:25 No man will be able to stand against you. The LORD your God, as he promised you, will put the terror and fear of you on the whole land, wherever you go.

Deuteronomy 11:26 See, I am setting before you today a blessing and a curse—

Deuteronomy 11:27 the blessing if you obey the commands of the LORD your God that I am giving you today;

Deuteronomy 11:28 the curse if you disobey the commands of the LORD your God and turn from the way that I command you today by following other gods, which you have not known.

Deuteronomy 11:29 When the LORD your God has brought you into the land you are entering to possess, you are to proclaim on Mount Gerizim the blessings, and on Mount Ebal the curses.

Deuteronomy 11:30 As you know, these mountains are across the Jordan, west of the road, towards the setting sun, near the great trees of Moreh, in the territory of those Canaanites living in the Arabah in the vicinity of Gilgal.

Deuteronomy 11:31 You are about to cross the Jordan to enter and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you. When you have taken it over and are living there, Deuteronomy 11:32 be sure that you obey all the decrees and laws I am setting before you today.

Deuteronomy 12:1 These are the decrees and laws you must be careful to follow in the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you to possess—as long as you live in the land.

Deuteronomy 12:2 Destroy completely all the places on the high mountains and on the hills and under every spreading tree where the nations you are dispossessing worship their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:3 Break down their altars, smash their sacred stones and burn their Asherah poles in the fire; cut down the idols of their gods and wipe out their names from those places.

Deuteronomy 12:4 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way.

Deuteronomy 12:5 But you are to seek the place the LORD your God will choose from among all your tribes to put his Name there for his dwelling. To that place you must go;

Deuteronomy 12:6 there bring your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, what you have vowed to give and your freewill offerings, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks.

Deuteronomy 12:7 There, in the presence of the LORD your God, you and your families shall eat and shall rejoice in everything you have put your hand to, because the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 12:8 You are not to do as we do here today, everyone as he sees fit,

Deuteronomy 12:9 since you have not yet reached the resting place and the inheritance the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 12:10 But you will cross the Jordan and settle in the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, and he will give you rest from all your enemies around you so that you will live in safety.

Deuteronomy 12:11 Then to the place the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name—there you are to bring everything I command you: your burnt offerings and sacrifices, your tithes and special gifts, and all the choice possessions you have vowed to the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:12 And there rejoice before the LORD your God, you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns, who have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

Deuteronomy 12:13 Be careful not to sacrifice your burnt offerings anywhere you please.

Deuteronomy 12:14 Offer them only at the place the LORD will choose in one of your tribes, and there observe everything I command you.

Deuteronomy 12:15 Nevertheless, you may slaughter your animals in any of your towns and eat as much of the meat as you want, as if it were gazelle or deer, according to the blessing the LORD your God gives you. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it.

Deuteronomy 12:16 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:17 You must not eat in your own towns the tithe of your grain and new wine and oil, or the firstborn of your herds and flocks, or whatever you have vowed to give, or your freewill offerings or special gifts.

Deuteronomy 12:18 Instead, you are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place the LORD your God will choose—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites from your towns—and you are to rejoice before the LORD your God in everything you put your hand to.

Deuteronomy 12:19 Be careful not to neglect the Levites as long as you live in your land.

Deuteronomy 12:20 When the LORD your God has enlarged your territory as he promised you, and you crave meat and say, “I would like some meat,” then you may eat as much of it as you want.

Deuteronomy 12:21 If the place where the LORD your God chooses to put his Name is too far away from you, you may slaughter animals from the herds and flocks the LORD has given you, as I have commanded you, and in your own towns you may eat as much of them as you want.

Deuteronomy 12:22 Eat them as you would gazelle or deer. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat.

Deuteronomy 12:23 But be sure you do not eat the blood, because the blood is the life, and you must not eat the life with the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:24 You must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 12:25 Do not eat it, so that it may go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 12:26 But take your consecrated things and whatever you have vowed to give, and go to the place the LORD will choose.

Deuteronomy 12:27 Present your burnt offerings on the altar of the LORD your God, both the meat and the blood. The blood of your sacrifices must be poured beside the altar of the LORD your God, but you may eat the meat.

Deuteronomy 12:28 Be careful to obey all these regulations I am giving you, so that it may always go well with you and your children after you, because you will be doing what is good and right in the eyes of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 12:29 The LORD your God will cut off before you the nations you are about to invade and dispossess. But when you have driven them out and settled in their land,

Deuteronomy 12:30 and after they have been destroyed before you, be careful not to be ensnared by enquiring about their gods, saying, “How do these nations serve their gods? We will do the same.”

Deuteronomy 12:31 You must not worship the LORD your God in their way, because in worshipping their gods, they do all kinds of detestable things the LORD hates. They even burn their sons and daughters in the fire as sacrifices to their gods.

Deuteronomy 12:32 See that you do all I command you; do not add to it or take away from it.

Deuteronomy 13:1 If a prophet, or one who foretells by dreams, appears among you and announces to you a miraculous sign or wonder,

Deuteronomy 13:2 and if the sign or wonder of which he has spoken takes place, and he says, “Let us follow other gods” (gods you have not known) “and let us worship them,”

Deuteronomy 13:3 you must not listen to the words of that prophet or dreamer. The LORD your God is testing you to find out whether you love him with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 13:4 It is the LORD your God you must follow, and him you must revere. Keep his commands and obey him; serve him and hold fast to him.

Deuteronomy 13:5 That prophet or dreamer must be put to death, because he preached rebellion against the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt and redeemed you from the land of slavery; he has tried to turn you from the way the LORD your God commanded you to follow. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 13:6 If your very own brother, or your son or daughter, or the wife you love, or your closest friend secretly entices you, saying, “Let us go and worship other gods” (gods that neither you nor your fathers have known, Deuteronomy 13:7 gods of the peoples around you, whether near or far, from one end of the land to the other),

Deuteronomy 13:8 do not yield to him or listen to him. Show him no pity. Do not spare him or shield him.

Deuteronomy 13:9 You must certainly put him to death. Your hand must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people.

Deuteronomy 13:10 Stone him to death, because he tried to turn you away from the LORD your God, who brought you out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Deuteronomy 13:11 Then all Israel will hear and be afraid, and no-one among you will do such an evil thing again.

Deuteronomy 13:12 If you hear it said about one of the towns the LORD your God is giving you to live in

Deuteronomy 13:13 that wicked men have arisen among you and have led the people of their town astray, saying, “Let us go and worship other gods” (gods you have not known),

Deuteronomy 13:14 then you must enquire, probe and investigate it thoroughly. And if it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done among you,

Deuteronomy 13:15 you must certainly put to the sword all who live in that town. Destroy it completely, both its people and its livestock.

Deuteronomy 13:16 Gather all the plunder of the town into the middle of the public square and completely burn the town and all its plunder as a whole burnt offering to the LORD your God. It is to remain a ruin for ever, never to be rebuilt.

Deuteronomy 13:17 None of those condemned things shall be found in your hands, so that the LORD will turn from his fierce anger; he will show you mercy, have compassion on you, and increase your numbers, as he promised on oath to your forefathers,

Deuteronomy 13:18 because you obey the LORD your God, keeping all his commands that I am giving you today and doing what is right in his eyes.

Deuteronomy 14:1 You are the children of the LORD your God. Do not cut yourselves or shave the front of your heads for the dead, Deuteronomy 14:2 for you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Out of all the peoples on the face of the earth, the LORD has chosen you to be his treasured possession.

Deuteronomy 14:3 Do not eat any detestable thing.

Deuteronomy 14:4 These are the animals you may eat: the ox, the sheep, the goat,

Deuteronomy 14:5 the deer, the gazelle, the roe deer, the wild goat, the ibex, the antelope and the mountain sheep.

Deuteronomy 14:6 You may eat any animal that has a split hoof divided in two and that chews the cud.

Deuteronomy 14:7 However, of those that chew the cud or that have a split hoof completely divided you may not eat the camel, the rabbit or the coney. Although they chew the cud, they do not have a split hoof; they are ceremonially unclean for you.

Deuteronomy 14:8 The pig is also unclean; although it has a split hoof, it does not chew the cud. You are not to eat their meat or touch their carcasses.

Deuteronomy 14:9 Of all the creatures living in the water, you may eat any that has fins and scales.

Deuteronomy 14:10 But anything that does not have fins and scales you may not eat; for you it is unclean.

Deuteronomy 14:11 You may eat any clean bird.

Deuteronomy 14:12 But these you may not eat: the eagle, the vulture, the black vulture,

Deuteronomy 14:13 the red kite, the black kite, any kind of falcon,

Deuteronomy 14:14 any kind of raven,

Deuteronomy 14:15 the horned owl, the screech owl, the gull, any kind of hawk,

Deuteronomy 14:16 the little owl, the great owl, the white owl, Deuteronomy 14:17 the desert owl, the osprey, the cormorant,

Deuteronomy 14:18 the stork, any kind of heron, the hoopoe and the bat.

Deuteronomy 14:19 All flying insects that swarm are unclean to you; do not eat them.

Deuteronomy 14:20 But any winged creature that is clean you may eat.

Deuteronomy 14:21 Do not eat anything you find already dead. You may give it to an alien living in any of your towns, and he may eat it, or you may sell it to a foreigner. But you are a people holy to the LORD your God. Do not cook a young goat in its mother's milk.

Deuteronomy 14:22 Be sure to set aside a tenth of all that your fields produce each year.

Deuteronomy 14:23 Eat the tithe of your grain, new wine and oil, and the firstborn of your herds and flocks in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name, so that you may learn to revere the LORD your God always.

Deuteronomy 14:24 But if that place is too distant and you have been blessed by the LORD your God and cannot carry your tithe (because the place where the LORD will choose to put his Name is so far away),

Deuteronomy 14:25 then exchange your tithe for silver, and take the silver with you and go to the place the LORD your God will choose.

Deuteronomy 14:26 Use the silver to buy whatever you like: cattle, sheep, wine or other fermented drink, or anything you wish. Then you and your household shall eat there in the presence of the LORD your God and rejoice.

Deuteronomy 14:27 And do not neglect the Levites living in your towns, for they have no allotment or inheritance of their own.

Deuteronomy 14:28 At the end of every three years, bring all the tithes of that year's produce and store it in your towns,

Deuteronomy 14:29 so that the Levites (who have no allotment or inheritance of their own) and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns may come and eat and be satisfied, and so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 15:1 At the end of every seven years you must cancel debts.

Deuteronomy 15:2 This is how it is to be done: Every creditor shall cancel the loan he has made to his fellow Israelite. He shall not require payment from his fellow Israelite or brother, because the LORD's time for cancelling debts has been proclaimed.

Deuteronomy 15:3 You may require payment from a foreigner, but you must cancel any debt your brother owes you.

Deuteronomy 15:4 However, there should be no poor among you, for in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess as your inheritance, he will richly bless you,

Deuteronomy 15:5 if only you fully obey the LORD your God and are careful to follow all these commands I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 15:6 For the LORD your God will bless you as he has promised, and you will lend to many nations but will borrow from none. You will rule over many nations but none will rule over you.

Deuteronomy 15:7 If there is a poor man among your brothers in any of the towns of the land that the LORD your God is giving you, do not be hard-hearted or tight-fisted towards your poor brother.

Deuteronomy 15:8 Rather be open-handed and freely lend him whatever he needs.

Deuteronomy 15:9 Be careful not to harbour this wicked thought: “The seventh year, the year for cancelling debts, is near,” so that you do not show ill will towards your needy brother and give him nothing. He may then appeal to the LORD against you, and you will be found guilty of sin.

Deuteronomy 15:10 Give generously to him and do so without a grudging heart; then because of this the LORD your God will bless you in all your work and in everything you put your hand to.

Deuteronomy 15:11 There will always be poor people in the land. Therefore I command you to be open-handed towards your brothers and towards the poor and needy in your land.

Deuteronomy 15:12 If a fellow Hebrew, a man or woman, sells himself to you and serves you six years, in the seventh year you must let him go free.

Deuteronomy 15:13 And when you release him, do not send him away empty-handed.

Deuteronomy 15:14 Supply him liberally from your flock, your threshing-floor and your winepress. Give to him as the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 15:15 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you. That is why I give you this command today.

Deuteronomy 15:16 But if your servant says to you, “I do not want to leave you,” because he loves you and your family and is well off with you,

Deuteronomy 15:17 then take an awl and push it through his ear lobe into the door, and he will become your servant for life. Do the same for your maidservant.

Deuteronomy 15:18 Do not consider it a hardship to set your servant free, because his service to you these six years has been worth twice as much as that of a hired hand. And the LORD your God will bless you in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 15:19 Set apart for the LORD your God every firstborn male of your herds and flocks. Do not put the firstborn of your oxen to work, and do not shear the firstborn of your sheep.

Deuteronomy 15:20 Each year you and your family are to eat them in the presence of the LORD your God at the place he will choose.

Deuteronomy 15:21 If an animal has a defect, is lame or blind, or has any serious flaw, you must not sacrifice it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 15:22 You are to eat it in your own towns. Both the ceremonially unclean and the clean may eat it, as if it were gazelle or deer.

Deuteronomy 15:23 But you must not eat the blood; pour it out on the ground like water.

Deuteronomy 16:1 Observe the month of Abib and celebrate the Passover of the LORD your God, because in the month of Abib he brought you out of Egypt by night.

Deuteronomy 16:2 Sacrifice as the Passover to the LORD your God an animal from your flock or herd at the place the LORD will choose as a dwelling for his Name.

Deuteronomy 16:3 Do not eat it with bread made with yeast, but for seven days eat unleavened bread, the bread of affliction, because you left Egypt in haste—so that all the days of your life you may remember the time of your departure from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:4 Let no yeast be found in your possession in all your land for seven days. Do not let any of the meat you sacrifice on the evening of the first day remain until morning.

Deuteronomy 16:5 You must not sacrifice the Passover in any town the LORD your God gives you

Deuteronomy 16:6 except in the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name. There you must sacrifice the Passover in the evening, when the sun goes down, on the anniversary of your departure from Egypt.

Deuteronomy 16:7 Roast it and eat it at the place the LORD your God will choose. Then in the morning return to your tents.

Deuteronomy 16:8 For six days eat unleavened bread and on the seventh day hold an assembly to the LORD your God and do no work.

Deuteronomy 16:9 Count off seven weeks from the time you begin to put the sickle to the standing corn.

Deuteronomy 16:10 Then celebrate the Feast of Weeks to the LORD your God by giving a freewill offering in proportion to the blessings the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 16:11 And rejoice before the LORD your God at the place he will choose as a dwelling for his Name—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, the Levites in your towns, and the aliens, the fatherless and the widows living among you.

Deuteronomy 16:12 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt, and follow carefully these decrees.

Deuteronomy 16:13 Celebrate the Feast of Tabernacles for seven days after you have gathered the produce of your threshing-floor and your winepress.

Deuteronomy 16:14 Be joyful at your Feast—you, your sons and daughters, your menservants and maidservants, and the Levites, the aliens, the fatherless and the widows who live in your towns.

Deuteronomy 16:15 For seven days celebrate the Feast to the LORD your God at the place the LORD will choose. For the LORD your God will bless you in all your harvest and in all the work of your hands, and your joy will be complete.

Deuteronomy 16:16 Three times a year all your men must appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose: at the Feast of Unleavened Bread, the Feast of Weeks and the Feast of Tabernacles. No man should appear before the LORD empty-handed:

Deuteronomy 16:17 Each of you must bring a gift in proportion to the way the LORD your God has blessed you.

Deuteronomy 16:18 Appoint judges and officials for each of your tribes in every town the LORD your God is giving you, and they shall judge the people fairly.

Deuteronomy 16:19 Do not pervert justice or show partiality. Do not accept a bribe, for a bribe blinds the eyes of the wise and twists the words of the righteous.

Deuteronomy 16:20 Follow justice and justice alone, so that you may live and possess the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 16:21 Do not set up any wooden Asherah pole beside the altar you build to the LORD your God,

Deuteronomy 16:22 and do not erect a sacred stone, for these the LORD your God hates.

Deuteronomy 17:1 Do not sacrifice to the LORD your God an ox or a sheep that has any defect or flaw in it, for that would be detestable to him.

Deuteronomy 17:2 If a man or woman living among you in one of the towns the LORD gives you is found doing evil in the eyes of the LORD your God in violation of his covenant, Deuteronomy 17:3 and contrary to my command has worshipped other gods, bowing down to them or to the sun or the moon or the stars of the sky,

Deuteronomy 17:4 and this has been brought to your attention, then you must investigate it thoroughly. If it is true and it has been proved that this detestable thing has been done in Israel,

Deuteronomy 17:5 take the man or woman who has done this evil deed to your city gate and stone that person to death.

Deuteronomy 17:6 On the testimony of two or three witnesses a man shall be put to death, but no-one shall be put to death on the testimony of only one witness.

Deuteronomy 17:7 The hands of the witnesses must be the first in putting him to death, and then the hands of all the people. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 17:8 If cases come before your courts that are too difficult for you to judge—whether bloodshed, lawsuits or assaults—take them to the place the LORD your God will choose.

Deuteronomy 17:9 Go to the priests, who are Levites, and to the judge who is in office at that time. Enquire of them and they will give you the verdict.

Deuteronomy 17:10 You must act according to the decisions they give you at the place the LORD will choose. Be careful to do everything they direct you to do.

Deuteronomy 17:11 Act according to the law they teach you and the decisions they give you. Do not turn aside from what they tell you, to the right or to the left.

Deuteronomy 17:12 The man who shows contempt for the judge or for the priest who stands ministering there to the LORD your God must be put to death. You must purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 17:13 All the people will hear and be afraid, and will not be contemptuous again.

Deuteronomy 17:14 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you and have taken possession of it and settled in it, and you say, “Let us set a king over us like all the nations around us,”

Deuteronomy 17:15 be sure to appoint over you the king the LORD your God chooses. He must be from among your own brothers. Do not place a foreigner over you, one who is not a brother Israelite.

Deuteronomy 17:16 The king, moreover, must not acquire great numbers of horses for himself or make the people return to Egypt to get more of them, for the LORD has told you, “You are not to go back that way again.”

Deuteronomy 17:17 He must not take many wives, or his heart will be led astray. He must not accumulate large amounts of silver and gold.

Deuteronomy 17:18 When he takes the throne of his kingdom, he is to write for himself on a scroll a copy of this law, taken from that of the priests, who are Levites.

Deuteronomy 17:19 It is to be with him, and he is to read it all the days of his life so that he may learn to revere the LORD his God and follow carefully all the words of this law and these decrees

Deuteronomy 17:20 and not consider himself better than his brothers and turn from the law to the right or to the left. Then he and his descendants will reign a long time over his kingdom in Israel.

Deuteronomy 18:1 The priests, who are Levites—indeed the whole tribe of Levi—are to have no allotment or inheritance with Israel. They shall live on the offerings made to the LORD by fire, for that is their inheritance.

Deuteronomy 18:2 They shall have no inheritance among their brothers; the LORD is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Deuteronomy 18:3 This is the share due to the priests from the people who sacrifice a bull or a sheep: the shoulder, the jowls and the inner parts.

Deuteronomy 18:4 You are to give them the firstfruits of your grain, new wine and oil, and the first wool from the shearing of your sheep,

Deuteronomy 18:5 for the LORD your God has chosen them and their descendants out of all your tribes to stand and minister in the LORD’s name always.

Deuteronomy 18:6 If a Levite moves from one of your towns anywhere in Israel where he is living, and comes in all earnestness to the place the LORD will choose,

Deuteronomy 18:7 he may minister in the name of the LORD his God like all his fellow Levites who serve there in the presence of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 18:8 He is to share equally in their benefits even though he has received money from the sale of family possessions.

Deuteronomy 18:9 When you enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, do not learn to imitate the detestable ways of the nations there.

Deuteronomy 18:10 Let no-one be found among you who sacrifices his son or daughter in the fire, who practises divination or sorcery, interprets omens, engages in witchcraft,

Deuteronomy 18:11 or casts spells, or who is a medium or spiritist or who consults the dead.

Deuteronomy 18:12 Anyone who does these things is detestable to the LORD, and because of these detestable practices the LORD your God will drive out those nations before you.

Deuteronomy 18:13 You must be blameless before the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 18:14 The nations you will dispossess listen to those who practise sorcery or divination. But as for you, the LORD your God has not permitted you to do so.

Deuteronomy 18:15 The LORD your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own brothers. You must listen to him.

Deuteronomy 18:16 For this is what you asked of the LORD your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said, "Let us not hear the voice of the LORD our God nor see this great fire any more, or we will die."

Deuteronomy 18:17 The LORD said to me: "What they say is good.

Deuteronomy 18:18 I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their brothers; I will put my words in his mouth, and he will tell them everything I command him.

Deuteronomy 18:19 If anyone does not listen to my words that the prophet speaks in my name, I myself will call him to account.

Deuteronomy 18:20 But a prophet who presumes to speak in my name anything I have not commanded him to say, or a prophet who speaks in the name of other gods, must be put to death."

Deuteronomy 18:21 You may say to yourselves, "How can we know when a message has not been spoken by the LORD?"

Deuteronomy 18:22 If what a prophet proclaims in the name of the LORD does not take place or come true, that is a message the LORD has not spoken. That prophet has spoken presumptuously. Do not be afraid of him.

Deuteronomy 19:1 When the LORD your God has destroyed the nations whose land he is giving you, and when you have driven them out and settled in their towns and houses,

Deuteronomy 19:2 then set aside for yourselves three cities centrally located in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:3 Build roads to them and divide into three parts the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, so that anyone who kills a man may flee there.

Deuteronomy 19:4 This is the rule concerning the man who kills another and flees there to save his life—one who kills his neighbour unintentionally, without malice aforethought.

Deuteronomy 19:5 For instance, a man may go into the forest with his neighbour to cut wood, and as he swings his axe to fell a tree, the head may fly off and hit his neighbour and kill him. That man may flee to one of these cities and save his life.

Deuteronomy 19:6 Otherwise, the avenger of blood might pursue him in a rage, overtake him if the distance is too great, and kill him even though he is not deserving of death, since he did it to his neighbour without malice aforethought.

Deuteronomy 19:7 This is why I command you to set aside for yourselves three cities.

Deuteronomy 19:8 If the LORD your God enlarges your territory, as he promised on oath to your forefathers, and gives you the whole land he promised them,

Deuteronomy 19:9 because you carefully follow all these laws I command you today—to love the LORD your God and to walk always in his ways—then you are to set aside three more cities.

Deuteronomy 19:10 Do this so that innocent blood will not be shed in your land, which the LORD your God is giving you as your inheritance, and so that you will not be guilty of bloodshed.

Deuteronomy 19:11 But if a man hates his neighbour and lies in wait for him, assaults and kills him, and then flees to one of these cities,

Deuteronomy 19:12 the elders of his town shall send for him, bring him back from the city, and hand him over to the avenger of blood to die.

Deuteronomy 19:13 Show him no pity. You must purge from Israel the guilt of shedding innocent blood, so that it may go well with you.

Deuteronomy 19:14 Do not move your neighbour's boundary stone set up by your predecessors in the inheritance you receive in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess.

Deuteronomy 19:15 One witness is not enough to convict a man accused of any crime or offence he may have committed. A matter must be established by the testimony of two or three witnesses.

Deuteronomy 19:16 If a malicious witness takes the stand to accuse a man of a crime,

Deuteronomy 19:17 the two men involved in the dispute must stand in the presence of the LORD before the priests and the judges who are in office at the time.

Deuteronomy 19:18 The judges must make a thorough investigation, and if the witness proves to be a liar, giving false testimony against his brother,

Deuteronomy 19:19 then do to him as he intended to do to his brother. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 19:20 The rest of the people will hear of this and be afraid, and never again will such an evil thing be done among you.

Deuteronomy 19:21 Show no pity: life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foot for foot.

Deuteronomy 20:1 When you go to war against your enemies and see horses and chariots and an army greater than yours, do not be afraid of them, because the LORD your God, who brought you up out of Egypt, will be with you.

Deuteronomy 20:2 When you are about to go into battle, the priest shall come forward and address the army.

Deuteronomy 20:3 He shall say: “Hear, O Israel, today you are going into battle against your enemies. Do not be faint-hearted or afraid; do not be terrified or give way to panic before them.

Deuteronomy 20:4 For the LORD your God is the one who goes with you to fight for you against your enemies to give you victory.”

Deuteronomy 20:5 The officers shall say to the army: “Has anyone built a new house and not dedicated it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else may dedicate it.

Deuteronomy 20:6 Has anyone planted a vineyard and not begun to enjoy it? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else enjoy it.

Deuteronomy 20:7 Has anyone become pledged to a woman and not married her? Let him go home, or he may die in battle and someone else marry her.”

Deuteronomy 20:8 Then the officers shall add, “Is any man afraid or faint-hearted? Let him go home so that his brothers will not become disheartened too.”

Deuteronomy 20:9 When the officers have finished speaking to the army, they shall appoint commanders over it.

Deuteronomy 20:10 When you march up to attack a city, make its people an offer of peace.

Deuteronomy 20:11 If they accept and open their gates, all the people in it shall be subject to forced labour and shall work for you.

Deuteronomy 20:12 If they refuse to make peace and they engage you in battle, lay siege to that city.

Deuteronomy 20:13 When the LORD your God delivers it into your hand, put to the sword all the men in it.

Deuteronomy 20:14 As for the women, the children, the livestock and everything else in the city, you may take these as plunder for yourselves. And you may use the plunder the LORD your God gives you from your enemies.

Deuteronomy 20:15 This is how you are to treat all the cities that are at a distance from you and do not belong to the nations nearby.

Deuteronomy 20:16 However, in the cities of the nations the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance, do not leave alive anything that breathes.

Deuteronomy 20:17 Completely destroy them—the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites—as the LORD your God has commanded you.

Deuteronomy 20:18 Otherwise, they will teach you to follow all the detestable things they do in worshipping their gods, and you will sin against the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 20:19 When you lay siege to a city for a long time, fighting against it to capture it, do not destroy its trees by putting an axe to them, because you can eat their fruit. Do not cut them down. Are the trees of the field people, that you should besiege them?

Deuteronomy 20:20 However, you may cut down trees that you know are not fruit trees and use them to build siege works until the city at war with you falls.

Deuteronomy 21:1 If a man is found slain, lying in a field in the land the LORD your God is giving you to possess, and it is not known who killed him,

Deuteronomy 21:2 your elders and judges shall go out and measure the distance from the body to the neighbouring towns.

Deuteronomy 21:3 Then the elders of the town nearest the body shall take a heifer that has never been worked and has never worn a yoke

Deuteronomy 21:4 and lead her down to a valley that has not been ploughed or planted and where there is a flowing stream. There in the valley they are to break the heifer’s neck.

Deuteronomy 21:5 The priests, the sons of Levi, shall step forward, for the LORD your God has chosen them to minister and to pronounce blessings in the name of the LORD and to decide all cases of dispute and assault.

Deuteronomy 21:6 Then all the elders of the town nearest the body shall wash their hands over the heifer whose neck was broken in the valley,

Deuteronomy 21:7 and they shall declare: “Our hands did not shed this blood, nor did our eyes see it done.

Deuteronomy 21:8 Accept this atonement for your people Israel, whom you have redeemed, O LORD, and do not hold your people guilty of the blood of an innocent man.” And the bloodshed will be atoned for.

Deuteronomy 21:9 So you will purge from yourselves the guilt of shedding innocent blood, since you have done what is right in the eyes of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 21:10 When you go to war against your enemies and the LORD your God delivers them into your hands and you take captives,

Deuteronomy 21:11 if you notice among the captives a beautiful woman and are attracted to her, you may take her as your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:12 Bring her into your home and make her shave her head, trim her nails

Deuteronomy 21:13 and put aside the clothes she was wearing when captured. After she has lived in your house and mourned her father and mother for a full month, then you may go to her and be her husband and she shall be your wife.

Deuteronomy 21:14 If you are not pleased with her, let her go wherever she wishes. You must not sell her or treat her as a slave, since you have dishonoured her.

Deuteronomy 21:15 If a man has two wives, and he loves one but not the other, and both bear him sons but the firstborn is the son of the wife he does not love,

Deuteronomy 21:16 when he wills his property to his sons, he must not give the rights of the firstborn to the son of the wife he loves in preference to his actual firstborn, the son of the wife he does not love.

Deuteronomy 21:17 He must acknowledge the son of his unloved wife as the firstborn by giving him a double share of all he has. That son is the first sign of his father’s strength. The right of the firstborn belongs to him.

Deuteronomy 21:18 If a man has a stubborn and rebellious son who does not obey his father and mother and will not listen to them when they discipline him,

Deuteronomy 21:19 his father and mother shall take hold of him and bring him to the elders at the gate of his town.

Deuteronomy 21:20 They shall say to the elders, “This son of ours is stubborn and rebellious. He will not obey us. He is a profligate and a drunkard.”

Deuteronomy 21:21 Then all the men of his town shall stone him to death. You must purge the evil from among you. All Israel will hear of it and be afraid.

Deuteronomy 21:22 If a man guilty of a capital offence is put to death and his body is hung on a tree,

Deuteronomy 21:23 you must not leave his body on the tree overnight. Be sure to bury him that same day, because anyone who is hung on a tree is under God’s curse. You must not desecrate the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 22:1 If you see your brother’s ox or sheep straying, do not ignore it but be sure to take it back to him.

Deuteronomy 22:2 If the brother does not live near you or if you do not know who he is, take it home with you and keep it until he comes looking for it. Then give it back to him.

Deuteronomy 22:3 Do the same if you find your brother’s donkey or his cloak or anything he loses. Do not ignore it.

Deuteronomy 22:4 If you see your brother’s donkey or his ox fallen on the road, do not ignore it. Help him to get it to its feet.

Deuteronomy 22:5 A woman must not wear men’s clothing, nor a man wear women’s clothing, for the LORD your God detests anyone who does this.

Deuteronomy 22:6 If you come across a bird’s nest beside the road, either in a tree or on the ground, and the mother is sitting on the young or on the eggs, do not take the mother with the young.

Deuteronomy 22:7 You may take the young, but be sure to let the mother go, so that it may go well with you and you may have a long life.

Deuteronomy 22:8 When you build a new house, make a parapet around your roof so that you may not bring the guilt of bloodshed on your house if someone falls from the roof.

Deuteronomy 22:9 Do not plant two kinds of seed in your vineyard; if you do, not only the crops you plant but also the fruit of the vineyard will be defiled.

Deuteronomy 22:10 Do not plough with an ox and a donkey yoked together.

Deuteronomy 22:11 Do not wear clothes of wool and linen woven together.

Deuteronomy 22:12 Make tassels on the four corners of the cloak you wear.

Deuteronomy 22:13 If a man takes a wife and, after lying with her, dislikes her

Deuteronomy 22:14 and slanders her and gives her a bad name, saying, “I married this woman, but when I approached her, I did not find proof of her virginity,”

Deuteronomy 22:15 then the girl’s father and mother shall bring proof that she was a virgin to the town elders at the gate.

Deuteronomy 22:16 The girl’s father will say to the elders, “I gave my daughter in marriage to this man, but he dislikes her.

Deuteronomy 22:17 Now he has slandered her and said,`I did not find your daughter to be a virgin.’ But here is the proof of my daughter’s virginity.” Then her parents shall display the cloth before the elders of the town, Deuteronomy 22:18 and the elders shall take the man and punish him.

Deuteronomy 22:19 They shall fine him a hundred shekels of silver and give them to the girl’s father, because this man has given an Israelite virgin a bad name. She shall continue to be his wife; he must not divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:20 If, however, the charge is true and no proof of the girl's virginity can be found,

Deuteronomy 22:21 she shall be brought to the door of her father's house and there the men of her town shall stone her to death. She has done a disgraceful thing in Israel by being promiscuous while still in her father's house. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 22:22 If a man is found sleeping with another man's wife, both the man who slept with her and the woman must die. You must purge the evil from Israel.

Deuteronomy 22:23 If a man happens to meet in a town a virgin pledged to be married and he sleeps with her,

Deuteronomy 22:24 you shall take both of them to the gate of that town and stone them to death—the girl because she was in a town and did not scream for help, and the man because he violated another man's wife. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 22:25 But if out in the country a man happens to meet a girl pledged to be married and rapes her, only the man who has done this shall die.

Deuteronomy 22:26 Do nothing to the girl; she has committed no sin deserving death. This case is like that of someone who attacks and murders his neighbour,

Deuteronomy 22:27 for the man found the girl out in the country, and though the betrothed girl screamed, there was no-one to rescue her.

Deuteronomy 22:28 If a man happens to meet a virgin who is not pledged to be married and rapes her and they are discovered,

Deuteronomy 22:29 he shall pay the girl's father fifty shekels of silver. He must marry the girl, for he has violated her. He can never divorce her as long as he lives.

Deuteronomy 22:30 A man is not to marry his father's wife; he must not dishonour his father's bed.

Deuteronomy 23:1 No-one who has been emasculated by crushing or cutting may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:2 No-one born of a forbidden marriage nor any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

Deuteronomy 23:3 No Ammonite or Moabite or any of his descendants may enter the assembly of the LORD, even down to the tenth generation.

Deuteronomy 23:4 For they did not come to meet you with bread and water on your way when you came out of Egypt, and they hired Balaam son of Beor from Pethor in Aram Naharaim to pronounce a curse on you.

Deuteronomy 23:5 However, the LORD your God would not listen to Balaam but turned the curse into a blessing for you, because the LORD your God loves you.

Deuteronomy 23:6 Do not seek a treaty of friendship with them as long as you live.

Deuteronomy 23:7 Do not abhor an Edomite, for he is your brother. Do not abhor an Egyptian, because you lived as an alien in his country.

Deuteronomy 23:8 The third generation of children born to them may enter the assembly of the LORD.

Deuteronomy 23:9 When you are encamped against your enemies, keep away from everything impure.

Deuteronomy 23:10 If one of your men is unclean because of a nocturnal emission, he is to go outside the camp and stay there.

Deuteronomy 23:11 But as evening approaches he is to wash himself, and at sunset he may return to the camp.

Deuteronomy 23:12 Designate a place outside the camp where you can go to relieve yourself.

Deuteronomy 23:13 As part of your equipment have something to dig with, and when you relieve yourself, dig a hole and cover up your excrement.

Deuteronomy 23:14 For the LORD your God moves about in your camp to protect you and to deliver your enemies to you. Your camp must be holy, so that he will not see among you anything indecent and turn away from you.

Deuteronomy 23:15 If a slave has taken refuge with you, do not hand him over to his master.

Deuteronomy 23:16 Let him live among you wherever he likes and in whatever town he chooses. Do not oppress him.

Deuteronomy 23:17 No Israelite man or woman is to become a shrine-prostitute.

Deuteronomy 23:18 You must not bring the earnings of a female prostitute or of a male prostitute into the house of the LORD your God to pay any vow, because the LORD your God detests them both.

Deuteronomy 23:19 Do not charge your brother interest, whether on money or food or anything else that may earn interest.

Deuteronomy 23:20 You may charge a foreigner interest, but not a brother Israelite, so that the LORD your God may bless you in everything you put your hand to in the land you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 23:21 If you make a vow to the LORD your God, do not be slow to pay it, for the LORD your God will certainly demand it of you and you will be guilty of sin.

Deuteronomy 23:22 But if you refrain from making a vow, you will not be guilty.

Deuteronomy 23:23 Whatever your lips utter you must be sure to do, because you made your vow freely to the LORD your God with your own mouth.

Deuteronomy 23:24 If you enter your neighbour's vineyard, you may eat all the grapes you want, but do not put any in your basket.

Deuteronomy 23:25 If you enter your neighbour's cornfield, you may pick the ears with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to his standing corn.

Deuteronomy 24:1 If a man marries a woman who becomes displeasing to him because he finds something indecent about her, and he writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house,

Deuteronomy 24:2 and if after she leaves his house she becomes the wife of another man,

Deuteronomy 24:3 and her second husband dislikes her and writes her a certificate of divorce, gives it to her and sends her from his house, or if he dies,

Deuteronomy 24:4 then her first husband, who divorced her, is not allowed to marry her again after she has been defiled. That would be detestable in the eyes of the LORD. Do not bring sin upon the land the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance.

Deuteronomy 24:5 If a man has recently married, he must not be sent to war or have any other duty laid on him. For one year he is to be free to stay at home and bring happiness to the wife he has married.

Deuteronomy 24:6 Do not take a pair of millstones—not even the upper one— as security for a debt, because that would be taking a man's livelihood as security.

Deuteronomy 24:7 If a man is caught kidnapping one of his brother Israelites and treats him as a slave or sells him, the kidnapper must die. You must purge the evil from among you.

Deuteronomy 24:8 In cases of leprous diseases be very careful to do exactly as the priests, who are Levites, instruct you. You must follow carefully what I have commanded them.

Deuteronomy 24:9 Remember what the LORD your God did to Miriam along the way after you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 24:10 When you make a loan of any kind to your neighbour, do not go into his house to get what he is offering as a pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:11 Stay outside and let the man to whom you are making the loan bring the pledge out to you.

Deuteronomy 24:12 If the man is poor, do not go to sleep with his pledge in your possession.

Deuteronomy 24:13 Return his cloak to him by sunset so that he may sleep in it. Then he will thank you, and it will be regarded as a righteous act in the sight of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 24:14 Do not take advantage of a hired man who is poor and needy, whether he is a brother Israelite or an alien living in one of your towns.

Deuteronomy 24:15 Pay him his wages each day before sunset, because he is poor and is counting on it. Otherwise he may cry to the LORD against you, and you will be guilty of sin.

Deuteronomy 24:16 Fathers shall not be put to death for their children, nor children put to death for their fathers; each is to die for his own sin.

Deuteronomy 24:17 Do not deprive the alien or the fatherless of justice, or take the cloak of the widow as a pledge.

Deuteronomy 24:18 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt and the LORD your God redeemed you from there. That is why I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 24:19 When you are harvesting in your field and you overlook a sheaf, do not go back to get it. Leave it for the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that the LORD your God may bless you in all the work of your hands.

Deuteronomy 24:20 When you beat the olives from your trees, do not go over the branches a second time. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:21 When you harvest the grapes in your vineyard, do not go over the vines again. Leave what remains for the alien, the fatherless and the widow.

Deuteronomy 24:22 Remember that you were slaves in Egypt. That is why I command you to do this.

Deuteronomy 25:1 When men have a dispute, they are to take it to court and the judges will decide the case, acquitting the innocent and condemning the guilty.

Deuteronomy 25:2 If the guilty man deserves to be beaten, the judge shall make him lie down and have him flogged in his presence with the number of lashes his crime deserves,

Deuteronomy 25:3 but he must not give him more than forty lashes. If he is flogged more than that, your brother will be degraded in your eyes.

Deuteronomy 25:4 Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain.

Deuteronomy 25:5 If brothers are living together and one of them dies without a son, his widow must not marry outside the family. Her husband’s brother shall take her and marry her and fulfil the duty of a brother-in-law to her.

Deuteronomy 25:6 The first son she bears shall carry on the name of the dead brother so that his name will not be blotted out from Israel.

Deuteronomy 25:7 However, if a man does not want to marry his brother’s wife, she shall go to the elders at the town gate and say, “My husband’s brother refuses to carry on his brother’s name in Israel. He will not fulfil the duty of a brother-in-law to me.”

Deuteronomy 25:8 Then the elders of his town shall summon him and talk to him. If he persists in saying, “I do not want to marry her,”

Deuteronomy 25:9 his brother’s widow shall go up to him in the presence of the elders, take off one of his sandals, spit in his face and say, “This is what is done to the man who will not build up his brother’s family line.”

Deuteronomy 25:10 That man’s line shall be known in Israel as The Family of the Unsandalled.

Deuteronomy 25:11 If two men are fighting and the wife of one of them comes to rescue her husband from his assailant, and she reaches out and seizes him by his private parts, Deuteronomy 25:12 you shall cut off her hand. Show her no pity.

Deuteronomy 25:13 Do not have two differing weights in your bag—one heavy, one light.

Deuteronomy 25:14 Do not have two differing measures in your house—one large, one small.

Deuteronomy 25:15 You must have accurate and honest weights and measures, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 25:16 For the LORD your God detests anyone who does these things, anyone who deals dishonestly.

Deuteronomy 25:17 Remember what the Amalekites did to you along the way when you came out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 25:18 When you were weary and worn out, they met you on your journey and cut off all who were lagging behind; they had no fear of God.

Deuteronomy 25:19 When the LORD your God gives you rest from all the enemies around you in the land he is giving you to possess as an inheritance, you shall blot out the memory of Amalek from under heaven. Do not forget!

Deuteronomy 26:1 When you have entered the land that the LORD your God is giving you as an inheritance and have taken possession of it and settled in it,

Deuteronomy 26:2 take some of the firstfruits of all that you produce from the soil of the land that the LORD your God is giving you and put them in a basket. Then go to the place that the LORD your God will choose as a dwelling for his Name

Deuteronomy 26:3 and say to the priest in office at the time, “I declare today to the LORD your God that I have come to the land that the LORD swore to our forefathers to give us.”

Deuteronomy 26:4 The priest shall take the basket from your hands and set it down in front of the altar of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 26:5 Then you shall declare before the LORD your God: “My father was a wandering Aramean, and he went down into Egypt with a few people and lived there and became a great nation, powerful and numerous.

Deuteronomy 26:6 But the Egyptians ill-treated us and made us suffer, putting us to hard labour.

Deuteronomy 26:7 Then we cried out to the LORD, the God of our fathers, and the LORD heard our voice and saw our misery, toil and oppression.

Deuteronomy 26:8 So the LORD brought us out of Egypt with a mighty hand and an outstretched arm, with great terror and with miraculous signs and wonders.

Deuteronomy 26:9 He brought us to this place and gave us this land, a land flowing with milk and honey;

Deuteronomy 26:10 and now I bring the firstfruits of the soil that you, O LORD, have given me.” Place the basket before the LORD your God and bow down before him.

Deuteronomy 26:11 And you and the Levites and the aliens among you shall rejoice in all the good things the LORD your God has given to you and your household.

Deuteronomy 26:12 When you have finished setting aside a tenth of all your produce in the third year, the year of the tithe, you shall give it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, so that they may eat in your towns and be satisfied.

Deuteronomy 26:13 Then say to the LORD your God: “I have removed from my house the sacred portion and have given it to the Levite, the alien, the fatherless and the widow, according to all you commanded. I have not turned aside from your commands nor have I forgotten any of them.

Deuteronomy 26:14 I have not eaten any of the sacred portion while I was in mourning, nor have I removed any of it while I was unclean, nor have I offered any of it to the dead. I have obeyed the LORD my God; I have done everything you commanded me.

Deuteronomy 26:15 Look down from heaven, your holy dwelling-place, and bless your people Israel and the land you have given us as you promised on oath to our forefathers, a land flowing with milk and honey.”

Deuteronomy 26:16 The LORD your God commands you this day to follow these decrees and laws; carefully observe them with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 26:17 You have declared this day that the LORD is your God and that you will walk in his ways, that you will keep his decrees, commands and laws, and that you will obey him.

Deuteronomy 26:18 And the LORD has declared this day that you are his people, his treasured possession as he promised, and that you are to keep all his commands.

Deuteronomy 26:19 He has declared that he will set you in praise, fame and honour high above all the nations he has made and that you will be a people holy to the LORD your God, as he promised.

Deuteronomy 27:1 Moses and the elders of Israel commanded the people: “Keep all these commands that I give you today.

Deuteronomy 27:2 When you have crossed the Jordan into the land the LORD your God is giving you, set up some large stones and coat them with plaster.

Deuteronomy 27:3 Write on them all the words of this law when you have crossed over to enter the land the LORD your God is giving you, a land flowing with milk and honey, just as the LORD, the God of your fathers, promised you.

Deuteronomy 27:4 And when you have crossed the Jordan, set up these stones on Mount Ebal, as I command you today, and coat them with plaster.

Deuteronomy 27:5 Build there an altar to the LORD your God, an altar of stones. Do not use any iron tool upon them.

Deuteronomy 27:6 Build the altar of the LORD your God with stones from the field and offer burnt offerings on it to the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:7 Sacrifice fellowship offerings there, eating them and rejoicing in the presence of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:8 And you shall write very clearly all the words of this law on these stones you have set up.”

Deuteronomy 27:9 Then Moses and the priests, who are Levites, said to all Israel, “Be silent, O Israel, and listen! You have now become the people of the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 27:10 Obey the LORD your God and follow his commands and decrees that I give you today.”

Deuteronomy 27:11 On the same day Moses commanded the people:

Deuteronomy 27:12 When you have crossed the Jordan, these tribes shall stand on Mount Gerizim to bless the people: Simeon, Levi, Judah, Issachar, Joseph and Benjamin.

Deuteronomy 27:13 And these tribes shall stand on Mount Ebal to pronounce curses: Reuben, Gad, Asher, Zebulun, Dan and Naphtali.

Deuteronomy 27:14 The Levites shall recite to all the people of Israel in a loud voice:

Deuteronomy 27:15 “Cursed is the man who carves an image or casts an idol— a thing detestable to the LORD, the work of the craftsman’s hands—and sets it up in secret.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:16 “Cursed is the man who dishonours his father or his mother.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:17 “Cursed is the man who moves his neighbour’s boundary stone.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:18 “Cursed is the man who leads the blind astray on the road.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:19 “Cursed is the man who withholds justice from the alien, the fatherless or the widow.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:20 “Cursed is the man who sleeps with his father’s wife, for he dishonours his father’s bed.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:21 “Cursed is the man who has sexual relations with any animal.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:22 “Cursed is the man who sleeps with his sister, the daughter of his father or the daughter of his mother.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:23 “Cursed is the man who sleeps with his mother-in-law.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:24 “Cursed is the man who kills his neighbour secretly.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:25 “Cursed is the man who accepts a bribe to kill an innocent person.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 27:26 “Cursed is the man who does not uphold the words of this law by carrying them out.” Then all the people shall say, “Amen!”

Deuteronomy 28:1 If you fully obey the LORD your God and carefully follow all his commands that I give you today, the LORD your God will set you high above all the nations on earth.

Deuteronomy 28:2 All these blessings will come upon you and accompany you if you obey the LORD your God:

Deuteronomy 28:3 You will be blessed in the city and blessed in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:4 The fruit of your womb will be blessed, and the crops of your land and the young of your livestock—the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:5 Your basket and your kneading trough will be blessed.

Deuteronomy 28:6 You will be blessed when you come in and blessed when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:7 The LORD will grant that the enemies who rise up against you will be defeated before you. They will come at you from one direction but flee from you in seven.

Deuteronomy 28:8 The LORD will send a blessing on your barns and on everything you put your hand to. The LORD your God will bless you in the land he is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:9 The LORD will establish you as his holy people, as he promised you on oath, if you keep the commands of the LORD your God and walk in his ways.

Deuteronomy 28:10 Then all the peoples on earth will see that you are called by the name of the LORD, and they will fear you.

Deuteronomy 28:11 The LORD will grant you abundant prosperity—in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your ground—in the land he swore to your forefathers to give you.

Deuteronomy 28:12 The LORD will open the heavens, the storehouse of his bounty, to send rain on your land in season and to bless all the work of your hands. You will lend to many nations but will borrow from none.

Deuteronomy 28:13 The LORD will make you the head, not the tail. If you pay attention to the commands of the LORD your God that I give you this day and carefully follow them, you will always be at the top, never at the bottom.

Deuteronomy 28:14 Do not turn aside from any of the commands I give you today, to the right or to the left, following other gods and serving them.

Deuteronomy 28:15 However, if you do not obey the LORD your God and do not carefully follow all his commands and decrees I am giving you today, all these curses will come upon you and overtake you:

Deuteronomy 28:16 You will be cursed in the city and cursed in the country.

Deuteronomy 28:17 Your basket and your kneading trough will be cursed.

Deuteronomy 28:18 The fruit of your womb will be cursed, and the crops of your land, and the calves of your herds and the lambs of your flocks.

Deuteronomy 28:19 You will be cursed when you come in and cursed when you go out.

Deuteronomy 28:20 The LORD will send on you curses, confusion and rebuke in everything you put your hand to, until you are destroyed and come to sudden ruin because of the evil you have done in forsaking him.

Deuteronomy 28:21 The LORD will plague you with diseases until he has destroyed you from the land you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:22 The LORD will strike you with wasting disease, with fever and inflammation, with scorching heat and drought, with blight and mildew, which will plague you until you perish.

Deuteronomy 28:23 The sky over your head will be bronze, the ground beneath you iron.

Deuteronomy 28:24 The LORD will turn the rain of your country into dust and powder; it will come down from the skies until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:25 The LORD will cause you to be defeated before your enemies. You will come at them from one direction but flee from them in seven, and you will become a thing of horror to all the kingdoms on earth.

Deuteronomy 28:26 Your carcasses will be food for all the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and there will be no-one to frighten them away.

Deuteronomy 28:27 The LORD will afflict you with the boils of Egypt and with tumours, festering sores and the itch, from which you cannot be cured.

Deuteronomy 28:28 The LORD will afflict you with madness, blindness and confusion of mind.

Deuteronomy 28:29 At midday you will grope about like a blind man in the dark. You will be unsuccessful in everything you do; day after day you will be oppressed and robbed, with no-one to rescue you.

Deuteronomy 28:30 You will be pledged to be married to a woman, but another will take her and ravish her. You will build a house, but you will not live in it. You will plant a vineyard, but you will not even begin to enjoy its fruit.

Deuteronomy 28:31 Your ox will be slaughtered before your eyes, but you will eat none of it. Your donkey will be forcibly taken from you and will not be returned. Your sheep will be given to your enemies, and no-one will rescue them.

Deuteronomy 28:32 Your sons and daughters will be given to another nation, and you will wear out your eyes watching for them day after day, powerless to lift a hand.

Deuteronomy 28:33 A people that you do not know will eat what your land and labour produce, and you will have nothing but cruel oppression all your days.

Deuteronomy 28:34 The sights you see will drive you mad.

Deuteronomy 28:35 The LORD will afflict your knees and legs with painful boils that cannot be cured, spreading from the soles of your feet to the top of your head.

Deuteronomy 28:36 The LORD will drive you and the king you set over you to a nation unknown to you or your fathers. There you will worship other gods, gods of wood and stone.

Deuteronomy 28:37 You will become a thing of horror and an object of scorn and ridicule to all the nations where the LORD will drive you.

Deuteronomy 28:38 You will sow much seed in the field but you will harvest little, because locusts will devour it.

Deuteronomy 28:39 You will plant vineyards and cultivate them but you will not drink the wine or gather the grapes, because worms will eat them.

Deuteronomy 28:40 You will have olive trees throughout your country but you will not use the oil, because the olives will drop off.

Deuteronomy 28:41 You will have sons and daughters but you will not keep them, because they will go into captivity.

Deuteronomy 28:42 Swarms of locusts will take over all your trees and the crops of your land.

Deuteronomy 28:43 The alien who lives among you will rise above you higher and higher, but you will sink lower and lower.

Deuteronomy 28:44 He will lend to you, but you will not lend to him. He will be the head, but you will be the tail.

Deuteronomy 28:45 All these curses will come upon you. They will pursue you and overtake you until you are destroyed, because you did not obey the LORD your God and observe the commands and decrees he gave you.

Deuteronomy 28:46 They will be a sign and a wonder to you and your descendants for ever.

Deuteronomy 28:47 Because you did not serve the LORD your God joyfully and gladly in the time of prosperity, Deuteronomy 28:48 therefore in hunger and thirst, in nakedness and dire poverty, you will serve the enemies the LORD sends against you. He will put an iron yoke on your neck until he has destroyed you.

Deuteronomy 28:49 The LORD will bring a nation against you from far away, from the ends of the earth, like an eagle swooping down, a nation whose language you will not understand,

Deuteronomy 28:50 a fierce-looking nation without respect for the old or pity for the young.

Deuteronomy 28:51 They will devour the young of your livestock and the crops of your land until you are destroyed. They will leave you no grain, new wine or oil, nor any calves of your herds or lambs of your flocks until you are ruined.

Deuteronomy 28:52 They will lay siege to all the cities throughout your land until the high fortified walls in which you trust fall down. They will besiege all the cities throughout the land the LORD your God is giving you.

Deuteronomy 28:53 Because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege, you will eat the fruit of the womb, the flesh of the sons and daughters the LORD your God has given you.

Deuteronomy 28:54 Even the most gentle and sensitive man among you will have no compassion on his own brother or the wife he loves or his surviving children,

Deuteronomy 28:55 and he will not give to one of them any of the flesh of his children that he is eating. It will be all he has left because of the suffering that your enemy will inflict on you during the siege of all your cities.

Deuteronomy 28:56 The most gentle and sensitive woman among you—so sensitive and gentle that she would not venture to touch the ground with the sole of her foot—will begrudge the husband she loves and her own son or daughter

Deuteronomy 28:57 the afterbirth from her womb and the children she bears. For she intends to eat them secretly during the siege and in the distress that your enemy will inflict on you in your cities.

Deuteronomy 28:58 If you do not carefully follow all the words of this law, which are written in this book, and do not revere this glorious and awesome name—the LORD your God—

Deuteronomy 28:59 the LORD will send fearful plagues on you and your descendants, harsh and prolonged disasters, and severe and lingering illnesses.

Deuteronomy 28:60 He will bring upon you all the diseases of Egypt that you dreaded, and they will cling to you.

Deuteronomy 28:61 The LORD will also bring on you every kind of sickness and disaster not recorded in this Book of the Law, until you are destroyed.

Deuteronomy 28:62 You who were as numerous as the stars in the sky will be left but few in number, because you did not obey the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 28:63 Just as it pleased the LORD to make you prosper and increase in number, so it will please him to ruin and destroy you. You will be uprooted from the land you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 28:64 Then the LORD will scatter you among all nations, from one end of the earth to the other. There you will worship other gods—gods of wood and stone, which neither you nor your fathers have known.

Deuteronomy 28:65 Among those nations you will find no repose, no resting place for the sole of your foot. There the LORD will give you an anxious mind, eyes weary with longing, and a despairing heart.

Deuteronomy 28:66 You will live in constant suspense, filled with dread both night and day, never sure of your life.

Deuteronomy 28:67 In the morning you will say, “If only it were evening!” and in the evening, “If only it were morning!”—because of the terror that will fill your hearts and the sights that your eyes will see.

Deuteronomy 28:68 The LORD will send you back in ships to Egypt on a journey I said you should never make again. There you will offer yourselves for sale to your enemies as male and female slaves, but no-one will buy you.

Deuteronomy 29:1 These are the terms of the covenant the LORD commanded Moses to make with the Israelites in Moab, in addition to the covenant he had made with them at Horeb.

Deuteronomy 29:2 Moses summoned all the Israelites and said to them: Your eyes have seen all that the LORD did in Egypt to Pharaoh, to all his officials and to all his land.

Deuteronomy 29:3 With your own eyes you saw those great trials, those miraculous signs and great wonders.

Deuteronomy 29:4 But to this day the LORD has not given you a mind that understands or eyes that see or ears that hear.

Deuteronomy 29:5 During the forty years that I led you through the desert, your clothes did not wear out, nor did the sandals on your feet.

Deuteronomy 29:6 You ate no bread and drank no wine or other fermented drink. I did this so that you might know that I am the LORD your God.

Deuteronomy 29:7 When you reached this place, Sihon king of Heshbon and Og king of Bashan came out to fight against us, but we defeated them.

Deuteronomy 29:8 We took their land and gave it as an inheritance to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Deuteronomy 29:9 Carefully follow the terms of this covenant, so that you may prosper in everything you do.

Deuteronomy 29:10 All of you are standing today in the presence of the LORD your God—your leaders and chief men, your elders and officials, and all the other men of Israel,

Deuteronomy 29:11 together with your children and your wives, and the aliens living in your camps who chop your wood and carry your water.

Deuteronomy 29:12 You are standing here in order to enter into a covenant with the LORD your God, a covenant the LORD is making with you this day and sealing with an oath,

Deuteronomy 29:13 to confirm you this day as his people, that he may be your God as he promised you and as he swore to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 29:14 I am making this covenant, with its oath, not only with you

Deuteronomy 29:15 who are standing here with us today in the presence of the LORD our God but also with those who are not here today.

Deuteronomy 29:16 You yourselves know how we lived in Egypt and how we passed through the countries on the way here.

Deuteronomy 29:17 You saw among them their detestable images and idols of wood and stone, of silver and gold.

Deuteronomy 29:18 Make sure there is no man or woman, clan or tribe among you today whose heart turns away from the LORD our God to go and worship the gods of those nations; make sure there is no root among you that produces such bitter poison.

Deuteronomy 29:19 When such a person hears the words of this oath, he invokes a blessing on himself and therefore thinks, “I will be safe, even though I persist in going my own way.” This will bring disaster on the watered land as well as the dry.

Deuteronomy 29:20 The LORD will never be willing to forgive him; his wrath and zeal will burn against that man. All the curses written in this book will fall upon him, and the LORD will blot out his name from under heaven.

Deuteronomy 29:21 The LORD will single him out from all the tribes of Israel for disaster, according to all the curses of the covenant written in this Book of the Law.

Deuteronomy 29:22 Your children who follow you in later generations and foreigners who come from distant lands will see the calamities that have fallen on the land and the diseases with which the LORD has afflicted it.

Deuteronomy 29:23 The whole land will be a burning waste of salt and sulphur— nothing planted, nothing sprouting, no vegetation growing on it. It will be like the destruction of Sodom and Gomorrah, Admah and Zeboiim, which the LORD overthrew in fierce anger.

Deuteronomy 29:24 All the nations will ask: "Why has the LORD done this to this land? Why this fierce, burning anger?"

Deuteronomy 29:25 And the answer will be: "It is because this people abandoned the covenant of the LORD, the God of their fathers, the covenant he made with them when he brought them out of Egypt.

Deuteronomy 29:26 They went off and worshipped other gods and bowed down to them, gods they did not know, gods he had not given them.

Deuteronomy 29:27 Therefore the LORD's anger burned against this land, so that he brought on it all the curses written in this book.

Deuteronomy 29:28 In furious anger and in great wrath the LORD uprooted them from their land and thrust them into another land, as it is now."

Deuteronomy 29:29 The secret things belong to the LORD our God, but the things revealed belong to us and to our children for ever, that we may follow all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 30:1 When all these blessings and curses I have set before you come upon you and you take them to heart wherever the LORD your God disperses you among the nations,

Deuteronomy 30:2 and when you and your children return to the LORD your God and obey him with all your heart and with all your soul according to everything I command you today,

Deuteronomy 30:3 then the LORD your God will restore your fortunes and have compassion on you and gather you again from all the nations where he scattered you.

Deuteronomy 30:4 Even if you have been banished to the most distant land under the heavens, from there the LORD your God will gather you and bring you back.

Deuteronomy 30:5 He will bring you to the land that belonged to your fathers, and you will take possession of it. He will make you more prosperous and numerous than your fathers.

Deuteronomy 30:6 The LORD your God will circumcise your hearts and the hearts of your descendants, so that you may love him with all your heart and with all your soul, and live.

Deuteronomy 30:7 The LORD your God will put all these curses on your enemies who hate and persecute you.

Deuteronomy 30:8 You will again obey the LORD and follow all his commands I am giving you today.

Deuteronomy 30:9 Then the LORD your God will make you most prosperous in all the work of your hands and in the fruit of your womb, the young of your livestock and the crops of your land. The LORD will again delight in you and make you prosperous, just as he delighted in your fathers, Deuteronomy 30:10 if you obey the LORD your God and keep his commands and decrees that are written in this Book of the Law and turn to the LORD your God with all your heart and with all your soul.

Deuteronomy 30:11 Now what I am commanding you today is not too difficult for you or beyond your reach.

Deuteronomy 30:12 It is not up in heaven, so that you have to ask, "Who will ascend into heaven to get it and proclaim it to us so that we may obey it?"

Deuteronomy 30:13 Nor is it beyond the sea, so that you have to ask, "Who will cross the sea to get it and proclaim it to us so that we may obey it?"

Deuteronomy 30:14 No, the word is very near you; it is in your mouth and in your heart so that you may obey it.

Deuteronomy 30:15 See, I set before you today life and prosperity, death and destruction.

Deuteronomy 30:16 For I command you today to love the LORD your God, to walk in his ways, and to keep his commands, decrees and laws; then you will live and increase, and the LORD your God will bless you in the land you are entering to possess.

Deuteronomy 30:17 But if your heart turns away and you are not obedient, and if you are drawn away to bow down to other gods and worship them,

Deuteronomy 30:18 I declare to you this day that you will certainly be destroyed. You will not live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to enter and possess.

Deuteronomy 30:19 This day I call heaven and earth as witnesses against you that I have set before you life and death, blessings and curses. Now choose life, so that you and your children may live

Deuteronomy 30:20 and that you may love the LORD your God, listen to his voice, and hold fast to him. For the LORD is your life, and he will give you many years in the land he swore to give to your fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob.

Deuteronomy 31:1 Then Moses went out and spoke these words to all Israel:

Deuteronomy 31:2 “I am now a hundred and twenty years old and I am no longer able to lead you. The LORD has said to me,`You shall not cross the Jordan.’

Deuteronomy 31:3 The LORD your God himself will cross over ahead of you. He will destroy these nations before you, and you will take possession of their land. Joshua also will cross over ahead of you, as the LORD said.

Deuteronomy 31:4 And the LORD will do to them what he did to Sihon and Og, the kings of the Amorites, whom he destroyed along with their land.

Deuteronomy 31:5 The LORD will deliver them to you, and you must do to them all that I have commanded you.

Deuteronomy 31:6 Be strong and courageous. Do not be afraid or terrified because of them, for the LORD your God goes with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you.”

Deuteronomy 31:7 Then Moses summoned Joshua and said to him in the presence of all Israel, “Be strong and courageous, for you must go with this people into the land that the LORD swore to their forefathers to give them, and you must divide it among them as their inheritance.

Deuteronomy 31:8 The LORD himself goes before you and will be with you; he will never leave you nor forsake you. Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged.”

Deuteronomy 31:9 So Moses wrote down this law and gave it to the priests, the sons of Levi, who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and to all the elders of Israel.

Deuteronomy 31:10 Then Moses commanded them: “At the end of every seven years, in the year for cancelling debts, during the Feast of Tabernacles,

Deuteronomy 31:11 when all Israel comes to appear before the LORD your God at the place he will choose, you shall read this law before them in their hearing.

Deuteronomy 31:12 Assemble the people—men, women and children, and the aliens living in your towns—so that they can listen and learn to fear the LORD your God and follow carefully all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 31:13 Their children, who do not know this law, must hear it and learn to fear the LORD your God as long as you live in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 31:14 The LORD said to Moses, “Now the day of your death is near. Call Joshua and present yourselves at the Tent of Meeting, where I will commission him.” So Moses and Joshua came and presented themselves at the Tent of Meeting.

Deuteronomy 31:15 Then the LORD appeared at the Tent in a pillar of cloud, and the cloud stood over the entrance to the Tent.

Deuteronomy 31:16 And the LORD said to Moses: “You are going to rest with your fathers, and these people will soon prostitute themselves to the foreign gods of the land they are entering. They will forsake me and break the covenant I made with them.

Deuteronomy 31:17 On that day I will become angry with them and forsake them; I will hide my face from them, and they will be destroyed. Many disasters and difficulties will come upon them, and on that day they will ask,`Have not these disasters come upon us because our God is not with us?’

Deuteronomy 31:18 And I will certainly hide my face on that day because of all their wickedness in turning to other gods.

Deuteronomy 31:19 “Now write down for yourselves this song and teach it to the Israelites and make them sing it, so that it may be a witness for me against them.

Deuteronomy 31:20 When I have brought them into the land flowing with milk and honey, the land I promised on oath to their forefathers, and when they eat their fill and thrive, they will turn to other gods and worship them, rejecting me and breaking my covenant.

Deuteronomy 31:21 And when many disasters and difficulties come upon them, this song will testify against them, because it will not be forgotten by their descendants. I know what they are disposed to do, even before I bring them into the land I promised them on oath.”

Deuteronomy 31:22 So Moses wrote down this song that day and taught it to the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 31:23 The LORD gave this command to Joshua son of Nun: “Be strong and courageous, for you will bring the Israelites into the land I promised them on oath, and I myself will be with you.”

Deuteronomy 31:24 After Moses finished writing in a book the words of this law from beginning to end,

Deuteronomy 31:25 he gave this command to the Levites who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD:

Deuteronomy 31:26 “Take this Book of the Law and place it beside the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God. There it will remain as a witness against you.

Deuteronomy 31:27 For I know how rebellious and stiff-necked you are. If you have been rebellious against the LORD while I am still alive and with you, how much more will you rebel after I die!

Deuteronomy 31:28 Assemble before me all the elders of your tribes and all your officials, so that I can speak these words in their hearing and call heaven and earth to testify against them.

Deuteronomy 31:29 For I know that after my death you are sure to become utterly corrupt and to turn from the way I have commanded you. In days to come, disaster will fall upon you because you will do evil in the sight of the LORD and provoke him to anger by what your hands have made.”

Deuteronomy 31:30 And Moses recited the words of this song from beginning to end in the hearing of the whole assembly of Israel:

Deuteronomy 32:1 Listen, O heavens, and I will speak; hear, O earth, the words of my mouth.

Deuteronomy 32:2 Let my teaching fall like rain and my words descend like dew, like showers on new grass, like abundant rain on tender plants.

Deuteronomy 32:3 I will proclaim the name of the LORD. Oh, praise the greatness of our God!

Deuteronomy 32:4 He is the Rock, his works are perfect, and all his ways are just. A faithful God who does no wrong, upright and just is he.

Deuteronomy 32:5 They have acted corruptly towards him; to their shame they are no longer his children, but a warped and crooked generation.

Deuteronomy 32:6 Is this the way you repay the LORD, O foolish and unwise people? Is he not your Father, your Creator, who made you and formed you?

Deuteronomy 32:7 Remember the days of old; consider the generations long past. Ask your father and he will tell you, your elders, and they will explain to you.

Deuteronomy 32:8 When the Most High gave the nations their inheritance, when he divided all mankind, he set up boundaries for the peoples according to the number of the sons of Israel.

Deuteronomy 32:9 For the LORD’s portion is his people, Jacob his allotted inheritance.

Deuteronomy 32:10 In a desert land he found him, in a barren and howling waste. He shielded him and cared for him; he guarded him as the apple of his eye,

Deuteronomy 32:11 like an eagle that stirs up its nest and hovers over its young, that spreads its wings to catch them and carries them on its pinions.

Deuteronomy 32:12 The LORD alone led him; no foreign god was with him.

Deuteronomy 32:13 He made him ride on the heights of the land and fed him with the fruit of the fields. He nourished him with honey from the rock, and with oil from the flinty crag, Deuteronomy 32:14 with curds and milk from herd and flock and with fattened lambs and goats, with choice rams of Bashan and the finest grains of wheat. You drank the foaming blood of the grape.

Deuteronomy 32:15 Jeshurun grew fat and kicked; filled with food, he became heavy and sleek. He abandoned the God who made him and rejected the Rock his Saviour.

Deuteronomy 32:16 They made him jealous with their foreign gods and angered him with their detestable idols.

Deuteronomy 32:17 They sacrificed to demons, which are not God—gods they had not known, gods that recently appeared, gods your fathers did not fear.

Deuteronomy 32:18 You deserted the Rock, who fathered you; you forgot the God who gave you birth.

Deuteronomy 32:19 The LORD saw this and rejected them because he was angered by his sons and daughters.

Deuteronomy 32:20 “I will hide my face from them,” he said, “and see what their end will be; for they are a perverse generation, children who are unfaithful.

Deuteronomy 32:21 They made me jealous by what is no god and angered me with their worthless idols. I will make them envious by those who are not a people; I will make them angry by a nation that has no understanding.

Deuteronomy 32:22 For a fire has been kindled by my wrath, one that burns to the realm of death below. It will devour the earth and its harvests and set on fire the foundations of the mountains.

Deuteronomy 32:23 “I will heap calamities upon them and expend my arrows against them.

Deuteronomy 32:24 I will send wasting famine against them, consuming pestilence and deadly plague; I will send against them the fangs of wild beasts, the venom of vipers that glide in the dust.

Deuteronomy 32:25 In the street the sword will make them childless; in their homes terror will reign. Young men and young women will perish, infants and grey-haired men.

Deuteronomy 32:26 I said I would scatter them and blot out their memory from mankind,

Deuteronomy 32:27 but I dreaded the taunt of the enemy, lest the adversary misunderstand and say,`Our hand has triumphed; the LORD has not done all this.'“

Deuteronomy 32:28 They are a nation without sense, there is no discernment in them.

Deuteronomy 32:29 If only they were wise and would understand this and discern what their end will be!

Deuteronomy 32:30 How could one man chase a thousand, or two put ten thousand to flight, unless their Rock had sold them, unless the LORD had given them up?

Deuteronomy 32:31 For their rock is not like our Rock, as even our enemies concede.

Deuteronomy 32:32 Their vine comes from the vine of Sodom and from the fields of Gomorrah. Their grapes are filled with poison, and their clusters with bitterness.

Deuteronomy 32:33 Their wine is the venom of serpents, the deadly poison of cobras.

Deuteronomy 32:34 “Have I not kept this in reserve and sealed it in my vaults?

Deuteronomy 32:35 It is mine to avenge; I will repay. In due time their foot will slip; their day of disaster is near and their doom rushes upon them.”

Deuteronomy 32:36 The LORD will judge his people and have compassion on his servants when he sees their strength is gone and no-one is left, slave or free.

Deuteronomy 32:37 He will say: “Now where are their gods, the rock they took refuge in,

Deuteronomy 32:38 the gods who ate the fat of their sacrifices and drank the wine of their drink offerings? Let them rise up to help you! Let them give you shelter!

Deuteronomy 32:39 “See now that I myself am He! There is no god besides me. I put to death and I bring to life, I have wounded and I will heal, and no-one can deliver out of my hand.

Deuteronomy 32:40 I lift my hand to heaven and declare: As surely as I live for ever,

Deuteronomy 32:41 when I sharpen my flashing sword and my hand grasps it in judgment, I will take vengeance on my adversaries and repay those who hate me.

Deuteronomy 32:42 I will make my arrows drunk with blood, while my sword devours flesh: the blood of the slain and the captives, the heads of the enemy leaders.”

Deuteronomy 32:43 Rejoice, O nations, with his people, for he will avenge the blood of his servants; he will take vengeance on his enemies and make atonement for his land and people.

Deuteronomy 32:44 Moses came with Joshua son of Nun and spoke all the words of this song in the hearing of the people.

Deuteronomy 32:45 When Moses finished reciting all these words to all Israel, Deuteronomy 32:46 he said to them, “Take to heart all the words I have solemnly declared to you this day, so that you may command your children to obey carefully all the words of this law.

Deuteronomy 32:47 They are not just idle words for you—they are your life. By them you will live long in the land you are crossing the Jordan to possess.”

Deuteronomy 32:48 On that same day the LORD told Moses,

Deuteronomy 32:49 “Go up into the Abarim Range to Mount Nebo in Moab, across from Jericho, and view Canaan, the land I am giving the Israelites as their own possession.

Deuteronomy 32:50 There on the mountain that you have climbed you will die and be gathered to your people, just as your brother Aaron died on Mount Hor and was gathered to his people.

Deuteronomy 32:51 This is because both of you broke faith with me in the presence of the Israelites at the waters of Meribah Kadesh in the Desert of Zin and because you did not uphold my holiness among the Israelites.

Deuteronomy 32:52 Therefore, you will see the land only from a distance; you will not enter the land I am giving to the people of Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:1 This is the blessing that Moses the man of God pronounced on the Israelites before his death.

Deuteronomy 33:2 He said: “The LORD came from Sinai and dawned over them from Seir; he shone forth from Mount Paran. He came with myriads of holy ones from the south, from his mountain slopes.

Deuteronomy 33:3 Surely it is you who love the people; all the holy ones are in your hand. At your feet they all bow down, and from you receive instruction,

Deuteronomy 33:4 the law that Moses gave us, the possession of the assembly of Jacob.

Deuteronomy 33:5 He was king over Jeshurun when the leaders of the people assembled, along with the tribes of Israel.

Deuteronomy 33:6 “Let Reuben live and not die, nor his men be few.”

Deuteronomy 33:7 And this he said about Judah: “Hear, O LORD, the cry of Judah; bring him to his people. With his own hands he defends his cause. Oh, be his help against his foes!”

Deuteronomy 33:8 About Levi he said: “Your Thummim and Urim belong to the man you favoured. You tested him at Massah; you contended with him at the waters of Meribah.

Deuteronomy 33:9 He said of his father and mother,`I have no regard for them.’ He did not recognise his brothers or acknowledge his own children, but he watched over your word and guarded your covenant.

Deuteronomy 33:10 He teaches your precepts to Jacob and your law to Israel. He offers incense before you and whole burnt offerings on your altar.

Deuteronomy 33:11 Bless all his skills, O LORD, and be pleased with the work of his hands. Smite the loins of those who rise up against him; strike his foes till they rise no more.”

Deuteronomy 33:12 About Benjamin he said: “Let the beloved of the LORD rest secure in him, for he shields him all day long, and the one the LORD loves rests between his shoulders.”

Deuteronomy 33:13 About Joseph he said: “May the LORD bless his land with the precious dew from heaven above and with the deep waters that lie below;

Deuteronomy 33:14 with the best the sun brings forth and the finest the moon can yield;

Deuteronomy 33:15 with the choicest gifts of the ancient mountains and the fruitfulness of the everlasting hills;

Deuteronomy 33:16 with the best gifts of the earth and its fulness and the favour of him who dwelt in the burning bush. Let all these rest on the head of Joseph, on the brow of the prince among his brothers.

Deuteronomy 33:17 In majesty he is like a firstborn bull; his horns are the horns of a wild ox. With them he will gore the nations, even those at the ends of the earth. Such are the ten thousands of Ephraim; such are the thousands of Manasseh.”

Deuteronomy 33:18 About Zebulun he said: “Rejoice, Zebulun, in your going out, and you, Issachar, in your tents.

Deuteronomy 33:19 They will summon peoples to the mountain and there offer sacrifices of righteousness; they will feast on the abundance of the seas, on the treasures hidden in the sand.”

Deuteronomy 33:20 About Gad he said: “Blessed is he who enlarges Gad’s domain! Gad lives there like a lion, tearing at arm or head.

Deuteronomy 33:21 He chose the best land for himself; the leader’s portion was kept for him. When the heads of the people assembled, he carried out the LORD’s righteous will, and his judgments concerning Israel.”

Deuteronomy 33:22 About Dan he said: “Dan is a lion’s cub, springing out of Bashan.”

Deuteronomy 33:23 About Naphtali he said: “Naphtali is abounding with the favour of the LORD and is full of his blessing; he will inherit southward to the lake.”

Deuteronomy 33:24 About Asher he said: “Most blessed of sons is Asher; let him be favoured by his brothers, and let him bathe his feet in oil.

Deuteronomy 33:25 The bolts of your gates will be iron and bronze, and your strength will equal your days.

Deuteronomy 33:26 “There is no-one like the God of Jeshurun, who rides on the heavens to help you and on the clouds in his majesty.

Deuteronomy 33:27 The eternal God is your refuge, and underneath are the everlasting arms. He will drive out your enemy before you, saying,`Destroy him!’

Deuteronomy 33:28 So Israel will live in safety alone; Jacob’s spring is secure in a land of grain and new wine, where the heavens drop dew.

Deuteronomy 33:29 Blessed are you, O Israel! Who is like you, a people saved by the LORD? He is your shield and helper and your glorious sword. Your enemies will cower before you, and you will trample down their high places.”

Deuteronomy 34:1 Then Moses climbed Mount Nebo from the plains of Moab to the top of Pisgah, across from Jericho. There the LORD showed him the whole land—from Gilead to Dan,

Deuteronomy 34:2 all of Naphtali, the territory of Ephraim and Manasseh, all the land of Judah as far as the western sea,

Deuteronomy 34:3 the Negev and the whole region from the Valley of Jericho, the City of Palms, as far as Zoar.

Deuteronomy 34:4 Then the LORD said to him, “This is the land I promised on oath to Abraham, Isaac and Jacob when I said,`I will give it to your descendants.’ I have let you see it with your eyes, but you will not cross over into it.”

Deuteronomy 34:5 And Moses the servant of the LORD died there in Moab, as the LORD had said.

Deuteronomy 34:6 He buried him in Moab, in the valley opposite Beth Peor, but to this day no-one knows where his grave is.

Deuteronomy 34:7 Moses was a hundred and twenty years old when he died, yet his eyes were not weak nor his strength gone.

Deuteronomy 34:8 The Israelites grieved for Moses in the plains of Moab thirty days, until the time of weeping and mourning was over.

Deuteronomy 34:9 Now Joshua son of Nun was filled with the spirit of wisdom because Moses had laid his hands on him. So the Israelites listened to him and did what the LORD had commanded Moses.

Deuteronomy 34:10 Since then, no prophet has risen in Israel like Moses, whom the LORD knew face to face,

Deuteronomy 34:11 who did all those miraculous signs and wonders the LORD sent him to do in Egypt—to Pharaoh and to all his officials and to his whole land.

Deuteronomy 34:12 For no-one has ever shown the mighty power or performed the awesome deeds that Moses did in the sight of all Israel.

Joshua

1:1 After the death of Moses the servant of the LORD, the LORD said to Joshua son of Nun, Moses’ assistant:

Joshua 1:2 “Moses my servant is dead. Now then, you and all these people, get ready to cross the Jordan River into the land I am about to give to them—to the Israelites.

Joshua 1:3 I will give you every place where you set your foot, as I promised Moses.

Joshua 1:4 Your territory will extend from the desert to Lebanon, and from the great river, the Euphrates—all the Hittite country— to the Great Sea on the west.

Joshua 1:5 No-one will be able to stand up against you all the days of your life. As I was with Moses, so I will be with you; I will never leave you nor forsake you.

Joshua 1:6 “Be strong and courageous, because you will lead these people to inherit the land I swore to their forefathers to give them.

Joshua 1:7 Be strong and very courageous. Be careful to obey all the law my servant Moses gave you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, that you may be successful wherever you go.

Joshua 1:8 Do not let this Book of the Law depart from your mouth; meditate on it day and night, so that you may be careful to do everything written in it. Then you will be prosperous and successful.

Joshua 1:9 Have I not commanded you? Be strong and courageous. Do not be terrified; do not be discouraged, for the LORD your God will be with you wherever you go.”

Joshua 1:10 So Joshua ordered the officers of the people:

Joshua 1:11 “Go through the camp and tell the people,`Get your supplies ready. Three days from now you will cross the Jordan here to go in and take possession of the land the LORD your God is giving you for your own.’“

Joshua 1:12 But to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh, Joshua said,

Joshua 1:13 “Remember the command that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you:`The LORD your God is giving you rest and has granted you this land.’

Joshua 1:14 Your wives, your children and your livestock may stay in the land that Moses gave you east of the Jordan, but all your fighting men, fully armed, must cross over ahead of your brothers. You are to help your brothers

Joshua 1:15 until the LORD gives them rest, as he has done for you, and until they too have taken possession of the land that the LORD your God is giving them. After that, you may go back and occupy your own land, which Moses the servant of the LORD gave you east of the Jordan towards the sunrise.”

Joshua 1:16 Then they answered Joshua, “Whatever you have commanded us we will do, and wherever you send us we will go.

Joshua 1:17 Just as we fully obeyed Moses, so we will obey you. Only may the LORD your God be with you as he was with Moses.

Joshua 1:18 Whoever rebels against your word and does not obey your words, whatever you may command them, will be put to death. Only be strong and courageous!”

Joshua 2:1 Then Joshua son of Nun secretly sent two spies from Shittim. “Go, look over the land,” he said, “especially Jericho.” So they went and entered the house of a prostitute named Rahab and stayed there.

Joshua 2:2 The king of Jericho was told, “Look! Some of the Israelites have come here tonight to spy out the land.”

Joshua 2:3 So the king of Jericho sent this message to Rahab: “Bring out the men who came to you and entered your house, because they have come to spy out the whole land.”

Joshua 2:4 But the woman had taken the two men and hidden them. She said, “Yes, the men came to me, but I did not know where they had come from.

Joshua 2:5 At dusk, when it was time to close the city gate, the men left. I don’t know which way they went. Go after them quickly. You may catch up with them.”

Joshua 2:6 (But she had taken them up to the roof and hidden them under the stalks of flax she had laid out on the roof.)

Joshua 2:7 So the men set out in pursuit of the spies on the road that leads to the fords of the Jordan, and as soon as the pursuers had gone out, the gate was shut.

Joshua 2:8 Before the spies lay down for the night, she went up on the roof

Joshua 2:9 and said to them, “I know that the LORD has given this land to you and that a great fear of you has fallen on us, so that all who live in this country are melting in fear because of you.

Joshua 2:10 We have heard how the LORD dried up the water of the Red Sea for you when you came out of Egypt, and what you did to Sihon and Og, the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan, whom you completely destroyed.

Joshua 2:11 When we heard of it, our hearts sank and everyone’s courage failed because of you, for the LORD your God is God in heaven above and on the earth below.

Joshua 2:12 Now then, please swear to me by the LORD that you will show kindness to my family, because I have shown kindness to you. Give me a sure sign

Joshua 2:13 that you will spare the lives of my father and mother, my brothers and sisters, and all who belong to them, and that you will save us from death.”

Joshua 2:14 “Our lives for your lives!” the men assured her. “If you don’t tell what we are doing, we will treat you kindly and faithfully when the LORD gives us the land.”

Joshua 2:15 So she let them down by a rope through the window, for the house she lived in was part of the city wall.

Joshua 2:16 Now she had said to them, “Go to the hills so that the pursuers will not find you. Hide yourselves there three days until they return, and then go on your way.”

Joshua 2:17 The men said to her, “This oath you made us swear will not be binding on us

Joshua 2:18 unless, when we enter the land, you have tied this scarlet cord in the window through which you let us down, and unless you have brought your father and mother, your brothers and all your family into your house.

Joshua 2:19 If anyone goes outside your house into the street, his blood will be on his own head; we will not be responsible. As for anyone who is in the house with you, his blood will be on our head if a hand is laid on him.

Joshua 2:20 But if you tell what we are doing, we will be released from the oath you made us swear.”

Joshua 2:21 “Agreed,” she replied. “Let it be as you say.” So she sent them away and they departed. And she tied the scarlet cord in the window.

Joshua 2:22 When they left, they went into the hills and stayed there three days, until the pursuers had searched all along the road and returned without finding them.

Joshua 2:23 Then the two men started back. They went down out of the hills, forded the river and came to Joshua son of Nun and told him everything that had happened to them.

Joshua 2:24 They said to Joshua, “The LORD has surely given the whole land into our hands; all the people are melting in fear because of us.”

Joshua 3:1 Early in the morning Joshua and all the Israelites set out from Shittim and went to the Jordan, where they camped before crossing over.

Joshua 3:2 After three days the officers went throughout the camp, Joshua 3:3 giving orders to the people: “When you see the ark of the covenant of the LORD your God, and the priests, who are Levites, carrying it, you are to move out from your positions and follow it.

Joshua 3:4 Then you will know which way to go, since you have never been this way before. But keep a distance of about a thousand yards between you and the ark; do not go near it.”

Joshua 3:5 Joshua told the people, “Consecrate yourselves, for tomorrow the LORD will do amazing things among you.”

Joshua 3:6 Joshua said to the priests, “Take up the ark of the covenant and pass on ahead of the people.” So they took it up and went ahead of them.

Joshua 3:7 And the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I will begin to exalt you in the eyes of all Israel, so that they may know that I am with you as I was with Moses.

Joshua 3:8 Tell the priests who carry the ark of the covenant:`When you reach the edge of the Jordan’s waters, go and stand in the river.’“

Joshua 3:9 Joshua said to the Israelites, “Come here and listen to the words of the LORD your God.

Joshua 3:10 This is how you will know that the living God is among you and that he will certainly drive out before you the Canaanites, Hittites, Hivites, Perizzites, Girgashites, Amorites and Jebusites.

Joshua 3:11 See, the ark of the covenant of the Lord of all the earth will go into the Jordan ahead of you.

Joshua 3:12 Now then, choose twelve men from the tribes of Israel, one from each tribe.

Joshua 3:13 And as soon as the priests who carry the ark of the LORD— the Lord of all the earth—set foot in the Jordan, its waters flowing downstream will be cut off and stand up in a heap.”

Joshua 3:14 So when the people broke camp to cross the Jordan, the priests carrying the ark of the covenant went ahead of them.

Joshua 3:15 Now the Jordan is in flood all during harvest. Yet as soon as the priests who carried the ark reached the Jordan and their feet touched the water’s edge,

Joshua 3:16 the water from upstream stopped flowing. It piled up in a heap a great distance away, at a town called Adam in the vicinity of Zarethan, while the water flowing down to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea) was completely cut off. So the people crossed over opposite Jericho.

Joshua 3:17 The priests who carried the ark of the covenant of the LORD stood firm on dry ground in the middle of the Jordan, while all Israel passed by until the whole nation had completed the crossing on dry ground.

Joshua 4:1 When the whole nation had finished crossing the Jordan, the LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 4:2 “Choose twelve men from among the people, one from each tribe,

Joshua 4:3 and tell them to take up twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan from right where the priests stood and to carry them over with you and put them down at the place where you stay tonight.”

Joshua 4:4 So Joshua called together the twelve men he had appointed from the Israelites, one from each tribe,

Joshua 4:5 and said to them, “Go over before the ark of the LORD your God into the middle of the Jordan. Each of you is to take up a stone on his shoulder, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites,

Joshua 4:6 to serve as a sign among you. In the future, when your children ask you,`What do these stones mean?’

Joshua 4:7 tell them that the flow of the Jordan was cut off before the ark of the covenant of the LORD. When it crossed the Jordan, the waters of the Jordan were cut off. These stones are to be a memorial to the people of Israel for ever.”

Joshua 4:8 So the Israelites did as Joshua commanded them. They took twelve stones from the middle of the Jordan, according to the number of the tribes of the Israelites, as the LORD had told Joshua; and they carried them over with them to their camp, where they put them down.

Joshua 4:9 Joshua set up the twelve stones that had been in the middle of the Jordan at the spot where the priests who carried the ark of the covenant had stood. And they are there to this day.

Joshua 4:10 Now the priests who carried the ark remained standing in the middle of the Jordan until everything the LORD had commanded Joshua was done by the people, just as Moses had directed Joshua. The people hurried over,

Joshua 4:11 and as soon as all of them had crossed, the ark of the LORD and the priests came to the other side while the people watched.

Joshua 4:12 The men of Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh crossed over, armed, in front of the Israelites, as Moses had directed them.

Joshua 4:13 About forty thousand armed for battle crossed over before the LORD to the plains of Jericho for war.

Joshua 4:14 That day the LORD exalted Joshua in the sight of all Israel; and they revered him all the days of his life, just as they had revered Moses.

Joshua 4:15 Then the LORD said to Joshua,

Joshua 4:16 “Command the priests carrying the ark of the Testimony to come up out of the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:17 So Joshua commanded the priests, “Come up out of the Jordan.”

Joshua 4:18 And the priests came up out of the river carrying the ark of the covenant of the LORD. No sooner had they set their feet on the dry ground than the waters of the Jordan returned to their place and ran in flood as before.

Joshua 4:19 On the tenth day of the first month the people went up from the Jordan and camped at Gilgal on the eastern border of Jericho.

Joshua 4:20 And Joshua set up at Gilgal the twelve stones they had taken out of the Jordan.

Joshua 4:21 He said to the Israelites, “In the future when your descendants ask their fathers,`What do these stones mean?’

Joshua 4:22 tell them,`Israel crossed the Jordan on dry ground.’

Joshua 4:23 For the LORD your God dried up the Jordan before you until you had crossed over. The LORD your God did to the Jordan just what he had done to the Red Sea when he dried it up before us until we had crossed over.

Joshua 4:24 He did this so that all the peoples of the earth might know that the hand of the LORD is powerful and so that you might always fear the LORD your God.”

Joshua 5:1 Now when all the Amorite kings west of the Jordan and all the Canaanite kings along the coast heard how the LORD had dried up the Jordan before the Israelites until we had crossed over, their hearts sank and they no longer had the courage to face the Israelites.

Joshua 5:2 At that time the LORD said to Joshua, “Make flint knives and circumcise the Israelites again.”

Joshua 5:3 So Joshua made flint knives and circumcised the Israelites at Gibeath Haaraloth.

Joshua 5:4 Now this is why he did so: All those who came out of Egypt— all the men of military age—died in the desert on the way after leaving Egypt.

Joshua 5:5 All the people that came out had been circumcised, but all the people born in the desert during the journey from Egypt had not.

Joshua 5:6 The Israelites had moved about in the desert forty years until all the men who were of military age when they left Egypt had died, since they had not obeyed the LORD. For the LORD had sworn to them that they would not see the land that he had solemnly promised their fathers to give us, a land flowing with milk and honey.

Joshua 5:7 So he raised up their sons in their place, and these were the ones Joshua circumcised. They were still uncircumcised because they had not been circumcised on the way.

Joshua 5:8 And after the whole nation had been circumcised, they remained where they were in camp until they were healed.

Joshua 5:9 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Today I have rolled away the reproach of Egypt from you.” So the place has been called Gilgal to this day.

Joshua 5:10 On the evening of the fourteenth day of the month, while camped at Gilgal on the plains of Jericho, the Israelites celebrated the Passover.

Joshua 5:11 The day after the Passover, that very day, they ate some of the produce of the land: unleavened bread and roasted grain.

Joshua 5:12 The manna stopped the day after they ate this food from the land; there was no longer any manna for the Israelites, but that year they ate of the produce of Canaan.

Joshua 5:13 Now when Joshua was near Jericho, he looked up and saw a man standing in front of him with a drawn sword in his hand. Joshua went up to him and asked, “Are you for us or for our enemies?”

Joshua 5:14 “Neither,” he replied, “but as commander of the army of the LORD I have now come.” Then Joshua fell face down to the ground in reverence, and asked him, “What message does my Lord have for his servant?”

Joshua 5:15 The commander of the LORD’s army replied, “Take off your sandals, for the place where you are standing is holy.” And Joshua did so.

Joshua 6:1 Now Jericho was tightly shut up because of the Israelites. No-one went out and no-one came in.

Joshua 6:2 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “See, I have delivered Jericho into your hands, along with its king and its fighting men.

Joshua 6:3 March around the city once with all the armed men. Do this for six days.

Joshua 6:4 Make seven priests carry trumpets of rams’ horns in front of the ark. On the seventh day, march around the city seven times, with the priests blowing the trumpets.

Joshua 6:5 When you hear them sound a long blast on the trumpets, make all the people give a loud shout; then the wall of the city will collapse and the people will go up, every man straight in.”

Joshua 6:6 So Joshua son of Nun called the priests and said to them, “Take up the ark of the covenant of the LORD and make seven priests carry trumpets in front of it.”

Joshua 6:7 And he ordered the people, “Advance! March around the city, with the armed guard going ahead of the ark of the LORD.”

Joshua 6:8 When Joshua had spoken to the people, the seven priests carrying the seven trumpets before the LORD went forward, blowing their trumpets, and the ark of the LORD’s covenant followed them.

Joshua 6:9 The armed guard marched ahead of the priests who blew the trumpets, and the rear guard followed the ark. All this time the trumpets were sounding.

Joshua 6:10 But Joshua had commanded the people, “Do not give a war cry, do not raise your voices, do not say a word until the day I tell you to shout. Then shout!”

Joshua 6:11 So he had the ark of the LORD carried around the city, circling it once. Then the people returned to camp and spent the night there.

Joshua 6:12 Joshua got up early the next morning and the priests took up the ark of the LORD.

Joshua 6:13 The seven priests carrying the seven trumpets went forward, marching before the ark of the LORD and blowing the trumpets. The armed men went ahead of them and the rear guard followed the ark of the LORD, while the trumpets kept sounding.

Joshua 6:14 So on the second day they marched around the city once and returned to the camp. They did this for six days.

Joshua 6:15 On the seventh day, they got up at daybreak and marched around the city seven times in the same manner, except that on that day they circled the city seven times.

Joshua 6:16 The seventh time around, when the priests sounded the trumpet blast, Joshua commanded the people, “Shout! For the LORD has given you the city!

Joshua 6:17 The city and all that is in it are to be devoted to the LORD. Only Rahab the prostitute and all who are with her in her house shall be spared, because she hid the spies we sent.

Joshua 6:18 But keep away from the devoted things, so that you will not bring about your own destruction by taking any of them. Otherwise you will make the camp of Israel liable to destruction and bring trouble on it.

Joshua 6:19 All the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron are sacred to the LORD and must go into his treasury.”

Joshua 6:20 When the trumpets sounded, the people shouted, and at the sound of the trumpet, when the people gave a loud shout, the wall collapsed; so every man charged straight in, and they took the city.

Joshua 6:21 They devoted the city to the LORD and destroyed with the sword every living thing in it—men and women, young and old, cattle, sheep and donkeys.

Joshua 6:22 Joshua said to the two men who had spied out the land, “Go into the prostitute’s house and bring her out and all who belong to her, in accordance with your oath to her.”

Joshua 6:23 So the young men who had done the spying went in and brought out Rahab, her father and mother and brothers and all who belonged to her. They brought out her entire family and put them in a place outside the camp of Israel.

Joshua 6:24 Then they burned the whole city and everything in it, but they put the silver and gold and the articles of bronze and iron into the treasury of the LORD’s house.

Joshua 6:25 But Joshua spared Rahab the prostitute, with her family and all who belonged to her, because she hid the men Joshua had sent as spies to Jericho—and she lives among the Israelites to this day.

Joshua 6:26 At that time Joshua pronounced this solemn oath: “Cursed before the LORD is the man who undertakes to rebuild this city, Jericho: “At the cost of his firstborn son will he lay its foundations; at the cost of his youngest will he set up its gates.”

Joshua 6:27 So the LORD was with Joshua, and his fame spread throughout the land.

Joshua 7:1 But the Israelites acted unfaithfully in regard to the devoted things; Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, took some of them. So the LORD’s anger burned against Israel.

Joshua 7:2 Now Joshua sent men from Jericho to Ai, which is near Beth Aven to the east of Bethel, and told them, “Go up and spy out the region.” So the men went up and spied out Ai.

Joshua 7:3 When they returned to Joshua, they said, “Not all the people will have to go up against Ai. Send two or three thousand men to take it and do not weary all the people, for only a few men are there.”

Joshua 7:4 So about three thousand men went up; but they were routed by the men of Ai,

Joshua 7:5 who killed about thirty-six of them. They chased the Israelites from the city gate as far as the stone quarries and struck them down on the slopes. At this the hearts of the people melted and became like water.

Joshua 7:6 Then Joshua tore his clothes and fell face down to the ground before the ark of the LORD, remaining there till evening. The elders of Israel did the same, and sprinkled dust on their heads.

Joshua 7:7 And Joshua said, “Ah, Sovereign LORD, why did you ever bring this people across the Jordan to deliver us into the hands of the Amorites to destroy us? If only we had been content to stay on the other side of the Jordan!

Joshua 7:8 O Lord, what can I say, now that Israel has been routed by its enemies?

Joshua 7:9 The Canaanites and the other people of the country will hear about this and they will surround us and wipe out our name from the earth. What then will you do for your own great name?”

Joshua 7:10 The LORD said to Joshua, “Stand up! What are you doing down on your face?

Joshua 7:11 Israel has sinned; they have violated my covenant, which I commanded them to keep. They have taken some of the devoted things; they have stolen, they have lied, they have put them with their own possessions.

Joshua 7:12 That is why the Israelites cannot stand against their enemies; they turn their backs and run because they have been made liable to destruction. I will not be with you any more unless you destroy whatever among you is devoted to destruction.

Joshua 7:13 “Go, consecrate the people. Tell them,`Consecrate yourselves in preparation for tomorrow; for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: That which is devoted is among you, O Israel. You cannot stand against your enemies until you remove it.

Joshua 7:14 “`In the morning, present yourselves tribe by tribe. The tribe that the LORD takes shall come forward clan by clan; the clan that the LORD takes shall come forward family by family; and the family that the LORD takes shall come forward man by man.

Joshua 7:15 He who is caught with the devoted things shall be destroyed by fire, along with all that belongs to him. He has violated the covenant of the LORD and has done a disgraceful thing in Israel!'“

Joshua 7:16 Early the next morning Joshua had Israel come forward by tribes, and Judah was taken.

Joshua 7:17 The clans of Judah came forward, and he took the Zerahites. He had the clan of the Zerahites come forward by families, and Zimri was taken.

Joshua 7:18 Joshua had his family come forward man by man, and Achan son of Carmi, the son of Zimri, the son of Zerah, of the tribe of Judah, was taken.

Joshua 7:19 Then Joshua said to Achan, “My son, give glory to the LORD, the God of Israel, and give him the praise. Tell me what you have done; do not hide it from me.”

Joshua 7:20 Achan replied, “It is true! I have sinned against the LORD, the God of Israel. This is what I have done:

Joshua 7:21 When I saw in the plunder a beautiful robe from Babylonia, two hundred shekels of silver and a wedge of gold weighing fifty shekels, I coveted them and took them. They are hidden in the ground inside my tent, with the silver underneath.”

Joshua 7:22 So Joshua sent messengers, and they ran to the tent, and there it was, hidden in his tent, with the silver underneath.

Joshua 7:23 They took the things from the tent, brought them to Joshua and all the Israelites and spread them out before the LORD.

Joshua 7:24 Then Joshua, together with all Israel, took Achan son of Zerah, the silver, the robe, the gold wedge, his sons and daughters, his cattle, donkeys and sheep, his tent and all that he had, to the Valley of Achor.

Joshua 7:25 Joshua said, “Why have you brought this trouble on us? The LORD will bring trouble on you today.” Then all Israel stoned him, and after they had stoned the rest, they burned them.

Joshua 7:26 Over Achan they heaped up a large pile of rocks, which remains to this day. Then the LORD turned from his fierce anger. Therefore that place has been called the Valley of Achor ever since.

Joshua 8:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Take the whole army with you, and go up and attack Ai. For I have delivered into your hands the king of Ai, his people, his city and his land.

Joshua 8:2 You shall do to Ai and its king as you did to Jericho and its king, except that you may carry off their plunder and livestock for yourselves. Set an ambush behind the city.”

Joshua 8:3 So Joshua and the whole army moved out to attack Ai. He chose thirty thousand of his best fighting men and sent them out at night

Joshua 8:4 with these orders: “Listen carefully. You are to set an ambush behind the city. Don’t go very far from it. All of you be on the alert.

Joshua 8:5 I and all those with me will advance on the city, and when the men come out against us, as they did before, we will flee from them.

Joshua 8:6 They will pursue us until we have lured them away from the city, for they will say,`They are running away from us as they did before.’ So when we flee from them,

Joshua 8:7 you are to rise up from ambush and take the city. The LORD your God will give it into your hand.

Joshua 8:8 When you have taken the city, set it on fire. Do what the LORD has commanded. See to it; you have my orders.”

Joshua 8:9 Then Joshua sent them off, and they went to the place of ambush and lay in wait between Bethel and Ai, to the west of Ai— but Joshua spent that night with the people.

Joshua 8:10 Early the next morning Joshua mustered his men, and he and the leaders of Israel marched before them to Ai.

Joshua 8:11 The entire force that was with him marched up and approached the city and arrived in front of it. They set up camp north of Ai, with the valley between them and the city.

Joshua 8:12 Joshua had taken about five thousand men and set them in ambush between Bethel and Ai, to the west of the city.

Joshua 8:13 They had the soldiers take up their positions—all those in the camp to the north of the city and the ambush to the west of it. That night Joshua went into the valley.

Joshua 8:14 When the king of Ai saw this, he and all the men of the city hurried out early in the morning to meet Israel in battle at a certain place overlooking the Arabah. But he did not know that an ambush had been set against him behind the city.

Joshua 8:15 Joshua and all Israel let themselves be driven back before them, and they fled towards the desert.

Joshua 8:16 All the men of Ai were called to pursue them, and they pursued Joshua and were lured away from the city.

Joshua 8:17 Not a man remained in Ai or Bethel who did not go after Israel. They left the city open and went in pursuit of Israel.

Joshua 8:18 Then the LORD said to Joshua, “Hold out towards Ai the javelin that is in your hand, for into your hand I will deliver the city.” So Joshua held out his javelin towards Ai.

Joshua 8:19 As soon as he did this, the men in the ambush rose quickly from their position and rushed forward. They entered the city and captured it and quickly set it on fire.

Joshua 8:20 The men of Ai looked back and saw the smoke of the city rising against the sky, but they had no chance to escape in any direction, for the Israelites who had been fleeing towards the desert had turned back against their pursuers.

Joshua 8:21 For when Joshua and all Israel saw that the ambush had taken the city and that smoke was going up from the city, they turned round and attacked the men of Ai.

Joshua 8:22 The men of the ambush also came out of the city against them, so that they were caught in the middle, with Israelites on both sides. Israel cut them down, leaving them neither survivors nor fugitives.

Joshua 8:23 But they took the king of Ai alive and brought him to Joshua.

Joshua 8:24 When Israel had finished killing all the men of Ai in the fields and in the desert where they had chased them, and when every one of them had been put to the sword, all the Israelites returned to Ai and killed those who were in it.

Joshua 8:25 Twelve thousand men and women fell that day—all the people of Ai.

Joshua 8:26 For Joshua did not draw back the hand that held out his javelin until he had destroyed all who lived in Ai.

Joshua 8:27 But Israel did carry off for themselves the livestock and plunder of this city, as the LORD had instructed Joshua.

Joshua 8:28 So Joshua burned Ai and made it a permanent heap of ruins, a desolate place to this day.

Joshua 8:29 He hung the king of Ai on a tree and left him there until evening. At sunset, Joshua ordered them to take his body from the tree and throw it down at the entrance of the city gate. And they raised a large pile of rocks over it, which remains to this day.

Joshua 8:30 Then Joshua built on Mount Ebal an altar to the LORD, the God of Israel,

Joshua 8:31 as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded the Israelites. He built it according to what is written in the Book of the Law of Moses—an altar of uncut stones, on which no iron tool had been used. On it they offered to the LORD burnt offerings and sacrificed fellowship offerings.

Joshua 8:32 There, in the presence of the Israelites, Joshua copied on stones the law of Moses, which he had written.

Joshua 8:33 All Israel, aliens and citizens alike, with their elders, officials and judges, were standing on both sides of the ark of the covenant of the LORD, facing those who carried it—the priests, who were Levites. Half of the people stood in front of Mount Gerizim and half of them in front of Mount Ebal, as Moses the servant of the LORD had formerly commanded when he gave instructions to bless the people of Israel.

Joshua 8:34 Afterwards, Joshua read all the words of the law—the blessings and the curses—just as it is written in the Book of the Law.

Joshua 8:35 There was not a word of all that Moses had commanded that Joshua did not read to the whole assembly of Israel, including the women and children, and the aliens who lived among them.

Joshua 9:1 Now when all the kings west of the Jordan heard about these things—those in the hill country, in the western foothills, and along the entire coast of the Great Sea as far as Lebanon (the kings of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites)—

Joshua 9:2 they came together to make war against Joshua and Israel.

Joshua 9:3 However, when the people of Gibeon heard what Joshua had done to Jericho and Ai, Joshua 9:4 they resorted to a ruse: They went as a delegation whose donkeys were loaded with worn-out sacks and old wineskins, cracked and mended.

Joshua 9:5 The men put worn and patched sandals on their feet and wore old clothes. All the bread of their food supply was dry and mouldy.

Joshua 9:6 Then they went to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal and said to him and the men of Israel, “We have come from a distant country; make a treaty with us.”

Joshua 9:7 The men of Israel said to the Hivites, “But perhaps you live near us. How then can we make a treaty with you?”

Joshua 9:8 “We are your servants,” they said to Joshua. But Joshua asked, “Who are you and where do you come from?”

Joshua 9:9 They answered: “Your servants have come from a very distant country because of the fame of the LORD your God. For we have heard reports of him: all that he did in Egypt,

Joshua 9:10 and all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites east of the Jordan—Sihon king of Heshbon, and Og king of Bashan, who reigned in Ashtaroth.

Joshua 9:11 And our elders and all those living in our country said to us,`Take provisions for your journey; go and meet them and say to them, “We are your servants; make a treaty with us.”‘

Joshua 9:12 This bread of ours was warm when we packed it at home on the day we left to come to you. But now see how dry and mouldy it is.

Joshua 9:13 And these wineskins that we filled were new, but see how cracked they are. And our clothes and sandals are worn out by the very long journey.”

Joshua 9:14 The men of Israel sampled their provisions but did not enquire of the LORD.

Joshua 9:15 Then Joshua made a treaty of peace with them to let them live, and the leaders of the assembly ratified it by oath.

Joshua 9:16 Three days after they made the treaty with the Gibeonites, the Israelites heard that they were neighbours, living near them.

Joshua 9:17 So the Israelites set out and on the third day came to their cities: Gibeon, Kephirah, Beeroth and Kiriath Jearim.

Joshua 9:18 But the Israelites did not attack them, because the leaders of the assembly had sworn an oath to them by the LORD, the God of Israel. The whole assembly grumbled against the leaders, Joshua 9:19 but all the leaders answered, “We have given them our oath by the LORD, the God of Israel, and we cannot touch them now.

Joshua 9:20 This is what we will do to them: We will let them live, so that wrath will not fall on us for breaking the oath we swore to them."

Joshua 9:21 They continued, "Let them live, but let them be woodcutters and water-carriers for the entire community." So the leaders' promise to them was kept.

Joshua 9:22 Then Joshua summoned the Gibeonites and said, "Why did you deceive us by saying,`We live a long way from you,' while actually you live near us?

Joshua 9:23 You are now under a curse: You will never cease to serve as woodcutters and water-carriers for the house of my God."

Joshua 9:24 They answered Joshua, "Your servants were clearly told how the LORD your God had commanded his servant Moses to give you the whole land and to wipe out all its inhabitants from before you. So we feared for our lives because of you, and that is why we did this.

Joshua 9:25 We are now in your hands. Do to us whatever seems good and right to you."

Joshua 9:26 So Joshua saved them from the Israelites, and they did not kill them.

Joshua 9:27 That day he made the Gibeonites woodcutters and water-carriers for the community and for the altar of the LORD at the place the LORD would choose. And that is what they are to this day.

Joshua 10:1 Now Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem heard that Joshua had taken Ai and totally destroyed it, doing to Ai and its king as he had done to Jericho and its king, and that the people of Gibeon had made a treaty of peace with Israel and were living near them.

Joshua 10:2 He and his people were very much alarmed at this, because Gibeon was an important city, like one of the royal cities; it was larger than Ai, and all its men were good fighters.

Joshua 10:3 So Adoni-Zedek king of Jerusalem appealed to Hoham king of Hebron, Piram king of Jarmuth, Japhia king of Lachish and Debir king of Eglon.

Joshua 10:4 "Come up and help me attack Gibeon," he said, "because it has made peace with Joshua and the Israelites."

Joshua 10:5 Then the five kings of the Amorites—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon—joined forces. They moved up with all their troops and took up positions against Gibeon and attacked it.

Joshua 10:6 The Gibeonites then sent word to Joshua in the camp at Gilgal: "Do not abandon your servants. Come up to us quickly and save us! Help us, because all the Amorite kings from the hill country have joined forces against us."

Joshua 10:7 So Joshua marched up from Gilgal with his entire army, including all the best fighting men.

Joshua 10:8 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them; I have given them into your hand. Not one of them will be able to withstand you.”

Joshua 10:9 After an all-night march from Gilgal, Joshua took them by surprise.

Joshua 10:10 The LORD threw them into confusion before Israel, who defeated them in a great victory at Gibeon. Israel pursued them along the road going up to Beth Horon and cut them down all the way to Azekah and Makkedah.

Joshua 10:11 As they fled before Israel on the road down from Beth Horon to Azekah, the LORD hurled large hailstones down on them from the sky, and more of them died from the hailstones than were killed by the swords of the Israelites.

Joshua 10:12 On the day the LORD gave the Amorites over to Israel, Joshua said to the LORD in the presence of Israel: “O sun, stand still over Gibeon, O moon, over the Valley of Aijalon.”

Joshua 10:13 So the sun stood still, and the moon stopped, till the nation avenged itself on its enemies, as it is written in the Book of Jashar. The sun stopped in the middle of the sky and delayed going down about a full day.

Joshua 10:14 There has never been a day like it before or since, a day when the LORD listened to a man. Surely the LORD was fighting for Israel!

Joshua 10:15 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 10:16 Now the five kings had fled and hidden in the cave at Makkedah.

Joshua 10:17 When Joshua was told that the five kings had been found hiding in the cave at Makkedah,

Joshua 10:18 he said, “Roll large rocks up to the mouth of the cave, and post some men there to guard it.

Joshua 10:19 But don’t stop! Pursue your enemies, attack them from the rear and don’t let them reach their cities, for the LORD your God has given them into your hand.”

Joshua 10:20 So Joshua and the Israelites destroyed them completely— almost to a man—but the few who were left reached their fortified cities.

Joshua 10:21 The whole army then returned safely to Joshua in the camp at Makkedah, and no-one uttered a word against the Israelites.

Joshua 10:22 Joshua said, “Open the mouth of the cave and bring those five kings out to me.”

Joshua 10:23 So they brought the five kings out of the cave—the kings of Jerusalem, Hebron, Jarmuth, Lachish and Eglon.

Joshua 10:24 When they had brought these kings to Joshua, he summoned all the men of Israel and said to the army commanders who had come with him, “Come here and put your feet on the necks of these kings.” So they came forward and placed their feet on their necks.

Joshua 10:25 Joshua said to them, “Do not be afraid; do not be discouraged. Be strong and courageous. This is what the LORD will do to all the enemies you are going to fight.”

Joshua 10:26 Then Joshua struck and killed the kings and hung them on five trees, and they were left hanging on the trees until evening.

Joshua 10:27 At sunset Joshua gave the order and they took them down from the trees and threw them into the cave where they had been hiding. At the mouth of the cave they placed large rocks, which are there to this day.

Joshua 10:28 That day Joshua took Makkedah. He put the city and its king to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it. He left no survivors. And he did to the king of Makkedah as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:29 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Makkedah to Libnah and attacked it.

Joshua 10:30 The LORD also gave that city and its king into Israel’s hand. The city and everyone in it Joshua put to the sword. He left no survivors there. And he did to its king as he had done to the king of Jericho.

Joshua 10:31 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Libnah to Lachish; he took up positions against it and attacked it.

Joshua 10:32 The LORD handed Lachish over to Israel, and Joshua took it on the second day. The city and everyone in it he put to the sword, just as he had done to Libnah.

Joshua 10:33 Meanwhile, Horam king of Gezer had come up to help Lachish, but Joshua defeated him and his army—until no survivors were left.

Joshua 10:34 Then Joshua and all Israel with him moved on from Lachish to Eglon; they took up positions against it and attacked it.

Joshua 10:35 They captured it that same day and put it to the sword and totally destroyed everyone in it, just as they had done to Lachish.

Joshua 10:36 Then Joshua and all Israel with him went up from Eglon to Hebron and attacked it.

Joshua 10:37 They took the city and put it to the sword, together with its king, its villages and everyone in it. They left no survivors. Just as at Eglon, they totally destroyed it and everyone in it.

Joshua 10:38 Then Joshua and all Israel with him turned round and attacked Debir.

Joshua 10:39 They took the city, its king and its villages, and put them to the sword. Everyone in it they totally destroyed. They left no survivors. They did to Debir and its king as they had done to Libnah and its king and to Hebron.

Joshua 10:40 So Joshua subdued the whole region, including the hill country, the Negev, the western foothills and the mountain slopes, together with all their kings. He left no survivors. He totally destroyed all who breathed, just as the LORD, the God of Israel, had commanded.

Joshua 10:41 Joshua subdued them from Kadesh Barnea to Gaza and from the whole region of Goshen to Gibeon.

Joshua 10:42 All these kings and their lands Joshua conquered in one campaign, because the LORD, the God of Israel, fought for Israel.

Joshua 10:43 Then Joshua returned with all Israel to the camp at Gilgal.

Joshua 11:1 When Jabin king of Hazor heard of this, he sent word to Jobab king of Madon, to the kings of Shimron and Acshaph,

Joshua 11:2 and to the northern kings who were in the mountains, in the Arabah south of Kinnereth, in the western foothills and in Naphoth Dor on the west;

Joshua 11:3 to the Canaanites in the east and west; to the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites and Jebusites in the hill country; and to the Hivites below Hermon in the region of Mizpah.

Joshua 11:4 They came out with all their troops and a large number of horses and chariots—a huge army, as numerous as the sand on the seashore.

Joshua 11:5 All these kings joined forces and made camp together at the Waters of Merom, to fight against Israel.

Joshua 11:6 The LORD said to Joshua, “Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel, slain. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots.”

Joshua 11:7 So Joshua and his whole army came against them suddenly at the Waters of Merom and attacked them,

Joshua 11:8 and the LORD gave them into the hand of Israel. They defeated them and pursued them all the way to Greater Sidon, to Misrephoth Maim, and to the Valley of Mizpah on the east, until no survivors were left.

Joshua 11:9 Joshua did to them as the LORD had directed: He hamstrung their horses and burned their chariots.

Joshua 11:10 At that time Joshua turned back and captured Hazor and put its king to the sword. (Hazor had been the head of all these kingdoms.)

Joshua 11:11 Everyone in it they put to the sword. They totally destroyed them, not sparing anything that breathed, and he burned up Hazor itself.

Joshua 11:12 Joshua took all these royal cities and their kings and put them to the sword. He totally destroyed them, as Moses the servant of the LORD had commanded.

Joshua 11:13 Yet Israel did not burn any of the cities built on their mounds—except Hazor, which Joshua burned.

Joshua 11:14 The Israelites carried off for themselves all the plunder and livestock of these cities, but all the people they put to the sword until they completely destroyed them, not sparing anyone that breathed.

Joshua 11:15 As the LORD commanded his servant Moses, so Moses commanded Joshua, and Joshua did it; he left nothing undone of all that the LORD commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:16 So Joshua took this entire land: the hill country, all the Negev, the whole region of Goshen, the western foothills, the Arabah and the mountains of Israel with their foothills,

Joshua 11:17 from Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir, to Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon below Mount Hermon. He captured all their kings and struck them down, putting them to death.

Joshua 11:18 Joshua waged war against all these kings for a long time.

Joshua 11:19 Except for the Hivites living in Gibeon, not one city made a treaty of peace with the Israelites, who took them all in battle.

Joshua 11:20 For it was the LORD himself who hardened their hearts to wage war against Israel, so that he might destroy them totally, exterminating them without mercy, as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 11:21 At that time Joshua went and destroyed the Anakites from the hill country: from Hebron, Debir and Anab, from all the hill country of Judah, and from all the hill country of Israel. Joshua totally destroyed them and their towns.

Joshua 11:22 No Anakites were left in Israelite territory; only in Gaza, Gath and Ashdod did any survive.

Joshua 11:23 So Joshua took the entire land, just as the LORD had directed Moses, and he gave it as an inheritance to Israel according to their tribal divisions. Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 12:1 These are the kings of the land whom the Israelites had defeated and whose territory they took over east of the Jordan, from the Arnon Gorge to Mount Hermon, including all the eastern side of the Arabah:

Joshua 12:2 Sihon king of the Amorites, who reigned in Heshbon. He ruled from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge—from the middle of the gorge—to the Jabbok River, which is the border of the Ammonites. This included half of Gilead.

Joshua 12:3 He also ruled over the eastern Arabah from the Sea of Kinnereth to the Sea of the Arabah (the Salt Sea), to Beth Jeshimoth, and then southward below the slopes of Pisgah.

Joshua 12:4 And the territory of Og king of Bashan, one of the last of the Rephaites, who reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei.

Joshua 12:5 He ruled over Mount Hermon, Salecah, all of Bashan to the border of the people of Geshur and Maacah, and half of Gilead to the border of Sihon king of Heshbon.

Joshua 12:6 Moses, the servant of the LORD, and the Israelites conquered them. And Moses the servant of the LORD gave their land to the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh to be their possession.

Joshua 12:7 These are the kings of the land that Joshua and the Israelites conquered on the west side of the Jordan, from Baal Gad in the Valley of Lebanon to Mount Halak, which rises towards Seir (their lands Joshua gave as an inheritance to the tribes of Israel according to their tribal divisions—

Joshua 12:8 the hill country, the western foothills, the Arabah, the mountain slopes, the desert and the Negev—the lands of the Hittites, Amorites, Canaanites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites):

Joshua 12:9 the king of Jericho one the king of Ai (near Bethel) one

Joshua 12:10 the king of Jerusalem one the king of Hebron one

Joshua 12:11 the king of Jarmuth one the king of Lachish one

Joshua 12:12 the king of Eglon one the king of Gezer one

Joshua 12:13 the king of Debir one the king of Geder one

Joshua 12:14 the king of Hormah one the king of Arad one

Joshua 12:15 the king of Libnah one the king of Adullam one

Joshua 12:16 the king of Makkedah one the king of Bethel one

Joshua 12:17 the king of Tappuah one the king of Hepher one

Joshua 12:18 the king of Aphek one the king of Lasharon one

Joshua 12:19 the king of Madon one the king of Hazor one

Joshua 12:20 the king of Shimron Meron one the king of Acshaph one

Joshua 12:21 the king of Taanach one the king of Megiddo one

Joshua 12:22 the king of Kedesh one the king of Jokneam in Carmel one

Joshua 12:23 the king of Dor (in Naphoth Dor) one the king of Goyim in Gilgal one

Joshua 12:24 the king of Tirzah one thirty-one kings in all.

Joshua 13:1 When Joshua was old and well advanced in years, the LORD said to him, “You are very old, and there are still very large areas of land to be taken over.

Joshua 13:2 “This is the land that remains: all the regions of the Philistines and Geshurites:

Joshua 13:3 from the Shihor River on the east of Egypt to the territory of Ekron on the north, all of it counted as Canaanite (the territory of the five Philistine rulers in Gaza, Ashdod, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron—that of the Avvites);

Joshua 13:4 from the south, all the land of the Canaanites, from Arah of the Sidonians as far as Aphek, the region of the Amorites,

Joshua 13:5 the area of the Gebalites; and all Lebanon to the east, from Baal Gad below Mount Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

Joshua 13:6 “As for all the inhabitants of the mountain regions from Lebanon to Misrephoth Maim, that is, all the Sidonians, I myself will drive them out before the Israelites. Be sure to allocate this land to Israel for an inheritance, as I have instructed you, Joshua 13:7 and divide it as an inheritance among the nine tribes and half of the tribe of Manasseh.”

Joshua 13:8 The other half of Manasseh, the Reubenites and the Gadites had received the inheritance that Moses had given them east of the Jordan, as he, the servant of the LORD, had assigned it to them.

Joshua 13:9 It extended from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and included the whole plateau of Medeba as far as Dibon,

Joshua 13:10 and all the towns of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, out to the border of the Ammonites.

Joshua 13:11 It also included Gilead, the territory of the people of Geshur and Maacah, all of Mount Hermon and all Bashan as far as Salecah—

Joshua 13:12 that is, the whole kingdom of Og in Bashan, who had reigned in Ashtaroth and Edrei and had survived as one of the last of the Rephaites. Moses had defeated them and taken over their land.

Joshua 13:13 But the Israelites did not drive out the people of Geshur and Maacah, so they continue to live among the Israelites to this day.

Joshua 13:14 But to the tribe of Levi he gave no inheritance, since the offerings made by fire to the LORD, the God of Israel, are their inheritance, as he promised them.

Joshua 13:15 This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Reuben, clan by clan:

Joshua 13:16 The territory from Aroer on the rim of the Arnon Gorge, and from the town in the middle of the gorge, and the whole plateau past Medeba

Joshua 13:17 to Heshbon and all its towns on the plateau, including Dibon, Bamoth Baal, Beth Baal Meon,

Joshua 13:18 Jahaz, Kedemoth, Mephaath,

Joshua 13:19 Kiriathaim, Sibmah, Zereth Shahar on the hill in the valley,

Joshua 13:20 Beth Peor, the slopes of Pisgah, and Beth Jeshimoth—

Joshua 13:21 all the towns on the plateau and the entire realm of Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled at Heshbon. Moses had defeated him and the Midianite chiefs, Evi, Rekem, Zur, Hur and Reba—princes allied with Sihon—who lived in that country.

Joshua 13:22 In addition to those slain in battle, the Israelites had put to the sword Balaam son of Beor, who practised divination.

Joshua 13:23 The boundary of the Reubenites was the bank of the Jordan. These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Reubenites, clan by clan.

Joshua 13:24 This is what Moses had given to the tribe of Gad, clan by clan:

Joshua 13:25 The territory of Jazer, all the towns of Gilead and half the Ammonite country as far as Aroer, near Rabbah;

Joshua 13:26 and from Heshbon to Ramath Mizpah and Betonim, and from Mahanaim to the territory of Debir;

Joshua 13:27 and in the valley, Beth Haram, Beth Nimrah, Succoth and Zaphon with the rest of the realm of Sihon king of Heshbon (the east side of the Jordan, the territory up to the end of the Sea of Kinnereth).

Joshua 13:28 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the Gadites, clan by clan.

Joshua 13:29 This is what Moses had given to the half-tribe of Manasseh, that is, to half the family of the descendants of Manasseh, clan by clan:

Joshua 13:30 The territory extending from Mahanaim and including all of Bashan, the entire realm of Og king of Bashan—all the settlements of Jair in Bashan, sixty towns,

Joshua 13:31 half of Gilead, and Ashtaroth and Edrei (the royal cities of Og in Bashan). This was for the descendants of Makir son of Manasseh—for half of the sons of Makir, clan by clan.

Joshua 13:32 This is the inheritance Moses had given when he was in the plains of Moab across the Jordan east of Jericho.

Joshua 13:33 But to the tribe of Levi, Moses had given no inheritance; the LORD, the God of Israel, is their inheritance, as he promised them.

Joshua 14:1 Now these are the areas the Israelites received as an inheritance in the land of Canaan, which Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel allotted to them.

Joshua 14:2 Their inheritances were assigned by lot to the nine-and-a-half tribes, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 14:3 Moses had granted the two-and-a-half tribes their inheritance east of the Jordan but had not granted the Levites an inheritance among the rest,

Joshua 14:4 for the sons of Joseph had become two tribes—Manasseh and Ephraim. The Levites received no share of the land but only towns to live in, with pasture-lands for their flocks and herds.

Joshua 14:5 So the Israelites divided the land, just as the LORD had commanded Moses.

Joshua 14:6 Now the men of Judah approached Joshua at Gilgal, and Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite said to him, “You know what the LORD said to Moses the man of God at Kadesh Barnea about you and me.

Joshua 14:7 I was forty years old when Moses the servant of the LORD sent me from Kadesh Barnea to explore the land. And I brought him back a report according to my convictions, Joshua 14:8 but my brothers who went up with me made the hearts of the people sink. I, however, followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.

Joshua 14:9 So on that day Moses swore to me,`The land on which your feet have walked will be your inheritance and that of your children for ever, because you have followed the LORD my God wholeheartedly.’

Joshua 14:10 “Now then, just as the LORD promised, he has kept me alive for forty-five years since the time he said this to Moses, while Israel moved about in the desert. So here I am today, eighty-five years old!

Joshua 14:11 I am still as strong today as the day Moses sent me out; I’m just as vigorous to go out to battle now as I was then.

Joshua 14:12 Now give me this hill country that the LORD promised me that day. You yourself heard then that the Anakites were there and their cities were large and fortified, but, the LORD helping me, I will drive them out just as he said.”

Joshua 14:13 Then Joshua blessed Caleb son of Jephunneh and gave him Hebron as his inheritance.

Joshua 14:14 So Hebron has belonged to Caleb son of Jephunneh the Kenizzite ever since, because he followed the LORD, the God of Israel, wholeheartedly.

Joshua 14:15 (Hebron used to be called Kiriath Arba after Arba, who was the greatest man among the Anakites.) Then the land had rest from war.

Joshua 15:1 The allotment for the tribe of Judah, clan by clan, extended down to the territory of Edom, to the Desert of Zin in the extreme south.

Joshua 15:2 Their southern boundary started from the bay at the southern end of the Salt Sea,

Joshua 15:3 crossed south of Scorpion Pass, continued on to Zin and went over to the south of Kadesh Barnea. Then it ran past Hezron up to Addar and curved around to Karka.

Joshua 15:4 It then passed along to Azmon and joined the Wadi of Egypt, ending at the sea. This is their southern boundary.

Joshua 15:5 The eastern boundary is the Salt Sea as far as the mouth of the Jordan. The northern boundary started from the bay of the sea at the mouth of the Jordan,

Joshua 15:6 went up to Beth Hoglah and continued north of Beth Arabah to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Joshua 15:7 The boundary then went up to Debir from the Valley of Achor and turned north to Gilgal, which faces the Pass of Adummim south of the gorge. It continued along to the waters of En Shemesh and came out at En Rogel.

Joshua 15:8 Then it ran up the Valley of Ben Hinnom along the southern slope of the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem). From there it climbed to the top of the hill west of the Hinnom Valley at the northern end of the Valley of Rephaim.

Joshua 15:9 From the hilltop the boundary headed towards the spring of the waters of Nephtoah, came out at the towns of Mount Ephron and went down towards Baalah (that is, Kiriath Jearim).

Joshua 15:10 Then it curved westward from Baalah to Mount Seir, ran along the northern slope of Mount Jearim (that is, Kesalon), continued down to Beth Shemesh and crossed to Timnah.

Joshua 15:11 It went to the northern slope of Ekron, turned towards Shikkeron, passed along to Mount Baalah and reached Jabneel. The boundary ended at the sea.

Joshua 15:12 The western boundary is the coastline of the Great Sea. These are the boundaries around the people of Judah by their clans.

Joshua 15:13 In accordance with the LORD’s command to him, Joshua gave to Caleb son of Jephunneh a portion in Judah—Kiriath Arba, that is, Hebron. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

Joshua 15:14 From Hebron Caleb drove out the three Anakites—Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai—descendants of Anak.

Joshua 15:15 From there he marched against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

Joshua 15:16 And Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher.”

Joshua 15:17 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

Joshua 15:18 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What can I do for you?”

Joshua 15:19 She replied, “Do me a special favour. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water.” So Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Joshua 15:20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of Judah, clan by clan:

Joshua 15:21 The southernmost towns of the tribe of Judah in the Negev towards the boundary of Edom were: Kabzeel, Eder, Jagur,

Joshua 15:22 Kinah, Dimonah, Adadah,

Joshua 15:23 Kedesh, Hazor, Ithnan,

Joshua 15:24 Ziph, Telem, Bealoth,

Joshua 15:25 Hazor Hadattah, Kerioth Hezron (that is, Hazor),

Joshua 15:26 Amam, Shema, Moladah,

Joshua 15:27 Hazar Gaddah, Heshmon, Beth Pelet,

Joshua 15:28 Hazar Shual, Beersheba, Biziothiah,

Joshua 15:29 Baalah, Iim, Ezem,

Joshua 15:30 Eltolad, Kesil, Hormah,

Joshua 15:31 Ziklag, Madmannah, Sansannah,

Joshua 15:32 Lebaoth, Shilhim, Ain and Rimmon—a total of twenty-nine towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:33 In the western foothills: Eshtaol, Zorah, Ashnah,

Joshua 15:34 Zanoah, En Gannim, Tappuah, Enam,

Joshua 15:35 Jarmuth, Adullam, Socoh, Azekah,

Joshua 15:36 Shaaraim, Adithaim and Gederah (or Gederothaim)—fourteen towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:37 Zenan, Hadashah, Migdal Gad,

Joshua 15:38 Dilean, Mizpah, Joktheel,

Joshua 15:39 Lachish, Bozkath, Eglon,

Joshua 15:40 Cabbon, Lahmas, Kitlish,

Joshua 15:41 Gederoth, Beth Dagon, Naamah and Makkedah—sixteen towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:42 Libnah, Ether, Ashan,

Joshua 15:43 Iphtah, Ashnah, Nezib,

Joshua 15:44 Keilah, Aczib and Mareshah—nine towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:45 Ekron, with its surrounding settlements and villages;

Joshua 15:46 west of Ekron, all that were in the vicinity of Ashdod, together with their villages;

Joshua 15:47 Ashdod, its surrounding settlements and villages; and Gaza, its settlements and villages, as far as the Wadi of Egypt and the coastline of the Great Sea.

Joshua 15:48 In the hill country: Shamir, Jattir, Socoh,

Joshua 15:49 Dannah, Kiriath Sannah (that is, Debir),

Joshua 15:50 Anab, Eshtemoh, Anim,

Joshua 15:51 Goshen, Holon and Giloh—eleven towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:52 Arab, Dumah, Eshan,

Joshua 15:53 Janim, Beth Tappuah, Aphekah,

Joshua 15:54 Humtah, Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) and Zior—nine towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:55 Maon, Carmel, Ziph, Juttah,

Joshua 15:56 Jezreel, Jokdeam, Zanoah,

Joshua 15:57 Kain, Gibeah and Timnah—ten towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:58 Halhul, Beth Zur, Gedor,

Joshua 15:59 Maarath, Beth Anoth and Eltekon—six towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:60 Kiriath Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim) and Rabbah—two towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:61 In the desert: Beth Arabah, Middin, Secacah,

Joshua 15:62 Nibshan, the City of Salt and En Gedi—six towns and their villages.

Joshua 15:63 Judah could not dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the people of Judah.

Joshua 16:1 The allotment for Joseph began at the Jordan of Jericho, east of the waters of Jericho, and went up from there through the desert into the hill country of Bethel.

Joshua 16:2 It went on from Bethel (that is, Luz), crossed over to the territory of the Arkites in Ataroth, Joshua 16:3 descended westward to the territory of the Japhletites as far as the region of Lower Beth Horon and on to Gezer, ending at the sea.

Joshua 16:4 So Manasseh and Ephraim, the descendants of Joseph, received their inheritance.

Joshua 16:5 This was the territory of Ephraim, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went from Ataroth Addar in the east to Upper Beth Horon

Joshua 16:6 and continued to the sea. From Micmethath on the north it curved eastward to Taanath Shiloh, passing by it to Janoah on the east.

Joshua 16:7 Then it went down from Janoah to Ataroth and Naarah, touched Jericho and came out at the Jordan.

Joshua 16:8 From Tappuah the border went west to the Kanah Ravine and ended at the sea. This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Ephraimites, clan by clan.

Joshua 16:9 It also included all the towns and their villages that were set aside for the Ephraimites within the inheritance of the Manassites.

Joshua 16:10 They did not dislodge the Canaanites living in Gezer; to this day the Canaanites live among the people of Ephraim but are required to do forced labour.

Joshua 17:1 This was the allotment for the tribe of Manasseh as Joseph’s firstborn, that is, for Makir, Manasseh’s firstborn. Makir was the ancestor of the Gileadites, who had received Gilead and Bashan because the Makirites were great soldiers.

Joshua 17:2 So this allotment was for the rest of the people of Manasseh—the clans of Abiezer, Helek, Asriel, Shechem, Hepher and Shemida. These are the other male descendants of Manasseh son of Joseph by their clans.

Joshua 17:3 Now Zelophehad son of Hepher, the son of Gilead, the son of Makir, the son of Manasseh, had no sons but only daughters, whose names were Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah.

Joshua 17:4 They went to Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the leaders and said, “The LORD commanded Moses to give us an inheritance among our brothers.” So Joshua gave them an inheritance along with the brothers of their father, according to the LORD’s command.

Joshua 17:5 Manasseh’s share consisted of ten tracts of land besides Gilead and Bashan east of the Jordan, Joshua 17:6 because the daughters of the tribe of Manasseh received an inheritance among the sons. The land of Gilead belonged to the rest of the descendants of Manasseh.

Joshua 17:7 The territory of Manasseh extended from Asher to Micmethath east of Shechem. The boundary ran southward from there to include the people living at En Tappuah.

Joshua 17:8 (Manasseh had the land of Tappuah, but Tappuah itself, on the boundary of Manasseh, belonged to the Ephraimites.)

Joshua 17:9 Then the boundary continued south to the Kanah Ravine. There were towns belonging to Ephraim lying among the towns of Manasseh, but the boundary of Manasseh was the northern side of the ravine and ended at the sea.

Joshua 17:10 On the south the land belonged to Ephraim, on the north to Manasseh. The territory of Manasseh reached the sea and bordered Asher on the north and Issachar on the east.

Joshua 17:11 Within Issachar and Asher, Manasseh also had Beth Shan, Ibleam and the people of Dor, Endor, Taanach and Megiddo, together with their surrounding settlements (the third in the list is Naphoth).

Joshua 17:12 Yet the Manassites were not able to occupy these towns, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that region.

Joshua 17:13 However, when the Israelites grew stronger, they subjected the Canaanites to forced labour but did not drive them out completely.

Joshua 17:14 The people of Joseph said to Joshua, “Why have you given us only one allotment and one portion for an inheritance? We are a numerous people and the LORD has blessed us abundantly.”

Joshua 17:15 “If you are so numerous,” Joshua answered, “and if the hill country of Ephraim is too small for you, go up into the forest and clear land for yourselves there in the land of the Perizzites and Rephaites.”

Joshua 17:16 The people of Joseph replied, “The hill country is not enough for us, and all the Canaanites who live in the plain have iron chariots, both those in Beth Shan and its settlements and those in the Valley of Jezreel.”

Joshua 17:17 But Joshua said to the house of Joseph—to Ephraim and Manasseh—”You are numerous and very powerful. You will have not only one allotment

Joshua 17:18 but the forested hill country as well. Clear it, and its farthest limits will be yours; though the Canaanites have iron chariots and though they are strong, you can drive them out.”

Joshua 18:1 The whole assembly of the Israelites gathered at Shiloh and set up the Tent of Meeting there. The country was brought under their control,

Joshua 18:2 but there were still seven Israelite tribes who had not yet received their inheritance.

Joshua 18:3 So Joshua said to the Israelites: “How long will you wait before you begin to take possession of the land that the LORD, the God of your fathers, has given you?

Joshua 18:4 Appoint three men from each tribe. I will send them out to make a survey of the land and to write a description of it, according to the inheritance of each. Then they will return to me.

Joshua 18:5 You are to divide the land into seven parts. Judah is to remain in its territory on the south and the house of Joseph in its territory on the north.

Joshua 18:6 After you have written descriptions of the seven parts of the land, bring them here to me and I will cast lots for you in the presence of the LORD our God.

Joshua 18:7 The Levites, however, do not get a portion among you, because the priestly service of the LORD is their inheritance. And Gad, Reuben and the half-tribe of Manasseh have already received their inheritance on the east side of the Jordan. Moses the servant of the LORD gave it to them.”

Joshua 18:8 As the men started on their way to map out the land, Joshua instructed them, “Go and make a survey of the land and write a description of it. Then return to me, and I will cast lots for you here at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD.”

Joshua 18:9 So the men left and went through the land. They wrote its description on a scroll, town by town, in seven parts, and returned to Joshua in the camp at Shiloh.

Joshua 18:10 Joshua then cast lots for them in Shiloh in the presence of the LORD, and there he distributed the land to the Israelites according to their tribal divisions.

Joshua 18:11 The lot came up for the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan. Their allotted territory lay between the tribes of Judah and Joseph:

Joshua 18:12 On the north side their boundary began at the Jordan, passed the northern slope of Jericho and headed west into the hill country, coming out at the desert of Beth Aven.

Joshua 18:13 From there it crossed to the south slope of Luz (that is, Bethel) and went down to Ataroth Addar on the hill south of Lower Beth Horon.

Joshua 18:14 From the hill facing Beth Horon on the south the boundary turned south along the western side and came out at Kiriath

Baal (that is, Kiriath Jearim), a town of the people of Judah. This was the western side.

Joshua 18:15 The southern side began at the outskirts of Kiriath Jearim on the west, and the boundary came out at the spring of the waters of Nephtoah.

Joshua 18:16 The boundary went down to the foot of the hill facing the Valley of Ben Hinnom, north of the Valley of Rephaim. It continued down the Hinnom Valley along the southern slope of the Jebusite city and so to En Rogel.

Joshua 18:17 It then curved north, went to En Shemesh, continued to Geliloth, which faces the Pass of Adummim, and ran down to the Stone of Bohan son of Reuben.

Joshua 18:18 It continued to the northern slope of Beth Arabah and on down into the Arabah.

Joshua 18:19 It then went to the northern slope of Beth Hoglah and came out at the northern bay of the Salt Sea, at the mouth of the Jordan in the south. This was the southern boundary.

Joshua 18:20 The Jordan formed the boundary on the eastern side. These were the boundaries that marked out the inheritance of the clans of Benjamin on all sides.

Joshua 18:21 The tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, had the following cities: Jericho, Beth Hoglah, Emek Keziz,

Joshua 18:22 Beth Arabah, Zemaraim, Bethel,

Joshua 18:23 Avvim, Parah, Ophrah,

Joshua 18:24 Kephar Ammoni, Ophni and Geba—twelve towns and their villages.

Joshua 18:25 Gibeon, Ramah, Beeroth,

Joshua 18:26 Mizpah, Kephirah, Mozah,

Joshua 18:27 Rekem, Irpeel, Taralah,

Joshua 18:28 Zelah, Haeleph, the Jebusite city (that is, Jerusalem), Gibeah and Kiriath—fourteen towns and their villages. This was the inheritance of Benjamin for its clans.

Joshua 19:1 The second lot came out for the tribe of Simeon, clan by clan. Their inheritance lay within the territory of Judah.

Joshua 19:2 It included: Beersheba (or Sheba), Moladah,

Joshua 19:3 Hazar Shual, Balah, Ezem,

Joshua 19:4 Eltolad, Bethul, Hormah,

Joshua 19:5 Ziklag, Beth Marcaboth, Hazar Susah,

Joshua 19:6 Beth Lebaoth and Sharuhen—thirteen towns and their villages;

Joshua 19:7 Ain, Rimmon, Ether and Ashan—four towns and their villages—

Joshua 19:8 and all the villages around these towns as far as Baalath Beer (Ramah in the Negev). This was the inheritance of the tribe of the Simeonites, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:9 The inheritance of the Simeonites was taken from the share of Judah, because Judah's portion was more than they needed. So the Simeonites received their inheritance within the territory of Judah.

Joshua 19:10 The third lot came up for Zebulun, clan by clan: The boundary of their inheritance went as far as Sarid.

Joshua 19:11 Going west it ran to Maralah, touched Dabbesheth, and extended to the ravine near Jokneam.

Joshua 19:12 It turned east from Sarid towards the sunrise to the territory of Kisloth Tabor and went on to Daberath and up to Japhia.

Joshua 19:13 Then it continued eastward to Gath Hepher and Eth Kazin; it came out at Rimmon and turned towards Neah.

Joshua 19:14 There the boundary went round on the north to Hannathon and ended at the Valley of Iphtah El.

Joshua 19:15 Included were Kattath, Nahalal, Shimron, Idalah and Bethlehem. There were twelve towns and their villages.

Joshua 19:16 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of Zebulun, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:17 The fourth lot came out for Issachar, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:18 Their territory included: Jezreel, Kesulloth, Shunem,

Joshua 19:19 Hapharaim, Shion, Anaharath,

Joshua 19:20 Rabbith, Kishion, Ebez,

Joshua 19:21 Remeth, En Gannim, En Haddah and Beth Pazzez.

Joshua 19:22 The boundary touched Tabor, Shahazumah and Beth Shemesh, and ended at the Jordan. There were sixteen towns and their villages.

Joshua 19:23 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Issachar, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:24 The fifth lot came out for the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:25 Their territory included: Helkath, Hali, Beten, Acshaph,

Joshua 19:26 Allammelech, Amad and Mishal. On the west the boundary touched Carmel and Shihor Libnath.

Joshua 19:27 It then turned east towards Beth Dagon, touched Zebulun and the Valley of Iphtah El, and went north to Beth Emek and Neiel, passing Cabul on the left.

Joshua 19:28 It went to Abdon, Rehob, Hammon and Kanah, as far as Greater Sidon.

Joshua 19:29 The boundary then turned back towards Ramah and went to the fortified city of Tyre, turned towards Hosah and came out at the sea in the region of Aczib, Joshua 19:30 Ummah, Aphek and Rehob. There were twenty-two towns and their villages.

Joshua 19:31 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Asher, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:32 The sixth lot came out for Naphtali, clan by clan:

Joshua 19:33 Their boundary went from Heleph and the large tree in Zaanannim, passing Adami Nekeb and Jabneel to Lakkum and ending at the Jordan.

Joshua 19:34 The boundary ran west through Aznoth Tabor and came out at Hukkok. It touched Zebulun on the south, Asher on the west and the Jordan on the east.

Joshua 19:35 The fortified cities were Ziddim, Zer, Hammath, Rakkath, Kinnereth,

Joshua 19:36 Adamah, Ramah, Hazor,

Joshua 19:37 Kedesh, Edrei, En Hazor,

Joshua 19:38 Iron, Migdal El, Horem, Beth Anath and Beth Shemesh. There were nineteen towns and their villages.

Joshua 19:39 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Naphtali, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:40 The seventh lot came out for the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:41 The territory of their inheritance included: Zorah, Eshtaol, Ir Shemesh,

Joshua 19:42 Shaalabbin, Aijalon, Ithlah,

Joshua 19:43 Elon, Timnah, Ekron,

Joshua 19:44 Eltekeh, Gibbethon, Baalath,

Joshua 19:45 Jehud, Bene Berak, Gath Rimmon,

Joshua 19:46 Me Jarkon and Rakkon, with the area facing Joppa.

Joshua 19:47 (But the Danites had difficulty taking possession of their territory, so they went up and attacked Leshem, took it, put it to the sword and occupied it. They settled in Leshem and named it Dan after their forefather.)

Joshua 19:48 These towns and their villages were the inheritance of the tribe of Dan, clan by clan.

Joshua 19:49 When they had finished dividing the land into its allotted portions, the Israelites gave Joshua son of Nun an inheritance among them,

Joshua 19:50 as the LORD had commanded. They gave him the town he asked for—Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim. And he built up the town and settled there.

Joshua 19:51 These are the territories that Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun and the heads of the tribal clans of Israel assigned by lot at Shiloh in the presence of the LORD at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting. And so they finished dividing the land.

Joshua 20:1 Then the LORD said to Joshua:

Joshua 20:2 “Tell the Israelites to designate the cities of refuge, as I instructed you through Moses,

Joshua 20:3 so that anyone who kills a person accidentally and unintentionally may flee there and find protection from the avenger of blood.

Joshua 20:4 “When he flees to one of these cities, he is to stand in the entrance of the city gate and state his case before the elders of that city. Then they are to admit him into their city and give him a place to live with them.

Joshua 20:5 If the avenger of blood pursues him, they must not surrender the one accused, because he killed his neighbour unintentionally and without malice aforethought.

Joshua 20:6 He is to stay in that city until he has stood trial before the assembly and until the death of the high priest who is serving at that time. Then he may go back to his own home in the town from which he fled.”

Joshua 20:7 So they set apart Kedesh in Galilee in the hill country of Naphtali, Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim, and Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron) in the hill country of Judah.

Joshua 20:8 On the east side of the Jordan of Jericho they designated Bezer in the desert on the plateau in the tribe of Reuben, Ramoth in Gilead in the tribe of Gad, and Golan in Bashan in the tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 20:9 Any of the Israelites or any alien living among them who killed someone accidentally could flee to these designated cities and not be killed by the avenger of blood prior to standing trial before the assembly.

Joshua 21:1 Now the family heads of the Levites approached Eleazar the priest, Joshua son of Nun, and the heads of the other tribal families of Israel

Joshua 21:2 at Shiloh in Canaan and said to them, “The LORD commanded through Moses that you give us towns to live in, with pasture-lands for our livestock.”

Joshua 21:3 So, as the LORD had commanded, the Israelites gave the Levites the following towns and pasture-lands out of their own inheritance:

Joshua 21:4 The first lot came out for the Kohathites, clan by clan. The Levites who were descendants of Aaron the priest were allotted thirteen towns from the tribes of Judah, Simeon and Benjamin.

Joshua 21:5 The rest of Kohath’s descendants were allotted ten towns from the clans of the tribes of Ephraim, Dan and half of Manasseh.

Joshua 21:6 The descendants of Gershon were allotted thirteen towns from the clans of the tribes of Issachar, Asher, Naphtali and the half-tribe of Manasseh in Bashan.

Joshua 21:7 The descendants of Merari, clan by clan, received twelve towns from the tribes of Reuben, Gad and Zebulun.

Joshua 21:8 So the Israelites allotted to the Levites these towns and their pasture-lands, as the LORD had commanded through Moses.

Joshua 21:9 From the tribes of Judah and Simeon they allotted the following towns by name

Joshua 21:10 (these towns were assigned to the descendants of Aaron who were from the Kohathite clans of the Levites, because the first lot fell to them):

Joshua 21:11 They gave them Kiriath Arba (that is, Hebron), with its surrounding pasture-land, in the hill country of Judah. (Arba was the forefather of Anak.)

Joshua 21:12 But the fields and villages around the city they had given to Caleb son of Jephunneh as his possession.

Joshua 21:13 So to the descendants of Aaron the priest they gave Hebron (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Libnah,

Joshua 21:14 Jattir, Eshtemoa,

Joshua 21:15 Holon, Debir,

Joshua 21:16 Ain, Juttah and Beth Shemesh, together with their pasture-lands—nine towns from these two tribes.

Joshua 21:17 And from the tribe of Benjamin they gave them Gibeon, Geba, Joshua 21:18 Anathoth and Almon, together with their pasture-lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:19 All the towns for the priests, the descendants of Aaron, were thirteen, together with their pasture-lands.

Joshua 21:20 The rest of the Kohathite clans of the Levites were allotted towns from the tribe of Ephraim:

Joshua 21:21 In the hill country of Ephraim they were given Shechem (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Gezer,

Joshua 21:22 Kibzaim and Beth Horon, together with their pasture-lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:23 Also from the tribe of Dan they received Eltekeh, Gibbethon,

Joshua 21:24 Aijalon and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasture-lands— four towns.

Joshua 21:25 From half the tribe of Manasseh they received Taanach and Gath Rimmon, together with their pasture-lands—two towns.

Joshua 21:26 All these ten towns and their pasture-lands were given to the rest of the Kohathite clans.

Joshua 21:27 The Levite clans of the Gershonites were given: from the half-tribe of Manasseh, Golan in Bashan (a city of refuge for one accused of murder) and Be Eshtarah, together with their pasture-lands— two towns;

Joshua 21:28 from the tribe of Issachar, Kishion, Daberath,

Joshua 21:29 Jarmuth and En Gannim, together with their pasture-lands— four towns;

Joshua 21:30 from the tribe of Asher, Mishal, Abdon,

Joshua 21:31 Helkath and Rehob, together with their pasture-lands— four towns;

Joshua 21:32 from the tribe of Naphtali, Kedesh in Galilee (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Hammoth Dor and Kartan, together with their pasture-lands—three towns.

Joshua 21:33 All the towns of the Gershonite clans were thirteen, together with their pasture-lands.

Joshua 21:34 The Merarite clans (the rest of the Levites) were given: from the tribe of Zebulun, Jokneam, Kartah,

Joshua 21:35 Dimnah and Nahalal, together with their pasture-lands— four towns;

Joshua 21:36 from the tribe of Reuben, Bezer, Jahaz,

Joshua 21:37 Kedemoth and Mephaath, together with their pasture-lands— four towns;

Joshua 21:38 from the tribe of Gad, Ramoth in Gilead (a city of refuge for one accused of murder), Mahanaim,

Joshua 21:39 Heshbon and Jazer, together with their pasture-lands— four towns in all.

Joshua 21:40 All the towns allotted to the Merarite clans, who were the rest of the Levites, were twelve.

Joshua 21:41 The towns of the Levites in the territory held by the Israelites were forty-eight in all, together with their pasture-lands.

Joshua 21:42 Each of these towns had pasture-lands surrounding it; this was true for all these towns.

Joshua 21:43 So the LORD gave Israel all the land he had sworn to give their forefathers, and they took possession of it and settled there.

Joshua 21:44 The LORD gave them rest on every side, just as he had sworn to their forefathers. Not one of their enemies withstood them; the LORD handed all their enemies over to them.

Joshua 21:45 Not one of all the LORD's good promises to the house of Israel failed; every one was fulfilled.

Joshua 22:1 Then Joshua summoned the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh

Joshua 22:2 and said to them, "You have done all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and you have obeyed me in everything I commanded.

Joshua 22:3 For a long time now—to this very day—you have not deserted your brothers but have carried out the mission the LORD your God gave you.

Joshua 22:4 Now that the LORD your God has given your brothers rest as he promised, return to your homes in the land that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you on the other side of the Jordan.

Joshua 22:5 But be very careful to keep the commandment and the law that Moses the servant of the LORD gave you: to love the LORD your God, to walk in all his ways, to obey his commands, to hold fast to him and to serve him with all your heart and all your soul."

Joshua 22:6 Then Joshua blessed them and sent them away, and they went to their homes.

Joshua 22:7 (To the half-tribe of Manasseh Moses had given land in Bashan, and to the other half of the tribe Joshua gave land on the west side of the Jordan with their brothers.) When Joshua sent them home, he blessed them,

Joshua 22:8 saying, "Return to your homes with your great wealth—with large herds of livestock, with silver, gold, bronze and iron, and a great quantity of clothing—and divide with your brothers the plunder from your enemies."

Joshua 22:9 So the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh left the Israelites at Shiloh in Canaan to return to Gilead, their own land, which they had acquired in accordance with the command of the LORD through Moses.

Joshua 22:10 When they came to Geliloth near the Jordan in the land of Canaan, the Reubenites, the Gadites and the half-tribe of Manasseh built an imposing altar there by the Jordan.

Joshua 22:11 And when the Israelites heard that they had built the altar on the border of Canaan at Geliloth near the Jordan on the Israelite side, Joshua 22:12 the whole assembly of Israel gathered at Shiloh to go to war against them.

Joshua 22:13 So the Israelites sent Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, to the land of Gilead—to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh.

Joshua 22:14 With him they sent ten of the chief men, one for each of the tribes of Israel, each the head of a family division among the Israelite clans.

Joshua 22:15 When they went to Gilead—to Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh—they said to them:

Joshua 22:16 “The whole assembly of the LORD says:`How could you break faith with the God of Israel like this? How could you turn away from the LORD and build yourselves an altar in rebellion against him now?

Joshua 22:17 Was not the sin of Peor enough for us? Up to this very day we have not cleansed ourselves from that sin, even though a plague fell on the community of the LORD!

Joshua 22:18 And are you now turning away from the LORD? “`If you rebel against the LORD today, tomorrow he will be angry with the whole community of Israel.

Joshua 22:19 If the land you possess is defiled, come over to the LORD’s land, where the LORD’s tabernacle stands, and share the land with us. But do not rebel against the LORD or against us by building an altar for yourselves, other than the altar of the LORD our God.

Joshua 22:20 When Achan son of Zerah acted unfaithfully regarding the devoted things, did not wrath come upon the whole community of Israel? He was not the only one who died for his sin.’“

Joshua 22:21 Then Reuben, Gad and the half-tribe of Manasseh replied to the heads of the clans of Israel:

Joshua 22:22 “The Mighty One, God, the LORD! The Mighty One, God, the LORD! He knows! And let Israel know! If this has been in rebellion or disobedience to the LORD, do not spare us this day.

Joshua 22:23 If we have built our own altar to turn away from the LORD and to offer burnt offerings and grain offerings, or to sacrifice fellowship offerings on it, may the LORD himself call us to account.

Joshua 22:24 “No! We did it for fear that some day your descendants might say to ours,`What do you have to do with the LORD, the God of Israel?

Joshua 22:25 The LORD has made the Jordan a boundary between us and you— you Reubenites and Gadites! You have no share in the LORD.’ So your descendants might cause ours to stop fearing the LORD.

Joshua 22:26 “That is why we said,`Let us get ready and build an altar— but not for burnt offerings or sacrifices.’

Joshua 22:27 On the contrary, it is to be a witness between us and you and the generations that follow, that we will worship the LORD at his sanctuary with our burnt offerings, sacrifices and fellowship offerings. Then in the future your descendants will not be able to say to ours,`You have no share in the LORD.’

Joshua 22:28 “And we said,`If they ever say this to us, or to our descendants, we will answer: Look at the replica of the LORD’s altar, which our fathers built, not for burnt offerings and sacrifices, but as a witness between us and you.’

Joshua 22:29 “Far be it from us to rebel against the LORD and turn away from him today by building an altar for burnt offerings, grain offerings and sacrifices, other than the altar of the LORD our God that stands before his tabernacle.”

Joshua 22:30 When Phinehas the priest and the leaders of the community— the heads of the clans of the Israelites—heard what Reuben, Gad and Manasseh had to say, they were pleased.

Joshua 22:31 And Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, said to Reuben, Gad and Manasseh, “Today we know that the LORD is with us, because you have not acted unfaithfully towards the LORD in this matter. Now you have rescued the Israelites from the LORD’s hand.”

Joshua 22:32 Then Phinehas son of Eleazar, the priest, and the leaders returned to Canaan from their meeting with the Reubenites and Gadites in Gilead and reported to the Israelites.

Joshua 22:33 They were glad to hear the report and praised God. And they talked no more about going to war against them to devastate the country where the Reubenites and the Gadites lived.

Joshua 22:34 And the Reubenites and the Gadites gave the altar this name: A Witness Between Us that the LORD is God.

Joshua 23:1 After a long time had passed and the LORD had given Israel rest from all their enemies around them, Joshua, by then old and well advanced in years,

Joshua 23:2 summoned all Israel—their elders, leaders, judges and officials—and said to them: “I am old and well advanced in years.

Joshua 23:3 You yourselves have seen everything the LORD your God has done to all these nations for your sake; it was the LORD your God who fought for you.

Joshua 23:4 Remember how I have allotted as an inheritance for your tribes all the land of the nations that remain—the nations I conquered—between the Jordan and the Great Sea in the west.

Joshua 23:5 The LORD your God himself will drive them out of your way. He will push them out before you, and you will take possession of their land, as the LORD your God promised you.

Joshua 23:6 “Be very strong; be careful to obey all that is written in the Book of the Law of Moses, without turning aside to the right or to the left.

Joshua 23:7 Do not associate with these nations that remain among you; do not invoke the names of their gods or swear by them. You must not serve them or bow down to them.

Joshua 23:8 But you are to hold fast to the LORD your God, as you have until now.

Joshua 23:9 “The LORD has driven out before you great and powerful nations; to this day no-one has been able to withstand you.

Joshua 23:10 One of you routs a thousand, because the LORD your God fights for you, just as he promised.

Joshua 23:11 So be very careful to love the LORD your God.

Joshua 23:12 “But if you turn away and ally yourselves with the survivors of these nations that remain among you and if you intermarry with them and associate with them,

Joshua 23:13 then you may be sure that the LORD your God will no longer drive out these nations before you. Instead, they will become snares and traps for you, whips on your backs and thorns in your eyes, until you perish from this good land, which the LORD your God has given you.

Joshua 23:14 “Now I am about to go the way of all the earth. You know with all your heart and soul that not one of all the good promises the LORD your God gave you has failed. Every promise has been fulfilled; not one has failed.

Joshua 23:15 But just as every good promise of the LORD your God has come true, so the LORD will bring on you all the evil he has threatened, until he has destroyed you from this good land he has given you.

Joshua 23:16 If you violate the covenant of the LORD your God, which he commanded you, and go and serve other gods and bow down to them, the LORD’s anger will burn against you, and you will quickly perish from the good land he has given you.”

Joshua 24:1 Then Joshua assembled all the tribes of Israel at Shechem. He summoned the elders, leaders, judges and officials of Israel, and they presented themselves before God.

Joshua 24:2 Joshua said to all the people, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`Long ago your forefathers, including Terah the father of Abraham and Nahor, lived beyond the River and worshipped other gods.

Joshua 24:3 But I took your father Abraham from the land beyond the River and led him throughout Canaan and gave him many descendants. I gave him Isaac, Joshua 24:4 and to Isaac I gave Jacob and Esau. I assigned the hill country of Seir to Esau, but Jacob and his sons went down to Egypt.

Joshua 24:5 “`Then I sent Moses and Aaron, and I afflicted the Egyptians by what I did there, and I brought you out.

Joshua 24:6 When I brought your fathers out of Egypt, you came to the sea, and the Egyptians pursued them with chariots and horsemen as far as the Red Sea.

Joshua 24:7 But they cried to the LORD for help, and he put darkness between you and the Egyptians; he brought the sea over them and covered them. You saw with your own eyes what I did to the Egyptians. Then you lived in the desert for a long time.

Joshua 24:8 “`I brought you to the land of the Amorites who lived east of the Jordan. They fought against you, but I gave them into your hands. I destroyed them from before you, and you took possession of their land.

Joshua 24:9 When Balak son of Zippor, the king of Moab, prepared to fight against Israel, he sent for Balaam son of Beor to put a curse on you.

Joshua 24:10 But I would not listen to Balaam, so he blessed you again and again, and I delivered you out of his hand.

Joshua 24:11 “`Then you crossed the Jordan and came to Jericho. The citizens of Jericho fought against you, as did also the Amorites, Perizzites, Canaanites, Hittites, Girgashites, Hivites and Jebusites, but I gave them into your hands.

Joshua 24:12 I sent the hornet ahead of you, which drove them out before you—also the two Amorite kings. You did not do it with your own sword and bow.

Joshua 24:13 So I gave you a land on which you did not toil and cities you did not build; and you live in them and eat from vineyards and olive groves that you did not plant.’

Joshua 24:14 “Now fear the LORD and serve him with all faithfulness. Throw away the gods your forefathers worshipped beyond the River and in Egypt, and serve the LORD.

Joshua 24:15 But if serving the LORD seems undesirable to you, then choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve, whether the gods your forefathers served beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you are living. But as for me and my household, we will serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:16 Then the people answered, "Far be it from us to forsake the LORD to serve other gods!

Joshua 24:17 It was the LORD our God himself who brought us and our fathers up out of Egypt, from that land of slavery, and performed those great signs before our eyes. He protected us on our entire journey and among all the nations through which we travelled.

Joshua 24:18 And the LORD drove out before us all the nations, including the Amorites, who lived in the land. We too will serve the LORD, because he is our God."

Joshua 24:19 Joshua said to the people, "You are not able to serve the LORD. He is a holy God; he is a jealous God. He will not forgive your rebellion and your sins.

Joshua 24:20 If you forsake the LORD and serve foreign gods, he will turn and bring disaster on you and make an end of you, after he has been good to you."

Joshua 24:21 But the people said to Joshua, "No! We will serve the LORD."

Joshua 24:22 Then Joshua said, "You are witnesses against yourselves that you have chosen to serve the LORD." "Yes, we are witnesses," they replied.

Joshua 24:23 "Now then," said Joshua, "throw away the foreign gods that are among you and yield your hearts to the LORD, the God of Israel."

Joshua 24:24 And the people said to Joshua, "We will serve the LORD our God and obey him."

Joshua 24:25 On that day Joshua made a covenant for the people, and there at Shechem he drew up for them decrees and laws.

Joshua 24:26 And Joshua recorded these things in the Book of the Law of God. Then he took a large stone and set it up there under the oak near the holy place of the LORD.

Joshua 24:27 "See!" he said to all the people. "This stone will be a witness against us. It has heard all the words the LORD has said to us. It will be a witness against you if you are untrue to your God."

Joshua 24:28 Then Joshua sent the people away, each to his own inheritance.

Joshua 24:29 After these things, Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Joshua 24:30 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Serah in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Joshua 24:31 Israel served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had experienced everything the LORD had done for Israel.

Joshua 24:32 And Joseph's bones, which the Israelites had brought up from Egypt, were buried at Shechem in the tract of land that Jacob bought for a hundred pieces of silver from the sons of Hamor, the father of Shechem. This became the inheritance of Joseph's descendants.

Joshua 24:33 And Eleazar son of Aaron died and was buried at Gibeah, which had been allotted to his son Phinehas in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges

1:1 After the death of Joshua, the Israelites asked the LORD, "Who will be the first to go up and fight for us against the Canaanites?"

Judges 1:2 The LORD answered, "Judah is to go; I have given the land into their hands."

Judges 1:3 Then the men of Judah said to the Simeonites their brothers, "Come up with us into the territory allotted to us, to fight against the Canaanites. We in turn will go with you into yours." So the Simeonites went with them.

Judges 1:4 When Judah attacked, the LORD gave the Canaanites and Perizzites into their hands and they struck down ten thousand men at Bezek.

Judges 1:5 It was there that they found Adoni-Bezek and fought against him, putting to rout the Canaanites and Perizzites.

Judges 1:6 Adoni-Bezek fled, but they chased him and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and big toes.

Judges 1:7 Then Adoni-Bezek said, "Seventy kings with their thumbs and big toes cut off have picked up scraps under my table. Now God has paid me back for what I did to them." They brought him to Jerusalem, and he died there.

Judges 1:8 The men of Judah attacked Jerusalem also and took it. They put the city to the sword and set it on fire.

Judges 1:9 After that, the men of Judah went down to fight against the Canaanites living in the hill country, the Negev and the western foothills.

Judges 1:10 They advanced against the Canaanites living in Hebron (formerly called Kiriath Arba) and defeated Sheshai, Ahiman and Talmai.

Judges 1:11 From there they advanced against the people living in Debir (formerly called Kiriath Sepher).

Judges 1:12 And Caleb said, “I will give my daughter Acsah in marriage to the man who attacks and captures Kiriath Sepher.”

Judges 1:13 Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb’s younger brother, took it; so Caleb gave his daughter Acsah to him in marriage.

Judges 1:14 One day when she came to Othniel, she urged him to ask her father for a field. When she got off her donkey, Caleb asked her, “What can I do for you?”

Judges 1:15 She replied, “Do me a special favour. Since you have given me land in the Negev, give me also springs of water.” Then Caleb gave her the upper and lower springs.

Judges 1:16 The descendants of Moses’ father-in-law, the Kenite, went up from the City of Palms with the men of Judah to live among the people of the Desert of Judah in the Negev near Arad.

Judges 1:17 Then the men of Judah went with the Simeonites their brothers and attacked the Canaanites living in Zephath, and they totally destroyed the city. Therefore it was called Hormah.

Judges 1:18 The men of Judah also took Gaza, Ashkelon and Ekron—each city with its territory.

Judges 1:19 The LORD was with the men of Judah. They took possession of the hill country, but they were unable to drive the people from the plains, because they had iron chariots.

Judges 1:20 As Moses had promised, Hebron was given to Caleb, who drove from it the three sons of Anak.

Judges 1:21 The Benjamites, however, failed to dislodge the Jebusites, who were living in Jerusalem; to this day the Jebusites live there with the Benjamites.

Judges 1:22 Now the house of Joseph attacked Bethel, and the LORD was with them.

Judges 1:23 When they sent men to spy out Bethel (formerly called Luz),

Judges 1:24 the spies saw a man coming out of the city and they said to him, “Show us how to get into the city and we will see that you are treated well.”

Judges 1:25 So he showed them, and they put the city to the sword but spared the man and his whole family.

Judges 1:26 He then went to the land of the Hittites, where he built a city and called it Luz, which is its name to this day.

Judges 1:27 But Manasseh did not drive out the people of Beth Shan or Taanach or Dor or Ibleam or Megiddo and their surrounding settlements, for the Canaanites were determined to live in that land.

Judges 1:28 When Israel became strong, they pressed the Canaanites into forced labour but never drove them out completely.

Judges 1:29 Nor did Ephraim drive out the Canaanites living in Gezer, but the Canaanites continued to live there among them.

Judges 1:30 Neither did Zebulun drive out the Canaanites living in Kitron or Nahalol, who remained among them; but they did subject them to forced labour.

Judges 1:31 Nor did Asher drive out those living in Acco or Sidon or Ahlab or Aczib or Helbah or Aphek or Rehob,

Judges 1:32 and because of this the people of Asher lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land.

Judges 1:33 Neither did Naphtali drive out those living in Beth Shemesh or Beth Anath; but the Naphtalites too lived among the Canaanite inhabitants of the land, and those living in Beth Shemesh and Beth Anath became forced labourers for them.

Judges 1:34 The Amorites confined the Danites to the hill country, not allowing them to come down into the plain.

Judges 1:35 And the Amorites were determined also to hold out in Mount Heres, Aijalon and Shaalbim, but when the power of the house of Joseph increased, they too were pressed into forced labour.

Judges 1:36 The boundary of the Amorites was from Scorpion Pass to Sela and beyond.

Judges 2:1 The angel of the LORD went up from Gilgal to Bokim and said, “I brought you up out of Egypt and led you into the land that I swore to give to your forefathers. I said,`I will never break my covenant with you,

Judges 2:2 and you shall not make a covenant with the people of this land, but you shall break down their altars.’ Yet you have disobeyed me. Why have you done this?

Judges 2:3 Now therefore I tell you that I will not drive them out before you; they will be [thorns] in your sides and their gods will be a snare to you.”

Judges 2:4 When the angel of the LORD had spoken these things to all the Israelites, the people wept aloud,

Judges 2:5 and they called that place Bokim. There they offered sacrifices to the LORD.

Judges 2:6 After Joshua had dismissed the Israelites, they went to take possession of the land, each to his own inheritance.

Judges 2:7 The people served the LORD throughout the lifetime of Joshua and of the elders who outlived him and who had seen all the great things the LORD had done for Israel.

Judges 2:8 Joshua son of Nun, the servant of the LORD, died at the age of a hundred and ten.

Judges 2:9 And they buried him in the land of his inheritance, at Timnath Heres in the hill country of Ephraim, north of Mount Gaash.

Judges 2:10 After that whole generation had been gathered to their fathers, another generation grew up, who knew neither the LORD nor what he had done for Israel.

Judges 2:11 Then the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD and served the Baals.

Judges 2:12 They forsook the LORD, the God of their fathers, who had brought them out of Egypt. They followed and worshipped various gods of the peoples around them. They provoked the LORD to anger

Judges 2:13 because they forsook him and served Baal and the Ashtoreths.

Judges 2:14 In his anger against Israel the LORD handed them over to raiders who plundered them. He sold them to their enemies all around, whom they were no longer able to resist.

Judges 2:15 Whenever Israel went out to fight, the hand of the LORD was against them to defeat them, just as he had sworn to them. They were in great distress.

Judges 2:16 Then the LORD raised up judges, who saved them out of the hands of these raiders.

Judges 2:17 Yet they would not listen to their judges but prostituted themselves to other gods and worshipped them. Unlike their fathers, they quickly turned from the way in which their fathers had walked, the way of obedience to the LORD's commands.

Judges 2:18 Whenever the LORD raised up a judge for them, he was with the judge and saved them out of the hands of their enemies as long as the judge lived; for the LORD had compassion on them as they groaned under those who oppressed and afflicted them.

Judges 2:19 But when the judge died, the people returned to ways even more corrupt than those of their fathers, following other gods and serving and worshipping them. They refused to give up their evil practices and stubborn ways.

Judges 2:20 Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel and said, "Because this nation has violated the covenant that I laid down for their forefathers and has not listened to me,

Judges 2:21 I will no longer drive out before them any of the nations Joshua left when he died.

Judges 2:22 I will use them to test Israel and see whether they will keep the way of the LORD and walk in it as their forefathers did."

Judges 2:23 The LORD had allowed those nations to remain; he did not drive them out at once by giving them into the hands of Joshua.

Judges 3:1 These are the nations the LORD left to test all those Israelites who had not experienced any of the wars in Canaan

Judges 3:2 (he did this only to teach warfare to the descendants of the Israelites who had not had previous battle experience):

Judges 3:3 the five rulers of the Philistines, all the Canaanites, the Sidonians, and the Hivites living in the Lebanon mountains from Mount Baal Hermon to Lebo Hamath.

Judges 3:4 They were left to test the Israelites to see whether they would obey the LORD's commands, which he had given their forefathers through Moses.

Judges 3:5 The Israelites lived among the Canaanites, Hittites, Amorites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites.

Judges 3:6 They took their daughters in marriage and gave their own daughters to their sons, and served their gods.

Judges 3:7 The Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD; they forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asherahs.

Judges 3:8 The anger of the LORD burned against Israel so that he sold them into the hands of Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram Naharaim, to whom the Israelites were subject for eight years.

Judges 3:9 But when they cried out to the LORD, he raised up for them a deliverer, Othniel son of Kenaz, Caleb's younger brother, who saved them.

Judges 3:10 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him, so that he became Israel's judge and went to war. The LORD gave Cushan-Rishathaim king of Aram into the hands of Othniel, who overpowered him.

Judges 3:11 So the land had peace for forty years, until Othniel son of Kenaz died.

Judges 3:12 Once again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and because they did this evil the LORD gave Eglon king of Moab power over Israel.

Judges 3:13 Getting the Ammonites and Amalekites to join him, Eglon came and attacked Israel, and they took possession of the City of Palms.

Judges 3:14 The Israelites were subject to Eglon king of Moab for eighteen years.

Judges 3:15 Again the Israelites cried out to the LORD, and he gave them a deliverer—Ehud, a left-handed man, the son of Gera the Benjamite. The Israelites sent him with tribute to Eglon king of Moab.

Judges 3:16 Now Ehud had made a double-edged sword about a foot and a half long, which he strapped to his right thigh under his clothing.

Judges 3:17 He presented the tribute to Eglon king of Moab, who was a very fat man.

Judges 3:18 After Ehud had presented the tribute, he sent on their way the men who had carried it.

Judges 3:19 At the idols near Gilgal he himself turned back and said, “I have a secret message for you, O king.” The king said, “Quiet!” And all his attendants left him.

Judges 3:20 Ehud then approached him while he was sitting alone in the upper room of his summer palace and said, “I have a message from God for you.” As the king rose from his seat,

Judges 3:21 Ehud reached with his left hand, drew the sword from his right thigh and plunged it into the king’s belly.

Judges 3:22 Even the handle sank in after the blade, which came out of his back. Ehud did not pull the sword out, and the fat closed in over it.

Judges 3:23 Then Ehud went out to the porch; he shut the doors of the upper room behind him and locked them.

Judges 3:24 After he had gone, the servants came and found the doors of the upper room locked. They said, “He must be relieving himself in the inner room of the house.”

Judges 3:25 They waited to the point of embarrassment, but when he did not open the doors of the room, they took a key and unlocked them. There they saw their lord fallen to the floor, dead.

Judges 3:26 While they waited, Ehud got away. He passed by the idols and escaped to Seirah.

Judges 3:27 When he arrived there, he blew a trumpet in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites went down with him from the hills, with him leading them.

Judges 3:28 “Follow me,” he ordered, “for the LORD has given Moab, your enemy, into your hands.” So they followed him down and, taking possession of the fords of the Jordan that led to Moab, they allowed no-one to cross over.

Judges 3:29 At that time they struck down about ten thousand Moabites, all vigorous and strong; not a man escaped.

Judges 3:30 That day Moab was made subject to Israel, and the land had peace for eighty years.

Judges 3:31 After Ehud came Shamgar son of Anath, who struck down six hundred Philistines with an ox-goad. He too saved Israel.

Judges 4:1 After Ehud died, the Israelites once again did evil in the eyes of the LORD.

Judges 4:2 So the LORD sold them into the hands of Jabin, a king of Canaan, who reigned in Hazor. The commander of his army was Sisera, who lived in Harosheth Haggoyim.

Judges 4:3 Because he had nine hundred iron chariots and had cruelly oppressed the Israelites for twenty years, they cried to the LORD for help.

Judges 4:4 Deborah, a prophetess, the wife of Lappidoth, was leading Israel at that time.

Judges 4:5 She held court under the Palm of Deborah between Ramah and Bethel in the hill country of Ephraim, and the Israelites came to her to have their disputes decided.

Judges 4:6 She sent for Barak son of Abinoam from Kedesh in Naphtali and said to him, “The LORD, the God of Israel, commands you:`Go, take with you ten thousand men of Naphtali and Zebulun and lead the way to Mount Tabor.

Judges 4:7 I will lure Sisera, the commander of Jabin’s army, with his chariots and his troops to the Kishon River and give him into your hands.’“

Judges 4:8 Barak said to her, “If you go with me, I will go; but if you don’t go with me, I won’t go.”

Judges 4:9 “Very well,” Deborah said, “I will go with you. But because of the way you are going about this, the honour will not be yours, for the LORD will hand Sisera over to a woman.” So Deborah went with Barak to Kedesh, Judges 4:10 where he summoned Zebulun and Naphtali. Ten thousand men followed him, and Deborah also went with him.

Judges 4:11 Now Heber the Kenite had left the other Kenites, the descendants of Hobab, Moses’ brother-in-law, and pitched his tent by the great tree in Zaanannim near Kedesh.

Judges 4:12 When they told Sisera that Barak son of Abinoam had gone up to Mount Tabor,

Judges 4:13 Sisera gathered together his nine hundred iron chariots and all the men with him, from Harosheth Haggoyim to the Kishon River.

Judges 4:14 Then Deborah said to Barak, “Go! This is the day the LORD has given Sisera into your hands. Has not the LORD gone ahead of you?” So Barak went down Mount Tabor, followed by ten thousand men.

Judges 4:15 At Barak’s advance, the LORD routed Sisera and all his chariots and army by the sword, and Sisera abandoned his chariot and fled on foot.

Judges 4:16 But Barak pursued the chariots and army as far as Harosheth Haggoyim. All the troops of Sisera fell by the sword; not a man was left.

Judges 4:17 Sisera, however, fled on foot to the tent of Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, because there were friendly relations between Jabin king of Hazor and the clan of Heber the Kenite.

Judges 4:18 Jael went out to meet Sisera and said to him, “Come, my lord, come right in. Don’t be afraid.” So he entered her tent, and she put a covering over him.

Judges 4:19 “I’m thirsty,” he said. “Please give me some water.” She opened a skin of milk, gave him a drink, and covered him up.

Judges 4:20 “Stand in the doorway of the tent,” he told her. “If someone comes by and asks you,`Is anyone here?’ say`No.’“

Judges 4:21 But Jael, Heber’s wife, picked up a tent peg and a hammer and went quietly to him while he lay fast asleep, exhausted. She drove the peg through his temple into the ground, and he died.

Judges 4:22 Barak came by in pursuit of Sisera, and Jael went out to meet him. “Come,” she said, “I will show you the man you’re looking for.” So he went in with her, and there lay Sisera with the tent peg through his temple—dead.

Judges 4:23 On that day God subdued Jabin, the Canaanite king, before the Israelites.

Judges 4:24 And the hand of the Israelites grew stronger and stronger against Jabin, the Canaanite king, until they destroyed him.

Judges 5:1 On that day Deborah and Barak son of Abinoam sang this song:

Judges 5:2 “When the princes in Israel take the lead, when the people willingly offer themselves—praise the LORD!

Judges 5:3 “Hear this, you kings! Listen, you rulers! I will sing to the LORD, I will sing; I will make music to the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:4 “O LORD, when you went out from Seir, when you marched from the land of Edom, the earth shook, the heavens poured, the clouds poured down water.

Judges 5:5 The mountains quaked before the LORD, the One of Sinai, before the LORD, the God of Israel.

Judges 5:6 “In the days of Shamgar son of Anath, in the days of Jael, the roads were abandoned; travellers took to winding paths.

Judges 5:7 Village life in Israel ceased, ceased until I, Deborah, arose, arose a mother in Israel.

Judges 5:8 When they chose new gods, war came to the city gates, and not a shield or spear was seen among forty thousand in Israel.

Judges 5:9 My heart is with Israel’s princes, with the willing volunteers among the people. Praise the LORD!

Judges 5:10 “You who ride on white donkeys, sitting on your saddle blankets, and you who walk along the road, consider Judges 5:11 the voice of the singers at the watering places. They recite the righteous acts of the LORD, the righteous acts of his warriors in Israel. “Then the people of the LORD went down to the city gates.

Judges 5:12 `Wake up, wake up, Deborah! Wake up, wake up, break out in song! Arise, O Barak! Take captive your captives, O son of Abinoam.’

Judges 5:13 “Then the men who were left came down to the nobles; the people of the LORD came to me with the mighty.

Judges 5:14 Some came from Ephraim, whose roots were in Amalek; Benjamin was with the people who followed you. From Makir captains came down, from Zebulun those who bear a commander’s staff.

Judges 5:15 The princes of Issachar were with Deborah; yes, Issachar was with Barak, rushing after him into the valley. In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Judges 5:16 Why did you stay among the campfires to hear the whistling for the flocks? In the districts of Reuben there was much searching of heart.

Judges 5:17 Gilead stayed beyond the Jordan. And Dan, why did he linger by the ships? Asher remained on the coast and stayed in his coves.

Judges 5:18 The people of Zebulun risked their very lives; so did Naphtali on the heights of the field.

Judges 5:19 “Kings came, they fought; the kings of Canaan fought at Taanach by the waters of Megiddo, but they carried off no silver, no plunder.

Judges 5:20 From the heavens the stars fought, from their courses they fought against Sisera.

Judges 5:21 The river Kishon swept them away, the age-old river, the river Kishon. March on, my soul; be strong!

Judges 5:22 Then thundered the horses’ hoofs—galloping, galloping go his mighty steeds.

Judges 5:23 `Curse Meroz,’ said the angel of the LORD.`Curse its people bitterly, because they did not come to help the LORD, to help the LORD against the mighty.’

Judges 5:24 “Most blessed of women be Jael, the wife of Heber the Kenite, most blessed of tent-dwelling women.

Judges 5:25 He asked for water, and she gave him milk; in a bowl fit for nobles she brought him curdled milk.

Judges 5:26 Her hand reached for the tent peg, her right hand for the workman’s hammer. She struck Sisera, she crushed his head, she shattered and pierced his temple.

Judges 5:27 At her feet he sank, he fell; there he lay. At her feet he sank, he fell; where he sank, there he fell—dead.

Judges 5:28 “Through the window peered Sisera’s mother; behind the lattice she cried out,`Why is his chariot so long in coming? Why is the clatter of his chariots delayed?’

Judges 5:29 The wisest of her ladies answer her; indeed, she keeps saying to herself,

Judges 5:30 `Are they not finding and dividing the spoils: a girl or two for each man, colourful garments as plunder for Sisera, colourful garments embroidered, highly embroidered garments for my neck—all this as plunder?’

Judges 5:31 “So may all your enemies perish, O LORD! But may they who love you be like the sun when it rises in its strength.” Then the land had peace for forty years.

Judges 6:1 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, and for seven years he gave them into the hands of the Midianites.

Judges 6:2 Because the power of Midian was so oppressive, the Israelites prepared shelters for themselves in mountain clefts, caves and strongholds.

Judges 6:3 Whenever the Israelites planted their crops, the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples invaded the country.

Judges 6:4 They camped on the land and ruined the crops all the way to Gaza and did not spare a living thing for Israel, neither sheep nor cattle nor donkeys.

Judges 6:5 They came up with their livestock and their tents like swarms of locusts. It was impossible to count the men and their camels; they invaded the land to ravage it.

Judges 6:6 Midian so impoverished the Israelites that they cried out to the LORD for help.

Judges 6:7 When the Israelites cried to the LORD because of Midian,

Judges 6:8 he sent them a prophet, who said, “This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says: I brought you up out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery.

Judges 6:9 I snatched you from the power of Egypt and from the hand of all your oppressors. I drove them from before you and gave you their land.

Judges 6:10 I said to you,`I am the LORD your God; do not worship the gods of the Amorites, in whose land you live.’ But you have not listened to me.”

Judges 6:11 The angel of the LORD came and sat down under the oak in Ophrah that belonged to Joash the Abiezrite, where his son Gideon was threshing wheat in a winepress to keep it from the Midianites.

Judges 6:12 When the angel of the LORD appeared to Gideon, he said, “The LORD is with you, mighty warrior.”

Judges 6:13 “But sir,” Gideon replied, “if the LORD is with us, why has all this happened to us? Where are all his wonders that our fathers told us about when they said,`Did not the LORD bring us up out of Egypt?’ But now the LORD has abandoned us and put us into the hand of Midian.”

Judges 6:14 The LORD turned to him and said, “Go in the strength you have and save Israel out of Midian’s hand. Am I not sending you?”

Judges 6:15 “But Lord,” Gideon asked, “how can I save Israel? My clan is the weakest in Manasseh, and I am the least in my family.”

Judges 6:16 The LORD answered, “I will be with you, and you will strike down all the Midianites together.”

Judges 6:17 Gideon replied, “If now I have found favour in your eyes, give me a sign that it is really you talking to me.

Judges 6:18 Please do not go away until I come back and bring my offering and set it before you.” And the LORD said, “I will wait until you return.”

Judges 6:19 Gideon went in, prepared a young goat, and from an ephah of flour he made bread without yeast. Putting the meat in a basket and its broth in a pot, he brought them out and offered them to him under the oak.

Judges 6:20 The angel of God said to him, “Take the meat and the unleavened bread, place them on this rock, and pour out the broth.” And Gideon did so.

Judges 6:21 With the tip of the staff that was in his hand, the angel of the LORD touched the meat and the unleavened bread. Fire flared from the rock, consuming the meat and the bread. And the angel of the LORD disappeared.

Judges 6:22 When Gideon realised that it was the angel of the LORD, he exclaimed, “Ah, Sovereign LORD! I have seen the angel of the LORD face to face!”

Judges 6:23 But the LORD said to him, “Peace! Do not be afraid. You are not going to die.”

Judges 6:24 So Gideon built an altar to the LORD there and called it The LORD is Peace. To this day it stands in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 6:25 That same night the LORD said to him, “Take the second bull from your father’s herd, the one seven years old. Tear down your father’s altar to Baal and cut down the Asherah pole beside it.

Judges 6:26 Then build a proper kind of altar to the LORD your God on the top of this height. Using the wood of the Asherah pole that you cut down, offer the second bull as a burnt offering.”

Judges 6:27 So Gideon took ten of his servants and did as the LORD told him. But because he was afraid of his family and the men of the town, he did it at night rather than in the daytime.

Judges 6:28 In the morning when the men of the town got up, there was Baal's altar, demolished, with the Asherah pole beside it cut down and the second bull sacrificed on the newly-built altar!

Judges 6:29 They asked each other, "Who did this?" When they carefully investigated, they were told, "Gideon son of Joash did it."

Judges 6:30 The men of the town demanded of Joash, "Bring out your son. He must die, because he has broken down Baal's altar and cut down the Asherah pole beside it."

Judges 6:31 But Joash replied to the hostile crowd around him, "Are you going to plead Baal's cause? Are you trying to save him? Whoever fights for him shall be put to death by morning! If Baal really is a god, he can defend himself when someone breaks down his altar."

Judges 6:32 So that day they called Gideon "Jerub-Baal," saying, "Let Baal contend with him," because he broke down Baal's altar.

Judges 6:33 Now all the Midianites, Amalekites and other eastern peoples joined forces and crossed over the Jordan and camped in the Valley of Jezreel.

Judges 6:34 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Gideon, and he blew a trumpet, summoning the Abiezrites to follow him.

Judges 6:35 He sent messengers throughout Manasseh, calling them to arms, and also into Asher, Zebulun and Naphtali, so that they too went up to meet them.

Judges 6:36 Gideon said to God, "If you will save Israel by my hand as you have promised—

Judges 6:37 look, I will place a wool fleece on the threshing-floor. If there is dew only on the fleece and all the ground is dry, then I will know that you will save Israel by my hand, as you said."

Judges 6:38 And that is what happened. Gideon rose early the next day; he squeezed the fleece and wrung out the dew—a bowlful of water.

Judges 6:39 Then Gideon said to God, "Do not be angry with me. Let me make just one more request. Allow me one more test with the fleece. This time make the fleece dry and the ground covered with dew."

Judges 6:40 That night God did so. Only the fleece was dry; all the ground was covered with dew.

Judges 7:1 Early in the morning, Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) and all his men camped at the spring of Harod. The camp of Midian was north of them in the valley near the hill of Moreh.

Judges 7:2 The LORD said to Gideon, “You have too many men for me to deliver Midian into their hands. In order that Israel may not boast against me that her own strength has saved her, Judges 7:3 announce now to the people,`Anyone who trembles with fear may turn back and leave Mount Gilead.’“ So twenty-two thousand men left, while ten thousand remained.

Judges 7:4 But the LORD said to Gideon, “There are still too many men. Take them down to the water, and I will sift them out for you there. If I say,`This one shall go with you,’ he shall go; but if I say,`This one shall not go with you,’ he shall not go.”

Judges 7:5 So Gideon took the men down to the water. There the LORD told him, “Separate those who lap the water with their tongues like a dog from those who kneel down to drink.”

Judges 7:6 Three hundred men lapped with their hands to their mouths. All the rest got down on their knees to drink.

Judges 7:7 The LORD said to Gideon, “With the three hundred men that lapped I will save you and give the Midianites into your hands. Let all the other men go, each to his own place.”

Judges 7:8 So Gideon sent the rest of the Israelites to their tents but kept the three hundred, who took over the provisions and trumpets of the others. Now the camp of Midian lay below him in the valley.

Judges 7:9 During that night the LORD said to Gideon, “Get up, go down against the camp, because I am going to give it into your hands.

Judges 7:10 If you are afraid to attack, go down to the camp with your servant Purah

Judges 7:11 and listen to what they are saying. Afterwards, you will be encouraged to attack the camp.” So he and Purah his servant went down to the outposts of the camp.

Judges 7:12 The Midianites, the Amalekites and all the other eastern peoples had settled in the valley, thick as locusts. Their camels could no more be counted than the sand on the seashore.

Judges 7:13 Gideon arrived just as a man was telling a friend his dream. “I had a dream,” he was saying. “A round loaf of barley bread came tumbling into the Midianite camp. It struck the tent with such force that the tent overturned and collapsed.”

Judges 7:14 His friend responded, “This can be nothing other than the sword of Gideon son of Joash, the Israelite. God has given the Midianites and the whole camp into his hands.”

Judges 7:15 When Gideon heard the dream and its interpretation, he worshipped God. He returned to the camp of Israel and called out, “Get up! The LORD has given the Midianite camp into your hands.”

Judges 7:16 Dividing the three hundred men into three companies, he placed trumpets and empty jars in the hands of all of them, with torches inside.

Judges 7:17 “Watch me,” he told them. “Follow my lead. When I get to the edge of the camp, do exactly as I do.

Judges 7:18 When I and all who are with me blow our trumpets, then from all around the camp blow yours and shout,`For the LORD and for Gideon.’“

Judges 7:19 Gideon and the hundred men with him reached the edge of the camp at the beginning of the middle watch, just after they had changed the guard. They blew their trumpets and broke the jars that were in their hands.

Judges 7:20 The three companies blew the trumpets and smashed the jars. Grasping the torches in their left hands and holding in their right hands the trumpets they were to blow, they shouted, “A sword for the LORD and for Gideon!”

Judges 7:21 While each man held his position around the camp, all the Midianites ran, crying out as they fled.

Judges 7:22 When the three hundred trumpets sounded, the LORD caused the men throughout the camp to turn on each other with their swords. The army fled to Beth Shittah towards Zererah as far as the border of Abel Meholah near Tabbath.

Judges 7:23 Israelites from Naphtali, Asher and all Manasseh were called out, and they pursued the Midianites.

Judges 7:24 Gideon sent messengers throughout the hill country of Ephraim, saying, “Come down against the Midianites and seize the waters of the Jordan ahead of them as far as Beth Barah.” So all the men of Ephraim were called out and they took the waters of the Jordan as far as Beth Barah.

Judges 7:25 They also captured two of the Midianite leaders, Oreb and Zeeb. They killed Oreb at the rock of Oreb, and Zeeb at the winepress of Zeeb. They pursued the Midianites and brought the heads of Oreb and Zeeb to Gideon, who was by the Jordan.

Judges 8:1 Now the Ephraimites asked Gideon, “Why have you treated us like this? Why didn’t you call us when you went to fight Midian?” And they criticised him sharply.

Judges 8:2 But he answered them, “What have I accomplished compared to you? Aren’t the gleanings of Ephraim’s grapes better than the full grape harvest of Abiezer?

Judges 8:3 God gave Oreb and Zeeb, the Midianite leaders, into your hands. What was I able to do compared to you?” At this, their resentment against him subsided.

Judges 8:4 Gideon and his three hundred men, exhausted yet keeping up the pursuit, came to the Jordan and crossed it.

Judges 8:5 He said to the men of Succoth, “Give my troops some bread; they are worn out, and I am still pursuing Zebah and Zalmunna, the kings of Midian.”

Judges 8:6 But the officials of Succoth said, “Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your troops?”

Judges 8:7 Then Gideon replied, “Just for that, when the LORD has given Zebah and Zalmunna into my hand, I will tear your flesh with desert thorns and briers.”

Judges 8:8 From there he went up to Peniel and made the same request of them, but they answered as the men of Succoth had.

Judges 8:9 So he said to the men of Peniel, “When I return in triumph, I will tear down this tower.”

Judges 8:10 Now Zebah and Zalmunna were in Karkor with a force of about fifteen thousand men, all that were left of the armies of the eastern peoples; a hundred and twenty thousand swordsmen had fallen.

Judges 8:11 Gideon went up by the route of the nomads east of Nobah and Jogbehah and fell upon the unsuspecting army.

Judges 8:12 Zebah and Zalmunna, the two kings of Midian, fled, but he pursued them and captured them, routing their entire army.

Judges 8:13 Gideon son of Joash then returned from the battle by the Pass of Heres.

Judges 8:14 He caught a young man of Succoth and questioned him, and the young man wrote down for him the names of the seventy-seven officials of Succoth, the elders of the town.

Judges 8:15 Then Gideon came and said to the men of Succoth, “Here are Zebah and Zalmunna, about whom you taunted me by saying,`Do you already have the hands of Zebah and Zalmunna in your possession? Why should we give bread to your exhausted men?’“

Judges 8:16 He took the elders of the town and taught the men of Succoth a lesson by punishing them with desert thorns and briers.

Judges 8:17 He also pulled down the tower of Peniel and killed the men of the town.

Judges 8:18 Then he asked Zebah and Zalmunna, “What kind of men did you kill at Tabor?” “Men like you,” they answered, “each one with the bearing of a prince.”

Judges 8:19 Gideon replied, “Those were my brothers, the sons of my own mother. As surely as the LORD lives, if you had spared their lives, I would not kill you.”

Judges 8:20 Turning to Jether, his oldest son, he said, “Kill them!” But Jether did not draw his sword, because he was only a boy and was afraid.

Judges 8:21 Zebah and Zalmunna said, “Come, do it yourself.`As is the man, so is his strength.’“ So Gideon stepped forward and killed them, and took the ornaments off their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:22 The Israelites said to Gideon, “Rule over us—you, your son and your grandson—because you have saved us out of the hand of Midian.”

Judges 8:23 But Gideon told them, “I will not rule over you, nor will my son rule over you. The LORD will rule over you.”

Judges 8:24 And he said, “I do have one request, that each of you give me an ear-ring from your share of the plunder.” (It was the custom of the Ishmaelites to wear gold ear-rings.)

Judges 8:25 They answered, “We’ll be glad to give them.” So they spread out a garment, and each man threw a ring from his plunder onto it.

Judges 8:26 The weight of the gold rings he asked for came to seventeen hundred shekels, not counting the ornaments, the pendants and the purple garments worn by the kings of Midian or the chains that were on their camels’ necks.

Judges 8:27 Gideon made the gold into an ephod, which he placed in Ophrah, his town. All Israel prostituted themselves by worshipping it there, and it became a snare to Gideon and his family.

Judges 8:28 Thus Midian was subdued before the Israelites and did not raise its head again. During Gideon’s lifetime, the land enjoyed peace for forty years.

Judges 8:29 Jerub-Baal son of Joash went back home to live.

Judges 8:30 He had seventy sons of his own, for he had many wives.

Judges 8:31 His concubine, who lived in Shechem, also bore him a son, whom he named Abimelech.

Judges 8:32 Gideon son of Joash died at a good old age and was buried in the tomb of his father Joash in Ophrah of the Abiezrites.

Judges 8:33 No sooner had Gideon died than the Israelites again prostituted themselves to the Baals. They set up Baal-Berith as their god and Judges 8:34 did not remember the LORD their God, who had rescued them from the hands of all their enemies on every side.

Judges 8:35 They also failed to show kindness to the family of Jerub-Baal (that is, Gideon) for all the good things he had done for them.

Judges 9:1 Abimelech son of Jerub-Baal went to his mother’s brothers in Shechem and said to them and to all his mother’s clan, Judges 9:2 “Ask all the citizens of Shechem,`Which is better for you: to have all seventy of Jerub-Baal’s sons rule over you, or just one man?’ Remember, I am your flesh and blood.”

Judges 9:3 When the brothers repeated all this to the citizens of Shechem, they were inclined to follow Abimelech, for they said, “He is our brother.”

Judges 9:4 They gave him seventy shekels of silver from the temple of Baal-Berith, and Abimelech used it to hire reckless adventurers, who became his followers.

Judges 9:5 He went to his father’s home in Ophrah and on one stone murdered his seventy brothers, the sons of Jerub-Baal. But Jotham, the youngest son of Jerub-Baal, escaped by hiding.

Judges 9:6 Then all the citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo gathered beside the great tree at the pillar in Shechem to crown Abimelech king.

Judges 9:7 When Jotham was told about this, he climbed up on the top of Mount Gerizim and shouted to them, “Listen to me, citizens of Shechem, so that God may listen to you.

Judges 9:8 One day the trees went out to anoint a king for themselves. They said to the olive tree,`Be our king.’

Judges 9:9 “But the olive tree answered,`Should I give up my oil, by which both gods and men are honoured, to hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:10 “Next, the trees said to the fig-tree,`Come and be our king.’

Judges 9:11 “But the fig-tree replied,`Should I give up my fruit, so good and sweet, to hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:12 “Then the trees said to the vine,`Come and be our king.’

Judges 9:13 “But the vine answered,`Should I give up my wine, which cheers both gods and men, to hold sway over the trees?’

Judges 9:14 “Finally all the trees said to the thornbush,`Come and be our king.’

Judges 9:15 “The thornbush said to the trees,`If you really want to anoint me king over you, come and take refuge in my shade; but if not, then let fire come out of the thornbush and consume the cedars of Lebanon!’

Judges 9:16 “Now if you have acted honourably and in good faith when you made Abimelech king, and if you have been fair to Jerub-Baal and his family, and if you have treated him as he deserves—

Judges 9:17 and to think that my father fought for you, risked his life to rescue you from the hand of Midian

Judges 9:18 (but today you have revolted against my father’s family, murdered his seventy sons on a single stone, and made Abimelech, the son of his slave girl, king over the citizens of Shechem because he is your brother)—

Judges 9:19 if then you have acted honourably and in good faith towards Jerub-Baal and his family today, may Abimelech be your joy, and may you be his, too!

Judges 9:20 But if you have not, let fire come out from Abimelech and consume you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and let fire come out from you, citizens of Shechem and Beth Millo, and consume Abimelech!”

Judges 9:21 Then Jotham fled, escaping to Beer, and he lived there because he was afraid of his brother Abimelech.

Judges 9:22 After Abimelech had governed Israel for three years,

Judges 9:23 God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the citizens of Shechem, who acted treacherously against Abimelech.

Judges 9:24 God did this in order that the crime against Jerub-Baal’s seventy sons, the shedding of their blood, might be avenged on their brother Abimelech and on the citizens of Shechem, who had helped him murder his brothers.

Judges 9:25 In opposition to him these citizens of Shechem set men on the hilltops to ambush and rob everyone who passed by, and this was reported to Abimelech.

Judges 9:26 Now Gaal son of Ebed moved with his brothers into Shechem, and its citizens put their confidence in him.

Judges 9:27 After they had gone out into the fields and gathered the grapes and trodden them, they held a festival in the temple of their god. While they were eating and drinking, they cursed Abimelech.

Judges 9:28 Then Gaal son of Ebed said, “Who is Abimelech, and who is Shechem, that we should be subject to him? Isn’t he Jerub-Baal’s son, and isn’t Zebul his deputy? Serve the men of Hamor, Shechem’s father! Why should we serve Abimelech?

Judges 9:29 If only this people were under my command! Then I would get rid of him. I would say to Abimelech,`Call out your whole army!’“

Judges 9:30 When Zebul the governor of the city heard what Gaal son of Ebed said, he was very angry.

Judges 9:31 Under cover he sent messengers to Abimelech, saying, “Gaal son of Ebed and his brothers have come to Shechem and are stirring up the city against you.

Judges 9:32 Now then, during the night you and your men should come and lie in wait in the fields.

Judges 9:33 In the morning at sunrise, advance against the city. When Gaal and his men come out against you, do whatever your hand finds to do.”

Judges 9:34 So Abimelech and all his troops set out by night and took up concealed positions near Shechem in four companies.

Judges 9:35 Now Gaal son of Ebed had gone out and was standing at the entrance to the city gate just as Abimelech and his soldiers came out from their hiding-place.

Judges 9:36 When Gaal saw them, he said to Zebul, “Look, people are coming down from the tops of the mountains!” Zebul replied, “You mistake the shadows of the mountains for men.”

Judges 9:37 But Gaal spoke up again: “Look, people are coming down from the centre of the land, and a company is coming from the direction of the soothsayers’ tree.”

Judges 9:38 Then Zebul said to him, “Where is your big talk now, you who said,`Who is Abimelech that we should be subject to him?’ Aren’t these the men you ridiculed? Go out and fight them!”

Judges 9:39 So Gaal led out the citizens of Shechem and fought Abimelech.

Judges 9:40 Abimelech chased him, and many fell wounded in the flight— all the way to the entrance to the gate.

Judges 9:41 Abimelech stayed in Arumah, and Zebul drove Gaal and his brothers out of Shechem.

Judges 9:42 The next day the people of Shechem went out to the fields, and this was reported to Abimelech.

Judges 9:43 So he took his men, divided them into three companies and set an ambush in the fields. When he saw the people coming out of the city, he rose to attack them.

Judges 9:44 Abimelech and the companies with him rushed forward to a position at the entrance to the city gate. Then two companies rushed upon those in the fields and struck them down.

Judges 9:45 All that day Abimelech pressed his attack against the city until he had captured it and killed its people. Then he destroyed the city and scattered salt over it.

Judges 9:46 On hearing this, the citizens in the tower of Shechem went into the stronghold of the temple of El-Berith.

Judges 9:47 When Abimelech heard that they had assembled there,

Judges 9:48 he and all his men went up Mount Zalmon. He took an axe and cut off some branches, which he lifted to his shoulders. He ordered the men with him, “Quick! Do what you have seen me do!”

Judges 9:49 So all the men cut branches and followed Abimelech. They piled them against the stronghold and set it on fire over the people inside. So all the people in the tower of Shechem, about a thousand men and women, also died.

Judges 9:50 Next Abimelech went to Thebez and besieged it and captured it.

Judges 9:51 Inside the city, however, was a strong tower, to which all the men and women—all the people of the city—fled. They locked themselves in and climbed up on the tower roof.

Judges 9:52 Abimelech went to the tower and stormed it. But as he approached the entrance to the tower to set it on fire,

Judges 9:53 a woman dropped an upper millstone on his head and cracked his skull.

Judges 9:54 Hurriedly he called to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and kill me, so that they can’t say,`A woman killed him.’“ So his servant ran him through, and he died.

Judges 9:55 When the Israelites saw that Abimelech was dead, they went home.

Judges 9:56 Thus God repaid the wickedness that Abimelech had done to his father by murdering his seventy brothers.

Judges 9:57 God also made the men of Shechem pay for all their wickedness. The curse of Jotham son of Jerub-Baal came on them.

Judges 10:1 After the time of Abimelech a man of Issachar, Tola son of Puah, the son of Dodo, rose to save Israel. He lived in Shamir, in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges 10:2 He led Israel for twenty-three years; then he died, and was buried in Shamir.

Judges 10:3 He was followed by Jair of Gilead, who led Israel for twenty-two years.

Judges 10:4 He had thirty sons, who rode thirty donkeys. They controlled thirty towns in Gilead, which to this day are called Havvoth Jair.

Judges 10:5 When Jair died, he was buried in Kamon.

Judges 10:6 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD. They served the Baals and the Ashtoreths, and the gods of Aram, the gods of Sidon, the gods of Moab, the gods of the Ammonites and the gods of the Philistines. And because the Israelites forsook the LORD and no longer served him,

Judges 10:7 he became angry with them. He sold them into the hands of the Philistines and the Ammonites,

Judges 10:8 who that year shattered and crushed them. For eighteen years they oppressed all the Israelites on the east side of the Jordan in Gilead, the land of the Amorites.

Judges 10:9 The Ammonites also crossed the Jordan to fight against Judah, Benjamin and the house of Ephraim; and Israel was in great distress.

Judges 10:10 Then the Israelites cried out to the LORD, “We have sinned against you, forsaking our God and serving the Baals.”

Judges 10:11 The LORD replied, “When the Egyptians, the Amorites, the Ammonites, the Philistines,

Judges 10:12 the Sidonians, the Amalekites and the Maonites oppressed you and you cried to me for help, did I not save you from their hands?

Judges 10:13 But you have forsaken me and served other gods, so I will no longer save you.

Judges 10:14 Go and cry out to the gods you have chosen. Let them save you when you are in trouble!”

Judges 10:15 But the Israelites said to the LORD, “We have sinned. Do with us whatever you think best, but please rescue us now.”

Judges 10:16 Then they got rid of the foreign gods among them and served the LORD. And he could bear Israel’s misery no longer.

Judges 10:17 When the Ammonites were called to arms and camped in Gilead, the Israelites assembled and camped at Mizpah.

Judges 10:18 The leaders of the people of Gilead said to each other, “Whoever will launch the attack against the Ammonites will be the head of all those living in Gilead.”

Judges 11:1 Jephthah the Gileadite was a mighty warrior. His father was Gilead; his mother was a prostitute.

Judges 11:2 Gilead’s wife also bore him sons, and when they were grown up, they drove Jephthah away. “You are not going to get any inheritance in our family,” they said, “because you are the son of another woman.”

Judges 11:3 So Jephthah fled from his brothers and settled in the land of Tob, where a group of adventurers gathered around him and followed him.

Judges 11:4 Some time later, when the Ammonites made war on Israel,

Judges 11:5 the elders of Gilead went to get Jephthah from the land of Tob.

Judges 11:6 “Come,” they said, “be our commander, so we can fight the Ammonites.”

Judges 11:7 Jephthah said to them, “Didn’t you hate me and drive me from my father’s house? Why do you come to me now, when you’re in trouble?”

Judges 11:8 The elders of Gilead said to him, “Nevertheless, we are turning to you now; come with us to fight the Ammonites, and you will be our head over all who live in Gilead.”

Judges 11:9 Jephthah answered, “Suppose you take me back to fight the Ammonites and the LORD gives them to me—will I really be your head?”

Judges 11:10 The elders of Gilead replied, “The LORD is our witness; we will certainly do as you say.”

Judges 11:11 So Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head and commander over them. And he repeated all his words before the LORD in Mizpah.

Judges 11:12 Then Jephthah sent messengers to the Ammonite king with the question: “What do you have against us that you have attacked our country?”

Judges 11:13 The king of the Ammonites answered Jephthah’s messengers, “When Israel came up out of Egypt, they took away my land from the Arnon to the Jabbok, all the way to the Jordan. Now give it back peaceably.”

Judges 11:14 Jephthah sent back messengers to the Ammonite king,

Judges 11:15 saying: “This is what Jephthah says: Israel did not take the land of Moab or the land of the Ammonites.

Judges 11:16 But when they came up out of Egypt, Israel went through the desert to the Red Sea and on to Kadesh.

Judges 11:17 Then Israel sent messengers to the king of Edom, saying,`Give us permission to go through your country,’ but the king of Edom would not listen. They sent also to the king of Moab, and he refused. So Israel stayed at Kadesh.

Judges 11:18 “Next they travelled through the desert, skirted the lands of Edom and Moab, passed along the eastern side of the country of Moab, and camped on the other side of the Arnon. They did not enter the territory of Moab, for the Arnon was its border.

Judges 11:19 “Then Israel sent messengers to Sihon king of the Amorites, who ruled in Heshbon, and said to him,`Let us pass through your country to our own place.’

Judges 11:20 Sihon, however, did not trust Israel to pass through his territory. He mustered all his men and encamped at Jahaz and fought with Israel.

Judges 11:21 “Then the LORD, the God of Israel, gave Sihon and all his men into Israel’s hands, and they defeated them. Israel took over all the land of the Amorites who lived in that country, Judges 11:22 capturing all of it from the Arnon to the Jabbok and from the desert to the Jordan.

Judges 11:23 “Now since the LORD, the God of Israel, has driven the Amorites out before his people Israel, what right have you to take it over?

Judges 11:24 Will you not take what your god Chemosh gives you? Likewise, whatever the LORD our God has given us, we will possess.

Judges 11:25 Are you better than Balak son of Zippor, king of Moab? Did he ever quarrel with Israel or fight with them?

Judges 11:26 For three hundred years Israel occupied Heshbon, Aroer, the surrounding settlements and all the towns along the Arnon. Why didn’t you retake them during that time?

Judges 11:27 I have not wronged you, but you are doing me wrong by waging war against me. Let the LORD, the Judge, decide the dispute this day between the Israelites and the Ammonites.”

Judges 11:28 The king of Ammon, however, paid no attention to the message Jephthah sent him.

Judges 11:29 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon Jephthah. He crossed Gilead and Manasseh, passed through Mizpah of Gilead, and from there he advanced against the Ammonites.

Judges 11:30 And Jephthah made a vow to the LORD: “If you give the Ammonites into my hands, Judges 11:31 whatever comes out of the door of my house to meet me when I return in triumph from the Ammonites will be the LORD’s, and I will sacrifice it as a burnt offering.”

Judges 11:32 Then Jephthah went over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave them into his hands.

Judges 11:33 He devastated twenty towns from Aroer to the vicinity of Minnith, as far as Abel Keramim. Thus Israel subdued Ammon.

Judges 11:34 When Jephthah returned to his home in Mizpah, who should come out to meet him but his daughter, dancing to the sound of tambourines! She was an only child. Except for her he had neither son nor daughter.

Judges 11:35 When he saw her, he tore his clothes and cried, “Oh! My daughter! You have made me miserable and wretched, because I have made a vow to the LORD that I cannot break.”

Judges 11:36 “My father,” she replied, “you have given your word to the LORD. Do to me just as you promised, now that the LORD has avenged you of your enemies, the Ammonites.

Judges 11:37 But grant me this one request,” she said. “Give me two months to roam the hills and weep with my friends, because I will never marry.”

Judges 11:38 “You may go,” he said. And he let her go for two months. She and the girls went into the hills and wept because she would never marry.

Judges 11:39 After the two months, she returned to her father and he did to her as he had vowed. And she was a virgin. From this comes the Israelite custom

Judges 11:40 that each year the young women of Israel go out for four days to commemorate the daughter of Jephthah the Gileadite.

Judges 12:1 The men of Ephraim called out their forces, crossed over to Zaphon and said to Jephthah, “Why did you go to fight the Ammonites without calling us to go with you? We’re going to burn down your house over your head.”

Judges 12:2 Jephthah answered, “I and my people were engaged in a great struggle with the Ammonites, and although I called, you didn’t save me out of their hands.

Judges 12:3 When I saw that you wouldn’t help, I took my life in my hands and crossed over to fight the Ammonites, and the LORD gave me the victory over them. Now why have you come up today to fight me?”

Judges 12:4 Jephthah then called together the men of Gilead and fought against Ephraim. The Gileadites struck them down because the Ephraimites had said, “You Gileadites are renegades from Ephraim and Manasseh.”

Judges 12:5 The Gileadites captured the fords of the Jordan leading to Ephraim, and whenever a survivor of Ephraim said, “Let me cross over,” the men of Gilead asked him, “Are you an Ephraimite?” If he replied, “No,”

Judges 12:6 they said, “All right, say`Shibboleth’.” If he said, “Sibboleth”, because he could not pronounce the word correctly, they seized him and killed him at the fords of the Jordan. Forty-two thousand Ephraimites were killed at that time.

Judges 12:7 Jephthah led Israel for six years. Then Jephthah the Gileadite died, and was buried in a town in Gilead.

Judges 12:8 After him, Ibzan of Bethlehem led Israel.

Judges 12:9 He had thirty sons and thirty daughters. He gave his daughters away in marriage to those outside his clan, and for his sons he brought in thirty young women as wives from outside his clan. Ibzan led Israel for seven years.

Judges 12:10 Then Ibzan died, and was buried in Bethlehem.

Judges 12:11 After him, Elon the Zebulunite led Israel for ten years.

Judges 12:12 Then Elon died, and was buried in Aijalon in the land of Zebulun.

Judges 12:13 After him, Abdon son of Hillel, from Pirathon, led Israel.

Judges 12:14 He had forty sons and thirty grandsons, who rode on seventy donkeys. He led Israel for eight years.

Judges 12:15 Then Abdon son of Hillel died, and was buried at Pirathon in Ephraim, in the hill country of the Amalekites.

Judges 13:1 Again the Israelites did evil in the eyes of the LORD, so the LORD delivered them into the hands of the Philistines for forty years.

Judges 13:2 A certain man of Zorah, named Manoah, from the clan of the Danites, had a wife who was sterile and remained childless.

Judges 13:3 The angel of the LORD appeared to her and said, “You are sterile and childless, but you are going to conceive and have a son.

Judges 13:4 Now see to it that you drink no wine or other fermented drink and that you do not eat anything unclean,

Judges 13:5 because you will conceive and give birth to a son. No razor may be used on his head, because the boy is to be a Nazirite, set apart to God from birth, and he will begin the deliverance of Israel from the hands of the Philistines.”

Judges 13:6 Then the woman went to her husband and told him, “A man of God came to me. He looked like an angel of God, very awesome. I didn’t ask him where he came from, and he didn’t tell me his name.

Judges 13:7 But he said to me,`You will conceive and give birth to a son. Now then, drink no wine or other fermented drink and do not eat anything unclean, because the boy will be a Nazirite of God from birth until the day of his death.’“

Judges 13:8 Then Manoah prayed to the LORD: “O Lord, I beg you, let the man of God you sent to us come again to teach us how to bring up the boy who is to be born.”

Judges 13:9 God heard Manoah, and the angel of God came again to the woman while she was out in the field; but her husband Manoah was not with her.

Judges 13:10 The woman hurried to tell her husband, “He’s here! The man who appeared to me the other day!”

Judges 13:11 Manoah got up and followed his wife. When he came to the man, he said, “Are you the one who talked to my wife?” “I am,” he said.

Judges 13:12 So Manoah asked him, “When your words are fulfilled, what is to be the rule for the boy’s life and work?”

Judges 13:13 The angel of the LORD answered, “Your wife must do all that I have told her.

Judges 13:14 She must not eat anything that comes from the grapevine, nor drink any wine or other fermented drink nor eat anything unclean. She must do everything I have commanded her.”

Judges 13:15 Manoah said to the angel of the LORD, “We would like you to stay until we prepare a young goat for you.”

Judges 13:16 The angel of the LORD replied, “Even though you detain me, I will not eat any of your food. But if you prepare a burnt offering, offer it to the LORD.” (Manoah did not realise that it was the angel of the LORD.)

Judges 13:17 Then Manoah enquired of the angel of the LORD, “What is your name, so that we may honour you when your word comes true?”

Judges 13:18 He replied, “Why do you ask my name? It is beyond understanding.”

Judges 13:19 Then Manoah took a young goat, together with the grain offering, and sacrificed it on a rock to the LORD. And the LORD did an amazing thing while Manoah and his wife watched:

Judges 13:20 As the flame blazed up from the altar towards heaven, the angel of the LORD ascended in the flame. Seeing this, Manoah and his wife fell with their faces to the ground.

Judges 13:21 When the angel of the LORD did not show himself again to Manoah and his wife, Manoah realised that it was the angel of the LORD.

Judges 13:22 “We are doomed to die!” he said to his wife. “We have seen God!”

Judges 13:23 But his wife answered, “If the LORD had meant to kill us, he would not have accepted a burnt offering and grain offering from our hands, nor shown us all these things or now told us this.”

Judges 13:24 The woman gave birth to a boy and named him Samson. He grew and the LORD blessed him,

Judges 13:25 and the Spirit of the LORD began to stir him while he was in Mahaneh Dan, between Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 14:1 Samson went down to Timnah and saw there a young Philistine woman.

Judges 14:2 When he returned, he said to his father and mother, “I have seen a Philistine woman in Timnah; now get her for me as my wife.”

Judges 14:3 His father and mother replied, “Isn’t there an acceptable woman among your relatives or among all our people? Must you go to the uncircumcised Philistines to get a wife?” But Samson said to his father, “Get her for me. She’s the right one for me.”

Judges 14:4 (His parents did not know that this was from the LORD, who was seeking an occasion to confront the Philistines; for at that time they were ruling over Israel.)

Judges 14:5 Samson went down to Timnah together with his father and mother. As they approached the vineyards of Timnah, suddenly a young lion came roaring towards him.

Judges 14:6 The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power so that he tore the lion apart with his bare hands as he might have torn a young goat. But he told neither his father nor his mother what he had done.

Judges 14:7 Then he went down and talked with the woman, and he liked her.

Judges 14:8 Some time later, when he went back to marry her, he turned aside to look at the lion's carcass. In it was a swarm of bees and some honey,

Judges 14:9 which he scooped out with his hands and ate as he went along. When he rejoined his parents, he gave them some, and they too ate it. But he did not tell them that he had taken the honey from the lion's carcass.

Judges 14:10 Now his father went down to see the woman. And Samson made a feast there, as was customary for bridegrooms.

Judges 14:11 When he appeared, he was given thirty companions.

Judges 14:12 "Let me tell you a riddle," Samson said to them. "If you can give me the answer within the seven days of the feast, I will give you thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes.

Judges 14:13 If you can't tell me the answer, you must give me thirty linen garments and thirty sets of clothes." "Tell us your riddle," they said. "Let's hear it."

Judges 14:14 He replied, "Out of the eater, something to eat; out of the strong, something sweet." For three days they could not give the answer.

Judges 14:15 On the fourth day, they said to Samson's wife, "Coax your husband into explaining the riddle for us, or we will burn you and your father's household to death. Did you invite us here to rob us?"

Judges 14:16 Then Samson's wife threw herself on him, sobbing, "You hate me! You don't really love me. You've given my people a riddle, but you haven't told me the answer." "I haven't even explained it to my father or mother," he replied, "so why should I explain it to you?"

Judges 14:17 She cried the whole seven days of the feast. So on the seventh day he finally told her, because she continued to press him. She in turn explained the riddle to her people.

Judges 14:18 Before sunset on the seventh day the men of the town said to him, "What is sweeter than honey? What is stronger than a lion?" Samson said to them, "If you had not ploughed with my heifer, you would not have solved my riddle."

Judges 14:19 Then the Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. He went down to Ashkelon, struck down thirty of their men, stripped them of their belongings and gave their clothes to those who had explained the riddle. Burning with anger, he went up to his father's house.

Judges 14:20 And Samson’s wife was given to the friend who had attended him at his wedding.

Judges 15:1 Later on, at the time of wheat harvest, Samson took a young goat and went to visit his wife. He said, “I’m going to my wife’s room.” But her father would not let him go in.

Judges 15:2 “I was so sure you thoroughly hated her,” he said, “that I gave her to your friend. Isn’t her younger sister more attractive? Take her instead.”

Judges 15:3 Samson said to them, “This time I have a right to get even with the Philistines; I will really harm them.”

Judges 15:4 So he went out and caught three hundred foxes and tied them tail to tail in pairs. He then fastened a torch to every pair of tails,

Judges 15:5 lit the torches and let the foxes loose in the standing corn of the Philistines. He burned up the shocks and standing corn, together with the vineyards and olive groves.

Judges 15:6 When the Philistines asked, “Who did this?” they were told, “Samson, the Timnite’s son-in-law, because his wife was given to his friend.” So the Philistines went up and burned her and her father to death.

Judges 15:7 Samson said to them, “Since you’ve acted like this, I won’t stop until I get my revenge on you.”

Judges 15:8 He attacked them viciously and slaughtered many of them. Then he went down and stayed in a cave in the rock of Etam.

Judges 15:9 The Philistines went up and camped in Judah, spreading out near Lehi.

Judges 15:10 The men of Judah asked, “Why have you come to fight us?” “We have come to take Samson prisoner,” they answered, “to do to him as he did to us.”

Judges 15:11 Then three thousand men from Judah went down to the cave in the rock of Etam and said to Samson, “Don’t you realise that the Philistines are rulers over us? What have you done to us?” He answered, “I merely did to them what they did to me.”

Judges 15:12 They said to him, “We’ve come to tie you up and hand you over to the Philistines.” Samson said, “Swear to me that you won’t kill me yourselves.”

Judges 15:13 “Agreed,” they answered. “We will only tie you up and hand you over to them. We will not kill you.” So they bound him with two new ropes and led him up from the rock.

Judges 15:14 As he approached Lehi, the Philistines came towards him shouting. The Spirit of the LORD came upon him in power. The ropes on his arms became like charred flax, and the bindings dropped from his hands.

Judges 15:15 Finding a fresh jaw-bone of a donkey, he grabbed it and struck down a thousand men.

Judges 15:16 Then Samson said, “With a donkey’s jaw-bone I have made donkeys of them. With a donkey’s jaw-bone I have killed a thousand men.”

Judges 15:17 When he finished speaking, he threw away the jaw-bone; and the place was called Ramath Lehi.

Judges 15:18 Because he was very thirsty, he cried out to the LORD, “You have given your servant this great victory. Must I now die of thirst and fall into the hands of the uncircumcised?”

Judges 15:19 Then God opened up the hollow place in Lehi, and water came out of it. When Samson drank, his strength returned and he revived. So the spring was called En Hakkore, and it is still there in Lehi.

Judges 15:20 Samson led Israel for twenty years in the days of the Philistines.

Judges 16:1 One day Samson went to Gaza, where he saw a prostitute. He went in to spend the night with her.

Judges 16:2 The people of Gaza were told, “Samson is here!” So they surrounded the place and lay in wait for him all night at the city gate. They made no move during the night, saying, “At dawn we’ll kill him.”

Judges 16:3 But Samson lay there only until the middle of the night. Then he got up and took hold of the doors of the city gate, together with the two posts, and tore them loose, bar and all. He lifted them to his shoulders and carried them to the top of the hill that faces Hebron.

Judges 16:4 Some time later, he fell in love with a woman in the Valley of Sorek whose name was Delilah.

Judges 16:5 The rulers of the Philistines went to her and said, “See if you can lure him into showing you the secret of his great strength and how we can overpower him so that we may tie him up and subdue him. Each one of us will give you eleven hundred shekels of silver.”

Judges 16:6 So Delilah said to Samson, “Tell me the secret of your great strength and how you can be tied up and subdued.”

Judges 16:7 Samson answered her, “If anyone ties me with seven fresh thongs that have not been dried, I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

Judges 16:8 Then the rulers of the Philistines brought her seven fresh thongs that had not been dried, and she tied him with them.

Judges 16:9 With men hidden in the room, she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” But he snapped the thongs as easily as a piece of string snaps when it comes close to a flame. So the secret of his strength was not discovered.

Judges 16:10 Then Delilah said to Samson, “You have made a fool of me; you lied to me. Come now, tell me how you can be tied.”

Judges 16:11 He said, “If anyone ties me securely with new ropes that have never been used, I’ll become as weak as any other man.”

Judges 16:12 So Delilah took new ropes and tied him with them. Then, with men hidden in the room, she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” But he snapped the ropes off his arms as if they were threads.

Judges 16:13 Delilah then said to Samson, “Until now, you have been making a fool of me and lying to me. Tell me how you can be tied.” He replied, “If you weave the seven braids of my head into the fabric [on the loom] and tighten it with the pin, I’ll become as weak as any other man.” So while he was sleeping, Delilah took the seven braids of his head, wove them into the fabric

Judges 16:14 and tightened it with the pin. Again she called to him, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” He awoke from his sleep and pulled up the pin and the loom, with the fabric.

Judges 16:15 Then she said to him, “How can you say,`I love you,’ when you won’t confide in me? This is the third time you have made a fool of me and haven’t told me the secret of your great strength.”

Judges 16:16 With such nagging she prodded him day after day until he was tired to death.

Judges 16:17 So he told her everything. “No razor has ever been used on my head,” he said, “because I have been a Nazirite set apart to God since birth. If my head were shaved, my strength would leave me, and I would become as weak as any other man.”

Judges 16:18 When Delilah saw that he had told her everything, she sent word to the rulers of the Philistines, “Come back once more; he has told me everything.” So the rulers of the Philistines returned with the silver in their hands.

Judges 16:19 Having put him to sleep on her lap, she called a man to shave off the seven braids of his hair, and so began to subdue him. And his strength left him.

Judges 16:20 Then she called, “Samson, the Philistines are upon you!” He awoke from his sleep and thought, “I’ll go out as before and shake myself free.” But he did not know that the LORD had left him.

Judges 16:21 Then the Philistines seized him, gouged out his eyes and took him down to Gaza. Binding him with bronze shackles, they set him to grinding in the prison.

Judges 16:22 But the hair on his head began to grow again after it had been shaved.

Judges 16:23 Now the rulers of the Philistines assembled to offer a great sacrifice to Dagon their god and to celebrate, saying, “Our god has delivered Samson, our enemy, into our hands.”

Judges 16:24 When the people saw him, they praised their god, saying, “Our god has delivered our enemy into our hands, the one who laid waste our land and multiplied our slain.”

Judges 16:25 While they were in high spirits, they shouted, “Bring out Samson to entertain us.” So they called Samson out of the prison, and he performed for them. When they stood him among the pillars,

Judges 16:26 Samson said to the servant who held his hand, “Put me where I can feel the pillars that support the temple, so that I may lean against them.”

Judges 16:27 Now the temple was crowded with men and women; all the rulers of the Philistines were there, and on the roof were about three thousand men and women watching Samson perform.

Judges 16:28 Then Samson prayed to the LORD, “O Sovereign LORD, remember me. O God, please strengthen me just once more, and let me with one blow get revenge on the Philistines for my two eyes.”

Judges 16:29 Then Samson reached towards the two central pillars on which the temple stood. Bracing himself against them, his right hand on the one and his left hand on the other,

Judges 16:30 Samson said, “Let me die with the Philistines!” Then he pushed with all his might, and down came the temple on the rulers and all the people in it. Thus he killed many more when he died than while he lived.

Judges 16:31 Then his brothers and his father’s whole family went down to get him. They brought him back and buried him between Zorah and Eshtaol in the tomb of Manoah his father. He had led Israel for twenty years.

Judges 17:1 Now a man named Micah from the hill country of Ephraim

Judges 17:2 said to his mother, “The eleven hundred shekels of silver that were taken from you and about which I heard you utter a curse—I have that silver with me; I took it.” Then his mother said, “The LORD bless you, my son!”

Judges 17:3 When he returned the eleven hundred shekels of silver to his mother, she said, “I solemnly consecrate my silver to the LORD for my son to make a carved image and a cast idol. I will give it back to you.”

Judges 17:4 So he returned the silver to his mother, and she took two hundred shekels of silver and gave them to a silversmith, who made them into the image and the idol. And they were put in Micah’s house.

Judges 17:5 Now this man Micah had a shrine, and he made an ephod and some idols and installed one of his sons as his priest.

Judges 17:6 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.

Judges 17:7 A young Levite from Bethlehem in Judah, who had been living within the clan of Judah,

Judges 17:8 left that town in search of some other place to stay. On his way he came to Micah’s house in the hill country of Ephraim.

Judges 17:9 Micah asked him, “Where are you from?” “I’m a Levite from Bethlehem in Judah,” he said, “and I’m looking for a place to stay.”

Judges 17:10 Then Micah said to him, “Live with me and be my father and priest, and I’ll give you ten shekels of silver a year, your clothes and your food.”

Judges 17:11 So the Levite agreed to live with him, and the young man was to him like one of his sons.

Judges 17:12 Then Micah installed the Levite, and the young man became his priest and lived in his house.

Judges 17:13 And Micah said, “Now I know that the LORD will be good to me, since this Levite has become my priest.”

Judges 18:1 In those days Israel had no king. And in those days the tribe of the Danites was seeking a place of their own where they might settle, because they had not yet come into an inheritance among the tribes of Israel.

Judges 18:2 So the Danites sent five warriors from Zorah and Eshtaol to spy out the land and explore it. These men represented all their clans. They told them, “Go, explore the land.” The men entered the hill country of Ephraim and came to the house of Micah, where they spent the night.

Judges 18:3 When they were near Micah’s house, they recognised the voice of the young Levite; so they turned in there and asked him, “Who brought you here? What are you doing in this place? Why are you here?”

Judges 18:4 He told them what Micah had done for him, and said, “He has hired me and I am his priest.”

Judges 18:5 Then they said to him, “Please enquire of God to learn whether our journey will be successful.”

Judges 18:6 The priest answered them, “Go in peace. Your journey has the LORD’s approval.”

Judges 18:7 So the five men left and came to Laish, where they saw that the people were living in safety, like the Sidonians, unsuspecting and secure. And since their land lacked nothing, they were prosperous. Also, they lived a long way from the Sidonians and had no relationship with anyone else.

Judges 18:8 When they returned to Zorah and Eshtaol, their brothers asked them, “How did you find things?”

Judges 18:9 They answered, “Come on, let’s attack them! We have seen that the land is very good. Aren’t you going to do something? Don’t hesitate to go there and take it over.

Judges 18:10 When you get there, you will find an unsuspecting people and a spacious land that God has put into your hands, a land that lacks nothing whatever.”

Judges 18:11 Then six hundred men from the clan of the Danites, armed for battle, set out from Zorah and Eshtaol.

Judges 18:12 On their way they set up camp near Kiriath Jearim in Judah. This is why the place west of Kiriath Jearim is called Mahaneh Dan to this day.

Judges 18:13 From there they went on to the hill country of Ephraim and came to Micah’s house.

Judges 18:14 Then the five men who had spied out the land of Laish said to their brothers, “Do you know that one of these houses has an ephod, other household gods, a carved image and a cast idol? Now you know what to do.”

Judges 18:15 So they turned in there and went to the house of the young Levite at Micah’s place and greeted him.

Judges 18:16 The six hundred Danites, armed for battle, stood at the entrance to the gate.

Judges 18:17 The five men who had spied out the land went inside and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol while the priest and the six hundred armed men stood at the entrance to the gate.

Judges 18:18 When these men went into Micah’s house and took the carved image, the ephod, the other household gods and the cast idol, the priest said to them, “What are you doing?”

Judges 18:19 They answered him, “Be quiet! Don’t say a word. Come with us, and be our father and priest. Isn’t it better that you serve a tribe and clan in Israel as priest rather than just one man’s household?”

Judges 18:20 Then the priest was glad. He took the ephod, the other household gods and the carved image and went along with the people.

Judges 18:21 Putting their little children, their livestock and their possessions in front of them, they turned away and left.

Judges 18:22 When they had gone some distance from Micah’s house, the men who lived near Micah were called together and overtook the Danites.

Judges 18:23 As they shouted after them, the Danites turned and said to Micah, “What’s the matter with you that you called out your men to fight?”

Judges 18:24 He replied, “You took the gods I made, and my priest, and went away. What else do I have? How can you ask,`What’s the matter with you?’“

Judges 18:25 The Danites answered, “Don’t argue with us, or some hot-tempered men will attack you, and you and your family will lose your lives.”

Judges 18:26 So the Danites went their way, and Micah, seeing that they were too strong for him, turned round and went back home.

Judges 18:27 Then they took what Micah had made, and his priest, and went on to Laish, against a peaceful and unsuspecting people. They attacked them with the sword and burned down their city.

Judges 18:28 There was no-one to rescue them because they lived a long way from Sidon and had no relationship with anyone else. The city was in a valley near Beth Rehob. The Danites rebuilt the city and settled there.

Judges 18:29 They named it Dan after their forefather Dan, who was born to Israel—though the city used to be called Laish.

Judges 18:30 There the Danites set up for themselves the idols, and Jonathan son of Gershom, the son of Moses, and his sons were priests for the tribe of Dan until the time of the captivity of the land.

Judges 18:31 They continued to use the idols Micah had made, all the time the house of God was in Shiloh.

Judges 19:1 In those days Israel had no king. Now a Levite who lived in a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim took a concubine from Bethlehem in Judah.

Judges 19:2 But she was unfaithful to him. She left him and went back to her father’s house in Bethlehem, Judah. After she had been there for four months,

Judges 19:3 her husband went to her to persuade her to return. He had with him his servant and two donkeys. She took him into her father’s house, and when her father saw him, he gladly welcomed him.

Judges 19:4 His father-in-law, the girl’s father, prevailed upon him to stay; so he remained with him three days, eating and drinking, and sleeping there.

Judges 19:5 On the fourth day they got up early and he prepared to leave, but the girl’s father said to his son-in-law, “Refresh yourself with something to eat; then you can go.”

Judges 19:6 So the two of them sat down to eat and drink together. Afterwards the girl’s father said, “Please stay tonight and enjoy yourself.”

Judges 19:7 And when the man got up to go, his father-in-law persuaded him, so he stayed there that night.

Judges 19:8 On the morning of the fifth day, when he rose to go, the girl’s father said, “Refresh yourself. Wait till afternoon!” So the two of them ate together.

Judges 19:9 Then when the man, with his concubine and his servant, got up to leave, his father-in-law, the girl’s father, said, “Now look, it’s almost evening. Spend the night here; the day is nearly over. Stay and enjoy yourself. Early tomorrow morning you can get up and be on your way home.”

Judges 19:10 But, unwilling to stay another night, the man left and went towards Jebus (that is, Jerusalem), with his two saddled donkeys and his concubine.

Judges 19:11 When they were near Jebus and the day was almost gone, the servant said to his master, “Come, let’s stop at this city of the Jebusites and spend the night.”

Judges 19:12 His master replied, “No. We won’t go into an alien city, whose people are not Israelites. We will go on to Gibeah.”

Judges 19:13 He added, “Come, let’s try to reach Gibeah or Ramah and spend the night in one of those places.”

Judges 19:14 So they went on, and the sun set as they neared Gibeah in Benjamin.

Judges 19:15 There they stopped to spend the night. They went and sat in the city square, but no-one took them into his home for the night.

Judges 19:16 That evening an old man from the hill country of Ephraim, who was living in Gibeah (the men of the place were Benjamites), came in from his work in the fields.

Judges 19:17 When he looked and saw the traveller in the city square, the old man asked, “Where are you going? Where did you come from?”

Judges 19:18 He answered, “We are on our way from Bethlehem in Judah to a remote area in the hill country of Ephraim where I live. I have been to Bethlehem in Judah and now I am going to the house of the LORD. No-one has taken me into his house.

Judges 19:19 We have both straw and fodder for our donkeys and bread and wine for ourselves your servants—me, your maidservant, and the young man with us. We don’t need anything.”

Judges 19:20 “You are welcome at my house,” the old man said. “Let me supply whatever you need. Only don’t spend the night in the square.”

Judges 19:21 So he took him into his house and fed his donkeys. After they had washed their feet, they had something to eat and drink.

Judges 19:22 While they were enjoying themselves, some of the wicked men of the city surrounded the house. Pounding on the door, they shouted to the old man who owned the house, “Bring out the man who came to your house so we can have sex with him.”

Judges 19:23 The owner of the house went outside and said to them, “No, my friends, don’t be so vile. Since this man is my guest, don’t do this disgraceful thing.

Judges 19:24 Look, here is my virgin daughter, and his concubine. I will bring them out to you now, and you can use them and do to them whatever you wish. But to this man, don’t do such a disgraceful thing.”

Judges 19:25 But the men would not listen to him. So the man took his concubine and sent her outside to them, and they raped her and abused her throughout the night, and at dawn they let her go.

Judges 19:26 At daybreak the woman went back to the house where her master was staying, fell down at the door and lay there until daylight.

Judges 19:27 When her master got up in the morning and opened the door of the house and stepped out to continue on his way, there lay his concubine, fallen in the doorway of the house, with her hands on the threshold.

Judges 19:28 He said to her, “Get up; let’s go.” But there was no answer. Then the man put her on his donkey and set out for home.

Judges 19:29 When he reached home, he took a knife and cut up his concubine, limb by limb, into twelve parts and sent them into all the areas of Israel.

Judges 19:30 Everyone who saw it said, “Such a thing has never been seen or done, not since the day the Israelites came up out of Egypt. Think about it! Consider it! Tell us what to do!”

Judges 20:1 Then all the Israelites from Dan to Beersheba and from the land of Gilead came out as one man and assembled before the LORD in Mizpah.

Judges 20:2 The leaders of all the people of the tribes of Israel took their places in the assembly of the people of God, four hundred thousand soldiers armed with swords.

Judges 20:3 (The Benjamites heard that the Israelites had gone up to Mizpah.) Then the Israelites said, “Tell us how this awful thing happened.”

Judges 20:4 So the Levite, the husband of the murdered woman, said, “I and my concubine came to Gibeah in Benjamin to spend the night.

Judges 20:5 During the night the men of Gibeah came after me and surrounded the house, intending to kill me. They raped my concubine, and she died.

Judges 20:6 I took my concubine, cut her into pieces and sent one piece to each region of Israel’s inheritance, because they committed this lewd and disgraceful act in Israel.

Judges 20:7 Now, all you Israelites, speak up and give your verdict.”

Judges 20:8 All the people rose as one man, saying, “None of us will go home. No, not one of us will return to his house.

Judges 20:9 But now this is what we’ll do to Gibeah: We’ll go up against it as the lot directs.

Judges 20:10 We’ll take ten men out of every hundred from all the tribes of Israel, and a hundred from a thousand, and a thousand from ten thousand, to get provisions for the army. Then, when the army arrives at Gibeah in Benjamin, it can give them what they deserve for all this vileness done in Israel.”

Judges 20:11 So all the men of Israel got together and united as one man against the city.

Judges 20:12 The tribes of Israel sent men throughout the tribe of Benjamin, saying, “What about this awful crime that was committed among you?

Judges 20:13 Now surrender those wicked men of Gibeah so that we may put them to death and purge the evil from Israel.” But the Benjamites would not listen to their fellow Israelites.

Judges 20:14 From their towns they came together at Gibeah to fight against the Israelites.

Judges 20:15 At once the Benjamites mobilised twenty-six thousand swordsmen from their towns, in addition to seven hundred chosen men from those living in Gibeah.

Judges 20:16 Among all these soldiers there were seven hundred chosen men who were left-handed, each of whom could sling a stone at a hair and not miss.

Judges 20:17 Israel, apart from Benjamin, mustered four hundred thousand swordsmen, all of them fighting men.

Judges 20:18 The Israelites went up to Bethel and enquired of God. They said, “Who of us shall go first to fight against the Benjamites?” The LORD replied, “Judah shall go first.”

Judges 20:19 The next morning the Israelites got up and pitched camp near Gibeah.

Judges 20:20 The men of Israel went out to fight the Benjamites and took up battle positions against them at Gibeah.

Judges 20:21 The Benjamites came out of Gibeah and cut down twenty-two thousand Israelites on the battlefield that day.

Judges 20:22 But the men of Israel encouraged one another and again took up their positions where they had stationed themselves the first day.

Judges 20:23 The Israelites went up and wept before the LORD until evening, and they enquired of the LORD. They said, “Shall we go up again to battle against the Benjamites, our brothers?” The LORD answered, “Go up against them.”

Judges 20:24 Then the Israelites drew near to Benjamin the second day.

Judges 20:25 This time, when the Benjamites came out from Gibeah to oppose them, they cut down another eighteen thousand Israelites, all of them armed with swords.

Judges 20:26 Then the Israelites, all the people, went up to Bethel, and there they sat weeping before the LORD. They fasted that day until evening and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings to the LORD.

Judges 20:27 And the Israelites enquired of the LORD. (In those days the ark of the covenant of God was there, Judges 20:28 with Phinehas son of Eleazar, the son of Aaron, ministering before it.) They asked, “Shall we go up again to battle with Benjamin our brother, or not?” The LORD responded, “Go, for tomorrow I will give them into your hands.”

Judges 20:29 Then Israel set an ambush around Gibeah.

Judges 20:30 They went up against the Benjamites on the third day and took up positions against Gibeah as they had done before.

Judges 20:31 The Benjamites came out to meet them and were drawn away from the city. They began to inflict casualties on the Israelites as before, so that about thirty men fell in the open field and on the roads—the one leading to Bethel and the other to Gibeah.

Judges 20:32 While the Benjamites were saying, “We are defeating them as before,” the Israelites were saying, “Let’s retreat and draw them away from the city to the roads.”

Judges 20:33 All the men of Israel moved from their places and took up positions at Baal Tamar, and the Israelite ambush charged out of its place on the west of Gibeah.

Judges 20:34 Then ten thousand of Israel’s finest men made a frontal attack on Gibeah. The fighting was so heavy that the Benjamites did not realise how near disaster was.

Judges 20:35 The LORD defeated Benjamin before Israel, and on that day the Israelites struck down 25,100 Benjamites, all armed with swords.

Judges 20:36 Then the Benjamites saw that they were beaten. Now the men of Israel had given way before Benjamin, because they relied on the ambush they had set near Gibeah.

Judges 20:37 The men who had been in ambush made a sudden dash into Gibeah, spread out and put the whole city to the sword.

Judges 20:38 The men of Israel had arranged with the ambush that they should send up a great cloud of smoke from the city,

Judges 20:39 and then the men of Israel would turn in the battle. The Benjamites had begun to inflict casualties on the men of Israel (about thirty), and they said, “We are defeating them as in the first battle.”

Judges 20:40 But when the column of smoke began to rise from the city, the Benjamites turned and saw the smoke of the whole city going up into the sky.

Judges 20:41 Then the men of Israel turned on them, and the men of Benjamin were terrified, because they realised that disaster had come upon them.

Judges 20:42 So they fled before the Israelites in the direction of the desert, but they could not escape the battle. And the men of Israel who came out of the towns cut them down there.

Judges 20:43 They surrounded the Benjamites, chased them and easily overran them in the vicinity of Gibeah on the east.

Judges 20:44 Eighteen thousand Benjamites fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Judges 20:45 As they turned and fled towards the desert to the rock of Rimmon, the Israelites cut down five thousand men along the roads. They kept pressing after the Benjamites as far as Gidom and struck down two thousand more.

Judges 20:46 On that day twenty-five thousand Benjamite swordsmen fell, all of them valiant fighters.

Judges 20:47 But six hundred men turned and fled into the desert to the rock of Rimmon, where they stayed for four months.

Judges 20:48 The men of Israel went back to Benjamin and put all the towns to the sword, including the animals and everything else they found. All the towns they came across they set on fire.

Judges 21:1 The men of Israel had taken an oath at Mizpah: “Not one of us will give his daughter in marriage to a Benjamite.”

Judges 21:2 The people went to Bethel, where they sat before God until evening, raising their voices and weeping bitterly.

Judges 21:3 “O LORD, the God of Israel,” they cried, “why has this happened to Israel? Why should one tribe be missing from Israel today?”

Judges 21:4 Early the next day the people built an altar and presented burnt offerings and fellowship offerings.

Judges 21:5 Then the Israelites asked, “Who from all the tribes of Israel has failed to assemble before the LORD?” For they had taken a solemn oath that anyone who failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah should certainly be put to death.

Judges 21:6 Now the Israelites grieved for their brothers, the Benjamites. “Today one tribe is cut off from Israel,” they said.

Judges 21:7 “How can we provide wives for those who are left, since we have taken an oath by the LORD not to give them any of our daughters in marriage?”

Judges 21:8 Then they asked, “Which one of the tribes of Israel failed to assemble before the LORD at Mizpah?” They discovered that no-one from Jabesh Gilead had come to the camp for the assembly.

Judges 21:9 For when they counted the people, they found that none of the people of Jabesh Gilead were there.

Judges 21:10 So the assembly sent twelve thousand fighting men with instructions to go to Jabesh Gilead and put to the sword those living there, including the women and children.

Judges 21:11 “This is what you are to do,” they said. “Kill every male and every woman who is not a virgin.”

Judges 21:12 They found among the people living in Jabesh Gilead four hundred young women who had never slept with a man, and they took them to the camp at Shiloh in Canaan.

Judges 21:13 Then the whole assembly sent an offer of peace to the Benjamites at the rock of Rimmon.

Judges 21:14 So the Benjamites returned at that time and were given the women of Jabesh Gilead who had been spared. But there were not enough for all of them.

Judges 21:15 The people grieved for Benjamin, because the LORD had made a gap in the tribes of Israel.

Judges 21:16 And the elders of the assembly said, “With the women of Benjamin destroyed, how shall we provide wives for the men who are left?

Judges 21:17 The Benjamite survivors must have heirs,” they said, “so that a tribe of Israel will not be wiped out.

Judges 21:18 We can’t give them our daughters as wives, since we Israelites have taken this oath:`Cursed be anyone who gives a wife to a Benjamite.’

Judges 21:19 But look, there is the annual festival of the LORD in Shiloh, to the north of Bethel, and east of the road that goes from Bethel to Shechem, and to the south of Lebonah.”

Judges 21:20 So they instructed the Benjamites, saying, “Go and hide in the vineyards

Judges 21:21 and watch. When the girls of Shiloh come out to join in the dancing, then rush from the vineyards and each of you seize a wife from the girls of Shiloh and go to the land of Benjamin.

Judges 21:22 When their fathers or brothers complain to us, we will say to them,`Do us a kindness by helping them, because we did not get wives for them during the war, and you are innocent, since you did not give your daughters to them.’“

Judges 21:23 So that is what the Benjamites did. While the girls were dancing, each man caught one and carried her off to be his wife. Then they returned to their inheritance and rebuilt the towns and settled in them.

Judges 21:24 At that time the Israelites left that place and went home to their tribes and clans, each to his own inheritance.

Judges 21:25 In those days Israel had no king; everyone did as he saw fit.

Ruth

1:1 In the days when the judges ruled, there was a famine in the land, and a man from Bethlehem in Judah, together with his wife and two sons, went to live for a while in the country of Moab.

Ruth 1:2 The man’s name was Elimelech, his wife’s name Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Kilion. They were Ephrathites from Bethlehem, Judah. And they went to Moab and lived there.

Ruth 1:3 Now Elimelech, Naomi’s husband, died, and she was left with her two sons.

Ruth 1:4 They married Moabite women, one named Orpah and the other Ruth. After they had lived there about ten years,

Ruth 1:5 both Mahlon and Kilion also died, and Naomi was left without her two sons and her husband.

Ruth 1:6 When she heard in Moab that the LORD had come to the aid of his people by providing food for them, Naomi and her daughters-in-law prepared to return home from there.

Ruth 1:7 With her two daughters-in-law she left the place where she had been living and set out on the road that would take them back to the land of Judah.

Ruth 1:8 Then Naomi said to her two daughters-in-law, “Go back, each of you, to your mother’s home. May the LORD show kindness to you, as you have shown to your dead and to me.

Ruth 1:9 May the LORD grant that each of you will find rest in the home of another husband.” Then she kissed them and they wept aloud

Ruth 1:10 and said to her, “We will go back with you to your people.”

Ruth 1:11 But Naomi said, “Return home, my daughters. Why would you come with me? Am I going to have any more sons, who could become your husbands?

Ruth 1:12 Return home, my daughters; I am too old to have another husband. Even if I thought there was still hope for me—even if I had a husband tonight and then gave birth to sons—

Ruth 1:13 would you wait until they grew up? Would you remain unmarried for them? No, my daughters. It is more bitter for me than for you, because the LORD’s hand has gone out against me!”

Ruth 1:14 At this they wept again. Then Orpah kissed her mother-in-law good-bye, but Ruth clung to her.

Ruth 1:15 “Look,” said Naomi, “your sister-in-law is going back to her people and her gods. Go back with her.”

Ruth 1:16 But Ruth replied, “Don’t urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.

Ruth 1:17 Where you die I will die, and there I will be buried. May the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if anything but death separates you and me.”

Ruth 1:18 When Naomi realised that Ruth was determined to go with her, she stopped urging her.

Ruth 1:19 So the two women went on until they came to Bethlehem. When they arrived in Bethlehem, the whole town was stirred because of them, and the women exclaimed, “Can this be Naomi?”

Ruth 1:20 “Don’t call me Naomi,” she told them. “Call me Mara, because the Almighty has made my life very bitter.

Ruth 1:21 I went away full, but the LORD has brought me back empty. Why call me Naomi? The LORD has afflicted me; the Almighty has brought misfortune upon me.”

Ruth 1:22 So Naomi returned from Moab accompanied by Ruth the Moabitess, her daughter-in-law, arriving in Bethlehem as the barley harvest was beginning.

Ruth 2:1 Now Naomi had a relative on her husband’s side, from the clan of Elimelech, a man of standing, whose name was Boaz.

Ruth 2:2 And Ruth the Moabitess said to Naomi, “Let me go to the fields and pick up the leftover grain behind anyone in whose eyes I find favour.” Naomi said to her, “Go ahead, my daughter.”

Ruth 2:3 So she went out and began to glean in the fields behind the harvesters. As it turned out, she found herself working in a field belonging to Boaz, who was from the clan of Elimelech.

Ruth 2:4 Just then Boaz arrived from Bethlehem and greeted the harvesters, “The LORD be with you!” “The LORD bless you!” they called back.

Ruth 2:5 Boaz asked the foreman of his harvesters, “Whose young woman is that?”

Ruth 2:6 The foreman replied, “She is the Moabitess who came back from Moab with Naomi.

Ruth 2:7 She said,`Please let me glean and gather among the sheaves behind the harvesters.’ She went into the field and has worked steadily from morning till now, except for a short rest in the shelter.”

Ruth 2:8 So Boaz said to Ruth, “My daughter, listen to me. Don’t go and glean in another field and don’t go away from here. Stay here with my servant girls.

Ruth 2:9 Watch the field where the men are harvesting, and follow along after the girls. I have told the men not to touch you. And whenever you are thirsty, go and get a drink from the water jars the men have filled.”

Ruth 2:10 At this, she bowed down with her face to the ground. She exclaimed, “Why have I found such favour in your eyes that you notice me—a foreigner?”

Ruth 2:11 Boaz replied, “I’ve been told all about what you have done for your mother-in-law since the death of your husband—how you left your father and mother and your homeland and came to live with a people you did not know before.

Ruth 2:12 May the LORD repay you for what you have done. May you be richly rewarded by the LORD, the God of Israel, under whose wings you have come to take refuge.”

Ruth 2:13 “May I continue to find favour in your eyes, my lord,” she said. “You have given me comfort and have spoken kindly to your servant—though I do not have the standing of one of your servant girls.”

Ruth 2:14 At mealtime Boaz said to her, “Come over here. Have some bread and dip it in the wine vinegar.” When she sat down with the harvesters, he offered her some roasted grain. She ate all she wanted and had some left over.

Ruth 2:15 As she got up to glean, Boaz gave orders to his men, “Even if she gathers among the sheaves, don’t embarrass her.

Ruth 2:16 Rather, pull out some stalks for her from the bundles and leave them for her to pick up, and don’t rebuke her.”

Ruth 2:17 So Ruth gleaned in the field until evening. Then she threshed the barley she had gathered, and it amounted to about an ephah.

Ruth 2:18 She carried it back to town, and her mother-in-law saw how much she had gathered. Ruth also brought out and gave her what she had left over after she had eaten enough.

Ruth 2:19 Her mother-in-law asked her, “Where did you glean today? Where did you work? Blessed be the man who took notice of you!” Then Ruth told her mother-in-law about the one at whose place she had been working. “The name of the man I worked with today is Boaz,” she said.

Ruth 2:20 “The LORD bless him!” Naomi said to her daughter-in-law. “He has not stopped showing his kindness to the living and the dead.” She added, “That man is our close relative; he is one of our kinsman-redeemers.”

Ruth 2:21 Then Ruth the Moabitess said, “He even said to me,`Stay with my workers until they finish harvesting all my grain.’“

Ruth 2:22 Naomi said to Ruth her daughter-in-law, “It will be good for you, my daughter, to go with his girls, because in someone else’s field you might be harmed.”

Ruth 2:23 So Ruth stayed close to the servant girls of Boaz to glean until the barley and wheat harvests were finished. And she lived with her mother-in-law.

Ruth 3:1 One day Naomi her mother-in-law said to her, “My daughter, should I not try to find a home for you, where you will be well provided for?

Ruth 3:2 Is not Boaz, with whose servant girls you have been, a kinsman of ours? Tonight he will be winnowing barley on the threshing-floor.

Ruth 3:3 Wash and perfume yourself, and put on your best clothes. Then go down to the threshing-floor, but don’t let him know you are there until he has finished eating and drinking.

Ruth 3:4 When he lies down, note the place where he is lying. Then go and uncover his feet and lie down. He will tell you what to do.”

Ruth 3:5 “I will do whatever you say,” Ruth answered.

Ruth 3:6 So she went down to the threshing-floor and did everything her mother-in-law told her to do.

Ruth 3:7 When Boaz had finished eating and drinking and was in good spirits, he went over to lie down at the far end of the grain pile. Ruth approached quietly, uncovered his feet and lay down.

Ruth 3:8 In the middle of the night something startled the man, and he turned and discovered a woman lying at his feet.

Ruth 3:9 “Who are you?” he asked. “I am your servant Ruth,” she said. “Spread the corner of your garment over me, since you are a kinsman-redeemer.”

Ruth 3:10 “The LORD bless you, my daughter,” he replied. “This kindness is greater than that which you showed earlier: You have not run after the younger men, whether rich or poor.

Ruth 3:11 And now, my daughter, don’t be afraid. I will do for you all you ask. All my fellow townsmen know that you are a woman of noble character.

Ruth 3:12 Although it is true that I am near of kin, there is a kinsman-redeemer nearer than I.

Ruth 3:13 Stay here for the night, and in the morning if he wants to redeem, good; let him redeem. But if he is not willing, as surely as the LORD lives I will do it. Lie here until morning.”

Ruth 3:14 So she lay at his feet until morning, but got up before anyone could be recognised; and he said, “Don’t let it be known that a woman came to the threshing-floor.”

Ruth 3:15 He also said, “Bring me the shawl you are wearing and hold it out.” When she did so, he poured into it six measures of barley and put it on her. Then he went back to town.

Ruth 3:16 When Ruth came to her mother-in-law, Naomi asked, “How did it go, my daughter?” Then she told her everything Boaz had done for her

Ruth 3:17 and added, “He gave me these six measures of barley, saying,`Don’t go back to your mother-in-law empty-handed.’“

Ruth 3:18 Then Naomi said, “Wait, my daughter, until you find out what happens. For the man will not rest until the matter is settled today.”

Ruth 4:1 Meanwhile Boaz went up to the town gate and sat there. When the kinsman-redeemer he had mentioned came along, Boaz said, “Come over here, my friend, and sit down.” So he went over and sat down.

Ruth 4:2 Boaz took ten of the elders of the town and said, “Sit here,” and they did so.

Ruth 4:3 Then he said to the kinsman-redeemer, “Naomi, who has come back from Moab, is selling the piece of land that belonged to our brother Elimelech.

Ruth 4:4 I thought I should bring the matter to your attention and suggest that you buy it in the presence of these seated here and in the presence of the elders of my people. If you will redeem it, do so. But if you will not, tell me, so I will know. For no-one has the right to do it except you, and I am next in line.” “I will redeem it,” he said.

Ruth 4:5 Then Boaz said, “On the day you buy the land from Naomi and from Ruth the Moabitess, you acquire the dead man’s widow, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property.”

Ruth 4:6 At this, the kinsman-redeemer said, “Then I cannot redeem it because I might endanger my own estate. You redeem it yourself. I cannot do it.”

Ruth 4:7 (Now in earlier times in Israel, for the redemption and transfer of property to become final, one party took off his sandal and gave it to the other. This was the method of legalising transactions in Israel.)

Ruth 4:8 So the kinsman-redeemer said to Boaz, “Buy it yourself.” And he removed his sandal.

Ruth 4:9 Then Boaz announced to the elders and all the people, “Today you are witnesses that I have bought from Naomi all the property of Elimelech, Kilion and Mahlon.

Ruth 4:10 I have also acquired Ruth the Moabitess, Mahlon’s widow, as my wife, in order to maintain the name of the dead with his property, so that his name will not disappear from among his family or from the town records. Today you are witnesses!”

Ruth 4:11 Then the elders and all those at the gate said, “We are witnesses. May the LORD make the woman who is coming into your home like Rachel and Leah, who together built up the house of Israel. May you have standing in Ephrathah and be famous in Bethlehem.

Ruth 4:12 Through the offspring the LORD gives you by this young woman, may your family be like that of Perez, whom Tamar bore to Judah.”

Ruth 4:13 So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife. Then he went to her, and the LORD enabled her to conceive, and she gave birth to a son.

Ruth 4:14 The women said to Naomi: “Praise be to the LORD, who this day has not left you without a kinsman-redeemer. May he become famous throughout Israel!

Ruth 4:15 He will renew your life and sustain you in your old age. For your daughter-in-law, who loves you and who is better to you than seven sons, has given him birth.”

Ruth 4:16 Then Naomi took the child, laid him in her lap and cared for him.

Ruth 4:17 The women living there said, “Naomi has a son.” And they named him Obed. He was the father of Jesse, the father of David.

Ruth 4:18 This, then, is the family line of Perez: Perez was the father of Hezron,

Ruth 4:19 Hezron the father of Ram, Ram the father of Amminadab, Ruth 4:20 Amminadab the father of Nahshon, Nahshon the father of Salmon,

Ruth 4:21 Salmon the father of Boaz, Boaz the father of Obed,

Ruth 4:22 Obed the father of Jesse, and Jesse the father of David.

1 Samuel

1:1 There was a certain man from Ramathaim, a Zuphite from the hill country of Ephraim, whose name was Elkanah son of Jeroham, the son of Elihu, the son of Tohu, the son of Zuph, an Ephraimite.

1 Samuel 1:2 He had two wives; one was called Hannah and the other Peninnah. Peninnah had children, but Hannah had none.

1 Samuel 1:3 Year after year this man went up from his town to worship and sacrifice to the LORD Almighty at Shiloh, where Hophni and Phinehas, the two sons of Eli, were priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:4 Whenever the day came for Elkanah to sacrifice, he would give portions of the meat to his wife Peninnah and to all her sons and daughters.

1 Samuel 1:5 But to Hannah he gave a double portion because he loved her, and the LORD had closed her womb.

1 Samuel 1:6 And because the LORD had closed her womb, her rival kept provoking her in order to irritate her.

1 Samuel 1:7 This went on year after year. Whenever Hannah went up to the house of the LORD, her rival provoked her till she wept and would not eat.

1 Samuel 1:8 Elkanah her husband would say to her, “Hannah, why are you weeping? Why don’t you eat? Why are you downhearted? Don’t I mean more to you than ten sons?”

1 Samuel 1:9 Once when they had finished eating and drinking in Shiloh, Hannah stood up. Now Eli the priest was sitting on a chair by the doorpost of the LORD’s temple.

1 Samuel 1:10 In bitterness of soul Hannah wept much and prayed to the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:11 And she made a vow, saying, “O LORD Almighty, if you will only look upon your servant’s misery and remember me, and not forget your servant but give her a son, then I will give him to the LORD for all the days of his life, and no razor will ever be used on his head.”

1 Samuel 1:12 As she kept on praying to the LORD, Eli observed her mouth.

1 Samuel 1:13 Hannah was praying in her heart, and her lips were moving but her voice was not heard. Eli thought she was drunk

1 Samuel 1:14 and said to her, “How long will you keep on getting drunk? Get rid of your wine.”

1 Samuel 1:15 “Not so, my lord,” Hannah replied, “I am a woman who is deeply troubled. I have not been drinking wine or beer; I was pouring out my soul to the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:16 Do not take your servant for a wicked woman; I have been praying here out of my great anguish and grief.”

1 Samuel 1:17 Eli answered, “Go in peace, and may the God of Israel grant you what you have asked of him.”

1 Samuel 1:18 She said, “May your servant find favour in your eyes.” Then she went her way and ate something, and her face was no longer downcast.

1 Samuel 1:19 Early the next morning they arose and worshipped before the LORD and then went back to their home at Ramah. Elkanah lay with Hannah his wife, and the LORD remembered her.

1 Samuel 1:20 So in the course of time Hannah conceived and gave birth to a son. She named him Samuel, saying, “Because I asked the LORD for him.”

1 Samuel 1:21 When the man Elkanah went up with all his family to offer the annual sacrifice to the LORD and to fulfil his vow,

1 Samuel 1:22 Hannah did not go. She said to her husband, “After the boy is weaned, I will take him and present him before the LORD, and he will live there always.”

1 Samuel 1:23 “Do what seems best to you,” Elkanah her husband told her. “Stay here until you have weaned him; only may the LORD make good his word.” So the woman stayed at home and nursed her son until she had weaned him.

1 Samuel 1:24 After he was weaned, she took the boy with her, young as he was, along with a three-year-old bull, an ephah of flour and a skin of wine, and brought him to the house of the LORD at Shiloh.

1 Samuel 1:25 When they had slaughtered the bull, they brought the boy to Eli,

1 Samuel 1:26 and she said to him, “As surely as you live, my lord, I am the woman who stood here beside you praying to the LORD.

1 Samuel 1:27 I prayed for this child, and the LORD has granted me what I asked of him.

1 Samuel 1:28 So now I give him to the LORD. For his whole life he shall be given over to the LORD.” And he worshipped the LORD there.

1 Samuel 2:1 Then Hannah prayed and said: “My heart rejoices in the LORD; in the LORD my horn is lifted high. My mouth boasts over my enemies, for I delight in your deliverance.

1 Samuel 2:2 “There is no-one holy like the LORD; there is no-one besides you; there is no Rock like our God.

1 Samuel 2:3 “Do not keep talking so proudly or let your mouth speak such arrogance, for the LORD is a God who knows, and by him deeds are weighed.

1 Samuel 2:4 “The bows of the warriors are broken, but those who stumbled are armed with strength.

1 Samuel 2:5 Those who were full hire themselves out for food, but those who were hungry hunger no more. She who was barren has borne seven children, but she who has had many sons pines away.

1 Samuel 2:6 “The LORD brings death and makes alive; he brings down to the grave and raises up.

1 Samuel 2:7 The LORD sends poverty and wealth; he humbles and he exalts.

1 Samuel 2:8 He raises the poor from the dust and lifts the needy from the ash heap; he seats them with princes and has them inherit a throne of honour. “For the foundations of the earth are the LORD’s; upon them he has set the world.

1 Samuel 2:9 He will guard the feet of his saints, but the wicked will be silenced in darkness. “It is not by strength that one prevails;

1 Samuel 2:10 those who oppose the LORD will be shattered. He will thunder against them from heaven; the LORD will judge the ends of the earth. “He will give strength to his king and exalt the horn of his anointed.”

1 Samuel 2:11 Then Elkanah went home to Ramah, but the boy ministered before the LORD under Eli the priest.

1 Samuel 2:12 Eli’s sons were wicked men; they had no regard for the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:13 Now it was the practice of the priests with the people that whenever anyone offered a sacrifice and while the meat was being boiled, the servant of the priest would come with a three-pronged fork in his hand.

1 Samuel 2:14 He would plunge it into the pan or kettle or cauldron or pot, and the priest would take for himself whatever the fork brought up. This is how they treated all the Israelites who came to Shiloh.

1 Samuel 2:15 But even before the fat was burned, the servant of the priest would come and say to the man who was sacrificing, “Give the priest some meat to roast; he won’t accept boiled meat from you, but only raw.”

1 Samuel 2:16 If the man said to him, “Let the fat be burned up first, and then take whatever you want,” the servant would then answer, “No, hand it over now; if you don’t, I’ll take it by force.”

1 Samuel 2:17 This sin of the young men was very great in the LORD’s sight, for they were treating the LORD’s offering with contempt.

1 Samuel 2:18 But Samuel was ministering before the LORD—a boy wearing a linen ephod.

1 Samuel 2:19 Each year his mother made him a little robe and took it to him when she went up with her husband to offer the annual sacrifice.

1 Samuel 2:20 Eli would bless Elkanah and his wife, saying, “May the LORD give you children by this woman to take the place of the one she prayed for and gave to the LORD.” Then they would go home.

1 Samuel 2:21 And the LORD was gracious to Hannah; she conceived and gave birth to three sons and two daughters. Meanwhile, the boy Samuel grew up in the presence of the LORD.

1 Samuel 2:22 Now Eli, who was very old, heard about everything his sons were doing to all Israel and how they slept with the women who served at the entrance to the Tent of Meeting.

1 Samuel 2:23 So he said to them, “Why do you do such things? I hear from all the people about these wicked deeds of yours.

1 Samuel 2:24 No, my sons; it is not a good report that I hear spreading among the LORD’s people.

1 Samuel 2:25 If a man sins against another man, God may mediate for him; but if a man sins against the LORD, who will intercede for him?” His sons, however, did not listen to their father’s rebuke, for it was the LORD’s will to put them to death.

1 Samuel 2:26 And the boy Samuel continued to grow in stature and in favour with the LORD and with men.

1 Samuel 2:27 Now a man of God came to Eli and said to him, “This is what the LORD says:`Did I not clearly reveal myself to your father’s house when they were in Egypt under Pharaoh?

1 Samuel 2:28 I chose your father out of all the tribes of Israel to be my priest, to go up to my altar, to burn incense, and to wear an ephod in my presence. I also gave your father’s house all the offerings made with fire by the Israelites.

1 Samuel 2:29 Why do you scorn my sacrifice and offering that I prescribed for my dwelling? Why do you honour your sons more than me by fattening yourselves on the choice parts of every offering made by my people Israel?’

1 Samuel 2:30 “Therefore the LORD, the God of Israel, declares:`I promised that your house and your father’s house would minister before me for ever.’ But now the LORD declares:`Far be it from me! Those who honour me I will honour, but those who despise me will be disdained.

1 Samuel 2:31 The time is coming when I will cut short your strength and the strength of your father’s house, so that there will not be an old man in your family line

1 Samuel 2:32 and you will see distress in my dwelling. Although good will be done to Israel, in your family line there will never be an old man.

1 Samuel 2:33 Every one of you that I do not cut off from my altar will be spared only to blind your eyes with tears and to grieve your heart, and all your descendants will die in the prime of life.

1 Samuel 2:34 "`And what happens to your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, will be a sign to you—they will both die on the same day.

1 Samuel 2:35 I will raise up for myself a faithful priest, who will do according to what is in my heart and mind. I will firmly establish his house, and he will minister before my anointed one always.

1 Samuel 2:36 Then everyone left in your family line will come and bow down before him for a piece of silver and a crust of bread and plead, "Appoint me to some priestly office so that I can have food to eat."'"

1 Samuel 3:1 The boy Samuel ministered before the LORD under Eli. In those days the word of the LORD was rare; there were not many visions.

1 Samuel 3:2 One night Eli, whose eyes were becoming so weak that he could barely see, was lying down in his usual place.

1 Samuel 3:3 The lamp of God had not yet gone out, and Samuel was lying down in the temple of the LORD, where the ark of God was.

1 Samuel 3:4 Then the LORD called Samuel. Samuel answered, "Here I am."

1 Samuel 3:5 And he ran to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." But Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down." So he went and lay down.

1 Samuel 3:6 Again the LORD called, "Samuel!" And Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." "My son," Eli said, "I did not call; go back and lie down."

1 Samuel 3:7 Now Samuel did not yet know the LORD: The word of the LORD had not yet been revealed to him.

1 Samuel 3:8 The LORD called Samuel a third time, and Samuel got up and went to Eli and said, "Here I am; you called me." Then Eli realised that the LORD was calling the boy.

1 Samuel 3:9 So Eli told Samuel, "Go and lie down, and if he calls you, say,`Speak, LORD, for your servant is listening.'" So Samuel went and lay down in his place.

1 Samuel 3:10 The LORD came and stood there, calling as at the other times, "Samuel! Samuel!" Then Samuel said, "Speak, for your servant is listening."

1 Samuel 3:11 And the LORD said to Samuel: “See, I am about to do something in Israel that will make the ears of everyone who hears of it tingle.

1 Samuel 3:12 At that time I will carry out against Eli everything I spoke against his family—from beginning to end.

1 Samuel 3:13 For I told him that I would judge his family for ever because of the sin he knew about; his sons made themselves contemptible, and he failed to restrain them.

1 Samuel 3:14 Therefore, I swore to the house of Eli,`The guilt of Eli’s house will never be atoned for by sacrifice or offering.’“

1 Samuel 3:15 Samuel lay down until morning and then opened the doors of the house of the LORD. He was afraid to tell Eli the vision,

1 Samuel 3:16 but Eli called him and said, “Samuel, my son.” Samuel answered, “Here I am.”

1 Samuel 3:17 “What was it he said to you?” Eli asked. “Do not hide it from me. May God deal with you, be it ever so severely, if you hide from me anything he told you.”

1 Samuel 3:18 So Samuel told him everything, hiding nothing from him. Then Eli said, “He is the LORD; let him do what is good in his eyes.”

1 Samuel 3:19 The LORD was with Samuel as he grew up, and he let none of his words fall to the ground.

1 Samuel 3:20 And all Israel from Dan to Beersheba recognised that Samuel was attested as a prophet of the LORD.

1 Samuel 3:21 The LORD continued to appear at Shiloh, and there he revealed himself to Samuel through his word.

1 Samuel 4:1 And Samuel’s word came to all Israel. Now the Israelites went out to fight against the Philistines. The Israelites camped at Ebenezer, and the Philistines at Aphek.

1 Samuel 4:2 The Philistines deployed their forces to meet Israel, and as the battle spread, Israel was defeated by the Philistines, who killed about four thousand of them on the battlefield.

1 Samuel 4:3 When the soldiers returned to camp, the elders of Israel asked, “Why did the LORD bring defeat upon us today before the Philistines? Let us bring the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Shiloh, so that it may go with us and save us from the hand of our enemies.”

1 Samuel 4:4 So the people sent men to Shiloh, and they brought back the ark of the covenant of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim. And Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, were there with the ark of the covenant of God.

1 Samuel 4:5 When the ark of the LORD’s covenant came into the camp, all Israel raised such a great shout that the ground shook.

1 Samuel 4:6 Hearing the uproar, the Philistines asked, “What’s all this shouting in the Hebrew camp?” When they learned that the ark of the LORD had come into the camp,

1 Samuel 4:7 the Philistines were afraid. “A god has come into the camp,” they said. “We’re in trouble! Nothing like this has happened before.

1 Samuel 4:8 Woe to us! Who will deliver us from the hand of these mighty gods? They are the gods who struck the Egyptians with all kinds of plagues in the desert.

1 Samuel 4:9 Be strong, Philistines! Be men, or you will be subject to the Hebrews, as they have been to you. Be men, and fight!”

1 Samuel 4:10 So the Philistines fought, and the Israelites were defeated and every man fled to his tent. The slaughter was very great; Israel lost thirty thousand foot soldiers.

1 Samuel 4:11 The ark of God was captured, and Eli’s two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, died.

1 Samuel 4:12 That same day a Benjamite ran from the battle line and went to Shiloh, his clothes torn and dust on his head.

1 Samuel 4:13 When he arrived, there was Eli sitting on his chair by the side of the road, watching, because his heart feared for the ark of God. When the man entered the town and told what had happened, the whole town sent up a cry.

1 Samuel 4:14 Eli heard the outcry and asked, “What is the meaning of this uproar?” The man hurried over to Eli,

1 Samuel 4:15 who was ninety-eight years old and whose eyes were set so that he could not see.

1 Samuel 4:16 He told Eli, “I have just come from the battle line; I fled from it this very day.” Eli asked, “What happened, my son?”

1 Samuel 4:17 The man who brought the news replied, “Israel fled before the Philistines, and the army has suffered heavy losses. Also your two sons, Hophni and Phinehas, are dead, and the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 4:18 When he mentioned the ark of God, Eli fell backwards off his chair by the side of the gate. His neck was broken and he died, for he was an old man and heavy. He had led Israel for forty years.

1 Samuel 4:19 His daughter-in-law, the wife of Phinehas, was pregnant and near the time of delivery. When she heard the news that the ark of God had been captured and that her father-in-law and her husband were dead, she went into labour and gave birth, but was overcome by her labour pains.

1 Samuel 4:20 As she was dying, the women attending her said, “Don’t despair; you have given birth to a son.” But she did not respond or pay any attention.

1 Samuel 4:21 She named the boy Ichabod, saying, “The glory has departed from Israel”—because of the capture of the ark of God and the deaths of her father-in-law and her husband.

1 Samuel 4:22 She said, “The glory has departed from Israel, for the ark of God has been captured.”

1 Samuel 5:1 After the Philistines had captured the ark of God, they took it from Ebenezer to Ashdod.

1 Samuel 5:2 Then they carried the ark into Dagon’s temple and set it beside Dagon.

1 Samuel 5:3 When the people of Ashdod rose early the next day, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! They took Dagon and put him back in his place.

1 Samuel 5:4 But the following morning when they rose, there was Dagon, fallen on his face on the ground before the ark of the LORD! His head and hands had been broken off and were lying on the threshold; only his body remained.

1 Samuel 5:5 That is why to this day neither the priests of Dagon nor any others who enter Dagon’s temple at Ashdod step on the threshold.

1 Samuel 5:6 The LORD’s hand was heavy upon the people of Ashdod and its vicinity; he brought devastation upon them and afflicted them with tumours.

1 Samuel 5:7 When the men of Ashdod saw what was happening, they said, “The ark of the god of Israel must not stay here with us, because his hand is heavy upon us and upon Dagon our god.”

1 Samuel 5:8 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and asked them, “What shall we do with the ark of the god of Israel?” They answered, “Have the ark of the god of Israel moved to Gath.” So they moved the ark of the God of Israel.

1 Samuel 5:9 But after they had moved it, the LORD’s hand was against that city, throwing it into a great panic. He afflicted the people of the city, both young and old, with an outbreak of tumours.

1 Samuel 5:10 So they sent the ark of God to Ekron. As the ark of God was entering Ekron, the people of Ekron cried out, “They have brought the ark of the god of Israel round to us to kill us and our people.”

1 Samuel 5:11 So they called together all the rulers of the Philistines and said, “Send the ark of the god of Israel away; let it go back to its own place, or it will kill us and our people.” For death had filled the city with panic; God’s hand was very heavy upon it.

1 Samuel 5:12 Those who did not die were afflicted with tumours, and the outcry of the city went up to heaven.

1 Samuel 6:1 When the ark of the LORD had been in Philistine territory for seven months,

1 Samuel 6:2 the Philistines called for the priests and the diviners and said, “What shall we do with the ark of the LORD? Tell us how we should send it back to its place.”

1 Samuel 6:3 They answered, “If you return the ark of the god of Israel, do not send it away empty, but by all means send a guilt offering to him. Then you will be healed, and you will know why his hand has not been lifted from you.”

1 Samuel 6:4 The Philistines asked, “What guilt offering should we send to him?” They replied, “Five gold tumours and five gold rats, according to the number of the Philistine rulers, because the same plague has struck both you and your rulers.

1 Samuel 6:5 Make models of the tumours and of the rats that are destroying the country, and pay honour to Israel’s god. Perhaps he will lift his hand from you and your gods and your land.

1 Samuel 6:6 Why do you harden your hearts as the Egyptians and Pharaoh did? When he treated them harshly, did they not send the Israelites out so that they could go on their way?

1 Samuel 6:7 “Now then, get a new cart ready, with two cows that have calved and have never been yoked. Hitch the cows to the cart, but take their calves away and pen them up.

1 Samuel 6:8 Take the ark of the LORD and put it on the cart, and in a chest beside it put the gold objects you are sending back to him as a guilt offering. Send it on its way,

1 Samuel 6:9 but keep watching it. If it goes up to its own territory, towards Beth Shemesh, then the LORD has brought this great disaster on us. But if it does not, then we shall know that it was not his hand that struck us and that it happened to us by chance.”

1 Samuel 6:10 So they did this. They took two such cows and hitched them to the cart and penned up their calves.

1 Samuel 6:11 They placed the ark of the LORD on the cart and along with it the chest containing the gold rats and the models of the tumours.

1 Samuel 6:12 Then the cows went straight up towards Beth Shemesh, keeping on the road and lowing all the way; they did not turn to the right or to the left. The rulers of the Philistines followed them as far as the border of Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:13 Now the people of Beth Shemesh were harvesting their wheat in the valley, and when they looked up and saw the ark, they rejoiced at the sight.

1 Samuel 6:14 The cart came to the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh, and there it stopped beside a large rock. The people chopped up the wood of the cart and sacrificed the cows as a burnt offering to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:15 The Levites took down the ark of the LORD, together with the chest containing the gold objects, and placed them on the large rock. On that day the people of Beth Shemesh offered burnt offerings and made sacrifices to the LORD.

1 Samuel 6:16 The five rulers of the Philistines saw all this and then returned that same day to Ekron.

1 Samuel 6:17 These are the gold tumours the Philistines sent as a guilt offering to the LORD—one each for Ashdod, Gaza, Ashkelon, Gath and Ekron.

1 Samuel 6:18 And the number of the gold rats was according to the number of Philistine towns belonging to the five rulers—the fortified towns with their country villages. The large rock, on which they set the ark of the LORD, is a witness to this day in the field of Joshua of Beth Shemesh.

1 Samuel 6:19 But God struck down some of the men of Beth Shemesh, putting seventy of them to death because they had looked into the ark of the LORD. The people mourned because of the heavy blow the LORD had dealt them,

1 Samuel 6:20 and the men of Beth Shemesh asked, “Who can stand in the presence of the LORD, this holy God? To whom will the ark go up from here?”

1 Samuel 6:21 Then they sent messengers to the people of Kiriath Jearim, saying, “The Philistines have returned the ark of the LORD. Come down and take it up to your place.”

1 Samuel 7:1 So the men of Kiriath Jearim came and took up the ark of the LORD. They took it to Abinadab’s house on the hill and consecrated Eleazar his son to guard the ark of the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:2 It was a long time, twenty years in all, that the ark remained at Kiriath Jearim, and all the people of Israel mourned and sought after the LORD.

1 Samuel 7:3 And Samuel said to the whole house of Israel, “If you are returning to the LORD with all your hearts, then rid yourselves of the foreign gods and the Ashtoreths and commit yourselves to the LORD and serve him only, and he will deliver you out of the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:4 So the Israelites put away their Baals and Ashtoreths, and served the LORD only.

1 Samuel 7:5 Then Samuel said, “Assemble all Israel at Mizpah and I will intercede with the LORD for you.”

1 Samuel 7:6 When they had assembled at Mizpah, they drew water and poured it out before the LORD. On that day they fasted and there they confessed, “We have sinned against the LORD.” And Samuel was leader of Israel at Mizpah.

1 Samuel 7:7 When the Philistines heard that Israel had assembled at Mizpah, the rulers of the Philistines came up to attack them. And when the Israelites heard of it, they were afraid because of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 7:8 They said to Samuel, “Do not stop crying out to the LORD our God for us, that he may rescue us from the hand of the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 7:9 Then Samuel took a suckling lamb and offered it up as a whole burnt offering to the LORD. He cried out to the LORD on Israel’s behalf, and the LORD answered him.

1 Samuel 7:10 While Samuel was sacrificing the burnt offering, the Philistines drew near to engage Israel in battle. But that day the LORD thundered with loud thunder against the Philistines and threw them into such a panic that they were routed before the Israelites.

1 Samuel 7:11 The men of Israel rushed out of Mizpah and pursued the Philistines, slaughtering them along the way to a point below Beth Car.

1 Samuel 7:12 Then Samuel took a stone and set it up between Mizpah and Shen. He named it Ebenezer, saying, “Thus far has the LORD helped us.”

1 Samuel 7:13 So the Philistines were subdued and did not invade Israelite territory again. Throughout Samuel’s lifetime, the hand of the LORD was against the Philistines.

1 Samuel 7:14 The towns from Ekron to Gath that the Philistines had captured from Israel were restored to her, and Israel delivered the neighbouring territory from the power of the Philistines. And there was peace between Israel and the Amorites.

1 Samuel 7:15 Samuel continued as judge over Israel all the days of his life.

1 Samuel 7:16 From year to year he went on a circuit from Bethel to Gilgal to Mizpah, judging Israel in all those places.

1 Samuel 7:17 But he always went back to Ramah, where his home was, and there he also judged Israel. And he built an altar there to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:1 When Samuel grew old, he appointed his sons as judges for Israel.

1 Samuel 8:2 The name of his firstborn was Joel and the name of his second was Abijah, and they served at Beersheba.

1 Samuel 8:3 But his sons did not walk in his ways. They turned aside after dishonest gain and accepted bribes and perverted justice.

1 Samuel 8:4 So all the elders of Israel gathered together and came to Samuel at Ramah.

1 Samuel 8:5 They said to him, “You are old, and your sons do not walk in your ways; now appoint a king to lead us, such as all the other nations have.”

1 Samuel 8:6 But when they said, “Give us a king to lead us,” this displeased Samuel; so he prayed to the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:7 And the LORD told him: “Listen to all that the people are saying to you; it is not you they have rejected, but they have rejected me as their king.

1 Samuel 8:8 As they have done from the day I brought them up out of Egypt until this day, forsaking me and serving other gods, so they are doing to you.

1 Samuel 8:9 Now listen to them; but warn them solemnly and let them know what the king who will reign over them will do.”

1 Samuel 8:10 Samuel told all the words of the LORD to the people who were asking him for a king.

1 Samuel 8:11 He said, “This is what the king who will reign over you will do: He will take your sons and make them serve with his chariots and horses, and they will run in front of his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:12 Some he will assign to be commanders of thousands and commanders of fifties, and others to plough his ground and reap his harvest, and still others to make weapons of war and equipment for his chariots.

1 Samuel 8:13 He will take your daughters to be perfumers and cooks and bakers.

1 Samuel 8:14 He will take the best of your fields and vineyards and olive groves and give them to his attendants.

1 Samuel 8:15 He will take a tenth of your grain and of your vintage and give it to his officials and attendants.

1 Samuel 8:16 Your menservants and maidservants and the best of your cattle and donkeys he will take for his own use.

1 Samuel 8:17 He will take a tenth of your flocks, and you yourselves will become his slaves.

1 Samuel 8:18 When that day comes, you will cry out for relief from the king you have chosen, and the LORD will not answer you in that day.”

1 Samuel 8:19 But the people refused to listen to Samuel. “No!” they said. “We want a king over us.

1 Samuel 8:20 Then we shall be like all the other nations, with a king to lead us and to go out before us and fight our battles.”

1 Samuel 8:21 When Samuel heard all that the people said, he repeated it before the LORD.

1 Samuel 8:22 The LORD answered, “Listen to them and give them a king.” Then Samuel said to the men of Israel, “Everyone is to go back to his town.”

1 Samuel 9:1 There was a Benjamite, a man of standing, whose name was Kish son of Abiel, the son of Zeror, the son of Becorath, the son of Aphiah of Benjamin.

1 Samuel 9:2 He had a son named Saul, an impressive young man without equal among the Israelites—a head taller than any of the others.

1 Samuel 9:3 Now the donkeys belonging to Saul’s father Kish were lost, and Kish said to his son Saul, “Take one of the servants with you and go and look for the donkeys.”

1 Samuel 9:4 So he passed through the hill country of Ephraim and through the area around Shalisha, but they did not find them. They went on into the district of Shaalim, but the donkeys were not there. Then he passed through the territory of Benjamin, but they did not find them.

1 Samuel 9:5 When they reached the district of Zuph, Saul said to the servant who was with him, “Come, let’s go back, or my father will stop thinking about the donkeys and start worrying about us.”

1 Samuel 9:6 But the servant replied, “Look, in this town there is a man of God; he is highly respected, and everything he says comes true. Let’s go there now. Perhaps he will tell us what way to take.”

1 Samuel 9:7 Saul said to his servant, “If we go, what can we give the man? The food in our sacks is gone. We have no gift to take to the man of God. What do we have?”

1 Samuel 9:8 The servant answered him again. “Look,” he said, “I have a quarter of a shekel of silver. I will give it to the man of God so that he will tell us what way to take.”

1 Samuel 9:9 (Formerly in Israel, if a man went to enquire of God, he would say, “Come, let us go to the seer,” because the prophet of today used to be called a seer.)

1 Samuel 9:10 “Good,” Saul said to his servant. “Come, let’s go.” So they set out for the town where the man of God was.

1 Samuel 9:11 As they were going up the hill to the town, they met some girls coming out to draw water, and they asked them, “Is the seer here?”

1 Samuel 9:12 “He is,” they answered. “He’s ahead of you. Hurry now; he has just come to our town today, for the people have a sacrifice at the high place.

1 Samuel 9:13 As soon as you enter the town, you will find him before he goes up to the high place to eat. The people will not begin eating until he comes, because he must bless the sacrifice; afterwards, those who are invited will eat. Go up now; you should find him about this time.”

1 Samuel 9:14 They went up to the town, and as they were entering it, there was Samuel, coming towards them on his way up to the high place.

1 Samuel 9:15 Now the day before Saul came, the LORD had revealed this to Samuel:

1 Samuel 9:16 “About this time tomorrow I will send you a man from the land of Benjamin. Anoint him leader over my people Israel; he will deliver my people from the hand of the Philistines. I have looked upon my people, for their cry has reached me.”

1 Samuel 9:17 When Samuel caught sight of Saul, the LORD said to him, “This is the man I spoke to you about; he will govern my people.”

1 Samuel 9:18 Saul approached Samuel in the gateway and asked, “Would you please tell me where the seer’s house is?”

1 Samuel 9:19 “I am the seer,” Samuel replied. “Go up ahead of me to the high place, for today you are to eat with me, and in the morning I will let you go and will tell you all that is in your heart.

1 Samuel 9:20 As for the donkeys you lost three days ago, do not worry about them; they have been found. And to whom is all the desire of Israel turned, if not to you and all your father’s family?”

1 Samuel 9:21 Saul answered, “But am I not a Benjamite, from the smallest tribe of Israel, and is not my clan the least of all the clans of the tribe of Benjamin? Why do you say such a thing to me?”

1 Samuel 9:22 Then Samuel brought Saul and his servant into the hall and seated them at the head of those who were invited—about thirty in number.

1 Samuel 9:23 Samuel said to the cook, “Bring the piece of meat I gave you, the one I told you to lay aside.”

1 Samuel 9:24 So the cook took up the leg with what was on it and set it in front of Saul. Samuel said, “Here is what has been kept for you. Eat, because it was set aside for you for this occasion, from the time I said,`I have invited guests.’“ And Saul dined with Samuel that day.

1 Samuel 9:25 After they came down from the high place to the town, Samuel talked with Saul on the roof of his house.

1 Samuel 9:26 They rose about daybreak and Samuel called to Saul on the roof, “Get ready, and I will send you on your way.” When Saul got ready, he and Samuel went outside together.

1 Samuel 9:27 As they were going down to the edge of the town, Samuel said to Saul, “Tell the servant to go on ahead of us”—and the servant did so—”but you stay here awhile, so that I may give you a message from God.”

1 Samuel 10:1 Then Samuel took a flask of oil and poured it on Saul’s head and kissed him, saying, “Has not the LORD anointed you leader over his inheritance?

1 Samuel 10:2 When you leave me today, you will meet two men near Rachel’s tomb, at Zelzah on the border of Benjamin. They will say to you,`The donkeys you set out to look for have been found. And now your father has stopped thinking about them and is worried about you. He is asking, “What shall I do about my son?”‘

1 Samuel 10:3 “Then you will go on from there until you reach the great tree of Tabor. Three men going up to God at Bethel will meet you there. One will be carrying three young goats, another three loaves of bread, and another a skin of wine.

1 Samuel 10:4 They will greet you and offer you two loaves of bread, which you will accept from them.

1 Samuel 10:5 “After that you will go to Gibeah of God, where there is a Philistine outpost. As you approach the town, you will meet a procession of prophets coming down from the high place with lyres, tambourines, flutes and harps being played before them, and they will be prophesying.

1 Samuel 10:6 The Spirit of the LORD will come upon you in power, and you will prophesy with them; and you will be changed into a different person.

1 Samuel 10:7 Once these signs are fulfilled, do whatever your hand finds to do, for God is with you.

1 Samuel 10:8 “Go down ahead of me to Gilgal. I will surely come down to you to sacrifice burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, but you must wait seven days until I come to you and tell you what you are to do.”

1 Samuel 10:9 As Saul turned to leave Samuel, God changed Saul’s heart, and all these signs were fulfilled that day.

1 Samuel 10:10 When they arrived at Gibeah, a procession of prophets met him; the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he joined in their prophesying.

1 Samuel 10:11 When all those who had formerly known him saw him prophesying with the prophets, they asked each other, “What is this that has happened to the son of Kish? Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 10:12 A man who lived there answered, “And who is their father?” So it became a saying: “Is Saul also among the prophets?”

1 Samuel 10:13 After Saul stopped prophesying, he went to the high place.

1 Samuel 10:14 Now Saul’s uncle asked him and his servant, “Where have you been?” “Looking for the donkeys,” he said. “But when we saw they were not to be found, we went to Samuel.”

1 Samuel 10:15 Saul's uncle said, "Tell me what Samuel said to you."

1 Samuel 10:16 Saul replied, "He assured us that the donkeys had been found." But he did not tell his uncle what Samuel had said about the kingship.

1 Samuel 10:17 Samuel summoned the people of Israel to the LORD at Mizpah

1 Samuel 10:18 and said to them, "This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`I brought Israel up out of Egypt, and I delivered you from the power of Egypt and all the kingdoms that oppressed you.'

1 Samuel 10:19 But you have now rejected your God, who saves you out of all your calamities and distresses. And you have said,`No, set a king over us.' So now present yourselves before the LORD by your tribes and clans."

1 Samuel 10:20 When Samuel brought all the tribes of Israel near, the tribe of Benjamin was chosen.

1 Samuel 10:21 Then he brought forward the tribe of Benjamin, clan by clan, and Matri's clan was chosen. Finally Saul son of Kish was chosen. But when they looked for him, he was not to be found.

1 Samuel 10:22 So they enquired further of the LORD, "Has the man come here yet?" And the LORD said, "Yes, he has hidden himself among the baggage."

1 Samuel 10:23 They ran and brought him out, and as he stood among the people he was a head taller than any of the others.

1 Samuel 10:24 Samuel said to all the people, "Do you see the man the LORD has chosen? There is no-one like him among all the people." Then the people shouted, "Long live the king!"

1 Samuel 10:25 Samuel explained to the people the regulations of the kingship. He wrote them down on a scroll and deposited it before the LORD. Then Samuel dismissed the people, each to his own home.

1 Samuel 10:26 Saul also went to his home in Gibeah, accompanied by valiant men whose hearts God had touched.

1 Samuel 10:27 But some troublemakers said, "How can this fellow save us?" They despised him and brought him no gifts. But Saul kept silent.

1 Samuel 11:1 Nahash the Ammonite went up and besieged Jabesh Gilead. And all the men of Jabesh said to him, "Make a treaty with us, and we will be subject to you."

1 Samuel 11:2 But Nahash the Ammonite replied, "I will make a treaty with you only on the condition that I gouge out the right eye of every one of you and so bring disgrace on all Israel."

1 Samuel 11:3 The elders of Jabesh said to him, “Give us seven days so that we can send messengers throughout Israel; if no-one comes to rescue us, we will surrender to you.”

1 Samuel 11:4 When the messengers came to Gibeah of Saul and reported these terms to the people, they all wept aloud.

1 Samuel 11:5 Just then Saul was returning from the fields, behind his oxen, and he asked, “What is wrong with the people? Why are they weeping?” Then they repeated to him what the men of Jabesh had said.

1 Samuel 11:6 When Saul heard their words, the Spirit of God came upon him in power, and he burned with anger.

1 Samuel 11:7 He took a pair of oxen, cut them into pieces, and sent the pieces by messengers throughout Israel, proclaiming, “This is what will be done to the oxen of anyone who does not follow Saul and Samuel.” Then the terror of the LORD fell on the people, and they turned out as one man.

1 Samuel 11:8 When Saul mustered them at Bezek, the men of Israel numbered three hundred thousand and the men of Judah thirty thousand.

1 Samuel 11:9 They told the messengers who had come, “Say to the men of Jabesh Gilead,`By the time the sun is hot tomorrow, you will be delivered.’“ When the messengers went and reported this to the men of Jabesh, they were elated.

1 Samuel 11:10 They said to the Ammonites, “Tomorrow we will surrender to you, and you can do to us whatever seems good to you.”

1 Samuel 11:11 The next day Saul separated his men into three divisions; during the last watch of the night they broke into the camp of the Ammonites and slaughtered them until the heat of the day. Those who survived were scattered, so that no two of them were left together.

1 Samuel 11:12 The people then said to Samuel, “Who was it that asked,`Shall Saul reign over us?’ Bring these men to us and we will put them to death.”

1 Samuel 11:13 But Saul said, “No-one shall be put to death today, for this day the LORD has rescued Israel.”

1 Samuel 11:14 Then Samuel said to the people, “Come, let us go to Gilgal and there reaffirm the kingship.”

1 Samuel 11:15 So all the people went to Gilgal and confirmed Saul as king in the presence of the LORD. There they sacrificed fellowship offerings before the LORD, and Saul and all the Israelites held a great celebration.

1 Samuel 12:1 Samuel said to all Israel, “I have listened to everything you said to me and have set a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:2 Now you have a king as your leader. As for me, I am old and grey, and my sons are here with you. I have been your leader from my youth until this day.

1 Samuel 12:3 Here I stand. Testify against me in the presence of the LORD and his anointed. Whose ox have I taken? Whose donkey have I taken? Whom have I cheated? Whom have I oppressed? From whose hand have I accepted a bribe to make me shut my eyes? If I have done any of these, I will make it right."

1 Samuel 12:4 "You have not cheated or oppressed us," they replied. "You have not taken anything from anyone's hand."

1 Samuel 12:5 Samuel said to them, "The LORD is witness against you, and also his anointed is witness this day, that you have not found anything in my hand." "He is witness," they said.

1 Samuel 12:6 Then Samuel said to the people, "It is the LORD who appointed Moses and Aaron and brought your forefathers up out of Egypt.

1 Samuel 12:7 Now then, stand here, because I am going to confront you with evidence before the LORD as to all the righteous acts performed by the LORD for you and your fathers.

1 Samuel 12:8 "After Jacob entered Egypt, they cried to the LORD for help, and the LORD sent Moses and Aaron, who brought your forefathers out of Egypt and settled them in this place.

1 Samuel 12:9 "But they forgot the LORD their God; so he sold them into the hands of Sisera, the commander of the army of Hazor, and into the hands of the Philistines and the king of Moab, who fought against them.

1 Samuel 12:10 They cried out to the LORD and said,`We have sinned; we have forsaken the LORD and served the Baals and the Ashtoreths. But now deliver us from the hands of our enemies, and we will serve you.'

1 Samuel 12:11 Then the LORD sent Jerub-Baal, Barak, Jephthah and Samuel, and he delivered you from the hands of your enemies on every side, so that you lived securely.

1 Samuel 12:12 "But when you saw that Nahash king of the Ammonites was moving against you, you said to me,`No, we want a king to rule over us'—even though the LORD your God was your king.

1 Samuel 12:13 Now here is the king you have chosen, the one you asked for; see, the LORD has set a king over you.

1 Samuel 12:14 If you fear the LORD and serve and obey him and do not rebel against his commands, and if both you and the king who reigns over you follow the LORD your God—good!

1 Samuel 12:15 But if you do not obey the LORD, and if you rebel against his commands, his hand will be against you, as it was against your fathers.

1 Samuel 12:16 “Now then, stand still and see this great thing the LORD is about to do before your eyes!

1 Samuel 12:17 Is it not wheat harvest now? I will call upon the LORD to send thunder and rain. And you will realise what an evil thing you did in the eyes of the LORD when you asked for a king.”

1 Samuel 12:18 Then Samuel called upon the LORD, and that same day the LORD sent thunder and rain. So all the people stood in awe of the LORD and of Samuel.

1 Samuel 12:19 The people all said to Samuel, “Pray to the LORD your God for your servants so that we will not die, for we have added to all our other sins the evil of asking for a king.”

1 Samuel 12:20 “Do not be afraid,” Samuel replied. “You have done all this evil; yet do not turn away from the LORD, but serve the LORD with all your heart.

1 Samuel 12:21 Do not turn away after useless idols. They can do you no good, nor can they rescue you, because they are useless.

1 Samuel 12:22 For the sake of his great name the LORD will not reject his people, because the LORD was pleased to make you his own.

1 Samuel 12:23 As for me, far be it from me that I should sin against the LORD by failing to pray for you. And I will teach you the way that is good and right.

1 Samuel 12:24 But be sure to fear the LORD and serve him faithfully with all your heart; consider what great things he has done for you.

1 Samuel 12:25 Yet if you persist in doing evil, both you and your king will be swept away.”

1 Samuel 13:1 Saul was [thirty] years old when he became king, and he reigned over Israel for [forty-]two years.

1 Samuel 13:2 Saul chose three thousand men from Israel; two thousand were with him at Michmash and in the hill country of Bethel, and a thousand were with Jonathan at Gibeah in Benjamin. The rest of the men he sent back to their homes.

1 Samuel 13:3 Jonathan attacked the Philistine outpost at Geba, and the Philistines heard about it. Then Saul had the trumpet blown throughout the land and said, “Let the Hebrews hear!”

1 Samuel 13:4 So all Israel heard the news: “Saul has attacked the Philistine outpost, and now Israel has become an offence to the Philistines.” And the people were summoned to join Saul at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 13:5 The Philistines assembled to fight Israel, with three thousand chariots, six thousand charioteers, and soldiers as numerous as the sand on the seashore. They went up and camped at Michmash, east of Beth Aven.

1 Samuel 13:6 When the men of Israel saw that their situation was critical and that their army was hard pressed, they hid in caves and thickets, among the rocks, and in pits and cisterns.

1 Samuel 13:7 Some Hebrews even crossed the Jordan to the land of Gad and Gilead. Saul remained at Gilgal, and all the troops with him were quaking with fear.

1 Samuel 13:8 He waited for seven days, the time set by Samuel; but Samuel did not come to Gilgal, and Saul's men began to scatter.

1 Samuel 13:9 So he said, "Bring me the burnt offering and the fellowship offerings." And Saul offered up the burnt offering.

1 Samuel 13:10 Just as he finished making the offering, Samuel arrived, and Saul went out to greet him.

1 Samuel 13:11 "What have you done?" asked Samuel. Saul replied, "When I saw that the men were scattering, and that you did not come at the set time, and that the Philistines were assembling at Michmash,

1 Samuel 13:12 I thought,`Now the Philistines will come down against me at Gilgal, and I have not sought the LORD's favour.' So I felt compelled to offer the burnt offering."

1 Samuel 13:13 "You acted foolishly," Samuel said. "You have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you; if you had, he would have established your kingdom over Israel for all time.

1 Samuel 13:14 But now your kingdom will not endure; the LORD has sought out a man after his own heart and appointed him leader of his people, because you have not kept the LORD's command."

1 Samuel 13:15 Then Samuel left Gilgal and went up to Gibeah in Benjamin, and Saul counted the men who were with him. They numbered about six hundred.

1 Samuel 13:16 Saul and his son Jonathan and the men with them were staying in Gibeah of Benjamin, while the Philistines camped at Michmash.

1 Samuel 13:17 Raiding parties went out from the Philistine camp in three detachments. One turned towards Ophrah in the vicinity of Shual,

1 Samuel 13:18 another towards Beth Horon, and the third towards the borderland overlooking the Valley of Zeboim facing the desert.

1 Samuel 13:19 Not a blacksmith could be found in the whole land of Israel, because the Philistines had said, "Otherwise the Hebrews will make swords or spears!"

1 Samuel 13:20 So all Israel went down to the Philistines to have their ploughshares, mattocks, axes and sickles sharpened.

1 Samuel 13:21 The price was two thirds of a shekel for sharpening ploughshares and mattocks, and a third of a shekel for sharpening forks and axes and for repointing goads.

1 Samuel 13:22 So on the day of the battle not a soldier with Saul and Jonathan had a sword or spear in his hand; only Saul and his son Jonathan had them.

1 Samuel 13:23 Now a detachment of Philistines had gone out to the pass at Michmash.

1 Samuel 14:1 One day Jonathan son of Saul said to the young man bearing his armour, “Come, let’s go over to the Philistine outpost on the other side.” But he did not tell his father.

1 Samuel 14:2 Saul was staying on the outskirts of Gibeah under a pomegranate tree in Migron. With him were about six hundred men,

1 Samuel 14:3 among whom was Ahijah, who was wearing an ephod. He was a son of Ichabod’s brother Ahitub son of Phinehas, the son of Eli, the LORD’s priest in Shiloh. No-one was aware that Jonathan had left.

1 Samuel 14:4 On each side of the pass that Jonathan intended to cross to reach the Philistine outpost was a cliff; one was called Bozez, and the other Seneh.

1 Samuel 14:5 One cliff stood to the north towards Michmash, the other to the south towards Geba.

1 Samuel 14:6 Jonathan said to his young armour-bearer, “Come, let’s go over to the outpost of those uncircumcised fellows. Perhaps the LORD will act on our behalf. Nothing can hinder the LORD from saving, whether by many or by few.”

1 Samuel 14:7 “Do all that you have in mind,” his armour-bearer said. “Go ahead; I am with you heart and soul.”

1 Samuel 14:8 Jonathan said, “Come, then; we will cross over towards the men and let them see us.

1 Samuel 14:9 If they say to us,`Wait there until we come to you,’ we will stay where we are and not go up to them.

1 Samuel 14:10 But if they say,`Come up to us,’ we will climb up, because that will be our sign that the LORD has given them into our hands.”

1 Samuel 14:11 So both of them showed themselves to the Philistine outpost. “Look!” said the Philistines. “The Hebrews are crawling out of the holes they were hiding in.”

1 Samuel 14:12 The men of the outpost shouted to Jonathan and his armour-bearer, “Come up to us and we’ll teach you a lesson.” So

Jonathan said to his armour-bearer, “Climb up after me; the LORD has given them into the hand of Israel.”

1 Samuel 14:13 Jonathan climbed up, using his hands and feet, with his armour-bearer right behind him. The Philistines fell before Jonathan, and his armour-bearer followed and killed behind him.

1 Samuel 14:14 In that first attack Jonathan and his armour-bearer killed some twenty men in an area of about half an acre.

1 Samuel 14:15 Then panic struck the whole army—those in the camp and field, and those in the outposts and raiding parties—and the ground shook. It was a panic sent by God.

1 Samuel 14:16 Saul’s lookouts at Gibeah in Benjamin saw the army melting away in all directions.

1 Samuel 14:17 Then Saul said to the men who were with him, “Muster the forces and see who has left us.” When they did, it was Jonathan and his armour-bearer who were not there.

1 Samuel 14:18 Saul said to Ahijah, “Bring the ark of God.” (At that time it was with the Israelites.)

1 Samuel 14:19 While Saul was talking to the priest, the tumult in the Philistine camp increased more and more. So Saul said to the priest, “Withdraw your hand.”

1 Samuel 14:20 Then Saul and all his men assembled and went to the battle. They found the Philistines in total confusion, striking each other with their swords.

1 Samuel 14:21 Those Hebrews who had previously been with the Philistines and had gone up with them to their camp went over to the Israelites who were with Saul and Jonathan.

1 Samuel 14:22 When all the Israelites who had hidden in the hill country of Ephraim heard that the Philistines were on the run, they joined the battle in hot pursuit.

1 Samuel 14:23 So the LORD rescued Israel that day, and the battle moved on beyond Beth Aven.

1 Samuel 14:24 Now the men of Israel were in distress that day, because Saul had bound the people under an oath, saying, “Cursed be any man who eats food before evening comes, before I have avenged myself on my enemies!” So none of the troops tasted food.

1 Samuel 14:25 The entire army entered the woods, and there was honey on the ground.

1 Samuel 14:26 When they went into the woods, they saw the honey oozing out, yet no-one put his hand to his mouth, because they feared the oath.

1 Samuel 14:27 But Jonathan had not heard that his father had bound the people with the oath, so he reached out the end of the staff that was in his hand and dipped it into the honeycomb. He raised his hand to his mouth, and his eyes brightened.

1 Samuel 14:28 Then one of the soldiers told him, “Your father bound the army under a strict oath, saying,`Cursed be any man who eats food today!’ That is why the men are faint.”

1 Samuel 14:29 Jonathan said, “My father has made trouble for the country. See how my eyes brightened when I tasted a little of this honey.

1 Samuel 14:30 How much better it would have been if the men had eaten today some of the plunder they took from their enemies. Would not the slaughter of the Philistines have been even greater?”

1 Samuel 14:31 That day, after the Israelites had struck down the Philistines from Michmash to Aijalon, they were exhausted.

1 Samuel 14:32 They pounced on the plunder and, taking sheep, cattle and calves, they butchered them on the ground and ate them, together with the blood.

1 Samuel 14:33 Then someone said to Saul, “Look, the men are sinning against the LORD by eating meat that has blood in it.” “You have broken faith,” he said. “Roll a large stone over here at once.”

1 Samuel 14:34 Then he said, “Go out among the men and tell them,`Each of you bring me your cattle and sheep, and slaughter them here and eat them. Do not sin against the LORD by eating meat with blood still in it.’“ So everyone brought his ox that night and slaughtered it there.

1 Samuel 14:35 Then Saul built an altar to the LORD; it was the first time he had done this.

1 Samuel 14:36 Saul said, “Let us go down after the Philistines by night and plunder them till dawn, and let us not leave one of them alive.” “Do whatever seems best to you,” they replied. But the priest said, “Let us enquire of God here.”

1 Samuel 14:37 So Saul asked God, “Shall I go down after the Philistines? Will you give them into Israel’s hand?” But God did not answer him that day.

1 Samuel 14:38 Saul therefore said, “Come here, all you who are leaders of the army, and let us find out what sin has been committed today.

1 Samuel 14:39 As surely as the LORD who rescues Israel lives, even if it lies with my son Jonathan, he must die.” But not one of the men said a word.

1 Samuel 14:40 Saul then said to all the Israelites, “You stand over there; I and Jonathan my son will stand over here.” “Do what seems best to you,” the men replied.

1 Samuel 14:41 Then Saul prayed to the LORD, the God of Israel, “Give me the right answer.” And Jonathan and Saul were taken by lot, and the men were cleared.

1 Samuel 14:42 Saul said, “Cast the lot between me and Jonathan my son.” And Jonathan was taken.

1 Samuel 14:43 Then Saul said to Jonathan, “Tell me what you have done.” So Jonathan told him, “I merely tasted a little honey with the end of my staff. And now must I die?”

1 Samuel 14:44 Saul said, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if you do not die, Jonathan.”

1 Samuel 14:45 But the men said to Saul, “Should Jonathan die—he who has brought about this great deliverance in Israel? Never! As surely as the LORD lives, not a hair of his head shall fall to the ground, for he did this today with God’s help.” So the men rescued Jonathan, and he was not put to death.

1 Samuel 14:46 Then Saul stopped pursuing the Philistines, and they withdrew to their own land.

1 Samuel 14:47 After Saul had assumed rule over Israel, he fought against their enemies on every side: Moab, the Ammonites, Edom, the kings of Zobah, and the Philistines. Wherever he turned, he inflicted punishment on them.

1 Samuel 14:48 He fought valiantly and defeated the Amalekites, delivering Israel from the hands of those who had plundered them.

1 Samuel 14:49 Saul’s sons were Jonathan, Ishvi and Malki-Shua. The name of his older daughter was Merab, and that of the younger was Michal.

1 Samuel 14:50 His wife’s name was Ahinoam daughter of Ahimaaz. The name of the commander of Saul’s army was Abner son of Ner, and Ner was Saul’s uncle.

1 Samuel 14:51 Saul’s father Kish and Abner’s father Ner were sons of Abiel.

1 Samuel 14:52 All the days of Saul there was bitter war with the Philistines, and whenever Saul saw a mighty or brave man, he took him into his service.

1 Samuel 15:1 Samuel said to Saul, “I am the one the LORD sent to anoint you king over his people Israel; so listen now to the message from the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:2 This is what the LORD Almighty says:`I will punish the Amalekites for what they did to Israel when they waylaid them as they came up from Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:3 Now go, attack the Amalekites and totally destroy everything that belongs to them. Do not spare them; put to death men and women, children and infants, cattle and sheep, camels and donkeys.’“

1 Samuel 15:4 So Saul summoned the men and mustered them at Telaim—two hundred thousand foot soldiers and ten thousand men from Judah.

1 Samuel 15:5 Saul went to the city of Amalek and set an ambush in the ravine.

1 Samuel 15:6 Then he said to the Kenites, “Go away, leave the Amalekites so that I do not destroy you along with them; for you showed kindness to all the Israelites when they came up out of Egypt.” So the Kenites moved away from the Amalekites.

1 Samuel 15:7 Then Saul attacked the Amalekites all the way from Havilah to Shur, to the east of Egypt.

1 Samuel 15:8 He took Agag king of the Amalekites alive, and all his people he totally destroyed with the sword.

1 Samuel 15:9 But Saul and the army spared Agag and the best of the sheep and cattle, the fat calves and lambs— everything that was good. These they were unwilling to destroy completely, but everything that was despised and weak they totally destroyed.

1 Samuel 15:10 Then the word of the LORD came to Samuel:

1 Samuel 15:11 “I am grieved that I have made Saul king, because he has turned away from me and has not carried out my instructions.” Samuel was troubled, and he cried out to the LORD all that night.

1 Samuel 15:12 Early in the morning Samuel got up and went to meet Saul, but he was told, “Saul has gone to Carmel. There he has set up a monument in his own honour and has turned and gone on down to Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:13 When Samuel reached him, Saul said, “The LORD bless you! I have carried out the LORD’s instructions.”

1 Samuel 15:14 But Samuel said, “What then is this bleating of sheep in my ears? What is this lowing of cattle that I hear?”

1 Samuel 15:15 Saul answered, “The soldiers brought them from the Amalekites; they spared the best of the sheep and cattle to sacrifice to the LORD your God, but we totally destroyed the rest.”

1 Samuel 15:16 “Stop!” Samuel said to Saul. “Let me tell you what the LORD said to me last night.” “Tell me,” Saul replied.

1 Samuel 15:17 Samuel said, “Although you were once small in your own eyes, did you not become the head of the tribes of Israel? The LORD anointed you king over Israel.

1 Samuel 15:18 And he sent you on a mission, saying,`Go and completely destroy those wicked people, the Amalekites; make war on them until you have wiped them out.’

1 Samuel 15:19 Why did you not obey the LORD? Why did you pounce on the plunder and do evil in the eyes of the LORD?”

1 Samuel 15:20 “But I did obey the LORD,” Saul said. “I went on the mission the LORD assigned me. I completely destroyed the Amalekites and brought back Agag their king.

1 Samuel 15:21 The soldiers took sheep and cattle from the plunder, the best of what was devoted to God, in order to sacrifice them to the LORD your God at Gilgal.”

1 Samuel 15:22 But Samuel replied: “Does the LORD delight in burnt offerings and sacrifices as much as in obeying the voice of the LORD? To obey is better than sacrifice, and to heed is better than the fat of rams.

1 Samuel 15:23 For rebellion is like the sin of divination, and arrogance like the evil of idolatry. Because you have rejected the word of the LORD, he has rejected you as king.”

1 Samuel 15:24 Then Saul said to Samuel, “I have sinned. I violated the LORD’s command and your instructions. I was afraid of the people and so I gave in to them.

1 Samuel 15:25 Now I beg you, forgive my sin and come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD.”

1 Samuel 15:26 But Samuel said to him, “I will not go back with you. You have rejected the word of the LORD, and the LORD has rejected you as king over Israel!”

1 Samuel 15:27 As Samuel turned to leave, Saul caught hold of the hem of his robe, and it tore.

1 Samuel 15:28 Samuel said to him, “The LORD has torn the kingdom of Israel from you today and has given it to one of your neighbours—to one better than you.

1 Samuel 15:29 He who is the Glory of Israel does not lie or change his mind; for he is not a man, that he should change his mind.”

1 Samuel 15:30 Saul replied, “I have sinned. But please honour me before the elders of my people and before Israel; come back with me, so that I may worship the LORD your God.”

1 Samuel 15:31 So Samuel went back with Saul, and Saul worshipped the LORD.

1 Samuel 15:32 Then Samuel said, “Bring me Agag king of the Amalekites.” Agag came to him confidently, thinking, “Surely the bitterness of death is past.”

1 Samuel 15:33 But Samuel said, “As your sword has made women childless, so will your mother be childless among women.” And Samuel put Agag to death before the LORD at Gilgal.

1 Samuel 15:34 Then Samuel left for Ramah, but Saul went up to his home in Gibeah of Saul.

1 Samuel 15:35 Until the day Samuel died, he did not go to see Saul again, though Samuel mourned for him. And the LORD was grieved that he had made Saul king over Israel.

1 Samuel 16:1 The LORD said to Samuel, “How long will you mourn for Saul, since I have rejected him as king over Israel? Fill your horn with oil and be on your way; I am sending you to Jesse of Bethlehem. I have chosen one of his sons to be king.”

1 Samuel 16:2 But Samuel said, “How can I go? Saul will hear about it and kill me.” The LORD said, “Take a heifer with you and say,`I have come to sacrifice to the LORD.’

1 Samuel 16:3 Invite Jesse to the sacrifice, and I will show you what to do. You are to anoint for me the one I indicate.”

1 Samuel 16:4 Samuel did what the LORD said. When he arrived at Bethlehem, the elders of the town trembled when they met him. They asked, “Do you come in peace?”

1 Samuel 16:5 Samuel replied, “Yes, in peace; I have come to sacrifice to the LORD. Consecrate yourselves and come to the sacrifice with me.” Then he consecrated Jesse and his sons and invited them to the sacrifice.

1 Samuel 16:6 When they arrived, Samuel saw Eliab and thought, “Surely the LORD’s anointed stands here before the LORD.”

1 Samuel 16:7 But the LORD said to Samuel, “Do not consider his appearance or his height, for I have rejected him. The LORD does not look at the things man looks at. Man looks at the outward appearance, but the LORD looks at the heart.”

1 Samuel 16:8 Then Jesse called Abinadab and made him pass in front of Samuel. But Samuel said, “The LORD has not chosen this one either.”

1 Samuel 16:9 Jesse then made Shammah pass by, but Samuel said, “Nor has the LORD chosen this one.”

1 Samuel 16:10 Jesse made seven of his sons pass before Samuel, but Samuel said to him, “The LORD has not chosen these.”

1 Samuel 16:11 So he asked Jesse, “Are these all the sons you have?” “There is still the youngest,” Jesse answered, “but he is tending the sheep.” Samuel said, “Send for him; we will not sit down until he arrives.”

1 Samuel 16:12 So he sent and had him brought in. He was ruddy, with a fine appearance and handsome features. Then the LORD said, “Rise and anoint him; he is the one.”

1 Samuel 16:13 So Samuel took the horn of oil and anointed him in the presence of his brothers, and from that day on the Spirit of the LORD came upon David in power. Samuel then went to Ramah.

1 Samuel 16:14 Now the Spirit of the LORD had departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the LORD tormented him.

1 Samuel 16:15 Saul's attendants said to him, "See, an evil spirit from God is tormenting you.

1 Samuel 16:16 Let our lord command his servants here to search for someone who can play the harp. He will play when the evil spirit from God comes upon you, and you will feel better."

1 Samuel 16:17 So Saul said to his attendants, "Find someone who plays well and bring him to me."

1 Samuel 16:18 One of the servants answered, "I have seen a son of Jesse of Bethlehem who knows how to play the harp. He is a brave man and a warrior. He speaks well and is a fine-looking man. And the LORD is with him."

1 Samuel 16:19 Then Saul sent messengers to Jesse and said, "Send me your son David, who is with the sheep."

1 Samuel 16:20 So Jesse took a donkey loaded with bread, a skin of wine and a young goat and sent them with his son David to Saul.

1 Samuel 16:21 David came to Saul and entered his service. Saul liked him very much, and David became one of his armour-bearers.

1 Samuel 16:22 Then Saul sent word to Jesse, saying, "Allow David to remain in my service, for I am pleased with him."

1 Samuel 16:23 Whenever the spirit from God came upon Saul, David would take his harp and play. Then relief would come to Saul; he would feel better, and the evil spirit would leave him.

1 Samuel 17:1 Now the Philistines gathered their forces for war and assembled at Socoh in Judah. They pitched camp at Ephes Dammim, between Socoh and Azekah.

1 Samuel 17:2 Saul and the Israelites assembled and camped in the Valley of Elah and drew up their battle line to meet the Philistines.

1 Samuel 17:3 The Philistines occupied one hill and the Israelites another, with the valley between them.

1 Samuel 17:4 A champion named Goliath, who was from Gath, came out of the Philistine camp. He was over nine feet tall.

1 Samuel 17:5 He had a bronze helmet on his head and wore a coat of scale armour of bronze weighing five thousand shekels;

1 Samuel 17:6 on his legs he wore bronze greaves, and a bronze javelin was slung on his back.

1 Samuel 17:7 His spear shaft was like a weaver's rod, and its iron point weighed six hundred shekels. His shield-bearer went ahead of him.

1 Samuel 17:8 Goliath stood and shouted to the ranks of Israel, “Why do you come out and line up for battle? Am I not a Philistine, and are you not the servants of Saul? Choose a man and have him come down to me.

1 Samuel 17:9 If he is able to fight and kill me, we will become your subjects; but if I overcome him and kill him, you will become our subjects and serve us.”

1 Samuel 17:10 Then the Philistine said, “This day I defy the ranks of Israel! Give me a man and let us fight each other.”

1 Samuel 17:11 On hearing the Philistine’s words, Saul and all the Israelites were dismayed and terrified.

1 Samuel 17:12 Now David was the son of an Ephrathite named Jesse, who was from Bethlehem in Judah. Jesse had eight sons, and in Saul’s time he was old and well advanced in years.

1 Samuel 17:13 Jesse’s three oldest sons had followed Saul to the war: The firstborn was Eliab; the second, Abinadab; and the third, Shammah.

1 Samuel 17:14 David was the youngest. The three oldest followed Saul,

1 Samuel 17:15 but David went back and forth from Saul to tend his father’s sheep at Bethlehem.

1 Samuel 17:16 For forty days the Philistine came forward every morning and evening and took his stand.

1 Samuel 17:17 Now Jesse said to his son David, “Take this ephah of roasted grain and these ten loaves of bread for your brothers and hurry to their camp.

1 Samuel 17:18 Take along these ten cheeses to the commander of their unit. See how your brothers are and bring back some assurance from them.

1 Samuel 17:19 They are with Saul and all the men of Israel in the Valley of Elah, fighting against the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 17:20 Early in the morning David left the flock with a shepherd, loaded up and set out, as Jesse had directed. He reached the camp as the army was going out to its battle positions, shouting the war cry.

1 Samuel 17:21 Israel and the Philistines were drawing up their lines facing each other.

1 Samuel 17:22 David left his things with the keeper of supplies, ran to the battle lines and greeted his brothers.

1 Samuel 17:23 As he was talking with them, Goliath, the Philistine champion from Gath, stepped out from his lines and shouted his usual defiance, and David heard it.

1 Samuel 17:24 When the Israelites saw the man, they all ran from him in great fear.

1 Samuel 17:25 Now the Israelites had been saying, “Do you see how this man keeps coming out? He comes out to defy Israel. The king will give great wealth to the man who kills him. He will also give him his daughter in marriage and will exempt his father’s family from taxes in Israel.”

1 Samuel 17:26 David asked the men standing near him, “What will be done for the man who kills this Philistine and removes this disgrace from Israel? Who is this uncircumcised Philistine that he should defy the armies of the living God?”

1 Samuel 17:27 They repeated to him what they had been saying and told him, “This is what will be done for the man who kills him.”

1 Samuel 17:28 When Eliab, David’s oldest brother, heard him speaking with the men, he burned with anger at him and asked, “Why have you come down here? And with whom did you leave those few sheep in the desert? I know how conceited you are and how wicked your heart is; you came down only to watch the battle.”

1 Samuel 17:29 “Now what have I done?” said David. “Can’t I even speak?”

1 Samuel 17:30 He then turned away to someone else and brought up the same matter, and the men answered him as before.

1 Samuel 17:31 What David said was overheard and reported to Saul, and Saul sent for him.

1 Samuel 17:32 David said to Saul, “Let no-one lose heart on account of this Philistine; your servant will go and fight him.”

1 Samuel 17:33 Saul replied, “You are not able to go out against this Philistine and fight him; you are only a boy, and he has been a fighting man from his youth.”

1 Samuel 17:34 But David said to Saul, “Your servant has been keeping his father’s sheep. When a lion or a bear came and carried off a sheep from the flock,

1 Samuel 17:35 I went after it, struck it and rescued the sheep from its mouth. When it turned on me, I seized it by its hair, struck it and killed it.

1 Samuel 17:36 Your servant has killed both the lion and the bear; this uncircumcised Philistine will be like one of them, because he has defied the armies of the living God.

1 Samuel 17:37 The LORD who delivered me from the paw of the lion and the paw of the bear will deliver me from the hand of this Philistine.” Saul said to David, “Go, and the LORD be with you.”

1 Samuel 17:38 Then Saul dressed David in his own tunic. He put a coat of armour on him and a bronze helmet on his head.

1 Samuel 17:39 David fastened on his sword over the tunic and tried walking around, because he was not used to them. “I cannot go in these,” he said to Saul, “because I am not used to them.” So he took them off.

1 Samuel 17:40 Then he took his staff in his hand, chose five smooth stones from the stream, put them in the pouch of his shepherd’s bag and, with his sling in his hand, approached the Philistine.

1 Samuel 17:41 Meanwhile, the Philistine, with his shield-bearer in front of him, kept coming closer to David.

1 Samuel 17:42 He looked David over and saw that he was only a boy, ruddy and handsome, and he despised him.

1 Samuel 17:43 He said to David, “Am I a dog, that you come at me with sticks?” And the Philistine cursed David by his gods.

1 Samuel 17:44 “Come here,” he said, “and I’ll give your flesh to the birds of the air and the beasts of the field!”

1 Samuel 17:45 David said to the Philistine, “You come against me with sword and spear and javelin, but I come against you in the name of the LORD Almighty, the God of the armies of Israel, whom you have defied.

1 Samuel 17:46 This day the LORD will hand you over to me, and I’ll strike you down and cut off your head. Today I will give the carcasses of the Philistine army to the birds of the air and the beasts of the earth, and the whole world will know that there is a God in Israel.

1 Samuel 17:47 All those gathered here will know that it is not by sword or spear that the LORD saves; for the battle is the LORD’s, and he will give all of you into our hands.”

1 Samuel 17:48 As the Philistine moved closer to attack him, David ran quickly towards the battle line to meet him.

1 Samuel 17:49 Reaching into his bag and taking out a stone, he slung it and struck the Philistine on the forehead. The stone sank into his forehead, and he fell face down on the ground.

1 Samuel 17:50 So David triumphed over the Philistine with a sling and a stone; without a sword in his hand he struck down the Philistine and killed him.

1 Samuel 17:51 David ran and stood over him. He took hold of the Philistine’s sword and drew it from the scabbard. After he killed him, he cut off his head with the sword. When the Philistines saw that their hero was dead, they turned and ran.

1 Samuel 17:52 Then the men of Israel and Judah surged forward with a shout and pursued the Philistines to the entrance of Gath and to the gates of Ekron. Their dead were strewn along the Shaaraim road to Gath and Ekron.

1 Samuel 17:53 When the Israelites returned from chasing the Philistines, they plundered their camp.

1 Samuel 17:54 David took the Philistine's head and brought it to Jerusalem, and he put the Philistine's weapons in his own tent.

1 Samuel 17:55 As Saul watched David going out to meet the Philistine, he said to Abner, commander of the army, "Abner, whose son is that young man?" Abner replied, "As surely as you live, O king, I don't know."

1 Samuel 17:56 The king said, "Find out whose son this young man is."

1 Samuel 17:57 As soon as David returned from killing the Philistine, Abner took him and brought him before Saul, with David still holding the Philistine's head.

1 Samuel 17:58 "Whose son are you, young man?" Saul asked him. David said, "I am the son of your servant Jesse of Bethlehem."

1 Samuel 18:1 After David had finished talking with Saul, Jonathan became one in spirit with David, and he loved him as himself.

1 Samuel 18:2 From that day Saul kept David with him and did not let him return to his father's house.

1 Samuel 18:3 And Jonathan made a covenant with David because he loved him as himself.

1 Samuel 18:4 Jonathan took off the robe he was wearing and gave it to David, along with his tunic, and even his sword, his bow and his belt.

1 Samuel 18:5 Whatever Saul sent him to do, David did it so successfully that Saul gave him a high rank in the army. This pleased all the people, and Saul's officers as well.

1 Samuel 18:6 When the men were returning home after David had killed the Philistine, the women came out from all the towns of Israel to meet King Saul with singing and dancing, with joyful songs and with tambourines and lutes.

1 Samuel 18:7 As they danced, they sang: "Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands."

1 Samuel 18:8 Saul was very angry; this refrain galled him. "They have credited David with tens of thousands," he thought, "but me with only thousands. What more can he get but the kingdom?"

1 Samuel 18:9 And from that time on Saul kept a jealous eye on David.

1 Samuel 18:10 The next day an evil spirit from God came forcefully upon Saul. He was prophesying in his house, while David was playing the harp, as he usually did. Saul had a spear in his hand

1 Samuel 18:11 and he hurled it, saying to himself, "I'll pin David to the wall." But David eluded him twice.

1 Samuel 18:12 Saul was afraid of David, because the LORD was with David but had left Saul.

1 Samuel 18:13 So he sent David away from him and gave him command over a thousand men, and David led the troops in their campaigns.

1 Samuel 18:14 In everything he did he had great success, because the LORD was with him.

1 Samuel 18:15 When Saul saw how successful he was, he was afraid of him.

1 Samuel 18:16 But all Israel and Judah loved David, because he led them in their campaigns.

1 Samuel 18:17 Saul said to David, “Here is my older daughter Merab. I will give her to you in marriage; only serve me bravely and fight the battles of the LORD.” For Saul said to himself, “I will not raise a hand against him. Let the Philistines do that!”

1 Samuel 18:18 But David said to Saul, “Who am I, and what is my family or my father’s clan in Israel, that I should become the king’s son-in-law?”

1 Samuel 18:19 So when the time came for Merab, Saul’s daughter, to be given to David, she was given in marriage to Adriel of Meholah.

1 Samuel 18:20 Now Saul’s daughter Michal was in love with David, and when they told Saul about it, he was pleased.

1 Samuel 18:21 “I will give her to him,” he thought, “so that she may be a snare to him and so that the hand of the Philistines may be against him.” So Saul said to David, “Now you have a second opportunity to become my son-in-law.”

1 Samuel 18:22 Then Saul ordered his attendants: “Speak to David privately and say,`Look, the king is pleased with you, and his attendants all like you; now become his son-in-law.’“

1 Samuel 18:23 They repeated these words to David. But David said, “Do you think it is a small matter to become the king’s son-in-law? I’m only a poor man and little known.”

1 Samuel 18:24 When Saul’s servants told him what David had said,

1 Samuel 18:25 Saul replied, “Say to David,`The king wants no other price for the bride than a hundred Philistine foreskins, to take revenge on his enemies.’“ Saul’s plan was to have David fall by the hands of the Philistines.

1 Samuel 18:26 When the attendants told David these things, he was pleased to become the king’s son-in-law. So before the allotted time elapsed,

1 Samuel 18:27 David and his men went out and killed two hundred Philistines. He brought their foreskins and presented the full number to the king so that he might become the king’s son-in-law. Then Saul gave him his daughter Michal in marriage.

1 Samuel 18:28 When Saul realised that the LORD was with David and that his daughter Michal loved David,

1 Samuel 18:29 Saul became still more afraid of him, and he remained his enemy for the rest of his days.

1 Samuel 18:30 The Philistine commanders continued to go out to battle, and as often as they did, David met with more success than the rest of Saul’s officers, and his name became well known.

1 Samuel 19:1 Saul told his son Jonathan and all the attendants to kill David. But Jonathan was very fond of David

1 Samuel 19:2 and warned him, “My father Saul is looking for a chance to kill you. Be on your guard tomorrow morning; go into hiding and stay there.

1 Samuel 19:3 I will go out and stand with my father in the field where you are. I’ll speak to him about you and will tell you what I find out.”

1 Samuel 19:4 Jonathan spoke well of David to Saul his father and said to him, “Let not the king do wrong to his servant David; he has not wronged you, and what he has done has benefited you greatly.

1 Samuel 19:5 He took his life in his hands when he killed the Philistine. The LORD won a great victory for all Israel, and you saw it and were glad. Why then would you do wrong to an innocent man like David by killing him for no reason?”

1 Samuel 19:6 Saul listened to Jonathan and took this oath: “As surely as the LORD lives, David will not be put to death.”

1 Samuel 19:7 So Jonathan called David and told him the whole conversation. He brought him to Saul, and David was with Saul as before.

1 Samuel 19:8 Once more war broke out, and David went out and fought the Philistines. He struck them with such force that they fled before him.

1 Samuel 19:9 But an evil spirit from the LORD came upon Saul as he was sitting in his house with his spear in his hand. While David was playing the harp,

1 Samuel 19:10 Saul tried to pin him to the wall with his spear, but David eluded him as Saul drove the spear into the wall. That night David made good his escape.

1 Samuel 19:11 Saul sent men to David’s house to watch it and to kill him in the morning. But Michal, David’s wife, warned him, “If you don’t run for your life tonight, tomorrow you’ll be killed.”

1 Samuel 19:12 So Michal let David down through a window, and he fled and escaped.

1 Samuel 19:13 Then Michal took an idol and laid it on the bed, covering it with a garment and putting some goats' hair at the head.

1 Samuel 19:14 When Saul sent the men to capture David, Michal said, "He is ill."

1 Samuel 19:15 Then Saul sent the men back to see David and told them, "Bring him up to me in his bed so that I may kill him."

1 Samuel 19:16 But when the men entered, there was the idol in the bed, and at the head was some goats' hair.

1 Samuel 19:17 Saul said to Michal, "Why did you deceive me like this and send my enemy away so that he escaped?" Michal told him, "He said to me,`Let me get away. Why should I kill you?'"

1 Samuel 19:18 When David had fled and made his escape, he went to Samuel at Ramah and told him all that Saul had done to him. Then he and Samuel went to Naioth and stayed there.

1 Samuel 19:19 Word came to Saul: "David is in Naioth at Ramah";

1 Samuel 19:20 so he sent men to capture him. But when they saw a group of prophets prophesying, with Samuel standing there as their leader, the Spirit of God came upon Saul's men and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:21 Saul was told about it, and he sent more men, and they prophesied too. Saul sent men a third time, and they also prophesied.

1 Samuel 19:22 Finally, he himself left for Ramah and went to the great cistern at Secu. And he asked, "Where are Samuel and David?" "Over in Naioth at Ramah," they said.

1 Samuel 19:23 So Saul went to Naioth at Ramah. But the Spirit of God came even upon him, and he walked along prophesying until he came to Naioth.

1 Samuel 19:24 He stripped off his robes and also prophesied in Samuel's presence. He lay that way all that day and night. This is why people say, "Is Saul also among the prophets?"

1 Samuel 20:1 Then David fled from Naioth at Ramah and went to Jonathan and asked, "What have I done? What is my crime? How have I wronged your father, that he is trying to take my life?"

1 Samuel 20:2 "Never!" Jonathan replied. "You are not going to die! Look, my father doesn't do anything, great or small, without confiding in me. Why should he hide this from me? It's not so!"

1 Samuel 20:3 But David took an oath and said, "Your father knows very well that I have found favour in your eyes, and he has said to himself,`Jonathan must not know this or he will be grieved.' Yet as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, there is only a step between me and death.”

1 Samuel 20:4 Jonathan said to David, “Whatever you want me to do, I’ll do for you.”

1 Samuel 20:5 So David said, “Look, tomorrow is the New Moon festival, and I am supposed to dine with the king; but let me go and hide in the field until the evening of the day after tomorrow.

1 Samuel 20:6 If your father misses me at all, tell him,`David earnestly asked my permission to hurry to Bethlehem, his home town, because an annual sacrifice is being made there for his whole clan.’

1 Samuel 20:7 If he says,`Very well,’ then your servant is safe. But if he loses his temper, you can be sure that he is determined to harm me.

1 Samuel 20:8 As for you, show kindness to your servant, for you have brought him into a covenant with you before the LORD. If I am guilty, then kill me yourself! Why hand me over to your father?”

1 Samuel 20:9 “Never!” Jonathan said. “If I had the least inkling that my father was determined to harm you, wouldn’t I tell you?”

1 Samuel 20:10 David asked, “Who will tell me if your father answers you harshly?”

1 Samuel 20:11 “Come,” Jonathan said, “let’s go out into the field.” So they went there together.

1 Samuel 20:12 Then Jonathan said to David: “By the LORD, the God of Israel, I will surely sound out my father by this time the day after tomorrow! If he is favourably disposed towards you, will I not send you word and let you know?

1 Samuel 20:13 But if my father is inclined to harm you, may the LORD deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I do not let you know and send you away safely. May the LORD be with you as he has been with my father.

1 Samuel 20:14 But show me unfailing kindness like that of the LORD as long as I live, so that I may not be killed,

1 Samuel 20:15 and do not ever cut off your kindness from my family— not even when the LORD has cut off every one of David’s enemies from the face of the earth.”

1 Samuel 20:16 So Jonathan made a covenant with the house of David, saying, “May the LORD call David’s enemies to account.”

1 Samuel 20:17 And Jonathan made David reaffirm his oath out of love for him, because he loved him as he loved himself.

1 Samuel 20:18 Then Jonathan said to David: “Tomorrow is the New Moon festival. You will be missed, because your seat will be empty.

1 Samuel 20:19 The day after tomorrow, towards evening, go to the place where you hid when this trouble began, and wait by the stone Ezel.

1 Samuel 20:20 I will shoot three arrows to the side of it, as though I were shooting at a target.

1 Samuel 20:21 Then I will send a boy and say,`Go, find the arrows.' If I say to him,`Look, the arrows are on this side of you; bring them here,' then come, because, as surely as the LORD lives, you are safe; there is no danger.

1 Samuel 20:22 But if I say to the boy,`Look, the arrows are beyond you,' then you must go, because the LORD has sent you away.

1 Samuel 20:23 And about the matter you and I discussed— remember, the LORD is witness between you and me for ever."

1 Samuel 20:24 So David hid in the field, and when the New Moon festival came, the king sat down to eat.

1 Samuel 20:25 He sat in his customary place by the wall, opposite Jonathan, and Abner sat next to Saul, but David's place was empty.

1 Samuel 20:26 Saul said nothing that day, for he thought, "Something must have happened to David to make him ceremonially unclean— surely he is unclean."

1 Samuel 20:27 But the next day, the second day of the month, David's place was empty again. Then Saul said to his son Jonathan, "Why hasn't the son of Jesse come to the meal, either yesterday or today?"

1 Samuel 20:28 Jonathan answered, "David earnestly asked me for permission to go to Bethlehem.

1 Samuel 20:29 He said,`Let me go, because our family is observing a sacrifice in the town and my brother has ordered me to be there. If I have found favour in your eyes, let me go to see my brothers.' That is why he has not come to the king's table."

1 Samuel 20:30 Saul's anger flared up at Jonathan and he said to him, "You son of a perverse and rebellious woman! Don't I know that you have sided with the son of Jesse to your own shame and to the shame of the mother who bore you?

1 Samuel 20:31 As long as the son of Jesse lives on this earth, neither you nor your kingdom will be established. Now send and bring him to me, for he must die!"

1 Samuel 20:32 "Why should he be put to death? What has he done?" Jonathan asked his father.

1 Samuel 20:33 But Saul hurled his spear at him to kill him. Then Jonathan knew that his father intended to kill David.

1 Samuel 20:34 Jonathan got up from the table in fierce anger; on that second day of the month he did not eat, because he was grieved at his father's shameful treatment of David.

1 Samuel 20:35 In the morning Jonathan went out to the field for his meeting with David. He had a small boy with him,

1 Samuel 20:36 and he said to the boy, “Run and find the arrows I shoot.” As the boy ran, he shot an arrow beyond him.

1 Samuel 20:37 When the boy came to the place where Jonathan’s arrow had fallen, Jonathan called out after him, “Isn’t the arrow beyond you?”

1 Samuel 20:38 Then he shouted, “Hurry! Go quickly! Don’t stop!” The boy picked up the arrow and returned to his master.

1 Samuel 20:39 (The boy knew nothing of all this; only Jonathan and David knew.)

1 Samuel 20:40 Then Jonathan gave his weapons to the boy and said, “Go, carry them back to town.”

1 Samuel 20:41 After the boy had gone, David got up from the south side [of the stone] and bowed down before Jonathan three times, with his face to the ground. Then they kissed each other and wept together—but David wept the most.

1 Samuel 20:42 Jonathan said to David, “Go in peace, for we have sworn friendship with each other in the name of the LORD, saying,`The LORD is witness between you and me, and between your descendants and my descendants for ever.’“ Then David left, and Jonathan went back to the town.

1 Samuel 21:1 David went to Nob, to Ahimelech the priest. Ahimelech trembled when he met him, and asked, “Why are you alone? Why is no-one with you?”

1 Samuel 21:2 David answered Ahimelech the priest, “The king charged me with a certain matter and said to me,`No-one is to know anything about your mission and your instructions.’ As for my men, I have told them to meet me at a certain place.

1 Samuel 21:3 Now then, what have you to hand? Give me five loaves of bread, or whatever you can find.”

1 Samuel 21:4 But the priest answered David, “I don’t have any ordinary bread to hand; however, there is some consecrated bread here—provided the men have kept themselves from women.”

1 Samuel 21:5 David replied, “Indeed women have been kept from us, as usual whenever I set out. The men’s things are holy even on missions that are not holy. How much more so today!”

1 Samuel 21:6 So the priest gave him the consecrated bread, since there was no bread there except the bread of the Presence that had been removed from before the LORD and replaced by hot bread on the day it was taken away.

1 Samuel 21:7 Now one of Saul's servants was there that day, detained before the LORD; he was Doeg the Edomite, Saul's head shepherd.

1 Samuel 21:8 David asked Ahimelech, "Don't you have a spear or sword here? I haven't brought my sword or any other weapon, because the king's business was urgent."

1 Samuel 21:9 The priest replied, "The sword of Goliath the Philistine, whom you killed in the Valley of Elah, is here; it is wrapped in a cloth behind the ephod. If you want it, take it; there is no sword here but that one." David said, "There is none like it; give it to me."

1 Samuel 21:10 That day David fled from Saul and went to Achish king of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:11 But the servants of Achish said to him, "Isn't this David, the king of the land? Isn't he the one they sing about in their dances: "`Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands'?"

1 Samuel 21:12 David took these words to heart and was very much afraid of Achish king of Gath.

1 Samuel 21:13 So he feigned insanity in their presence; and while he was in their hands he acted like a madman, making marks on the doors of the gate and letting saliva run down his beard.

1 Samuel 21:14 Achish said to his servants, "Look at the man! He is insane! Why bring him to me?

1 Samuel 21:15 Am I so short of madmen that you have to bring this fellow here to carry on like this in front of me? Must this man come into my house?"

1 Samuel 22:1 David left Gath and escaped to the cave of Adullam. When his brothers and his father's household heard about it, they went down to him there.

1 Samuel 22:2 All those who were in distress or in debt or discontented gathered round him, and he became their leader. About four hundred men were with him.

1 Samuel 22:3 From there David went to Mizpah in Moab and said to the king of Moab, "Would you let my father and mother come and stay with you until I learn what God will do for me?"

1 Samuel 22:4 So he left them with the king of Moab, and they stayed with him as long as David was in the stronghold.

1 Samuel 22:5 But the prophet Gad said to David, "Do not stay in the stronghold. Go into the land of Judah." So David left and went to the forest of Hereth.

1 Samuel 22:6 Now Saul heard that David and his men had been discovered. And Saul, spear in hand, was seated under the tamarisk tree on the hill at Gibeah, with all his officials standing round him.

1 Samuel 22:7 Saul said to them, “Listen, men of Benjamin! Will the son of Jesse give all of you fields and vineyards? Will he make all of you commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds?

1 Samuel 22:8 Is that why you have all conspired against me? No-one tells me when my son makes a covenant with the son of Jesse. None of you is concerned about me or tells me that my son has incited my servant to lie in wait for me, as he does today.”

1 Samuel 22:9 But Doeg the Edomite, who was standing with Saul’s officials, said, “I saw the son of Jesse come to Ahimelech son of Ahitub at Nob.

1 Samuel 22:10 Ahimelech enquired of the LORD for him; he also gave him provisions and the sword of Goliath the Philistine.”

1 Samuel 22:11 Then the king sent for the priest Ahimelech son of Ahitub and his father’s whole family, who were the priests at Nob, and they all came to the king.

1 Samuel 22:12 Saul said, “Listen now, son of Ahitub.” “Yes, my lord,” he answered.

1 Samuel 22:13 Saul said to him, “Why have you conspired against me, you and the son of Jesse, giving him bread and a sword and enquiring of God for him, so that he has rebelled against me and lies in wait for me, as he does today?”

1 Samuel 22:14 Ahimelech answered the king, “Who of all your servants is as loyal as David, the king’s son-in-law, captain of your bodyguard and highly respected in your household?

1 Samuel 22:15 Was that day the first time I enquired of God for him? Of course not! Let not the king accuse your servant or any of his father’s family, for your servant knows nothing at all about this whole affair.”

1 Samuel 22:16 But the king said, “You shall surely die, Ahimelech, you and your father’s whole family.”

1 Samuel 22:17 Then the king ordered the guards at his side: “Turn and kill the priests of the LORD, because they too have sided with David. They knew he was fleeing, yet they did not tell me.” But the king’s officials were not willing to raise a hand to strike the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:18 The king then ordered Doeg, “You turn and strike down the priests.” So Doeg the Edomite turned and struck them down. That day he killed eighty-five men who wore the linen ephod.

1 Samuel 22:19 He also put to the sword Nob, the town of the priests, with its men and women, its children and infants, and its cattle, donkeys and sheep.

1 Samuel 22:20 But Abiathar, son of Ahimelech son of Ahitub, escaped and fled to join David.

1 Samuel 22:21 He told David that Saul had killed the priests of the LORD.

1 Samuel 22:22 Then David said to Abiathar: “That day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, I knew he would be sure to tell Saul. I am responsible for the death of your father’s whole family.

1 Samuel 22:23 Stay with me; don’t be afraid; the man who is seeking your life is seeking mine also. You will be safe with me.”

1 Samuel 23:1 When David was told, “Look, the Philistines are fighting against Keilah and are looting the threshing-floors,”

1 Samuel 23:2 he enquired of the LORD, saying, “Shall I go and attack these Philistines?” The LORD answered him, “Go, attack the Philistines and save Keilah.”

1 Samuel 23:3 But David’s men said to him, “Here in Judah we are afraid. How much more, then, if we go to Keilah against the Philistine forces!”

1 Samuel 23:4 Once again David enquired of the LORD, and the LORD answered him, “Go down to Keilah, for I am going to give the Philistines into your hand.”

1 Samuel 23:5 So David and his men went to Keilah, fought the Philistines and carried off their livestock. He inflicted heavy losses on the Philistines and saved the people of Keilah.

1 Samuel 23:6 (Now Abiathar son of Ahimelech had brought the ephod down with him when he fled to David at Keilah.)

1 Samuel 23:7 Saul was told that David had gone to Keilah, and he said, “God has handed him over to me, for David has imprisoned himself by entering a town with gates and bars.”

1 Samuel 23:8 And Saul called up all his forces for battle, to go down to Keilah to besiege David and his men.

1 Samuel 23:9 When David learned that Saul was plotting against him, he said to Abiathar the priest, “Bring the ephod.”

1 Samuel 23:10 David said, “O LORD, God of Israel, your servant has heard definitely that Saul plans to come to Keilah and destroy the town on account of me.

1 Samuel 23:11 Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me to him? Will Saul come down, as your servant has heard? O LORD, God of Israel, tell your servant.” And the LORD said, “He will.”

1 Samuel 23:12 Again David asked, “Will the citizens of Keilah surrender me and my men to Saul?” And the LORD said, “They will.”

1 Samuel 23:13 So David and his men, about six hundred in number, left Keilah and kept moving from place to place. When Saul was told that David had escaped from Keilah, he did not go there.

1 Samuel 23:14 David stayed in the desert strongholds and in the hills of the Desert of Ziph. Day after day Saul searched for him, but God did not give David into his hands.

1 Samuel 23:15 While David was at Horesh in the Desert of Ziph, he learned that Saul had come out to take his life.

1 Samuel 23:16 And Saul's son Jonathan went to David at Horesh and helped him to find strength in God.

1 Samuel 23:17 "Don't be afraid," he said. "My father Saul will not lay a hand on you. You shall be king over Israel, and I will be second to you. Even my father Saul knows this."

1 Samuel 23:18 The two of them made a covenant before the LORD. Then Jonathan went home, but David remained at Horesh.

1 Samuel 23:19 The Ziphites went up to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding among us in the strongholds at Horesh, on the hill of Hakilah, south of Jeshimon?

1 Samuel 23:20 Now, O king, come down whenever it pleases you to do so, and we will be responsible for handing him over to the king."

1 Samuel 23:21 Saul replied, "The LORD bless you for your concern for me.

1 Samuel 23:22 Go and make further preparation. Find out where David usually goes and who has seen him there. They tell me he is very crafty.

1 Samuel 23:23 Find out about all the hiding-places he uses and come back to me with definite information. Then I will go with you; if he is in the area, I will track him down among all the clans of Judah."

1 Samuel 23:24 So they set out and went to Ziph ahead of Saul. Now David and his men were in the Desert of Maon, in the Arabah south of Jeshimon.

1 Samuel 23:25 Saul and his men began the search, and when David was told about it, he went down to the rock and stayed in the Desert of Maon. When Saul heard this, he went into the Desert of Maon in pursuit of David.

1 Samuel 23:26 Saul was going along one side of the mountain, and David and his men were on the other side, hurrying to get away from Saul. As Saul and his forces were closing in on David and his men to capture them,

1 Samuel 23:27 a messenger came to Saul, saying, "Come quickly! The Philistines are raiding the land."

1 Samuel 23:28 Then Saul broke off his pursuit of David and went to meet the Philistines. That is why they call this place Sela Hammahlekoth.

1 Samuel 23:29 And David went up from there and lived in the strongholds of En Gedi.

1 Samuel 24:1 After Saul returned from pursuing the Philistines, he was told, “David is in the Desert of En Gedi.”

1 Samuel 24:2 So Saul took three thousand chosen men from all Israel and set out to look for David and his men near the Crags of the Wild Goats.

1 Samuel 24:3 He came to the sheep pens along the way; a cave was there, and Saul went in to relieve himself. David and his men were far back in the cave.

1 Samuel 24:4 The men said, “This is the day the LORD spoke of when he said to you,`I will give your enemy into your hands for you to deal with as you wish.”‘ Then David crept up unnoticed and cut off a corner of Saul’s robe.

1 Samuel 24:5 Afterwards, David was conscience-stricken for having cut off a corner of his robe.

1 Samuel 24:6 He said to his men, “The LORD forbid that I should do such a thing to my master, the LORD’s anointed, or lift my hand against him; for he is the anointed of the LORD.”

1 Samuel 24:7 With these words David rebuked his men and did not allow them to attack Saul. And Saul left the cave and went his way.

1 Samuel 24:8 Then David went out of the cave and called out to Saul, “My lord the king!” When Saul looked behind him, David bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

1 Samuel 24:9 He said to Saul, “Why do you listen when men say,`David is bent on harming you’?

1 Samuel 24:10 This day you have seen with your own eyes how the LORD gave you into my hands in the cave. Some urged me to kill you, but I spared you; I said,`I will not lift my hand against my master, because he is the LORD’s anointed.’

1 Samuel 24:11 See, my father, look at this piece of your robe in my hand! I cut off the corner of your robe but did not kill you. Now understand and recognise that I am not guilty of wrongdoing or rebellion. I have not wronged you, but you are hunting me down to take my life.

1 Samuel 24:12 May the LORD judge between you and me. And may the LORD avenge the wrongs you have done to me, but my hand will not touch you.

1 Samuel 24:13 As the old saying goes,`From evildoers come evil deeds,’ so my hand will not touch you.

1 Samuel 24:14 “Against whom has the king of Israel come out? Whom are you pursuing? A dead dog? A flea?

1 Samuel 24:15 May the LORD be our judge and decide between us. May he consider my cause and uphold it; may he vindicate me by delivering me from your hand.”

1 Samuel 24:16 When David finished saying this, Saul asked, “Is that your voice, David my son?” And he wept aloud.

1 Samuel 24:17 “You are more righteous than I,” he said. “You have treated me well, but I have treated you badly.

1 Samuel 24:18 You have just now told me of the good you did to me; the LORD gave me into your hands, but you did not kill me.

1 Samuel 24:19 When a man finds his enemy, does he let him get away unharmed? May the LORD reward you well for the way you treated me today.

1 Samuel 24:20 I know that you will surely be king and that the kingdom of Israel will be established in your hands.

1 Samuel 24:21 Now swear to me by the LORD that you will not cut off my descendants or wipe out my name from my father’s family.”

1 Samuel 24:22 So David gave his oath to Saul. Then Saul returned home, but David and his men went up to the stronghold.

1 Samuel 25:1 Now Samuel died, and all Israel assembled and mourned for him; and they buried him at his home in Ramah. Then David moved down into the Desert of Maon.

1 Samuel 25:2 A certain man in Maon, who had property there at Carmel, was very wealthy. He had a thousand goats and three thousand sheep, which he was shearing in Carmel.

1 Samuel 25:3 His name was Nabal and his wife’s name was Abigail. She was an intelligent and beautiful woman, but her husband, a Calebite, was surly and mean in his dealings.

1 Samuel 25:4 While David was in the desert, he heard that Nabal was shearing sheep.

1 Samuel 25:5 So he sent ten young men and said to them, “Go up to Nabal at Carmel and greet him in my name.

1 Samuel 25:6 Say to him:`Long life to you! Good health to you and your household! And good health to all that is yours!

1 Samuel 25:7 “`Now I hear that it is sheep-shearing time. When your shepherds were with us, we did not ill-treat them, and the whole time they were at Carmel nothing of theirs was missing.

1 Samuel 25:8 Ask your own servants and they will tell you. Therefore be favourable towards my young men, since we come at a festive time. Please give your servants and your son David whatever you can find for them.’“

1 Samuel 25:9 When David’s men arrived, they gave Nabal this message in David’s name. Then they waited.

1 Samuel 25:10 Nabal answered David’s servants, “Who is this David? Who is this son of Jesse? Many servants are breaking away from their masters these days.

1 Samuel 25:11 Why should I take my bread and water, and the meat I have slaughtered for my shearers, and give it to men coming from who knows where?”

1 Samuel 25:12 David’s men turned round and went back. When they arrived, they reported every word.

1 Samuel 25:13 David said to his men, “Put on your swords!” So they put on their swords, and David put on his. About four hundred men went up with David, while two hundred stayed with the supplies.

1 Samuel 25:14 One of the servants told Nabal’s wife Abigail: “David sent messengers from the desert to give our master his greetings, but he hurled insults at them.

1 Samuel 25:15 Yet these men were very good to us. They did not ill-treat us, and the whole time we were out in the fields near them nothing was missing.

1 Samuel 25:16 Night and day they were a wall around us all the time we were herding our sheep near them.

1 Samuel 25:17 Now think it over and see what you can do, because disaster is hanging over our master and his whole household. He is such a wicked man that no-one can talk to him.”

1 Samuel 25:18 Abigail lost no time. She took two hundred loaves of bread, two skins of wine, five dressed sheep, five seahs of roasted grain, a hundred cakes of raisins and two hundred cakes of pressed figs, and loaded them on donkeys.

1 Samuel 25:19 Then she told her servants, “Go on ahead; I’ll follow you.” But she did not tell her husband Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:20 As she came riding her donkey into a mountain ravine, there were David and his men descending towards her, and she met them.

1 Samuel 25:21 David had just said, “It’s been useless—all my watching over this fellow’s property in the desert so that nothing of his was missing. He has paid me back evil for good.

1 Samuel 25:22 May God deal with David, be it ever so severely, if by morning I leave alive one male of all who belong to him!”

1 Samuel 25:23 When Abigail saw David, she quickly got off her donkey and bowed down before David with her face to the ground.

1 Samuel 25:24 She fell at his feet and said: “My lord, let the blame be on me alone. Please let your servant speak to you; hear what your servant has to say.

1 Samuel 25:25 May my lord pay no attention to that wicked man Nabal. He is just like his name—his name is Fool, and folly goes with him. But as for me, your servant, I did not see the men my master sent.

1 Samuel 25:26 “Now since the LORD has kept you, my master, from bloodshed and from avenging yourself with your own hands, as surely as the LORD lives and as you live, may your enemies and all who intend to harm my master be like Nabal.

1 Samuel 25:27 And let this gift, which your servant has brought to my master, be given to the men who follow you.

1 Samuel 25:28 Please forgive your servant’s offence, for the LORD will certainly make a lasting dynasty for my master, because he fights the LORD’s battles. Let no wrongdoing be found in you as long as you live.

1 Samuel 25:29 Even though someone is pursuing you to take your life, the life of my master will be bound securely in the bundle of the living by the LORD your God. But the lives of your enemies he will hurl away as from the pocket of a sling.

1 Samuel 25:30 When the LORD has done for my master every good thing he promised concerning him and has appointed him leader over Israel,

1 Samuel 25:31 my master will not have on his conscience the staggering burden of needless bloodshed or of having avenged himself. And when the LORD has brought my master success, remember your servant.”

1 Samuel 25:32 David said to Abigail, “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has sent you today to meet me.

1 Samuel 25:33 May you be blessed for your good judgment and for keeping me from bloodshed this day and from avenging myself with my own hands.

1 Samuel 25:34 Otherwise, as surely as the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, who has kept me from harming you, if you had not come quickly to meet me, not one male belonging to Nabal would have been left alive by daybreak.”

1 Samuel 25:35 Then David accepted from her hand what she had brought to him and said, “Go home in peace. I have heard your words and granted your request.”

1 Samuel 25:36 When Abigail went to Nabal, he was in the house holding a banquet like that of a king. He was in high spirits and very drunk. So she told him nothing until daybreak.

1 Samuel 25:37 Then in the morning, when Nabal was sober, his wife told him all these things, and his heart failed him and he became like a stone.

1 Samuel 25:38 About ten days later, the LORD struck Nabal and he died.

1 Samuel 25:39 When David heard that Nabal was dead, he said, “Praise be to the LORD, who has upheld my cause against Nabal for treating me with contempt. He has kept his servant from doing wrong and has brought Nabal's wrongdoing down on his own head." Then David sent word to Abigail, asking her to become his wife.

1 Samuel 25:40 His servants went to Carmel and said to Abigail, "David has sent us to you to take you to become his wife."

1 Samuel 25:41 She bowed down with her face to the ground and said, "Here is your maidservant, ready to serve you and wash the feet of my master's servants."

1 Samuel 25:42 Abigail quickly got on a donkey and, attended by her five maids, went with David's messengers and became his wife.

1 Samuel 25:43 David had also married Ahinoam of Jezreel, and they both were his wives.

1 Samuel 25:44 But Saul had given his daughter Michal, David's wife, to Paltiel son of Laish, who was from Gallim.

1 Samuel 26:1 The Ziphites went to Saul at Gibeah and said, "Is not David hiding on the hill of Hakilah, which faces Jeshimon?"

1 Samuel 26:2 So Saul went down to the Desert of Ziph, with his three thousand chosen men of Israel, to search there for David.

1 Samuel 26:3 Saul made his camp beside the road on the hill of Hakilah facing Jeshimon, but David stayed in the desert. When he saw that Saul had followed him there,

1 Samuel 26:4 he sent out scouts and learned that Saul had definitely arrived.

1 Samuel 26:5 Then David set out and went to the place where Saul had camped. He saw where Saul and Abner son of Ner, the commander of the army, had lain down. Saul was lying inside the camp, with the army encamped around him.

1 Samuel 26:6 David then asked Ahimelech the Hittite and Abishai son of Zeruiah, Joab's brother, "Who will go down into the camp with me to Saul?" "I'll go with you," said Abishai.

1 Samuel 26:7 So David and Abishai went to the army by night, and there was Saul, lying asleep inside the camp with his spear stuck in the ground near his head. Abner and the soldiers were lying round him.

1 Samuel 26:8 Abishai said to David, "Today God has given your enemy into your hands. Now let me pin him to the ground with one thrust of my spear; I won't strike him twice."

1 Samuel 26:9 But David said to Abishai, "Don't destroy him! Who can lay a hand on the LORD's anointed and be guiltless?

1 Samuel 26:10 As surely as the LORD lives," he said, "the LORD himself will strike him; either his time will come and he will die, or he will go into battle and perish.

1 Samuel 26:11 But the LORD forbid that I should lay a hand on the LORD’s anointed. Now get the spear and water jug that are near his head, and let’s go.”

1 Samuel 26:12 So David took the spear and water jug near Saul’s head, and they left. No-one saw or knew about it, nor did anyone wake up. They were all sleeping, because the LORD had put them into a deep sleep.

1 Samuel 26:13 Then David crossed over to the other side and stood on top of the hill some distance away; there was a wide space between them.

1 Samuel 26:14 He called out to the army and to Abner son of Ner, “Aren’t you going to answer me, Abner?” Abner replied, “Who are you who calls to the king?”

1 Samuel 26:15 David said, “You’re a man, aren’t you? And who is like you in Israel? Why didn’t you guard your lord the king? Someone came to destroy your lord the king.

1 Samuel 26:16 What you have done is not good. As surely as the LORD lives, you and your men deserve to die, because you did not guard your master, the LORD’s anointed. Look around you. Where are the king’s spear and water jug that were near his head?”

1 Samuel 26:17 Saul recognised David’s voice and said, “Is that your voice, David my son?” David replied, “Yes it is, my lord the king.”

1 Samuel 26:18 And he added, “Why is my lord pursuing his servant? What have I done, and what wrong am I guilty of?

1 Samuel 26:19 Now let my lord the king listen to his servant’s words. If the LORD has incited you against me, then may he accept an offering. If, however, men have done it, may they be cursed before the LORD! They have now driven me from my share in the LORD’s inheritance and have said,`Go, serve other gods.’

1 Samuel 26:20 Now do not let my blood fall to the ground far from the presence of the LORD. The king of Israel has come out to look for a flea—as one hunts a partridge in the mountains.”

1 Samuel 26:21 Then Saul said, “I have sinned. Come back, David my son. Because you considered my life precious today, I will not try to harm you again. Surely I have acted like a fool and have erred greatly.”

1 Samuel 26:22 “Here is the king’s spear,” David answered. “Let one of your young men come over and get it.

1 Samuel 26:23 The LORD rewards every man for his righteousness and faithfulness. The LORD gave you into my hands today, but I would not lay a hand on the LORD’s anointed.

1 Samuel 26:24 As surely as I valued your life today, so may the LORD value my life and deliver me from all trouble.”

1 Samuel 26:25 Then Saul said to David, “May you be blessed, my son David; you will do great things and surely triumph.” So David went on his way, and Saul returned home.

1 Samuel 27:1 But David thought to himself, “One of these days I shall be destroyed by the hand of Saul. The best thing I can do is to escape to the land of the Philistines. Then Saul will give up searching for me anywhere in Israel, and I will slip out of his hand.”

1 Samuel 27:2 So David and the six hundred men with him left and went over to Achish son of Maoch king of Gath.

1 Samuel 27:3 David and his men settled in Gath with Achish. Each man had his family with him, and David had his two wives: Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail of Carmel, the widow of Nabal.

1 Samuel 27:4 When Saul was told that David had fled to Gath, he no longer searched for him.

1 Samuel 27:5 Then David said to Achish, “If I have found favour in your eyes, let a place be assigned to me in one of the country towns, that I may live there. Why should your servant live in the royal city with you?”

1 Samuel 27:6 So on that day Achish gave him Ziklag, and it has belonged to the kings of Judah ever since.

1 Samuel 27:7 David lived in Philistine territory for a year and four months.

1 Samuel 27:8 Now David and his men went up and raided the Geshurites, the Girzites and the Amalekites. (From ancient times these peoples had lived in the land extending to Shur and Egypt.)

1 Samuel 27:9 Whenever David attacked an area, he did not leave a man or woman alive, but took sheep and cattle, donkeys and camels, and clothes. Then he returned to Achish.

1 Samuel 27:10 When Achish asked, “Where did you go raiding today?” David would say, “Against the Negev of Judah” or “Against the Negev of Jerahmeel” or “Against the Negev of the Kenites.”

1 Samuel 27:11 He did not leave a man or woman alive to be brought to Gath, for he thought, “They might inform on us and say,`This is what David did.’“ And such was his practice as long as he lived in Philistine territory.

1 Samuel 27:12 Achish trusted David and said to himself, “He has become so odious to his people, the Israelites, that he will be my servant for ever.”

1 Samuel 28:1 In those days the Philistines gathered their forces to fight against Israel. Achish said to David, “You must understand that you and your men will accompany me in the army.”

1 Samuel 28:2 David said, “Then you will see for yourself what your servant can do.” Achish replied, “Very well, I will make you my bodyguard for life.”

1 Samuel 28:3 Now Samuel was dead, and all Israel had mourned for him and buried him in his own town of Ramah. Saul had expelled the mediums and spiritists from the land.

1 Samuel 28:4 The Philistines assembled and came and set up camp at Shunem, while Saul gathered all the Israelites and set up camp at Gilboa.

1 Samuel 28:5 When Saul saw the Philistine army, he was afraid; terror filled his heart.

1 Samuel 28:6 He enquired of the LORD, but the LORD did not answer him by dreams or Urim or prophets.

1 Samuel 28:7 Saul then said to his attendants, “Find me a woman who is a medium, so that I may go and enquire of her.” “There is one in Endor,” they said.

1 Samuel 28:8 So Saul disguised himself, putting on other clothes, and at night he and two men went to the woman. “Consult a spirit for me,” he said, “and bring up for me the one I name.”

1 Samuel 28:9 But the woman said to him, “Surely you know what Saul has done. He has cut off the mediums and spiritists from the land. Why have you set a trap for my life to bring about my death?”

1 Samuel 28:10 Saul swore to her by the LORD, “As surely as the LORD lives, you will not be punished for this.”

1 Samuel 28:11 Then the woman asked, “Whom shall I bring up for you?” “Bring up Samuel,” he said.

1 Samuel 28:12 When the woman saw Samuel, she cried out at the top of her voice and said to Saul, “Why have you deceived me? You are Saul!”

1 Samuel 28:13 The king said to her, “Don’t be afraid. What do you see?” The woman said, “I see a spirit coming up out of the ground.”

1 Samuel 28:14 “What does he look like?” he asked. “An old man wearing a robe is coming up,” she said. Then Saul knew it was Samuel, and he bowed down and prostrated himself with his face to the ground.

1 Samuel 28:15 Samuel said to Saul, “Why have you disturbed me by bringing me up?” “I am in great distress,” Saul said. “The Philistines are fighting against me, and God has turned away from me. He no longer answers me, either by prophets or by dreams. So I have called on you to tell me what to do.”

1 Samuel 28:16 Samuel said, “Why do you consult me, now that the LORD has turned away from you and become your enemy?

1 Samuel 28:17 The LORD has done what he predicted through me. The LORD has torn the kingdom out of your hands and given it to one of your neighbours—to David.

1 Samuel 28:18 Because you did not obey the LORD or carry out his fierce wrath against the Amalekites, the LORD has done this to you today.

1 Samuel 28:19 The LORD will hand over both Israel and you to the Philistines, and tomorrow you and your sons will be with me. The LORD will also hand over the army of Israel to the Philistines.”

1 Samuel 28:20 Immediately Saul fell full length on the ground, filled with fear because of Samuel’s words. His strength was gone, for he had eaten nothing all that day and night.

1 Samuel 28:21 When the woman came to Saul and saw that he was greatly shaken, she said, “Look, your maidservant has obeyed you. I took my life in my hands and did what you told me to do.

1 Samuel 28:22 Now please listen to your servant and let me give you some food so that you may eat and have the strength to go on your way.”

1 Samuel 28:23 He refused and said, “I will not eat.” But his men joined the woman in urging him, and he listened to them. He got up from the ground and sat on the couch.

1 Samuel 28:24 The woman had a fattened calf at the house, which she slaughtered at once. She took some flour, kneaded it and baked bread without yeast.

1 Samuel 28:25 Then she set it before Saul and his men, and they ate. That same night they got up and left.

1 Samuel 29:1 The Philistines gathered all their forces at Aphek, and Israel camped by the spring in Jezreel.

1 Samuel 29:2 As the Philistine rulers marched with their units of hundreds and thousands, David and his men were marching at the rear with Achish.

1 Samuel 29:3 The commanders of the Philistines asked, “What about these Hebrews?” Achish replied, “Is this not David, who was an officer of Saul king of Israel? He has already been with me for over a year, and from the day he left Saul until now, I have found no fault in him.”

1 Samuel 29:4 But the Philistine commanders were angry with him and said, “Send the man back, that he may return to the place you assigned him. He must not go with us into battle, or he will turn against us during the fighting. How better could he regain his master’s favour than by taking the heads of our own men?

1 Samuel 29:5 Isn’t this the David they sang about in their dances: “`Saul has slain his thousands, and David his tens of thousands’?”

1 Samuel 29:6 So Achish called David and said to him, “As surely as the LORD lives, you have been reliable, and I would be pleased to have you serve with me in the army. From the day you came to me until now, I have found no fault in you, but the rulers don't approve of you.

1 Samuel 29:7 Turn back and go in peace; do nothing to displease the Philistine rulers."

1 Samuel 29:8 "But what have I done?" asked David. "What have you found against your servant from the day I came to you until now? Why can't I go and fight against the enemies of my lord the king?"

1 Samuel 29:9 Achish answered, "I know that you have been as pleasing in my eyes as an angel of God; nevertheless, the Philistine commanders have said,`He must not go up with us into battle.'

1 Samuel 29:10 Now get up early, along with your master's servants who have come with you, and leave in the morning as soon as it is light."

1 Samuel 29:11 So David and his men got up early in the morning to go back to the land of the Philistines, and the Philistines went up to Jezreel.

1 Samuel 30:1 David and his men reached Ziklag on the third day. Now the Amalekites had raided the Negev and Ziklag. They had attacked Ziklag and burned it,

1 Samuel 30:2 and had taken captive the women and all who were in it, both young and old. They killed none of them, but carried them off as they went on their way.

1 Samuel 30:3 When David and his men came to Ziklag, they found it destroyed by fire and their wives and sons and daughters taken captive.

1 Samuel 30:4 So David and his men wept aloud until they had no strength left to weep.

1 Samuel 30:5 David's two wives had been captured—Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

1 Samuel 30:6 David was greatly distressed because the men were talking of stoning him; each one was bitter in spirit because of his sons and daughters. But David found strength in the LORD his God.

1 Samuel 30:7 Then David said to Abiathar the priest, the son of Ahimelech, "Bring me the ephod." Abiathar brought it to him,

1 Samuel 30:8 and David enquired of the LORD, "Shall I pursue this raiding party? Will I overtake them?" "Pursue them," he answered. "You will certainly overtake them and succeed in the rescue."

1 Samuel 30:9 David and the six hundred men with him came to the Besor Ravine, where some stayed behind,

1 Samuel 30:10 for two hundred men were too exhausted to cross the ravine. But David and four hundred men continued the pursuit.

1 Samuel 30:11 They found an Egyptian in a field and brought him to David. They gave him water to drink and food to eat—

1 Samuel 30:12 part of a cake of pressed figs and two cakes of raisins. He ate and was revived, for he had not eaten any food or drunk any water for three days and three nights.

1 Samuel 30:13 David asked him, “To whom do you belong, and where do you come from?” He said, “I am an Egyptian, the slave of an Amalekite. My master abandoned me when I became ill three days ago.

1 Samuel 30:14 We raided the Negev of the Kerethites and the territory belonging to Judah and the Negev of Caleb. And we burned Ziklag.”

1 Samuel 30:15 David asked him, “Can you lead me down to this raiding party?” He answered, “Swear to me before God that you will not kill me or hand me over to my master, and I will take you down to them.”

1 Samuel 30:16 He led David down, and there they were, scattered over the countryside, eating, drinking and revelling because of the great amount of plunder they had taken from the land of the Philistines and from Judah.

1 Samuel 30:17 David fought them from dusk until the evening of the next day, and none of them got away, except four hundred young men who rode off on camels and fled.

1 Samuel 30:18 David recovered everything the Amalekites had taken, including his two wives.

1 Samuel 30:19 Nothing was missing: young or old, boy or girl, plunder or anything else they had taken. David brought everything back.

1 Samuel 30:20 He took all the flocks and herds, and his men drove them ahead of the other livestock, saying, “This is David’s plunder.”

1 Samuel 30:21 Then David came to the two hundred men who had been too exhausted to follow him and who were left behind at the Besor Ravine. They came out to meet David and the people with him. As David and his men approached, he greeted them.

1 Samuel 30:22 But all the evil men and troublemakers among David’s followers said, “Because they did not go out with us, we will not share with them the plunder we recovered. However, each man may take his wife and children and go.”

1 Samuel 30:23 David replied, “No, my brothers, you must not do that with what the LORD has given us. He has protected us and handed over to us the forces that came against us.

1 Samuel 30:24 Who will listen to what you say? The share of the man who stayed with the supplies is to be the same as that of him who went down to the battle. All shall share alike.”

1 Samuel 30:25 David made this a statute and ordinance for Israel from that day to this.

1 Samuel 30:26 When David arrived in Ziklag, he sent some of the plunder to the elders of Judah, who were his friends, saying, “Here is a present for you from the plunder of the LORD’s enemies.”

1 Samuel 30:27 He sent it to those who were in Bethel, Ramoth Negev and Jattir;

1 Samuel 30:28 to those in Aroer, Siphmoth, Eshtemoa

1 Samuel 30:29 and Racal; to those in the towns of the Jerahmeelites and the Kenites;

1 Samuel 30:30 to those in Hormah, Bor Ashan, Athach

1 Samuel 30:31 and Hebron; and to those in all the other places where David and his men had roamed.

1 Samuel 31:1 Now the Philistines fought against Israel; the Israelites fled before them, and many fell slain on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:2 The Philistines pressed hard after Saul and his sons, and they killed his sons Jonathan, Abinadab and Malki-Shua.

1 Samuel 31:3 The fighting grew fierce around Saul, and when the archers overtook him, they wounded him critically.

1 Samuel 31:4 Saul said to his armour-bearer, “Draw your sword and run me through, or these uncircumcised fellows will come and run me through and abuse me.” But the armour-bearer was terrified and would not do it; so Saul took his own sword and fell on it.

1 Samuel 31:5 When the armour-bearer saw that Saul was dead, he too fell on his sword and died with him.

1 Samuel 31:6 So Saul and his three sons and his armour-bearer and all his men died together that same day.

1 Samuel 31:7 When the Israelites along the valley and those across the Jordan saw that the Israelite army had fled and that Saul and his sons had died, they abandoned their towns and fled. And the Philistines came and occupied them.

1 Samuel 31:8 The next day, when the Philistines came to strip the dead, they found Saul and his three sons fallen on Mount Gilboa.

1 Samuel 31:9 They cut off his head and stripped off his armour, and they sent messengers throughout the land of the Philistines to proclaim the news in the temple of their idols and among their people.

1 Samuel 31:10 They put his armour in the temple of the Ashtoreths and fastened his body to the wall of Beth Shan.

1 Samuel 31:11 When the people of Jabesh Gilead heard of what the Philistines had done to Saul,

1 Samuel 31:12 all their valiant men journeyed through the night to Beth Shan. They took down the bodies of Saul and his sons from the wall of Beth Shan and went to Jabesh, where they burned them.

1 Samuel 31:13 Then they took their bones and buried them under a tamarisk tree at Jabesh, and they fasted seven days.

2 Samuel

1:1 After the death of Saul, David returned from defeating the Amalekites and stayed in Ziklag two days.

2 Samuel 1:2 On the third day a man arrived from Saul’s camp, with his clothes torn and with dust on his head. When he came to David, he fell to the ground to pay him honour.

2 Samuel 1:3 “Where have you come from?” David asked him. He answered, “I have escaped from the Israelite camp.”

2 Samuel 1:4 “What happened?” David asked. “Tell me.” He said, “The men fled from the battle. Many of them fell and died. And Saul and his son Jonathan are dead.”

2 Samuel 1:5 Then David said to the young man who brought him the report, “How do you know that Saul and his son Jonathan are dead?”

2 Samuel 1:6 “I happened to be on Mount Gilboa,” the young man said, “and there was Saul, leaning on his spear, with the chariots and riders almost upon him.

2 Samuel 1:7 When he turned round and saw me, he called out to me, and I said,`What can I do?’

2 Samuel 1:8 “He asked me,`Who are you?’ “`An Amalekite,’ I answered.

2 Samuel 1:9 “Then he said to me,`Stand over me and kill me! I am in the throes of death, but I’m still alive.’

2 Samuel 1:10 “So I stood over him and killed him, because I knew that after he had fallen he could not survive. And I took the crown that was on his head and the band on his arm and have brought them here to my lord.”

2 Samuel 1:11 Then David and all the men with him took hold of their clothes and tore them.

2 Samuel 1:12 They mourned and wept and fasted till evening for Saul and his son Jonathan, and for the army of the LORD and the house of Israel, because they had fallen by the sword.

2 Samuel 1:13 David said to the young man who brought him the report, “Where are you from?” “I am the son of an alien, an Amalekite,” he answered.

2 Samuel 1:14 David asked him, “Why were you not afraid to lift your hand to destroy the LORD’s anointed?”

2 Samuel 1:15 Then David called one of his men and said, “Go, strike him down!” So he struck him down, and he died.

2 Samuel 1:16 For David had said to him, “Your blood be on your own head. Your own mouth testified against you when you said,`I killed the LORD’s anointed.’“

2 Samuel 1:17 David took up this lament concerning Saul and his son Jonathan,

2 Samuel 1:18 and ordered that the men of Judah be taught this lament of the bow (it is written in the Book of Jashar):

2 Samuel 1:19 “Your glory, O Israel, lies slain on your heights. How the mighty have fallen!

2 Samuel 1:20 “Tell it not in Gath, proclaim it not in the streets of Ashkelon, lest the daughters of the Philistines be glad, lest the daughters of the uncircumcised rejoice.

2 Samuel 1:21 “O mountains of Gilboa, may you have neither dew nor rain, nor fields that yield offerings [of grain]. For there the shield of the mighty was defiled, the shield of Saul—no longer rubbed with oil.

2 Samuel 1:22 From the blood of the slain, from the flesh of the mighty, the bow of Jonathan did not turn back, the sword of Saul did not return unsatisfied.

2 Samuel 1:23 “Saul and Jonathan—in life they were loved and gracious, and in death they were not parted. They were swifter than eagles, they were stronger than lions.

2 Samuel 1:24 “O daughters of Israel, weep for Saul, who clothed you in scarlet and finery, who adorned your garments with ornaments of gold.

2 Samuel 1:25 “How the mighty have fallen in battle! Jonathan lies slain on your heights.

2 Samuel 1:26 I grieve for you, Jonathan my brother; you were very dear to me. Your love for me was wonderful, more wonderful than that of women.

2 Samuel 1:27 “How the mighty have fallen! The weapons of war have perished!”

2 Samuel 2:1 In the course of time, David enquired of the LORD. “Shall I go up to one of the towns of Judah?” he asked. The LORD said, “Go up.” David asked, “Where shall I go?” “To Hebron,” the LORD answered.

2 Samuel 2:2 So David went up there with his two wives, Ahinoam of Jezreel and Abigail, the widow of Nabal of Carmel.

2 Samuel 2:3 David also took the men who were with him, each with his family, and they settled in Hebron and its towns.

2 Samuel 2:4 Then the men of Judah came to Hebron and there they anointed David king over the house of Judah. When David was told that it was the men of Jabesh Gilead who had buried Saul,

2 Samuel 2:5 he sent messengers to the men of Jabesh Gilead to say to them, “The LORD bless you for showing this kindness to Saul your master by burying him.

2 Samuel 2:6 May the LORD now show you kindness and faithfulness, and I too will show you the same favour because you have done this.

2 Samuel 2:7 Now then, be strong and brave, for Saul your master is dead, and the house of Judah has anointed me king over them.”

2 Samuel 2:8 Meanwhile, Abner son of Ner, the commander of Saul’s army, had taken Ish-Bosheth son of Saul and brought him over to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:9 He made him king over Gilead, Ashuri and Jezreel, and also over Ephraim, Benjamin and all Israel.

2 Samuel 2:10 Ish-Bosheth son of Saul was forty years old when he became king over Israel, and he reigned two years. The house of Judah, however, followed David.

2 Samuel 2:11 The length of time David was king in Hebron over the house of Judah was seven years and six months.

2 Samuel 2:12 Abner son of Ner, together with the men of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, left Mahanaim and went to Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:13 Joab son of Zeruiah and David’s men went out and met them at the pool of Gibeon. One group sat down on one side of the pool and one group on the other side.

2 Samuel 2:14 Then Abner said to Joab, “Let’s have some of the young men get up and fight hand to hand in front of us.” “All right, let them do it,” Joab said.

2 Samuel 2:15 So they stood up and were counted off—twelve men for Benjamin and Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, and twelve for David.

2 Samuel 2:16 Then each man grabbed his opponent by the head and thrust his dagger into his opponent’s side, and they fell down together. So that place in Gibeon was called Helkath Hazzurim.

2 Samuel 2:17 The battle that day was very fierce, and Abner and the men of Israel were defeated by David’s men.

2 Samuel 2:18 The three sons of Zeruiah were there: Joab, Abishai and Asahel. Now Asahel was as fleet-footed as a wild gazelle.

2 Samuel 2:19 He chased Abner, turning neither to the right nor to the left as he pursued him.

2 Samuel 2:20 Abner looked behind him and asked, “Is that you, Asahel?” “It is,” he answered.

2 Samuel 2:21 Then Abner said to him, “Turn aside to the right or to the left; take on one of the young men and strip him of his weapons.” But Asahel would not stop chasing him.

2 Samuel 2:22 Again Abner warned Asahel, “Stop chasing me! Why should I strike you down? How could I look your brother Joab in the face?”

2 Samuel 2:23 But Asahel refused to give up the pursuit; so Abner thrust the butt of his spear into Asahel’s stomach, and the spear came out through his back. He fell there and died on the spot. And every man stopped when he came to the place where Asahel had fallen and died.

2 Samuel 2:24 But Joab and Abishai pursued Abner, and as the sun was setting, they came to the hill of Ammah, near Giah on the way to the wasteland of Gibeon.

2 Samuel 2:25 Then the men of Benjamin rallied behind Abner. They formed themselves into a group and took their stand on top of a hill.

2 Samuel 2:26 Abner called out to Joab, “Must the sword devour for ever? Don’t you realise that this will end in bitterness? How long before you order your men to stop pursuing their brothers?”

2 Samuel 2:27 Joab answered, “As surely as God lives, if you had not spoken, the men would have continued the pursuit of their brothers until morning.”

2 Samuel 2:28 So Joab blew the trumpet, and all the men came to a halt; they no longer pursued Israel, nor did they fight any more.

2 Samuel 2:29 All that night Abner and his men marched through the Arabah. They crossed the Jordan, continued through the whole Bithron and came to Mahanaim.

2 Samuel 2:30 Then Joab returned from pursuing Abner and assembled all his men. Besides Asahel, nineteen of David’s men were found missing.

2 Samuel 2:31 But David’s men had killed 360 Benjamites who were with Abner.

2 Samuel 2:32 They took Asahel and buried him in his father’s tomb at Bethlehem. Then Joab and his men marched all night and arrived at Hebron by daybreak.

2 Samuel 3:1 The war between the house of Saul and the house of David lasted a long time. David grew stronger and stronger, while the house of Saul grew weaker and weaker.

2 Samuel 3:2 Sons were born to David in Hebron: His firstborn was Amnon the son of Ahinoam of Jezreel;

2 Samuel 3:3 his second, Kileab the son of Abigail the widow of Nabal of Carmel; the third, Absalom the son of Maacah daughter of Talmai king of Geshur;

2 Samuel 3:4 the fourth, Adonijah the son of Haggith; the fifth, Shephatiah the son of Abital;

2 Samuel 3:5 and the sixth, Ithream the son of David’s wife Eglah. These were born to David in Hebron.

2 Samuel 3:6 During the war between the house of Saul and the house of David, Abner had been strengthening his own position in the house of Saul.

2 Samuel 3:7 Now Saul had had a concubine named Rizpah daughter of Aiah. And Ish-Bosheth said to Abner, “Why did you sleep with my father’s concubine?”

2 Samuel 3:8 Abner was very angry because of what Ish-Bosheth said and he answered, “Am I a dog’s head—on Judah’s side? This very day I am loyal to the house of your father Saul and to his family and friends. I haven’t handed you over to David. Yet now you accuse me of an offence involving this woman!

2 Samuel 3:9 May God deal with Abner, be it ever so severely, if I do not do for David what the LORD promised him on oath

2 Samuel 3:10 and transfer the kingdom from the house of Saul and establish David’s throne over Israel and Judah from Dan to Beersheba.”

2 Samuel 3:11 Ish-Bosheth did not dare to say another word to Abner, because he was afraid of him.

2 Samuel 3:12 Then Abner sent messengers on his behalf to say to David, “Whose land is it? Make an agreement with me, and I will help you bring all Israel over to you.”

2 Samuel 3:13 “Good,” said David. “I will make an agreement with you. But I demand one thing of you: Do not come into my presence unless you bring Michal daughter of Saul when you come to see me.”

2 Samuel 3:14 Then David sent messengers to Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, demanding, “Give me my wife Michal, whom I betrothed to myself for the price of a hundred Philistine foreskins.”

2 Samuel 3:15 So Ish-Bosheth gave orders and had her taken away from her husband Paltiel son of Laish.

2 Samuel 3:16 Her husband, however, went with her, weeping behind her all the way to Bahurim. Then Abner said to him, “Go back home!” So he went back.

2 Samuel 3:17 Abner conferred with the elders of Israel and said, “For some time you have wanted to make David your king.

2 Samuel 3:18 Now do it! For the LORD promised David,`By my servant David I will rescue my people Israel from the hand of the Philistines and from the hand of all their enemies.’“

2 Samuel 3:19 Abner also spoke to the Benjamites in person. Then he went to Hebron to tell David everything that Israel and the whole house of Benjamin wanted to do.

2 Samuel 3:20 When Abner, who had twenty men with him, came to David at Hebron, David prepared a feast for him and his men.

2 Samuel 3:21 Then Abner said to David, “Let me go at once and assemble all Israel for my lord the king, so that they may make a compact with you, and that you may rule over all that your heart desires.” So David sent Abner away, and he went in peace.

2 Samuel 3:22 Just then David’s men and Joab returned from a raid and brought with them a great deal of plunder. But Abner was no longer with David in Hebron, because David had sent him away, and he had gone in peace.

2 Samuel 3:23 When Joab and all the soldiers with him arrived, he was told that Abner son of Ner had come to the king and that the king had sent him away and that he had gone in peace.

2 Samuel 3:24 So Joab went to the king and said, “What have you done? Look, Abner came to you. Why did you let him go? Now he is gone!

2 Samuel 3:25 You know Abner son of Ner; he came to deceive you and observe your movements and find out everything you are doing.”

2 Samuel 3:26 Joab then left David and sent messengers after Abner, and they brought him back from the well of Sirah. But David did not know it.

2 Samuel 3:27 Now when Abner returned to Hebron, Joab took him aside into the gateway, as though to speak with him privately. And there, to avenge the blood of his brother Asahel, Joab stabbed him in the stomach, and he died.

2 Samuel 3:28 Later, when David heard about this, he said, “I and my kingdom are for ever innocent before the LORD concerning the blood of Abner son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:29 May his blood fall upon the head of Joab and upon all his father’s house! May Joab’s house never be without someone who has a running sore or leprosy or who leans on a crutch or who falls by the sword or who lacks food.”

2 Samuel 3:30 (Joab and his brother Abishai murdered Abner because he had killed their brother Asahel in the battle of Gibeon.)

2 Samuel 3:31 Then David said to Joab and all the people with him, “Tear your clothes and put on sackcloth and walk in mourning in front of Abner.” King David himself walked behind the bier.

2 Samuel 3:32 They buried Abner in Hebron, and the king wept aloud at Abner’s tomb. All the people wept also.

2 Samuel 3:33 The king sang this lament for Abner: “Should Abner have died as the lawless die?

2 Samuel 3:34 Your hands were not bound, your feet were not fettered. You fell as one falls before wicked men.” And all the people wept over him again.

2 Samuel 3:35 Then they all came and urged David to eat something while it was still day; but David took an oath, saying, “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if I taste bread or anything else before the sun sets!”

2 Samuel 3:36 All the people took note and were pleased; indeed, everything the king did pleased them.

2 Samuel 3:37 So on that day all the people and all Israel knew that the king had no part in the murder of Abner son of Ner.

2 Samuel 3:38 Then the king said to his men, “Do you not realise that a prince and a great man has fallen in Israel this day?

2 Samuel 3:39 And today, though I am the anointed king, I am weak, and these sons of Zeruiah are too strong for me. May the LORD repay the evildoer according to his evil deeds!”

2 Samuel 4:1 When Ish-Bosheth son of Saul heard that Abner had died in Hebron, he lost courage, and all Israel became alarmed.

2 Samuel 4:2 Now Saul’s son had two men who were leaders of raiding bands. One was named Baanah and the other Recab; they were sons of Rimmon the Beerothite from the tribe of Benjamin—Beeroth is considered part of Benjamin,

2 Samuel 4:3 because the people of Beeroth fled to Gittaim and have lived there as aliens to this day.

2 Samuel 4:4 (Jonathan son of Saul had a son who was lame in both feet. He was five years old when the news about Saul and Jonathan came from Jezreel. His nurse picked him up and fled, but as she hurried to leave, he fell and became crippled. His name was Mephibosheth.)

2 Samuel 4:5 Now Recab and Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, set out for the house of Ish-Bosheth, and they arrived there in the heat of the day while he was taking his noonday rest.

2 Samuel 4:6 They went into the inner part of the house as if to get some wheat, and they stabbed him in the stomach. Then Recab and his brother Baanah slipped away.

2 Samuel 4:7 They had gone into the house while he was lying on the bed in his bedroom. After they stabbed and killed him, they cut off his head. Taking it with them, they travelled all night by way of the Arabah.

2 Samuel 4:8 They brought the head of Ish-Bosheth to David at Hebron and said to the king, “Here is the head of Ish-Bosheth son of Saul, your enemy, who tried to take your life. This day the LORD has avenged my lord the king against Saul and his offspring.”

2 Samuel 4:9 David answered Recab and his brother Baanah, the sons of Rimmon the Beerothite, “As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of all trouble,

2 Samuel 4:10 when a man told me,`Saul is dead,' and thought he was bringing good news, I seized him and put him to death in Ziklag. That was the reward I gave him for his news!

2 Samuel 4:11 How much more—when wicked men have killed an innocent man in his own house and on his own bed—should I not now demand his blood from your hand and rid the earth of you!"

2 Samuel 4:12 So David gave an order to his men, and they killed them. They cut off their hands and feet and hung the bodies by the pool in Hebron. But they took the head of Ish-Bosheth and buried it in Abner's tomb at Hebron.

2 Samuel 5:1 All the tribes of Israel came to David at Hebron and said, "We are your own flesh and blood.

2 Samuel 5:2 In the past, while Saul was king over us, you were the one who led Israel on their military campaigns. And the LORD said to you,`You shall shepherd my people Israel, and you shall become their ruler.'"

2 Samuel 5:3 When all the elders of Israel had come to King David at Hebron, the king made a compact with them at Hebron before the LORD, and they anointed David king over Israel.

2 Samuel 5:4 David was thirty years old when he became king, and he reigned for forty years.

2 Samuel 5:5 In Hebron he reigned over Judah for seven years and six months, and in Jerusalem he reigned over all Israel and Judah for thirty-three years.

2 Samuel 5:6 The king and his men marched to Jerusalem to attack the Jebusites, who lived there. The Jebusites said to David, "You will not get in here; even the blind and the lame can ward you off." They thought, "David cannot get in here."

2 Samuel 5:7 Nevertheless, David captured the fortress of Zion, the City of David.

2 Samuel 5:8 On that day, David said, "Anyone who conquers the Jebusites will have to use the water shaft to reach those`lame and blind' who are David's enemies." That is why they say, "The`blind and lame' will not enter the palace."

2 Samuel 5:9 David then took up residence in the fortress and called it the City of David. He built up the area around it, from the supporting terraces inward.

2 Samuel 5:10 And he became more and more powerful, because the LORD God Almighty was with him.

2 Samuel 5:11 Now Hiram king of Tyre sent messengers to David, along with cedar logs and carpenters and stonemasons, and they built a palace for David.

2 Samuel 5:12 And David knew that the LORD had established him as king over Israel and had exalted his kingdom for the sake of his people Israel.

2 Samuel 5:13 After he left Hebron, David took more concubines and wives in Jerusalem, and more sons and daughters were born to him.

2 Samuel 5:14 These are the names of the children born to him there: Shammua, Shobab, Nathan, Solomon,

2 Samuel 5:15 Ibhar, Elishua, Nepheg, Japhia,

2 Samuel 5:16 Elishama, Eliada and Eliphelet.

2 Samuel 5:17 When the Philistines heard that David had been anointed king over Israel, they went up in full force to search for him, but David heard about it and went down to the stronghold.

2 Samuel 5:18 Now the Philistines had come and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

2 Samuel 5:19 so David enquired of the LORD, “Shall I go and attack the Philistines? Will you hand them over to me?” The LORD answered him, “Go, for I will surely hand the Philistines over to you.”

2 Samuel 5:20 So David went to Baal Perazim, and there he defeated them. He said, “As waters break out, the LORD has broken out against my enemies before me.” So that place was called Baal Perazim.

2 Samuel 5:21 The Philistines abandoned their idols there, and David and his men carried them off.

2 Samuel 5:22 Once more the Philistines came up and spread out in the Valley of Rephaim;

2 Samuel 5:23 so David enquired of the LORD, and he answered, “Do not go straight up, but circle round behind them and attack them in front of the balsam trees.

2 Samuel 5:24 As soon as you hear the sound of marching in the tops of the balsam trees, move quickly, because that will mean the LORD has gone out in front of you to strike the Philistine army.”

2 Samuel 5:25 So David did as the LORD commanded him, and he struck down the Philistines all the way from Gibeon to Gezer.

2 Samuel 6:1 David again brought together out of Israel chosen men, thirty thousand in all.

2 Samuel 6:2 He and all his men set out from Baalah of Judah to bring up from there the ark of God, which is called by the Name, the name of the LORD Almighty, who is enthroned between the cherubim that are on the ark.

2 Samuel 6:3 They set the ark of God on a new cart and brought it from the house of Abinadab, which was on the hill. Uzzah and Ahio, sons of Abinadab, were guiding the new cart

2 Samuel 6:4 with the ark of God on it, and Ahio was walking in front of it.

2 Samuel 6:5 David and the whole house of Israel were celebrating with all their might before the LORD, with songs and with harps, lyres, tambourines, sistrums and cymbals.

2 Samuel 6:6 When they came to the threshing-floor of Nacon, Uzzah reached out and took hold of the ark of God, because the oxen stumbled.

2 Samuel 6:7 The LORD's anger burned against Uzzah because of his irreverent act; therefore God struck him down and he died there beside the ark of God.

2 Samuel 6:8 Then David was angry because the LORD's wrath had broken out against Uzzah, and to this day that place is called Perez Uzzah.

2 Samuel 6:9 David was afraid of the LORD that day and said, "How can the ark of the LORD ever come to me?"

2 Samuel 6:10 He was not willing to take the ark of the LORD to be with him in the City of David. Instead, he took it aside to the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite.

2 Samuel 6:11 The ark of the LORD remained in the house of Obed-Edom the Gittite for three months, and the LORD blessed him and his entire household.

2 Samuel 6:12 Now King David was told, "The LORD has blessed the household of Obed-Edom and everything he has, because of the ark of God." So David went down and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-Edom to the City of David with rejoicing.

2 Samuel 6:13 When those who were carrying the ark of the LORD had taken six steps, he sacrificed a bull and a fattened calf.

2 Samuel 6:14 David, wearing a linen ephod, danced before the LORD with all his might,

2 Samuel 6:15 while he and the entire house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with shouts and the sound of trumpets.

2 Samuel 6:16 As the ark of the LORD was entering the City of David, Michal daughter of Saul watched from a window. And when she saw King David leaping and dancing before the LORD, she despised him in her heart.

2 Samuel 6:17 They brought the ark of the LORD and set it in its place inside the tent that David had pitched for it, and David sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:18 After he had finished sacrificing the burnt offerings and fellowship offerings, he blessed the people in the name of the LORD Almighty.

2 Samuel 6:19 Then he gave a loaf of bread, a cake of dates and a cake of raisins to each person in the whole crowd of Israelites, both men and women. And all the people went to their homes.

2 Samuel 6:20 When David returned home to bless his household, Michal daughter of Saul came out to meet him and said, “How the king of Israel has distinguished himself today, disrobing in the sight of the slave girls of his servants as any vulgar fellow would.”

2 Samuel 6:21 David said to Michal, “It was before the LORD, who chose me rather than your father or anyone from his house when he appointed me ruler over the LORD’s people Israel—I will celebrate before the LORD.

2 Samuel 6:22 I will become even more undignified than this, and I will be humiliated in my own eyes. But by these slave girls you spoke of, I will be held in honour.”

2 Samuel 6:23 And Michal daughter of Saul had no children to the day of her death.

2 Samuel 7:1 After the king was settled in his palace and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,

2 Samuel 7:2 he said to Nathan the prophet, “Here I am, living in a palace of cedar, while the ark of God remains in a tent.”

2 Samuel 7:3 Nathan replied to the king, “Whatever you have in mind, go ahead and do it, for the LORD is with you.”

2 Samuel 7:4 That night the word of the LORD came to Nathan, saying:

2 Samuel 7:5 “Go and tell my servant David,`This is what the LORD says: Are you the one to build me a house to dwell in?

2 Samuel 7:6 I have not dwelt in a house from the day I brought the Israelites up out of Egypt to this day. I have been moving from place to place with a tent as my dwelling.

2 Samuel 7:7 Wherever I have moved with all the Israelites, did I ever say to any of their rulers whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, “Why have you not built me a house of cedar?”‘

2 Samuel 7:8 “Now then, tell my servant David,`This is what the LORD Almighty says: I took you from the pasture and from following the flock to be ruler over my people Israel.

2 Samuel 7:9 I have been with you wherever you have gone, and I have cut off all your enemies from before you. Now I will make your name great, like the names of the greatest men of the earth.

2 Samuel 7:10 And I will provide a place for my people Israel and will plant them so that they can have a home of their own and no longer be disturbed. Wicked people shall not oppress them any more, as they did at the beginning

2 Samuel 7:11 and have done ever since the time I appointed leaders over my people Israel. I will also give you rest from all your enemies. “`The LORD declares to you that the LORD himself will establish a house for you:

2 Samuel 7:12 When your days are over and you rest with your fathers, I will raise up your offspring to succeed you, who will come from your own body, and I will establish his kingdom.

2 Samuel 7:13 He is the one who will build a house for my Name, and I will establish the throne of his kingdom for ever.

2 Samuel 7:14 I will be his father, and he shall be my son. When he does wrong, I will punish him with the rod of men, with floggings inflicted by men.

2 Samuel 7:15 But my love will never be taken away from him, as I took it away from Saul, whom I removed from before you.

2 Samuel 7:16 Your house and your kingdom shall endure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever.’“

2 Samuel 7:17 Nathan reported to David all the words of this entire revelation.

2 Samuel 7:18 Then King David went in and sat before the LORD, and he said: “Who am I, O Sovereign LORD, and what is my family, that you have brought me this far?

2 Samuel 7:19 And as if this were not enough in your sight, O Sovereign LORD, you have also spoken about the future of the house of your servant. Is this your usual way of dealing with man, O Sovereign LORD?

2 Samuel 7:20 “What more can David say to you? For you know your servant, O Sovereign LORD.

2 Samuel 7:21 For the sake of your word and according to your will, you have done this great thing and made it known to your servant.

2 Samuel 7:22 “How great you are, O Sovereign LORD! There is no-one like you, and there is no God but you, as we have heard with our own ears.

2 Samuel 7:23 And who is like your people Israel—the one nation on earth that God went out to redeem as a people for himself, and to make a name for himself, and to perform great and awesome wonders by driving out nations and their gods from before your people, whom you redeemed from Egypt?

2 Samuel 7:24 You have established your people Israel as your very own for ever, and you, O LORD, have become their God.

2 Samuel 7:25 “And now, LORD God, keep for ever the promise you have made concerning your servant and his house. Do as you promised,

2 Samuel 7:26 so that your name will be great for ever. Then men will say,`The LORD Almighty is God over Israel!' And the house of your servant David will be established before you.

2 Samuel 7:27 "O LORD Almighty, God of Israel, you have revealed this to your servant, saying,`I will build a house for you.' So your servant has found courage to offer you this prayer.

2 Samuel 7:28 O Sovereign LORD, you are God! Your words are trustworthy, and you have promised these good things to your servant.

2 Samuel 7:29 Now be pleased to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue for ever in your sight; for you, O Sovereign LORD, have spoken, and with your blessing the house of your servant will be blessed for ever."

2 Samuel 8:1 In the course of time, David defeated the Philistines and subdued them, and he took Metheg Ammah from the control of the Philistines.

2 Samuel 8:2 David also defeated the Moabites. He made them lie down on the ground and measured them off with a length of cord. Every two lengths of them were put to death, and the third length was allowed to live. So the Moabites became subject to David and brought tribute.

2 Samuel 8:3 Moreover, David fought Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah, when he went to restore his control along the Euphrates River.

2 Samuel 8:4 David captured a thousand of his chariots, seven thousand charioteers and twenty thousand foot soldiers. He hamstrung all but a hundred of the chariot horses.

2 Samuel 8:5 When the Arameans of Damascus came to help Hadadezer king of Zobah, David struck down twenty-two thousand of them.

2 Samuel 8:6 He put garrisons in the Aramean kingdom of Damascus, and the Arameans became subject to him and brought tribute. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:7 David took the gold shields that belonged to the officers of Hadadezer and brought them to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 8:8 From Tebah and Berothai, towns that belonged to Hadadezer, King David took a great quantity of bronze.

2 Samuel 8:9 When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had defeated the entire army of Hadadezer,

2 Samuel 8:10 he sent his son Joram to King David to greet him and congratulate him on his victory in battle over Hadadezer, who had been at war with Tou. Joram brought with him articles of silver and gold and bronze.

2 Samuel 8:11 King David dedicated these articles to the LORD, as he had done with the silver and gold from all the nations he had subdued:

2 Samuel 8:12 Edom and Moab, the Ammonites and the Philistines, and Amalek. He also dedicated the plunder taken from Hadadezer son of Rehob, king of Zobah.

2 Samuel 8:13 And David became famous after he returned from striking down eighteen thousand Edomites in the Valley of Salt.

2 Samuel 8:14 He put garrisons throughout Edom, and all the Edomites became subject to David. The LORD gave David victory wherever he went.

2 Samuel 8:15 David reigned over all Israel, doing what was just and right for all his people.

2 Samuel 8:16 Joab son of Zeruiah was over the army; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

2 Samuel 8:17 Zadok son of Ahitub and Ahimelech son of Abiathar were priests; Seraiah was secretary;

2 Samuel 8:18 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites; and David's sons were royal advisers.

2 Samuel 9:1 David asked, "Is there anyone still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show kindness for Jonathan's sake?"

2 Samuel 9:2 Now there was a servant of Saul's household named Ziba. They called him to appear before David, and the king said to him, "Are you Ziba?" "Your servant," he replied.

2 Samuel 9:3 The king asked, "Is there no-one still left of the house of Saul to whom I can show God's kindness?" Ziba answered the king, "There is still a son of Jonathan; he is crippled in both feet."

2 Samuel 9:4 "Where is he?" the king asked. Ziba answered, "He is at the house of Makir son of Ammiel in Lo Debar."

2 Samuel 9:5 So King David had him brought from Lo Debar, from the house of Makir son of Ammiel.

2 Samuel 9:6 When Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, came to David, he bowed down to pay him honour. David said, "Mephibosheth!" "Your servant," he replied.

2 Samuel 9:7 "Don't be afraid," David said to him, "for I will surely show you kindness for the sake of your father Jonathan. I will restore to you all the land that belonged to your grandfather Saul, and you will always eat at my table."

2 Samuel 9:8 Mephibosheth bowed down and said, "What is your servant, that you should notice a dead dog like me?"

2 Samuel 9:9 Then the king summoned Ziba, Saul's servant, and said to him, "I have given your master's grandson everything that belonged to Saul and his family.

2 Samuel 9:10 You and your sons and your servants are to farm the land for him and bring in the crops, so that your master's grandson may be provided for. And Mephibosheth, grandson of your master, will always eat at my table.” (Now Ziba had fifteen sons and twenty servants.)

2 Samuel 9:11 Then Ziba said to the king, “Your servant will do whatever my lord the king commands his servant to do.” So Mephibosheth ate at David’s table like one of the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 9:12 Mephibosheth had a young son named Mica, and all the members of Ziba’s household were servants of Mephibosheth.

2 Samuel 9:13 And Mephibosheth lived in Jerusalem, because he always ate at the king’s table, and he was crippled in both feet.

2 Samuel 10:1 In the course of time, the king of the Ammonites died, and his son Hanun succeeded him as king.

2 Samuel 10:2 David thought, “I will show kindness to Hanun son of Nahash, just as his father showed kindness to me.” So David sent a delegation to express his sympathy to Hanun concerning his father. When David’s men came to the land of the Ammonites,

2 Samuel 10:3 the Ammonite nobles said to Hanun their lord, “Do you think David is honouring your father by sending men to you to express sympathy? Hasn’t David sent them to you to explore the city and spy it out and overthrow it?”

2 Samuel 10:4 So Hanun seized David’s men, shaved off half of each man’s beard, cut off their garments in the middle at the buttocks, and sent them away.

2 Samuel 10:5 When David was told about this, he sent messengers to meet the men, for they were greatly humiliated. The king said, “Stay at Jericho till your beards have grown, and then come back.”

2 Samuel 10:6 When the Ammonites realised that they had become an offence to David’s nostrils, they hired twenty thousand Aramean foot soldiers from Beth Rehob and Zobah, as well as the king of Maacah with a thousand men, and also twelve thousand men from Tob.

2 Samuel 10:7 On hearing this, David sent Joab out with the entire army of fighting men.

2 Samuel 10:8 The Ammonites came out and drew up in battle formation at the entrance to their city gate, while the Arameans of Zobah and Rehob and the men of Tob and Maacah were by themselves in the open country.

2 Samuel 10:9 Joab saw that there were battle lines in front of him and behind him; so he selected some of the best troops in Israel and deployed them against the Arameans.

2 Samuel 10:10 He put the rest of the men under the command of Abishai his brother and deployed them against the Ammonites.

2 Samuel 10:11 Joab said, “If the Arameans are too strong for me, then you are to come to my rescue; but if the Ammonites are too strong for you, then I will come to rescue you.

2 Samuel 10:12 Be strong and let us fight bravely for our people and the cities of our God. The LORD will do what is good in his sight."

2 Samuel 10:13 Then Joab and the troops with him advanced to fight the Arameans, and they fled before him.

2 Samuel 10:14 When the Ammonites saw that the Arameans were fleeing, they fled before Abishai and went inside the city. So Joab returned from fighting the Ammonites and came to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 10:15 After the Arameans saw that they had been routed by Israel, they regrouped.

2 Samuel 10:16 Hadadezer had Arameans brought from beyond the River; they went to Helam, with Shobach the commander of Hadadezer's army leading them.

2 Samuel 10:17 When David was told of this, he gathered all Israel, crossed the Jordan and went to Helam. The Arameans formed their battle lines to meet David and fought against him.

2 Samuel 10:18 But they fled before Israel, and David killed seven hundred of their charioteers and forty thousand of their foot soldiers. He also struck down Shobach the commander of their army, and he died there.

2 Samuel 10:19 When all the kings who were vassals of Hadadezer saw that they had been defeated by Israel, they made peace with the Israelites and became subject to them. So the Arameans were afraid to help the Ammonites any more.

2 Samuel 11:1 In the spring, at the time when kings go off to war, David sent Joab out with the king's men and the whole Israelite army. They destroyed the Ammonites and besieged Rabbah. But David remained in Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 11:2 One evening David got up from his bed and walked around on the roof of the palace. From the roof he saw a woman bathing. The woman was very beautiful,

2 Samuel 11:3 and David sent someone to find out about her. The man said, "Isn't this Bathsheba, the daughter of Eliam and the wife of Uriah the Hittite?"

2 Samuel 11:4 Then David sent messengers to get her. She came to him, and he slept with her. (She had purified herself from her uncleanness.) Then she went back home.

2 Samuel 11:5 The woman conceived and sent word to David, saying, "I am pregnant."

2 Samuel 11:6 So David sent this word to Joab: "Send me Uriah the Hittite." And Joab sent him to David.

2 Samuel 11:7 When Uriah came to him, David asked him how Joab was, how the soldiers were and how the war was going.

2 Samuel 11:8 Then David said to Uriah, “Go down to your house and wash your feet.” So Uriah left the palace, and a gift from the king was sent after him.

2 Samuel 11:9 But Uriah slept at the entrance to the palace with all his master’s servants and did not go down to his house.

2 Samuel 11:10 When David was told, “Uriah did not go home,” he asked him, “Haven’t you just come from a distance? Why didn’t you go home?”

2 Samuel 11:11 Uriah said to David, “The ark and Israel and Judah are staying in tents, and my master Joab and my lord’s men are camped in the open fields. How could I go to my house to eat and drink and lie with my wife? As surely as you live, I will not do such a thing!”

2 Samuel 11:12 Then David said to him, “Stay here one more day, and tomorrow I will send you back.” So Uriah remained in Jerusalem that day and the next.

2 Samuel 11:13 At David’s invitation, he ate and drank with him, and David made him drunk. But in the evening Uriah went out to sleep on his mat among his master’s servants; he did not go home.

2 Samuel 11:14 In the morning David wrote a letter to Joab and sent it with Uriah.

2 Samuel 11:15 In it he wrote, “Put Uriah in the front line where the fighting is fiercest. Then withdraw from him so that he will be struck down and die.”

2 Samuel 11:16 So while Joab had the city under siege, he put Uriah at a place where he knew the strongest defenders were.

2 Samuel 11:17 When the men of the city came out and fought against Joab, some of the men in David’s army fell; moreover, Uriah the Hittite died.

2 Samuel 11:18 Joab sent David a full account of the battle.

2 Samuel 11:19 He instructed the messenger: “When you have finished giving the king this account of the battle,

2 Samuel 11:20 the king’s anger may flare up, and he may ask you,`Why did you get so close to the city to fight? Didn’t you know they would shoot arrows from the wall?

2 Samuel 11:21 Who killed Abimelech son of Jerub-Besheth? Didn’t a woman throw an upper millstone on him from the wall, so that he died in Thebez? Why did you get so close to the wall?’ If he asks you this, then say to him,`Also, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.’“

2 Samuel 11:22 The messenger set out, and when he arrived he told David everything Joab had sent him to say.

2 Samuel 11:23 The messenger said to David, “The men overpowered us and came out against us in the open, but we drove them back to the entrance to the city gate.

2 Samuel 11:24 Then the archers shot arrows at your servants from the wall, and some of the king’s men died. Moreover, your servant Uriah the Hittite is dead.”

2 Samuel 11:25 David told the messenger, “Say this to Joab:`Don’t let this upset you; the sword devours one as well as another. Press the attack against the city and destroy it.’ Say this to encourage Joab.”

2 Samuel 11:26 When Uriah’s wife heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him.

2 Samuel 11:27 After the time of mourning was over, David had her brought to his house, and she became his wife and bore him a son. But the thing David had done displeased the LORD.

2 Samuel 12:1 The LORD sent Nathan to David. When he came to him, he said, “There were two men in a certain town, one rich and the other poor.

2 Samuel 12:2 The rich man had a very large number of sheep and cattle,

2 Samuel 12:3 but the poor man had nothing except one little ewe lamb that he had bought. He raised it, and it grew up with him and his children. It shared his food, drank from his cup and even slept in his arms. It was like a daughter to him.

2 Samuel 12:4 “Now a traveller came to the rich man, but the rich man refrained from taking one of his own sheep or cattle to prepare a meal for the traveller who had come to him. Instead, he took the ewe lamb that belonged to the poor man and prepared it for the one who had come to him.”

2 Samuel 12:5 David burned with anger against the man and said to Nathan, “As surely as the LORD lives, the man who did this deserves to die!

2 Samuel 12:6 He must pay for that lamb four times over, because he did such a thing and had no pity.”

2 Samuel 12:7 Then Nathan said to David, “You are the man! This is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`I anointed you king over Israel, and I delivered you from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 12:8 I gave your master’s house to you, and your master’s wives into your arms. I gave you the house of Israel and Judah. And if all this had been too little, I would have given you even more.

2 Samuel 12:9 Why did you despise the word of the LORD by doing what is evil in his eyes? You struck down Uriah the Hittite with the sword and took his wife to be your own. You killed him with the sword of the Ammonites.

2 Samuel 12:10 Now, therefore, the sword shall never depart from your house, because you despised me and took the wife of Uriah the Hittite to be your own.’

2 Samuel 12:11 “This is what the LORD says:`Out of your own household I am going to bring calamity upon you. Before your very eyes I will take your wives and give them to one who is close to you, and he will lie with your wives in broad daylight.

2 Samuel 12:12 You did it in secret, but I will do this thing in broad daylight before all Israel.’“

2 Samuel 12:13 Then David said to Nathan, “I have sinned against the LORD.” Nathan replied, “The LORD has taken away your sin. You are not going to die.

2 Samuel 12:14 But because by doing this you have made the enemies of the LORD show utter contempt, the son born to you will die.”

2 Samuel 12:15 After Nathan had gone home, the LORD struck the child that Uriah’s wife had borne to David, and he became ill.

2 Samuel 12:16 David pleaded with God for the child. He fasted and went into his house and spent the nights lying on the ground.

2 Samuel 12:17 The elders of his household stood beside him to get him up from the ground, but he refused, and he would not eat any food with them.

2 Samuel 12:18 On the seventh day the child died. David’s servants were afraid to tell him that the child was dead, for they thought, “While the child was still living, we spoke to David but he would not listen to us. How can we tell him the child is dead? He may do something desperate.”

2 Samuel 12:19 David noticed that his servants were whispering among themselves and he realised that the child was dead. “Is the child dead?” he asked. “Yes,” they replied, “he is dead.”

2 Samuel 12:20 Then David got up from the ground. After he had washed, put on lotions and changed his clothes, he went into the house of the LORD and worshipped. Then he went to his own house, and at his request they served him food, and he ate.

2 Samuel 12:21 His servants asked him, “Why are you acting in this way? While the child was alive, you fasted and wept, but now that the child is dead, you get up and eat!”

2 Samuel 12:22 He answered, “While the child was still alive, I fasted and wept. I thought,`Who knows? The LORD may be gracious to me and let the child live.’

2 Samuel 12:23 But now that he is dead, why should I fast? Can I bring him back again? I will go to him, but he will not return to me.”

2 Samuel 12:24 Then David comforted his wife Bathsheba, and he went to her and lay with her. She gave birth to a son, and they named him Solomon. The LORD loved him;

2 Samuel 12:25 and because the LORD loved him, he sent word through Nathan the prophet to name him Jedidiah.

2 Samuel 12:26 Meanwhile Joab fought against Rabbah of the Ammonites and captured the royal citadel.

2 Samuel 12:27 Joab then sent messengers to David, saying, “I have fought against Rabbah and taken its water supply.

2 Samuel 12:28 Now muster the rest of the troops and besiege the city and capture it. Otherwise I shall take the city, and it will be named after me.”

2 Samuel 12:29 So David mustered the entire army and went to Rabbah, and attacked and captured it.

2 Samuel 12:30 He took the crown from the head of their king— its weight was a talent of gold, and it was set with precious stones—and it was placed on David’s head. He took a great quantity of plunder from the city

2 Samuel 12:31 and brought out the people who were there, consigning them to labour with saws and with iron picks and axes, and he made them work at brickmaking. He did this to all the Ammonite towns. Then David and his entire army returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 13:1 In the course of time, Amnon son of David fell in love with Tamar, the beautiful sister of Absalom son of David.

2 Samuel 13:2 Amnon became frustrated to the point of illness on account of his sister Tamar, for she was a virgin, and it seemed impossible for him to do anything to her.

2 Samuel 13:3 Now Amnon had a friend named Jonadab son of Shimeah, David’s brother. Jonadab was a very shrewd man.

2 Samuel 13:4 He asked Amnon, “Why do you, the king’s son, look so haggard morning after morning? Won’t you tell me?” Amnon said to him, “I’m in love with Tamar, my brother Absalom’s sister.”

2 Samuel 13:5 “Go to bed and pretend to be ill,” Jonadab said. “When your father comes to see you, say to him,`I would like my sister Tamar to come and give me something to eat. Let her prepare the food in my sight so that I may watch her and then eat it from her hand.’“

2 Samuel 13:6 So Amnon lay down and pretended to be ill. When the king came to see him, Amnon said to him, “I would like my sister Tamar to come and make some special bread in my sight, so that I may eat from her hand.”

2 Samuel 13:7 David sent word to Tamar at the palace: “Go to the house of your brother Amnon and prepare some food for him.”

2 Samuel 13:8 So Tamar went to the house of her brother Amnon, who was lying down. She took some dough, kneaded it, made the bread in his sight and baked it.

2 Samuel 13:9 Then she took the pan and served him the bread, but he refused to eat. “Send everyone out of here,” Amnon said. So everyone left him.

2 Samuel 13:10 Then Amnon said to Tamar, “Bring the food here into my bedroom so that I may eat from your hand.” And Tamar took the bread she had prepared and brought it to her brother Amnon in his bedroom.

2 Samuel 13:11 But when she took it to him to eat, he grabbed her and said, “Come to bed with me, my sister.”

2 Samuel 13:12 “Don’t, my brother!” she said to him. “Don’t force me. Such a thing should not be done in Israel! Don’t do this wicked thing.

2 Samuel 13:13 What about me? Where could I get rid of my disgrace? And what about you? You would be like one of the wicked fools in Israel. Please speak to the king; he will not keep me from being married to you.”

2 Samuel 13:14 But he refused to listen to her, and since he was stronger than she, he raped her.

2 Samuel 13:15 Then Amnon hated her with intense hatred. In fact, he hated her more than he had loved her. Amnon said to her, “Get up and get out!”

2 Samuel 13:16 “No!” she said to him. “Sending me away would be a greater wrong than what you have already done to me.” But he refused to listen to her.

2 Samuel 13:17 He called his personal servant and said, “Get this woman out of here and bolt the door after her.”

2 Samuel 13:18 So his servant put her out and bolted the door after her. She was wearing a richly ornamented robe, for this was the kind of garment the virgin daughters of the king wore.

2 Samuel 13:19 Tamar put ashes on her head and tore the ornamented robe she was wearing. She put her hand on her head and went away, weeping aloud as she went.

2 Samuel 13:20 Her brother Absalom said to her, “Has that Amnon, your brother, been with you? Be quiet now, my sister; he is your brother. Don’t take this thing to heart.” And Tamar lived in her brother Absalom’s house, a desolate woman.

2 Samuel 13:21 When King David heard all this, he was furious.

2 Samuel 13:22 Absalom never said a word to Amnon, either good or bad; he hated Amnon because he had disgraced his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:23 Two years later, when Absalom’s sheep-shearers were at Baal Hazor near the border of Ephraim, he invited all the king’s sons to come there.

2 Samuel 13:24 Absalom went to the king and said, “Your servant has had shearers come. Will the king and his officials please join me?”

2 Samuel 13:25 “No, my son,” the king replied. “All of us should not go; we would only be a burden to you.” Although Absalom urged him, he still refused to go, but gave him his blessing.

2 Samuel 13:26 Then Absalom said, “If not, please let my brother Amnon come with us.” The king asked him, “Why should he go with you?”

2 Samuel 13:27 But Absalom urged him, so he sent with him Amnon and the rest of the king’s sons.

2 Samuel 13:28 Absalom ordered his men, “Listen! When Amnon is in high spirits from drinking wine and I say to you,`Strike Amnon down,’ then kill him. Don’t be afraid. Have not I given you this order? Be strong and brave.”

2 Samuel 13:29 So Absalom’s men did to Amnon what Absalom had ordered. Then all the king’s sons got up, mounted their mules and fled.

2 Samuel 13:30 While they were on their way, the report came to David: “Absalom has struck down all the king’s sons; not one of them is left.”

2 Samuel 13:31 The king stood up, tore his clothes and lay down on the ground; and all his servants stood by with their clothes torn.

2 Samuel 13:32 But Jonadab son of Shimeah, David’s brother, said, “My lord should not think that they killed all the princes; only Amnon is dead. This has been Absalom’s expressed intention ever since the day that Amnon raped his sister Tamar.

2 Samuel 13:33 My lord the king should not be concerned about the report that all the king’s sons are dead. Only Amnon is dead.”

2 Samuel 13:34 Meanwhile, Absalom had fled. Now the man standing watch looked up and saw many people on the road west of him, coming down the side of the hill. The watchman went and told the king, “I see men in the direction of Horonaim, on the side of the hill.”

2 Samuel 13:35 Jonadab said to the king, “See, the king’s sons are here; it has happened just as your servant said.”

2 Samuel 13:36 As he finished speaking, the king’s sons came in, wailing loudly. The king, too, and all his servants wept very bitterly.

2 Samuel 13:37 Absalom fled and went to Talmai son of Ammihud, the king of Geshur. But King David mourned for his son every day.

2 Samuel 13:38 After Absalom fled and went to Geshur, he stayed there for three years.

2 Samuel 13:39 And the spirit of the king longed to go to Absalom, for he was consoled concerning Amnon’s death.

2 Samuel 14:1 Joab son of Zeruiah knew that the king’s heart longed for Absalom.

2 Samuel 14:2 So Joab sent someone to Tekoa and had a wise woman brought from there. He said to her, “Pretend you are in mourning. Dress in mourning clothes, and don’t use any cosmetic lotions. Act like a woman who has spent many days grieving for the dead.

2 Samuel 14:3 Then go to the king and speak these words to him.” And Joab put the words in her mouth.

2 Samuel 14:4 When the woman from Tekoa went to the king, she fell with her face to the ground to pay him honour, and she said, “Help me, O king!”

2 Samuel 14:5 The king asked her, “What is troubling you?” She said, “I am indeed a widow; my husband is dead.

2 Samuel 14:6 I your servant had two sons. They got into a fight with each other in the field, and no-one was there to separate them. One struck the other and killed him.

2 Samuel 14:7 Now the whole clan has risen up against your servant; they say,`Hand over the one who struck his brother down, so that we may put him to death for the life of his brother whom he killed; then we will get rid of the heir as well.’ They would put out the only burning coal I have left, leaving my husband neither name nor descendant on the face of the earth.”

2 Samuel 14:8 The king said to the woman, “Go home, and I will issue an order on your behalf.”

2 Samuel 14:9 But the woman from Tekoa said to him, “My lord the king, let the blame rest on me and on my father’s family, and let the king and his throne be without guilt.”

2 Samuel 14:10 The king replied, “If anyone says anything to you, bring him to me, and he will not bother you again.”

2 Samuel 14:11 She said, “Then let the king invoke the LORD his God to prevent the avenger of blood from adding to the destruction, so that my son shall not be destroyed.” “As surely as the LORD lives,” he said, “not one hair of your son’s head will fall to the ground.”

2 Samuel 14:12 Then the woman said, “Let your servant speak a word to my lord the king.” “Speak,” he replied.

2 Samuel 14:13 The woman said, “Why then have you devised a thing like this against the people of God? When the king says this, does he not convict himself, for the king has not brought back his banished son?

2 Samuel 14:14 Like water spilled on the ground, which cannot be recovered, so we must die. But God does not take away life; instead, he devises ways so that a banished person may not remain estranged from him.

2 Samuel 14:15 “And now I have come to say this to my lord the king because the people have made me afraid. Your servant thought,`I will speak to the king; perhaps he will do what his servant asks.

2 Samuel 14:16 Perhaps the king will agree to deliver his servant from the hand of the man who is trying to cut off both me and my son from the inheritance God gave us.’

2 Samuel 14:17 “And now your servant says,`May the word of my lord the king bring me rest, for my lord the king is like an angel of God in discerning good and evil. May the LORD your God be with you.’“

2 Samuel 14:18 Then the king said to the woman, “Do not keep from me the answer to what I am going to ask you.” “Let my lord the king speak,” the woman said.

2 Samuel 14:19 The king asked, “Isn’t the hand of Joab with you in all this?” The woman answered, “As surely as you live, my lord the king, no-one can turn to the right or to the left from anything my lord the king says. Yes, it was your servant Joab who instructed me to do this and who put all these words into the mouth of your servant.

2 Samuel 14:20 Your servant Joab did this to change the present situation. My lord has wisdom like that of an angel of God—he knows everything that happens in the land.”

2 Samuel 14:21 The king said to Joab, “Very well, I will do it. Go, bring back the young man Absalom.”

2 Samuel 14:22 Joab fell with his face to the ground to pay him honour, and he blessed the king. Joab said, “Today your servant knows that he has found favour in your eyes, my lord the king, because the king has granted his servant’s request.”

2 Samuel 14:23 Then Joab went to Geshur and brought Absalom back to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 14:24 But the king said, “He must go to his own house; he must not see my face.” So Absalom went to his own house and did not see the face of the king.

2 Samuel 14:25 In all Israel there was not a man so highly praised for his handsome appearance as Absalom. From the top of his head to the sole of his foot there was no blemish in him.

2 Samuel 14:26 Whenever he cut the hair of his head—he used to cut his hair from time to time when it became too heavy for him—he would weigh it, and its weight was two hundred shekels by the royal standard.

2 Samuel 14:27 Three sons and a daughter were born to Absalom. The daughter’s name was Tamar, and she became a beautiful woman.

2 Samuel 14:28 Absalom lived for two years in Jerusalem without seeing the king’s face.

2 Samuel 14:29 Then Absalom sent for Joab in order to send him to the king, but Joab refused to come to him. So he sent a second time, but he refused to come.

2 Samuel 14:30 Then he said to his servants, “Look, Joab’s field is next to mine, and he has barley there. Go and set it on fire.” So Absalom’s servants set the field on fire.

2 Samuel 14:31 Then Joab did go to Absalom’s house and he said to him, “Why have your servants set my field on fire?”

2 Samuel 14:32 Absalom said to Joab, “Look, I sent word to you and said,`Come here so that I can send you to the king to ask, “Why have I come from Geshur? It would be better for me if I were still there!”‘ Now then, I want to see the king’s face, and if I am guilty of anything, let him put me to death.”

2 Samuel 14:33 So Joab went to the king and told him this. Then the king summoned Absalom, and he came in and bowed down with his face to the ground before the king. And the king kissed Absalom.

2 Samuel 15:1 In the course of time, Absalom provided himself with a chariot and horses and with fifty men to run ahead of him.

2 Samuel 15:2 He would get up early and stand by the side of the road leading to the city gate. Whenever anyone came with a complaint to be placed before the king for a decision, Absalom would call out to him, “What town are you from?” He would answer, “Your servant is from one of the tribes of Israel.”

2 Samuel 15:3 Then Absalom would say to him, “Look, your claims are valid and proper, but there is no representative of the king to hear you.”

2 Samuel 15:4 And Absalom would add, “If only I were appointed judge in the land! Then everyone who has a complaint or case could come to me and I would see that he receives justice.”

2 Samuel 15:5 Also, whenever anyone approached him to bow down before him, Absalom would reach out his hand, take hold of him and kiss him.

2 Samuel 15:6 Absalom behaved in this way towards all the Israelites who came to the king asking for justice, and so he stole the hearts of the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 15:7 At the end of four years, Absalom said to the king, “Let me go to Hebron and fulfil a vow I made to the LORD.

2 Samuel 15:8 While your servant was living at Geshur in Aram, I made this vow:`If the LORD takes me back to Jerusalem, I will worship the LORD in Hebron.’“

2 Samuel 15:9 The king said to him, “Go in peace.” So he went to Hebron.

2 Samuel 15:10 Then Absalom sent secret messengers throughout the tribes of Israel to say, “As soon as you hear the sound of the trumpets, then say,`Absalom is king in Hebron.’“

2 Samuel 15:11 Two hundred men from Jerusalem had accompanied Absalom. They had been invited as guests and went quite innocently, knowing nothing about the matter.

2 Samuel 15:12 While Absalom was offering sacrifices, he also sent for Ahithophel the Gilonite, David’s counsellor, to come from Giloh, his home town. And so the conspiracy gained strength, and Absalom’s following kept on increasing.

2 Samuel 15:13 A messenger came and told David, “The hearts of the men of Israel are with Absalom.”

2 Samuel 15:14 Then David said to all his officials who were with him in Jerusalem, “Come! We must flee, or none of us will escape from Absalom. We must leave immediately, or he will move quickly to overtake us and bring ruin upon us and put the city to the sword.”

2 Samuel 15:15 The king’s officials answered him, “Your servants are ready to do whatever our lord the king chooses.”

2 Samuel 15:16 The king set out, with his entire household following him; but he left ten concubines to take care of the palace.

2 Samuel 15:17 So the king set out, with all the people following him, and they halted at a place some distance away.

2 Samuel 15:18 All his men marched past him, along with all the Kerethites and Pelethites; and all the six hundred Gittites who had accompanied him from Gath marched before the king.

2 Samuel 15:19 The king said to Ittai the Gittite, “Why should you come along with us? Go back and stay with King Absalom. You are a foreigner, an exile from your homeland.

2 Samuel 15:20 You came only yesterday. And today shall I make you wander about with us, when I do not know where I am going? Go back, and take your countrymen. May kindness and faithfulness be with you.”

2 Samuel 15:21 But Ittai replied to the king, “As surely as the LORD lives, and as my lord the king lives, wherever my lord the king may be, whether it means life or death, there will your servant be.”

2 Samuel 15:22 David said to Ittai, “Go ahead, march on.” So Ittai the Gittite marched on with all his men and the families that were with him.

2 Samuel 15:23 The whole countryside wept aloud as all the people passed by. The king also crossed the Kidron Valley, and all the people moved on towards the desert.

2 Samuel 15:24 Zadok was there, too, and all the Levites who were with him were carrying the ark of the covenant of God. They set down the ark of God, and Abiathar offered sacrifices until all the people had finished leaving the city.

2 Samuel 15:25 Then the king said to Zadok, “Take the ark of God back into the city. If I find favour in the LORD’s eyes, he will bring me back and let me see it and his dwelling-place again.

2 Samuel 15:26 But if he says,`I am not pleased with you,’ then I am ready; let him do to me whatever seems good to him.”

2 Samuel 15:27 The king also said to Zadok the priest, “Aren’t you a seer? Go back to the city in peace, with your son Ahimaaz and Jonathan son of Abiathar. You and Abiathar take your two sons with you.

2 Samuel 15:28 I will wait at the fords in the desert until word comes from you to inform me.”

2 Samuel 15:29 So Zadok and Abiathar took the ark of God back to Jerusalem and stayed there.

2 Samuel 15:30 But David continued up the Mount of Olives, weeping as he went; his head was covered and he was barefoot. All the people with him covered their heads too and were weeping as they went up.

2 Samuel 15:31 Now David had been told, “Ahithophel is among the conspirators with Absalom.” So David prayed, “O LORD, turn Ahithophel’s counsel into foolishness.”

2 Samuel 15:32 When David arrived at the summit, where people used to worship God, Hushai the Arkite was there to meet him, his robe torn and dust on his head.

2 Samuel 15:33 David said to him, “If you go with me, you will be a burden to me.

2 Samuel 15:34 But if you return to the city and say to Absalom,`I will be your servant, O king; I was your father’s servant in the past, but now I will be your servant,’ then you can help me by frustrating Ahithophel’s advice.

2 Samuel 15:35 Won’t the priests Zadok and Abiathar be there with you? Tell them anything you hear in the king’s palace.

2 Samuel 15:36 Their two sons, Ahimaaz son of Zadok and Jonathan son of Abiathar, are there with them. Send them to me with anything you hear.”

2 Samuel 15:37 So David’s friend Hushai arrived at Jerusalem as Absalom was entering the city.

2 Samuel 16:1 When David had gone a short distance beyond the summit, there was Ziba, the steward of Mephibosheth, waiting to meet him. He had a string of donkeys saddled and loaded with two hundred loaves of bread, a hundred cakes of raisins, a hundred cakes of figs and a skin of wine.

2 Samuel 16:2 The king asked Ziba, “Why have you brought these?” Ziba answered, “The donkeys are for the king’s household to ride on, the bread and fruit are for the men to eat, and the wine is to refresh those who become exhausted in the desert.”

2 Samuel 16:3 The king then asked, “Where is your master’s grandson?” Ziba said to him, “He is staying in Jerusalem, because he thinks,`Today the house of Israel will give me back my grandfather’s kingdom.’“

2 Samuel 16:4 Then the king said to Ziba, “All that belonged to Mephibosheth is now yours.” “I humbly bow,” Ziba said. “May I find favour in your eyes, my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 16:5 As King David approached Bahurim, a man from the same clan as Saul’s family came out from there. His name was Shimei son of Gera, and he cursed as he came out.

2 Samuel 16:6 He pelted David and all the king’s officials with stones, though all the troops and the special guard were on David’s right and left.

2 Samuel 16:7 As he cursed, Shimei said, “Get out, get out, you man of blood, you scoundrel!

2 Samuel 16:8 The LORD has repaid you for all the blood you shed in the household of Saul, in whose place you have reigned. The LORD has handed the kingdom over to your son Absalom. You have come to ruin because you are a man of blood!”

2 Samuel 16:9 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said to the king, “Why should this dead dog curse my lord the king? Let me go over and cut off his head.”

2 Samuel 16:10 But the king said, “What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? If he is cursing because the LORD said to him,`Curse David,’ who can ask,`Why do you do this?’“

2 Samuel 16:11 David then said to Abishai and all his officials, “My son, who is of my own flesh, is trying to take my life. How much more, then, this Benjamite! Leave him alone; let him curse, for the LORD has told him to.

2 Samuel 16:12 It may be that the LORD will see my distress and repay me with good for the cursing I am receiving today.”

2 Samuel 16:13 So David and his men continued along the road while Shimei was going along the hillside opposite him, cursing as he went and throwing stones at him and showering him with dirt.

2 Samuel 16:14 The king and all the people with him arrived at their destination exhausted. And there he refreshed himself.

2 Samuel 16:15 Meanwhile, Absalom and all the men of Israel came to Jerusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

2 Samuel 16:16 Then Hushai the Arkite, David’s friend, went to Absalom and said to him, “Long live the king! Long live the king!”

2 Samuel 16:17 Absalom asked Hushai, “Is this the love you show your friend? Why didn’t you go with your friend?”

2 Samuel 16:18 Hushai said to Absalom, “No, the one chosen by the LORD, by these people and by all the men of Israel—his I will be, and I will remain with him.

2 Samuel 16:19 Furthermore, whom should I serve? Should I not serve the son? Just as I served your father, so I will serve you.”

2 Samuel 16:20 Absalom said to Ahithophel, “Give us your advice. What should we do?”

2 Samuel 16:21 Ahithophel answered, “Lie with your father’s concubines whom he left to take care of the palace. Then all Israel will hear that you have made yourself an offence to your father’s nostrils, and the hands of everyone with you will be strengthened.”

2 Samuel 16:22 So they pitched a tent for Absalom on the roof, and he lay with his father’s concubines in the sight of all Israel.

2 Samuel 16:23 Now in those days the advice Ahithophel gave was like that of one who enquires of God. That was how both David and Absalom regarded all of Ahithophel’s advice.

2 Samuel 17:1 Ahithophel said to Absalom, “I would choose twelve thousand men and set out tonight in pursuit of David.

2 Samuel 17:2 I would attack him while he is weary and weak. I would strike him with terror, and then all the people with him will flee. I would strike down only the king

2 Samuel 17:3 and bring all the people back to you. The death of the man you seek will mean the return of all; all the people will be unharmed.”

2 Samuel 17:4 This plan seemed good to Absalom and to all the elders of Israel.

2 Samuel 17:5 But Absalom said, “Summon also Hushai the Arkite, so that we can hear what he has to say.”

2 Samuel 17:6 When Hushai came to him, Absalom said, “Ahithophel has given this advice. Should we do what he says? If not, give us your opinion.”

2 Samuel 17:7 Hushai replied to Absalom, “The advice Ahithophel has given is not good this time.

2 Samuel 17:8 You know your father and his men; they are fighters, and as fierce as a wild bear robbed of her cubs. Besides, your father is an experienced fighter; he will not spend the night with the troops.

2 Samuel 17:9 Even now, he is hidden in a cave or some other place. If he should attack your troops first, whoever hears about it will say,`There has been a slaughter among the troops who follow Absalom.’

2 Samuel 17:10 Then even the bravest soldier, whose heart is like the heart of a lion, will melt with fear, for all Israel knows that your father is a fighter and that those with him are brave.

2 Samuel 17:11 “So I advise you: Let all Israel, from Dan to Beersheba—as numerous as the sand on the seashore—be gathered to you, with you yourself leading them into battle.

2 Samuel 17:12 Then we will attack him wherever he may be found, and we will fall on him as dew settles on the ground. Neither he nor any of his men will be left alive.

2 Samuel 17:13 If he withdraws into a city, then all Israel will bring ropes to that city, and we will drag it down to the valley until not even a piece of it can be found.”

2 Samuel 17:14 Absalom and all the men of Israel said, “The advice of Hushai the Arkite is better than that of Ahithophel.” For the LORD had determined to frustrate the good advice of Ahithophel in order to bring disaster on Absalom.

2 Samuel 17:15 Hushai told Zadok and Abiathar, the priests, “Ahithophel has advised Absalom and the elders of Israel to do such and such, but I have advised them to do so and so.

2 Samuel 17:16 Now send a message immediately and tell David,`Do not spend the night at the fords in the desert; cross over without fail, or the king and all the people with him will be swallowed up.’“

2 Samuel 17:17 Jonathan and Ahimaaz were staying at En Rogel. A servant girl was to go and inform them, and they were to go and tell King David, for they could not risk being seen entering the city.

2 Samuel 17:18 But a young man saw them and told Absalom. So the two of them left quickly and went to the house of a man in Bahurim. He had a well in his courtyard, and they climbed down into it.

2 Samuel 17:19 His wife took a covering and spread it out over the opening of the well and scattered grain over it. No-one knew anything about it.

2 Samuel 17:20 When Absalom’s men came to the woman at the house, they asked, “Where are Ahimaaz and Jonathan?” The woman answered them, “They crossed over the brook.” The men searched but found no-one, so they returned to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 17:21 After the men had gone, the two climbed out of the well and went to inform King David. They said to him, “Set out and cross the river at once; Ahithophel has advised such and such against you.”

2 Samuel 17:22 So David and all the people with him set out and crossed the Jordan. By daybreak, no-one was left who had not crossed the Jordan.

2 Samuel 17:23 When Ahithophel saw that his advice had not been followed, he saddled his donkey and set out for his house in his home town. He put his house in order and then hanged himself. So he died and was buried in his father's tomb.

2 Samuel 17:24 David went to Mahanaim, and Absalom crossed the Jordan with all the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 17:25 Absalom had appointed Amasa over the army in place of Joab. Amasa was the son of a man named Jether, an Israelite who had married Abigail, the daughter of Nahash and sister of Zeruiah the mother of Joab.

2 Samuel 17:26 The Israelites and Absalom camped in the land of Gilead.

2 Samuel 17:27 When David came to Mahanaim, Shobi son of Nahash from Rabbah of the Ammonites, and Makir son of Ammiel from Lo Debar, and Barzillai the Gileadite from Rogelim

2 Samuel 17:28 brought bedding and bowls and articles of pottery. They also brought wheat and barley, flour and roasted grain, beans and lentils,

2 Samuel 17:29 honey and curds, sheep, and cheese from cows' milk for David and his people to eat. For they said, "The people have become hungry and tired and thirsty in the desert."

2 Samuel 18:1 David mustered the men who were with him and appointed over them commanders of thousands and commanders of hundreds.

2 Samuel 18:2 David sent the troops out—a third under the command of Joab, a third under Joab's brother Abishai son of Zeruiah, and a third under Ittai the Gittite. The king told the troops, "I myself will surely march out with you."

2 Samuel 18:3 But the men said, "You must not go out; if we are forced to flee, they won't care about us. Even if half of us die, they won't care; but you are worth ten thousand of us. It would be better now for you to give us support from the city."

2 Samuel 18:4 The king answered, "I will do whatever seems best to you." So the king stood beside the gate while all the men marched out in units of hundreds and of thousands.

2 Samuel 18:5 The king commanded Joab, Abishai and Ittai, "Be gentle with the young man Absalom for my sake." And all the troops heard the king giving orders concerning Absalom to each of the commanders.

2 Samuel 18:6 The army marched into the field to fight Israel, and the battle took place in the forest of Ephraim.

2 Samuel 18:7 There the army of Israel was defeated by David's men, and the casualties that day were great—twenty thousand men.

2 Samuel 18:8 The battle spread out over the whole countryside, and the forest claimed more lives that day than the sword.

2 Samuel 18:9 Now Absalom happened to meet David's men. He was riding his mule, and as the mule went under the thick branches of a large oak, Absalom's head got caught in the tree. He was left hanging in mid-air, while the mule he was riding kept on going.

2 Samuel 18:10 When one of the men saw this, he told Joab, "I have just seen Absalom hanging in an oak tree."

2 Samuel 18:11 Joab said to the man who had told him this, "What! You saw him? Why didn't you strike him to the ground right there? Then I would have had to give you ten shekels of silver and a warrior's belt."

2 Samuel 18:12 But the man replied, "Even if a thousand shekels were weighed out into my hands, I would not lift my hand against the king's son. In our hearing the king commanded you and Abishai and Ittai,`Protect the young man Absalom for my sake.'

2 Samuel 18:13 And if I had put my life in jeopardy— and nothing is hidden from the king—you would have kept your distance from me."

2 Samuel 18:14 Joab said, "I am not going to wait like this for you." So he took three javelins in his hand and plunged them into Absalom's heart while Absalom was still alive in the oak tree.

2 Samuel 18:15 And ten of Joab's armour-bearers surrounded Absalom, struck him and killed him.

2 Samuel 18:16 Then Joab sounded the trumpet, and the troops stopped pursuing Israel, for Joab halted them.

2 Samuel 18:17 They took Absalom, threw him into a big pit in the forest and piled up a large heap of rocks over him. Meanwhile, all the Israelites fled to their homes.

2 Samuel 18:18 During his life-time Absalom had taken a pillar and erected it in the King's Valley as a monument to himself, for he thought, "I have no son to carry on the memory of my name." He named the pillar after himself, and it is called Absalom's Monument to this day.

2 Samuel 18:19 Now Ahimaaz son of Zadok said, "Let me run and take the news to the king that the LORD has delivered him from the hand of his enemies."

2 Samuel 18:20 "You are not the one to take the news today," Joab told him. "You may take the news another time, but you must not do so today, because the king's son is dead."

2 Samuel 18:21 Then Joab said to a Cushite, “Go, tell the king what you have seen.” The Cushite bowed down before Joab and ran off.

2 Samuel 18:22 Ahimaaz son of Zadok again said to Joab, “Come what may, please let me run behind the Cushite.” But Joab replied, “My son, why do you want to go? You don’t have any news that will bring you a reward.”

2 Samuel 18:23 He said, “Come what may, I want to run.” So Joab said, “Run!” Then Ahimaaz ran by way of the plain and outran the Cushite.

2 Samuel 18:24 While David was sitting between the inner and outer gates, the watchman went up to the roof of the gateway by the wall. As he looked out, he saw a man running alone.

2 Samuel 18:25 The watchman called out to the king and reported it. The king said, “If he is alone, he must have good news.” And the man came closer and closer.

2 Samuel 18:26 Then the watchman saw another man running, and he called down to the gatekeeper, “Look, another man running alone!” The king said, “He must be bringing good news, too.”

2 Samuel 18:27 The watchman said, “It seems to me that the first one runs like Ahimaaz son of Zadok.” “He’s a good man,” the king said. “He comes with good news.”

2 Samuel 18:28 Then Ahimaaz called out to the king, “All is well!” He bowed down before the king with his face to the ground and said, “Praise be to the LORD your God! He has delivered up the men who lifted their hands against my lord the king.”

2 Samuel 18:29 The king asked, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” Ahimaaz answered, “I saw great confusion just as Joab was about to send the king’s servant and me, your servant, but I don’t know what it was.”

2 Samuel 18:30 The king said, “Stand aside and wait here.” So he stepped aside and stood there.

2 Samuel 18:31 Then the Cushite arrived and said, “My lord the king, hear the good news! The LORD has delivered you today from all who rose up against you.”

2 Samuel 18:32 The king asked the Cushite, “Is the young man Absalom safe?” The Cushite replied, “May the enemies of my lord the king and all who rise up to harm you be like that young man.”

2 Samuel 18:33 The king was shaken. He went up to the room over the gateway and wept. As he went, he said: “O my son Absalom! My son, my son Absalom! If only I had died instead of you—O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:1 Joab was told, “The king is weeping and mourning for Absalom.”

2 Samuel 19:2 And for the whole army the victory that day was turned into mourning, because on that day the troops heard it said, “The king is grieving for his son.”

2 Samuel 19:3 The men stole into the city that day as men steal in who are ashamed when they flee from battle.

2 Samuel 19:4 The king covered his face and cried aloud, “O my son Absalom! O Absalom, my son, my son!”

2 Samuel 19:5 Then Joab went into the house to the king and said, “Today you have humiliated all your men, who have just saved your life and the lives of your sons and daughters and the lives of your wives and concubines.

2 Samuel 19:6 You love those who hate you and hate those who love you. You have made it clear today that the commanders and their men mean nothing to you. I see that you would be pleased if Absalom were alive today and all of us were dead.

2 Samuel 19:7 Now go out and encourage your men. I swear by the LORD that if you don’t go out, not a man will be left with you by nightfall. This will be worse for you than all the calamities that have come upon you from your youth till now.”

2 Samuel 19:8 So the king got up and took his seat in the gateway. When the men were told, “The king is sitting in the gateway,” they all came before him. Meanwhile, the Israelites had fled to their homes.

2 Samuel 19:9 Throughout the tribes of Israel, the people were all arguing with each other, saying, “The king delivered us from the hand of our enemies; he is the one who rescued us from the hand of the Philistines. But now he has fled the country because of Absalom;

2 Samuel 19:10 and Absalom, whom we anointed to rule over us, has died in battle. So why do you say nothing about bringing the king back?”

2 Samuel 19:11 King David sent this message to Zadok and Abiathar, the priests: “Ask the elders of Judah,`Why should you be the last to bring the king back to his palace, since what is being said throughout Israel has reached the king at his quarters?

2 Samuel 19:12 You are my brothers, my own flesh and blood. So why should you be the last to bring back the king?’

2 Samuel 19:13 And say to Amasa,`Are you not my own flesh and blood? May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if from now on you are not the commander of my army in place of Joab.’“

2 Samuel 19:14 He won over the hearts of all the men of Judah as though they were one man. They sent word to the king, “Return, you and all your men.”

2 Samuel 19:15 Then the king returned and went as far as the Jordan. Now the men of Judah had come to Gilgal to go out and meet the king and bring him across the Jordan.

2 Samuel 19:16 Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, hurried down with the men of Judah to meet King David.

2 Samuel 19:17 With him were a thousand Benjamites, along with Ziba, the steward of Saul's household, and his fifteen sons and twenty servants. They rushed to the Jordan, where the king was.

2 Samuel 19:18 They crossed at the ford to take the king's household over and to do whatever he wished. When Shimei son of Gera crossed the Jordan, he fell prostrate before the king

2 Samuel 19:19 and said to him, "May my lord not hold me guilty. Do not remember how your servant did wrong on the day my lord the king left Jerusalem. May the king put it out of his mind.

2 Samuel 19:20 For I your servant know that I have sinned, but today I have come here as the first of the whole house of Joseph to come down and meet my lord the king."

2 Samuel 19:21 Then Abishai son of Zeruiah said, "Shouldn't Shimei be put to death for this? He cursed the LORD's anointed."

2 Samuel 19:22 David replied, "What do you and I have in common, you sons of Zeruiah? This day you have become my adversaries! Should anyone be put to death in Israel today? Do I not know that today I am king over Israel?"

2 Samuel 19:23 So the king said to Shimei, "You shall not die." And the king promised him on oath.

2 Samuel 19:24 Mephibosheth, Saul's grandson, also went down to meet the king. He had not taken care of his feet or trimmed his moustache or washed his clothes from the day the king left until the day he returned safely.

2 Samuel 19:25 When he came from Jerusalem to meet the king, the king asked him, "Why didn't you go with me, Mephibosheth?"

2 Samuel 19:26 He said, "My lord the king, since I your servant am lame, I said,`I will have my donkey saddled and will ride on it, so that I can go with the king.' But Ziba my servant betrayed me.

2 Samuel 19:27 And he has slandered your servant to my lord the king. My lord the king is like an angel of God; so do whatever pleases you.

2 Samuel 19:28 All my grandfather's descendants deserved nothing but death from my lord the king, but you gave your servant a place among those who eat at your table. So what right do I have to make any more appeals to the king?"

2 Samuel 19:29 The king said to him, "Why say more? I order you and Ziba to divide the fields."

2 Samuel 19:30 Mephibosheth said to the king, “Let him take everything, now that my lord the king has arrived home safely.”

2 Samuel 19:31 Barzillai the Gileadite also came down from Rogelim to cross the Jordan with the king and to send him on his way from there.

2 Samuel 19:32 Now Barzillai was a very old man, eighty years of age. He had provided for the king during his stay in Mahanaim, for he was a very wealthy man.

2 Samuel 19:33 The king said to Barzillai, “Cross over with me and stay with me in Jerusalem, and I will provide for you.”

2 Samuel 19:34 But Barzillai answered the king, “How many more years shall I live, that I should go up to Jerusalem with the king?

2 Samuel 19:35 I am now eighty years old. Can I tell the difference between what is good and what is not? Can your servant taste what he eats and drinks? Can I still hear the voices of men and women singers? Why should your servant be an added burden to my lord the king?

2 Samuel 19:36 Your servant will cross over the Jordan with the king for a short distance, but why should the king reward me in this way?

2 Samuel 19:37 Let your servant return, that I may die in my own town near the tomb of my father and mother. But here is your servant Kimham. Let him cross over with my lord the king. Do for him whatever pleases you.”

2 Samuel 19:38 The king said, “Kimham shall cross over with me, and I will do for him whatever pleases you. And anything you desire from me I will do for you.”

2 Samuel 19:39 So all the people crossed the Jordan, and then the king crossed over. The king kissed Barzillai and gave him his blessing, and Barzillai returned to his home.

2 Samuel 19:40 When the king crossed over to Gilgal, Kimham crossed with him. All the troops of Judah and half the troops of Israel had taken the king over.

2 Samuel 19:41 Soon all the men of Israel were coming to the king and saying to him, “Why did our brothers, the men of Judah, steal the king away and bring him and his household across the Jordan, together with all his men?”

2 Samuel 19:42 All the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, “We did this because the king is closely related to us. Why are you angry about it? Have we eaten any of the king’s provisions? Have we taken anything for ourselves?”

2 Samuel 19:43 Then the men of Israel answered the men of Judah, “We have ten shares in the king; and besides, we have a greater claim on David than you have. So why do you treat us with contempt? Were we not the first to speak of bringing back our king?” But the men of Judah responded even more harshly than the men of Israel.

2 Samuel 20:1 Now a troublemaker named Sheba son of Bicri, a Benjamite, happened to be there. He sounded the trumpet and shouted, “We have no share in David, no part in Jesse’s son! Every man to his tent, O Israel!”

2 Samuel 20:2 So all the men of Israel deserted David to follow Sheba son of Bicri. But the men of Judah stayed by their king all the way from the Jordan to Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:3 When David returned to his palace in Jerusalem, he took the ten concubines he had left to take care of the palace and put them in a house under guard. He provided for them, but did not lie with them. They were kept in confinement till the day of their death, living as widows.

2 Samuel 20:4 Then the king said to Amasa, “Summon the men of Judah to come to me within three days, and be here yourself.”

2 Samuel 20:5 But when Amasa went to summon Judah, he took longer than the time the king had set for him.

2 Samuel 20:6 David said to Abishai, “Now Sheba son of Bicri will do us more harm than Absalom did. Take your master’s men and pursue him, or he will find fortified cities and escape from us.”

2 Samuel 20:7 So Joab’s men and the Kerethites and Pelethites and all the mighty warriors went out under the command of Abishai. They marched out from Jerusalem to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2 Samuel 20:8 While they were at the great rock in Gibeon, Amasa came to meet them. Joab was wearing his military tunic, and strapped over it at his waist was a belt with a dagger in its sheath. As he stepped forward, it dropped out of its sheath.

2 Samuel 20:9 Joab said to Amasa, “How are you, my brother?” Then Joab took Amasa by the beard with his right hand to kiss him.

2 Samuel 20:10 Amasa was not on his guard against the dagger in Joab’s hand, and Joab plunged it into his belly, and his intestines spilled out on the ground. Without being stabbed again, Amasa died. Then Joab and his brother Abishai pursued Sheba son of Bicri.

2 Samuel 20:11 One of Joab’s men stood beside Amasa and said, “Whoever favours Joab, and whoever is for David, let him follow Joab!”

2 Samuel 20:12 Amasa lay wallowing in his blood in the middle of the road, and the man saw that all the troops came to a halt there. When he realised that everyone who came up to Amasa stopped, he dragged him from the road into a field and threw a garment over him.

2 Samuel 20:13 After Amasa had been removed from the road, all the men went on with Joab to pursue Sheba son of Bicri.

2 Samuel 20:14 Sheba passed through all the tribes of Israel to Abel Beth Maacah and through the entire region of the Berites, who gathered together and followed him.

2 Samuel 20:15 All the troops with Joab came and besieged Sheba in Abel Beth Maacah. They built a siege ramp up to the city, and it stood against the outer fortifications. While they were battering the wall to bring it down,

2 Samuel 20:16 a wise woman called from the city, “Listen! Listen! Tell Joab to come here so that I can speak to him.”

2 Samuel 20:17 He went towards her, and she asked, “Are you Joab?” “I am,” he answered. She said, “Listen to what your servant has to say.” “I’m listening,” he said.

2 Samuel 20:18 She continued, “Long ago they used to say,`Get your answer at Abel,’ and that settled it.

2 Samuel 20:19 We are the peaceful and faithful in Israel. You are trying to destroy a city that is a mother in Israel. Why do you want to swallow up the LORD’s inheritance?”

2 Samuel 20:20 “Far be it from me!” Joab replied, “Far be it from me to swallow up or destroy!

2 Samuel 20:21 That is not the case. A man named Sheba son of Bicri, from the hill country of Ephraim, has lifted up his hand against the king, against David. Hand over this one man, and I’ll withdraw from the city.” The woman said to Joab, “His head will be thrown to you from the wall.”

2 Samuel 20:22 Then the woman went to all the people with her wise advice, and they cut off the head of Sheba son of Bicri and threw it to Joab. So he sounded the trumpet, and his men dispersed from the city, each returning to his home. And Joab went back to the king in Jerusalem.

2 Samuel 20:23 Joab was over Israel’s entire army; Benaiah son of Jehoiada was over the Kerethites and Pelethites;

2 Samuel 20:24 Adoniram was in charge of forced labour; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud was recorder;

2 Samuel 20:25 Sheva was secretary; Zadok and Abiathar were priests;

2 Samuel 20:26 and Ira the Jairite was David’s priest.

2 Samuel 21:1 During the reign of David, there was a famine for three successive years; so David sought the face of the LORD. The LORD said, “It is on account of Saul and his blood-stained house; it is because he put the Gibeonites to death.”

2 Samuel 21:2 The king summoned the Gibeonites and spoke to them. (Now the Gibeonites were not a part of Israel but were survivors of the Amorites; the Israelites had sworn to [spare] them, but Saul in his zeal for Israel and Judah had tried to annihilate them.)

2 Samuel 21:3 David asked the Gibeonites, “What shall I do for you? How shall I make amends so that you will bless the LORD’s inheritance?”

2 Samuel 21:4 The Gibeonites answered him, “We have no right to demand silver or gold from Saul or his family, nor do we have the right to put anyone in Israel to death.” “What do you want me to do for you?” David asked.

2 Samuel 21:5 They answered the king, “As for the man who destroyed us and plotted against us so that we have been decimated and have no place anywhere in Israel,

2 Samuel 21:6 let seven of his male descendants be given to us to be killed and exposed before the LORD at Gibeah of Saul—the LORD’s chosen one.” So the king said, “I will give them to you.”

2 Samuel 21:7 The king spared Mephibosheth son of Jonathan, the son of Saul, because of the oath before the LORD between David and Jonathan son of Saul.

2 Samuel 21:8 But the king took Armoni and Mephibosheth, the two sons of Aiah’s daughter Rizpah, whom she had borne to Saul, together with the five sons of Saul’s daughter Merab, whom she had borne to Adriel son of Barzillai the Meholathite.

2 Samuel 21:9 He handed them over to the Gibeonites, who killed and exposed them on a hill before the LORD. All seven of them fell together; they were put to death during the first days of harvest, just as the barley harvest was beginning.

2 Samuel 21:10 Rizpah daughter of Aiah took sackcloth and spread it out for herself on a rock. From the beginning of the harvest till the rain poured down from the heavens on the bodies, she did not let the birds of the air touch them by day or the wild animals by night.

2 Samuel 21:11 When David was told what Aiah’s daughter Rizpah, Saul’s concubine, had done,

2 Samuel 21:12 he went and took the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from the citizens of Jabesh Gilead. (They had taken them secretly from the public square at Beth Shan, where the Philistines had hung them after they struck Saul down on Gilboa.)

2 Samuel 21:13 David brought the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan from there, and the bones of those who had been killed and exposed were gathered up.

2 Samuel 21:14 They buried the bones of Saul and his son Jonathan in the tomb of Saul’s father Kish, at Zela in Benjamin, and did everything the king commanded. After that, God answered prayer on behalf of the land.

2 Samuel 21:15 Once again there was a battle between the Philistines and Israel. David went down with his men to fight against the Philistines, and he became exhausted.

2 Samuel 21:16 And Ishbi-Benob, one of the descendants of Rapha, whose bronze spearhead weighed three hundred shekels and who was armed with a new [sword], said he would kill David.

2 Samuel 21:17 But Abishai son of Zeruiah came to David's rescue; he struck the Philistine down and killed him. Then David's men swore to him, saying, "Never again will you go out with us to battle, so that the lamp of Israel will not be extinguished."

2 Samuel 21:18 In the course of time, there was another battle with the Philistines, at Gob. At that time Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Saph, one of the descendants of Rapha.

2 Samuel 21:19 In another battle with the Philistines at Gob, Elhanan son of Jaare-Oregim the Bethlehemite killed Goliath the Gittite, who had a spear with a shaft like a weaver's rod.

2 Samuel 21:20 In still another battle, which took place at Gath, there was a huge man with six fingers on each hand and six toes on each foot— twenty-four in all. He also was descended from Rapha.

2 Samuel 21:21 When he taunted Israel, Jonathan son of Shimeah, David's brother, killed him.

2 Samuel 21:22 These four were descendants of Rapha in Gath, and they fell at the hands of David and his men.

2 Samuel 22:1 David sang to the LORD the words of this song when the LORD delivered him from the hand of all his enemies and from the hand of Saul.

2 Samuel 22:2 He said: "The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer;

2 Samuel 22:3 my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my saviour—from violent men you save me.

2 Samuel 22:4 I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies.

2 Samuel 22:5 "The waves of death swirled about me; the torrents of destruction overwhelmed me.

2 Samuel 22:6 The cords of the grave coiled around me; the snares of death confronted me.

2 Samuel 22:7 In my distress I called to the LORD; I called out to my God. From his temple he heard my voice; my cry came to his ears.

2 Samuel 22:8 "The earth trembled and quaked, the foundations of the heavens shook; they trembled because he was angry.

2 Samuel 22:9 Smoke rose from his nostrils; consuming fire came from his mouth, burning coals blazed out of it.

2 Samuel 22:10 He parted the heavens and came down; dark clouds were under his feet.

2 Samuel 22:11 He mounted the cherubim and flew; he soared on the wings of the wind.

2 Samuel 22:12 He made darkness his canopy around him—the dark rain clouds of the sky.

2 Samuel 22:13 Out of the brightness of his presence bolts of lightning blazed forth.

2 Samuel 22:14 The LORD thundered from heaven; the voice of the Most High resounded.

2 Samuel 22:15 He shot arrows and scattered [the enemies], bolts of lightning and routed them.

2 Samuel 22:16 The valleys of the sea were exposed and the foundations of the earth laid bare at the rebuke of the LORD, at the blast of breath from his nostrils.

2 Samuel 22:17 “He reached down from on high and took hold of me; he drew me out of deep waters.

2 Samuel 22:18 He rescued me from my powerful enemy, from my foes, who were too strong for me.

2 Samuel 22:19 They confronted me in the day of my disaster, but the LORD was my support.

2 Samuel 22:20 He brought me out into a spacious place; he rescued me because he delighted in me.

2 Samuel 22:21 “The LORD has dealt with me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands he has rewarded me.

2 Samuel 22:22 For I have kept the ways of the LORD; I have not done evil by turning from my God.

2 Samuel 22:23 All his laws are before me; I have not turned away from his decrees.

2 Samuel 22:24 I have been blameless before him and have kept myself from sin.

2 Samuel 22:25 The LORD has rewarded me according to my righteousness, according to my cleanness in his sight.

2 Samuel 22:26 “To the faithful you show yourself faithful, to the blameless you show yourself blameless,

2 Samuel 22:27 to the pure you show yourself pure, but to the crooked you show yourself shrewd.

2 Samuel 22:28 You save the humble, but your eyes are on the haughty to bring them low.

2 Samuel 22:29 You are my lamp, O LORD; the LORD turns my darkness into light.

2 Samuel 22:30 With your help I can advance against a troop; with my God I can scale a wall.

2 Samuel 22:31 “As for God, his way is perfect; the word of the LORD is flawless. He is a shield for all who take refuge in him.

2 Samuel 22:32 For who is God besides the LORD? And who is the Rock except our God?

2 Samuel 22:33 It is God who arms me with strength and makes my way perfect.

2 Samuel 22:34 He makes my feet like the feet of a deer; he enables me to stand on the heights.

2 Samuel 22:35 He trains my hands for battle; my arms can bend a bow of bronze.

2 Samuel 22:36 You give me your shield of victory; you stoop down to make me great.

2 Samuel 22:37 You broaden the path beneath me, so that my ankles do not turn over.

2 Samuel 22:38 “I pursued my enemies and crushed them; I did not turn back till they were destroyed.

2 Samuel 22:39 I crushed them completely, and they could not rise; they fell beneath my feet.

2 Samuel 22:40 You armed me with strength for battle; you made my adversaries bow at my feet.

2 Samuel 22:41 You made my enemies turn their backs in flight, and I destroyed my foes.

2 Samuel 22:42 They cried for help, but there was no-one to save them—to the LORD, but he did not answer.

2 Samuel 22:43 I beat them as fine as the dust of the earth; I pounded and trampled them like mud in the streets.

2 Samuel 22:44 “You have delivered me from the attacks of my people; you have preserved me as the head of nations. People I did not know are subject to me,

2 Samuel 22:45 and foreigners come cringing to me; as soon as they hear me, they obey me.

2 Samuel 22:46 They all lose heart; they come trembling from their strongholds.

2 Samuel 22:47 “The LORD lives! Praise be to my Rock! Exalted be God, the Rock, my Saviour!

2 Samuel 22:48 He is the God who avenges me, who puts the nations under me,

2 Samuel 22:49 who sets me free from my enemies. You exalted me above my foes; from violent men you rescued me.

2 Samuel 22:50 Therefore I will praise you, O LORD, among the nations; I will sing praises to your name.

2 Samuel 22:51 He gives his king great victories; he shows unfailing kindness to his anointed, to David and his descendants for ever.”

2 Samuel 23:1 These are the last words of David: “The oracle of David son of Jesse, the oracle of the man exalted by the Most High, the man anointed by the God of Jacob, Israel’s singer of songs:

2 Samuel 23:2 “The Spirit of the LORD spoke through me; his word was on my tongue.

2 Samuel 23:3 The God of Israel spoke, the Rock of Israel said to me:`When one rules over men in righteousness, when he rules in the fear of God,

2 Samuel 23:4 he is like the light of morning at sunrise on a cloudless morning, like the brightness after rain that brings the grass from the earth.’

2 Samuel 23:5 “Is not my house right with God? Has he not made with me an everlasting covenant, arranged and secured in every part? Will he not bring to fruition my salvation and grant me my every desire?

2 Samuel 23:6 But evil men are all to be cast aside like thorns, which are not gathered with the hand.

2 Samuel 23:7 Whoever touches thorns uses a tool of iron or the shaft of a spear; they are burned up where they lie.”

2 Samuel 23:8 These are the names of David’s mighty men: Josheb-Basshebeth, a Tahkemonite, was chief of the Three; he raised his spear against eight hundred men, whom he killed in one encounter.

2 Samuel 23:9 Next to him was Eleazar son of Dodai the Ahohite. As one of the three mighty men, he was with David when they taunted the Philistines gathered [at Pas Dammim] for battle. Then the men of Israel retreated,

2 Samuel 23:10 but he stood his ground and struck down the Philistines till his hand grew tired and froze to the sword. The LORD brought about a great victory that day. The troops returned to Eleazar, but only to strip the dead.

2 Samuel 23:11 Next to him was Shammah son of Agee the Hararite. When the Philistines banded together at a place where there was a field full of lentils, Israel’s troops fled from them.

2 Samuel 23:12 But Shammah took his stand in the middle of the field. He defended it and struck the Philistines down, and the LORD brought about a great victory.

2 Samuel 23:13 During harvest time, three of the thirty chief men came down to David at the cave of Adullam, while a band of Philistines was encamped in the Valley of Rephaim.

2 Samuel 23:14 At that time David was in the stronghold, and the Philistine garrison was at Bethlehem.

2 Samuel 23:15 David longed for water and said, “Oh, that someone would get me a drink of water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem!”

2 Samuel 23:16 So the three mighty men broke through the Philistine lines, drew water from the well near the gate of Bethlehem and carried it back to David. But he refused to drink it; instead, he poured it out before the LORD.

2 Samuel 23:17 “Far be it from me, O LORD, to do this!” he said. “Is it not the blood of men who went at the risk of their lives?” And David would not drink it. Such were the exploits of the three mighty men.

2 Samuel 23:18 Abishai the brother of Joab son of Zeruiah was chief of the Three. He raised his spear against three hundred men, whom he killed, and so he became as famous as the Three.

2 Samuel 23:19 Was he not held in greater honour than the Three? He became their commander, even though he was not included among them.

2 Samuel 23:20 Benaiah son of Jehoiada was a valiant fighter from Kabzeel, who performed great exploits. He struck down two of Moab’s best men. He also went down into a pit on a snowy day and killed a lion.

2 Samuel 23:21 And he struck down a huge Egyptian. Although the Egyptian had a spear in his hand, Benaiah went against him with a club. He snatched the spear from the Egyptian’s hand and killed him with his own spear.

2 Samuel 23:22 Such were the exploits of Benaiah son of Jehoiada; he too was as famous as the three mighty men.

2 Samuel 23:23 He was held in greater honour than any of the Thirty, but he was not included among the Three. And David put him in charge of his bodyguard.

2 Samuel 23:24 Among the Thirty were: Asahel the brother of Joab, Elhanan son of Dodo from Bethlehem,

2 Samuel 23:25 Shammah the Harodite, Elika the Harodite,

2 Samuel 23:26 Helez the Paltite, Ira son of Ikkesh from Tekoa,

2 Samuel 23:27 Abiezer from Anathoth, Mebunnai the Hushathite,

2 Samuel 23:28 Zalmon the Ahohite, Maharai the Netophathite,

2 Samuel 23:29 Heled son of Baanah the Netophathite, Ithai son of Ribai from Gibeah in Benjamin,

2 Samuel 23:30 Benaiah the Pirathonite, Hiddai from the ravines of Gaash,

2 Samuel 23:31 Abi-Albon the Arbathite, Azmaveth the Barhumite,

2 Samuel 23:32 Eliahba the Shaalbonite, the sons of Jashen, Jonathan

2 Samuel 23:33 son of Shammah the Hararite, Ahiam son of Sharar the Hararite,

2 Samuel 23:34 Eliphelet son of Ahasbai the Maacathite, Eliam son of Ahithophel the Gilonite,

2 Samuel 23:35 Hezro the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

2 Samuel 23:36 Igal son of Nathan from Zobah, the son of Hagri,

2 Samuel 23:37 Zelek the Ammonite, Naharai the Beerothite, the armour-bearer of Joab son of Zeruiah,

2 Samuel 23:38 Ira the Ithrite, Gareb the Ithrite

2 Samuel 23:39 and Uriah the Hittite. There were thirty-seven in all.

2 Samuel 24:1 Again the anger of the LORD burned against Israel, and he incited David against them, saying, “Go and take a census of Israel and Judah.”

2 Samuel 24:2 So the king said to Joab and the army commanders with him, “Go throughout the tribes of Israel from Dan to Beersheba and enrol the fighting men, so that I may know how many there are.”

2 Samuel 24:3 But Joab replied to the king, “May the LORD your God multiply the troops a hundred times over, and may the eyes of my lord the king see it. But why does my lord the king want to do such a thing?”

2 Samuel 24:4 The king’s word, however, overruled Joab and the army commanders; so they left the presence of the king to enrol the fighting men of Israel.

2 Samuel 24:5 After crossing the Jordan, they camped near Aroer, south of the town in the gorge, and then went through Gad and on to Jazer.

2 Samuel 24:6 They went to Gilead and the region of Tahtim Hodshi, and on to Dan Jaan and around towards Sidon.

2 Samuel 24:7 Then they went towards the fortress of Tyre and all the towns of the Hivites and Canaanites. Finally, they went on to Beersheba in the Negev of Judah.

2 Samuel 24:8 After they had gone through the entire land, they came back to Jerusalem at the end of nine months and twenty days.

2 Samuel 24:9 Joab reported the number of the fighting men to the king: In Israel there were eight hundred thousand able-bodied men who could handle a sword, and in Judah five hundred thousand.

2 Samuel 24:10 David was conscience-stricken after he had counted the fighting men, and he said to the LORD, “I have sinned greatly in what I have done. Now, O LORD, I beg you, take away the guilt of your servant. I have done a very foolish thing.”

2 Samuel 24:11 Before David got up the next morning, the word of the LORD had come to Gad the prophet, David’s seer:

2 Samuel 24:12 “Go and tell David,`This is what the LORD says: I am giving you three options. Choose one of them for me to carry out against you.’“

2 Samuel 24:13 So Gad went to David and said to him, “Shall there come upon you three years of famine in your land? Or three months of fleeing from your enemies while they pursue you? Or three days of plague in your land? Now then, think it over and decide how I should answer the one who sent me.”

2 Samuel 24:14 David said to Gad, “I am in deep distress. Let us fall into the hands of the LORD, for his mercy is great; but do not let me fall into the hands of men.”

2 Samuel 24:15 So the LORD sent a plague on Israel from that morning until the end of the time designated, and seventy thousand of the people from Dan to Beersheba died.

2 Samuel 24:16 When the angel stretched out his hand to destroy Jerusalem, the LORD was grieved because of the calamity and said to the angel who was afflicting the people, “Enough! Withdraw your hand.” The angel of the LORD was then at the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.

2 Samuel 24:17 When David saw the angel who was striking down the people, he said to the LORD, “I am the one who has sinned and done wrong. These are but sheep. What have they done? Let your hand fall upon me and my family.”

2 Samuel 24:18 On that day Gad went to David and said to him, “Go up and build an altar to the LORD on the threshing-floor of Araunah the Jebusite.”

2 Samuel 24:19 So David went up, as the LORD had commanded through Gad.

2 Samuel 24:20 When Araunah looked and saw the king and his men coming towards him, he went out and bowed down before the king with his face to the ground.

2 Samuel 24:21 Araunah said, “Why has my lord the king come to his servant?” “To buy your threshing-floor,” David answered, “so that I can build an altar to the LORD, that the plague on the people may be stopped.”

2 Samuel 24:22 Araunah said to David, “Let my lord the king take whatever pleases him and offer it up. Here are oxen for the burnt offering, and here are threshing-sledges and ox yokes for the wood.

2 Samuel 24:23 O king, Araunah gives all this to the king.” Araunah also said to him, “May the LORD your God accept you.”

2 Samuel 24:24 But the king replied to Araunah, “No, I insist on paying you for it. I will not sacrifice to the LORD my God burnt offerings that cost me nothing.” So David bought the threshing-floor and the oxen and paid fifty shekels of silver for them.

2 Samuel 24:25 David built an altar to the LORD there and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then the LORD answered prayer on behalf of the land, and the plague on Israel was stopped.

1 Kings

1:1 When King David was old and well advanced in years, he could not keep warm even when they put covers over him.

1 Kings 1:2 So his servants said to him, “Let us look for a young virgin to attend the king and take care of him. She can lie beside him so that our lord the king may keep warm.”

1 Kings 1:3 Then they searched throughout Israel for a beautiful girl and found Abishag, a Shunammite, and brought her to the king.

1 Kings 1:4 The girl was very beautiful; she took care of the king and waited on him, but the king had no intimate relations with her.

1 Kings 1:5 Now Adonijah, whose mother was Haggith, put himself forward and said, “I will be king.” So he got chariots and horses ready, with fifty men to run ahead of him.

1 Kings 1:6 (His father had never interfered with him by asking, “Why do you behave as you do?” He was also very handsome and was born next after Absalom.)

1 Kings 1:7 Adonijah conferred with Joab son of Zeruiah and with Abiathar the priest, and they gave him their support.

1 Kings 1:8 But Zadok the priest, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophet, Shimei and Rei and David’s special guard did not join Adonijah.

1 Kings 1:9 Adonijah then sacrificed sheep, cattle and fattened calves at the Stone of Zoheleth near En Rogel. He invited all his brothers, the king’s sons, and all the men of Judah who were royal officials,

1 Kings 1:10 but he did not invite Nathan the prophet or Benaiah or the special guard or his brother Solomon.

1 Kings 1:11 Then Nathan asked Bathsheba, Solomon's mother, "Have you not heard that Adonijah, the son of Haggith, has become king without our lord David's knowing it?

1 Kings 1:12 Now then, let me advise you how you can save your own life and the life of your son Solomon.

1 Kings 1:13 Go in to King David and say to him,`My lord the king, did you not swear to me your servant: "Surely Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne"? Why then has Adonijah become king?'

1 Kings 1:14 While you are still there talking to the king, I will come in and confirm what you have said."

1 Kings 1:15 So Bathsheba went to see the aged king in his room, where Abishag the Shunammite was attending him.

1 Kings 1:16 Bathsheba bowed low and knelt before the king. "What is it you want?" the king asked.

1 Kings 1:17 She said to him, "My lord, you yourself swore to me your servant by the LORD your God:`Solomon your son shall become king after me, and he will sit on my throne.'

1 Kings 1:18 But now Adonijah has become king, and you, my lord the king, do not know about it.

1 Kings 1:19 He has sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep, and has invited all the king's sons, Abiathar the priest and Joab the commander of the army, but he has not invited Solomon your servant.

1 Kings 1:20 My lord the king, the eyes of all Israel are on you, to learn from you who will sit on the throne of my lord the king after him.

1 Kings 1:21 Otherwise, as soon as my lord the king is laid to rest with his fathers, I and my son Solomon will be treated as criminals."

1 Kings 1:22 While she was still speaking with the king, Nathan the prophet arrived.

1 Kings 1:23 And they told the king, "Nathan the prophet is here." So he went before the king and bowed with his face to the ground.

1 Kings 1:24 Nathan said, "Have you, my lord the king, declared that Adonijah shall be king after you, and that he will sit on your throne?

1 Kings 1:25 Today he has gone down and sacrificed great numbers of cattle, fattened calves, and sheep. He has invited all the king's sons, the commanders of the army and Abiathar the priest. At this very moment they are eating and drinking with him and saying,`Long live King Adonijah!'

1 Kings 1:26 But me your servant, and Zadok the priest, and Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and your servant Solomon he did not invite.

1 Kings 1:27 Is this something my lord the king has done without letting his servants know who should sit on the throne of my lord the king after him?”

1 Kings 1:28 Then King David said, “Call in Bathsheba.” So she came into the king’s presence and stood before him.

1 Kings 1:29 The king then took an oath: “As surely as the LORD lives, who has delivered me out of every trouble,

1 Kings 1:30 I will surely carry out today what I swore to you by the LORD, the God of Israel: Solomon your son shall be king after me, and he will sit on my throne in my place.”

1 Kings 1:31 Then Bathsheba bowed low with her face to the ground and, kneeling before the king, said, “May my lord King David live for ever!”

1 Kings 1:32 King David said, “Call in Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet and Benaiah son of Jehoiada.” When they came before the king,

1 Kings 1:33 he said to them: “Take your lord’s servants with you and set Solomon my son on my own mule and take him down to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:34 There shall Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet anoint him king over Israel. Blow the trumpet and shout,`Long live King Solomon!’

1 Kings 1:35 Then you are to go up with him, and he is to come and sit on my throne and reign in my place. I have appointed him ruler over Israel and Judah.”

1 Kings 1:36 Benaiah son of Jehoiada answered the king, “Amen! May the LORD, the God of my lord the king, so declare it.

1 Kings 1:37 As the LORD was with my lord the king, so may he be with Solomon to make his throne even greater than the throne of my lord King David!”

1 Kings 1:38 So Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites went down and put Solomon on King David’s mule and escorted him to Gihon.

1 Kings 1:39 Zadok the priest took the horn of oil from the sacred tent and anointed Solomon. Then they sounded the trumpet and all the people shouted, “Long live King Solomon!”

1 Kings 1:40 And all the people went up after him, playing flutes and rejoicing greatly, so that the ground shook with the sound.

1 Kings 1:41 Adonijah and all the guests who were with him heard it as they were finishing their feast. On hearing the sound of the trumpet, Joab asked, “What’s the meaning of all the noise in the city?”

1 Kings 1:42 Even as he was speaking, Jonathan son of Abiathar the priest arrived. Adonijah said, “Come in. A worthy man like you must be bringing good news.”

1 Kings 1:43 “Not at all!” Jonathan answered. “Our lord King David has made Solomon king.

1 Kings 1:44 The king has sent with him Zadok the priest, Nathan the prophet, Benaiah son of Jehoiada, the Kerethites and the Pelethites, and they have put him on the king’s mule,

1 Kings 1:45 and Zadok the priest and Nathan the prophet have anointed him king at Gihon. From there they have gone up cheering, and the city resounds with it. That’s the noise you hear.

1 Kings 1:46 Moreover, Solomon has taken his seat on the royal throne.

1 Kings 1:47 Also, the royal officials have come to congratulate our lord King David, saying,`May your God make Solomon’s name more famous than yours and his throne greater than yours!’ And the king bowed in worship on his bed

1 Kings 1:48 and said,`Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who has allowed my eyes to see a successor on my throne today.’“

1 Kings 1:49 At this, all Adonijah’s guests rose in alarm and dispersed.

1 Kings 1:50 But Adonijah, in fear of Solomon, went and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 1:51 Then Solomon was told, “Adonijah is afraid of King Solomon and is clinging to the horns of the altar. He says,`Let King Solomon swear to me today that he will not put his servant to death with the sword.’“

1 Kings 1:52 Solomon replied, “If he shows himself to be a worthy man, not a hair of his head will fall to the ground; but if evil is found in him, he will die.”

1 Kings 1:53 Then King Solomon sent men, and they brought him down from the altar. And Adonijah came and bowed down to King Solomon, and Solomon said, “Go to your home.”

1 Kings 2:1 When the time drew near for David to die, he gave a charge to Solomon his son.

1 Kings 2:2 “I am about to go the way of all the earth,” he said. “So be strong, show yourself a man,

1 Kings 2:3 and observe what the LORD your God requires: Walk in his ways, and keep his decrees and commands, his laws and requirements, as written in the Law of Moses, so that you may prosper in all you do and wherever you go,

1 Kings 2:4 and that the LORD may keep his promise to me:`If your descendants watch how they live, and if they walk faithfully before me with all their heart and soul, you will never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.’

1 Kings 2:5 “Now you yourself know what Joab son of Zeruiah did to me— what he did to the two commanders of Israel’s armies, Abner son of Ner and Amasa son of Jether. He killed them, shedding their blood in peacetime as if in battle, and with that blood stained the belt round his waist and the sandals on his feet.

1 Kings 2:6 Deal with him according to your wisdom, but do not let his grey head go down to the grave in peace.

1 Kings 2:7 “But show kindness to the sons of Barzillai of Gilead and let them be among those who eat at your table. They stood by me when I fled from your brother Absalom.

1 Kings 2:8 “And remember, you have with you Shimei son of Gera, the Benjamite from Bahurim, who called down bitter curses on me the day I went to Mahanaim. When he came down to meet me at the Jordan, I swore to him by the LORD:`I will not put you to death by the sword.’

1 Kings 2:9 But now, do not consider him innocent. You are a man of wisdom; you will know what to do to him. Bring his grey head down to the grave in blood.”

1 Kings 2:10 Then David rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David.

1 Kings 2:11 He had reigned for forty years over Israel—seven years in Hebron and thirty-three in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 2:12 So Solomon sat on the throne of his father David, and his rule was firmly established.

1 Kings 2:13 Now Adonijah, the son of Haggith, went to Bathsheba, Solomon’s mother. Bathsheba asked him, “Do you come peacefully?” He answered, “Yes, peacefully.”

1 Kings 2:14 Then he added, “I have something to say to you.” “You may say it,” she replied.

1 Kings 2:15 “As you know,” he said, “the kingdom was mine. All Israel looked to me as their king. But things changed, and the kingdom has gone to my brother; for it has come to him from the LORD.

1 Kings 2:16 Now I have one request to make of you. Do not refuse me.” “You may make it,” she said.

1 Kings 2:17 So he continued, “Please ask King Solomon—he will not refuse you—to give me Abishag the Shunammite as my wife.”

1 Kings 2:18 “Very well,” Bathsheba replied, “I will speak to the king for you.”

1 Kings 2:19 When Bathsheba went to King Solomon to speak to him for Adonijah, the king stood up to meet her, bowed down to her and sat down on his throne. He had a throne brought for the king’s mother, and she sat down at his right hand.

1 Kings 2:20 “I have one small request to make of you,” she said. “Do not refuse me.” The king replied, “Make it, my mother; I will not refuse you.”

1 Kings 2:21 So she said, “Let Abishag the Shunammite be given in marriage to your brother Adonijah.”

1 Kings 2:22 King Solomon answered his mother, “Why do you request Abishag the Shunammite for Adonijah? You might as well request the kingdom for him—after all, he is my older brother— yes, for him and for Abiathar the priest and Joab son of Zeruiah!”

1 Kings 2:23 Then King Solomon swore by the LORD: “May God deal with me, be it ever so severely, if Adonijah does not pay with his life for this request!

1 Kings 2:24 And now, as surely as the LORD lives—he who has established me securely on the throne of my father David and has founded a dynasty for me as he promised—Adonijah shall be put to death today!”

1 Kings 2:25 So King Solomon gave orders to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he struck down Adonijah and he died.

1 Kings 2:26 To Abiathar the priest the king said, “Go back to your fields in Anathoth. You deserve to die, but I will not put you to death now, because you carried the ark of the Sovereign LORD before my father David and shared all my father’s hardships.”

1 Kings 2:27 So Solomon removed Abiathar from the priesthood of the LORD, fulfilling the word the LORD had spoken at Shiloh about the house of Eli.

1 Kings 2:28 When the news reached Joab, who had conspired with Adonijah though not with Absalom, he fled to the tent of the LORD and took hold of the horns of the altar.

1 Kings 2:29 King Solomon was told that Joab had fled to the tent of the LORD and was beside the altar. Then Solomon ordered Benaiah son of Jehoiada, “Go, strike him down!”

1 Kings 2:30 So Benaiah entered the tent of the LORD and said to Joab, “The king says,`Come out!’“ But he answered, “No, I will die here.” Benaiah reported to the king, “This is how Joab answered me.”

1 Kings 2:31 Then the king commanded Benaiah, “Do as he says. Strike him down and bury him, and so clear me and my father’s house of the guilt of the innocent blood that Joab shed.

1 Kings 2:32 The LORD will repay him for the blood he shed, because without the knowledge of my father David he attacked two men and killed them with the sword. Both of them—Abner son of Ner, commander of Israel’s army, and Amasa son of Jether, commander of Judah’s army—were better men and more upright than he.

1 Kings 2:33 May the guilt of their blood rest on the head of Joab and his descendants for ever. But on David and his descendants, his house and his throne, may there be the LORD’s peace for ever.”

1 Kings 2:34 So Benaiah son of Jehoiada went up and struck down Joab and killed him, and he was buried on his own land in the desert.

1 Kings 2:35 The king put Benaiah son of Jehoiada over the army in Joab’s position and replaced Abiathar with Zadok the priest.

1 Kings 2:36 Then the king sent for Shimei and said to him, “Build yourself a house in Jerusalem and live there, but do not go anywhere else.

1 Kings 2:37 The day you leave and cross the Kidron Valley, you can be sure you will die; your blood will be on your own head.”

1 Kings 2:38 Shimei answered the king, “What you say is good. Your servant will do as my lord the king has said.” And Shimei stayed in Jerusalem for a long time.

1 Kings 2:39 But three years later, two of Shimei’s slaves ran off to Achish son of Maacah, king of Gath, and Shimei was told, “Your slaves are in Gath.”

1 Kings 2:40 At this, he saddled his donkey and went to Achish at Gath in search of his slaves. So Shimei went away and brought the slaves back from Gath.

1 Kings 2:41 When Solomon was told that Shimei had gone from Jerusalem to Gath and had returned,

1 Kings 2:42 the king summoned Shimei and said to him, “Did I not make you swear by the LORD and warn you,`On the day you leave to go anywhere else, you can be sure you will die’? At that time you said to me,`What you say is good. I will obey.’

1 Kings 2:43 Why then did you not keep your oath to the LORD and obey the command I gave you?”

1 Kings 2:44 The king also said to Shimei, “You know in your heart all the wrong you did to my father David. Now the LORD will repay you for your wrongdoing.

1 Kings 2:45 But King Solomon will be blessed, and David’s throne will remain secure before the LORD for ever.”

1 Kings 2:46 Then the king gave the order to Benaiah son of Jehoiada, and he went out and struck Shimei down and killed him. The kingdom was now firmly established in Solomon’s hands.

1 Kings 3:1 Solomon made an alliance with Pharaoh king of Egypt and married his daughter. He brought her to the City of David until he finished building his palace and the temple of the LORD, and the wall around Jerusalem.

1 Kings 3:2 The people, however, were still sacrificing at the high places, because a temple had not yet been built for the Name of the LORD.

1 Kings 3:3 Solomon showed his love for the LORD by walking according to the statutes of his father David, except that he offered sacrifices and burned incense on the high places.

1 Kings 3:4 The king went to Gibeon to offer sacrifices, for that was the most important high place, and Solomon offered a thousand burnt offerings on that altar.

1 Kings 3:5 At Gibeon the LORD appeared to Solomon during the night in a dream, and God said, “Ask for whatever you want me to give you.”

1 Kings 3:6 Solomon answered, “You have shown great kindness to your servant, my father David, because he was faithful to you and righteous and upright in heart. You have continued this great kindness to him and have given him a son to sit on his throne this very day.

1 Kings 3:7 “Now, O LORD my God, you have made your servant king in place of my father David. But I am only a little child and do not know how to carry out my duties.

1 Kings 3:8 Your servant is here among the people you have chosen, a great people, too numerous to count or number.

1 Kings 3:9 So give your servant a discerning heart to govern your people and to distinguish between right and wrong. For who is able to govern this great people of yours?”

1 Kings 3:10 The Lord was pleased that Solomon had asked for this.

1 Kings 3:11 So God said to him, “Since you have asked for this and not for long life or wealth for yourself, nor have asked for the death of your enemies but for discernment in administering justice,

1 Kings 3:12 I will do what you have asked. I will give you a wise and discerning heart, so that there will never have been anyone like you, nor will there ever be.

1 Kings 3:13 Moreover, I will give you what you have not asked for—both riches and honour—so that in your lifetime you will have no equal among kings.

1 Kings 3:14 And if you walk in my ways and obey my statutes and commands as David your father did, I will give you a long life.”

1 Kings 3:15 Then Solomon awoke—and he realised it had been a dream. He returned to Jerusalem, stood before the ark of the Lord’s covenant and sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings. Then he gave a feast for all his court.

1 Kings 3:16 Now two prostitutes came to the king and stood before him.

1 Kings 3:17 One of them said, “My lord, this woman and I live in the same house. I had a baby while she was there with me.

1 Kings 3:18 The third day after my child was born, this woman also had a baby. We were alone; there was no-one in the house but the two of us.

1 Kings 3:19 “During the night this woman’s son died because she lay on him.

1 Kings 3:20 So she got up in the middle of the night and took my son from my side while I your servant was asleep. She put him by her breast and put her dead son by my breast.

1 Kings 3:21 The next morning, I got up to nurse my son—and he was dead! But when I looked at him closely in the morning light, I saw that it wasn’t the son I had borne.”

1 Kings 3:22 The other woman said, “No! The living one is my son; the dead one is yours.” But the first one insisted, “No! The dead one is yours; the living one is mine.” And so they argued before the king.

1 Kings 3:23 The king said, “This one says,`My son is alive and your son is dead,’ while that one says,`No! Your son is dead and mine is alive.’“

1 Kings 3:24 Then the king said, “Bring me a sword.” So they brought a sword for the king.

1 Kings 3:25 He then gave an order: “Cut the living child in two and give half to one and half to the other.”

1 Kings 3:26 The woman whose son was alive was filled with compassion for her son and said to the king, “Please, my lord, give her the living baby! Don’t kill him!” But the other said, “Neither I nor you shall have him. Cut him in two!”

1 Kings 3:27 Then the king gave his ruling: “Give the living baby to the first woman. Do not kill him; she is his mother.”

1 Kings 3:28 When all Israel heard the verdict the king had given, they held the king in awe, because they saw that he had wisdom from God to administer justice.

1 Kings 4:1 So King Solomon ruled over all Israel.

1 Kings 4:2 And these were his chief officials: Azariah son of Zadok—the priest;

1 Kings 4:3 Elihoreph and Ahijah, sons of Shisha—secretaries; Jehoshaphat son of Ahilud—recorder;

1 Kings 4:4 Benaiah son of Jehoiada—commander-in-chief; Zadok and Abiathar—priests;

1 Kings 4:5 Azariah son of Nathan—in charge of the district officers; Zabud son of Nathan—a priest and personal adviser to the king;

1 Kings 4:6 Ahishar—in charge of the palace; Adoniram son of Abda— in charge of forced labour.

1 Kings 4:7 Solomon also had twelve district governors over all Israel, who supplied provisions for the king and the royal household. Each one had to provide supplies for one month in the year.

1 Kings 4:8 These are their names: Ben-Hur—in the hill country of Ephraim;

1 Kings 4:9 Ben-Deker—in Makaz, Shaalbim, Beth Shemesh and Elon Bethhanan;

1 Kings 4:10 Ben-Hesed—in Arubboth (Socoh and all the land of Hepher were his);

1 Kings 4:11 Ben-Abinadab—in Naphoth Dor (he was married to Taphath daughter of Solomon);

1 Kings 4:12 Baana son of Ahilud—in Taanach and Megiddo, and in all of Beth Shan next to Zarethan below Jezreel, from Beth Shan to Abel Meholah across to Jokmeam;

1 Kings 4:13 Ben-Geber—in Ramoth Gilead (the settlements of Jair son of Manasseh in Gilead were his, as well as the district of Argob in Bashan and its sixty large walled cities with bronze gate bars);

1 Kings 4:14 Ahinadab son of Iddo—in Mahanaim;

1 Kings 4:15 Ahimaaz—in Naphtali (he had married Basemath daughter of Solomon);

1 Kings 4:16 Baana son of Hushai—in Asher and in Aloth;

1 Kings 4:17 Jehoshaphat son of Paruah—in Issachar;

1 Kings 4:18 Shimei son of Ela—in Benjamin;

1 Kings 4:19 Geber son of Uri—in Gilead (the country of Sihon king of the Amorites and the country of Og king of Bashan). He was the only governor over the district.

1 Kings 4:20 The people of Judah and Israel were as numerous as the sand on the seashore; they ate, they drank and they were happy.

1 Kings 4:21 And Solomon ruled over all the kingdoms from the River to the land of the Philistines, as far as the border of Egypt. These countries brought tribute and were Solomon’s subjects all his life.

1 Kings 4:22 Solomon’s daily provisions were thirty cors of fine flour and sixty cors of meal,

1 Kings 4:23 ten head of stall-fed cattle, twenty of pasture-fed cattle and a hundred sheep and goats, as well as deer, gazelles, roebucks and choice fowl.

1 Kings 4:24 For he ruled over all the kingdoms west of the River, from Tiphsah to Gaza, and had peace on all sides.

1 Kings 4:25 During Solomon’s lifetime Judah and Israel, from Dan to Beersheba, lived in safety, each man under his own vine and fig-tree.

1 Kings 4:26 Solomon had four thousand stalls for chariot horses, and twelve thousand horses.

1 Kings 4:27 The district officers, each in his month, supplied provisions for King Solomon and all who came to the king’s table. They saw to it that nothing was lacking.

1 Kings 4:28 They also brought to the proper place their quotas of barley and straw for the chariot horses and the other horses.

1 Kings 4:29 God gave Solomon wisdom and very great insight, and a breadth of understanding as measureless as the sand on the seashore.

1 Kings 4:30 Solomon’s wisdom was greater than the wisdom of all the men of the East, and greater than all the wisdom of Egypt.

1 Kings 4:31 He was wiser than any other man, including Ethan the Ezrahite—wiser than Heman, Calcol and Darda, the sons of Mahol. And his fame spread to all the surrounding nations.

1 Kings 4:32 He spoke three thousand proverbs and his songs numbered a thousand and five.

1 Kings 4:33 He described plant life, from the cedar of Lebanon to the hyssop that grows out of walls. He also taught about animals and birds, reptiles and fish.

1 Kings 4:34 Men of all nations came to listen to Solomon’s wisdom, sent by all the kings of the world, who had heard of his wisdom.

1 Kings 5:1 When Hiram king of Tyre heard that Solomon had been anointed king to succeed his father David, he sent his envoys to Solomon, because he had always been on friendly terms with David.

1 Kings 5:2 Solomon sent back this message to Hiram:

1 Kings 5:3 “You know that because of the wars waged against my father David from all sides, he could not build a temple for the Name of the LORD his God until the LORD put his enemies under his feet.

1 Kings 5:4 But now the LORD my God has given me rest on every side, and there is no adversary or disaster.

1 Kings 5:5 I intend, therefore, to build a temple for the Name of the LORD my God, as the LORD told my father David, when he said,`Your son whom I will put on the throne in your place will build the temple for my Name.’

1 Kings 5:6 “So give orders that cedars of Lebanon be cut for me. My men will work with yours, and I will pay you for your men whatever wages you set. You know that we have no-one so skilled in felling timber as the Sidonians.”

1 Kings 5:7 When Hiram heard Solomon’s message, he was greatly pleased and said, “Praise be to the LORD today, for he has given David a wise son to rule over this great nation.”

1 Kings 5:8 So Hiram sent word to Solomon: “I have received the message you sent me and will do all you want in providing the cedar and pine logs.

1 Kings 5:9 My men will haul them down from Lebanon to the sea, and I will float them in rafts by sea to the place you specify. There I will separate them and you can take them away. And you are to grant my wish by providing food for my royal household.”

1 Kings 5:10 In this way Hiram kept Solomon supplied with all the cedar and pine logs he wanted,

1 Kings 5:11 and Solomon gave Hiram twenty thousand cors of wheat as food for his household, in addition to twenty thousand baths of pressed olive oil. Solomon continued to do this for Hiram year after year.

1 Kings 5:12 The LORD gave Solomon wisdom, just as he had promised him. There were peaceful relations between Hiram and Solomon, and the two of them made a treaty.

1 Kings 5:13 King Solomon conscripted labourers from all Israel—thirty thousand men.

1 Kings 5:14 He sent them off to Lebanon in shifts of ten thousand a month, so that they spent one month in Lebanon and two months at home. Adoniram was in charge of the forced labour.

1 Kings 5:15 Solomon had seventy thousand carriers and eighty thousand stonecutters in the hills,

1 Kings 5:16 as well as thirty-three hundred foremen who supervised the project and directed the workmen.

1 Kings 5:17 At the king’s command they removed from the quarry large blocks of quality stone to provide a foundation of dressed stone for the temple.

1 Kings 5:18 The craftsmen of Solomon and Hiram and the men of Gebal cut and prepared the timber and stone for the building of the temple.

1 Kings 6:1 In the four hundred and eightieth year after the Israelites had come out of Egypt, in the fourth year of Solomon’s reign over Israel, in the month of Ziv, the second month, he began to build the temple of the LORD.

1 Kings 6:2 The temple that King Solomon built for the LORD was sixty cubits long, twenty wide and thirty high.

1 Kings 6:3 The portico at the front of the main hall of the temple extended the width of the temple, that is twenty cubits, and projected ten cubits from the front of the temple.

1 Kings 6:4 He made narrow clerestory windows in the temple.

1 Kings 6:5 Against the walls of the main hall and inner sanctuary he built a structure around the building, in which there were side rooms.

1 Kings 6:6 The lowest floor was five cubits wide, the middle floor six cubits and the third floor seven. He made offset ledges around the outside of the temple so that nothing would be inserted into the temple walls.

1 Kings 6:7 In building the temple, only blocks dressed at the quarry were used, and no hammer, chisel or any other iron tool was heard at the temple site while it was being built.

1 Kings 6:8 The entrance to the lowest floor was on the south side of the temple; a stairway led up to the middle level and from there to the third.

1 Kings 6:9 So he built the temple and completed it, roofing it with beams and cedar planks.

1 Kings 6:10 And he built the side rooms all along the temple. The height of each was five cubits, and they were attached to the temple by beams of cedar.

1 Kings 6:11 The word of the LORD came to Solomon:

1 Kings 6:12 "As for this temple you are building, if you follow my decrees, carry out my regulations and keep all my commands and obey them, I will fulfil through you the promise I gave to David your father.

1 Kings 6:13 And I will live among the Israelites and will not abandon my people Israel."

1 Kings 6:14 So Solomon built the temple and completed it.

1 Kings 6:15 He lined its interior walls with cedar boards, panelling them from the floor of the temple to the ceiling, and covered the floor of the temple with planks of pine.

1 Kings 6:16 He partitioned off twenty cubits at the rear of the temple with cedar boards from floor to ceiling to form within the temple an inner sanctuary, the Most Holy Place.

1 Kings 6:17 The main hall in front of this room was forty cubits long.

1 Kings 6:18 The inside of the temple was cedar, carved with gourds and open flowers. Everything was cedar; no stone was to be seen.

1 Kings 6:19 He prepared the inner sanctuary within the temple to set the ark of the covenant of the LORD there.

1 Kings 6:20 The inner sanctuary was twenty cubits long, twenty wide and twenty high. He overlaid the inside with pure gold, and he also overlaid the altar of cedar.

1 Kings 6:21 Solomon covered the inside of the temple with pure gold, and he extended gold chains across the front of the inner sanctuary, which was overlaid with gold.

1 Kings 6:22 So he overlaid the whole interior with gold. He also overlaid with gold the altar that belonged to the inner sanctuary.

1 Kings 6:23 In the inner sanctuary he made a pair of cherubim of olive wood, each ten cubits high.

1 Kings 6:24 One wing of the first cherub was five cubits long, and the other wing five cubits—ten cubits from wing tip to wing tip.

1 Kings 6:25 The second cherub also measured ten cubits, for the two cherubim were identical in size and shape.

1 Kings 6:26 The height of each cherub was ten cubits.

1 Kings 6:27 He placed the cherubim inside the innermost room of the temple, with their wings spread out. The wing of one cherub touched one wall, while the wing of the other touched the other wall, and their wings touched each other in the middle of the room.

1 Kings 6:28 He overlaid the cherubim with gold.

1 Kings 6:29 On the walls all round the temple, in both the inner and outer rooms, he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers.

1 Kings 6:30 He also covered the floors of both the inner and outer rooms of the temple with gold.

1 Kings 6:31 For the entrance of the inner sanctuary he made doors of olive wood with five-sided jambs.

1 Kings 6:32 And on the two olive wood doors he carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers, and overlaid the cherubim and palm trees with beaten gold.

1 Kings 6:33 In the same way he made four-sided jambs of olive wood for the entrance to the main hall.

1 Kings 6:34 He also made two pine doors, each having two leaves that turned in sockets.

1 Kings 6:35 He carved cherubim, palm trees and open flowers on them and overlaid them with gold hammered evenly over the carvings.

1 Kings 6:36 And he built the inner courtyard of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams.

1 Kings 6:37 The foundation of the temple of the LORD was laid in the fourth year, in the month of Ziv.

1 Kings 6:38 In the eleventh year in the month of Bul, the eighth month, the temple was finished in all its details according to its specifications. He had spent seven years building it.

1 Kings 7:1 It took Solomon thirteen years, however, to complete the construction of his palace.

1 Kings 7:2 He built the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon a hundred cubits long, fifty wide and thirty high, with four rows of cedar columns supporting trimmed cedar beams.

1 Kings 7:3 It was roofed with cedar above the beams that rested on the columns—forty-five beams, fifteen to a row.

1 Kings 7:4 Its windows were placed high in sets of three, facing each other.

1 Kings 7:5 All the doorways had rectangular frames; they were in the front part in sets of three, facing each other.

1 Kings 7:6 He made a colonnade fifty cubits long and thirty wide. In front of it was a portico, and in front of that were pillars and an overhanging roof.

1 Kings 7:7 He built the throne hall, the Hall of Justice, where he was to judge, and he covered it with cedar from floor to ceiling.

1 Kings 7:8 And the palace in which he was to live, set farther back, was similar in design. Solomon also made a palace like this hall for Pharaoh's daughter, whom he had married.

1 Kings 7:9 All these structures, from the outside to the great courtyard and from foundation to eaves, were made of blocks of high-grade stone cut to size and trimmed with a saw on their inner and outer faces.

1 Kings 7:10 The foundations were laid with large stones of good quality, some measuring ten cubits and some eight.

1 Kings 7:11 Above were high-grade stones, cut to size, and cedar beams.

1 Kings 7:12 The great courtyard was surrounded by a wall of three courses of dressed stone and one course of trimmed cedar beams, as was the inner courtyard of the temple of the LORD with its portico.

1 Kings 7:13 King Solomon sent to Tyre and brought Huram,

1 Kings 7:14 whose mother was a widow from the tribe of Naphtali and whose father was a man of Tyre and a craftsman in bronze. Huram was highly skilled and experienced in all kinds of bronze work. He came to King Solomon and did all the work assigned to him.

1 Kings 7:15 He cast two bronze pillars, each eighteen cubits high and twelve cubits round, by line.

1 Kings 7:16 He also made two capitals of cast bronze to set on the tops of the pillars; each capital was five cubits high.

1 Kings 7:17 A network of interwoven chains festooned the capitals on top of the pillars, seven for each capital.

1 Kings 7:18 He made pomegranates in two rows encircling each network to decorate the capitals on top of the pillars. He did the same for each capital.

1 Kings 7:19 The capitals on top of the pillars in the portico were in the shape of lilies, four cubits high.

1 Kings 7:20 On the capitals of both pillars, above the bowl-shaped part next to the network, were the two hundred pomegranates in rows all around.

1 Kings 7:21 He erected the pillars at the portico of the temple. The pillar to the south he named Jakin and the one to the north Boaz.

1 Kings 7:22 The capitals on top were in the shape of lilies. And so the work on the pillars was completed.

1 Kings 7:23 He made the Sea of cast metal, circular in shape, measuring ten cubits from rim to rim and five cubits high. It took a line of thirty cubits to measure round it.

1 Kings 7:24 Below the rim, gourds encircled it—ten to a cubit. The gourds were cast in two rows in one piece with the Sea.

1 Kings 7:25 The Sea stood on twelve bulls, three facing north, three facing west, three facing south and three facing east. The Sea rested on top of them, and their hindquarters were towards the centre.

1 Kings 7:26 It was a handbreadth in thickness, and its rim was like the rim of a cup, like a lily blossom. It held two thousand baths.

1 Kings 7:27 He also made ten movable stands of bronze; each was four cubits long, four wide and three high.

1 Kings 7:28 This is how the stands were made: They had side panels attached to uprights.

1 Kings 7:29 On the panels between the uprights were lions, bulls and cherubim—and on the uprights as well. Above and below the lions and bulls were wreaths of hammered work.

1 Kings 7:30 Each stand had four bronze wheels with bronze axles, and each had a basin resting on four supports, cast with wreaths on each side.

1 Kings 7:31 On the inside of the stand there was an opening that had a circular frame one cubit deep. This opening was round, and with its basework it measured a cubit and a half. Around its opening there was engraving. The panels of the stands were square, not round.

1 Kings 7:32 The four wheels were under the panels, and the axles of the wheels were attached to the stand. The diameter of each wheel was a cubit and a half.

1 Kings 7:33 The wheels were made like chariot wheels; the axles, rims, spokes and hubs were all of cast metal.

1 Kings 7:34 Each stand had four handles, one on each corner, projecting from the stand.

1 Kings 7:35 At the top of the stand there was a circular band half a cubit deep. The supports and panels were attached to the top of the stand.

1 Kings 7:36 He engraved cherubim, lions and palm trees on the surfaces of the supports and on the panels, in every available space, with wreaths all around.

1 Kings 7:37 This is the way he made the ten stands. They were all cast in the same moulds and were identical in size and shape.

1 Kings 7:38 He then made ten bronze basins, each holding forty baths and measuring four cubits across, one basin to go on each of the ten stands.

1 Kings 7:39 He placed five of the stands on the south side of the temple and five on the north. He placed the Sea on the south side, at the south-east corner of the temple.

1 Kings 7:40 He also made the basins and shovels and sprinkling bowls. So Huram finished all the work he had undertaken for King Solomon in the temple of the LORD:

1 Kings 7:41 the two pillars; the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars; the two sets of network decorating the two bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars;

1 Kings 7:42 the four hundred pomegranates for the two sets of network (two rows of pomegranates for each network, decorating the bowl-shaped capitals on top of the pillars);

1 Kings 7:43 the ten stands with their ten basins;

1 Kings 7:44 the Sea and the twelve bulls under it;

1 Kings 7:45 the pots, shovels and sprinkling bowls. All these objects that Huram made for King Solomon for the temple of the LORD were of burnished bronze.

1 Kings 7:46 The king had them cast in clay moulds in the plain of the Jordan between Succoth and Zarethan.

1 Kings 7:47 Solomon left all these things unweighed, because there were so many; the weight of the bronze was not determined.

1 Kings 7:48 Solomon also made all the furnishings that were in the LORD’s temple: the golden altar; the golden table on which was the bread of the Presence;

1 Kings 7:49 the lampstands of pure gold (five on the right and five on the left, in front of the inner sanctuary); the gold floral work and lamps and tongs;

1 Kings 7:50 the pure gold dishes, wick trimmers, sprinkling bowls, dishes and censers; and the gold sockets for the doors of the innermost room, the Most Holy Place, and also for the doors of the main hall of the temple.

1 Kings 7:51 When all the work King Solomon had done for the temple of the LORD was finished, he brought in the things his father David had dedicated—the silver and gold and the furnishings—and he placed them in the treasuries of the LORD’s temple.

1 Kings 8:1 Then King Solomon summoned into his presence at Jerusalem the elders of Israel, all the heads of the tribes and the chiefs of the Israelite families, to bring up the ark of the LORD’s covenant from Zion, the City of David.

1 Kings 8:2 All the men of Israel came together to King Solomon at the time of the festival in the month of Ethanim, the seventh month.

1 Kings 8:3 When all the elders of Israel had arrived, the priests took up the ark,

1 Kings 8:4 and they brought up the ark of the LORD and the Tent of Meeting and all the sacred furnishings in it. The priests and Levites carried them up,

1 Kings 8:5 and King Solomon and the entire assembly of Israel that had gathered about him were before the ark, sacrificing so many sheep and cattle that they could not be recorded or counted.

1 Kings 8:6 The priests then brought the ark of the LORD’s covenant to its place in the inner sanctuary of the temple, the Most Holy Place, and put it beneath the wings of the cherubim.

1 Kings 8:7 The cherubim spread their wings over the place of the ark and overshadowed the ark and its carrying poles.

1 Kings 8:8 These poles were so long that their ends could be seen from the Holy Place in front of the inner sanctuary, but not from outside the Holy Place; and they are still there today.

1 Kings 8:9 There was nothing in the ark except the two stone tablets that Moses had placed in it at Horeb, where the LORD made a covenant with the Israelites after they came out of Egypt.

1 Kings 8:10 When the priests withdrew from the Holy Place, the cloud filled the temple of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:11 And the priests could not perform their service because of the cloud, for the glory of the LORD filled his temple.

1 Kings 8:12 Then Solomon said, “The LORD has said that he would dwell in a dark cloud;

1 Kings 8:13 I have indeed built a magnificent temple for you, a place for you to dwell for ever.”

1 Kings 8:14 While the whole assembly of Israel was standing there, the king turned round and blessed them.

1 Kings 8:15 Then he said: “Praise be to the LORD, the God of Israel, who with his own hand has fulfilled what he promised with his own mouth to my father David. For he said,

1 Kings 8:16 `Since the day I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I have not chosen a city in any tribe of Israel to have a temple built for my Name to be there, but I have chosen David to rule my people Israel.'

1 Kings 8:17 "My father David had it in his heart to build a temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:18 But the LORD said to my father David,`Because it was in your heart to build a temple for my Name, you did well to have this in your heart.

1 Kings 8:19 Nevertheless, you are not the one to build the temple, but your son, who is your own flesh and blood—he is the one who will build the temple for my Name.'

1 Kings 8:20 "The LORD has kept the promise he made: I have succeeded David my father and now I sit on the throne of Israel, just as the LORD promised, and I have built the temple for the Name of the LORD, the God of Israel.

1 Kings 8:21 I have provided a place there for the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD that he made with our fathers when he brought them out of Egypt."

1 Kings 8:22 Then Solomon stood before the altar of the LORD in front of the whole assembly of Israel, spread out his hands towards heaven

1 Kings 8:23 and said: "O LORD, God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven above or on earth below—you who keep your covenant of love with your servants who continue wholeheartedly in your way.

1 Kings 8:24 You have kept your promise to your servant David my father; with your mouth you have promised and with your hand you have fulfilled it—as it is today.

1 Kings 8:25 "Now LORD, God of Israel, keep for your servant David my father the promises you made to him when you said,`You shall never fail to have a man to sit before me on the throne of Israel, if only your sons are careful in all they do to walk before me as you have done.'

1 Kings 8:26 And now, O God of Israel, let your word that you promised your servant David my father come true.

1 Kings 8:27 "But will God really dwell on earth? The heavens, even the highest heaven, cannot contain you. How much less this temple I have built!

1 Kings 8:28 Yet give attention to your servant's prayer and his plea for mercy, O LORD my God. Hear the cry and the prayer that your servant is praying in your presence this day.

1 Kings 8:29 May your eyes be open towards this temple night and day, this place of which you said,`My Name shall be there,' so that you will hear the prayer your servant prays towards this place.

1 Kings 8:30 Hear the supplication of your servant and of your people Israel when they pray towards this place. Hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and when you hear, forgive.

1 Kings 8:31 “When a man wrongs his neighbour and is required to take an oath and he comes and swears the oath before your altar in this temple,

1 Kings 8:32 then hear from heaven and act. Judge between your servants, condemning the guilty and bringing down on his own head what he has done. Declare the innocent not guilty, and so establish his innocence.

1 Kings 8:33 “When your people Israel have been defeated by an enemy because they have sinned against you, and when they turn back to you and confess your name, praying and making supplication to you in this temple,

1 Kings 8:34 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your people Israel and bring them back to the land you gave to their fathers.

1 Kings 8:35 “When the heavens are shut up and there is no rain because your people have sinned against you, and when they pray towards this place and confess your name and turn from their sin because you have afflicted them,

1 Kings 8:36 then hear from heaven and forgive the sin of your servants, your people Israel. Teach them the right way to live, and send rain on the land you gave your people for an inheritance.

1 Kings 8:37 “When famine or plague comes to the land, or blight or mildew, locusts or grasshoppers, or when an enemy besieges them in any of their cities, whatever disaster or disease may come,

1 Kings 8:38 and when a prayer or plea is made by any of your people Israel—each one aware of the afflictions of his own heart, and spreading out his hands towards this temple—

1 Kings 8:39 then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place. Forgive and act; deal with each man according to all he does, since you know his heart (for you alone know the hearts of all men),

1 Kings 8:40 so that they will fear you all the time they live in the land you gave our fathers.

1 Kings 8:41 “As for the foreigner who does not belong to your people Israel but has come from a distant land because of your name—

1 Kings 8:42 for men will hear of your great name and your mighty hand and your outstretched arm—when he comes and prays towards this temple,

1 Kings 8:43 then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place, and do whatever the foreigner asks of you, so that all the peoples of the earth may know your name and fear you, as do your own people Israel, and may know that this house I have built bears your Name.

1 Kings 8:44 “When your people go to war against their enemies, wherever you send them, and when they pray to the LORD towards the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name,

1 Kings 8:45 then hear from heaven their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1 Kings 8:46 “When they sin against you—for there is no-one who does not sin—and you become angry with them and give them over to the enemy, who takes them captive to his own land, far away or near;

1 Kings 8:47 and if they have a change of heart in the land where they are held captive, and repent and plead with you in the land of their conquerors and say,`We have sinned, we have done wrong, we have acted wickedly’;

1 Kings 8:48 and if they turn back to you with all their heart and soul in the land of their enemies who took them captive, and pray to you towards the land you gave their fathers, towards the city you have chosen and the temple I have built for your Name;

1 Kings 8:49 then from heaven, your dwelling-place, hear their prayer and their plea, and uphold their cause.

1 Kings 8:50 And forgive your people, who have sinned against you; forgive all the offences they have committed against you, and cause their conquerors to show them mercy;

1 Kings 8:51 for they are your people and your inheritance, whom you brought out of Egypt, out of that iron-smelting furnace.

1 Kings 8:52 “May your eyes be open to your servant’s plea and to the plea of your people Israel, and may you listen to them whenever they cry out to you.

1 Kings 8:53 For you singled them out from all the nations of the world to be your own inheritance, just as you declared through your servant Moses when you, O Sovereign LORD, brought our fathers out of Egypt.”

1 Kings 8:54 When Solomon had finished all these prayers and supplications to the LORD, he rose from before the altar of the LORD, where he had been kneeling with his hands spread out towards heaven.

1 Kings 8:55 He stood and blessed the whole assembly of Israel in a loud voice, saying:

1 Kings 8:56 “Praise be to the LORD, who has given rest to his people Israel just as he promised. Not one word has failed of all the good promises he gave through his servant Moses.

1 Kings 8:57 May the LORD our God be with us as he was with our fathers; may he never leave us nor forsake us.

1 Kings 8:58 May he turn our hearts to him, to walk in all his ways and to keep the commands, decrees and regulations he gave our fathers.

1 Kings 8:59 And may these words of mine, which I have prayed before the LORD, be near to the LORD our God day and night, that he may uphold the cause of his servant and the cause of his people Israel according to each day's need,

1 Kings 8:60 so that all the peoples of the earth may know that the LORD is God and that there is no other.

1 Kings 8:61 But your hearts must be fully committed to the LORD our God, to live by his decrees and obey his commands, as at this time."

1 Kings 8:62 Then the king and all Israel with him offered sacrifices before the LORD.

1 Kings 8:63 Solomon offered a sacrifice of fellowship offerings to the LORD: twenty-two thousand cattle and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep and goats. So the king and all the Israelites dedicated the temple of the LORD.

1 Kings 8:64 On that same day the king consecrated the middle part of the courtyard in front of the temple of the LORD, and there he offered burnt offerings, grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings, because the bronze altar before the LORD was too small to hold the burnt offerings, the grain offerings and the fat of the fellowship offerings.

1 Kings 8:65 So Solomon observed the festival at that time, and all Israel with him—a vast assembly, people from Lebo Hamath to the Wadi of Egypt. They celebrated it before the LORD our God for seven days and seven days more, fourteen days in all.

1 Kings 8:66 On the following day he sent the people away. They blessed the king and then went home, joyful and glad in heart for all the good things the LORD had done for his servant David and his people Israel.

1 Kings 9:1 When Solomon had finished building the temple of the LORD and the royal palace, and had achieved all he had desired to do,

1 Kings 9:2 the LORD appeared to him a second time, as he had appeared to him at Gibeon.

1 Kings 9:3 The LORD said to him: "I have heard the prayer and plea you have made before me; I have consecrated this temple, which you have built, by putting my Name there for ever. My eyes and my heart will always be there.

1 Kings 9:4 "As for you, if you walk before me in integrity of heart and uprightness, as David your father did, and do all I command and observe my decrees and laws,

1 Kings 9:5 I will establish your royal throne over Israel for ever, as I promised David your father when I said,`You shall never fail to have a man on the throne of Israel.'

1 Kings 9:6 “But if you or your sons turn away from me and do not observe the commands and decrees I have given you and go off to serve other gods and worship them,

1 Kings 9:7 then I will cut off Israel from the land I have given them and will reject this temple I have consecrated for my Name. Israel will then become a byword and an object of ridicule among all peoples.

1 Kings 9:8 And though this temple is now imposing, all who pass by will be appalled and will scoff and say,`Why has the LORD done such a thing to this land and to this temple?’

1 Kings 9:9 People will answer,`Because they have forsaken the LORD their God, who brought their fathers out of Egypt, and have embraced other gods, worshipping and serving them—that is why the LORD brought all this disaster on them.’“

1 Kings 9:10 At the end of twenty years, during which Solomon built these two buildings—the temple of the LORD and the royal palace—

1 Kings 9:11 King Solomon gave twenty towns in Galilee to Hiram king of Tyre, because Hiram had supplied him with all the cedar and pine and gold he wanted.

1 Kings 9:12 But when Hiram went from Tyre to see the towns that Solomon had given him, he was not pleased with them.

1 Kings 9:13 “What kind of towns are these you have given me, my brother?” he asked. And he called them the Land of Cabul, a name they have to this day.

1 Kings 9:14 Now Hiram had sent to the king 120 talents of gold.

1 Kings 9:15 Here is the account of the forced labour King Solomon conscripted to build the LORD’s temple, his own palace, the supporting terraces, the wall of Jerusalem, and Hazor, Megiddo and Gezer.

1 Kings 9:16 (Pharaoh king of Egypt had attacked and captured Gezer. He had set it on fire. He killed its Canaanite inhabitants and then gave it as a wedding gift to his daughter, Solomon’s wife.

1 Kings 9:17 And Solomon rebuilt Gezer.) He built up Lower Beth Horon,

1 Kings 9:18 Baalath, and Tadmor in the desert, within his land,

1 Kings 9:19 as well as all his store cities and the towns for his chariots and for his horses— whatever he desired to build in Jerusalem, in Lebanon and throughout all the territory he ruled.

1 Kings 9:20 All the people left from the Amorites, Hittites, Perizzites, Hivites and Jebusites (these peoples were not Israelites),

1 Kings 9:21 that is, their descendants remaining in the land, whom the Israelites could not exterminate— these Solomon conscripted for his slave labour force, as it is to this day.

1 Kings 9:22 But Solomon did not make slaves of any of the Israelites; they were his fighting men, his government officials, his officers, his captains, and the commanders of his chariots and charioteers.

1 Kings 9:23 They were also the chief officials in charge of Solomon's projects—550 officials supervising the men who did the work.

1 Kings 9:24 After Pharaoh's daughter had come up from the City of David to the palace Solomon had built for her, he constructed the supporting terraces.

1 Kings 9:25 Three times a year Solomon sacrificed burnt offerings and fellowship offerings on the altar he had built for the LORD, burning incense before the LORD along with them, and so fulfilled the temple obligations.

1 Kings 9:26 King Solomon also built ships at Ezion Geber, which is near Elath in Edom, on the shore of the Red Sea.

1 Kings 9:27 And Hiram sent his men—sailors who knew the sea—to serve in the fleet with Solomon's men.

1 Kings 9:28 They sailed to Ophir and brought back 420 talents of gold, which they delivered to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:1 When the queen of Sheba heard about the fame of Solomon and his relation to the name of the LORD, she came to test him with hard questions.

1 Kings 10:2 Arriving at Jerusalem with a very great caravan—with camels carrying spices, large quantities of gold, and precious stones—she came to Solomon and talked with him about all that she had on her mind.

1 Kings 10:3 Solomon answered all her questions; nothing was too hard for the king to explain to her.

1 Kings 10:4 When the queen of Sheba saw all the wisdom of Solomon and the palace he had built,

1 Kings 10:5 the food on his table, the seating of his officials, the attending servants in their robes, his cupbearers, and the burnt offerings he made at the temple of the LORD, she was overwhelmed.

1 Kings 10:6 She said to the king, "The report I heard in my own country about your achievements and your wisdom is true.

1 Kings 10:7 But I did not believe these things until I came and saw with my own eyes. Indeed, not even half was told me; in wisdom and wealth you have far exceeded the report I heard.

1 Kings 10:8 How happy your men must be! How happy your officials, who continually stand before you and hear your wisdom!

1 Kings 10:9 Praise be to the LORD your God, who has delighted in you and placed you on the throne of Israel. Because of the LORD's eternal love for Israel, he has made you king, to maintain justice and righteousness.”

1 Kings 10:10 And she gave the king 120 talents of gold, large quantities of spices, and precious stones. Never again were so many spices brought in as those the queen of Sheba gave to King Solomon.

1 Kings 10:11 (Hiram’s ships brought gold from Ophir; and from there they brought great cargoes of almug-wood and precious stones.

1 Kings 10:12 The king used the almug-wood to make supports for the temple of the LORD and for the royal palace, and to make harps and lyres for the musicians. So much almug-wood has never been imported or seen since that day.)

1 Kings 10:13 King Solomon gave the queen of Sheba all she desired and asked for, besides what he had given her out of his royal bounty. Then she left and returned with her retinue to her own country.

1 Kings 10:14 The weight of the gold that Solomon received yearly was 666 talents,

1 Kings 10:15 not including the revenues from merchants and traders and from all the Arabian kings and the governors of the land.

1 Kings 10:16 King Solomon made two hundred large shields of hammered gold; six hundred bekas of gold went into each shield.

1 Kings 10:17 He also made three hundred small shields of hammered gold, with three minas of gold in each shield. The king put them in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon.

1 Kings 10:18 Then the king made a great throne inlaid with ivory and overlaid with fine gold.

1 Kings 10:19 The throne had six steps, and its back had a rounded top. On both sides of the seat were armrests, with a lion standing beside each of them.

1 Kings 10:20 Twelve lions stood on the six steps, one at either end of each step. Nothing like it had ever been made for any other kingdom.

1 Kings 10:21 All King Solomon’s goblets were gold, and all the household articles in the Palace of the Forest of Lebanon were pure gold. Nothing was made of silver, because silver was considered of little value in Solomon’s days.

1 Kings 10:22 The king had a fleet of trading ships at sea along with the ships of Hiram. Once every three years it returned carrying gold, silver and ivory, and apes and baboons.

1 Kings 10:23 King Solomon was greater in riches and wisdom than all the other kings of the earth.

1 Kings 10:24 The whole world sought audience with Solomon to hear the wisdom God had put in his heart.

1 Kings 10:25 Year after year, everyone who came brought a gift—articles of silver and gold, robes, weapons and spices, and horses and mules.

1 Kings 10:26 Solomon accumulated chariots and horses; he had fourteen hundred chariots and twelve thousand horses, which he kept in the chariot cities and also with him in Jerusalem.

1 Kings 10:27 The king made silver as common in Jerusalem as stones, and cedar as plentiful as sycamore-fig trees in the foothills.

1 Kings 10:28 Solomon's horses were imported from Egypt— and from Kue the royal merchants purchased them from Kue.

1 Kings 10:29 They imported a chariot from Egypt for six hundred shekels of silver, and a horse for a hundred and fifty. They also exported them to all the kings of the Hittites and of the Arameans.

1 Kings 11:1 King Solomon, however, loved many foreign women besides Pharaoh's daughter—Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonians and Hittites.

1 Kings 11:2 They were from nations about which the LORD had told the Israelites, "You must not intermarry with them, because they will surely turn your hearts after their gods." Nevertheless, Solomon held fast to them in love.

1 Kings 11:3 He had seven hundred wives of royal birth and three hundred concubines, and his wives led him astray.

1 Kings 11:4 As Solomon grew old, his wives turned his heart after other gods, and his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his father had been.

1 Kings 11:5 He followed Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, and Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1 Kings 11:6 So Solomon did evil in the eyes of the LORD; he did not follow the LORD completely, as David his father had done.

1 Kings 11:7 On a hill east of Jerusalem, Solomon built a high place for Chemosh the detestable god of Moab, and for Molech the detestable god of the Ammonites.

1 Kings 11:8 He did the same for all his foreign wives, who burned incense and offered sacrifices to their gods.

1 Kings 11:9 The LORD became angry with Solomon because his heart had turned away from the LORD, the God of Israel, who had appeared to him twice.

1 Kings 11:10 Although he had forbidden Solomon to follow other gods, Solomon did not keep the LORD's command.

1 Kings 11:11 So the LORD said to Solomon, "Since this is your attitude and you have not kept my covenant and my decrees, which I commanded you, I will most certainly tear the kingdom away from you and give it to one of your subordinates.

1 Kings 11:12 Nevertheless, for the sake of David your father, I will not do it during your lifetime. I will tear it out of the hand of your son.

1 Kings 11:13 Yet I will not tear the whole kingdom from him, but will give him one tribe for the sake of David my servant and for the sake of Jerusalem, which I have chosen.”

1 Kings 11:14 Then the LORD raised up against Solomon an adversary, Hadad the Edomite, from the royal line of Edom.

1 Kings 11:15 Earlier when David was fighting with Edom, Joab the commander of the army, who had gone up to bury the dead, had struck down all the men in Edom.

1 Kings 11:16 Joab and all the Israelites stayed there for six months, until they had destroyed all the men in Edom.

1 Kings 11:17 But Hadad, still only a boy, fled to Egypt with some Edomite officials who had served his father.

1 Kings 11:18 They set out from Midian and went to Paran. Then taking men from Paran with them, they went to Egypt, to Pharaoh king of Egypt, who gave Hadad a house and land and provided him with food.

1 Kings 11:19 Pharaoh was so pleased with Hadad that he gave him a sister of his own wife, Queen Tahpenes, in marriage.

1 Kings 11:20 The sister of Tahpenes bore him a son named Genubath, whom Tahpenes brought up in the royal palace. There Genubath lived with Pharaoh’s own children.

1 Kings 11:21 While he was in Egypt, Hadad heard that David rested with his fathers and that Joab the commander of the army was also dead. Then Hadad said to Pharaoh, “Let me go, so that I may return to my own country.”

1 Kings 11:22 “What have you lacked here that you want to go back to your own country?” Pharaoh asked. “Nothing,” Hadad replied, “but do let me go!”

1 Kings 11:23 And God raised up against Solomon another adversary, Rezon son of Eliada, who had fled from his master, Hadadezer king of Zobah.

1 Kings 11:24 He gathered men around him and became the leader of a band of rebels when David destroyed the forces [of Zobah]; the rebels went to Damascus, where they settled and took control.

1 Kings 11:25 Rezon was Israel’s adversary as long as Solomon lived, adding to the trouble caused by Hadad. So Rezon ruled in Aram and was hostile towards Israel.

1 Kings 11:26 Also, Jeroboam son of Nebat rebelled against the king. He was one of Solomon’s officials, an Ephraimite from Zeredah, and his mother was a widow named Zeruah.

1 Kings 11:27 Here is the account of how he rebelled against the king: Solomon had built the supporting terraces and had filled in the gap in the wall of the city of David his father.

1 Kings 11:28 Now Jeroboam was a man of standing, and when Solomon saw how well the young man did his work, he put him in charge of the whole labour force of the house of Joseph.

1 Kings 11:29 About that time Jeroboam was going out of Jerusalem, and Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh met him on the way, wearing a new cloak. The two of them were alone out in the country,

1 Kings 11:30 and Ahijah took hold of the new cloak he was wearing and tore it into twelve pieces.

1 Kings 11:31 Then he said to Jeroboam, “Take ten pieces for yourself, for this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`See, I am going to tear the kingdom out of Solomon’s hand and give you ten tribes.

1 Kings 11:32 But for the sake of my servant David and the city of Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, he will have one tribe.

1 Kings 11:33 I will do this because they have forsaken me and worshipped Ashtoreth the goddess of the Sidonians, Chemosh the god of the Moabites, and Molech the god of the Ammonites, and have not walked in my ways, nor done what is right in my eyes, nor kept my statutes and laws as David, Solomon’s father, did.

1 Kings 11:34 “`But I will not take the whole kingdom out of Solomon’s hand; I have made him ruler all the days of his life for the sake of David my servant, whom I chose and who observed my commands and statutes.

1 Kings 11:35 I will take the kingdom from his son’s hands and give you ten tribes.

1 Kings 11:36 I will give one tribe to his son so that David my servant may always have a lamp before me in Jerusalem, the city where I chose to put my Name.

1 Kings 11:37 However, as for you, I will take you, and you will rule over all that your heart desires; you will be king over Israel.

1 Kings 11:38 If you do whatever I command you and walk in my ways and do what is right in my eyes by keeping my statutes and commands, as David my servant did, I will be with you. I will build you a dynasty as enduring as the one I built for David and will give Israel to you.

1 Kings 11:39 I will humble David’s descendants because of this, but not for ever.’“

1 Kings 11:40 Solomon tried to kill Jeroboam, but Jeroboam fled to Egypt, to Shishak the king, and stayed there until Solomon’s death.

1 Kings 11:41 As for the other events of Solomon’s reign—all he did and the wisdom he displayed—are they not written in the book of the annals of Solomon?

1 Kings 11:42 Solomon reigned in Jerusalem over all Israel for forty years.

1 Kings 11:43 Then he rested with his fathers and was buried in the city of David his father. And Rehoboam his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 12:1 Rehoboam went to Shechem, for all the Israelites had gone there to make him king.

1 Kings 12:2 When Jeroboam son of Nebat heard this (he was still in Egypt, where he had fled from King Solomon), he returned from Egypt.

1 Kings 12:3 So they sent for Jeroboam, and he and the whole assembly of Israel went to Rehoboam and said to him:

1 Kings 12:4 “Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but now lighten the harsh labour and the heavy yoke he put on us, and we will serve you.”

1 Kings 12:5 Rehoboam answered, “Go away for three days and then come back to me.” So the people went away.

1 Kings 12:6 Then King Rehoboam consulted the elders who had served his father Solomon during his lifetime. “How would you advise me to answer these people?” he asked.

1 Kings 12:7 They replied, “If today you will be a servant to these people and serve them and give them a favourable answer, they will always be your servants.”

1 Kings 12:8 But Rehoboam rejected the advice the elders gave him and consulted the young men who had grown up with him and were serving him.

1 Kings 12:9 He asked them, “What is your advice? How should we answer these people who say to me,`Lighten the yoke your father put on us’?”

1 Kings 12:10 The young men who had grown up with him replied, “Tell these people who have said to you,`Your father put a heavy yoke on us, but make our yoke lighter’—tell them,`My little finger is thicker than my father’s waist.

1 Kings 12:11 My father laid on you a heavy yoke; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.’“

1 Kings 12:12 Three days later Jeroboam and all the people returned to Rehoboam, as the king had said, “Come back to me in three days.”

1 Kings 12:13 The king answered the people harshly. Rejecting the advice given him by the elders,

1 Kings 12:14 he followed the advice of the young men and said, “My father made your yoke heavy; I will make it even heavier. My father scourged you with whips; I will scourge you with scorpions.”

1 Kings 12:15 So the king did not listen to the people, for this turn of events was from the LORD, to fulfil the word the LORD had spoken to Jeroboam son of Nebat through Ahijah the Shilonite.

1 Kings 12:16 When all Israel saw that the king refused to listen to them, they answered the king: “What share do we have in David, what part in Jesse’s son? To your tents, O Israel! Look after your own house, O David!” So the Israelites went home.

1 Kings 12:17 But as for the Israelites who were living in the towns of Judah, Rehoboam still ruled over them.

1 Kings 12:18 King Rehoboam sent out Adoniram, who was in charge of forced labour, but all Israel stoned him to death. King Rehoboam, however, managed to get into his chariot and escape to Jerusalem.

1 Kings 12:19 So Israel has been in rebellion against the house of David to this day.

1 Kings 12:20 When all the Israelites heard that Jeroboam had returned, they sent and called him to the assembly and made him king over all Israel. Only the tribe of Judah remained loyal to the house of David.

1 Kings 12:21 When Rehoboam arrived in Jerusalem, he mustered the whole house of Judah and the tribe of Benjamin—a hundred and eighty thousand fighting men—to make war against the house of Israel and to regain the kingdom for Rehoboam son of Solomon.

1 Kings 12:22 But this word of God came to Shemaiah the man of God:

1 Kings 12:23 “Say to Rehoboam son of Solomon king of Judah, to the whole house of Judah and Benjamin, and to the rest of the people,

1 Kings 12:24 `This is what the LORD says: Do not go up to fight against your brothers, the Israelites. Go home, every one of you, for this is my doing.’“ So they obeyed the word of the LORD and went home again, as the LORD had ordered.

1 Kings 12:25 Then Jeroboam fortified Shechem in the hill country of Ephraim and lived there. From there he went out and built up Peniel.

1 Kings 12:26 Jeroboam thought to himself, “The kingdom is now likely to revert to the house of David.

1 Kings 12:27 If these people go up to offer sacrifices at the temple of the LORD in Jerusalem, they will again give their allegiance to their lord,

Rehoboam king of Judah. They will kill me and return to King Rehoboam.”

1 Kings 12:28 After seeking advice, the king made two golden calves. He said to the people, “It is too much for you to go up to Jerusalem. Here are your gods, O Israel, who brought you up out of Egypt.”

1 Kings 12:29 One he set up in Bethel, and the other in Dan.

1 Kings 12:30 And this thing became a sin; the people went even as far as Dan to worship the one there.

1 Kings 12:31 Jeroboam built shrines on high places and appointed priests from all sorts of people, even though they were not Levites.

1 Kings 12:32 He instituted a festival on the fifteenth day of the eighth month, like the festival held in Judah, and offered sacrifices on the altar. This he did in Bethel, sacrificing to the calves he had made. And at Bethel he also installed priests at the high places he had made.

1 Kings 12:33 On the fifteenth day of the eighth month, a month of his own choosing, he offered sacrifices on the altar he had built at Bethel. So he instituted the festival for the Israelites and went up to the altar to make offerings.

1 Kings 13:1 By the word of the LORD a man of God came from Judah to Bethel, as Jeroboam was standing by the altar to make an offering.

1 Kings 13:2 He cried out against the altar by the word of the LORD: “O altar, altar! This is what the LORD says:`A son named Josiah will be born to the house of David. On you he will sacrifice the priests of the high places who now make offerings here, and human bones will be burned on you.’“

1 Kings 13:3 That same day the man of God gave a sign: “This is the sign the LORD has declared: The altar will be split apart and the ashes on it will be poured out.”

1 Kings 13:4 When King Jeroboam heard what the man of God cried out against the altar at Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar and said, “Seize him!” But the hand he stretched out towards the man shrivelled up, so that he could not pull it back.

1 Kings 13:5 Also, the altar was split apart and its ashes poured out according to the sign given by the man of God by the word of the LORD.

1 Kings 13:6 Then the king said to the man of God, “Intercede with the LORD your God and pray for me that my hand may be restored.” So the man of God interceded with the LORD, and the king’s hand was restored and became as it was before.

1 Kings 13:7 The king said to the man of God, “Come home with me and have something to eat, and I will give you a gift.”

1 Kings 13:8 But the man of God answered the king, “Even if you were to give me half your possessions, I would not go with you, nor would I eat bread or drink water here.

1 Kings 13:9 For I was commanded by the word of the LORD:`You must not eat bread or drink water or return by the way you came.’“

1 Kings 13:10 So he took another road and did not return by the way he had come to Bethel.

1 Kings 13:11 Now there was a certain old prophet living in Bethel, whose sons came and told him all that the man of God had done there that day. They also told their father what he had said to the king.

1 Kings 13:12 Their father asked them, “Which way did he go?” And his sons showed him which road the man of God from Judah had taken.

1 Kings 13:13 So he said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me.” And when they had saddled the donkey for him, he mounted it

1 Kings 13:14 and rode after the man of God. He found him sitting under an oak tree and asked, “Are you the man of God who came from Judah?” “I am,” he replied.

1 Kings 13:15 So the prophet said to him, “Come home with me and eat.”

1 Kings 13:16 The man of God said, “I cannot turn back and go with you, nor can I eat bread or drink water with you in this place.

1 Kings 13:17 I have been told by the word of the LORD:`You must not eat bread or drink water there or return by the way you came.’“

1 Kings 13:18 The old prophet answered, “I too am a prophet, as you are. And an angel said to me by the word of the LORD:`Bring him back with you to your house so that he may eat bread and drink water.’“ (But he was lying to him.)

1 Kings 13:19 So the man of God returned with him and ate and drank in his house.

1 Kings 13:20 While they were sitting at the table, the word of the LORD came to the old prophet who had brought him back.

1 Kings 13:21 He cried out to the man of God who had come from Judah, “This is what the LORD says:`You have defied the word of the LORD and have not kept the command the LORD your God gave you.

1 Kings 13:22 You came back and ate bread and drank water in the place where he told you not to eat or drink. Therefore your body will not be buried in the tomb of your fathers.’“

1 Kings 13:23 When the man of God had finished eating and drinking, the prophet who had brought him back saddled his donkey for him.

1 Kings 13:24 As he went on his way, a lion met him on the road and killed him, and his body was thrown down on the road, with both the donkey and the lion standing beside it.

1 Kings 13:25 Some people who passed by saw the body thrown down there, with the lion standing beside the body, and they went and reported it in the city where the old prophet lived.

1 Kings 13:26 When the prophet who had brought him back from his journey heard of it, he said, “It is the man of God who defied the word of the LORD. The LORD has given him over to the lion, which has mauled him and killed him, as the word of the LORD had warned him.”

1 Kings 13:27 The prophet said to his sons, “Saddle the donkey for me,” and they did so.

1 Kings 13:28 Then he went out and found the body thrown down on the road, with the donkey and the lion standing beside it. The lion had neither eaten the body nor mauled the donkey.

1 Kings 13:29 So the prophet picked up the body of the man of God, laid it on the donkey, and brought it back to his own city to mourn for him and bury him.

1 Kings 13:30 Then he laid the body in his own tomb, and they mourned over him and said, “Oh, my brother!”

1 Kings 13:31 After burying him, he said to his sons, “When I die, bury me in the grave where the man of God is buried; lay my bones beside his bones.

1 Kings 13:32 For the message he declared by the word of the LORD against the altar in Bethel and against all the shrines on the high places in the towns of Samaria will certainly come true.”

1 Kings 13:33 Even after this, Jeroboam did not change his evil ways, but once more appointed priests for the high places from all sorts of people. Anyone who wanted to become a priest he consecrated for the high places.

1 Kings 13:34 This was the sin of the house of Jeroboam that led to its downfall and to its destruction from the face of the earth.

1 Kings 14:1 At that time Abijah son of Jeroboam became ill,

1 Kings 14:2 and Jeroboam said to his wife, “Go, disguise yourself, so that you won’t be recognised as the wife of Jeroboam. Then go to Shiloh. Ahijah the prophet is there—the one who told me I would be king over this people.

1 Kings 14:3 Take ten loaves of bread with you, some cakes and a jar of honey, and go to him. He will tell you what will happen to the boy.”

1 Kings 14:4 So Jeroboam’s wife did what he said and went to Ahijah’s house in Shiloh. Now Ahijah could not see; his sight was gone because of his age.

1 Kings 14:5 But the LORD had told Ahijah, “Jeroboam’s wife is coming to ask you about her son, for he is ill, and you are to give her such and such an answer. When she arrives, she will pretend to be someone else.”

1 Kings 14:6 So when Ahijah heard the sound of her footsteps at the door, he said, “Come in, wife of Jeroboam. Why this pretence? I have been sent to you with bad news.

1 Kings 14:7 Go, tell Jeroboam that this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`I raised you up from among the people and made you a leader over my people Israel.

1 Kings 14:8 I tore the kingdom away from the house of David and gave it to you, but you have not been like my servant David, who kept my commands and followed me with all his heart, doing only what was right in my eyes.

1 Kings 14:9 You have done more evil than all who lived before you. You have made for yourself other gods, idols made of metal; you have provoked me to anger and thrust me behind your back.

1 Kings 14:10 “`Because of this, I am going to bring disaster on the house of Jeroboam. I will cut off from Jeroboam every last male in Israel—slave or free. I will burn up the house of Jeroboam as one burns dung, until it is all gone.

1 Kings 14:11 Dogs will eat those belonging to Jeroboam who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country. The LORD has spoken!’

1 Kings 14:12 “As for you, go back home. When you set foot in your city, the boy will die.

1 Kings 14:13 All Israel will mourn for him and bury him. He is the only one belonging to Jeroboam who will be buried, because he is the only one in the house of Jeroboam in whom the LORD, the God of Israel, has found anything good.

1 Kings 14:14 “The LORD will raise up for himself a king over Israel who will cut off the family of Jeroboam. This is the day! What? Yes, even now.

1 Kings 14:15 And the LORD will strike Israel, so that it will be like a reed swaying in the water. He will uproot Israel from this good land that he gave to their forefathers and scatter them beyond the River, because they provoked the LORD to anger by making Asherah poles.

1 Kings 14:16 And he will give Israel up because of the sins Jeroboam has committed and has caused Israel to commit.”

1 Kings 14:17 Then Jeroboam’s wife got up and left and went to Tirzah. As soon as she stepped over the threshold of the house, the boy died.

1 Kings 14:18 They buried him, and all Israel mourned for him, as the LORD had said through his servant the prophet Ahijah.

1 Kings 14:19 The other events of Jeroboam's reign, his wars and how he ruled, are written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel.

1 Kings 14:20 He reigned for twenty-two years and then rested with his fathers. And Nadab his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 14:21 Rehoboam son of Solomon was king in Judah. He was forty-one years old when he became king, and he reigned for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel in which to put his Name. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite.

1 Kings 14:22 Judah did evil in the eyes of the LORD. By the sins they committed they stirred up his jealous anger more than their fathers had done.

1 Kings 14:23 They also set up for themselves high places, sacred stones and Asherah poles on every high hill and under every spreading tree.

1 Kings 14:24 There were even male shrine-prostitutes in the land; the people engaged in all the detestable practices of the nations the LORD had driven out before the Israelites.

1 Kings 14:25 In the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt attacked Jerusalem.

1 Kings 14:26 He carried off the treasures of the temple of the LORD and the treasures of the royal palace. He took everything, including all the gold shields Solomon had made.

1 Kings 14:27 So King Rehoboam made bronze shields to replace them and assigned these to the commanders of the guard on duty at the entrance to the royal palace.

1 Kings 14:28 Whenever the king went to the LORD's temple, the guards bore the shields, and afterwards they returned them to the guardroom.

1 Kings 14:29 As for the other events of Rehoboam's reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah?

1 Kings 14:30 There was continual warfare between Rehoboam and Jeroboam.

1 Kings 14:31 And Rehoboam rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the City of David. His mother's name was Naamah; she was an Ammonite. And Abijah his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 15:1 In the eighteenth year of the reign of Jeroboam son of Nebat, Abijah became king of Judah,

1 Kings 15:2 and he reigned in Jerusalem for three years. His mother's name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:3 He committed all the sins his father had done before him; his heart was not fully devoted to the LORD his God, as the heart of David his forefather had been.

1 Kings 15:4 Nevertheless, for David’s sake the LORD his God gave him a lamp in Jerusalem by raising up a son to succeed him and by making Jerusalem strong.

1 Kings 15:5 For David had done what was right in the eyes of the LORD and had not failed to keep any of the LORD’s commands all the days of his life—except in the case of Uriah the Hittite.

1 Kings 15:6 There was war between Rehoboam and Jeroboam throughout [Abijah’s] lifetime.

1 Kings 15:7 As for the other events of Abijah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.

1 Kings 15:8 And Abijah rested with his fathers and was buried in the City of David. And Asa his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 15:9 In the twentieth year of Jeroboam king of Israel, Asa became king of Judah,

1 Kings 15:10 and he reigned in Jerusalem for forty-one years. His grandmother’s name was Maacah daughter of Abishalom.

1 Kings 15:11 Asa did what was right in the eyes of the LORD, as his father David had done.

1 Kings 15:12 He expelled the male shrine-prostitutes from the land and got rid of all the idols his fathers had made.

1 Kings 15:13 He even deposed his grandmother Maacah from her position as queen mother, because she had made a repulsive Asherah pole. Asa cut the pole down and burned it in the Kidron Valley.

1 Kings 15:14 Although he did not remove the high places, Asa’s heart was fully committed to the LORD all his life.

1 Kings 15:15 He brought into the temple of the LORD the silver and gold and the articles that he and his father had dedicated.

1 Kings 15:16 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

1 Kings 15:17 Baasha king of Israel went up against Judah and fortified Ramah to prevent anyone from leaving or entering the territory of Asa king of Judah.

1 Kings 15:18 Asa then took all the silver and gold that was left in the treasuries of the LORD’s temple and of his own palace. He entrusted it to his officials and sent them to Ben-Hadad son of Tabrimmon, the son of Hezion, the king of Aram, who was ruling in Damascus.

1 Kings 15:19 “Let there be a treaty between me and you,” he said, “as there was between my father and your father. See, I am sending you a gift of silver and gold. Now break your treaty with Baasha king of Israel so that he will withdraw from me.”

1 Kings 15:20 Ben-Hadad agreed with King Asa and sent the commanders of his forces against the towns of Israel. He conquered Ijon, Dan, Abel Beth Maacah and all Kinnereth in addition to Naphtali.

1 Kings 15:21 When Baasha heard this, he stopped building Ramah and withdrew to Tirzah.

1 Kings 15:22 Then King Asa issued an order to all Judah—no-one was exempt—and they carried away from Ramah the stones and timber Baasha had been using there. With them King Asa built up Geba in Benjamin, and also Mizpah.

1 Kings 15:23 As for all the other events of Asa’s reign, all his achievements, all he did and the cities he built, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Judah? In his old age, however, his feet became diseased.

1 Kings 15:24 Then Asa rested with his fathers and was buried with them in the city of his father David. And Jehoshaphat his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 15:25 Nadab son of Jeroboam became king of Israel in the second year of Asa king of Judah, and he reigned over Israel for two years.

1 Kings 15:26 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of his father and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 15:27 Baasha son of Ahijah of the house of Issachar plotted against him, and he struck him down at Gibbethon, a Philistine town, while Nadab and all Israel were besieging it.

1 Kings 15:28 Baasha killed Nadab in the third year of Asa king of Judah and succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 15:29 As soon as he began to reign, he killed Jeroboam’s whole family. He did not leave Jeroboam anyone that breathed, but destroyed them all, according to the word of the LORD given through his servant Ahijah the Shilonite—

1 Kings 15:30 because of the sins Jeroboam had committed and had caused Israel to commit, and because he provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger.

1 Kings 15:31 As for the other events of Nadab’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 15:32 There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel throughout their reigns.

1 Kings 15:33 In the third year of Asa king of Judah, Baasha son of Ahijah became king of all Israel in Tirzah, and he reigned for twenty-four years.

1 Kings 15:34 He did evil in the eyes of the LORD, walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 16:1 Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu son of Hanani against Baasha:

1 Kings 16:2 “I lifted you up from the dust and made you leader of my people Israel, but you walked in the ways of Jeroboam and caused my people Israel to sin and to provoke me to anger by their sins.

1 Kings 16:3 So I am about to consume Baasha and his house, and I will make your house like that of Jeroboam son of Nebat.

1 Kings 16:4 Dogs will eat those belonging to Baasha who die in the city, and the birds of the air will feed on those who die in the country.”

1 Kings 16:5 As for the other events of Baasha’s reign, what he did and his achievements, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:6 Baasha rested with his fathers and was buried in Tirzah. And Elah his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 16:7 Moreover, the word of the LORD came through the prophet Jehu son of Hanani to Baasha and his house, because of all the evil he had done in the eyes of the LORD, provoking him to anger by the things he did, and becoming like the house of Jeroboam—and also because he destroyed it.

1 Kings 16:8 In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah, Elah son of Baasha became king of Israel, and he reigned in Tirzah for two years.

1 Kings 16:9 Zimri, one of his officials, who had command of half his chariots, plotted against him. Elah was in Tirzah at the time, getting drunk in the home of Arza, the man in charge of the palace at Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:10 Zimri came in, struck him down and killed him in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah. Then he succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 16:11 As soon as he began to reign and was seated on the throne, he killed off Baasha’s whole family. He did not spare a single male, whether relative or friend.

1 Kings 16:12 So Zimri destroyed the whole family of Baasha, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken against Baasha through the prophet Jehu—

1 Kings 16:13 because of all the sins Baasha and his son Elah had committed and had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.

1 Kings 16:14 As for the other events of Elah’s reign, and all he did, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:15 In the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, Zimri reigned in Tirzah for seven days. The army was encamped near Gibbethon, a Philistine town.

1 Kings 16:16 When the Israelites in the camp heard that Zimri had plotted against the king and murdered him, they proclaimed Omri, the commander of the army, king over Israel that very day there in the camp.

1 Kings 16:17 Then Omri and all the Israelites with him withdrew from Gibbethon and laid siege to Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:18 When Zimri saw that the city was taken, he went into the citadel of the royal palace and set the palace on fire around him. So he died,

1 Kings 16:19 because of the sins he had committed, doing evil in the eyes of the LORD and walking in the ways of Jeroboam and in the sin he had committed and had caused Israel to commit.

1 Kings 16:20 As for the other events of Zimri's reign, and the rebellion he carried out, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:21 Then the people of Israel were split into two factions; half supported Tibni son of Ginath for king, and the other half supported Omri.

1 Kings 16:22 But Omri's followers proved stronger than those of Tibni son of Ginath. So Tibni died and Omri became king.

1 Kings 16:23 In the thirty-first year of Asa king of Judah, Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned for twelve years, six of them in Tirzah.

1 Kings 16:24 He bought the hill of Samaria from Shemer for two talents of silver and built a city on the hill, calling it Samaria, after Shemer, the name of the former owner of the hill.

1 Kings 16:25 But Omri did evil in the eyes of the LORD and sinned more than all those before him.

1 Kings 16:26 He walked in all the ways of Jeroboam son of Nebat and in his sin, which he had caused Israel to commit, so that they provoked the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger by their worthless idols.

1 Kings 16:27 As for the other events of Omri's reign, what he did and the things he achieved, are they not written in the book of the annals of the kings of Israel?

1 Kings 16:28 Omri rested with his fathers and was buried in Samaria. And Ahab his son succeeded him as king.

1 Kings 16:29 In the thirty-eighth year of Asa king of Judah, Ahab son of Omri became king of Israel, and he reigned in Samaria over Israel for twenty-two years.

1 Kings 16:30 Ahab son of Omri did more evil in the eyes of the LORD than any of those before him.

1 Kings 16:31 He not only considered it trivial to commit the sins of Jeroboam son of Nebat, but he also married Jezebel daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and began to serve Baal and worship him.

1 Kings 16:32 He set up an altar for Baal in the temple of Baal that he built in Samaria.

1 Kings 16:33 Ahab also made an Asherah pole and did more to provoke the LORD, the God of Israel, to anger than did all the kings of Israel before him.

1 Kings 16:34 In Ahab's time, Hiel of Bethel rebuilt Jericho. He laid its foundations at the cost of his firstborn son Abiram, and he set up its gates at the cost of his youngest son Segub, in accordance with the word of the LORD spoken by Joshua son of Nun.

1 Kings 17:1 Now Elijah the Tishbite, from Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, "As the LORD, the God of Israel, lives, whom I serve, there will be neither dew nor rain in the next few years except at my word."

1 Kings 17:2 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah:

1 Kings 17:3 "Leave here, turn eastward and hide in the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan.

1 Kings 17:4 You will drink from the brook, and I have ordered the ravens to feed you there."

1 Kings 17:5 So he did what the LORD had told him. He went to the Kerith Ravine, east of the Jordan, and stayed there.

1 Kings 17:6 The ravens brought him bread and meat in the morning and bread and meat in the evening, and he drank from the brook.

1 Kings 17:7 Some time later the brook dried up because there had been no rain in the land.

1 Kings 17:8 Then the word of the LORD came to him:

1 Kings 17:9 "Go at once to Zarephath of Sidon and stay there. I have commanded a widow in that place to supply you with food."

1 Kings 17:10 So he went to Zarephath. When he came to the town gate, a widow was there gathering sticks. He called to her and asked, "Would you bring me a little water in a jar so I may have a drink?"

1 Kings 17:11 As she was going to get it, he called, "And bring me, please, a piece of bread."

1 Kings 17:12 "As surely as the LORD your God lives," she replied, "I don't have any bread—only a handful of flour in a jar and a little oil in a jug. I am gathering a few sticks to take home and make a meal for myself and my son, that we may eat it— and die."

1 Kings 17:13 Elijah said to her, "Don't be afraid. Go home and do as you have said. But first make a small cake of bread for me from what you have and bring it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son.

1 Kings 17:14 For this is what the LORD, the God of Israel, says:`The jar of flour will not be used up and the jug of oil will not run dry until the day the LORD gives rain on the land.’“

1 Kings 17:15 She went away and did as Elijah had told her. So there was food every day for Elijah and for the woman and her family.

1 Kings 17:16 For the jar of flour was not used up and the jug of oil did not run dry, in keeping with the word of the LORD spoken by Elijah.

1 Kings 17:17 Some time later the son of the woman who owned the house became ill. He grew worse and worse, and finally stopped breathing.

1 Kings 17:18 She said to Elijah, “What do you have against me, man of God? Did you come to remind me of my sin and kill my son?”

1 Kings 17:19 “Give me your son,” Elijah replied. He took him from her arms, carried him to the upper room where he was staying, and laid him on his bed.

1 Kings 17:20 Then he cried out to the LORD, “O LORD my God, have you brought tragedy also upon this widow I am staying with, by causing her son to die?”

1 Kings 17:21 Then he stretched himself out on the boy three times and cried to the LORD, “O LORD my God, let this boy’s life return to him!”

1 Kings 17:22 The LORD heard Elijah’s cry, and the boy’s life returned to him, and he lived.

1 Kings 17:23 Elijah picked up the child and carried him down from the room into the house. He gave him to his mother and said, “Look, your son is alive!”

1 Kings 17:24 Then the woman said to Elijah, “Now I know that you are a man of God and that the word of the LORD from your mouth is the truth.”

1 Kings 18:1 After a long time, in the third year, the word of the LORD came to Elijah: “Go and present yourself to Ahab, and I will send rain on the land.”

1 Kings 18:2 So Elijah went to present himself to Ahab. Now the famine was severe in Samaria,

1 Kings 18:3 and Ahab had summoned Obadiah, who was in charge of his palace. (Obadiah was a devout believer in the LORD.

1 Kings 18:4 While Jezebel was killing off the LORD’s prophets, Obadiah had taken a hundred prophets and hidden them in two caves, fifty in each, and had supplied them with food and water.)

1 Kings 18:5 Ahab had said to Obadiah, “Go through the land to all the springs and valleys. Maybe we can find some grass to keep the horses and mules alive so we will not have to kill any of our animals.”

1 Kings 18:6 So they divided the land they were to cover, Ahab going in one direction and Obadiah in another.

1 Kings 18:7 As Obadiah was walking along, Elijah met him. Obadiah recognised him, bowed down to the ground, and said, “Is it really you, my lord Elijah?”

1 Kings 18:8 “Yes,” he replied. “Go tell your master,`Elijah is here.’“

1 Kings 18:9 “What have I done wrong,” asked Obadiah, “that you are handing your servant over to Ahab to be put to death?

1 Kings 18:10 As surely as the LORD your God lives, there is not a nation or kingdom where my master has not sent someone to look for you. And whenever a nation or kingdom claimed you were not there, he made them swear they could not find you.

1 Kings 18:11 But now you tell me to go to my master and say,`Elijah is here.’

1 Kings 18:12 I don’t know where the Spirit of the LORD may carry you when I leave you. If I go and tell Ahab and he doesn’t find you, he will kill me. Yet I your servant have worshipped the LORD since my youth.

1 Kings 18:13 Haven’t you heard, my lord, what I did while Jezebel was killing the prophets of the LORD? I hid a hundred of the LORD’s prophets in two caves, fifty in each, and supplied them with food and water.

1 Kings 18:14 And now you tell me to go to my master and say,`Elijah is here.’ He will kill me!”

1 Kings 18:15 Elijah said, “As the LORD Almighty lives, whom I serve, I will surely present myself to Ahab today.”

1 Kings 18:16 So Obadiah went to meet Ahab and told him, and Ahab went to meet Elijah.

1 Kings 18:17 When he saw Elijah, he said to him, “Is that you, you troubler of Israel?”

1 Kings 18:18 “I have not made trouble for Israel,” Elijah replied. “But you and your father’s family have. You have abandoned the LORD’s commands and have followed the Baals.

1 Kings 18:19 Now summon the people from all over Israel to meet me on Mount Carmel. And bring the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal and the four hundred prophets of Asherah, who eat at Jezebel’s table.”

1 Kings 18:20 So Ahab sent word throughout all Israel and assembled the prophets on Mount Carmel.

1 Kings 18:21 Elijah went before the people and said, “How long will you waver between two opinions? If the LORD is God, follow him; but if Baal is God, follow him.” But the people said nothing.

1 Kings 18:22 Then Elijah said to them, “I am the only one of the LORD’s prophets left, but Baal has four hundred and fifty prophets.

1 Kings 18:23 Get two bulls for us. Let them choose one for themselves, and let them cut it into pieces and put it on the wood but not set fire to it. I will prepare the other bull and put it on the wood but not set fire to it.

1 Kings 18:24 Then you call on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of the LORD. The god who answers by fire—he is God.” Then all the people said, “What you say is good.”

1 Kings 18:25 Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, “Choose one of the bulls and prepare it first, since there are so many of you. Call on the name of your god, but do not light the fire.”

1 Kings 18:26 So they took the bull given them and prepared it. Then they called on the name of Baal from morning till noon. “O Baal, answer us!” they shouted. But there was no response; no-one answered. And they danced around the altar they had made.

1 Kings 18:27 At noon Elijah began to taunt them. “Shout louder!” he said. “Surely he is a god! Perhaps he is deep in thought, or busy, or travelling. Maybe he is sleeping and must be awakened.”

1 Kings 18:28 So they shouted louder and slashed themselves with swords and spears, as was their custom, until their blood flowed.

1 Kings 18:29 Midday passed, and they continued their frantic prophesying until the time for the evening sacrifice. But there was no response, no-one answered, no-one paid attention.

1 Kings 18:30 Then Elijah said to all the people, “Come here to me.” They came to him, and he repaired the altar of the LORD, which was in ruins.

1 Kings 18:31 Elijah took twelve stones, one for each of the tribes descended from Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD had come, saying, “Your name shall be Israel.”

1 Kings 18:32 With the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD, and he dug a trench round it large enough to hold two seahs of seed.

1 Kings 18:33 He arranged the wood, cut the bull into pieces and laid it on the wood. Then he said to them, “Fill four large jars with water and pour it on the offering and on the wood.”

1 Kings 18:34 “Do it again,” he said, and they did it again. “Do it a third time,” he ordered, and they did it the third time.

1 Kings 18:35 The water ran down around the altar and even filled the trench.

1 Kings 18:36 At the time of sacrifice, the prophet Elijah stepped forward and prayed: “O LORD, God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel, let it be known today that you are God in Israel and that I am your servant and have done all these things at your command.

1 Kings 18:37 Answer me, O LORD, answer me, so these people will know that you, O LORD, are God, and that you are turning their hearts back again.”

1 Kings 18:38 Then the fire of the LORD fell and burned up the sacrifice, the wood, the stones and the soil, and also licked up the water in the trench.

1 Kings 18:39 When all the people saw this, they fell prostrate and cried, “The LORD—he is God! The LORD—he is God!”

1 Kings 18:40 Then Elijah commanded them, “Seize the prophets of Baal. Don’t let anyone get away!” They seized them, and Elijah had them brought down to the Kishon Valley and slaughtered there.

1 Kings 18:41 And Elijah said to Ahab, “Go, eat and drink, for there is the sound of a heavy rain.”

1 Kings 18:42 So Ahab went off to eat and drink, but Elijah climbed to the top of Carmel, bent down to the ground and put his face between his knees.

1 Kings 18:43 “Go and look towards the sea,” he told his servant. And he went up and looked. “There is nothing there,” he said. Seven times Elijah said, “Go back.”

1 Kings 18:44 The seventh time the servant reported, “A cloud as small as a man’s hand is rising from the sea.” So Elijah said, “Go and tell Ahab,`Hitch up your chariot and go down before the rain stops you.’“

1 Kings 18:45 Meanwhile, the sky grew black with clouds, the wind rose, a heavy rain came on and Ahab rode off to Jezreel.

1 Kings 18:46 The power of the LORD came upon Elijah and, tucking his cloak into his belt, he ran ahead of Ahab all the way to Jezreel.

1 Kings 19:1 Now Ahab told Jezebel everything Elijah had done and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword.

1 Kings 19:2 So Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah to say, “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if by this time tomorrow I do not make your life like that of one of them.”

1 Kings 19:3 Elijah was afraid and ran for his life. When he came to Beersheba in Judah, he left his servant there,

1 Kings 19:4 while he himself went a day’s journey into the desert. He came to a broom tree, sat down under it and prayed that he might die. “I have had enough, LORD,” he said. “Take my life; I am no better than my ancestors.”

1 Kings 19:5 Then he lay down under the tree and fell asleep. All at once an angel touched him and said, “Get up and eat.”

1 Kings 19:6 He looked around, and there by his head was a cake of bread baked over hot coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drank and then lay down again.

1 Kings 19:7 The angel of the LORD came back a second time and touched him and said, “Get up and eat, for the journey is too much for you.”

1 Kings 19:8 So he got up and ate and drank. Strengthened by that food, he travelled for forty days and forty nights until he reached Horeb, the mountain of God.

1 Kings 19:9 There he went into a cave and spent the night. And the word of the LORD came to him: “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:10 He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

1 Kings 19:11 The LORD said, “Go out and stand on the mountain in the presence of the LORD, for the LORD is about to pass by.” Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains apart and shattered the rocks before the LORD, but the LORD was not in the wind. After the wind there was an earthquake, but the LORD was not in the earthquake.

1 Kings 19:12 After the earthquake came a fire, but the LORD was not in the fire. And after the fire came a gentle whisper.

1 Kings 19:13 When Elijah heard it, he pulled his cloak over his face and went out and stood at the mouth of the cave. Then a voice said to him, “What are you doing here, Elijah?”

1 Kings 19:14 He replied, “I have been very zealous for the LORD God Almighty. The Israelites have rejected your covenant, broken down your altars, and put your prophets to death with the sword. I am the only one left, and now they are trying to kill me too.”

1 Kings 19:15 The LORD said to him, “Go back the way you came, and go to the Desert of Damascus. When you get there, anoint Hazael king over Aram.

1 Kings 19:16 Also, anoint Jehu son of Nimshi king over Israel, and anoint Elisha son of Shaphat from Abel Meholah to succeed you as prophet.

1 Kings 19:17 Jehu will put to death any who escape the sword of Hazael, and Elisha will put to death any who escape the sword of Jehu.

1 Kings 19:18 Yet I reserve seven thousand in Israel—all whose knees have not bowed down to Baal and all whose mouths have not kissed him.”

1 Kings 19:19 So Elijah went from there and found Elisha son of Shaphat. He was ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen, and he himself was driving the twelfth pair. Elijah went up to him and threw his cloak around him.

1 Kings 19:20 Elisha then left his oxen and ran after Elijah. “Let me kiss my father and mother good-bye,” he said, “and then I will come with you.” “Go back,” Elijah replied. “What have I done to you?”

1 Kings 19:21 So Elisha left him and went back. He took his yoke of oxen and slaughtered them. He burned the ploughing equipment to cook the meat and gave it to the people, and they ate. Then he set out to follow Elijah and became his attendant.

1 Kings 20:1 Now Ben-Hadad king of Aram mustered his entire army. Accompanied by thirty-two kings with their horses and chariots, he went up and besieged Samaria and attacked it.

1 Kings 20:2 He sent messengers into the city to Ahab king of Israel, saying, “This is what Ben-Hadad says:

1 Kings 20:3 `Your silver and gold are mine, and the best of your wives and children are mine.’“

1 Kings 20:4 The king of Israel answered, “Just as you say, my lord the king. I and all I have are yours.”

1 Kings 20:5 The messengers came again and said, “This is what Ben-Hadad says:`I sent to demand your silver and gold, your wives and your children.

1 Kings 20:6 But about this time tomorrow I am going to send my officials to search your palace and the houses of your officials. They will seize everything you value and carry it away.’“

1 Kings 20:7 The king of Israel summoned all the elders of the land and said to them, “See how this man is looking for trouble! When he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, I did not refuse him.”

1 Kings 20:8 The elders and the people all answered, “Don’t listen to him or agree to his demands.”

1 Kings 20:9 So he replied to Ben-Hadad’s messengers, “Tell my lord the king,`Your servant will do all you demanded the first time, but this demand I cannot meet.’“ They left and took the answer back to Ben-Hadad.

1 Kings 20:10 Then Ben-Hadad sent another message to Ahab: “May the gods deal with me, be it ever so severely, if enough dust remains in Samaria to give each of my men a handful.”

1 Kings 20:11 The king of Israel answered, “Tell him:`One who puts on his armour should not boast like one who takes it off.’“

1 Kings 20:12 Ben-Hadad heard this message while he and the kings were drinking in their tents, and he ordered his men: “Prepare to attack.” So they prepared to attack the city.

1 Kings 20:13 Meanwhile a prophet came to Ahab king of Israel and announced, “This is what the LORD says:`Do you see this vast army? I will give it into your hand today, and then you will know that I am the LORD.’“

1 Kings 20:14 “But who will do this?” asked Ahab. The prophet replied, “This is what the LORD says:`The young officers of the provincial commanders will do it.’“ “And who will start the battle?” he asked. The prophet answered, “You will.”

1 Kings 20:15 So Ahab summoned the young officers of the provincial commanders, 232 men. Then he assembled the rest of the Israelites, 7,000 in all.

1 Kings 20:16 They set out at noon while Ben-Hadad and the 32 kings allied with him were in their tents getting drunk.

1 Kings 20:17 The young officers of the provincial commanders went out first. Now Ben-Hadad had dispatched scouts, who reported, “Men are advancing from Samaria.”

1 Kings 20:18 He said, “If they have come out for peace, take them alive; if they have come out for war, take them alive.”

1 Kings 20:19 The young officers of the provincial commanders marched out of the city with the army behind them

1 Kings 20:20 and each one struck down his opponent. At that, the Arameans fled, with the Israelites in pursuit. But Ben-Hadad king of Aram escaped on horseback with some of his horsemen.

1 Kings 20:21 The king of Israel advanced and overpowered the horses and chariots and inflicted heavy losses on the Arameans.

1 Kings 20:22 Afterwards, the prophet came to the king of Israel and said, “Strengthen your position and see what must be done, because next spring the king of Aram will attack you again.”

1 Kings 20:23 Meanwhile, the officials of the king of Aram advised him, “Their gods are gods of the hills. That is why they were too strong for us. But if we fight them on the plains, surely we will be stronger than they.

1 Kings 20:24 Do this: Remove all the kings from their commands and replace them with other officers.

1 Kings 20:25 You must also raise an army like the one you lost—horse for horse and chariot for chariot—so we can fight Israel on the plains. Then surely we will be stronger than they.” He agreed with them and acted accordingly.

1 Kings 20:26 The next spring Ben-Hadad mustered the Arameans and went up to Aphek to fight against Israel.

1 Kings 20:27 When the Israelites were also mustered and given provisions, they marched out to meet them. The Israelites camped opposite them like two small flocks of goats, while the Arameans covered the countryside.

1 Kings 20:28 The man of God came up and told the king of Israel, “This is what the LORD says:`Because the Arameans think the LORD is a god of the hills and not a god of the valleys, I will deliver this vast army into your hands, and you will know that I am the LORD.'“

1 Kings 20:29 For seven days they camped opposite each other, and on the seventh day the battle was joined. The Israelites inflicted a hundred thousand casualties on the Aramean foot soldiers in one day.

1 Kings 20:30 The rest of them escaped to the city of Aphek, where the wall collapsed on twenty-seven thousand of them. And Ben-Hadad fled to the city and hid in an inner room.

1 Kings 20:31 His officials said to him, “Look, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful. Let us go to the king of Israel with sackcloth round our waists and ropes round our heads. Perhaps he will spare your life.”

1 Kings 20:32 Wearing sackcloth round their waists and ropes round their heads, they went to the king of Israel and said, “Your servant Ben-Hadad says:`Please let me live.'“ The king answered, “Is he still alive? He is my brother.”

1 Kings 20:33 The men took this as a good sign and were quick to pick up his word. “Yes, your brother Ben-Hadad!” they said. “Go and get him,” the king said. When Ben-Hadad came out, Ahab had him come up into his chariot.

1 Kings 20:34 “I will return the cities my father took from your father,” Ben-Hadad offered. “You may set up your own market areas in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria.” [Ahab said,] “On the basis of a treaty I will set you free.” So he made a treaty with him, and let him go.

1 Kings 20:35 By the word of the LORD one of the sons of the prophets said to his companion, “Strike me with your weapon,” but the man refused.

1 Kings 20:36 So the prophet said, “Because you have not obeyed the LORD, as soon as you leave me a lion will kill you.” And after the man went away, a lion found him and killed him.

1 Kings 20:37 The prophet found another man and said, “Strike me, please.” So the man struck him and wounded him.

1 Kings 20:38 Then the prophet went and stood by the road waiting for the king. He disguised himself with his headband down over his eyes.

1 Kings 20:39 As the king passed by, the prophet called out to him, “Your servant went into the thick of the battle, and someone came to me with a captive and said,`Guard this man. If he is missing, it will be your life for his life, or you must pay a talent of silver.'

1 Kings 20:40 While your servant was busy here and there, the man disappeared." "That is your sentence," the king of Israel said. "You have pronounced it yourself."

1 Kings 20:41 Then the prophet quickly removed the headband from his eyes, and the king of Israel recognised him as one of the prophets.

1 Kings 20:42 He said to the king, "This is what the LORD says:`You have set free a man I had determined should die. Therefore it is your life for his life, your people for his people.'"

1 Kings 20:43 Sullen and angry, the king of Israel went to his palace in Samaria.

1 Kings 21:1 Some time later there was an incident involving a vineyard belonging to Naboth the Jezreelite. The vineyard was in Jezreel, close to the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

1 Kings 21:2 Ahab said to Naboth, "Let me have your vineyard to use for a vegetable garden, since it is close to my palace. In exchange I will give you a better vineyard or, if you prefer, I will pay you whatever it is worth."

1 Kings 21:3 But Naboth replied, "The LORD forbid that I should give you the inheritance of my fathers."

1 Kings 21:4 So Ahab went home, sullen and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said, "I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers." He lay on his bed sulking and refused to eat.

1 Kings 21:5 His wife Jezebel came in and asked him, "Why are you so sullen? Why won't you eat?"

1 Kings 21:6 He answered her, "Because I said to Naboth the Jezreelite,`Sell me your vineyard; or if you prefer, I will give you another vineyard in its place.' But he said,`I will not give you my vineyard.'"

1 Kings 21:7 Jezebel his wife said, "Is this how you act as king over Israel? Get up and eat! Cheer up. I'll get you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite."

1 Kings 21:8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, placed his seal on them, and sent them to the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city with him.

1 Kings 21:9 In those letters she wrote: "Proclaim a day of fasting and seat Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1 Kings 21:10 But seat two scoundrels opposite him and have them testify that he has cursed both God and the king. Then take him out and stone him to death."

1 Kings 21:11 So the elders and nobles who lived in Naboth's city did as Jezebel directed in the letters she had written to them.

1 Kings 21:12 They proclaimed a fast and seated Naboth in a prominent place among the people.

1 Kings 21:13 Then two scoundrels came and sat opposite him and brought charges against Naboth before the people, saying, “Naboth has cursed both God and the king.” So they took him outside the city and stoned him to death.

1 Kings 21:14 Then they sent word to Jezebel: “Naboth has been stoned and is dead.”

1 Kings 21:15 As soon as Jezebel heard that Naboth had been stoned to death, she said to Ahab, “Get up and take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite that he refused to sell you. He is no longer alive, but dead.”

1 Kings 21:16 When Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, he got up and went down to take possession of Naboth’s vineyard.

1 Kings 21:17 Then the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite:

1 Kings 21:18 “Go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who rules in Samaria. He is now in Naboth’s vineyard, where he has gone to take possession of it.

1 Kings 21:19 Say to him,`This is what the LORD says: Have you not murdered a man and seized his property?’ Then say to him,`This is what the LORD says: In the place where dogs licked up Naboth’s blood, dogs will lick up your blood—yes, yours!’“
